NEWS NOTES HERE AND THERE

Condensed Items of Interest from County, State and Our Exchanges.

has indorsed B. H. Warne gress, in the Sixth District. Warner for Con-

The United Brethren Conference lauded the efforts of the Anti-Saloon League, of Maryland and Pennsylvania, as agent of the church to secure Local Option.

President Taft has returned to Washington, for the winter. On Nov. 10, he expects to visit Panama to inspect the progress of the work on the great canal.

The Bright Publishing Co., of Hamp-stead, has addled another weekly to its list of publications. The Independent, for Arlington, Baltimore county. Editor Bright says the paper will be issued "as long as it will pay to publish it." Surely the people of Arlington will properly support the venture.

The work of assessing property throughout Frederick county is progress-ing. The work has been completed in Burkittsville, Braddock, Creagerstown and Ballenger districts. The assessing in other districts is said to be making good headway. It is now thought that the taxable basis will be greatly increased, as a whole, perhaps in the neighbor-

Is Col. Roosevelt popular? He is either that, or a great curiosity, for about 15,000 people in Baltimore are try ing to get tickets for his lecture at the Lyric, on Nov. 2, while at the most but 3500 can be accommodated. He will appear at the opening of the convention of the General Committee of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal church.

A terrific cyclone in Cuba, the first of this week, wrought terrible havoc to (For the RECORD.) property amounting to millions of dollars, not only to sugar and tobacco plantations, but to cities and towns and shipping. It is said to have been the greatest disaster in the history of the is-Other islands, as well as Florida, also suffered severely.

The total registration in Baltimore, was as follows, Democrats 53,259; Republicans 39,978, declined to affiliate 13,218. It will be seen that the Democratic vote exceeds the Republican just 63 votes more than the "unaffiliated" vote, which still leaves Baltimore a "doubtful" city. The white vote is 90,271 to 16,184 colored, or 5½ white voters to one colored.

Senator J. P. Dolliver, of Iowa, died suddenly, on Saturday last, from dilation of the heart, following a case of indigestion. Senator Dolliver was one of the ablest and most rolled many a reception was held and a luncheon consisting of block ice cream, cakes, fruit, confectionery and cocoa. the ablest and most noted men in the Senate, and was prominently identified with the "insurgent" movement. He was a most brilliant orator, a tireless worker, and noted for his brilliant epigrams. He was in his 53rd. year.

Congress is catching it again on account of the advance on sealskins which is anywhere from 25 to 80 per cent., caused by the act prohibiting the killing of seals for five years after next May 1. The only hope to get a new sealskin from Alaska in the prohibited period is from a Japanese poacher, and the poacher's only hope to catch one is in dodging the extremely active revenue cuttere of the Bering Sea patrol fleet. The hope is apparently, a forlorn one.

The gate and grandstand receipts at the Hagerstown Fair this year amount to $24,336.60, which breaks all previous records, the increased income from these two sources being $3,165.65 above any other year. The entrance fees for races run about $1,000 ahead of other years, it is said, and the receipts from poultry entrance fees run considerably more. The expenses may run a little more than formerly. During the four days of Fair it is estimated that about 100,000 a white wedding booklet. persons were upon the grounds.

Owing to the expense of winter were invited to the dining-room, where fodder a number of dairymen in Balti- all did ample justice to the abundant more county are selling their herds. While the price of milk is 20 cents a gallon delivered in the city, and higher than in previous years, it is asserted by the milkmen that the price should be 25 cents to give a profit to the producer. The shortage of pasture, owing to the unusual drouth, has added expense to the fall supply and discouraged the dairymen from continuing through the broadcloth with velvet hat to match the

The Cecil whig, published in Elkton, the home of Gov. Crothers, is responsible for the following contribution to subject of road-making: Castle county, Del., has just accepted a little over 61 miles of macadam road at a total cost of $34,000, or between $5, 000 and $9,000 per mile. The same firm has contracted in the same county for two miles at something over $6,000 per The thing which puzzles our people is why roads can be built at that figure just over the Delaware line, while on this, the Maryland side of the line, our Roads Commission is paying $10,000 and upward per mile. The "lay of the land" is pretty much the same on both sides of the line, and such a wide discrepancy in price naturally calls forth much unfavorable comment. It is time the people whose money is being spent for this work were given some light on this matter. Our Roads Commission may be able to furnish a satisfactory explanation. On the face of things it seems an outrage that Delaware should be building roads right alongside of us for the former's relatives. On their return several thousands of dollars per mile to Columbia they will reside at No 30 less than our figures."

Col. 'Goulden's Retirement.

Hon. Joseph A. Goulden's term in Congress (Bronx Dist., N. Y. City) will end, on March 4, in accordance with his desires, as another candidate was named, on the 13th. He says he "feels like a school boy with a long vacation, as he will be relieved from "the arduous The Grand Army Club, of Maryland, duties and exacting cares of looking after more than 500,000 people in Congress." Almost up to the last hour, pressure was brought to bear on him to reconsider his expressed determination to retire, but he insisted on being relieved and another was selected.

Col. Goulden has served his district, and the whole country, conscientiously and energetically, and he can be proud of his record which has been above reproach. His service has been a personal sacrifice, from the financial point of view, and it is to be regretted that this is too frequently the outcome of holding political position. The expense attaching to nomination and election, and the cost of living throughout the term, not counting the loss of that which would have been earned during the term in other pursuits, often preclude the possibility of saving even a meagre portion of the official salary.

Considerations such as these either force a man out of public life, eventually, or to engage in practices which stand for a sacrifice of personal honor and honesty, unless he be independently wealthy from a large private income, or is content to stay poor. Taking this dent. view of the matter, Col. Goulden has done his part in giving eight years of his life and ability to the service of his country, and it is no more than right that he should now give his own private interests his fell times and the should now give his own private interests his full time and attention.

This section of the second Maryland district will miss many favors heretoiore received from Col. Goulden, as his successor will have no interest in us-we will miss having two representatives in Congress—but, perhaps Tanevtown district may, in other ways, receive even greater benefit from his retirement; at least, we hope to see more of him here.

......

Gilbert--Ecker.

Miss Mertie Irene Ecker, daughter of Elder and Mrs. Greenberry Ecker, of Westminster, Md., and Mr. Joseph Arlington Gilbert, of Waynesboro, Pa., son of Mr. Albert Gilbert, 1200 and this county, were married at 2.30 p. m., Wednesday, at the home of the bride's parents, by Elder Uriah Bixler, of the Church of the Brethren, of which church both bride and groom are members.

The bride was attended by her sister,
Miss Emma R. Ecker and Miss Eugenie
Groff. Little Misses Sarah Elizabeth Englar, of York, Pa., and Lenna Kathleen Wright, of Grottoes, Va., nieces of the bride were flower girls. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white Messaline and the attendants white Persian lawn. The groom looked his best in a suit of

The presents were numerous and hand-some consisting of silver, cut glass, china, linens and several handsome pieces of mahogany furniture and a large family Bible. Amid a shower of rice and con-fetti, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert left on the fast mail for Ashton and Dixon, Ill., to visit the bride's sisters, Mr. and Mrs. D. Walter Beechley and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Dickery. Their baggage was decorated expressly for the occasion, by their many friends who gathered at the station to bid them goodbye. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert will reside in Waynesboro, Pa.

Harman-Myers.

(For the RECord.) In the presence of a large number of guests, on Saturday, October 15, 1910, Rev. G. W. Baughman, the bride's pastor, united in marriage, Miss Mabel A. Myers and Mr. John C. Harman, at Locust Grove Farm, near Frizellburg. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Myers; the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Harman. Clarence and Walter Myers, brothers of the bride, were the ushers, and Wm. Flohr, played the wedding march. The bride was gowned in a mouse-colored messaline trimmed in lace, and carried

The house was tastefully decorated in potted and cut flowers and autumn After the ceremony, the guests refreshments served, which consisted of ice cream, cake, confectionery, bananas, oranges and coffee.

Amid a shower of rice, the bridal party departed in a beautifully decorated and tagged automobile, for Westminster, where Mr. and Mrs. Harman took the train for Baltimore and Washington. The bride's travelling suit was

Mrs. Harman was the recipient of many handsome gifts of silver and china, glass and granite ware, furniture, rugs, pictures, towels, table linen, bedding and a cheque for $100.00 from the bride's father.

Storm-Imswiler.

A very pretty wedding ceremony was performed at eight o'clock last Friday morning in St. Peter's Catholic Church, Columbia, by the rector, Rev. P. J. Costigan, when Miss Mary Rose Imswiler, daughter of Mrs. Mary Imswiler, who resides at No. 30 South Eighth street, Columbia, was united in marriage with John I. Storm, also of Columbia formerly of Taneytown. The couple was attended by Miss Agnes Roland and Eugene Imswiler, the latter a brother of the bride. The bride received many useful and beautiful gifts, including furniture, linens, bric-a-brac, silverware, cut glass, etc. Mr. and Mrs. Storm arrived in Taneytown, in the evening where they spent a week with South Eighth street.

BIG DAY AT GETTYSBURG.

President Granville Inaugurated with very Impressive Ceremonies.

Thursday was a great day for Pennsylvania College, Gettvsburg, and very handsomely was the occasion of the inauguration of its new President, William Anthony Granville carried out in detail. Perhaps on no other occasion within the state has so large a number of prominent educators been assembled, nor a brighter galaxy of speakers heard, than made up the day's program, which, from start to finish, was a great success.

The program opened with an academic procession starting from recitation hall and ending in the large pavilion, seating 2000, which had been specially erected on the campus for the occasion. The procession was headed by the Board of Trustees, Professors of the College and Honorable Delegates from other institutions; then came various public officials, the alumni and former students, and last the student body.

Addresses were delivered by Justice J. Hay Brown of the Supreme Court of Pa.; Judge Swope, of Gettysburg; Secretary of Yale College, Anson Phelps Stokes; Prof. John A. Hines, Prof. Allen J. Smith, student Earl J. Bowman, and the inaugural address of the Presi-

Following the main program came the collation in recitation hall, at which the following speakers were heard; President Remsen, of Johns Hopkins; President Reed, of Dickinson; President Heckert, of Wittenberg; Prof. Ormond, of Princeton, and Dr. Brumbaugh, of Philadelphia Philadelphia.

President Granville was paid the very highest tributes for his learning and general ability by Secretary Stokes, of Yale, where he was a member of the faculty, as well as by others, and it is unanimously conceded that Gettysburg has made a great stride toward a forward movement by securing his services. His inaugural, in which he outlined his plans for the future of the institution, was a model effort, and was enthusiastically received. Evidently, a new spirit has taken hold of the old College, and it means progress and development.

A large number of those in attendance left in the evening for Smithsburg, to attend the Maryland Synod, which opened that evening.

Program of C. E. Convention.

The program for the Christian Endeavor State Convention, to be held in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Cumber-land, October 25, 26, 27, has been completed and is full of excellent matter for the many delegates that will attend.

The special feature of the day sessions are the conferences on Christian En-deavor plans and methods which will be conducted by Mr. John R. Clements, of New York State C. E. Union. Mr. Clements is considered the best conference leader in the country. Other conference leaders are Spencer E. Sisco and speakers are Rev. E. L. Shipley, Baltimore, on "The Master's Call to Service;" Rev. Dr. L. B. Wolf, Baltimore, on Opens up a larger section, of territory, opens up a larger section and open a larger sec "The Macedonian Call;" Rev. Dr. and it would have been a be Charles W. Brewbaker, Chambersburg, a hard road to Washington. Pa., on "The Master's Call to the Ministry;" Rev. Clayton H. Ranck, Baltimore, on "The Nobility of Service." Rev. Wilson T. M. Baele, Salisburg, will conduct a Quiet Hour Service each morning. A laymen's meeting, setting forth the things for which Christian Endeavor stands, will be addressed by Messrs. Richard A. Harris, Charles E. Ecker, Frederick Ohrenschall, George

The Junior Rally will be held on names will stand as follows: Thursday afternoon in charge of Rev. Luther Martin. The children have prepared a very attractive service in addition to which Rev. U. S. G. Rupp, of Frederick, will deliver an address. For the evening services strong speakers have been secured. The Convention Theme, "The Master's Call," will be the subject of the convention sermon to be preached by Rev. Dr. E. L. Pilgrim, Carlisle, Pa., on the opening evening.

On Wednesday evening, Hon. Homer

L. Castle, of Pittsburg, Pa., will speak on "Christian Citizenship" and from his well known principles on this theme the audience will certainly be given a vigorous address.

The closing address will be delivered y Rev. Dr. Courtenay H. Fenn, of Pekin, China, whose subject will be "Personal Evangelism." Dr. Fenn was in China during the Boxer trouble and is one of the best informed men in this country on missions. He is fresh from his fields of labor and will have a strong message for the Convention.

A great crowd is reported from all A great crowd is reported to over the state and many from this section will be among the number. The state president, Mr. William M. Robinhas sent out a special letter to all societies urging them to be well represented and many of them have sent in the names of their delegates, some sending two and three.

The contest over the Emmitsburg postoffice is waxing warm as the days pass by, and already there are no less than seven candidates in the field for the place, with one or two dark horses, unmentioned, in the background. The belief prevails among those who ought corn than the wildest dream could have the country that the automobile people to be possessed of the most accurate information, that the appointment will finally be given to Mr. Edward Moser, who has charge of the office at the present time as deputy postmaster, in which position he has proved not only especialthe patrons of the office.

A subscriber who absolutely likes | Press. and indorses the course of a paper, can do it a wonderful amount of good, and he ought to do it, for it own personal influence as a citizen many arrests have been made.

Road Trouble in Carroll.

The road question, as it applies to Carroll county, has reached a stage where personalisms are indulged in and bad faith charged, as refers to the lower section of the county. The dispute is over the Westminster-Eldersburg road which the Commission has located by the way of Gamber, which carries it through the property of Senator Beas-man and his brother and has raised the charge of favoritism to the Senator, which the Governor characterizes as a

Those who oppose the road selected favor the Liberty-Washington road, and wanted the work to commence at Westminster, but instead, it has been commenced at Eldersburg.

