RECREATION IS IMPORTANT

Recently a civic club of Dolestown, Ohio sponsored a three day carnival in conjunction with two organizations. The first two nights were rained out, but on the last night a large crowd attended and the club netted about $1,000 as its share. The profit is set aside for the improvement of the park which the club has purchased and equipped.

KIWANIANS MEET

Dr. Sponsellor was the Speaker

Dr. Edwin H. Sponsellor, Ph. D., Professor of Religion at Hood College, Frederick, Md., addressed the local Kiwanis Club at their regular meeting on Wednesday, March 29 at Taney Inn. In the absence of President, Lewis Crumpacker, Vice-President, David Smith presided. Group singing as usual was conducted under the able leadership of Wallace Reindollar and accompanied by Mrs. Estella Yingling on the piano.

The program for the evening was in charge of the House and Reception committee with Kiwanian Wallace Yingling in charge and was in recognition of the teaching profession. Dr. Sponsellor captioned his talk "Responsibilities for Citizenship". Being well known in the community for having served ten months as supply pastor to the Grace Evangelical and Reformed Church in Taneytown, the speaker talked with considerable freedom and quite intimate knowledge of the problems of our community. He stated that teachers and those connected with the teaching profession have the greatest challenge in connection with our individual responsibilities for citizenship in this great country of ours. The American opportunity system and the safeguarding and preservation of our Democratic Way of Life with all of its insecurities is in the hands of those who are engaged in teaching and who formulate the thinking of the young people who are citizens of tomorrow.

In the course of his talk Dr. Sponsellor charged each individual member of the club plus those who were visiting to take an active part in the functions of the local state and federal government. He stated that in 1896 approximately 83% of those eligible to vote in the United States exercised that privilege and that progressively from that time down to our most recent Presidential Election in 1948, when only 50% of those registered exercised their franchise, the percentage has decreased. This is an alarming condition which should arouse within all well-thinking citizens a desire to encourage everyone to take advantage of their rights and privileges of this great country. He stated that because he knew the audience as well as he did, he would endeavor to explain his feelings on the matter in the following three simple illustrations which are centered about the gripes of the average American citizen. First, The conditions of our state and county highways and the fact that they are in this condition because there is not enough interest shown by the citizens to see to it that the monies collected are used for the purpose for which they are collected. Second, the taxes both federal, state and local. Most of us gripe considerably about taxes, he said, but we lose sight of the fact that we can actually do something about correcting them by accepting the opportunity and responsibility by first exercising our right to vote and secondly by taking an active part in the political policies of our community, state and nation. Third, the curriculum taught in the public schools has received much unjust and keep this country of ours safe for familiar with the function of the education system of our state and local community. He challenged those present with the fact that we did not provide sufficient means to afford better opportunities in regard to getting more adequate facilities and to encourage more capable teaching on the part of those who are now in the teaching profession as well as encouraging others into the profession who have the ability to make worthwhile contributions to the endeavor. One of the outstanding things mentioned was the need for more adequate recreation facilities both indoor and outdoor. (We here in Taneytown are quite fortunate in having an association which is endeavoring to sponsor a recreation park in order that our young people will have the facilities which they need in order to enjoy wholesome recreation. It is the opportunity and also the duty and responsibility of each member of the community to share in this project.)

Several alarming incidents were mentioned which resulted from lack of adequate recreation facilities. Let us not shun our responsibilities, stated Dr. Sponsellor, for we are faced with a great challenge and that challenge is for a more sincere desire to make criticism from any who are not democracy.

Three guests were present who are members of the Westminster Club, namely, George Harris, Jim Lantz, Herb Anders. Miss Eva Mae Davis, student teacher at Taneytown, rendered a splendid piano solo. Miss Davis was the guest of Kiwanian and Mrs. Wallace Yingling. Next week's meeting will be in charge of the Support of Churches Committee of which Raymond Wright is the Chairman. All members of the club are cooperating with the blood typing project to be held on April 3 in the Firemen's Building and are busily engaged in the promotion of the Good Friday Quiet Hour Service to be held from 12 noon until 3 P. M. at the E. U. B. Church. The Easter Dawn Service which is scheduled this year to begin at 6 A. M., is to be held at the Lutheran Church. An interesting program has been planned for this service.

