

Local and Personal.

This is meant to be a purely LOCAL NEWS column, to which the RECORD invites contributions. Events of local importance, whether current or in the near future, accidents, cases of extreme illness, society and church happenings, marriages, deaths, etc., should be reported to the Editor in writing; otherwise they may not appear.

Bruceville will have a fire-works exhibition on Monday night, advertised as a "sham battle" &c.

Robert S. McKinney, of Taneytown, has been elected President of the Maryland Pharmaceutical Association.

George Benner, of this district, who is in his eightieth year, swung a cradle this harvest in a way which could not be equaled by most young men.

The Keysville Drum Corps paid our town a visit last Saturday night, and rendered a number of the well known selections popular with such musical organizations.

Mrs. David Middour (nee Elliot) whose illness was mentioned in our last issue, died on the 21st, at a hospital in Springfield, Ill., to which she had gone for an operation.

Miss Annetta Buffington, of Middleburg, and Miss Mollie Williams, of Mt. Union, who have been in the city for some time past, will return to their country homes on Saturday.

William H. LeGore, of this district, who was convicted of indecent assault by the Carroll county court, has been cleared by the Court of Appeals, the decision below being reversed.

Wheat harvest will be pretty generally finished by Saturday evening, some having finished cutting on Thursday. The yield is variously estimated from half to three-fourths of last year's crop.

The Fire Company removed its paraphernalia to the Crapster (Roberts) barn, on Mill road, Tuesday evening, assuming the new location to be more central and less dangerous than the old. The improvement, if any, is not great.

Among the visitors in town this week, we noted, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. Thomson, of Baltimore, Joshua D. Delaplane, of Waynesboro, Pa., Miss Lou Renner, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. A. H. Zollickoffer and children of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Annie M. Diehl, of Wilmington Del., who has returned from an extended trip to Pittsburg, Sharsburg and Harrisburg, is at present sojourning in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. J. S. Kemp, of near Littlestown, Adams Co., Pa.

The Taneytown contingent to the Nashville C. E. Convention, Rev. D. F. Garland, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Little, Mrs. F. H. Seiss, Miss Anna Motter and Geo. H. Birnie will leave on Monday. If any others are going we have not been so informed.

John Kemper, an old and respected citizen of this place, died on Monday morning and was buried in Keysville cemetery, Tuesday afternoon. He was the father of Edward Kemper and Mrs. O. T. Shoemaker, of this place, and Miss Jennie Kemper, Washington, D. C.

The following data has been furnished by our local weather observer: Mean temperature 72.7, maximum 96° on the 25th., minimum 46° on the 23rd., total precipitation 1.23 inches, thunder storms on the 11th. and 12th. As the normal rainfall for the month of June is 3.19 inches, the deficiency is 1.97 inches.

A notice from the Burgess and Commissioners, in another column, relating to fire works, should be carefully read and as carefully observed, as it is the purpose of this board to enforce the laws, strictly. This is not officious interference with harmless sport, but a wise determination to prevent possible disasters; and, as such, it should meet with the willing co-operation of all citizens.

At an election for directors of the CARROLL RECORD Company, on Thursday, evening, the present board was re-elected, with the addition of John S. Bower who becomes the seventh member, filling the vacancy caused by the removal of A. H. Zollickoffer. The financial statement showed the affairs of the Company to be in a prosperous condition, and a dividend of 4 per cent was declared, notwithstanding the loss of the plant by fire last November.

Harry B. Chandley, of Beaver Falls, Pa., the contractor for our water system, was here this week and received final settlement on his contract. We take pleasure in stating that Mr. Chandley has acted in a thoroughly honest and gentlemanly manner with our authorities, and the contract could not have been better placed. The work, apparently, has been well done and according to specifications. He expects to construct a similar plant, in the near future, for Grove City, Pa.

Ordinance No. 54, adopted on the 27th., and entering into effect on the 29th., provides that paves shall not be used between the hours of 9 a. m., and 5 p. m., and that hydrants and other connections with the water plant, when used for the purpose of a pave wash, shall be subject to the above restrictions, and that any violation of the provisions of the ordinance may result in cutting off the water supply without notice. Ordinance No. 50, Sec. 6, provides, "And be it enacted and ordained, etc., That in sprinkling yards or gardens, washing pavements or windows, each water taker must confine himself or herself to his own premises and half the width of the street in front thereof."

COUNTY AND STATE.

News Notes of General Interest from various Sources.

The Littlestown Electric Light company will wait until August 1 to decide whether or not to continue operations.

The employees of the Western Maryland Company will run their annual excursion to Baltimore and Poolesville on July 9.

Allen Brown, of near Sabillasville, Frederick county, was bitten by a copperhead snake the other day. After killing the serpent he sucked out the poison and drank a pint of whiskey without feeling any intoxicating effects. He then soaked the wound in turpentine and poulticed it with onions. At last accounts he was getting along very comfortably.

