A petition has been circulated here this week in favor of a local option law, the full text of which as it will be published in our next issue.

As our office force will have a full holiday on Christmas, and probably be somewhat disabled the day after, any imperfections in our next issue will be chargeable to this cause.

The special election for State Senator takes place to-day (Saturday.) Let everybody turn out and vote his man owes, and he should do it willingly and conscientiously.

Mr. Samuel Reindollar received on Saturday, through P. B. All who care for pictures of the Lutheran church and parsonage, may secure them free of charge, by calling at the Editor's office. As these buildings are likely to be very much changed in appearance during the coming year, the pictures, which are practically photographs, will likely be desired by many. We distribute them free, as a sample of the fine printing done in our office.

Emma J. Smith. Two little angels now on high,
They hand in hand together roam;
Two links now bind us to the sky;
Two fingers beckon us to come.
Lord, give us strength our loss to bear,
And lead us in the heavenly way,
O may we meet our children there,
In realms of everlasting day.

Their little crib is empty now,
Their little clothes laid by;
A mother's hope, a father's joy,
In death's cold arms doth lie.
Go little pilgrims, to thy home
On yonder blissful shore,
We miss them here, but soon will come
Where they have gone before.

By their Father and Mother. Two less at home,
The charmed circle broken, two dear faces
Missed day by day from their usual places,