The two routes are almost equal in Ine two routes are almost equal in length. The road by the way of Gamber is 11 miles and 83 rods. The Liberty-Washington road is 11 miles and 32 rods. One objection which is made against the Gamber road is that for nearly six miles it parallels the Delti nearly six miles it parallels the Baltimore pike. This latter road is never more than four miles distant from the route selected by the commission for the new State road, and in several places draws as near as two and a half miles.

The southwestern section of the county has nothing but dirt roads leading to the county seat. These are fairly good during nine months of the year, but the other three months are not suited to heavy hauling. It is contended that it is unfair to build the State road on the eastern side of the county, where there is now a pike, and leave the southwestern section without a hard road.

The Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, composed of about 300 members, representing the business and professional men of Westminster, have also opposed the Gamber road and have filed protests with the State Roads Commison against its adoption.

Many of those who originally favored the Gamber route are now complaining that the county road from Eldersburg to Gamber has not been followed by the commission. There are two roads that lead from Eldersburg to Gamber. One is known as the Beasman road. It was abandoned by the county about 20 years ago on account of its poor condition and the difficulty of repairing it and a new road was laid out known as the Buckingham road. The old Beasman road runs through the property of the Beasman heirs, of which Senator Beasman and his brother, George Beasman, own the greater part. This road has not been worked for a number of years, and not a house is located upon it.

There are 11 homes along the new road. When the commission announced that the Gamber road had been selected it was generally supposed that the route would follow the Buckingham road. This is not the case, however. The new road has been deserted and the property owners who built along it are in some in-stances two miles from the road as lo-

Several of the residents of Eldersburg, at the branching of the roads in dispute, were emphatic in their declaration that the Liberty-Washington road would have been the better route for the State ference leaders are Spencer E. Sisco and Alfred S. Day, of Baltimore. The day speakers are Rev. E. L. Shipley, Baltington road could have been constructed for less money, it is a little shorter, it and it would have been a beginning for

The List of Candidates.

The time for filing nonination papers having passed, voters in this district can familiarize themselves with the names as they will appear on the ballot. There are four candidates, both Prohibitionists and Socialists having made nomination.

Republican WILLIAM B. BAKER, HARRY E. GILBERT, CHARLES W. SMILEY, J. F. C. TALBOTT,

Mr. Talbott holds the best place for illiterates-the last square on the ballot. Owing to the few names and the small bailot, there should be but little difficulty experienced by anybody in markng the ballot, except by those with defective sight.

Wealth in Corn Crop.

A corn crop of 3,000,0000,000 bushels s a blessed gift to the American people. Pretty nearly everybody understands how large a factor corn is in the food problem. Corn to feed and fatten the ivestock that is to become the meatbeef, mutton or pork-for the dinner table of the nation. Corn to feed and fatten the poultry. Meats, milk, butter and eggs all are affected as to supply and price by the corn crop. With prices up where they are now it is easy to see what could happen in the way of vastly higher prices if there were a failure of the general corn crop to make it virtually impossible to feed the livestock and poultry which are the food of the Ameri-

What corn means to the farmers who with the crops of 15 years ago, but of the different prices. Virtually twice the price of a bushel and twice the quantity! Hundreds upon hundreds of dollars a year more to those who raise der also all the crops. Probably there class of roads and the expensive ones will be a value of more than $7,000,000,- that are suggested. I have had some der also all the crops. 000 for what the American farmers take experience in automobiling myself on out of their fields this year. This is a the best roads that can be produced, stupendous wealth that it would be diffi- and they are certainly a luxury. If we efficient, but also very popular with cult for even a prodigal nation to dissipate at once. It is a wealth that, wisely used as most of it will be, can bring the people they would certainly be a blessings to the country.—New York great addition to our community and to

The big railroad strike in France was good, and he ought to do it, for it called off, on Monday. A number of is only another way of making his acts of violence were committed, and Union gave up the contest.

COMMISSIONERS DISAGREE.

First Plans for Roadmaking Appear to Have Been Partly Abandoned.

The RECORD is giving, almost weekly, considerable space to the subject of state road building, for the reason that it is the greatest public question before the tax-payers of the state, and on which our readers not only ought to be interested, but also express their opinions. We deem it a public duty, there fore, to place before our readers such facts and comments which are likely to lead to an intelligent knowledge of the progress of the undertaking, and if possible to draw out and help to shape, majority public sentiment.—ED. RECORD.

At the meeting of the State Road

At the meeting of the State Road Cammissioners, on Monday, it appears pretty clear that the plans of the Commission, as at first outlined and agreed upon, are forgotten, and that it is the intention of the Governor and two of the Board to adopt entirely new plans, whenever and wherever they see fit. How this change of base may affect Carroll county, is not yet fully in evi-dence, as the county is receiving very little consideration, but there need not be much surprise if the first laid plans are abandoned entirely.

Just now the Board is divided over the question of purchasing turnpikes in Frederick county, and is more or less impressed with the criticism coming from that county that money is being wasted in road construction without benefit or justification, especially in tearing up the solid beds of old pikes and constructing them anew at a cost of $10,000 to $12,000 a mile, when less than half that sum expended on present beds would accomplish equally as satisfactory results.

The Governor, and Messrs. Tucker and Hutton are lined up in favor of purchasing the Baltimore and Frederick pike for $100,000, and the Emmitsburg pike at a cost of $22,480. Messrs. Shoemaker, Remsen and Clarke do not agree that the state should pay an amount for the letter which is full par value, when the latter which is full par value, when the market stock value has fallen from $20.00 par to $3.63 per share, and so the case will stand until a November meeting-likely after the election.

Prof. Clark came out emphatically in the declaration that in purchasing the Emmitsburg pike at this time Governor Crothers is discarding the whole scheme of road building in Frederick county originally mapped out by the Commis-sion with the idea of first establishing main arteries of traffic, and that if the Commission turns aside in its first purpose it may not be able finally to estab. lish this main Frederick road.

Prof. Clark showed that the original scheme had been to build the Frederick main road and then take up the Jefferson, Newmarket and Emmitsburg roads in succession, but Governor Crothers' plan is to buy the last of these first and the Newmarket road next and apparently to let the main road take care of itself as best it may.

Governor Crothers paid little attention to Professor Clark's remonstrance about discarding the original plan, merely saying that there is no conflict and that he is anxious to act while they have the chance. Mr. Hutton disclosed the probable purpose for haste in obtaining the Emmitsburg road by declaring that the people are dissatisfied and it was apparent that the original scheme not having gone ahead as fast as expected, fixing up the county with those several pieces of turnpike.

Notwithstanding the efforts of the Governor to convince the people that his road movement is "the best thing ever," the fact is plain that the Commission is badly divided, that the people as a whole are not pleased, and that at the present rate of cost the state will and Socialists having made nomination.

According to alphabetical order, the never agree to make another large appropriation for continuing the work. It propriation for continuing the work. It is also clear that it will not be satisfactory for the Commission to build Prohibition little patches of road leading nowhere, Socialist in order to please certain private inter-Democratic | ests, but that the original idea of constructing main roads, connecting important points, must be carried out, or the people will visit their displeasure, at the proper time, where it belongs.

The whole scheme begins to look very much as though it has been mishandled from the beginning, and that Chairman Tucker and the Governor are not the right men for the job. There is hardly day, Oct., 19. the slightest question of doubt that a great deal more would have been accomplished in the right direction-more work, and more generally satisfactory work—had the counties been given their pro-rata portion of the appropriation, and each left to build its own roads under the supervision of the County Commissioners, following a specified plan of construction on a certain fixed system, the specifications looking only to the construction of solid and economical roads, not only in the first outlay, but in their subsequent repair.

Mr. Joseph D. Baker, of Frederick, one of the best known men in the state, voices public sentiment exactly in the following interview:

"Macadam roads in Frederick county are not, by any means, a new proposition. We have enjoyed them for grow it may be realized by a comparison not only of the yield of this year maintained them, and it is not saying we want. What the people of Frederick county want are good roads and roads that are not too expensive.

"I know there is a feeling abroad in estimated not so very long ago. Consilare probably interested in the very fine had the money to spend for them without such serious objection on the part of great addition to our community and to the State. But the question is, shall we have a few miles of fine road built at a high cost or have more miles of good roads built at a reasonable cost?

"I think if the roads commissioners knew the sentiment of the people of Frederick county they would find it decidedly in favor of good roads, such town, by the pastor, J. P. S. Young. The | Frederick county they would find it de-roads as can be traveled both by teams and automobiles, as against a few miles of very expensive road. Take for instance the road that has been acquired to Jefferson. We are all satisfied to travel over that road after a few improvements have been made on it, and for seven miles of road it only cost the State $9,000, or with the contribution made, $14,300.

"If the commission will buy the National highway and spend from two to three thousand dollars a mile upon it, we feel that it could be put in such condition that the people at large would be satisfied with it. The same thing applies to the Emmitsburg road and to other pikes that have been offered to the commission at prices that it would be commission at prices that it would be justified in paying.

"The whole question is this: Shall we have a few miles of very flue road construction or a good number of miles of roads that will practically meet the wants of the people? I am in favor of the latter." the latter.'

Wellman Fails to Cross the Ocean.

Walter Wellman, a noted air navigator, left Atlantic City, on Saturday, in his big dirigible balloon "America" bound for England, accompanied by a crew of five men. At a point off Nantucket, on the New England coast, 300 miles from the starting point, wireless miles from the starting point, wireless messages were picked up announcing "all well," at 12.45 Sunday afternoon. Nothing was heard from the party on Monday, but on Tuesday wireless message were received stating that the English steamer, Trent, had taken the party on board, 400 miles off Cape Hatteras, North Carolina, the balloon being in a helpless condition, blown far out of her

The distance covered is thought to have been about 850 miles. An effort was made to save the balloon, but it was found, after several attempts, that it would be impossible to board the steamer without cutting it loose. A small life boat connected with the balloon was launched, with difficulty, and then the ropes were severed permitting the balloon to float away.

Wellman expressed deep regret that he had been unable to proceed with his voyage across the Atlantic, but he said that the America had been caught by the wind and carried so far out of her course that he realized that it would be nothing short of folly to try to continue the trip. He said that while he regretted to lose the America he was fully convinced that the dirigible, even if saved, would have been useless for further experiments.

"This particular type of balloon," Mr. Wellman said, "will never do for crossing the ocean. We were disappointed in the equilibrator. It did not serve the purpose which we had expected when we started on the voyage last Saturday. Everything else worked all right, and even with a broken motor we could have gone ahead, but without the equilibrator to guide our course we realized that we would have to abandon our air

The equilibrator was an anchor, or weight, which trailed in the water, attached by ropes to the balloon.

Last Call for Calendars.

We will positively close our Calendar orders for the season, on November 1. No orders will be taken thereafter without adding express charges from facthe Governor hopes to make good by fixing up the county with those several we will be able to fill late orders on any

> If the RECORD meets with your approval, don't you think it a personal obligation for you to try to interest your neighbors along the same line?

DIED.

Obituaries, poetry and resolutions, charged for at the rate of five cents per line. The regular death notices published free.

WAMPLER.-Mary Elizabeth Wampler, wife of Moses Wampler, of near Dayton, Ohio; died on Sunday, 10 a. m., Oct. 16, She had suffered for almost a year with Cancer of the Liver. She was the second daughter of Daniel Stoner, of Dayton, Ohio; and leaves a husband and seven children. Funeral, Wednes-

EICHOLTZ. - Mrs. Harriet A. Eicholtz, (nee Stultz,) was born in Carroll County, Md., Feb. 19, 1834; died Sept. 25, 1910, aged 76 years, 7 months and 6 days. She was married to Daniel B. Eicholtz, Feb. 5, 1857, moved to Nachusa, Ill., in 1863, ived there fifteen years and from there moved to Bennington, Kansas. Her husband and one son survive her, also one brother, William Stultz, of Bennington, Kansas, and one sister, Mrs. Wilson, of Union Bridge, Md.

TAWNEY .- At her home in Cedar Bluffs, Nebraska, Mrs. Annie M. Tawnev died on Oct. 2, 1910, aged 70 years, 2 months and 20 days. She was a daughmonths and 20 days. She was a daughter of James and Mary McKellip and was born at Taneytown, Md., and was married to John E. Tawney, formerly of Gettysburg, March 19, 1867. In 1878 they removed to Saunders county, Neb., and in 1907 moved to Cedar Bluffs, where they resided. Her husband died two years ago. She leaves six children, William A., of Osmond, Neb.; John E. Jr., of Morse Bluffs, Neb.; Mrs. Adele Hills, of Ma-Bluffs, Neb.; Mrs. Adele Hills, of Malino, Neb.; Oliver I., of Crown King, Arizona; Paul of Lincoln, Neb., and Miss Ella, at home, also five step-children, Rufus A., of Grand Junction, Col.; James A., and D. E., of Winona, Minn.; Mrs. J. A. Lefferts, of Elizabeth, N. J., and Mrs. C. H. Meseny, of Freunont, Neb. Two brothers, John McKellip, of Taneytown, Md., and J. A. McKellip, of Baltimore, and one sis-A. McKellip, of Baltimore, and one sister, Miss Margaret McKellip, of Washington, D. C., also survive her.

Church Notices.

THE CARROLL RECORD (NON-PARTISAN.)

Published every Saturday, at Taneytown, Md., by The Carroll Record Printing and Publishing Company.

P. B. ENGLAR. Editor and Manager.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. DR. C. BIRNIE, Pres.
GEO, H. BIRNIE, V. Pres.
JOHN S. BOWER.
F. H. SEISS, Sec. & Treas.
E. E. REINDOLLAR.

TERMS: One Dollar per annum in advance. Six months, 50c. Trial subscriptions, Three months, 25c. Please do not receive this paper after your subscription has expired, unless you mean to pay for it. The label on paper contains date to which the subscription has been paid.

All subscriptions will be discontinued on their expiration, when requested to do so; and no credit subscription will be continued longer than one year after the time to which it has been paid. This provision is to be considered merely as an extension of credit, or a favor, to subscribers, and is not a fixed rule for all cases.