Mr. Stanley C. Smith, proprietor of the Groff House on North Market St., has disposed of his lease and furniture to Wm. B. Dell, of Baltimore, who took possession of the hotel Wednesday morning. Mr. Smith took charge of the Groff House over two years ago and during that time he has made many friends. He will remain in the city a few weeks and will then go to Hanover.—Frederick Guide.

The York Water Company has commenced legal proceedings against several individuals and firms along the Cotohus at Glen Rock and Shrewsbury, charging them with polluting the waters of the creek, from which the company draws its chief supply. It will be remembered that several epidemics of typhoid have prevailed in York and the presence of the fever was charged to the impure water. The plant of the Water Company cost $750,000 and they are now considering an offer of $1,200,000 for it.

There has been much comment on the great number of divorce suits recently filed in the Circuit Court for Washington County. Since January 1 (six months) twenty-one bills were filed, four in the past eight days. Of this number eight couples were divorced absolutely, two from bed and board, one case was dismissed, while ten are still pending, undetermined. These figures do not include divorces granted during the same period on cases docketed prior to January 1, 1898. For the corresponding six months last year nineteen divorce cases were filed, only two less than in the first six months of 1898.

Col. H. C. Demming, of Harrisburg, was in this section during the past week prospecting, and reports a valuable discovery of platinum three miles south west of town, on the Wm. Ritts farm. Mr. Demming states that he investigated the discovery and found evidence of an abundance of precious metal. Among the samples procured he says were some specimens assaying as high as 15 per cent pure platinum, which is a very high average for that mineral. The price of platinum is $15 to $16 per ounce and the demand is greatly in excess of the supply. We were also informed that preparations for working the discovery are in progress in this place.—Littlestown Independent.

The Union Bridge correspondent of the Banner, says: "Children's Day was celebrated in the true sense of the word at Sam's Creek M. P. church, about 3 miles from this place last Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock. The church was beautifully decorated with potted and cut flowers and American and Cuban flags. The children were all out bright and happy. The program was rendered almost to perfection. Mr. Harry Yingling delivered the address of welcome. A recitation entitled "No Cross, No Crown," by Miss Roy Grumblin, of Frederick, was delivered in a most eloquent manner. Rev. Tagg, editor of the Methodist Protestant, was present and gave a very interesting address on foreign missions."

At a meeting of the State Live Stock Sanitary Board, on Tuesday, it was determined to analyze the milk of swill-fed cows to determine if it contains any impurities, and, if so, efforts will be made to stop the sale at once. The work of inspecting dairies is progressing rapidly. As a rule, their condition is satisfactory. In cases where cleanliness is not observed the owner is requested to employ it, and if the request is not complied with, steps will be taken to secure an enforcement of the law. Only one case has thus far developed in which no heed has been paid to the inspector's warning, and an arrest is liable. Legal steps are being considered in cases in which owners of herds have refused to register them, as required by law, to compel them to register them with the Live Stock Board. Thus far, about 1,100 herds have been registered.

Additional Locals.
The Taneytown subscription to the war loan, now amounts to $23,640. Master George N. Fleagle, of Baltimore, is spending the summer with his aunt, Mrs. A. C. Hess.

Miss Clara Hoffman, of Woodsboro, is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grottle, on New St.

Miss Clara I. Willhite, who for some time past has been at Newport News, Va., returned home on Thursday.

The new postage stamps were placed on sale here on Saturday; the first office in the county, we think, to receive them.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Clabaugh and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Swope and family, and Mrs. Burrell and family, are at Antrim for the summer.

Mrs. Isaiah Hann, of Philadelphia, Pa., and her daughter, Mrs. John Kooz, of near town, visited Mrs. Hann's invalid sister, Mrs. Wm. Kessler, of near Big Pipe Creek Mills, Md., on last Thursday.

PHARMACISTS AT PEN-MAR.

Joint Meeting of Pennsylvania and Maryland Assoc'ns.

(For the Record.)
Two years ago it was suggested by the Pennsylvania Pharmaceutical Association to the Maryland Association that they hold a joint meeting. The executive committees of both associations have been working to that end and the present meeting, June 21st, is the result of their labors. The constitution of each association was read, their meeting to be held with their respective state, Buena Vista Springs was selected by the Pennsylvania and Blue Mountain House by the Marylandans, these points being close enough to allow joint sessions.

The botanical excursion through the mountain, which was to open the session, was postponed on account of rain. During the day, however, a number of members arrived and at 8.30 p. m., the first business session of the Maryland Association was held. Owing to the small number present, only routine business was attended to and the Presidents address was deferred until the night session.

At the night session, President Powell read his address, which was referred to a committee. The president thinks pharmacy is advancing and that the professional standing is becoming more elevated each year. He regrets the lack of interest of the members in the association and deplores the inactivity of druggists generally in regard to pharmacy legislation. The report on the address brought out quite a discussion. The idea seemed to prevail that the failure of pharmacy legislation is due to the lack of information generally; that it does not mean a benefit to the druggist only, but is for the protection of the public. Maryland is one of only two states in the Union that do not have a pharmacy law, and yet our legislators can not see the necessity of such a measure.