A well-integrated attack of all interested agencies will be necessary if the Maryland farmer is to be freed of a costly weed burden. This cost runs into thousands of dollars each year in the state.

When Christ Arose, is the name of the beautiful Easter Cantata to be given in the Presbyterian Church on Easter Sunday, at 7:30 P. M. This will be given by an augmented choir under the leadership of Mrs. Wallace Yingling, and assisted by Miss Hazel Hess.

This is the first time that such a Cantata has been undertaken in the Presbyterian Church. For many weeks the choir has been rehearsing for the varied parts. It is expected that the Cantata will take the major part of the evening church service on Easter in celebration of the Resurrection.

Preceding this service there will be a fifteen minute organ recital by Miss Hazel Hess.

ROAD IMPROVEMENTS GREATLY NEEDED

These Conditions Considered at Meeting of C. of C.

The Taneytown Chamber of Commerce met for the March meeting in the Municipal Hall last Monday night. About 50 members were in attendance. First Vice-President, David Smith, presided. The executive committee was designated by vote to approach the State Roads Commission about some of the missing links and narrow roads in this vicinity. The Merchants Association reported that the stores would close from 1 to 3 P. M. Good Friday in recognition of Divine Services in the churches from 12 to 3 P. M.

After the business session the guest speaker for the evening was presented by Elwood Baumgardner. Mr. Baumgardner presented Capt. Philip B. Sharpe, Chief of Small Arms Technical Intelligence, in the European theater of World War II. Capt. Sharpe is now located near Emmitsburg where he has his own laboratory for commercial research in small arms. For 30 years he has been an expert in the field of fire arms, and has written three books on the subject.

The speaker gave a very illuminating address on the intricacies of the intelligence system during the war. His service took him into 14 countries and more than 70,000 miles of travel, using every device of modern transportation. He stated that he knew the cities of the old world much better than the cities of America.

The speaker gave many inside stories about General Patton and his method of procedure. He spoke about the leakage of secret information from America to the enemy. Although he was chief of Small Arms Intelligence, he stated that captured German Officers knew more about American Military Secrets than he could secure. He spoke also about the poor cooperation of the Russians with the Allies during the war, and how the mistaken American policies, at that time, has led to the Cold War today. The average G. I., he said, could see the inevitable outcome of our mistaken policies toward the Russians.

After the address the Chamber of Commerce provided refreshments to all the members present.

The Red Cross

As you read this, the Red Cross Drive in the Taneytown area is nearing completion. Although we have tried to have a complete coverage, there will be some people whom we have not reached, either because they were out of town or not at home when the Red Cross representative called. Accordingly we have made arrangements with the Birnie Trust Company and the First National Bank so that all persons who have not yet donated may have the opportunity of putting their names on the Roll-Call (membership $1.00) at either of the banks during the next week. The Red Cross appeals to all of you to join and support this organization, one of the oldest, most respected and famous of those giving aid to people in need.

The solicitors who have given of their time and devotion to this cause feel that they are well repaid with the personal satisfaction of having done their best to help this drive. No Red Cross representative or solicitor in the Taneytown area has received any pay or recompense for time given or expense in putting over this campaign. Actually, your solicitors have been the ones who have made it possible for you to be a part of the Red Cross. Therefore those who have not yet made their donations are now asked to do so as soon as possible so that the Taneytown area may go over the top proudly. Please do not delay.

TEETER FAMILY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. William Teeter and family entertained the entire Teeter family at dinner Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. John S. Teeter. Those present were: Mrs. John S. Teeter; Dr. and Mrs. Richard Teeter, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. John Teeter and family; Mr. and Mrs. David Pitzer and family; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Teeter and family; Mr. and Mrs. James Teeter, all of Gettysburg; Miss Virginia Teeter, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Neely, of Fairfield, Pa.; Fred Teeter, Gettysburg College, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clingan, Jr. and family.

