Masonheimer, discovered some smoke ascending into the air, and at once made an investigation, and discover ed the barn on fire. Mr. Hesson, who knew nothing about it, was at once informed by Mr. Masonhimer, and soon reached the fire. Mr. Hesson went into the stable to bring out his horse, and was successful, but he was burned badly. Dr. J. J. Steward was summoned at once, who rendered the necessary medical aid. We were sorry to learn that Mr. Hesson's wheat and hay all burned, as he had nothing insured. We hope that the community at large will not forget him, as he is a poor man, and a crip ple also. The People, the "Boss."

The defeat of Senator Wellington at Ocean City last week, was not only creditable to the republican party in the state, and popular with the independent vote which opposes "bossism" wherever found, but it was a distinct declaration in favor of the exercise of the rule of the majority at the primaries, as well as at the polls, without the intervention of rules favorable to any particular faction, or candidate.

Senator Wellington is a self-made man of great ability, without question, who no doubt does not mean to pose as a party boss or dictator; and there is a line of reasoning, which, on the surface, seems to justify him direct the affairs of his party, without also because it drowns public sentibeing called all the hard names which ment. have fallen to his lot recently.

REINDOLLAR & CO TANEYTOWN, MD.

An exchange says that the greatest case of dog-eat-dog they ever heard of was that of a young man who lovwindow for a moment or two apparently became absorbed in it. I admired his conception of the part, but I couldn't brought 2,000 extra fine cigars and had them insured for their full value, smoked them up and demanded his insurance, claiming they had been destroved by fire. The case was taken cured. They are small pills but great regulators. J. McKellip, Druggist, Taneytown, Md.

Besides, there were only three delegates on the train to witness my fall. I said I didn't play, but had seen ance company then had the young man arrested for setting fire to his own property and the judge ordered that he pay his fine and go to jail.
