By order of Directors, and as the season changes, we must change also. During the past six months there have been some of the most remarkable changes that have ever been noticed. Scarcely a line has escaped the advance in prices, and the outlook calls for no immediate reductions, yet we have been very careful in our marking, and after a survey you will agree that the goods displayed on our counters are remarka-bly low. The fact of our having an immense stock of goods on hand prior to the wonderful advance all along the line, establishes the fact that we are headquarters for all domestics. Yes, I've got a little brother, Never asked for him from mother, But he's here; But I 'spose they went and bought him, For last week the doctor brought him-Ain't it queer?

When I heard the news from Molly, Why, I thought at first 'twas jolly: 'Cause, you see, I just 'magined I could get him And our dear mamma would let him-Play with me.

But when once I had looked at him, I cried out: "Oh, dear! Is that him? Just that mite! They said: "Yes; you may kiss him!" Well, I'm sure I'd never miss him-He's a fright.

He's so small, it's just amazing, And you'd think that he was blazing-He's so red; And his nose is like a berry, And he's bald as Uncle Jerry

On his head. He's no kind of good whatever, And he cries as if he'd never, Never stop; Won't sit up-you can't arrange him, Oh! why doesn't father change him

At the shop?

Now, we've got to dress and feed him, And we really didn't need him, Little frog! And I cannot think why father Should have bought him when I'd rather Have a dog!
