HOLY NAME SOCIETY

Local Catholic Organization Becomes Active

The regular monthly meeting of the Holy Name Society of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Taneytown, was held in the American Legion Home in Taneytown, on Sunday, March 12, at 2:30 P. M. President David Hemler presided with 30 members present.

Rev. Father Walker gave a very interesting talk prior to the regular business discussion. Plans were made for enlarging our cemetery. This work is to get underway within the next few weeks. Mr. Samuel Breth was appointed as chairman of the ground clearing committee and all members of the Holy Name Society were asked to support Mr. Breth on this undertaking.

The High School boys of St. Joseph's Parish have volunteered their services to fix up the ball diamond that adjoins the school so that the children might have a better place for their out-door games.

The next meeting of the Holy Name Society will be held in the American Legion Home on Tuesday, April 11, 1950 at 8:30 P. M. All members are urgently requested to be present at this meeting. Refreshments will be served.

A Two-Fold Meeting

The Women's Missionary Society of Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, met Tuesday night, March 14. A short business meeting, opened with prayer, was conducted by the president, Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner at which time Mrs. M. Ross Fair was appointed to receive members into the Auxiliary of the National Lutheran Home for the Aged, at Washington, D. C. The membership is one dollar which includes a subscription to the Home's Magazine.

Mrs. Kenneth Gilds and Miss Catherine Hahn, leaders for the evening, held a devotional service. Mrs. William Naill led in prayer. Scripture was read by Mrs. Gilds and songs were sung by the group with Mrs. Mervin Conover accompanying on the piano.

After the devotional service the members of Trinity Circle, who were guests of the Women's Society, came into the meeting. The leader, Mrs. John Chenoweth, announced that the book, "Japan Begins Again," would be introduced by Mrs. Glenn Stahl.

The study of the book was arranged as a play in one act. Mrs. Clarence Naill, who is mission study secretary, invited a group of twelve women to meet with her to study conditions in Japan. The members in her group were: Mrs. Clarence Naill, Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner, Mrs. Kenneth Gilds, Mrs. Merl Ohler, Miss Catherine Hahn, Mrs. Ellis Ohler, Miss Beulah Englar, Miss Mary Reindollar, Mrs. William Naill, Mrs. Francis T. Elliot, Mrs. Luther Luckenbaugh and Mrs. Margaret Nulton. After the study of the book Mrs. John Chenoweth announced that five young women would tell stories of people who have lived in Japan and have seen the value of Christianity. The ones responding were: Mrs. Delmar Riffe, Mrs. George Kiser, Mrs. Edwin Baumgardner, Mrs. Glenn Stahl and Miss Mary Snyder. They were very challenging stories. The method used in our study was acclaimed the most interesting one yet used.

On entering the room all were delightedly surprised to see two tables decorated with a most gorgeous display of beautiful embroidered silk table covers and scarfs. Think of the art and toil that went into the making of these beautiful embroideries. Other interesting articles made in Japan were on display. These displays were made possible through the courtesy of Francis Shum, Jr., Mrs. Roy Smith, and members of the society.

A table decorated with vines and flower arrangements and in readiness to serve tea and cookies was placed in the front part of the room. Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner and Mrs. Lillian Bach poured.

A large map of Japan was hung on the wall in front of the room, and small maps were provided for all who cared to have one. A goodly number was present. We believe the absent members missed a most interesting study and a pleasant social hour.

EMERGENCY BLOOD DONOR SERVICE

The medical doctors and four of the leading organizations in Taneytown, namely, Kiwanis, Lions, Fire Company and The American Legion, have banded together to prepare a list of blood types of those persons who would be voluntary donors whenever their type blood is needed. This list or index, once prepared will greatly facilitate the work of our doctors who are trying to serve us and further, may save more than one life. Your own family might have occasion to call upon a blood donor, therefore, your participation in this program is urgently and respectfully solicited.

The typing will be done by two Technicians from the Annie M. Warner Hospital, in Gettysburg, Pa., in the Taneytown Fire Hall, on April 3, between the hours of 6 and 9 P. M. Put that date on your calendar. Watch this paper next week for more details.

Let's be more community-minded.

The fibers used in making cloth are of two general types: (1) natural fibers, such as cotton, linen, silk and wool; and (2) man-made fibers, such as rayon, nylon and protein fibers.

BLOOD TYPING APR. 3 IN FIREMEN'S BLDG.

Sponsored by the Taneytown Lions Club

President Robert Feeser presided at the meeting of the Taneytown Lions Club held on Tuesday evening at the Taney Inn. The large attendance enjoyed a period of group singing after which President Feeser introduced the following guests from the New Windsor Lions Club: Norman Myers, Charles Fritz, C. J. Manning and Walter Harman. From Freedom District were: R. B. Ellis, J. R. Gardner, O. W. Carlyle and M. E. Burman, Jr. Guest of Lion, Raymond Perry was Officer Ray Yohn of the Taneytown Police. Kermit Reid, Chairman of the Health and Welfare Committee, announced April 3rd from 6:00 to 9:00 P. M. as the time set for all Lion members to present themselves at the Firemen's Building for the purpose of having their blood typed. There will be on hand two technicians from the Annie M. Warner Hospital for this purpose and it is urged that every Lion be there. This is made possible as a result of the efforts of the Lions Club's Health and Welfare Committee who is sponsoring it. This is a very important and worthwhile project as it will make available to the blood bank the correct type of blood needed to save a life in case of emergency.

