GOOD MONEY FOR BAD NEWS Paid to Learn That Sight Would Leave Him In Six Months.

Somehow it made me feel bad, this happening that I am about to relate. I was in the office of an oculist, one of the leading men in his profession in Pittsburg. A big, strong and healthy looking man entered. His appearance indicated that he had many years of life before him. He was well dressed, keenly intelligent and of pleasant counte-

> Irving Didn't Read. Sir Henry Irving appeared at the Theater Royal, Edinburgh, in 1857, and two years later he went to Linlith gow to give a reading there. He was delighted to see his name in big letters on the posters on arriving in the town. He went to the hall, but there was no crowd there-in fact, the caretaker had not arrived, having forgotten all about the reading. Irving went in search of him, and things were got ready; 8:30 o'clock arrived, but no one came to the hall-not even a small boy. In recalling the incident Sir Henry was wont to say, "I never slept better than I did that night.
