NUMBER 13

NEWS NOTES OF INTEREST, Brief Items from the County, State, and our Exchanges.

Miss Lydia Hartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hartman, of Littlestown,

Myersville, Frederick county, is fast becoming one of the prettiest towns in the county. It will only be a very short time until every sidewalk in the place will be of concrete, and all on an even grade. In fact, it is now known as a rown of concrete walks, it having more than any place in the county.

SINGER SEWING MACHINE or a Wheeler & Wilson

After you get a Singer or Wheeler & Wilson in your home, you'll realize what a valuable servant it is. Then you'll be able to sympathize with misguided friends who have been induced to buy some comparatively unknown machine, only to find, when something went wrong, that they were unable to have it repaired, because no nearby store sold the parts to make repairs. Singer stores are everywhere and Singer experts are always near ready to give you advice, instruction, supply lost parts or make repairs. Singer Sewing Machines and Wheeler & Wilsons are sold only in Singer stores or by Singer salesmen-never by dealers or under any other name.

Pioneer of Christian Endeavor Society. Rev. Alexander Smellie in his book, "Men of the Covenant," relates the following

In 1683, one of the darkest years of the killing time, a company of girls in the village of Pentland had their own little gathering for purposes of devotion. There were fifteen of them, and they each subscribed to a bond. Here is this early Christian Endeavor pledge:

"This is a covenant between the Lord and us to give up ourselves freely to Him without reserve, soul and body, hearts and affections, to be His children and Him to be our God and Father if it please the Holy Lord to send His gospel to the land again."

Each girl set down her name to the fearless document: Beatrix Umpherston-she was but ten summers old: Janet Brown, Helen Moutry, Marion Swan, Janet Swan, Isobel Craig, Martha Logan, Agnes Aitken, Margaret Galloway, Helen Stratten, Helen Clark, Margaret Brown, Marion M'Morren, Christian Laurie.

Thus even the children were imbued with the dauntlessness of their elders. If, as the Talmud says, Jerusalem fell because the training of the children had been neglected, the Scotland of the