President Feeser introduced Cpl. S. M. Conrad from the Baltimore office of the Md. State Police. Cpl. Conrad presented some startling facts and figures on the subject of highway accidents. The past year saw a total of 463 persons killed on Maryland highways with 10,000 injured and a loss value, as a result of highway accidents, amounting to $25,000,000.00. 85% of all accidents are caused by bad drivers and not driving conditions. There are four major causes. No. 1 is speed. The impact of an auto, with another object, while traveling 60 M. P. H. is equal to the impact, which would result if the auto dropped to a pavement from atop a ten-story building, or is great enough to cause the Statue of Liberty to be moved twenty inches from its base if struck by an auto while traveling at this rate of speed. Cause No. 2 is failing to yield the right-of-way. No. 3—driving on wrong side of road, and No. 4 is drunken driving which is most dangerous of all. There are five vehicles on the road for which every driver must be aware. They are, the vehicle directly ahead, the vehicle to the rear, the one coming in the opposite direction, the one approaching from an intersection, and the one pulling out from the curb or parked position. At this meeting the club was very fortunate to see the new film, "Drunk Driving" shown by Cpl. Conrad. This new film was prepared and just released in January from Hollywood by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios. This was a well produced film and should be seen by every auto driver and owner. Every person who drives or intends to drive should forever keep in mind the well-words motto—"If you drive, don't drink, if you drink, don't drive." If this is always lived up to it will pay handsomely.

Plans for the Minstrel Show and scheduled to be held April 20th, are about complete and we understand it will be a show well worth anyone's time to see. A Board of Directors meeting will be held Monday evening, March 20th and our next regular meeting will be a father and son affair.

At a meeting of the Ministers of Taneytown last week a gift of $75 was voted and sent to the Rev. Edmund P. Welker as a token of good wishes and helpfulness toward the restoration of the Emmitsburg Evangelical Reformed Church. The Good Friday service was set for April 7 from 12 to 3 p. m. in the E. U. B. church. According to the accustomed pattern there will be seven consecutive services of 20 minutes each, based on the seven words spoken from the cross. The Easter Dawn service was set for April 9 to be held in the Trinity Lutheran Church at 6 a. m. on Easter morning.

The annual Vacation Bible School was set to begin on June 19 to be held again this year in the public school building. Rev. Charles S. Owen was elected dean of the school.

Percentages of the country's 1.1 billion acres of farm land are owned by: 85 by individuals, 6 by corporations, 6 by Government units, and 3 by Indian reserves. But on owner basis, 97% have under 1,000 acres, 3% have over 1,000 acres, and that same 3% also own 41% of the farm land individually owned.

KIWANIS CLUB SEES WAR PICTURES

Part of World War II As Seen by U. S. Signal Corps Shown

The regularly scheduled meeting of the Taneytown Kiwanis Club was held on Wednesday evening at Taney Inn. After the usual round table fellowship and singing under the direction of Wallace Reindollar with Mrs. Yingling accompanying on the piano, the meeting was called to order by President, Lewis Crumpacker.

It was announced that an invitation had been extended the Club to meet with the local Lions Club on either the 25th or 26th of April and all present agreed that they would accept this invitation.

The program for the evening was in charge of the Attendance and Membership committee with Capt. Jere Schaefer in charge. Capt. Schaefer stated that he had prepared quite a lengthy oration, but inasmuch as the picture, which he was about to show, taken of actual happenings in the 2nd great war as photographed and released by the Signal Corps, would take quite a bit of time, he therefore would refrain from this.

The picture entitled "Lest We Forget" was made up of official photographs by the Signal Corps and covered various happenings in the stages of the war against Germany beginning with the preparations made in England covering the D-Day activity, the Battle of the Bulge, and on up into final conversion with the Russian forces.

Kermit Reid, Jr., operated the projection equipment.

Next week's meeting will be in charge of the Public Relations Committee with Kiwanian Al Baldwin in charge.

The newly appointed Deputy State Health Officers for Carroll County, Dr. W. Ross Cameron, is to be the speaker at which time he will outline some of the plans which are now in the making for the various activities of the County Health Dept. All present were encouraged to attend the inter-club meeting as sponsored by the Westminster Club in regard to their Maryland Day Program to be held on Saturday, March 25 at Western Maryland College.

The Support of Churches Committee is busily engaged in making plans for the usual Good Friday and Easter Services. Chairman Raymond Wright will be assisted in this activity by Kiwanians Darrell Nelson and John Skiles.

Small Game Refuges

One of the Conservation measures in a complete farm conservation plan are the small game refuges. Small areas of from 5 to 25 acres in size, not useful for cropping, because of the amount of erosion, slope or type of soil are selected. They should be located about 2 1/2 miles apart.

