COURAGE. It is not they that never knew

Weakness or fear who are the brave— Those are the proud, the knightly few Whose joy is still to serve and save— But they who in the weary night

Amid the darkness and the stress lave struggled with disease and blight With pitiful world weariness, They who have yearned to stand among
The free and mighty of the earth,

Whose sad, aspiring souls are wrung With starless hope and hollow mirth, Who die with every day, yet live Through merciless, unbrightened years, Whose sweetest right is to forgive

And smile divinely through their tears. They are the noble, they the strong They are the house, they trusted ones,
And though their way is hard and long,
Straight to the pitying God it runs.