EASTER CANTATA IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"When Christ Arose," is the name of the beautiful Easter Cantata to be given in the Presbyterian Church on Easter Sunday, at 7:30 P. M. This will be given by an augmented choir under the leadership of Mrs. Wallace Yingling, and assisted by Miss Hazel Hess.

This is the first time that such a Cantata has been undertaken in the Presbyterian Church. For many weeks the choir has been rehearsing for the varied parts. It is expected that the Cantata will take the major part of the evening church service on Easter in celebration of the Resurrection.

Preceding this service there will be a fifteen minute organ recital by Miss Hazel Hess.

LIONS CLUB NEWS

"Father and Son" Night Observed at Meeting

The meeting of the Taneytown Lions Club held Tuesday evening last was a bit aside from the regular routine of meetings when nearly 100 % of the club members met at the Taney Inn in company of their sons since it was a father and son affair. The meeting began in the usual manner when President Robert Feeser sounded the gong promptly at 6:29. Following the invocation by Rev. Edmund P. Welker, all members, their sons and guests enjoyed a period of group singing before satisfying their palates with a sumptuous ham dinner served by the Taney Inn. President Feeser introduced the following guests from various Lions Clubs throughout the district: Chas. Angell, Grayson A. Shank and Russell H. Marsh from the Union Bridge Club; Robert E. Dougherty from Emmitsburg; Dr. E. M. Webb, Mr. M. W. Bishop and H. Bayley Johnson of Cockeyville; Lloyd C. Mackley, Bill Houck, Bill Benjamin of Thurmont; J. B. Stone, Zone Chairman from Cumberland; District Governor Massey Rowe, C. Vernon Stone, District Cabinet Secretary and G. Mullen Smith of Hagerstown. Following the introduction of these guests each member had the privilege of introducing his own son ranging in ages from two years and up. District Governor Massey Rowe in his brief but interesting speech extended congratulations to the club for the activity and progress shown in the past two months. President Robert Feeser presented the man of magic, better known as "Leroy The King", a magician from Harrisonburg, Virginia. This man of magic was fascinating to the children and even held the interest of the grown-ups by displaying his wonder of magic tricks.

The generous and unselfish spirit of Past-President Merle S. Ohler made possible the entertainment enjoyed by the children as well as the older folk during the latter half of the meeting. This was in the form of sound movies on the screen. Several pictures were shown. The first was starring "Hopalong Cassidy" in Bar 20 rides again. The 2nd picture was "Chimp The Aviator" which illustrated the story of a chimpanzee in the course of taking a flying lesson, and his work around the airport. The other movies shown were beautiful pictures of numerous places of interest which Mr. Ohler took on a trip through the midwestern and extreme western states. Most of these pictures were in color bringing out the natural and true beauty of the west. It was announced by the President that our next meeting will be a father-daughter affair. A Board of Directors meeting was held immediately following the meeting last Tuesday evening.

EASTER EGG HUNT

The annual Easter Egg Hunt held by Hesson-Snyder Post No. 120, The American Legion will be staged Easter Sunday, April 9, on the former Clabaugh property along the Uniontown road at 2 P. M. All children up to and including twelve years of age will be eligible to participate in this annual Easter celebration. Many beautiful prizes will be given to the children. The local post request that each child bring a basket or some container for eggs. In the past years this has proved to be a great deal of fun for both young and old. Everyone in the community is cordially invited to enjoy this bit of Easter entertainment.

The committee requests that all Legionnaires will contribute eggs for this event, leaving them at the Legion Home not later than 8 A. M. Anyone other than Legionnaires desirous of contributing to this event for the local kiddies, may do so by leaving their contribution at the Legion Home, or with the Post Commander Francis Lookingbill at 17 York St.

In case of rain this egg hunt will be held at 6 P. M., Monday or the first favorable evening thereafter at 6 P. M.

Don't Forget—Have your blood typed Monday, April 3, 9 P. M., in the Firemen's Hall. It will take only a few minutes and will be a fine opportunity to show your community spirit.

