

THE TANEYTON, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, JUNE 18, 1898.

One thing is sure— It grows steadily in circulation, for some reason.

Vol. 4., No. 51. $1.00 Per Year.

Local and Personal.

This is meant to be a purely LOCAL NEWS column, to which the RECORD invites contributions...

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Yount are spending the week on a trip to Williamsport, Pa.

Mrs. P. B. Engler and sister, Ada, are rustiating at York Springs, Pa., where they will be for several weeks.

Norman B. Hazan attended the services of laying the corner stone of the Key Monument, in Frederick, on Tuesday.

Charles W. Hess and Miss Effie Hess, of this district, were among the graduates at Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, this week.

Please send the RECORD another year, as we find we cannot do without it. We look for its coming as for that of a friend."

Our four cigar factories have been very busy during the past month, as dealers generally have laid in extra stock in anticipation of the increase in the cost of stamps.

We are indebted to Robert S. McKinney, druggist, for a copy of the 15th annual proceedings of the Maryland Pharmaceutical Association, a handsome and interesting volume.

COUNTY AND STATE.

News Notes of General Interest from various Sources.

After July 1st., our combination of the RECORD with the N. Y. World, will be advanced to $1.05, from $1.50.

Col. Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier Journal, has been selected by the Key Monument Association to deliver the oration at the unveiling exercises on August 9.

The House, on Wednesday, by a vote of 209 to 91, passed the Hawaiian annexation bill and it now goes to the Senate.

Mr. Calvin Baker, of Unionville, while on his way from Johnsonville, was attacked by a very ferocious dog. He procured a pistol, intending to end the dog's life, but instead of that, in cocking the weapon, his thumb slipped from the trigger and the pistol was discharged.

The Miller will case, from Carroll county, is likely not to be concluded until some time next week, as the witnesses in the case are still being examined—for the defense, Mr. David Miller, numbers of the witnesses for the defense say, was a shrewd business man, notwithstanding his conceded eccentricities, and in their mind was fully competent to make disposition of his estate by will.

The Gettysburg Battlefield Commission has sent a draft to the Secretary of War for $104,772, the amount received from sale of wood, hay, old iron and rags.

Rev. A. Bateman of this place has had the degree of Doctor of Philosophy conferred on him by Grove City College, Pa. He received the degree magna cum laude (with great praise).

Isaiah Hann, of Thurlow, Pa., looking hale and hearty, called at the RECORD office a few days ago and renewed his subscription. Mr. Hann still enjoys a visit to Taneytown district.

Two subscriptions for U. S. Bonds were made through the Postoffice here, on Thursday, one of which was for a $100, registered bond by the P. O. S. of A. Other subscriptions will follow.

The netting over a chandelier in E. E. Reindollar's dining room, caught fire, on Friday evening, while the gas was being lit and caused quite a scare for a few minutes. No further damage was done.

MILTON ACADEMY.

Closing Exercises at this Excellent Taneytown School.

The closing exercises at Milton Academy took place on Monday morning, the program being rendered before a large assembly of friends and patrons.

The principal, Prof. Henry Meier, through a series of questions and blackboard exercises, demonstrated the proficiency of his pupils in Mathematics, History, Physiology, Commercial Law, Latin, French and German.

At this point, Prof. Meier announced the medals—of which there were seven—and the roll of honor, containing the names of six who stood highest for general excellence in all branches.

The Roll of Honor was as follows, the names appearing according to excellence. Mr. Norman Hess, Miss Mabel Lambert, Beulah Engler, Alice Reindollar, Clara Reindollar, and Nina Crapster, each of which will receive a handsomely engraved certificate.

The exercises continued with the following: Recitation, "Grossama" Miss Eilza Birnie; Essay, "Money" Miss Nora Kiser; Recitation, "Rival Orators," Rein Mottet, Harry O. Harner; Recitation, "Success in Life" Harry O. Harner.

Rev. A. Bateman, in his characteristic happy vein, addressed the school, comparing the participants and pupils to "Caesars" who had gained great victories.

The commencement exercises at Western Maryland College took place during the week, and were well attended. The exercises were wholly up to the usual standard of excellence.

Junior Class—Gold medals, Claude C. Douglass, Montrose, W. Va., and Miss I. Jewell Simpson, Westminster. Sophomore Class—Gold Medals, John W. Yingling, Waynesboro, Pa., and Miss Adele Ogden, Keyport, N. J.

Freshman Class—Gold medals, J. Randall Caton, Alexandria, Va., and Miss Fannie B. Woodall, Georgetown. The Norment gold medals in elocution: Sophomore Class—Lemoin C. Wells, West Lafayette, Ohio, and Miss Adele Ogden, Keyport, N. J.

ACCIDENT AT COPPERVILLE.

Robert Eckert has a leg Broken by a Field Roller.

Our Copperville correspondent sends the following: This community was started on Tuesday evening last, by the announcement that there had been a frightful runaway at W. K. Eckert's, and that his son Robert, who is about twelve years old, had his leg broken about half way between the knee and ankle.

Mr. Eckert was rolling his corn ground, and had in the roller the two spirited horses that he usually drives. After some time his son made his appearance, and asked his father to let him roll. This, Mr. Eckert after some hesitating, consented to do.