In the absence of some pharmacy legislation, the motion of Dr. Hyson, it was decided that this Association issue to its members a certificate of competency, and that twice each year the names of all persons holding such certificates be published in two daily papers of Baltimore. While these certificates will have no legal value, yet they will have a moral and professional standing that will make them valuable to the owner.

Another matter that brought out quite an expression of opinion is the War Revenue Tax. While the druggist is a patriotic citizen, and he glads that they can, by the war tax, help to defend the country, it does not seem right that the poor retailer should stand all the brunt. Not only must he stamp the stock on hand, but in future purchases he must pay the manufacturer an advance equal to the price of stamps and from 50 to 75 per cent profit on same. However, the Druggist is a man full of tribulation and long suffering, so most likely he will pay the war tax and continue to do so until he can cut out. When he goes to his long home, he will find a marble shaft, his good deeds will live (7) in the memory of those he has served.

On Wednesday morning, the time was taken up with a business session and in the afternoon the Maryland Association visited the Pennsylvania Association at Buena Vista. The day was spent in the social, races, shooting contest and bowling matches between the two Associations. In most of the contests, Maryland carried off the honors.

Wednesday evening the Pennsylvania Association was entertained at Blue Mountain by the Maryland people. The chief feature of the evening was progressive euchre. Thursday was devoted to the social and to the closing exercises of the Pennsylvania Association. These were to be joint meetings at Buena Vista, but, owing to a break down and some other hitches on the part of the transportation company, the joint meeting was abandoned and each association held its own. There were very interesting and instructive sessions, but we will not take up your space, and in lieu of them, as they will not be engaged and the group will be photographed.

Election of Officers.
Taneytown Lodge No. 36, Knights of Pythias, elected their officers for the ensuing term, on Friday night, June 24th., as follows: chancellor commander, Thomas D. Thomson; vice-chancellor, William W. Witheron; prelate, J. Thomas Shriner; master at arms, B. S. Miller; master of work, Wm. F. Clingan; delinquent committee, Ezra K. Reaver, L. D. Reid and John H. Harmon; trustee, R. S. McKinney, who also takes the position of past chancellor.

The semi-annual election for officers of Washington Camp No. 2, M. P. O. S. of A., took place on Thursday evening with the following result: president, Samuel H. Lott; vice-president, Samuel S. Crouse; master of forms, Charles A. Reaver; conductor, Thomas Wantz; inspector, John Newcomer; guard, Joshua D. Clingan; trustee, Charles E. H. Shriner; delegates to State Camp, Samuel H. Little, Harry L. Feaser and John J. Reid.

Fireworks Notice.
The attention of the citizens of Taneytown is respectfully called to the provisions of Section 4, of Ordinance No. 6, relating to and prohibiting the use of fireworks and fireworks within the corporate limits of town. All violations of this section will subject the offender or offenders to the fines and penalties therein provided. A proper and reasonable celebration, with firearms and fireworks, of the coming 4th. of July, will be permitted upon the occupied or vacant lots of the town, on that day.

By Order of the Commissioners,
GEO. T. MOTTER,
June 28, '98.

Money Order Fees Advanced.
Beginning with today (Friday) all money order fees are two cents higher, alike on the lowest and highest. The increase is designated "Special war tax fees" and comes within this provision of the Act of Congress:

"Bank checks, draft or certificate of deposit, not drawing interest, or order for the payment of any sum of money drawn upon or issued by any bank, trust company or any person or persons, companies or corporations, two cents." Instead of requiring that a revenue stamp be affixed, the price of each money order is simply increased two cents.

ROBBERY AT HAMPSTEAD.

W. H. Miller Finds His Watch in Baltimore.

Something in the nature of a Western robbery occurred at Hampstead, Carroll county, last week, and on Thursday two young men, who bore strong evidence of leading a roving life, were committed to the action of the Carroll county authorities by Justice Huggins. The story told by the magistrate by Mr. Wm. H. Miller, the victim of the robbery, was that on Tuesday of last week he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call the police, but he was seated in a room in the rear of his store at Hampstead, when two men came into the place. One of them went behind the counter and looked for money in the drawers, but found none. Both had their faces well covered with handkerchiefs. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head and asked for his money. He refused, and he had none, and then his gold watch was taken. There was something of a scuffle, during which the two men threw Mr. Miller. The noise was heard by Dr. Brush, who lives opposite, and he came to his neighbor's assistance, and Mr. Miller asked him to call

The Carroll Record.
A Weekly Newspaper.
INDEPENDENT IN POLITICS.
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY, AT TAN-
EY TOWN, MD., BY THE "CARROLL RECORD" PRINTING AND PUBLISH-ING COMPANY.
P. B. ENGLAR, Editor and Manager.
BOARD OF DIRECTORS.
DR. G. T. MOTTIER, Pres. G. A. ARNOLD,
F. H. SEISS, Sec. & Treas. DR. C. H. BIRNIE,
GEO. H. BIRNIE, P. B. ENGLAR.