These areas are fenced, stocked and managed in conjunction with the Maryland Game and Inland Fish Commission. The Management of these areas includes the improvement of cover and food for the small game song birds. While these areas are posted, the habits of small game are such that good hunting may be found within a radius of 2.5 miles of these areas while the refuges themselves provide meeting and breeding places for reproduction.

Studies that have been made on these farms, indicates that where food and cover are well established song bird population has been increased from 2 to 3 pairs to 20-22 pairs.

Organizations such as the Taneytown Rod and Gun Club have taken an active part in these Conservation measures. This club was organized 5 years ago with 123 active members. The Club was incorporated on January 14, 1949. The principle purpose of the club being the Conservation of the fish and wildlife population.

An area of about 22 acres was purchased near Taneytown, Work was started on a 3 acre lake in March and was completed in April of 1949. The area was fenced as a small game refuge. Signs were erected telling the general public that a refuge had been established.

The Soil Conservation Service of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture furnished 3000 White, Red and Scotch pine to retire 3 acres to forest. 1000 multiflora rose to establish a living fence, 15 lbs of Bi-Color Lespedeza has been seeded for food.

The Game Commission has released ring neck pheasant, rabbits, and Mallard ducks in the area. The lake has been stocked with 3000 blue gills and 300 big mouth black bass. The pond fertilized to produce the necessary food for the fish.

The area in general has been landscaped and prepared for the building of a club house in 1950. The Club now has a membership of 167 men, leaders in the business and religious life of their community. Officers for the year 1950 are, David C. Hiltbrich, President; Singleton Remsburg, Secretary; William B. Hopkins, Treasurer.

Grover C. Zimmerman, Technician, Soil Conservation Service, Times Building, Westminster, has developed the plan for the Gun Club.

THIS AND THAT (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!

I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

There is a lady "around the town" whose beautiful penmanship would be the envy of every high school girl! Did you know, Mr. Businessman (and regardless of the business) that your business executives judge you after they meet your wife?

Well, everything is going plastic these days even to the new idea of the Plastic Suit which aids women to lose excess poundage! What next?

A lady and her ten year old daughter who celebrated their birthdays on the same day! What a grand birthday present of a little Cherub in your arms! The real Gift of God! That ten year old girl of Taneytown or any town in a few more years will be the Belle!

The first time driving without gas! Thought surely old Lincoln had gone back on me. Glad it was no further than the Square on York Street where I met those nice, kind and friendly neighbors of our home town!

The young dentist "around our town" not alone is an excellent dentist but can cook a meal as fine as any housewife. Sumpin'?

A very beautiful letter arrived from "International Silverware" stating how very much all the executives and the entire office force of that concern enjoyed reading the writeup of Rogers Brothers in a recent column. Thinking of letters! What a grand personal one from Arthur Godfrey.

Now, here's a funny one. A street car conductor in Baltimore stopped the street car in the middle of the block and all the passengers were most curious and wondering if anything was wrong. As they looked through the windows saw the said conductor go to the curb of the pavement and pick up one of those green backs.

Several weeks ago, I asked a number of business men in Carroll County who operate stores which cigarette had the most sales and this was out of pure curiosity due to the elaborate TV shows which the various brands put on. To my astonishment, these men stated, "Luckies." Yet this company does not put on any TV show, only a brief advertisement.

TWICE TOLD TALE

St. Patrick is the patron Saint of Ireland. Whence he came no one seems to know.

After his death, so the story goes his friends and followers got into a dispute as to the date of his birth. One faction claimed he was born on the eighth of March, and the other that he was born on the ninth, as they could not agree they settled it Irish fashion by adding the two dates together and arrived at the 17. Whether that is true or false the deponent sayeth not, but it is an interesting tale and is worthy to come under the heading of twice told tales.

I worked with two Irishmen on the farm in my youth and admired them very much. One smoked a short stemmed clay pipe which he would stick in the band of his straw hat when not in use, which was seldom.

He was a real Irishman and had travelled all over the United States, and by his wit and sang froid was welcomed wherever he went.

We never discussed religion so I do not know what his was, or whether he had any. He was a good fellow and a typical Irishman.

Do You Want To Cut Your Federal Taxes?

Something For Nothing

You know that you can't keep drawing money out of your bank account without ever putting any in. The bank doesn't play that way. This is also true of Federal financing. Every dollar spent must sooner or later be collected in the form of taxes.

Many of these taxes are hidden, such as the $2.44 you pay on a $30 radio, or the 62 cents on the average alarm clock. These are in addition to the direct taxes of which the average citizen is painfully aware.

Tax money is necessary to run our government. But all too much of it is wasted by inefficiency, duplication of effort, overlapping of Federal agencies or appropriations for services to pressure groups.

Heretofore, no one has known how much these government services cost us through waste and inefficiency. But some surprising facts have been revealed by the Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government. This twelve-man, bi-partisan Commission was created by Congress with the approval of the President. At the suggestion of Mr. Truman, former President Hoover was made its Chairman.

The Army, Navy, and Air Force asked for $30 billions of appropriations after being told that $15 billions was all the Nation could afford. The Army applied for $29,000 tropical uniforms at $129 a piece and homes for military personnel in Alaska at $58,000 apiece. Yet every dollar spent in such activities comes out of your pocket in the form of taxes.