EMERGENCY BLOOD DONOR SERVICE

Deserves the Earnest Consideration of Everyone

A worthy community project is to be launched on April 3rd. Those of you who have had illness strike which has necessitated the use of blood transfusions will appreciate the importance of having proper blood available when it is needed. Under group sponsorship of the local Firemen, Lions, American Legion and Kiwanis, free blood typing and Rh determination will be done April 3rd from 6 to 9 P. M. in the Firemen's Building. You will be doing your community and yourself a service that may be life-saving by giving a few moments of your time on this evening.

The sponsors have arranged for technicians from the Warner Hospital to be present on the above date. A drop of blood from a finger is all you have to give. In two minutes the tests are completed and you will be given a card showing your type and whether you are Rh positive or negative.

The age limits for this service have been set at approximately 20 to 50 years. If you are strong and healthy a few years under or over these limits will not matter. Women are included provided they have prominent blood vessels. If you aren't sure, drop in at the Firemen's Building during the evening of April 3rd and the technicians will gladly tell you whether you are acceptable.

You who were in the Armed Forces may know your blood type, but Rh determinations were not done on your blood because this blood factor has only been known in the last few years. It is important, therefore, that you report for this service.

In having these tests made on your blood you are not obligating yourself for anything in the future. You may be the one who will need a transfusion. Let's hope not, but if you do your cooperation now will help you at that time. Come out April 3rd and bring your neighbor.

New Street Lights

Potomac Edison crews will shortly complete the installations that will increase the brightness of Taneytown street lighting more than two and one-half times. The project is being rushed to completion with PE crews from Frederick handling the job.

S. E. Breth, Taneytown District Manager for the utility company, stated this week that local streets will be lighted by a total of 292,000 lumens when the installation is completed, in comparisons to the 115,500 lumens previously employed.

"Baltimore Street from the Lutheran Church to the Taney Inn will be equipped with the latest refractor-type luminaries and 6,000 lumen lamps," Breth stated. "All other units on Baltimore Street will have similar luminaries with 4,000 lumen lamps and brackets."

The utility company manager also announced that York Street will be lighted by luminaries and 6,000 and 4,000 lumen lamps. Other lights will be replaced with brackets and a new type reflector and 2,500 lumen lamps, he said.

The new type reflectors to be installed will give 50 per cent more light to local streets than the type previously employed. In addition to the increased lighting, the new reflectors will diffuse the light beams so that glare is cut to a minimum.

The Taneytown installation was designed by the Street Lighting Department of the Potomac Edison Company, and will replace the present system that was installed in the early 1900's. A utility company spokesman said that the project will place Taneytown high on the list of the best lighted towns in the nation.

It is Spring! The beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains in the distance never appeared so blue! Smoke is rolling from the chimney of my neighbor's house across the field as twilight lays her mantle across the earth. The sound of the trains as they roll by is a cheerful one which are traveling slowly across the field in front!

There is a real Mink Ranch in Carroll County. It is over New Windsor way and just in time for that Easter parade. There is the gorgeous shade of Silver blue, Starlight and natural dark! The nice part is, too that visitors are always welcome. The place? Just two miles south of New Windsor!

Thinking of wearables—large picture hats again are in the limelight skirts will be shorter and tighter especially those new suits.

Did you know the White House will be ready for our President soon?

St. Petersburg, Fla., was first seen through the eyes of a Russian Nobleman named Peter far whom the city is named! T. Your Observer feels that sport should be strictly a La Male. Ortabealaw. Thinking of Television—and here is a new wrinkle—a woman in Pikesville won a divorce due to T. What next to please the ladies? There is such a thing this Spring as

TRASH DUMPING IN TANEYTOWN DISTRICT

The unpleasant situation of promiscuous dumping of rubbish has again come to the front. Taneytown district is no exception, several farmers having reported to our office that this dumping is being done on their property. We would say to the person or persons guilty of this act "Would you like to have garbage, rubbish, etc. dumped or thrown on your lawn or property?"