MASON-DIXON LINE.
Popular Error as to Original Cause of Existence.
(CONCLUDED.)
At the outbreak of the revolutionary war, the lead was taken from the stone by Continental patriots and made into bullets. The upper part of the stone fell and was lost, the lower part being covered with earth, as it was situated in a ravine. For many years the supposition existed, as no marking stone was visible, that the three states, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware, came together at that point. In 1840 the Governors of these states appointed J. P. Eyre of Pennsylvania, H. G. S. Key of Maryland, and G. R. Riddle of Delaware, to locate the spot formerly occupied by the missing corner-stone. The assistance of Col. J. D. Graham, of the United States Topographical Engineers, was obtained, and the site of the missing stone found. The buried portion of the original stone was unearthed by men while sinking a hole for the new stone to be erected. The old one was buried and a substantial mark of Brandywine granite reared, it being about one foot square, with
P and M on the sides.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
The Royal is the highest grade baking powder known. Actual tests show it goes one-third further than any other brand.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

ORNDORFF'S
Great Clearing Sale!
Great Bargains! Big Reductions!
No careful buyer, who wishes to save money, can afford to pass this by. Read this Ad. and be benefited financially. We can save you money if you deal with us. As a starter we offer
DOMESTICS.
10-4 Bleached Sheetings at 11c per yard. 10-4 Bleached Sheetings at 10c per yard. 4-4 Bleached Muslin at 10c per yard.
CAPS. Lace Caps that sold from 75c to $1.25; reduced to 25c.
CORSETS. Dr. Warner's Flexible Hip and Coraline Corsets that always sell at $1.00; reduced to 50c. Madame Strong's Tricors, always sold for $1.00; now 50c.
The Celebrated Richards Stamping Pad cut to 25c.
REMNANT TABLE.
On our Remnant Table will be found ends of Calicoes, Gingham, Shirtings, White and Worsteds Goods, at prices that speak for themselves.
OXFORDS. We make the first Cut in OXFORDS.
Oxfords that were $2.00, $2.25, $2.50 and $3.00 in black and tan, reduced to the small sum of $1.25. These are hand-made goods. Oxfords in black, tan and patent leather, that sold for $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50, reduced to 75c, a price that is within reach of all. Oxfords that sold for 65c, 75c and 90c, reduced to 50c. A line of Oxfords reduced to 35c per pair.
Big reductions in ladies' bicycle shoes. The proper thing to wear to the races; were $2.50. During this sale $1.50. Gentlemen's Bicycle shoes—Price Winners—in black, tan, and light lead color with elk skin soles; were $2.50 and $3.50. During this sale we offer them for $1.50.
SHIRTS! SHIRTS! SHIRTS!
A line of Shirts that sold for 75c and $1.00, reduced to 50c. Line of 50c Shirts reduced to 30c.
Protect yourself from sun or rain. A lot of Parasols, suitable for sun or rain, that sold for 75c, $1.25 and $1.50 will be placed on sale for 50c. Do not miss them.
MATTINGS! MATTINGS!
Our Mattings are reduced to the lowest notch. Ask to see them. One thing bear in mind, that we always have what we advertise. Come to see for yourself and we will gladly show you the choicest advertised goods.
In every department we are prepared to show you the choicest selections and the very latest styles at lowest prices.
We close at 6 p. m., except Saturdays.
We close on the Fourth of July.
J. T. ORNDORFF'S SONS,
WESTMINSTER, MD.

YOUNT'S.
Crescent, $35.00.
Buy a Yount's Bicycle, and get the WHEEL of all Wheels—the Standard, both in quality and price.
Wonderful Shoe Values.
99c. Worth $1.50. Youth's Black Enamel Lace; reasonable dressy shoes; heel; sizes 11 to 12.
Boys' of same, $1.25; regular $2.00 Shoes; sizes 3 to 5 1/2.

YOUNT'S
NEW HARDWARE STORE!
CORSETS, all sizes, 75 cents.
Summer Corsets, 50c.
China Cups and Saucers, 13c.
Assorted lot of 25c Cups and Saucers at Half Price. Decorated colored flowers and gold band. Limited quantity; 13c for cup and saucer.
TOILET SET, $3.00.
Ten-piece White and Gold band Toilet Set. Regular price $4.75; special price $3.00.
Hamburg Embroidery.
Your choice for 7c per yard. Our regular price, Ten to Thirteen cents per yard.
White-wash Brushes.
All white bristle, 25c kind for 25c. All bristle, 25c kind for 18c.
Double Pointed Tacks, 1 cent.
For Matting and Oilcloth. Re-duced from 2c to 1c per pack.