ADVERTISING reter will be for all cases.

ADVERTISING rates will be given on application, after the character of the business has been definitely stated, together with information as to space, position, and length of contract. The publisher reserves the privilege of declining all offers for space.

All advertisements for 2nd, 3rd, 6th and 7th pages must be in our office by Tuesday morning, each week; otherwise, insertion cannot be guaranteed until the following week.

Entered at Taneytown Postoffice as Second Class Matter.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21st., 1910.

All articles on this page are either original, or properly credited. This has always been a fixed rule with this office, and we suggest the adoption of it by our exchanges.

CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS.

Republican WILLIAM B. BAKER. Prohibition. HARRY E. GILBERT.

Socialist. CHARLES W. SMILEY. Democratic. J. FRED. C. TALBOTT.

WE HAVE NOTICED that the man who is always finding hypocrisy, deceit and crookedness in other people, through looking steadily through his own narrow little spectacles, never makes a very wide circle of friends, and the most of then never more than half believe in his self-raised superiority.

.0-0-0 MARYLAND went "dry," this year, in a way neither expected nor desired, and a vote just now would be decidedly for "wet," but not for the wetness contained in barrels and bottles. "Adam's ale," and plenty of it, is what is wanted now, showers and showers of it, day and night for a week.

Now WHAT DO YOU think of this? Thousands of railroad employees in France are on a strike for higher wages, their first claim being, "to meet the higher cost of living." Have those fool French Republicans been revising the tariff? Surely, nothing else could be responsible for high cost of living?

PENNSYLVANIA Republicans are playing in luck, this year, because of the opposition to Mr. Tener, their candidate for Governor, being hopelessly divided between two candidates, neither of whom will give the other a clear field and a chance to win. The Pennsylvania Republican machine has a dose of but it is not the plan of the tax-paying will not venture beyond a reasonable political salts coming to it, but it seems likely to escape it again this year.

Some very orthodox Democratic authority is "down on" Gov. Crothers for threatening to call out the militia, the impression that lawlessness prevails in the state, doing it great injury among strangers, etc. We agree that the Gov. made a bad break, but, how about the equally absurd impression, trotted out every few years, that our state is in danger of negro domination. In our judgment, the latter is a picture of lawlessness no nearer the truth than the

-then, Teddy is IT?

A Prohibition Candidate Again.

The Prohibition party has made a nomination for Congress in this district, at a little meeting not held in the district -a Mr. Harry E. Gilbert is the candidate. Two years ago 701 votes were credited to Mr. Grill, the Prohibition candidate in the district, in a total of 41,267 votes counted. As some of these votes represented votes of disgruntled Republicans and Democrats, who did not want to refrain from voting, yet would not vote for their regular party nominees, the actual Probibition vote must have been very small indeed.

dates, one of whom is sure to win, and candidate to become enthusiastic over. in refusing this choice the conclusion is Mr. Lewis, the Democratic candidate, the very principle they must honestly labor vote support. stand for, then their placing of a candiadvance the cause of Prohibition-local, actly the course that will best defeat shade of opinion-to find out all about the two candidates-Talbott and Baker. They can easily know their individual past, both as private citizens and as public officials, as weil as their personal vention plan, a majority of all the votes equally good, or bad, throughout their the votes are counted. careers, and at present. One or the other must surely have more inclination toward, or sympathy for, Prohibition principles than the other. Then, why not vote for that one, rather than directly help the other?

Our Prohibition citizens are usually excellent people, but the kind of politics

Excuses for Road Commission.

mission and its troubles-to act as a sort | cerns. of peace-maker with the people-and, judging from the instalments already published, the Commission and Govfor road building adopted by the Com- posit and first mortgages. mission and its engineer. This, in our most of the trouble.

posed to roads costing $10,000 to $12,000 | death. a mile, when good stone pikes can be Those who argue that our manufact-

wash" the Commission, or show that it on credit, but credit is based on security. is having its work done, according to specifications, by the lowest contesting bidders. The real question is, whether in the Police Board case, thereby creating the specifications are not so scientifically fine and expensive as to be wholly beyond the ability of the state to pay. The Commission finds so few bidders, because its demands are too difficult to meet. Let it start out to build good said: solid stone roads, and not beautifully graded and surfaced boulevards, and there will then be a dozen bidders to of the Republican party is, "Anything one at present.

We have as vet seen no reason to change our first opinion as to how the NOTWITHSTANDING the confidence and state road fund should have been spent, vim with which T. R. is lambasting which was, that the amount apportioned Tammany and Wall street, in New York, to each county should have been turned and is calling on the people to "follow over to the County Commissioners of me" and be saved, we begin to think each county, and by them disbursed that the Col. is going to "get his med- under the directions of a county road icine," and that he had better left the commission, subordinate in a reasonable "old guard alone" and devoted his degree to the State Commission. Perenergies to the West, where political haps there would have been some graft Rough-riderism is more popular. We and favoritism under such a plan, but it very much doubt whether New York and | could have easily been watched, and the the insurgent West are going to adopt probability is that the cost of administhe same style of politics. If they are tration would have been much less than by the present plan, and many more miles of road built.

It will not do to try to salve over a situation that is bound to be the subject of popular disapproval. This state cannot afford to spend the money, and is unwilling to wait the long time required, to secure a system of such roads as are being built, and this fact might as well be recognized now. It isn't a question for polished excuses and nice sounding argument, but one for the use of sound practical common sense.

The Sixth District Contest.

The political situation in the Sixth district, this year, is decidedly peculiar, From the standpoint of practical and the result will be awaited with more effectiveness in voting, we have never than the usual interest. Mr. Warner, been able to see where the Prohibition- the Republican candidate, is unquestionists, in such elections, gain even the ably handicapped, not only by the fact slightest satisfaction, for their votes are that he was the choice of only one counabsolutely wasted and they have no part | ty (Frederick) out of the five in the disin the election of a man even slightly trict, but because he is regarded as befavorable to their cause. It always ing more a resident of Washington, than seemed to us that when such a hopeless he is of the district, and because his canminority had not even a ghostly show of didacy was forced on the people rather winning, their reasonable course would than because of any pronounced strength

"lesser evil." There must always be a said to be a very clever gentleman, and choice between the two regular candi- all that, but still he is not exactly the emphatic that the Prohibition votes, owes his nomination almost solely to his separately cast, help to elect the candi- vote-getting qualities. He is not a man date most objectionable to the Prohibi- of exceptionally high order of ability or popularity, and is easily surpassed in If our Prohibition enthusiasts aim to this respect by dozens of Democrats in furnish a sort of voting asylum for "sore- his district. But, he is strong with the heads" in the two old parties, and are miners in Allegany, having been a miner willing themselves to vote so as to injure | himself, and is reasonably sure of a large

Lewis was taken because of his availdate in the field in the Second district is ability, while Warner played himself to justifiable; but, if they really hope to the front, backed by a big Frederick county vote. Lewis is poor, but a voteor statewide—then they are taking ex- getter; Warner is rich and ambitious. Neither is the best equipped man in his party for the honor, and the result rests ane people- or Prohibitionists of any strong for Warner at the election, as it dication, that we can see. In the concharacter and habits, their inclinations from all the counties would have nomiand affiliations. Surely, there must ap- nated; in the direct primary, one county pear in such a scrutiny evidences that nominated against the other four. Whatone is more fit than the other, from a ever the result may be, it is generally Prohibitionist point of view, for it is ex- conceded that the fight will be close, and tremely improbable that both have been that Lewis will not be defeated until the ----Timidity of Capital.

Many people who hear the expression, "Capital is timid," affect to laugh at the idea and point to instances of the aggressiveness of capital, and its big accomplishments, apparently antagonistic they play must please the liquor interests | to public interests. They think that they have proven the falsity of the expression, but they have simply argued on the opposite side of the case, for it is the very timidity of capital to invest itself locally, The Baltimore Sun has undertaken to in small enterprises, which eventually write up' the work of the Road Com- leads to its aggregation in the big con-

There is scarcely a small town, anywhere in a non-speculative neighborhood -and most neighborhoods are suchernor will be placed in the best possible that is not suffering because capital is light, if they are not made, in the end, afraid to invest itself in manufacturing to pose as martyrs to the troubles of an or other developing industries. The almost superhuman job. It seems to us "slow town" may have, and likely does that the Sun is taking too much for have, plenty of money in it, but it is the granted when it assumes to support, ty | "timid capital" which fears to show itfailing to criticise, the expensive plans | self outside of bank certificates of de-

Capital is so timid that it wants heavy judgment, is largely the true source of securities and all sorts of guarantees before one can get hold of it. Let the state, If we understand public sentiment, it or a municipality, or a big railroad guaris that this sentiment favors long antee an investment, and the cash comes stretches of serviceable road, rather than to the front at a low rate of interest; but, short stretches of fine boulevards. In take away its safeguards, and it is like a other words, that the people are op- woman before a mouse-scared half to built for less than half that much. In urers-which means men with money-Frederick county, for instance, and in do not need governmental security, or other counties where old pikes are to be protection, relative to the products of purchased at about $1,000 a mile, the their factories, argue against common expenditure of $2,000 or $3,000 more sense and natural human proclivities per mile, in addition, should place such relative to money investments. Take roads in good shape. That these old away the protection of laws of various beds should be torn up, and recon- kinds, and manufactures will "go slow," structed, may be the plan of an engineer, and in some cases stop, because capital line of protection-call it law, or tariff, There is no need to try to "white- or what you choose. Business is based

-0-@-0-Scoring the Old Parties.

The well known Mr. Hearst, of New York, that freak in politics who is able to own a half-dozen big newspapers because there are enough freakish people in this country to support them, once

"The motto of the Democratic party is, "Anything to get in," The motto to stay in." The Democratic party is radical one year and reactionary the next. It accepts its defeat on a radical platform as an argument for conservatism, and its defeat on a conserative platform as an argument for radicalism. And so it oscillates between each extreme, without pride or prejudice, without conscience or conviction. As we look into the distant future and down the endless corridors of time we can picture the inspiring spectacle of the Democratic party eternally zigzagging their census ratings. from one side to the other in a vain place and power.

The Republican party is all things to reproach. all men. It stands for popular rights the public plunderers it professes to oppose, and then virtuously prosecutes those that do not pay. It denounces trust promoters and stock jobbers as public enemies, and then secretly inand edit its public documents. Splendthe leading representative of the Repub- graphy, engineering, etc. lican party, with a big stick in one hand and a contribution box in the other."

Forced to Leave Home.

Every year a large number of poor ed with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. There's a better way. Let Dr. King's New Discovery cure you at home. "It cured me of lung trouble," writes W. R. Nelson, of Calamine, Aak., "when all else failed and I gained 47 pounds in weight. Its surely the King of all cough and lung cures." Thousands owe their lives and health to it. Its positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Asthma, Croup—all Throat and Lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. be in the direction of voting for the or fitness personally possessed. He is Trial bottle free at R. S. McKinney's.

The Ladies' Big Hats.

That the London Times-that personification of journalistic dignity and soberness-should attempt to solve any such trifling question as to the whyfore of the big hats of the ladies, is beyond the comprehension of the average mind, for no one ever expects the Times to go into any matter which it does not consider of paramount importance to the world, and England in particular. The ladies, therefore, must feel honored in receiving the consideration of such a profoundly ponderous authority, even though they may not agree with its conclusions. The Times says:

It is commonly said that women are more unselfish than men. And so they certainly are in the home. They will sacrifice themselves utterly for particular It is not a difficult matter for temper- largely with Frederick county; if it is as | men and particular children. Yet they will not sacrifice an inch of hat brim of feather for the common convenience, and was in the primary, he will pull through.

In these two nominations, the new seeming inconsistency.

Men remonstrate, and they smile and primary law has received no special vin-continue to wear the hats and feathers. Therefore, it remains for us to guess at the reason of this behavior so strange to us, and we can only guess that it is the result of a sense of the relative importance of things different from our own.

When a man goes to a lawn tennis tournament be goes to see the play and he assumes that women go for the same reason. Some do, of course, but they are not representative of their sex. They are women who have adopted the man's point of view, who are overpowered by the influence of their fathers or husbands or brothers. The woman whose natural instincts have free play does not consider that any game is important.

She is not, as man is, a game playing animal. But since man always will be playing games she has arrived at a kind of compromise with him. She will go to watch his games and profess an interest in them on condition that she may attend to her own business all the while and her business is to wear a large hat or whatever else it pleases her to wear.

It may seem a frivolous business to the earnest lawn tennis player, but then his lawn tennis seems frivolous to her. It is just a peculiarity of his sex to make a fuss about it; she accepts his peculiarities without fretting about them, and expects him to accept hers.

And after all, dress to women is something more than a game. It is one of their means of expressing themselves. Fine clothes make them feel happy and as if they were in a glorified state of existence, freed from the wear and tear of its life; in fact, as if they were true birds of Paradise, with all the splendor of Paradise in their plumage.

Government Ownership and Strikes.

Nothing helps more to create distrust of Government ownership of railroads than a strike in a country like France, which has enormous financial interests in them.

A strike on a number of lines entering Paris has tied up transportation to an extent that would threaten Paris with famine if it continued for any length of time. The city depends upon the country for staple products, and even a few days' railroad disorganization means great increase in the cost of living and much distress to the poor. The Government has assumed a firm attitude and proposes to mobilize the EDW. E. REINDOLLAR, President. railway employees as part of the mili- J. J. WEAVER, JR., Vice President. tary force of the State. The employees GEO. H. BIRNIE, Cashier. declare they will resist, and, in that event, the strike will take on a revolutionary character, which is always dangerous in France.

Aside from this complication, the tie-up shows that Government ownership does not avert strikes. It is bad enough when the great railroad systems are made the object of attack by thousands of men. It is infinitely worse when the situation is aggravated by the conflicting interests and the political complications which tollow if the Government is the center of the storm. -Balt. News.

It's the World's Best.

