Manila, October 18.—General Otis has received messages purporting to come from the insurgent general Pio del Pilar, offering to sell out his army and to deliver Aguinaldo into the hands of the Americans. Although he is not satisfied that this offer is authentic, it is not intrinsically improbable. The policy of General Otis is firmly set against buying any surrenders.

Pio del Pilar offers, for the sum of $50,000, to refrain from an attack on Manila with his army; for the sum of $250,000 he offers to surrender his army after a sham battle, both sides fifting into the air, and for the sum of $500,000 he says he will procure the sain of the sail of about $50 miles from Honding and the island of Maui is the sail of about $50 miles from Honding and the island of Maui is sail to be sail to sail of about $50 miles from Honding and the sail of about $500 miles from Honding and the sail of about $50 miles from Honding and the sail of about $50 miles from Honding and the sail of about $50 miles from Honding and the sail of about $50 miles from Honding and the sail of about $50 miles from Honding and the sail of ab