The Frederick Post says: "Yes, it is spring again, Sheriff Guy Anders announced Tuesday.

Complaints about roadside dumping of trash are coming in more briskly each day, he said.

Both he and the County Commissioners are in rather a quandry what to do about it.

They have issued frequent warnings, advising people that the law forbids promiscuous dumping of garbage and trash along public highways. Violations are liable to fines or jail sentences.

But people anxious to unload a pile of trash somewhere just don't seem to have any fear of prosecution, the authorities say. They just dump a load wherever it happens to be convenient.

While a watch is being kept on places where trash has been dumped in the past, fresh loads appear along other little used roads.

Some persons have for years used streams for dumping purposes. They drive onto a bridge and dump the trash over the side. Many streams show the results of this practice near bridge sites. This is usually unlawful with roadside dumping, officials explained Tuesday.

Sheriff Anders said every complaint is being investigated and sooner or later some one is going to be charged with violation of the law. Usually when persons responsible for the dumping are apprehended, they agree to clean up the remains and make other disposal.

The problem has become so widespread, however, it was pointed out, that charges will have to be laid against violators and those responsible brought into court. Several prosecutions may help eliminate the widespread violations, it was suggested.

CHARTER REOPENED

Local sportsmen will be happy to hear that the Taneytown Rod and Gun Club has opened its charter temporarily so that those who have not had the opportunity may apply for membership. For a limited time only, rod and gun enthusiasts can join the club for only $5 which entitles them to all rights and privileges to use the facilities of the organization.

At a recent meeting of the club, it was reported that many out-of-town guests had participated in the trap shoots sponsored by the Taneytown club. The club was recently accepted as a member of the Maryland Trap Shooting Association affording it the privilege of holding State, as well as American Trap Shooters' Association registered shoots. When these shoots are held, many famous trap shooters from Maryland and adjoining states will participate. The first registered one is scheduled for June 11th.

Members are now looking forward to the time in the very near future when fishing will be opened on the club grounds.

For many years housewives have kept fruit and vegetables from spoiling by putting them up in glass jars. Now farmers can keep their silage from spoiling the same way. But not by putting it up in quart jars. Instead they may store silage in a glass-lined silo which can be sealed airtight. Such a silo is now on the market under the trade name of Harvestore. The new type silo comes in a 14x40 foot size and is made from 45 sheets of glass-coated steel. They are bolted together right on the farm. The steel is coated with glass inside and out and will never need paint. There are no doors in the silo—just two portholes at the top for filling and the unloader at the bottom is airtight when not in use. As the silo is filled through one porthole air escapes from the other. When the portholes are closed the only way air can get into the silo is through the glass breather bag. The bag is connected with outside air by means of a small pipe. As the atmosphere in the top of the silo cools at night, air is forced into the bag by the greater outside pressure. As the silo atmosphere warms and expands in the day time, the outside air is forced out of the bag. This keeps fresh air from coming in contact with the silage. The unloading device is a great time and labor saver. Silage is removed at the bottom of the silo. The device is powered by an electric motor. Silage can be taken out any time, any month of the year. New crop material can be added through the top at any time. You can fill or refill the silo as new crops are ready to be put in.

With the coming of spring, a feeling of restlessness takes possession of most everyone. Sometimes one can satisfy this feeling by moving to a new location, but most of us have to curb it by taking to a lawn rake or a garden spade. Nevertheless, some of our neighbors have decided to make a change in a new spot. Among them are the Ray Wachters who are leaving Feesersburg and going to Woodsboro. Mr. and Mrs. L. Leitz leave this week from Mt. Union to Baltimore and the Samuel Smiths are moving into their recently purchased property in Feesersburg.

Meeting the mother on the street the other afternoon, I asked, "Does the baby talk yet?" "No," she said, "but he's learning to bark."