No one has ever made a salve, oint-No one has ever made a salve, ointment or balm to compare with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the one perfect healer of Cuts, Corns, Burns, Bruises, Sores, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Eczema, Salt Rheum. For Sore Eyes, Cold Sores, Chapped Hands, or Sprains, it's supreme. Infallible for Piles. Only 25c at R. S. McKinney's.

Strange, but True.

The cities are making a great ado over

Baltimore, for instance, is busy assignsearch for any kind of an opening to ing reasons why Cleveland, Ohio, has taken sixth place—this in a tone of self-

But, by-and-by, there will be talk of in public and for special privileges in the evils of congested population-proprivate. It asks campaign funds from ductive, consumptive, economical, physical, social and moral evils.

And then-"stay on the farm" and 'back to the farm' will be heard.

Meanwhile, the lure to the city keeps up, and so far has it gone in one State vites them to outline its political policies out west that many people complain of the garish displays of inducements to idly typical of this liberal policy stands the young to learn book-keeping, steno-

"Only in the penicentiary," states one paper, "are the useful trades taught to men, who, when released, are the best fitted for substantial work."

"Too many of our young men," says the same writer, "are learning to be bum stenographers and fourth-rate lawyers. Let us, therefore, send our sons to the penitentiary to make sure of fitness for useful work in building up the country and making their own way safe in the battle of life."

This, of course, is exaggeration, but the tendency is in the direction of drawing the young people from the farm to the town, and the result is unquestionably damaging to both .- Mining Journal.

HESSON'S DEPARTMENT STORE.

1910 Fall and Winter 1911

Opening at —

TANEYTOWN'S MOST PROGRESSIVE STORE

This Store Stands for Quality---That's Our First Consideration.

There are a great many who, in looking for low prices, lose sight of quality, but we guard your interest here; quality is the one thing this Store stands for, and that is why it is a good safe shopping place.

A New Department ADDED TO Our Mammoth Store

We have just installed a large assortment of Ladies' and Misses Ready-made Suits, at prices that will suit your pocket-book.

Dry Goods Department

See our beautiful line of Dress Goods, Silks and Waistings Properly priced.

Men's and Boys' Hats

This department has again been replenished with all the latest and nobbiest styles on the

SHOES.

We are now showing a large assortment of Shoes, for Men. Woman and children, of all the latest styles.

Sweater Coats.

assortment of Ladies', Misses, Men's and Boys' Sweaters that has ever been put on the Taneybuying elsewhere.

Men's and Boys' Ready-made Clothing

The new Suits are now in, and ready for your inspection. Upon comparison you will find our prices much lower than others We are showing the greatest charge for the same high quality.

P. S.—We are selling all of our Ready-made Suits, carried over from last season, at a great town market. See them before discount. Now is the time to get a good Suit at a low price.

Don't Forget---

We are headquarters on all kinds of Winter Underwear for Men, Women, and Children.

Capital and Surplus, $60,000.00. Four Per Cent. Paid on Time Deposits.

The Birnie Trust Company TANEYTOWN, MD.

Would Like to Have You

Consult us about every large transaction you make. We will give you Carry your entire checking account with us.

ROB'T S. MCKINNEY,

DRUGGIST,

TANEYTOWN, - -

Settle your Estate through our Bank when you die.

Instruct every member of your family to have a Savings Bank account

Keep your Valuable papers in our safe deposit Vaults. Buy all your Exchange through our Bank.

You have not used our Bank for all it is worth until you do all these

Wind Storm Insurance

Is becoming almost as general as Fire Insurance. Why? Because losses are numerous, and unpreventable. Care, and personal efforts often prevent fires, but no human agency can prevent storms.

VERY LOW COST

secures a Policy, at present; but the Companies are likely to advance rates, as they are too low to be profitable. We do not guarantee present rates to last throughout the summer; therefore, it will be wise to insure now.

All Buildings must have good roofs and be in good repair, and insurance must be taken to AT LEAST HALF OF THEIR VALUE.

P. B. ENGLAR, Agt., Home Insurance Co., N. Y., TANEYTOWN, MD.

BLUFFED AND WON

A Dramatic Incident of the Fateful Hundred Days.

ONE OF NAPOLEON'S COUPS.

The Way of the Great Military Genius Overcame the First Opposition He Encountered on the March to Paris After His Return From Elba.

cuaud in his book, "Le Retour de l'Isle d'Elbe" ("The Return From the Island of Elba"). It describes how he met the first opposition offered to his march to Paris after his escape from Elba:

"Meanwhile Napoleon had traveled by the Alps to Dauphine, advancing into the interior of the country. Having received information on Sunday, the 4th of March, the prefect of l'Isere had immediately, in concert with the military authority, taken measures to deal with the startling situation. A detachment composed of a battalion of the Fifth regiment of the line and two companies of engineers was dispatched to prevent the further advance of the emperor.

"The meeting between this detachment and the little troop from the isle of Elba took place on the 7th of March near Vizille, but not before the peasants had had time to hasten to in form Napoleon of the antagonistic disposition of the officers commanding the troops which had been sent from Grenoble. In order to avoid the shedding of blood the emperor ordered Cambronne, who was accompanied by a small escort, to enter into treaty with the cocardes blanches (white cockades). Cambronne found the detachment ranged in order of battle The commanding officer refused to en ter into communication, and the soldiers remained silent and gloomy.

"Napoleon immediately took his share in the proceedings. He gave the order to his grenadiers to put their rifles under their arms, in order to give proof of their pacific dispositions Then he advanced alone, while some of his friends cried to the soldiers of the line:

"'Friends, do not fire! There is the emperor, who wishes to speak to you "Napoleon now found himself about thirty meters from the Grenoble detachment. He dismounted and, his standing in the middle of the road 'Soldiers of the Fifth,' he said in a loud tone-'soldiers of the Fifth, do you recognize me?

arms crossed on his breast, remained

"'Yes, yes!' they all replied. "Then Napoleon, throwing open his gray cloak with a dramatic gesture and pointing to his breast with his hands, replied: "If there is one among you who wishes to kill his general, his emperor.

he can do it. Here I am!"

"The response was unanimous, sub lime: 'Long live the emperor! Long live the emperor!"

"Breaking the ranks, their shakos at the ends of the swords or on the bayonets, the soldiers of the Fifth, to whom were joined the engineers, ran toward Napoleon, surrounded him, embraced him, kissed his hands, called him their preserver, their father, their general. their emperor. Finally the two detachments mingled together and became consolidated. Napoleon then had 2,000 men with whom to march on to Grenoble.

"They took the road, and it was a triumphal march. The people of the district came to meet the column, acclaiming Napoleon as the liberator of the nation and as the living incarnation of the revolution.

"The peasants wept with joy. At this sight the emperor, turning toward his officers, Droudt and Bertrand, said to them:

"'Everything is now in good order. Within ten days we shall be at the Tuileries!"

Song of the Flame.

Fire can be made to sing. A writer says: "Take a lighted candle and blow gently against the flame. You will hear a peculiar fluttering sound. The flutter ing sound is fire's first attempts at mu sic. Instead of the unsteady breath of our lips let us employ the steady blast of a blowpipe. Instead of the pale and flickering light of a candle let us use the bright and ardent glare of a chemist's lamp. When you have a lamp and blowpipe you can make fire sing in An Evident Success. "So you have a position as stenographer. I hope you will succeed in making yourself indispensable to your em-

"I think I have, auntie. We are to be married next month."-Pittsburg Post.

Lucky.

"Noah must have felt lucky when he landed after his long sail."

"Yes," replied the New York importer. "Think of a man landing all that cargo without a customs official to say a word!"-Washington Star.

Just What He Wanted. "Is your suburb wholesome?"

"No, old chap, it ain't. My wife lost her voice as soon as we moved out "What's the price of the lot next to yours?"-Cleveland Leader.

Concentration is the secret of strength in politics, in war, in trade.-

A Tip on Oats.

According to the Saturday Evening Post, a man who had a country place on Long Island came to New York one morning to do a little speculating. He was a great believer in tips:

On the ferryboat it came to him that he had had somehow a tip on oats. He couldn't remember just what it was, but somebody had told him to buy oats. So when he reached his broker's office he looked into oats a bit and bought some. Oats were active. He pyramided skillfully and by the close of the market was $7,000 ahead.

Of course such luck as that had to be celebrated, and it was. As the cele bration went on the oats buyer told the buyer until he finally became the oats king. He reached his railroad station somewhat late and found the stableman waiting for him with a trap.

"did you remember to order that five bushels of oats I asked you to buy this morning?"

Not Safe.

The negro on occasions displays a fine discrimination in the choice of

"Who's the best whitewasher in town?" inquired the new resident. 'Ale Hall am a bo'nd a'tist with a whitewash brush, sah," answered the colored patriarch eloquently.

"Well, tell him to come and whitewash my chicken house tomorrow." Uncle Jacob shook his head dubious-

"Ah don't believe, sah, Ah'd engage Ale Hall to whitewash a chicken house, sah.

"Why, didn't you say he was a good whitewasher?"

"Yas, sah, a powe'ful good whitewasher, sah, but mighty queer about a chicken house, sah, mighty queer!"-Human Life.

Her Revenge.

A little girl had been so very naughty that her mother found it necessary to shut her up in a dark closet-in that family the direst punishment for the worst offense. For fifteen minutes the door had been locked without a sound coming from behind it-not a whimper, not a sniffle. At last the stern but anxious parent un'ocked the closet door and peered into the darkness. She could see nothing.

"What are you doing in there?" she

And then a little voice piped from the blackness:

"I thpit on your new dress, and I thpit on your new hat, and I'm waiting for more thpit to come to thpit on your new parasol!" - Philadelphia

He Made Good.

Lord Lansdowne once had a remarkable prophecy made concerning him while he was an Oxford graduate. Jowett, his tutor at Balliol, greatly admired him and always said that he would do great things.

"There goes a man," remarked Jowett. "who is as certain to be foreign secretary in due time in whichever party he chooses as tomorrow's sun is to rise."

Of course at that time Lord Lansdowne had not the least idea of filling such a distinguished post, and yet in 1900, after a brilliant political career, he found himself at the head of the foreign office.-London M. A. P.

Her Lost Chance.

Mrs. B.-I wonder why Miss Singleton refused the curate when he proposed to her?"

Mrs. D.-All a mistake, my dear, a sad mistake; you know she has grown a little deaf, and she did not suspect he was at all "gone" on her. She actually thought he was asking her to subscribe to the new organ fund, so she told him she was sorry, but she direction.

Mrs. B.-Then what happened?" Mrs. D.-The curate felt himself insulted and departed in dudgeon, and she's lost the only chance she ever had.-London Telegraph.

Sense of Humor Declining. "Do you think Americans have a great sense of humor?" 'Well." replied Senator Sorghum, "I'm afraid it isn't what it used to be. The folks out home are becoming so interested in economic issues that they don't seem to care whether I tell them any funny stories or not."-Washington Star.

Wrong Trail.

First Professor of Chemistry-What are you working at now? Second Professor-I'm trying to ascertain the cause of baldness. First Professor--Oh, stop it! You're wasting your time. What you ought to be doing is trying to ascertain the cause of hair growth. -Chicago Record-Herald.

Ready Demonstration.

"Do you think you can make my daughter happy?" asked Miss Thirstysmith's father gravely.

"Why, I have already, haven't 1?" replied Spooner. "I've asked her to marry me."-Smart Set.

His Lost Leg.

A mendicant approached a man on' the cars the other day and said, "Dear sir, I have lost my leg," to which the man replied, as he hurried away, "My dear friend. I am very sorry, but I have not seen anything of it."

A Disagreeable Reception. Weary Wiggles- I don't like the reception I got at that house. Bleating Harry-Who came to the door? Weary Wiggles-The dog.-Judge.

Stop, Look and Listen!

Ladies' Tailored Suits for Fall are now coming in and are finer than ever, and a better price than ever.

Men's Clothing made to order. Also a fine line of Readymade Clothing on hand at all times.

Cleaning and Pressing done at all times.

ALL HEAVY DOMESTICS are now being filled up full, and we are in better shape to keep you warm than ever before. We will not advance the price of Heavy Domestics—we are rock bottom and will stay there, regardless of ad-

Sweaters, Blankets, and all Cold Weather Goods are now Arriving.

Napoleon is described by Camille Coon importance in the recital as an oats tention for a full up value, and at a very low price.

A lock over our line will not only SAVE YOU MONEY, but will add

Ask for Purchase Tickets-"By the way," said the stableman, Save them for future buying-no cost to you and will answer same as money.

D. M. MEHRING. 2nd Door York St. Side of Central Hotel, Maryland. Taneytown,

THE

Taneytown Savings Bank

DOES A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS.

Has been in continuous existence for twenty-three years; and has declared forty-six Semi annual Dividends.

4 Per-cent. Paid on Time Deposits.

Extends such Accommodations as are consistent with Safe and Conservative Banking. We Invite Your Account.

D. J. HESSON, Pres.

CALVIN T. FRINGER, Vice-Pres.

WALTER A. BOWER, Treas. GEO. E. KOUTZ, Ass't Treas.

DIRECTORS

JOHN S. BOWER. CALVIN T. FRINGER. LEONARD ZILE. JOSHUA KOUTZ.

CHAS. H. BASEHOAR. NORVILLE P. SHOEMAKER. EDMUND F. SMITH. LUTHER W. MEHRING. DANIEL J. HESSON.

Federal Stock Food!

Now is the Time to begin Feeding your Stock a Tonic.

FREE!

With every 50c Package of Federal Stock Food we give you a 50c Buggy Whip. With every 25-lb Pail, you get a Paid-up Accident Insurance Policy for $1000,00.

Federal Worm Powder for Horses. Federal Poultry Food.

Your Money Refunded if Federal Food does not do what we Just telephone that you want Federal Food, and we will see that you get it. Do not put it off.

Angel Vehicle Works & Garage, MIDDLEBURG, MARYLAND.

Poultry. Calves.

0

Eggs. Pigeons.

Butter. Wool.