Where are you going, John, when you go to town with your best girl? Why to N. B. HAGAN'S, to get some
ICE CREAM.
Near the Square he can be found and he also sells Groceries, Confectioneries and Notions.
A full line of Canned Goods, such as Cans of Oysters, Sardines, Salmon, Ox Tongue, Potatoes, Ham, Apple Brandy in quart and half gallon cans, Fresh Fruit, Jellies, Sauces, all the leading Brands of Flour, Chicken Feed, Corn Meal and Hominy, Fresh Bread and Cakes received daily. Try the Lunch Counter Water Crackers, at 10c a pound. Mason's Best Water Crackers. A beautiful Glass given free with 7c can of Baking Powder. Full line of Syrups at Bottom Prices. Found can of "Cash Down" Baking Powder for the Quaker Oats Co. by the following: Lavender, Lard and Raisin Coffee; also Java Blend and Loose Roasted Coffee.

SATURDAY, JULY 2nd., 1893.
WHEN THE WAR first commenced, every little engagement excited the people and enormously increased the sale of newspapers. Now, to arouse the same degree of interest, it would take a battle of great magnitude with the loss of thousands of men, or an actual invasion of one or the other of the two countries. The novelty, to the American people, has worn off, and, like the effect of intoxicants, the dose must be increased if the degree of stimulation is to be kept up.

THE RECORD would like to receive for publication, articles on the more important subjects of general interest, either complete in one, or a series of instalments. Ministers, teachers, educated specialists and others specially qualified by experience and observation are the ones to whom we look for this class of articles, and every community possesses one or more such persons who has stored away in his brain, ideas which we would gladly ventilate. Let those who read this, consider themselves "elected to serve."

ON THE PROOF of the hill sloping down to the ravine which contains the stone, a water-brook and profusion of wild flowers, stands an old stone house. Near by was the famous "Backwoods Academy," an institution founded by Alexander Terrell, who taught many students from the adjoining states.
The tongue of land extending from Pennsylvania down between Maryland and Delaware is a topographical curiosity. At the upper part it is about 4,169 feet wide (between Pennsylvania and Delaware), extends southward about three and a half miles, tapers to a point of intersection of the three states, and contains about 500 acres. The land is a portion of London Britain Township, Chester county, Pa., but Delaware claims it as a part of White Clay Creek Hundred, New Castle county. She has "always exercised jurisdiction over it, treating her boundary as extending to the northeast corner of Maryland. The land is taxed in Delaware, the inhabitants vote as citizens of that state, and offenses committed therein are punished by her courts, while, on the other hand, Pennsylvania has never exercised any authority over it." This singular condition of affairs is probably owing to errors made by the pioneer surveyors who ran the lines.
The circle of New Castle has been repeatedly the line of confusion with citizens residing close to it, the difficulty arising on account of the assessment and payment of taxes. To avoid this, acts were passed a few years ago by the Legislatures of this state and Delaware, authorizing a commission from each Commonwealth to "re-examine, survey and re-establish the boundary line," etc. The commissioners of Pennsylvania were the Hon. Wayne MacVeagh, Robert E. Monaghan and William H. Miller, Delaware's commission was composed of the Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, the Hon. J. H. Hoffecker, and Dr. B. L. Lewis. The work was completed by the joint commission in 1893. The initial monument is of Brandywine granite, quarried in Delaware. The terminal point, near the Delaware River, is of gneiss. They are marked with the names Pennsylvania and Delaware, north and south sides, respectively, and other inscriptions. Each stone is set 4 feet in the earth, and firmly secured by cement. The twenty-one mile stones and twenty-two half-mile stones are of gneiss, and are properly marked. The triangular stone at the junction of the three states is marked P, M and D, respectively, and carries the names of the Commissioners, who refixed it in 1840.

It is clearly evidenced that the legal law, indifferent and perfunctory procedure now extant has become a menace to the proper and safe conduct of the affairs of this Bureau, so far as it relates to the payment of pensions, and special efforts are contemplated to correct the existing abuses.
While it is believed that many officials who assist in the execution of pension vouchers have no conception of their criminal liability in the premises, it is equally certain that many others to secure an advantage in the numerical number of their clientele, knowingly and willfully resort to violations of the law.
To the end that the former class may profit by this notice, this circular is issued.
There can be no justification in the prevalent haste and laxity existing in many offices, by which post-dating, false certification, false claim and "stool" witnesses have become a factor in the administration and acknowledgment of pension vouchers.
It is the intention of this Bureau, where the facts warrant such action, to institute criminal proceedings against the parties who indulge in these illegal and irregular practices and they are warned accordingly.
By following strictly the instructions printed on each voucher, the matters complained of may be entirely remedied.
Very respectfully,
H. CLAY EVANS,
Commissioner.