The past 50 years have marked the greatest revolution the country has ever seen. The Revolution of the Farm. Back in 1900 the farmer was the forgotten man; his occupation isolated him; he was the ruble, the hick, the country cousin. Soon after the dawn of the century, Rural Free Delivery and the telephone came to the farmer and he was able to communicate with the rest of the country. Electricity and then radio brought him modern conveniences and still greater contact with the outside world. Power machinery increases his productivity while giving him extra time. Modern roads and the automobile freed him from his confinement giving his social life and education a wider scope. Today, in 1950, the farmer's voice wins national elections, his products feed one fourth of the world, he forms the backbone of our nation's economy and welfare. The farmer has come into his own. At long last, the farmer is respected instead of being scoffed at. But, half the century remains. What will the next 50 years bring to the farmer?

From our kitchen window this morning we can see Mitzie, our 3-month old puppy trying to antagonize our hoistain bull who is taking his exercise on a 25 foot chain. Its a good thing for Mitzie that the bull is bored to death with his barking. One of the mysterious things about nature is the deep understanding animals have for each other.

Sunday, April 2, is Palm Sunday. Tradition says that during the flight into Egypt, the mother of Jesus commanded the palm to bend its leaves above the Holy Babe to shade him. At another time the infant Jesus ordered the palm to bend, so the Virgin could gather fruit. Because it willingly obeyed his command, he blessed it and chose it as a symbol of salvation for the dying, promising when he entered Jerusalem in triumph, it should be with a palm in his hand. In memory of that day Palm Sunday is celebrated.

"When things go wrong as they sometimes will, When the road you are treading seems all up hill, When the funds run low, and the debts are high; When care is pressing you down a bit, Rest, if you must; but don't you quit".

THIS 'N' THAT

"Hearing Hats" and the women who have been handicapped by glamor can now have that flattering head piece as frivolous and feminine as she desires with the hearing aid fitted snugly in the hat band or it may be behind a feather concealed through a small slit! Nice?

There is a charming daughter over Silver Run whose father has an automobile business. The place has a huge and attractive show room for those beautiful Kaiser-Frazer products and it topped it all off when the young girl came forward to meet Your Observer.

Thinking of attractive girls. There is a charmer with much poise around our town who is the daughter of a banker! She is a graduate of Notre Mmmmmmm—some good—those Enfield Cough Drops! Just keep on handing them out! Good for what ails you!

A little fisherman's wife is the mother of seven children and just gave birth to triplets—and they arrived one day way down South in La! Who said men were superior? Ump!

That beautiful niece of Your Observer won one of those large "Crosley" refrigerators by such a frank, simple and clear little sentence!

Now, here's to all coming cars! Betcha! All glamorous ones will be black ones which is evident right now, slowly creeping up on us.

A lady who was born and reared in Emmitsburg and married in the church in that little town (in fact, was the first bride in the church) came to Taneytown to live and has resided here ever since. She is another of those grand and substantial people. She has 2 lovely daughters.

South Pacific is still going strong in New York City and no wonder from all Your Observer has learned about that leading man, the world's greatest Basso, Enzo Pinzo packs them in with his voice and his love making. He is really "The One Enchanting Evening" of it all as far as the girls go, debonaire and charming. His face radiates with delight in speaking about girls although he states he likes the female gender from a distance. I wonder? He sang 22 years with the Met and is now 57 years of age. His voice, which is rich and filled with volume brings new qualities to musical comedy. He is 6 feet 1 inch and weighs 202.

Many years were wasted by one big teacher of voice stating there was no future with the lad and yet 10 years later he was taken back to this same teacher who was much impressed and with whom he studied.

When you are on your vacation and heading to the great West this summer, don't fail to stop within 52 miles of Chicago to see the gorgeous sight of the "International Friendship Gardens" which were arranged by the two Stauffer brothers who are florists in Indiana. They wrote to the rulers of almost every nation explaining their project and the response was most gratifying. King Gustav of Sweden sent blueprints of his gardens, Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands contributed 200,000 tulip bulbs and King George of England, sent his gardener. From Egypt came lotus plants, from Arabia came roses. These brothers designed, dreamed and contrived every effort until it was a mass of colorful beauty that you will never forget. Millions visit this heavenly spot and come away breathless with the enchanting beauty. Here in summer, performances are given by opera companies, symphony orchestras and choral groups. Every summer, a musical festival is held. There is a lagoon separating the audience from the stage which was so appropriate in "The Tales of Hoffman" adding realism to the opera enabling the feast guests actually to approach the castle in gondolas. Wonderful!