Fifty Federal agencies jostle each other collecting statistics at an annual cost to you, the taxpayer, of $43,000,000. Many of the statistics are of use only to small groups, or collect dust in government files.

The Corps of Army Engineers and the Bureau of Reclamation are expert at selling the "something for nothing" idea to the American public. Underestimation of costs appears to be their specialty. The original price tag put on the Colorado-Big Thompson project was $44 millions. Its final cost was $131,800,000. Such discrepancies, the Commission wryly notes, "hardly can be explained by increases in labor and material costs."

You may obtain information about how you can fight waste and inefficiency in our government by writing to the Citizens Committee for Reorganization of the Executive Branch of the Government, 1421 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia 2, Penna. Also write your Congressman! Tell him you want laws enacted which will put into effect the suggestions of the Commission!

Home Sewing

Home sewing definitely is far from a seasonal activity now, if official pattern sales can be a criterion. Pattern companies report a fairly balanced distribution throughout the year. During 1948 the records show that January was the weakest month, but still only five percent away from the volumes of the top months. The top months were no more than three per cent more than other months with the exception of January.

Garlic Bread

To make garlic bread for serving with special salads or casseroles, cut a loaf of French or Vienna bread into thick slices, but do not cut entirely through into the bottom crust. Mash a clove of garlic into three or four tablespoons of margarine. Spread this between the slices of bread and pop the loaf into the oven until hot and crisp.

Radio Waves

Radio waves can travel all the way around the earth because there is a layer of gases high in the atmosphere made of partially broken, or "ionized" atoms, which bend the radio waves down and send them back to earth again. This so-called Kennelly-Heaviside layer, is really several separate layers.

Uncle Sam Says

The first oil well was drilled in 1859, ninety years ago. Drilling is still going on even under the ocean. Occasionally one of those wells bursts into flame and "up in smoke" go much of the profits. Much the same thing happens when many of my nephews and nieces allow their money to burn holes in their pockets. Your government offers a safe, sure way of holding on to some of that pay check. That is through the Payroll Savings Plan for the purchase of U. S. Savings Bonds.

Pipe-Hanger

Man Aloft Nine Hours

NEW YORK.—Fifty-two year old Lawrence Sandusky clung dangerously to a pipe 35 feet above the ground for almost nine hours after his leg was caught between a drain pipe and the building.

He was released by police and his only injury was a cut on his left leg which was treated by an ambulance surgeon.

Sandusky told the police that he returned home about 11 at night and found he had lost his keys. He decided not to awaken his wife or the neighbors and went to the roof and lowered himself on the heavy drain pipe in the rear of the building, a four-story structure.

Sandusky said he had just reached the third floor, on which his apartment is located, when his leg became caught in the bracket that connects the drain pipe with the building. He shouted for help but there was no response.

Intermittently, Sandusky said, he called for help in the early morning hours, but was unable to arouse anyone.

Fake Atomic Energy Panaceas Peddled By Quack Doctors

WASHINGTON.—Widespread belief that atomic energy can work miracles in medicine has led to a rich harvest for quacks peddling panaceas, according to officials of the Federal food and drug administration.

The administration's inspectors trying to protect the public from "magic cures" that are either useless or downright dangerous, have been kept busy by a boom in weirdly-named medicines and fantastic-looking gadgets that deceive the gullible by borrowing some of the wonder-words from the new vocabulary of nuclear fission.

They have seized, for example, articles branded as radio-active salts, U-235 drinking water, an atomic skin-bleacher, and a device sold briskly at $50 each on the claim that it emitted "Z-rays" which would lengthen life by expanding the "hydrogen atoms" of the body.

Almost everyone has read about the results that medical science has achieved, and expects to achieve, with the radioactive isotopes produced in the atomic furnace at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

But unfortunately, officials say, too many people seem not to realize that this truly sensational new weapon against disease can be entrusted to only the most highly-qualified doctors, hospitals and research institutions. Wrongly used, radioactivity is not a healer but a killer.

That is why federal inspectors are genuinely relieved when they find that a quack "atomic" cure is merely worthless.

While many of the panaceas that, according to the sellers, relieve pain by invisible radiation are simply fraudulent, there have been a few cases in which the food and drug administration has found to its horror that a preparation, sold without a doctor's prescription and taken without supervision, really was dangerously radioactive.

Navy's Only Ready Fleet Is Mediterranean Force

WASHINGTON.—The navy's biggest continuous operation on the high seas today is its Mediterranean force, called the sixth task fleet.

It is the only United States fleet permanently organized, fully manned and ready to fight. The rest of the navy's 682 active ships are scattered, most of them only at peacetime strength.

The Mediterranean fleet has a sharp significance—political, diplomatic and military. And it is doing things to the people of the Mediterranean and the men of the U. S. navy—making them friendlier, more understanding and more respectful toward one another.

The United States has had a strong fleet in the Mediterranean Sea since the 1942 invasion of North Africa. It has had a few ships there off and on for 150 years.

Adm. Richard L. Conolly, at the head of the U.S. navy operations in that part of the world, says a strong American fleet should be kept in the Mediterranean permanently. His title is commander-in-chief, U. S. naval force, eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean.