The Black Pill.
These pills are used with advantage in Disordered, Sluggish Liver, after imprudent and full meals, rich indigestible food and the dissipation of High Life. They are without taste, mild in operation, effective and are not followed by an after Stomach.
Coated Pills are easily swallowed if placed under the tongue, behind the front teeth of the lower jaw, and drinking a full draught of cool water, or lemonade. Try it.
DIRECTIONS.
FOR INDIGESTION—Two pills at bedtime, when indigestion threatens, and after full meals.
FOR CONSTIPATION—Two pills after meals, and one or two pills at bedtime if the bowels have been moved during the day. If the bowels have not been moved during the day, the dose may be gradually lessened as the constiveness is removed. The dose may be increased after full meals, and at bedtime when the bowels have not been moved during the day.
FOR HEADACHE—One or two pills after meals, when the stomach is full. One or two pills at bedtime if the bowels have not been moved during the day.
AS A PURGATIVE—The dose is from two to four to be repeated once in four hours, until the desired effect is produced.
These pills are manufactured by the Black Pill Co., Gettysburg, Pa., and sold at 25c per box, 5 boxes 1.25, 10 boxes 2.00 and 100 boxes 10.00. For sale by John McKelip, Druggist, Taneytown, Md.

Our Needs.
We all have our needs of various kinds. Our most important need, however, is Friends, but we have other needs as well as friends. We need
Dry Goods, Notions,
Boots and Shoes,
Queensware, Carpets,
Window Shades,
Groceries,
which are good and pure,
Good Suits,
Ready-made for our Boys.
Sun Bonnets,
as Spring is coming—and a variety of such things as will add to the comfort and happiness of the community.
We want to tell you that we furnish all this Ad. contains at ROCK BOTTOM PRICES, and our line of SPICES, &c., are straight goods—no compound. We don't handle them. They are worthless. We want to give you Pure Goods.
In short, our aim is to give you as much for One Dollar, as can be had anywhere in the country. We are constantly diving for bottom prices. All we ask is a chance to show our goods and name our prices, and you will be convinced of the truth.
Reindollar, Hess & Co.
TANEYTOWN, MD.

F. M. YOUNT,
TANEYTOWN, MD.
LITTLESTOWN Carriage Works.
S. D. MEHRING,
MANUFACTURER OF FINE CARRIAGES AND BUGGIES,
Buggies, Phaetons, Traps, Carts, Cutters, Fine DAYTON, McCALL, JAGGER, Wagons, AND A General Line of Light Vehicles. Repairing promptly done. Low Prices, and all work guaranteed.
LITTLESTOWN, PA. Opposite Depot. Aug 21-94

JAS. H. REINDOLLAR,
Manufacturer of Carriages, Buggies, Day-tons, Phaetons, Carts, Sleighs, etc.—a fine line of Light and Heavy Vehicles always on hand.
FACTORY WORK—a big lot on hand which will be sold cheap; also a big lot of second-hand work.
REPAIRING A SPECIALTY, and all work guaranteed.
AGENT FOR THE McCormick Binders etc. Call and see my stock, and be convinced that my goods, work and prices are right.
BUFFINGTON HOUSE,
NEAR SQUARE, Taneytown, Md.
JAS. BUFFINGTON Prop'r.
First-class in every respect. The Popular House for Commercial Travelers.
Rates Moderate. Livery in connection with House.
The BIGGEST OFFER YET
The Carroll Record AND The Twice-a-Week DETROIT FREE PRESS, BOTH PAPERS ONE YEAR FOR ONLY $1.50.
The Twice-a-Week Detroit Free Press needs no introduction. Its many special articles by noted writers have given it a world-wide reputation. In short, it is one of the cleanest, brightest and best papers published. No pains or expense will be spared in keeping up its present high standard.
Remember, that by taking advantage of this combination, you get 52 copies of THE CARROLL RECORD and 52 of THE DETROIT FREE PRESS for only $1.50.