So long, folks. Will be seeing you. Have a grand week end and try to make life as beautiful and colorful with the theme behind it all for lasting peace as those famous "International Friendship Gardens" and don't forget your local florist for that one you love. Until next week, I am,

Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

ODD FELLOWS VISIT
 Some of the local Odd Fellows have taken advantage of the opportunity to accept several invitations for interesting, educational, and inspiring entertainment.

The first of these was last Saturday when they visited Littlestown where degree work was exemplified to a large class of candidates. On Tuesday evening the Carroll County Past Grand Association meeting held at Manchester, Md., with Birnie Staley, President, presiding, was the second event. The third was with Frederick City Lodge on Wednesday evening, who were host for the Tri-State I. O. O. F. Visitation Club. The highlights of this event were a brief, but very timely and interesting address by the Chairman of the Club, H. L. Fowler, of Williamsport, Md.; a drill by the Rebekah Staff of Frederick, under the direction of S. Elmer Brown; and some mystic feats by a local hypnotist of Frederick.

All of these meetings were well attended, and visitors to them included quite a large area.

CARD OF THANKS
 I wish to express deep gratitude to all for the many kindnesses shown me, also for cards and gifts during my recent illness. It was all greatly appreciated.
 MRS. CARROLL VALENTINE.

Thin Pecan Trees

Four or five good, well-spaced pecan trees per acre will be much more profitable than twice that number crowding each other for food, water and light.

Frying Oysters

When frying oysters, turn with a spoon instead of a fork. By doing this, the skin is not pricked and no flavor will be lost.

Early Dyemakers

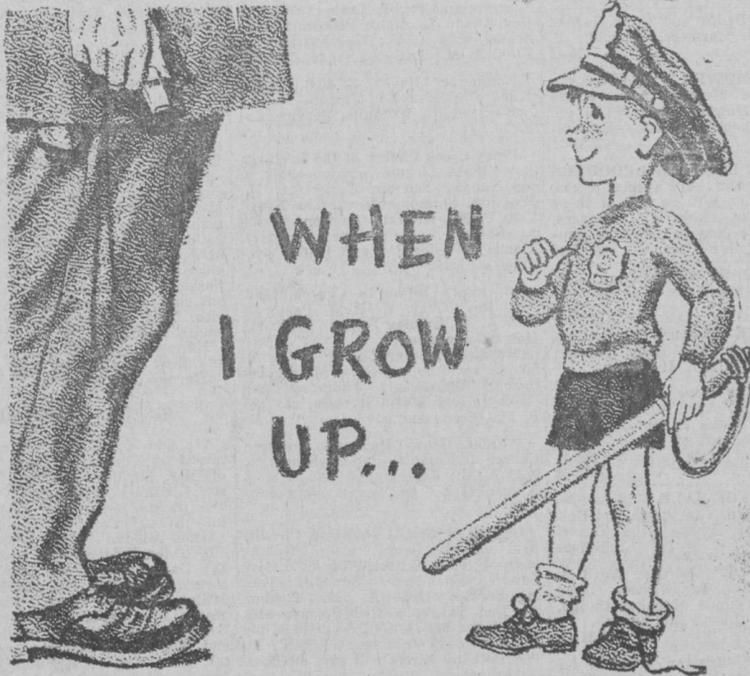

Dyes of vegetable origin were used almost exclusively by primitive man. They were obtained in the vicinity, with the dyer merely collecting dye plants and roots in nearby fields or forests and boiling them in water. The range of color was very narrow, being confined to red, blue, yellow, green, brown and black. Variants in shades were quite limited.

Re-stock With Protein

The words "every day" are important to keep in mind. Since extra protein cannot be stored by the body for future use, it is necessary to re-stock the body with protein food every day.