SHIP TO BUFFINGTON &

COMMISSION MERCHANT,

BALTIMORE, MD. had promised all her money in another We Make a Specialty of Wool.

Write for Tags and Quotations.

STANDARD OF PERFECTION CHALLENGE FLOUR

The Best Winter Wheat Flour made in America.

It has commanded the attention of thousands of housekeepers and bakers who proclaim it to be a Flour of Perfection.

Why experiment? The best is cheapest and you are entitled & to the best obtainable in Flour, for it is the cheapest of all foods. Ask for CHALLENGE FLOUR, bake it and realize what real good bread is like.

MANUFACTURED BY-The Mountain City Mills,

Frederick, Md. FOR SALE BY Taneytown Grain & Supply Co.

Monkey Talk.

emerged from the African forests after a continuous period of seven years | taste, became mathematicians as best devoted to the study of the monkey they could in private study, at melanguage. He has explored 400,000 chanics' institutes and at night lecsquare miles of Africa in a region tures.-London Truth. where there were only two other white men. The professor still believes the chimpanzee to be the highest type of monkey life and insists that there are twenty-eight sounds in its language, of which he now understands nine.

Aviators' Training. "Our boys" must not think that all that is needful to make a first rate high class are nest rate matthematicians. Bleriot and Aubrunn were grad-Professor Richard Garner recently uated from the two great engineering schools. The others, impelled by their Wants to Tap Vesuvius.

An Italian scientist proposes to sup ply a safety valve for Vesuvius by boring a tunnel in the base of the mountain and letting the lava escape into the sea. His idea is to bore a tunnel while the crater is in a state of coma, and he believes that when the volcano becomes active such a chancourage, muscle and a good eye are nel would be sufficient to carry away the lava. airman. All the French fliers of a

An Anecdote of Bach.

The Duke of Saxe-Weimar once in vited John Sebastian Bach, the Nestor of German music, to attend a dinner at the palace. Before the guests sat down to the feast Bach was asked to give an improvisation. The composer seated himself at the harpsichord and straightway forgot all about dinner and everything else. He played so long that at last the duke touched his shoulder and said. "We are very much obliged, master, but we must not let the soup get cold."

Bach sprang to his feet and followed the duke to the dining room without uttering a word. But he was scarcely seated when he sprang up, rushed back to the instrument like one demented, struck a few chords and returned to the dining room, evidently feeling much better. "I beg your pardon, your highness." he said, "but you interrupted me in a series of chords and arpeggios on the dominant seventh, and I could not feel at ease until they were resolved into the tonic. It is as if you had snatched a glass of water from the lips of a man dying of thirst. Now I have drunk the glass out and am content."

His Turn Came. Ben Davis defeated President Madison for election to the Virginia house of delegates after Madison had left the White House. Old Davis, who seldom wore a coat, was sitting on a rail fence on the roadside in Greene county one morning when a young man dressed in dapper fashion and evidently from the city passed by.

"Good morning." said David, with the proverbial Virginia politeness.

To this the stranger paid no attention. In a few minutes, however, he came to a fork in the roads and was evidently in doubt which way he should go. He retraced his steps to where Davis still sat on the fence and asked him with great politeness if he could tell him which way led to Stanardsville. Davis made no reply.

"Will you please tell me," the young man repeated, "which road I take to boy. "Fact is." he continued confiden-get to Stanardsville?" "You can," said Davis stolidly, "take any d-d road you please."-Popular Magazine.

A Lawyer's Paradise.

Naples, under Spanish rule in the eighteenth century, was overrun with lawyers. Of their profusion Joseph Addison had this to say:

"It is incredible how great a multitude of retainers to the law there are at Naples. It is commonly said that when Innocent XI. had desired the Marquis of Campio to furnish him with 30,000 head of swine the marquis answered him that for his swine he could not spare them, but if his holiness had occasion for 30,000 lawyers he had them at his service."

It seems to have been a golden age for lawyers, for, as the author says, "there are very few persons of consideration who have not a cause depending, for when a Neapolitan has nothing else to do he generally shuts himself up in his closet and falls a tumbling over his papers to see if he can start a lawsuit and plague his neighbors."-Dietetic and Hygienic Gazette.

Technically Gentlemen. There is only one strictly technical definition of gentleman-a man entitled to bear coat armor. In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries it was used with this significance, and the secondhand bookstall hunter will occasionally find "So-and-so, "gentleman," written on dusty and stained fly leaves. But this definition has dropped out, for now any one may use arms who chooses to pay for an arms li- like, such as a crippled person can obcense. The inland revenue takes your guinea or two guineas without inquir- of independence he was finally forced ing as to your right to bear arms. And, though the heralds' college has the himself down on the entrance card as right to grant arms to those who can afford to pay the necessary fees, it pride of a Norse son of the sea." cannot prevent people from using arms to which they have no right .-London Chronicle.

Made Her Pay Well.

A certain queen of Hanover once upon a time when traveling stopped at an inn called the Golden Goose. She remained two days to rest berself and retinue and receive such entertainment as was needed and for the same was charged 300 thalers. On her departure the landlord besought her with obsequious deference to favor him with her patronage on her return.

"If you desire that, my dear man," replied her majesty, "you must not again take me for your sign."

Very "Respectful." The villagers used to make love in a solid, stolid fashion. "I'm sure, m'm," said a servant to her mistress, "nobody could have had a respectfuler young man nor what Thomas has been to me. We've been courting two years come Martlemass, and he's never yet offered to kiss me!"-From "Recollections of a Yorkshire Village," by J. S. Fletcher.

A Similarity.

"He's quite wealthy and prominent now." said Mrs. Starvem, "and they say he rose from nothing.' "Well, well!" remarked Mr. Border. "That's just what I rose from-at the Closing the Incident.

Pulsatilla-Your latest young man, I hear, has written a play or two. Has he produced anything yet? Euphorbia -Y-yes: the last time he called he produced a diamond ring .- Exchange.

breakfast table this morning."

The greatest homage we can pay to truth is to use it .- Emerson.

The Irishman's Resource

In his volume of essays, "Dreams Dead Earnest and Half Jest," Mr. Coulson Kernahan compares his compatriots, the natives of the Green Isle, with the English:

"That your Englishman never knows when he is beaten is the veriest platitude. In all the world there is no nationality which can play a losing game with such desperate doggedness. I venture to think, however, that the Irishman-and therein is perhaps a reason why he excels in the art of war -is more resourceful, is quicker to think and quicker to act.

"An Englishman, finding himself in a corner so tight that any one else would decide at once that there was nothing for it but surrender or retreat, says, 'Here I am, and here I'll stick to be shot at till I'm killed or till relief comes.' An Irishman in the same place would say: 'It's the mischief's own hole I'm in! But wait now! What way 'll I be getting out?' And get out the Irishman generally does, for he is so resourceful that his resourcefulness might sometimes be better described as slipperiness."

The Making of a Business Man. So many panes of glass in old Mr. Viner's greenhouse had been broken that he had at last offered a reward of 10 shillings to any one who should give information as to the identity of the latest offender. The bait soon drew. A youngster called on Mr. Viner and informed him that a lad named Archie Thompson was a guilty party. He received his reward, went away rejoicing, and the o'd gentleman forthwith wrote to the local schoolmaster demanding the production of the said Archie Thompson to make good the damage he had done to his windows.

Next day the informer called again "The schoolmaster sent me," he said briskly. "I've seen a glazier, and he'll put your glass right for 3 shillings. Here it is, and"-

"Not so fast, my lad," said Mr. Viner. "Have you come on behalf of Archie Thompson?" "Well, yes, sir, in a way," said the tially, "I'm him!"-London Answers. Wesley and Tea.

In his younger days John Wesley found it difficult to stop drinking tea. He wrote in 1746: "We agreed it would prevent great expense, as well of health as of time and of money, if the poorer people of our society could be persuaded to leave off drinking of tea. We resolved ourselves to begin and set the example. I expect some difficulty in breaking off a custom of six and twenty years' standing, and accordingly the first three days my bead ached and I was half asleep from morning to night. The third day my memory failed almost entirely. On Thursday my headache was gone, my memory as strong as ever, and I have found no inconvenience, but a sensible benefit in several respects from that day to this."

Later in life Wesley returned to the use of tea, as his big teapot preserved in his house in London shows.-Chicago News.

Once a Sailor Always a Sailor. Charitable institutions often find it hard to learn the occupations of those admitted. A man who has followed several trades when asked his occupation names the one he regards as most dignified, even if he has not followed it for years. The Survey tells of a case that happened in the Cook County infirmary. The man "at the age of nineteen was a sailor for one year. His career as a sailor ended with an accident on the ship by which he lost a leg. For the next thirty-six years he took various jobs as caretaker and the tain. Yet when after thirty-six years to take refuge in a poorhouse he puts a sailor, and one feels in that word the

A Nickname For Barrett. Lawrence Barrett, the tragedian, was subject to dyspepsia, and when he was suffering from that disorder he was cold and distant toward his company. One irreverent fellow always refused. however, to be suppressed. He said one day: "Just look at Cassius. He looks as solemn and righteous as if he'd swallowed the sword of justice. Let's call him the Scabbard." And the Scabbard he was-out of his hearing-for to be interviewed. "What? Dress on $600 a year?" She made a wry grimace with her the rest of that season.

Costly Dressing. Mrs. Washington Terrace consented

Our Dumb Animals.

mean per note."

"Why, I couldn't dress my salads on $600 a year," she said.-St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A Striped One. "Now, children, what is this?" asked the teacher, holding up a picture of a "It looks to me like a horse in a bathing suit," answered a little boy .-

Two Views. Guy-He that courts and runs away may live to court another day. Gertie-But he who courts and does not wed may find himself in court in-High Notes. A reporter once said to Caruso:

"What is your price per night?"

"Per night?" Caruso chuckled. "You

Life is a campaign, not a battle, and has its defeats as well as its victories. -Piatt.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Latest Items of Local News Furnished by Our Regular Staff of Writers.

All communications for this department must be signed by the author; not for publication, but as an evidence that the items contributed are legitimate and correct. Items based on mere rumor, or such as are likely to give offense, are not winted.

The kecoard office is connected with the C. & P. and United Telephones, from 7 a. m., to 5 p. m. Use telephone, at our expense. for important items on Friday morning. We prefer regular letters to be mailed on Wednesday evening, but in no case later than Thursday evening.

Uniontown.

On Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs B. L. Cookson entertained about sixty of their friends from New Windsor, Uniontown and vicinity, and did it in their usual whole hearted style.

The same evening, a company of little friends gave Loretta Weaver a very enjoyable birthday surprise.

On Wednesday, Rev. and Mrs. Mur. ray and Jesse Billmyer, left, to attend the Eldership held at Zittlestown, Md. Mr. McGonegal, who has given such help in the Pipe Creek revival, left on Wednesday for his home. Rev. and Mrs. Baughman attended the installation of the new President of Gettysburg College, Dr. Granville; from there Mr. Baughman goes to Synod, which meets at Smithsburg, this week. Mr. Geo. Lambert goes as a delegate from this charge.

On Wednesday there were two auto-mobile loads went from here to the Visitors in town, on Sunday, were Newton Gilbert and Robert Thomas, at J. W. Gilbert's; Mr. and Mrs. Starr, of near Liberty, at Mrs. Elizabeth Davis; Harry Starr and Harold Roop, of Westminster, at C. Edgar Myers'; James Brown and family, of near Springdale, at Harvey Erb's; a company of young folks from Glyndon, at Mrs. Clayton Nathaniel Heck spent part of this week with his son, John and family.

Mrs. Ogden, of New Jersey, is visiting

Dr. J. J. Weaver. Mrs. Seilhamer, of Lancaster, was calling on her friends, here, first of the

Mrs. H. Kemp, and Mr. and Mrs.

John Yingling, of Taneytown, were recent visitors at Dr. L. Kemp's.

Mrs. Clinton Routson, of Baltimore, is spending the week with Mrs. Missouri Routson, who is gradually improving. Major Byron, wife and son, of Hagerstown, and Miss Gladys Ord, of Washington, spent Saturday at Thos. H.

Miss Nellie Haines spent Sunday with her parents, here.
Miss Lou Kelly is with her parents, here, this week.

Detour.

Mrs. O. Towsend, of Union Bridge, is spending several weeks with her parents, Mr and Mrs. P. D. Koons.
Mr. and Mrs. Ross Miller, of York, Pa., are visiting at A. C. Miller's and Edward Essick's.

Miss Mary Weybright spent several fused to give water.

Mrs. Wm. Hollenbaugh and Mrs. H.

H. Boyer, were in Taneytown, Sunday. Mrs. C. C. Eyler, of Baltimore, is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Weant.

Mrs. G. S. J. Fox, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Fogle, near Rocky

Mrs. Emma Tracey and daughter, Thelma, of Blue Ridge Summit, spent ast week with her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Miss Vallie M. Shorb visited her brother, Dr. M. W. Shorb, in Baltimore, a few days, last week. E. L. Warner was in Baltimore, Sun-

Mrs. Clay Wood and children, and Mrs. J. Carbaugh, of Chambersburg, spent several days, recently, with Mrs. W's sister, Mrs. W. C. Miller. Mr. Eigenbrode, of Waynesboro, and Mrs. Parker Smith, of Motters, visited Mr. E's daughter, Mrs. Guy Warren, one day last week. Dr. Diller was in Frederick Tuesday, on business. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Essick and daughter, Susan were visitors at Mr. E's brother, Herbert Essick, near Westminster, on Sunday.

A number of our people attended the Frederick Fair this week. Mrs. E. Moser and Mrs. Tracey, spent last Thursday with their sister, Mrs. Stansbury, near Stony Branch.

Wm. Otto is now employed near Key mar, on the P. R. R., putting in a turn Mayberry.

On last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John Vaughn entertained, Grant Heltibridle and wife, of Westminster; Samuel Heltibridle and wife, Mrs. Jennie Rodkey and grand-daughter, Ruby, of Uniontown, and Grant Yingling and wife, of Cleason Erb, wife and son, of Copperville, spent last Sunday, with Mr. Erb's father, Wm. Erb and family. Wesley Rodkey, of Uniontown, spent Sunday last, with Samuel Keefer. Robert Erb is home from Baltimore, nursing a boil on his foot. Calvin Slonaker, wife and daughter, Cora, spent Sunday last, at Benjamin Fleagle's, near Baltimore.