At his headquarters in London he recently gave his views to this reporter and three other newspapermen who visited him and later sailed with the Mediterranean fleet on maneuvers.

"We are now a Mediterranean power," said Conolly. "By having our fleet there, we are demonstrating our interest in the Mediterranean countries. The Mediterranean fleet has already stiffened the determination of the Greeks and Turks to maintain their independence."

The navy's official statement of reasons for keeping naval units in the eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean says they are there: "(1)—To support the allied occupation forces and the allied military government. . . (2)—To protect U. S. interests and support U.S. policies in the areas."

MARCH 17

Missouri Town Erects a Shrine, Takes the Name of St. Patrick

CITIZENS OF ST. PATRICK, MO., declare that it is the only town in the world named after the patron saint of Ireland. They believe that the town's name has brought it the patronage of St. Patrick, and they have erected a temporary shrine to the saint which they intend to replace as soon as they are financially able.

The community feels that the task of erecting a national shrine of St. Patrick is too great a task to attempt alone, and has issued a call for help from those all over the country who honor St. Patrick. The guiding spirit of this endeavor is Rev. Francis O'Duignan.

Some years ago, while visiting his parents in Ireland, Father Duignan made a pilgrimage to Croagh Patrick, and from that sacred mount, he brought back an altar stone. At St. Patrick's Purgatory, that shrine of Ireland on Lough Derg, he procured a chalice and from Rome a relic of the great apostle of Erin.

As he knelt with deep emotion at St. Patrick's graveside in Downpatrick, Father Duig-nan says, to ask his blessing on this work, there came a conviction that his benediction was already on it and that he would bless all who aided in any way the erection of a national shrine in the only town in the world honored by his name.

On March 9, each year, Father Duignan opens a solemn novena of masses for those who help in the realization of the shrine. The chalice and altar stone are used in the masses, and petitions are reverently touched to the relic.

For a number of years, letters were received at St. Patrick for decoration and postmarking and forwarding to the addresses. Much of this mail came to the post office and began to pile up in such amounts that it could not be handled properly. The post office department has issued an order that such work cannot be continued by the post office at St. Patrick.

A shamrock medal is sent by Father Duignan to all who help St. Patrick in achieving its shrine.

St. Patrick used the shamrock to illustrate the Trinity—its three sections illustrating three Persons in one God.

Founded in 1910, Camp Fire Girls has proposed an annual birthday project since 1916. This is always a program of current interest in which all members may participate.

The 1950 birthday project offers Camp Fire Girls countless opportunities for adventures in creative living and for exploration in the world around them. They will learn how much richer their lives are in the world of today because of the many contributions made by great men and women of the past. They will develop a new zest for creative accomplishment which, due to the modern network of communication, they may share with others living in far-away places.

Though living in the "canned" world of today with television, radio, films and machines, the "Discovery Unlimited" project will show Camp Fire members that there are many new things to be created and to be explored. The girls will discover fresh beauty in nature, exciting ways to develop their skills, and appreciation of their own homes, communities and country.

JUNALUSKA

It has already been pointed out that the Southern Appalachian area, is potentially a land of fabulous riches. Much of this is yet unexploited by the ingenuity of man. Here is a greater variety of trees than anywhere else in the world. Here are 75 million acres of hardwood forests, half of America's supply at the present time. Here is one sixth of America's potential water power, and one fourth of our bituminous coal supply. According to the National Geographic Survey there is enough coal in the Appalachian area to supply the country for 2360 years.

Here also is an area endowed with riches of scenic grandeur unsurpassed by the Alps according to tourists who have traveled in the old world. Here is the home of the rhododendron, the azalea, and mountain laurel. In the spring millions of gorgeous blossoms cover the face of the earth with blankets of white, lavender, pink and flame. People have been known to weep with joy as they, from some elevated position, have looked down on such a panorama of beauty.

The area is also endowed with spiritual riches. The last three episodes have attempted to describe how many national religious bodies have their summer capitols in The Land of the Sky, such as the Southern Baptists at Ridgecrest, the Southern Presbyterians at Montreat, and the Southern Y. M. C. A. at Blue Ridge. Today's story is about another religious capitol. That is the Southern Methodist Church. This capitol is located at Lake Junaluska.

Of course the Southern Methodist Church, as a separate body, is no more. A few years ago it was merged into the union of Methodist bodies. By this union Lake Junaluska Assembly now remains as the religious capitol of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church, the largest religious body in America. Lake Junaluska Assembly located in the midst of a paradise of rare beauty and grandeur. It is situated 28 miles west of Asheville, near the entrance of the Great Smoky Mountain Park which is said to be visited by more people than any other park in America. The Assembly grounds comprise 2500 acres adorned with a beautiful lake in the center. This lake covers 250 acres of mountain sparkling water which offers every kind of aquatic sports. This is by far the largest and most magnificent lake that adorns any of the many summer religious capitols found in that area.