With this issue the RECORD begins its fifth volume, full of confidence and with a bright outlook for the future. We have nothing to say of the past four years, except to extend our thanks to subscribers and advertisers for their very generous patronage; other than this, we prefer to let our readers say all that may be necessary to say. For this and succeeding volumes we have an ideal that we do not expect to fully reach; because, the best newspaper never rests on a certain degree of excellence attained, but is continually striving to do better than the satisfactory standard.
Our guaranteed circulation is 1200 copies weekly, a mark which advertisements may rest assured will be exceeded long before the close of the year. This circulation is an honest and healthy one, built up wholly on regular, full paid, subscriptions, without the offer of premiums or special rates of any character, except a few combinations with other papers. All we ask is a continuance of the favorable consideration heretofore received from our patrons, in the different branches of our business, in return for which we promise to do our full share toward returning value received, as we propose to merit and receive support from satisfied patrons rather than solicit it for any other reason.
Building Regulations.
Taneytown, and every other town, should have building regulations. Not the strict and elaborate regulations of a large city, but a few plain provisions, relating chiefly to roofs, chimneys, and outbuildings, especially the former. Frame buildings, particularly when huddled together, with single roofs, are extremely dangerous in the event of fire, as was plainly demonstrated at our fire last week. While the fire company was engaged at the burning stables; in fact, after all danger at that point was over, a number of buildings, several hundred feet away, began blazing at the roof. Had these buildings been covered with slate or metal, there would not have been the slightest danger, except in the immediate vicinity of the fire; on the other hand, had they burned, the loss of property would have been enormous, due alone to wooden roofs. It is clear, therefore, that a law reducing this feature of danger would be a wise one, and should be adopted. In its favor, it can be truthfully said that non-combustible roofs are not more expensive in the end, than wood, though costing more at the time of putting them on.
We recommend a law requiring all new roofs to be of slate or metal, whether on buildings to be erected or on old ones needing new roofs. Such a law would bring about a gradual change, until, in the course of twenty years, single roofs would be out of existence, and no property owner be financially injured thereby.
The construction of chimneys should be limited to those built of brick, on solid base, and the use of tile or stove pipe through roof or side wall should be prohibited. The attaching of frame buildings, one to another, beyond a certain limit, should also come under the ban, as well as the maintenance of stacks, barnyards or hay or straw in stacks, contiguous to buildings.
Regulations of the kind briefly suggested, should be in force in a town, whether it has a water supply or not; in the latter case, of course, they are the more necessary; but, in the former, are also necessary as a strong adjunct to the water supply and fire company.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the disease." For sale by R. S. McKinney, Druggist, Taneytown, Md.

The War Bond Issue.
The Treasury Department is now receiving popular subscriptions for $300,000,000 3 per cent. 10-20 year bonds, and the indications point to total subscriptions, popular and syndicate, of $1,000,000,000. There are three syndicates which have offered to take the whole or any part of the issue, individual banks and other institutions which want at least $50,000,000, foreign bankers who would be glad to get another $50,000,000, a combination of domestic bankers, who have bid a premium for $100,000,000, and enough capitalists who would easily take all of the issue not absorbed by popular subscription.
These enormous subscriptions constitute only one of the many unique features of this loan. The law authorizing the issue requires the bonds to be offered for popular subscription at par. There is no European country, with perhaps the sole exception of England which has in many years been able to float a loan bearing 3 per cent. interest at par. Whenever such loans have been offered the price has been at a discount, and even now Holland is offering a 3 per cent. in $5,000,000 florin loan at 95 per cent. When Russia, France, Germany, Spain, Turkey or any other European continental nation has gone into the market as a borrower, the money lenders of Europe have made their own terms and exacted the greatest discount possible, and the more impoverished the country the greater sacrifice has been required.
With the exception of the refunding loans authorized in 1875, this Government has not since the Civil War sought to borrow so large an amount as now at any one time, and never before has the Treasury Department been required to accept subscriptions at exactly par.

There is no question about the entire success of the loan. If it should not be wholly absorbed by the people the remainder will be eagerly sought by combinations of capitalists. The loan will stand on record as one of the most brilliant financial achievements of President McKinley's administration, and it will be the first really popular 3 per cent. loan ever floated at par in the history of this country.—American Economist.
Execution of Pension Vouchers.
The Bureau of Pensions, Washington, D. C., has recently issued the following circular, which is self-explanatory and should lead to a correction of the abuses mentioned:
"Recent investigation had by this Bureau to ascertain the methods employed by public officials in executing pension vouchers, has demonstrated an almost total disregard of the laws and regulations governing the subject.
It is clearly evidenced that the legal law, indifferent and perfunctory procedure now extant has become a menace to the proper and safe conduct of the affairs of this Bureau, so far as it relates to the payment of pensions, and special efforts are contemplated to correct the existing abuses.
While it is believed that many officials who assist in the execution of pension vouchers have no conception of their criminal liability in the premises, it is equally certain that many others to secure an advantage in the numerical number of their clientele, knowingly and willfully resort to violations of the law.
To the end that the former class may profit by this notice, this circular is issued.
There can be no justification in the prevalent haste and laxity existing in many offices, by which post-dating, false certification, false claim and "stool" witnesses have become a factor in the administration and acknowledgment of pension vouchers.
It is the intention of this Bureau, where the facts warrant such action, to institute criminal proceedings against the parties who indulge in these illegal and irregular practices and they are warned accordingly.
By following strictly the instructions printed on each voucher, the matters complained of may be entirely remedied.
Very respectfully,
H. CLAY EVANS,
Commissioner.