J. Wm. Lawyer, of Arlington, spent from Sunday until Wednesday, with his parents, Wm. E. Lawyer.

On last Monday, Ezra Spangler, wife and daughter, Wm. I. Babylon, wife and daughter, of Mayberry, and David Slonaker, wife and grand-daughter, Helen, of Westminster, spent the day in sight seeing, in Baltimore. Raymond Davidson and lady friend, Miss Nellie Demmitt, of Taneytown, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davidson, of this place. Mrs. Annie Babylon has rented room from Harvey Babylon and will take possession, Thursday.

Union Bridge

William G. Eppley, who has been in the employ of the Geiser Manufacturing Company, of Waynesboro, Pa.,21 years, went to Frederick on Friday in the interest of the company, and returned home by way of Union Bridge, stopping over night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Eppley.

William Bostain employed in the railroad shops, on Saturday, had a bone in his foot broken by the end sill of a car he was repairing falling on it.

The activity in the carpenters department at the railroad shops, at this writing, reminds one somewhat of "ye olden time." The painters are also busy; an order was sent in some time since to paint and letter 1000 coal cars. On Tuesday it was reported that 768 had been finished and sent out, 20 painted that day. About 80 men are working in the

J. Frank Baker is having his dwelling and store rooms painted.

After the revision of the registration books on Tuesday, it was announced that 41 names had been added and 33 taken off, making a gain of 8. This makes 388 registered voters in the district.

Henry Debring and Harry Hickey, of Frederick, motored to Union Bridge, on Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. James Melown. On the way they found that the gasoline tank was leaking. While here they repaired it with the aid of Mr. O. Hess, a specialist in auto and motor complications.

Mrs. William Ogle is sick with liver

Andrew Ohler died at the home of his son, Paul, near Clemsonville, on Tuesday morning, Oct. 18, at the ripe age of 90 years, 5 months and 15 days. He had been for 9 years partially and for 3 years totally blind. He was born near Littlestown, Pa. Funeral at St. Peter's R. C. church, Libertytown, Thursday, Rev. S. J. Kavanagh, officiating. Interment in the competery adjoining terment in the cemetery adjoining

Miss Anna Miller, teacher in the primary department of the public school, was taken sick on Tuesday morning and dis-missed her school; on Wednesday she was still ill, and Miss Lola Abbott filled

Howard Gray loaded his household goods on a car on Wednesday, preparatory to removing to Baltimore, where he

J. Wesley Little is better and to-day (Wednesday) expected to visit his store, but the weather was damp and unpleasant and he remained in doors. Mrs. Barry T. Fox is reported to be

The first question now when you meet any one is—Do you think it will rain?
Rev. Martin Schweitzer, of Union Bridge, is attending Synod of Potomac, at Altoona, Pa., as delegate of Maryland Classis. Rev. T. J. Hacker, D. D., of Roanoke, Va., was elected president, Dr. W. E. Krebs, of Littlestown, Vice-President. Rev. Schweitzer is chairman of advisory committee and a member of finance committee.

Elias Singer, employed in the black-smith shop at the Cement works, went to his stable on Monday morning to prepare his borse to drive to his place of labor, and found it lying in its stall unable to rise. Dr. Pittinger was summoned and found both its hind legs broken at the same place, midway be-tween the knee and stifle. A careful examination of the stall, which was roomy, failed to show any sign of a struggle or anything that could have caused the accident. It is a mystery and will probably remain so. The horse was killed to end its suffering.

Mr. S. Raymond Senseney, took Mrs. days last week, in Westminster.

Mrs. Luther Kemp, of Uniontown, and Mrs. Luther Kemp, of Uniontown, and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Koons, of Taneytown, visited Mrs. K's mother, Mrs. Hannah Weant, Sunday.

Waters very low, many wells have re-

Ladiesburg.

Mrs. Joseph Eyler and two children, of Iron Ridge, Pa., and Mrs. Cora Graham, of Goodintent, were visitors at Lewis Harwetel's, on Tuesday.

Miss Lutie Martz spent from Saturday until Monday with Miss Marian Slawter, David Biddinger, of near Baltimore, spent last Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Biddinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Eyler and daughter, Miss Gertrude, of Mt. Union, spent Sunday with Wm. Birely and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Bohn, of near Union City, Ohio, and Alexander Buffington, of Union Bridge, spent Tuesday with Reuben Bohn and family. Chas. Biddinger, of Hanover, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Biddinger. The latter continues ill with but little improvement.

Mrs. Reuben Bohn, Miss Celia and Orville Bohn, spent Saturday and Sunday in Westminster, and attended the Meadow Branch Lovefeast.

P. D. Koons, Jr., of Detour, and Miss Mary Norris, were callers at the home of A. D. Birely, on Sunday evening. Miss Ella Dutrow spent Sunday with her parents, at New Midway.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Senseney, of Union-town, visited Elder David Grossnickle and family, on Sunday. Frank Wilhide has purchased a new driving horse. N. E. Bohn is on the sick list.

Mrs. Florence Waters, of Washington is visiting her son, Benjamin Biehl and Kump.

Mr. and Mrs. John Utz, of Bethel, spent last Saturday and Sunday attending lovefeast, at Beaver Dam.

Reuben Bair, of Woodsboro, spent from Friday evening until Saturday morning with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bair and sister, Annie Slagenhaupt, of Lancaster, Pa.

Leslie H. Koons spent last Friday with his grandfather, H. T. Williams, on his way to Philadelphia, where he expects to secure a position.

Miss Mollie Williams, left last Saturday morning to spend a week with her brother, Frank Williams and Mr. and Mrs. David Geiman, of near Westmins-

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Koontz, of near Middleburg, spent last Sunday with Mr. Koontz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Koontz, of Kump.

Howard Slagenhaupt, of Lancaster,
Pa., paid his wife and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bair, a short visit last Saturday and Sunday, also his parents and sister, of Emmitsburg.

Dr. Charles Dix Eichelberger, a well known physician and druggist, died this morning, at his home in this place, from a complication of diseases, aged about 5 years. He had been in ill health for several months, but until a month ago he was able to attend to his business. He was a son of the late Dr. James W. Eichelberger of this place, and spent his entire life here, having - commenced his practice with his father immediately after his graduation. He was a member of the Lutheran church, an ardent Republican, and a constant subscriber to the Baltimore American. He was unmarried and is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Ehrhart, widow of the late Rev. Chas. Ehrhart, of Gettysburg, and Miss Marian Frances Eichelberger, and one brother, Dr. James W. Eichelberger, a practicing physician, of this place, and one nephew Charles Dix Eichelberger.

Mrs. John Agnew and Mrs. Mary Gelwicks, widow of the late Geo. T. Gelwicks, are critically ill.

Gelwicks, are critically III.

Mrs. Emma E. Zimmerman, wife of the late Ezra R. Zimmerman and former postmaster, of this place, died at mer postmaster, on Thursday morning, Washington Myers has been commed to the house for over a week with an abscess on his left knee cap, which is very painful and probably will leave tiff knee. with which she was stricken on Monday, aged 61 years. For two years she had been in failing health, but was able party to attend to her duties as postmistress. About a month ago owing to Il health, she resigned her position. Before her marriage she taught in the pub-lic schools for thirteen years. She was a daughter of the late Jacob and Jemima Motter. She was a devout and life long member of the Methodist church. She is survived by one brother, Judge J. C. Motter, of Frederick, and two stepsons, Luther M., and Thaddeus Zimmerman, both of this place. Her funeral will take place, Saturday at noon.

Linwood.

Miss Detwiler, a missionary of the Progressive Brethren church, lectured in the Linwood church, Sunday morning and night, on her travels from Montreal to Palestine. The lecture was interesting from start to finish, and the pleasant address of the speaker made it more Miss Detwiler is a native of Denton, Miss Martha Pyle has returned from an extended trip through Pennsylvania.

Joseph Englar left for Frederick Fair, on Wednesday, in his auto, chauffered by E. Ray Englar. They expect to re-main until Thursday evening.

Albert Gilbert and daughters, Bertha, and Mrs. Belva Thomas, attended the wedding on the 19th., of his son, Joe, of Waynesboro, to Miss Myrtle Ecker, of Westminster, daughter of Elder Green-

Miss Lotta Englar entertained to tea, on Sunday evening, Misses Edna Met-calf, of Unionville, Adelaide Messler, and Messrs. Robert Etzler and John S.

The Linwood Brethren will begin a series of meetings on Oct. 30th.

Miss Ruth Myers is spending sometime with her sister, Mrs. John Englar. Mr. and Mrs. Rambo, of Baltimore, are visiting her sister, Mrs. L. Messler. The Sisters' Society met at the hospitable home of Mrs. Will Zepp, on Wednesday evening.

Arthur Englar, Kurtz Warner and Harry Spielman, enjoyed an auto ride to the Frederick Fair, on Wednesday.

Pittsburg and American Fence in field and poultry, still more on hand at our special reduced prices.

Middleburg.

Mrs. Ruth Ritier and family met with while returning from Keysville; in passing through Bruceville their horses became frightened and ran away, throwing the occupants out and badly break-ing the carriage. We are glad to report that no one was seriously injuried.

Mrs. J. N. Miller and grand-daughter, Geraldine Eavy, of Waynesboro, were visitors in town, over Sunday.

Miss Edwina McKinney, Sadie Griffin,

Lucy Mackley and Virgie Humbert, went to Frederick last Saturday, to visit friends and attend the fair. Quite a number of our town people tended the Frederick Fair this week. also give special prices on our line of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Blackston, of cord pants for Men and Boys'. attended the Frederick Fair this week. McKinstry, spent last Sunday with Walter Johnson Mr. and Mrs. James Wheeler, of Baltimore, are spending some time with the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Six. Mr. and Mrs. Addison McKinney and daughter, Elizabeth, and Miss Frances Boone, spent last Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Boone, of Beaver Dam. On Tuesday, the 18th., Mr. Andrew Ohler died from the infirmities of old age, at the home of his son, Wm. P. Ohler, 4 miles south of Union Bridge. Mr. Ohler was in his 91st, year, and for almost 4 years had been almost entirely blind. His funeral took place Thursday morning. Service and interment at the R. C. Church and cemetery, Libertytown, Md.

Woodsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kling, of Walkersville, visited friends, here, Sunday. Mrs. Irving Albaugh and son, of Liberty, spent Sunday with friends, here. Miss Ella Cash, who is staying with her sister, Mrs. W. R. Smith, spent Sunday at her home, near Detour. Mrs. C. B. Shank is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Helen Utz, at New Market. Miss Anna Beck, of Westminster, visited friends, here, Sunday. Mrs. W. L. Miller and daughter, Miss Mildred, spent several days, in Littles-

Mr. Samuel Claybaugh and wife, visited Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hahn. Mr. Albert Ecker and family attended Lovefeast, at Beaver Dam. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boser, of Frederick, spent Sunday with friends, here.

Frizellburg.

Water conditions seem to be mending slightly. Anyhow, very little is heard. The dust has vanished and all feel better Charley, the good old saddle horse, died for William Wantz, on Tuesday evening. He was 24 years of age.

Harry O. Harner, of Taneytown, will ive a lecture in the Chapel here, on Sunday night, Nov. 6, in the interest of the temperance cause. The public is invited to this meeting. No fee will be Sunday, also his parents and sister, of Littlestown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Bittle, spent last Sunday with Mrs. Bittle's sister, Mrs. Wm. Myers, of near Hanover, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Weist, of Hanover, spent last Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bittle.

Charged, but a collection will be lifted.

Floral Antiseptic Tooth Powder for cleansing and beautifying the teeth. Make the teeth white and purifies the breath. 10c bottle.—Get at McKellip's.

10-23-6m charged, but a collection will be lifted.

Mrs. William Flickinger accompanied by her father, Mr. Henry Sell, have been visiting friends in Baltimore, the past week. Mr. Sell is a retired farmer, s in his 82nd. year, and is as hale and hearty as most persons of not half that number of years of the present day.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koontz spent

Sunday with his brother, at Mount

Emory Lockner raised from one vine three pumpkins which weighed 215

Lewis Lambert moved from Taney-town to the home of his son-in-law, Thomas Fleagle.

Pleasant Valley.

There will be no preaching at this place, on Sunday. John Masonbeimer has sold his property to a Mr. Shaeffer, and has purchased of Edward Welk his home, known as the Rufus Starner property,

Levi Myers and wife spent Wednesday with Jessia Myers and Jacob Fleagle, in Tanevtown. Mrs. E. C. Ebaugh, of Carrollton, is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hahn.

Thomas Myers, while burning brush on a new ground, on Friday last, and supposing the fire was all out, it started again in the woods on Sunday afternoon and burned over a few acres of wood land, burning nearly a whole line fence and about 2½ cords of cut wood. The high wind, on Sunday, was the cause. Owing to the wind coming from the west, a great deal of wood land was saved. Mr. Myers and Charles Warehime fought the fire.

A merciless murderer is Appendicitis with many victims. But Dr. King's New Life Pills kill it by prevention. They gently stimulate stomach, liver and bowels, preventing that clogging that invites appendicitis, curing Constipation. Headache, Biliousness, Chills, 25c at R. S. McKinney's.

Snider's Bargain Store HARNEY, MD.

Just returned from the city with more bargains and special reduced prices for you. Our aim is to give the very best quality at extremely low prices. No tickets, no trading stamps, but away down prices of best quality at all times.

Clothing and Overcoats of all kinds. Just received a new and up-o-date line for Men, Youth and Boys' at prices in reach of all. Each and every Suit and Overcoat for Men, Youth and Boys', from last season, must be closed out regardless of cost, as we positively will not move any old goods to our new building.

Pittsburg and American Fence

Hats and Caps.

A full and complete line just received. Did you see our line of 25c hats for Men, our line of 25c Caps for Men and Boys', now only 10c?