THE LEGEND OF JUNALUSKA

This choice place takes its name from a former chief of the Cherokee Indians whose reservation is near by. From pre-historic times the Cherokees inhabited this southern mountain area. They were a lordly people, the largest and most cultured tribe of all the American Indians, and the inventors of the Indian alphabet. Junaluska was one of the most famous chiefs of this tribe. He and his braves rendered distinguished service to the American cause against England in the War of 1812. They fought on the side of Andrew Jackson. They saved Jackson's life in the Battle of Horseshoe Bend. But when Jackson became president of the U. S. he remembered not what the Cherokees had done for him. On the contrary he ordered them to be transported west to a new reservation in the Indian territory. That was in 1838. They were rounded up like cattle and driven westward. On the road 40,000 of them died. A few escaped and hid in the mountains. Chief Junaluska, then an old man, was one of the exiles. His soul longed for the mountains of his fathers. Later the refugees who had remained hiding in their native haunts, secured amnesty. Junaluska was permitted to return to them.

Then the State of N. C. tried to undo the wrongs committed against the great chief. By an act of the State Legislature he was highly honored, and made an American citizen, given a large sum of money, and a big tract of land. When he died he was buried at Junaluska, named after him. A big stone was placed at his grave as a shrine, an iron fence around it, and a bronze slab upon it with the following inscription:

"Here lies the body of the Cherokee Chief, Junaluska, and his wife. Together with his warriors he saved the life of General Jackson at the Battle of Horseshoe Bend. And for his bravery and faithfulness, North Carolina made him a citizen and gave him land in Graham County. He died November 20, 1858, aged more than 100 years. This monument was erected to his memory by General Josephus Winston Chapter D. A. R. 1910."

This Methodist Dist. religious capitol was established in 1908, gift of laymen of that church. They patterned it after Northfield, Mass., so well known around the world. After surveying many possible sites the committee gave this reason for choosing Junaluska: "This spot 'has in it the rarest combination of beauties and conveniences to be found in a similar compass anywhere. The mountains which surround it are rich in that beauty which so gracefully glides into the sublime as to rejoice the timid child and inspire the strongest man. It is the most wholesome climate in the world, and above the mosquito line."

Junaluska is a very accessible place. The main highway runs by the gate. Thirty busses pass by the place each day. Also it is on the Southern Railway. As you approach the entrance you see a huge white domed building with long galleries and large colonial pillars, standing on a pinnacle above the lake. This palatial structure, the center of activity, is a combined hotel and educational center. Here the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council, the District Superintendent's Conference, the Methodist School of Missions, and the Salvation Army Officials of the South hold their summer conferences. In front of this central building stands a huge lighted cross, above the lake, that can be seen for miles at night.

This, of course, is only one among hundreds of palatial structures that adorn the grounds and serve as headquarters for various activities of the church. In fact Junaluska is a little city within itself. Hundreds of Methodist families own their homes. And they are magnificent homes. These include many outstanding leaders and statesmen of the church, such as Bishops, Editors, Secretaries, College and University Presidents and Professors, and distinguished laymen. It is becoming a real paradise for retired Methodist ministers.

In the near-by coves and mountain recesses, lives the native mountaineer in his primitive cabins, with his looms, rifles, ancient water mills grinding grist, the champion square dancers of America, whom President Roosevelt, a few years ago, invited to dance before his distinguished guests, the King and Queen of England.

To Lake Junaluska is brought the most distinguished statesmen of the church to lead conferences during June, July and August. They cover every phase of the church world. These leaders are chosen from the best in all denominations. You don't have to be a Methodist to go there. The invitation is open to all, and expressed in these words: "Come ye, and let us go up into the mountain of the Lord."

It is claimed that for natural beauty of mountains and lake, varied recreation, relaxation exercise uplifting fellowship, training in service, spiritual enrichment, acquaintance with Methodist leaders, and for a closer walk with God, Junaluska is unexcelled, and one of the glories of America.

SAINT PATRICKS DAY

Saint Patrick's Day has come and gone just like ALL time that's moving on. 'Tis said that Patrick in his rounds banished all snakes from Irelands grounds.

If so, where did he chase them, pray? In Irish whiskey, some do say. He confined them that they might pe A torment e'er to Ireland free.

Saint Patrick strove with all his might

To teach the Irish how to fight,
And well he did that task you know
Jest how to strike a stunning blow.
He gave to Ireland bright and gay
Her choicest weapon, the shielalah,
And with that weapon in her hand
Freshmen fight for their dear land.

Irish fight? Did I say, Ah, Yea,
He'll fight an enemy to the last
And when its done—the fracas past
If he no enemy can find, he'll start
A right good quarrel as a part
Of the necessity and art to keep
His hand in practice. He ne'er will stop.

Until at last he's had his say
'Tis Irish still, St. Patrick's Day.

If you are choosing marquisette curtains for the living room or bedroom, and have decided on nylon, pick those made from bright rather than dull nylon yarn. The bright nylon is much more resistant to sunlight than is the dull material, say the manufacturers, and is less likely to deteriorate from constant exposure to a hot sun.

A serious farm fire hazard has developed with the recent trend toward the use of artificial heat to dry corn. A similar problem also exists with the curing of tobacco.

Just answer this simple question!

WHY should any business escape income taxes?