THE TANEYTOWN SAVINGS BANK,
Does a General Banking Business, Loans money on Real or Personal Security. Discounts Notes. Collections and Remittances promptly made.
Interest paid on Time Deposits.
HENRY GALT, Treasurer.
W. W. CRAPSTER, President.
DIRECTORS.
SAMUEL STONER, LEONARD ZILL, JOSEPH KOVITZ, DANIEL NELLE, JAMES C. GALT, JOHN J. CRAPSTER, T. H. ECKENRODE, CALVIN F. FRINGER, W. W. CRAPSTER, HENRY GALT, July 28-4

ROBERT S. MCKINNEY,
DRUGGIST,
TANEYTOWN, MD.
"Hold up, Jim, I want to see you for a little! If you don't care to take me, I would like to know what always makes you so late such a good humor every Monday morning?"
"By John, I will tell you what brought such sweet peace into my home. One Monday morning, L. K. BIRELY drove up to my house and asked my wife to try one of his Washers; but, like most women say before they try them, she said, 'I do not want any washer—my hands are good enough' but finally, he and I together persuaded her to try one. Well, from that time on, she has been a different woman."
I will, on short notice, deliver on trial, any of the leading washing machines or clothes wringers of the day.
I have also a lot of second-hand Wringers I will sell cheap. Satisfaction guaranteed. Send for Circulars.
L. K. BIRELY, Agent.
3-5-6mo Middleburg, Md.

Reindollar & Co.,
TANEYTOWN, MD.
G. W. DEMMITT,
DENTIST,
TANEYTOWN, MD.
E. E. REINDOLLAR,
Reindollar & Co.,
DEALERS IN—
Grain, Lumber, Coal,
HAY, STRAW, SALT, FEED, CEMENT,
AND
FERTILIZERS.
TANEYTOWN, MD.
July 24

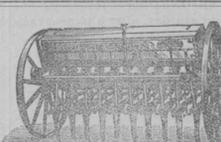

Notice to Creditors.
This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphan's Court of Carroll county, in Md., letters of administration on the estate of
ELIZABETH ROSS DANNER,
late of Carroll county, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased are hereby notified to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor legally authenticated, to the subscriber, on or before the 11th day of December, 1893; they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate.
Given under my hand this 6th day of June, 1893.
LUTHER KEMP,
Administrator.

Empire Cream Separator.
and double the income from your Dairy.
You may not believe it, but send for testimonials of the experience of others who have tried it. You will be as much surprised as they were.
D. W. GARNER,
General Agent,
TANEYTOWN, CARROLL CO., MD.
Agents Wanted.
Jun 1-8
(Mention this Paper.)

Fresh Cows Wanted
Will pay the highest market price for fresh cows, springers, bolognas, stock bulls and fat stock of all kinds. Drop notice to Howard J. Spalding, Littlestown, Pa. Will be pleased to call to see stock at any time.
6-29-93

THE CROWN.
For sale by
JOHN S. WEYBRIGHT,
Apr 23-9m D. P. CREEK, MD

Cast not your Pearls before Swine;
Neither continue to feed good butter to your porkers. Get an EMPIRE CREAM Separator,
and double the income from your Dairy.
You may not believe it, but send for testimonials of the experience of others who have tried it. You will be as much surprised as they were.
D. W. GARNER,
General Agent,
TANEYTOWN, CARROLL CO., MD.
Agents Wanted.
Jun 1-8
(Mention this Paper.)

J. T. KOONTZ,
Model Bakery,
TANEYTOWN, MD.
Having placed in my store a FIRST-CLASS Soda Fountain,
I am now prepared to serve the trade with a most cooling and refreshing drink of Ice Cream Soda.
A full line of choice Groceries and Confectioneries.
FLOUR!
All the leading brands; Pillsbury's Best, Cyclone, and Diamond Medal Spring wheat Flour; Reindollar's, Stoner's, Bassano's, West's, Myers' and Ivory White.
Corn Meal and Chicken Feed; California Rendered Honey.
ICE CREAM
by the pint, quart or gallon. Salted Fish always on hand. Lard wanted, either in trade or cash, at Highest Price.

Reindollar & Co.,
TANEYTOWN, MD.
G. W. DEMMITT,
DENTIST,
TANEYTOWN, MD.
E. E. REINDOLLAR,
Reindollar & Co.,
DEALERS IN—
Grain, Lumber, Coal,
HAY, STRAW, SALT, FEED, CEMENT,
AND
FERTILIZERS.
TANEYTOWN, MD.
July 24

Reindollar & Co.,
TANEYTOWN, MD.
G. W. DEMMITT,
DENTIST,
TANEYTOWN, MD.
E. E. REINDOLLAR,
Reindollar & Co.,
DEALERS IN—
Grain, Lumber, Coal,
HAY, STRAW, SALT, FEED, CEMENT,
AND
FERTILIZERS.
TANEYTOWN, MD.
July 24

Notice to Creditors.
This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphan's Court of Carroll county, in Md., letters of administration on the estate of
ELIZABETH ROSS DANNER,
late of Carroll county, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased are hereby notified to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor legally authenticated, to the subscriber, on or before the 11th day of December, 1893; they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate.
Given under my hand this 6th day of June, 1893.
LUTHER KEMP,
Administrator.