Oilcloth and Linoleum.

We have now the largest line ever Carpet and Matting.

If in need come our way for special prices. All remnants in Matting and Carpets, at less than cost.

Dress Pantaloons.

100 pairs of pants, prices ranging from $2.00 to $3.50, now $1.50 to $2.75.

Shoes. Shoes.

For Men and Boys', Ladies and Misses, the place to get the kind you want, as our line is second to none; full and complete, new and up-to-date goods.

NOTICE.

Don't miss our center table. Over 100 pieces at all times, of all kinds, at just about half prices, as they must go.

Horse Blankets and Lap Robes. Do you know we have the largest line ever shown in Harney, also the lowest prices and best quality? Sweaters. Sweaters.

The greatest sale on Sweaters we have ever experienced, another large ship-ment just received.

Comforts and Bed Blankets. A large assortment to select from at special low prices. Queensware and Glassware.

A large and better assortment than we offered two weeks ago on our 5 and 10c counters.

Dry Goods.

We have just received a fine line of Ginghams, prices ranging from 5c to 12c per yard. Also Outing and Canton Flannel at prices ranging from 4 to 10c. Special prices on dress flannel, tricost and all kind of wool dress goods, at special low prices, a fine assortment to select from. A beautiful line of Scarf, Shawls and Sweaters, at the right prices.

Tinware and Enamel Ware.

The largest and best values ever offered for 10c. See our 10c counter for Groceries. Groceries.

A full line of fancy and staple groceries always on hand, also a find assortment of cakes of all kind. See our table of special cut prices on groceries. NOTICE._

Each department in our bargain store has some great bargains for you in odds every day, and positively will not move

Your Friend, M. R. SNIDER.

YOUNT'S

YOUNT'S

OCTOBER SPECIALS

Well worth your while to Investigate. Values positively the best we've yet been able to offer.

10c Bottle "Baby Elite" Shoe Polish, 7c

Infant's Soft Sole Shoes. Button and Lace. Colors, Tan and White. Per Pair, 22c

"Roger's" Nickel Silver 'Roger's" Nickle Silver Sugar Shell, 16c Butter Knife, 19c

Aluminium Salt and Pepper Box Paper, Linen Finish Plain. Rare value, 160

Shaker. Per Pair, 90 SPECIAL VALUE IN

Ladies Ribbed Underwear Bought direct from the Mills. 25c per Garment.

"Electric" Stove Paste, 4c Table and Butcher Pepper, 16c lb 10c Can "Yours Truly" Pork and Beans.

10c Bottle of Household Per Can, 8c Ammonia, 8c

8-INCH FLOWER CROCKS, WITH SAUCER, 12c.

C. Edgar Yount & Co., Taneytown, Md.

We have just received a Carload of Oyster Shells This is your opportunity to secure the good, clean Oyster 🕏 Shells that you have always paid 65% per 100 lbs for, at the following low prices:

$100 lbs., 55c; 500 lbs., $2.50.$ Prices on Half-Ton and Ton Lots, quoted on application. To buy to the best advantage, you must buy at headquarters. We are Headquarters for everything in Poultry Feeds. This is the time to lay in your Winter supply. Be sure that intelligent attention given to your Poultry now, will bring best results later on—when results count most. Ever Try Hen-e-ta for Moulting Poultry?

It is the "greatest ever." A trial will convince you. We can supply it in any quantity from one pound to five tons. GLOVES Our extensive line of Gloves is too well and favorably known, to need much comment. To say that this season's stock is merely normal, is but scant praise. It must be seen to be appreciated. Let us "show you."

REINDOLLAR BROS & CO.

is believing.

Shoes for every one, at the right price

Dry Goods. We have a sull line of Fall and Winter goods at the lowest possible price. All new goods, popular cloth, Mohair, Serge 9-30-2mo and Batist the latest in shades. Outings from 8 to 12c per yd.; Flannelettes, from 8 to 12c per yd.; Sheeting and Pillow Casing. Apron and Dress Gingham, from 6c to 12c per yard. Calicoes, from 4c to 8c per yard. All Dress Ginghams at the bargain

Sweaters. Sweaters. A full line of Sweaters, the finest one you have seen any place for the price. Do not purchase before seeing our line. Carpets and Oilcloth.

Groceries. Eagle Crackers, 8c lb. Bulk Oatmeal, 6 lbs., 25c. Can Goods, 3 10c cans, for 25c. Breakfast Foods, 3 10c package 25c. Currants, 3lbs. for 25c. Raisins, 3lbs. for 25c.

Home-made Hominy, 21c lb. Cattle Salt.

prices at our store.

140 lb. Grain Sack, 58c. 56-lb. Burlap Sack, 28c. Dairy Salt, 56-lb, 45c; 25c Sack, 23c. Oyster Shells, 54c per sack.

These are just a few of our bargain

Do not forget we have all kinds of winter Underwear for Men, Women and Children. I am Your Friend, H. J. WOLFF,

Mr. and Mrs. John D. F. Stoner and Miss Marie Royer, Mr. Edward H. Beard, and daughter, Mattie, Edith, and Ida Belle, and Mrs. Rachel E. Caylor, attended the lovefeast at Meadow Branch, last Saturday.

Clear Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Beard, and daughter, Helen, Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Smith, of Baltimore, and Mr. Claude Koontz, visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beard and family, last Sunday.
Miss Martha Pfoutz was called away and ends, as we are cleaning house very suddenly on account of the illness of her little neice, of Washington, daughter of Mr. and Robert Garber.

Bargains! Bargains! Rubberoid Roofing

at $2.00 and $2.75 per Square. Come and see, for seeing Galvanized Roofing, in all grades, weights and styles.

> Paints, Oils, Glass, and Wall Paper, at market prices. Guns-Single-barrel breech-loaders, at $3.25 to $6.00; Double-barrels, at $7.50 and up.

for them. We buy from the best shoe Rifles, Cartridges and Loaded Shells, at correspondingly low prices. Also, a full line of Bicycle Supplies always on hand

J. W. FREAM, HARNEY, MD.

Notice to Creditors. This is to give notice that the subscribers has obtained from the Orphan's Court of Carroll County, in Md., letters testamentary upon the estate of VALENTINE J. HARMAN. late of Carroll County, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers properly authenticated, to the subscribers, on or before the 7th. day of April, 1911; they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate.

Given under our hands this 7th. day of October, 1910. LETHA A. HARMAN, CHARLES E. KEEFER, Executors.

for floor and table, 1, 11 and 2 yards Notice to Creditors. This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphan's Court of Carroll County, in Md., letters testamentary tion upon the estate of WILLIAM J. FINK, william J. Fink, late of Carroll County, deceased. All persons having claims against the deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers properly authenticated, to the subscriber, on or before the 14th. day of April, 1911; they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate.

Given under my hand this 14th. day of October, 1910.

J. SYLVESTER FINK,

No Trespassing.

The name of any property owner, or tenant, will be inserted under this heading, weekly, until December 12 for 25 cents, cash in ad-

All persons are hereby forewarned not to trespass on my premises, with dog, gun or trap, for the purpose of taking game in any manner; nor for fishing, or in any way injuring or destroying prop-HARNEY, MD. erty. All persons so trespassing render themselves liable to the enforcement of > Judge Clabaugh, Conover, Martin Dayhoff, Joseph Dutterer, Eli M. Diehl, Geo. H.

Moser, Charles Null, Frank Shriver, Percy H. Stonesifer, Chas. H.

"Economy is Wealth." Clean your old clothes with Lum Tum Clothes Miss Mattie Crouse, who had the ty-phoid fever, is now able to be out again. Get at McKellip's. 10-23-3mo law in such cases, without notice. Althoff, Jos. E. Bankard, Howard Hahn, Newton J. Clousher, David F. Messinger, Jac. H.

Feeser, Birnie Stonesifer, Wm. J. Flickinger, Wm. H. Sauble, George Garner, E. O. Shoemaker, Geo. A Kiser, William Keefer, Samuel E. Teeter, John

Eyler, David F.

Maryland Conference of Charities and Correction.

The Sixth Maryland Conference of Charities and Correction, which will meet in Frederick, November 17, 18 and 19, will witness a new departure in conferences of this kind in the United States. This conference will be participated in by many citizens of the state, representing fraternal and benevolent orders. Invitations have been issued from the office of the general secretary, Mr. H. Wirt Steele of Baltimore, to 991 lodges throughout the state, asking them to elect delegates to the conference. Already many have responded by electing delegates whose names have been forwarded to the general secretary. Following the custom of former years of inviting the appointment of delegates representing governmental agencies, 11 mayors of cities and presidents of boards of commissioners of towns throughout the state have been asked to send representatives to the conference and it is expected that more than half of them will respond, so that the Frederick meet-ing will be in fact a state conference, with representatives from every county.

One of the questions which has never been fully answered in Maryland and which is constantly causing trouble to those engaged in charitable and correctional work involves the relation of the child of the state. This relationship can only be established by a very definite act of the legislature, construed by wise and humane judges, and such action can only come after a widespread and intelligent discussion by the people to the state, which it is proposed to inaugurate at a general session of the con-ference on Friday morning, November 18th., at a meeting of the Committee on Children, of which Mr, George L. Jones of Baltimore, is chairman. The discussion will be precipitated by an address by Mrs. Edith J. Keene of Golden Hill, Talbot County, Maryland, on the subject -"When Should the Custody of the Child Be Transferred from Its Parents, and by Whom?" A discussion of this address will be opened by Hon. Arthur D. Willard, State's Attorney for Frederick county, and Judge Urner of Freder-

The Political Outlook in Maryland.

The political outlook in Maryland is one of big claims, on both sides, with the most confidence on the Democratic side, in a claim of a "clean sweep," with the possible exception of the Fifth (Southern Maryland) district. They say that this is "Democratic year," and that nothing less than a solid Democratic delegation will be the outcome. The Republicans do not agree to this figur-ing, but say they are sure of carrying the Fifth and Sixth districts, and very likely the Third; also, that their pros-pects in the First and Second are brightening every day.
In the First district (Eastern Shore), they claim to have gained 500 in the registration, and that as but three names will be on the ballot, nearly all the negroes will be able to vote this year, for the first time since the new ballot law has been in operation.

In the Second district the Democratic claim is that Talbott will have a "walkwhile the Republicans seem sure that he (Talbott) will not be able to poll anything like the usual Democratic vote, and that Mr. Baker, always stronger than his party, will win enough votes to be elected, on account of the support of the Anti-Saloon League.

The Sixth district is unquestionably giving the Republicans great concern, but they say that the only doubt rests in getting out the vote; that Mr. Warner is gaining friends, as the campaign progresses, and that the disaffection on account of his nomination is not as great as it was two years ago with Pearre as candidate. The Fourth district (Baltimore) is conceded to be safely Democratic, but in the Third (Baltimore) which is now represented by a Republican, there is likely to be a close fight, particularly as the Democratic candidate is said to be objectionable to many voters in his party. In Presidential years, this disrict usually goes Republican, but the Republican plurality two years ago was Roosevelt Can't Come.

At the request of Chairman Hanna, of the Republican State Committee, Mr. Charles J. Bonaparte sent a communication several weeks ago to ex-President Roosevelt to make at least one speech in Maryland during the campaign. Colonel Roosevelt was asked to strain a point, if necessary, as his presence here would help to enthuse the Republicans.

In his reply the Colonel regrets his inability to come, it being absolutely impossible for him to visit here while the campaign is under way in New York. He said that he is exceedingly sorry, as he desires to speak in Maryland, but that the New York Republicans are now complaining that he is spending too much time away from that state, where his first duty lies.

Cutting.

A Scotch lawyer was well reproved when, seated by a lady fully aware of her own plain looks, having bowed to his hostess in giving the toast, "Honest Men and Bonnie Lasses," she rejoined, raising her own glass, "We may both drink that toast, since it refers to neither of us."

Similar Tastes.

Belle-But do you think you and he are suited to each other? Nell-Oh, perfectly! Our tastes are quite similar. I don't care very much for him, and he doesn't care very much for me. -Paris Figaro.

Willing to Pass.

"How do you like the new oatmeal soap?" inquired the barber. "Seems nourishing," replied the customer, "but I've had my breakfast."-Washington Herald.

The Long Arm.

Jenny—I consider the fellow was quite impudent. He put his arm round me twice. Rose-Did he? What a long arm he must have!

We should not be too niggardly in our praise, for men will do more to support a character than to raise one. -Colton.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

Eddie Collins, Leading Base Runner of American League.

Photo by American Press Association

Eddie Collins, second baseman of the Philadelphia Athletics, will probably carry off the base running honors in his league, with Tyrus Cobb second. Collins is one of the greatest ball players developed in the last few years. This is the true story of Collins' discovery: He had just finished a campaign with the Columbia varsity nine when Thomas F. McAvoy, former deputy police commissioner of New York, took him in tow. Mr. McAvoy, a veteran baseball fan and a competent judge of talent, saw in Collins a coming star. So he took the young collegian to the American league park one day and introduced him to Clark Griffifth, then manager of the Highlanders, who was asked to try Collins in a regular game. Griffith, however, didn't enthuse and said. "Oh, let him come around some morning and I'll look him Collins, who wanted to be a Highlander, didn't relish Griffith's attitude and lost no time hunting up Connie Mack. "I'll sign you now," said the Athletics' manager, "and try you out later." And Collins became a star almost from the first jump. Griffith still remembers the incident too.

Boxing Game Wide Open In Berlin. Professional boxing made its Berlin debut recently in the club at Charlottenburg. It was a most amiable affair of thirteen rounds between Jim Kalish and Hans Roschak. For twelve rounds it was a walking match, not fast walking, simply a stroll.

Kalish was clad in a well fitting dark blue combination that came up to his ears and down to his knees. Roschak was in a natty bathing costume. The referee introduced the men in a carefully prepared lecture, in the course of which he begged the spectators not to be alarmed if blood were accidentally drawn, as it would not hurt. "In fact, they rather like it," he added cheerily.