The tax-writing Ways and Means Committee of Congress has been holding hearings in Washington on TAXING THE UNTAXED. All types of organizations having federal income tax exemptions on commercial business income have had a chance to be heard.

- UNIVERSITIES HAVE SAID 'YES' ... we're willing to pay income tax on our commercial business income.
- CHARITABLE TRUSTS HAVE SAID 'YES' ... tax us, too, on the income we get from commercial operations.
- LABOR UNIONS HAVE SAID 'YES' ... we want to pay our share. Tax us on our commercial business income.

But the CO-OPS still say 'NO!' Why?

Why should any commercial business escape paying federal income taxes on any of its business income? Co-operative corporations are now doing more than $17 BILLION in commercial, profit-making business every year ... paying little or no federal income taxes. They should pay like everyone else. WRITE YOUR CONGRESSMAN TODAY in care of the House Office Building, Washington, D. C. Tell him you want him to vote to

Who Is Happy?

If you were asked the question, "Are you happy?" could you answer with an emphatic "Yes," or would you have to admit that for your happiness is like a pendulum swinging back and forth, advancing and receding?

The pursuit of happiness has always been a focus of human endeavor. In one way or another people try to attain it, but because they do not understand its true nature, they fail to find any lasting contentment. Too often, the human concept of it is weighted down with a desire for material possessions, accompanied by the double-barreled fear of not obtaining them and of losing them.

The real essence of happiness is spiritual. Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, says of it in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 57): "Happiness is spiritual, born of Truth and Love. It is unselfish; therefore it cannot exist alone, but requires all mankind to share it."

Happiness arises, then, from sharing the blessings which divine Love bestows so abundantly upon all. It can never be the result of acquiring material things, nor is it found only through success in human accomplishment. To those who were concerned over their physical needs and possessions, the great Teacher, Christ Jesus, said (Matthew 6:33), "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

Because happiness is a mental state, it is not dependent upon and cannot be affected by any material circumstances. It is not a static condition, but involves activity. In proportion as a sense of self and self-seeking is put off, happiness is won. Self-love must be obliterated, and a broad, universal love for God and man must be gained. Human will needs to be relinquished, and God's will obeyed. These qualifications would seem to indicate a great deal of self-sacrifice in order to obtain happiness, but the sacrifice is only of a false sense of self, which is replaced by the real individuality of man as God's image. As this true concept of man is understood, the factors which contribute to human contentment—companionship, home, health, abundance—are manifested.

In those nine statements in his Sermon on the Mount which have come to be known as the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:3-12), Christ Jesus has given a clear pattern for the achievement of happiness.

For example, the third beatitude is, "Blessed for happy are the meek; for they shall inherit the earth." Meekness, free from pride, possessiveness, and false ambition, includes a grateful sense of appreciation for all the Soul-expressing beauty surrounding us, for countless glories of earth and sky, which everyone can share and love.

Or the fifth beatitude: "Blessed are the merciful; for they shall obtain mercy." Mercy, compassion, consideration, kindness, love, generosity—these qualities are reflected back in the measure that they are unselfishly expressed.

Happiness is the result of right motives, right thinking, and right acting. It is a realization of man's true purpose, which is constantly to express God and His goodness. . . . —The Christian Science Monitor.

The Living Faith

Lesson for March 19, 1950

MANY a funeral sermon has been preached over the Christian church, but somehow the corpse never stays put. What keeps it going? All sorts of explanations have been given by unsympathetic outsiders. The church (we are told) is an upper-class hobby, or a lower-class opiate; it is a social club, it is a burial society, it panders to pride, or it is a perverse form of self-torture; it is kept alive by a well-run organization. Such explanations do not explain. The truth is at heart quite simple: The Church is kept alive by faith. What is Christian faith, the faith of the church? A study of the Scripture for this week, or a broader search through the New Testament from end to end, will convince any impartial reader of the falsehood of some of the notions about what Christian faith is.

Some have claimed that it is nothing but faith in the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Let the reader try to find this in the New Testament if he can. If you had said this to an early Christian, he would have replied along this line: That is just the problem—how can we become sons of God? How can men achieve brotherhood? Others tell us that faith is belief in a series of doctrines.

Let the reader search the New Testament and see if he can find there anything about faith in a creed. Sometimes this notion takes another form—that faith originally was a belief that Jesus' beliefs were true; in other words, that faith is accepting the "religion of Jesus."

Now the church from the beginning believed that Jesus' thoughts were true thoughts; but faith was never a simple second-hand acceptance of any one's creed, not even that of Jesus. The faith we find in the New Testament is none of these things. Still less is it faith in the saints, in Mary, or in an "infallible" church.

Faith: Not About, But In . . .
THE FAITH that broke out in glorious light in those early days of the church, and has continued shining down through the centuries, was not belief about anything or anybody, it was belief IN Some One; and that Some One was Jesus Christ.

There is a simply astonishing variety of ways in which he is spoken of in the New Testament. He is Son of Man, he is teacher and healer, he is the first-born of many brothers; he is Priest and Sacrifice, he is the Propitiation, the Reconciler of men to God; he is Master and Lord, he is the Word—that is, what God has to say to us; he is the Son of God, he sits on the throne of the universe, he will judge every man; he is the pattern for every man's character.