Since Kittyhawk

Since the Wright brothers' first flight, there has been a seven-fold increase in efficiency in planes.

EVERY American boy dreams of being a policeman some day. Because a policeman is the hero who fights crime, yet still remains the child's friend at the school corner.

He's the symbol of American freedom, where the law is the trusted servant of the people. It's a lot different in police states, where the man in uniform is the symbol of tyranny and oppression.

It can't happen here, you say? Yet many a country has been inched into a socialistic form of government, so slowly, so gradually, that its people were enslaved before they realized the danger . . . and all the while their leaders declared, "Everything is being done for the good of the people!"

Yes, even in the United States, we hear people say, "Let the government control certain industries and services. Let it begin by taking over the doctors, the newspapers, the railroads, the electric light and power companies. Government control is good for the people!" This is how a socialistic government gets its foothold.

Remember this: Every time government gains control of something else, you lose something—another liberty. Eventually government grows stronger, and the people become the slaves to the law. The friendly cop on the corner is replaced by the watchful agents of a too-powerful government.

Who wants that kind of America? Nobody! Well, it's up to you!

Trial and Triumph

Lesson for April 2, 1950

IF YOU HAD BEEN on the top of the city wall on that first Palm Sunday, watching the crowds roaring into Jerusalem, and some one had told you that all the shouting was for Jesus of Nazareth, you would certainly have thought that his success was assured. Here, surely, was a King who had arrived!

Dr. Foreman

But before the week was out you would have seen this same Jesus on trial for his life, and not a voice raised in his defense. The same dusty-throated mob on that Sunday shouted "Hosanna! Blessed is He!" was shrieking on Friday morning, "Crucify him!"

Flowery Beds or Bloody Seas?

There is a popular notion floating around to the effect that God gives good people an easy time. It is not always put just that way. But when a man who has been good (or thinks he has, or has tried to be), runs into trouble, he asks right away, "Why must this happen to Me?" The truth of the matter is better expressed in the lines of an old hymn:

"Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
Or sailed through bloody seas?"

Jesus was incomparably the best who ever lived; yet his moments of popularity were short, and he was finally tortured and killed by the leaders of church and state, amid the jeering approval of masses of the people.

He himself said that any follower of his must be willing to take up his own cross. "In the world you will have tribulation," he said to his disciples.

All Tyrants Hate the Church

THE MORE GENUINELY Christian the church is, the more it is likely to run into opposition. There are several reasons for this. For one thing, the church stands for love, and the generosity and unselfishness, the sympathy and even the sacrifice that go with love and are produced by it. But "what makes the world go round,"—the world of the politician, the money-maker, the social climber, the war-maker, the world of the power-thirsty in every sphere—what makes that world go round is pride, selfishness, shoving-ahead, Me-firstness. The selfish and the proud do not take kindly to love of the Christian sort, indeed they despise it as a weakness.

But the church, when it is a true church, stands up for Humanity even when it has to stand against Profits; and the man for whom Profit is the first law of life never understands the attitude of the church. Then the church (when it is a real one) always stands for the people against the Tyrant, whoever and wherever he may be, even when he is in some church himself.

And consequently all tyrants hate the church. The Roman emperors hated it and persecuted it till they found they could use it (which, by the way, was a bad day for the church). Mohammed, a tyrant of sorts, hated the Christian church and would have totally destroyed it if he could.

Victory—When?

"IF WE SUFFER with him we shall also reign with him," said St. Paul. But when and how? The end of the church's struggles could come in either of two ways. One way would be for the church to give up struggling against the world. Let the church become a club for the sociable, let the church raise no voice of protest against injustice in society, against untruth, violence and greed; let the church give in to the world, in short, and she will have no further trouble from the world.

But in that case she would be dead. Another way is for the church finally to overcome the world. The triumph of the true church is the same as the triumph of divine Love.

That is the future to which the Bible bids us look. When? We do not know. But the Kingdom comes "one heart at a time," and with every soul the church wins from the world-way to the Christ-way, the victory of Love draws nearer.