To put it quite bluntly, the church believed (and still believes) in a supernatural Christ and not only in a human Jesus. They believed in him as a teacher, as the Teacher indeed; but not merely as one whose teachings had been interrupted by an untimely death. They did not "play down" his death, on the contrary they played it up.

Christ crucified for us is always strongly in their minds. But they were far from leaving him as it were on a crucifix.

Any form of Christianity that thinks of Jesus chiefly as a Christmas baby; or a star-eyed idealist; or as a pathetic figure hanging on a crucifix is a perversion of New Testament ways of thought. Everywhere in the center is the Christ who "was dead and is alive forevermore."

There Is No Other
A YOUNG MOSLEM who became a Christian and is very happy about it, was asked what it was that changed him, for Moslems are hard to change. It was not an argument, he said, it was the lives of some missionaries in Iran whom he knew.

He wanted what they had—it was as simple as that. And he went on to say this: "Christianity doesn't have much in theology that Mohammedanism doesn't have. There is just one thing Christianity has that we didn't have, nor anything like it; Jesus Christ."

That is what—that is who wins men today, and that was the secret of the early church, and that is the secret today of the living church everywhere: Christ alive by faith in the lives of those who love him.

THIS AND THAT

Observer has said that very same thing.
Did you know that a tubeless tire by Goodrich is out at last which is puncture proof? It will be on the market in the near future. That will be heaven sent. And I think you know just what I mean.

Heard a very wise saleslady remark, the real reason for the present actions and manners of children of today is for the simple reason that the parents give the off-spring entirely too much of everything. Could be.

What a charming cape-suit (ensemble) was made for Your Observer by that nice artistic bachelor lady 'around the town'. It appears as one of the suits in that ritz "Bazaar" magazine. First time I have had any thing 'home made' since the days when I designed my clothes for the apt fingers of my eldest sister who made dresses so beautifully that they could be worn inside out.

Did you know that our grand State of Maryland is by far the most prosperous in these United States and we should try to keep it that way and vote again for that executive in "The Mansion"—our own Governor Lane who is 'tops' from A to Z!

My readers will be interested to know that dear little Gretchen was informed by the German authorities that her Mother is still alive and not dead as formerly stated during the awful bombing!

Calling all housewives! You can have the greatest confidence in that honest salesman at the "Potomac Edison". He tells you actual facts. He has a marvelous personality and is not persistent. He tells the truth about his merchandise and Your Observer would rather deal with any individual whom I can trust! Then, too—no Disct. Supt. could be finer!

Welcome to the chain store manager! Last week, Your Observer was under the Doctor's care and I will always remember how very kind this manager was in aiding me. Feel confident he has what it takes for a store manager! Best wishes!

The chauffeur of that long ago personality, Rudolf Valentino still resides in California on a ranch where all the celebrities visit when they desire to get away from the Press and be in peace and quietness!

It is a known fact many are trying it. Drive slowly at a speed not over 40 per—all the way and at all times for it saves gas and you will realize it when you check up at the end of each week!

The excellent mechanics in all our Service stations are really something to crow about. They are most obliging any time, too and that is the part which all of us like! Thinking about the "Amoco" station man. He gave Lincoln a Super-Duper bath that his body glistened to the extent of 'no new paint job this year! Nice!

So long, Folks. Have a grand week-end. Be good and be careful. Will be seeing you D. V. Until next week, I am,

Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

ALUMNI TEAMS PLAY

The Taneytown H. S. Alumni basketball teams played again this past week, playing Tuesday night in the T. H. S. auditorium.

The Alumni girls played Sell's girls of Hanover, a team sponsored by Sells Sporting Goods store. The boys played the New Windsor Forty-Niners after a last minute cancellation by the Union Bridge Vets who were scheduled to play.

The girls game was a very thrilling game, probably the best game seen to date, with Taneytown winning by the score of 31 to 29. Hanover led by one point at the end of the first quarter, only to have Taneytown come back and lead at the half by 3 points. In the third quarter Hanover scored 11 points while Taneytown made only one field goal. But the tables were turned again in the fourth and final period when Taneytown scored eight points while they held their opponents scoreless for the second straight game. The game could have been won in the last few minutes for either team from the free-throw line. Each team had 5 fouls and not one tally was made from free throws in those last minutes. The girls team has a very good record with six wins against only one defeat this year.

The boys game was also a close contest until the last period when Taneytown's boys turned it into a rout. Although the score was tied 26 to 26 at the end of the third quarter, Taneytown scored 28 points in the final quarter to win 54 to 44. High scorers were J. Harner for Taneytown and J. Greene for New Windsor who each had 18 points to their credit.

Many thanks are given the New Windsor boys for coming over upon such short notice and giving the basketball fans the game which was expected.

All members of the teams are urged to be present at the regular meeting of the Alumni Association Monday night at 7:30.

The scores by quarters Boys Game: New Windsor 11 6 11 9 18-44 Taneytown 8 10 8 28-54

Girls Game: Hanover 10 8 11 0-29 Taneytown 9 12 2 8-31