In what by mutual agreement was accepted as the thirteenth Roschak saw an opening, sailed in and walloped Kalish around the ring to the alarm of the referee, sending Kalish finally to the floor, where he remained until the timekeeper, the referee, bottle holders, seconds, spectators and all counted ten. Then Kalish arose and walked to his corner.

Coach Warner Likes New Rules. Football Coach Glen S. Warner of the Carlisle Indian school is pleased with the new rules. He believes that they will result in giving a more spectacular game and will consequently be more interesting to the public and less dangerous for the players than the code governing the game in former years. Coach Warner last year did some experimenting along the very lines that have been covered by the football rules committee. He said that he thought the forward pass would be used more than ever and believes that open and freak formations will be greatly in vogue during the 1910 season.

International Horse Show. Reports from London state that the fifth international horse show will be held at Olympia from June 14 to June will aggregate $60,000. The secretary of the show is now in Russia, and it is hoped that several Russian entries will be made next year and that Russian officers will | sidered poetry. Curiously enough, it compete in the jumping contests as a result of his visit to the Moscow show. Italian entries are also expected. British owners and breeders are to help the show soon to be given in Rome.

24 next. Prizes offered for competition

Jesse Burkett Quits Worcester. Jesse Burkett has quit the Worces ter team of the New England league. He expects to either manage a major league team or become a scout for the big league.

BULLETIN ON "CATTLE FEEDING," cheerfully sent on request. Send a postal today. THE SOUTHERN COTTON OIL CO.

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA

maker and a beef builder. There are many feeds designed as beef builders; there are many feeds designed as milk makers. But BOVETA is the ONLY cattle feed which supplies in one unequalled mixture EVERY essential for both purposes.

Has No Equal.

It's all Pure Lime.

No loss of time for slacking; can be drilled in the soil, saving labor cost of at least $2.00 per ton over lump lime.

NO CORE AND NO CLINKER

in Tidewater Hydrated; one ton will produce better results than three tons of many lump limes. Insevery ton you get 2,000 lbs. of pure lime. There is no fertilizer that will sweeten the soil and produce results like Hydrated Lime.

Use less Hydrated than Lump Lime, and get better results.

Better crops for less money. Write us for prices, also booklet on uses of Hydrated Lime. Place your order now with-

P. D. KOONS & SON, DETOUR, MD.

Plant Tennessee Trees.

Buy your trees direct from a responsible nursery and be sure of getting just what you order, and incidentally save more than half what a traveling man would charge.

Our nursery has earned an enviable reputation for fair dealing and our method of packing insures trees reaching you in fine condition.

Prof. G. M. Bentley, our State Entomologist and quite an authority on nursery stock, in his last annual report says:

We believe greater success in orcharding would result from planting Tenneswe believe greater success in orcharding would result from planting Tenters see-grown trees. The variety of stock grown is very general, that suitable both for Northern and Southern trade. Northern nurserymen contract with Tennessee growers especially for apple trees, knowing that due to the long growing season here, stock of two year's growth will equal that of three years in the colder climate. In this and many other features Tennessee holds great advantages and to-day ranks first as the leading nursery state in the South.

Tennessee Wholesale Nurseries

BOX 45.

7-23-3m

(INCORPORATED) WINCHESTER, TENNESSEE.

The Greatest Wholesale Peach Nursery in the World.

90 Per-cent of poultry trouble comes from that it will not rid of lice, when brick, with some flowers upon it. properly applied.

Poultry Supplies

has always been one of my brick underneath the glass shade. leaders, and at about 20% less than regular retail price. Why night, "is what I had thrown at me at pay 25 cents elsewhere, when the last election." I will sell the same for 20c?

Oyster Shells,

55c for 100lb. sacks, special price on larger quantities.

Remember in Poultry Supplies, I lead-others follow.

CHAS. E. H. SHRINER, TANEYTOWN, MD.

JOU WILL DO a very foolish thing if you buy one dollar's worth of Clothing for Men or Boys until you see the Suits and Overcoats that are right in style, right in color and right in price, at

SHARRER & GORSUCH,

WESTMINSTER, MD.

Shakespeare's Definition of Poetry. What a pity it is that Shakespeare ever used that phrase "fine frenzy!" It has become a fuddlesome factor in the framing of foolish fancies. It is to the honor of Shakespeare, however. that he came nearer to giving the world the true definition of poetry than has any other man, for he did explain what constitutes the true art of poetry making, and from this we are enabled to know what Shakespeare con is in the very passage where Shake speare uses that unfortunate phrase "fine frenzy." Let us quote: The poet's eye, in a fine frenzy rolling

Doth glance from heaven to earth, from earth to heaven, And as imagination bodies forth The forms of things unknown the poet's pen Turns them to shapes and gives to airy nothing

A local habitation and a name.

-Hudson Maxim's "Science of Poetry and Philosophy of Language."

In Memoriam.

A policeman was entertaining some friends to an afternoon tea, when one of them, with an inquisitive turn of lice. I have a Louse Killer that mind. happened to see on a shelf a I offer $10.00 for any Hennery glass shade, underneath which was a

The friend, thinking they were mementos of some heroic deeds or were perhaps of some historical interest. asked the policeman why he kept that

"And what about the flowers?" further inquired the friend.

"Them flowers," continued the policeman, with a smile that wouldn't come off, "came off the grave of the man that threw the brick."-Pearson's.

YOU WILL NEVER KNOW

A tenth of what is going on in Town, State, Nation and World if you fail to take

THIS PAPER

Order It Now! Order It Now!

MAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKAKA

Do you think that a space about the size of this—telling the people about the good things you have for them, or are ready to do for themwould pay you? Have you ever thought that the cost of a year's trial would "break you," even if it did not do much good? Advertising pays others-Why not you?

发作品的形式的现在分词的形式的现在分词的形式的现在分词

HUMOROUS QUIPS

A Bridge Alphabet.

A was an amateur doing his best. B was the bridge that he played with such

C was the cards that he pulled rather slow.

D was the discard that bothered him so.
E the eleven rule (only slight aid).
F the finesse that he vainly essayed.
G was the game which he played well, he thought.
H was the honors which somehow were caught.

I was the inference never he drew.

J was the jack that he led from J. 2.

K was the king, whose guard he would

L was the lead, when he shook in his shoes.

M was the make; he counted his hand.

N was no trump. He thought that was grand.

O was the opening lead, always wrong.

P was post mortems. On those he was strong.

Q was the queen he finessed to his cost.

R was the rubber he frequently lost. S was the score, which he never looked T was the ten ace. He understood that.

U was unblocking—too many for him!
V was a value, a term he thought dim.
W was whist, which he bravely attacked.
X was experience he sadly lacked. Y was a Yarborough that made him mad. Z was the zero score often he had.

—Carolyn Wells in Life.

An Essay on Boyhood.

The green corn season is about ended. Corn was good this year. But do you remember when you had to eat corn from the cob and you had a loose tooth in front?

It put you in a terrible position. Any other fellow could finish a cob of corn in three minutes. You couldn't do it in less than ten, because you had to save that tooth. It was a thing to show to the other kids. Don't you remember?

If it came out in the corn you'd have to leave a rank of grains all around the cob to mark its missing place. Oh, that tooth! If it came out you could no longer gather the other fel lows around you and wiggle it and make them jealous. But it couldn't last forever. You were told that if you kept your tongue out of the hole a gold tooth would grow there. Could you? You couldn't. And you couldn't eat corn as well as you used to. All you could do was to be glad that you didn't lose all your upper teeth at once. You couldn't have eaten a bite of corn that way. Nature is kindkinder than we think .- Cleveland Lead

A Correction.

"Now, Caroline," said the teacher of the infant class in a certain Sunday school, "it's your turn. What does your little card say?"

Caroline climbed off her chair and while she explained: "My card is wrong. Miss Appleton. It says, 'Watch and pray,' and it should say, 'Watch and chain.' "-Judge.

With the Wallops. "In the last ten years." snapped Mrs. Wallop, "it has probably cost you at least $25 to color that meerschaum pipe of yours, and yet at that time you kicked at giving me $20 for a new car-lop, "at the end of ten years I've got man whom he had addressed in such the pipe, while the carpet is worn out." -Boston Herald.

Making It Fit. "I am having a play made to fit my personality." said the eminent actress.

"Is it nearly completed?" "Yes. All it needs is taking in in the first act, a little letting out in the third and some new style trimming with morals cut rather more on the bias."-Washington Star.

The Last Man.

The last man surveyed the fading

"Thank heaven I don't have to conserve for posterity any more!" he Herewith he picked a piece of Alaskan coal and vanished.-New York Sun.

Fussy. "I never saw such a man for trying to get the worth of his money." "Well?" "Before he would consent to spend a week at the Thousand islands he insisted upon counting them."-Cleveland Plain Dealer.

He Did.

Evangelist (to Boggs)-My friend, do you love your neighbor as yourself? Boggs (enthusiastically)-You bet I do. She's the dandiest little widow you ever met!-Harper's Weekly.

The Bell Buoy In the Clouds. Nervous Passenger-Great heavens! What's that?

Aeronaut - Bell buoy; skyscrapers about, I guess.-Harper's Weekly. Not Satisfactorily.

"Did you question the gentleman's veracity?" "No. I was afraid it wouldn't answer."-Baltimore American.

Friendly Counsel. "What is a good way to avoid the effect of the heat?"

some."-Philadelphia Ledger. Summer Plans. "And we are thinking of spending the summer in a houseboat," said Mrs.

on the matter.-Puck.

Noah, putting the best face she could

"Living in a cold climate might help

Last Chance. "I never break my word, ma'am."
"Well, it's about the only thing you haven't broken."-Spokane Spokesman.

"I fell and sprained my arm and was in terrible pain. I could not use my hand or arm without intense suffering until a neighbor told me to use Sloan's Liniment. The first application gave me instant relief and I can now use my arm as well as ever."-MRS. H. B. SPRINGER, 921 Flora St., Elizabeth, N. J.

is an excellent antiseptic and germ

SLOAN'S

LINIMENT

KILLS PAIN

killer - heals cuts, burns, wounds, and contusions, and will draw the poison from sting of poisonous insects.

25c., 50c. and $1.00

Sloan's book on horses, cattle, sheep and poultry sent free. Address

Dr. Earl S. Sloan,

Boston, Mass., U.S.A.

The Unhumbled Valet. The Duke of Cambridge was once about to visit Lord Stratford, who had been appointed ambassador to Turkey. At an early hour on the morning of his expected arrival the ambassador went, in slippers and dressing gown, to see if the rooms were in perfect orstood looking earnestly at the teacher der. He found that the duke's valet had arrived and was arranging his master's trunks and portmanteaus. Stratford gave some directions how they should be placed. The man left off working and stared at the intruder. "I tell you what it is," he said. "I know how his royal highness likes to have his things arranged better than you do. So you just be off, will you, old fellow?" Lord Stratford left in a towering passion. Calling one of his attaches, "Well," drawled the tantalizing Wal- he ordered him to go in and tell the language. The attache returned with > twinkling eyes. "What did you say?" asked the ambassador. "I said to him, my lord, that the person he had ventured to address such language to was her majesty's representative to Turkey."

"Ah, quite right. And his answer?" "He answered, my lord, that he never said you wasn't."-"With Lord Stratford In the Crimean War."

Wise Men of Gotham.

A "wise man of Gotham" is a fool, but the phrase arose through the real wisdom of the people that lived in the English town of Gotham. The story goes that King John of England once visited the town with the intention of seeing a castle that he thought of taking for himself. But the Gothamites did not care for the nearness of royalty and the expense they would be put to if the king should have a house there, and so they cooked up a scheme to drive him away. When the king arrived with his company of followers and rode through the town he saw all the inhabitants of Gotham going through the most foolish of tasks, each person with a silly smile on his face. The king was disgusted with them. He would not live among crazy people, and so he rode on through the town and did not stop for the castle. Then the wise men of Gotham, still smiling, but not in a silly fashion, told one another that there were more fools that passed through Gotham than remain

Still In the Ring. "I hear your engagement with young Gotrox has been broken off," said the first fair daughter of Eve. "Well, you are entitled to another hearing," rejoined fair daughter No. 2 as she held up a graceful hand on which a solitaire sparkled. "You can see for yourself that I am still in the ring."

Hard Luck.

Chief-Tell me, sir. why you have so utterly failed to get a clew to this crime. Detective-'Tain't my fault. The reporters are down on me, an' they won't tell me nothing!-Cleveland Leader.

His Exact Weight.

Angler (who is telling his big fish story)-What weight was he? Well, they hadn't right weights at the inn. but he weighed exactly a flatiron, two eggs and a bit of soap.-Punch.

OUR HOME DEPARTMENT

Original and Selected Articles of Interest to the Home.

We invite contributions to this department We invite contributions to this department from all readers who have something to say on topics which relate especially to home im-provement, social conditions, or moral issues. While we disclaim all indorsement of senti-ments which may be expressed by contribu-tors, and desire to be as liberal as possible, we at the same time request all to avoid person-alities, and stick to proper expressions of ominion.

opinion.

All articles for this department must be in our office not later than Monday morning, of each week, to be guaranteed insertion the same week, and all articles must be signed with the name of the author, even when a nom de plume is given.

LETTER FROM IRELAND.

By Dr. S. G. A. BROWN.

Like Glasgow, Belfast is an enterprising, commercial town. However, it contains many new and handsome buildings and is growing rapidly. There are a number of linen mills here, and for several miles outside the city, thousands of yards of this material might be seen bleaching on the grass. We did not find the people as poor as we had expected. Wages are fair. A days laborer is paid from five dollars a week up, by the city corporation; this, considering the cost of living, equals at least eight dollars in America. All through the country, from Belfast to Dublin, a distance of 112 miles, the cottages looked neat and trim, and nowhere did we see the shacks one notices here in our own oil and coal regions. Even in London the unskilled workman makes his dollar a day and has a full dinner pail. We are not a politician, and this is not the place to discuss conditions of that character, but one thing is absolutely true, the most of us in the United States have a misconception concerning the labor conditions of Europe. We hope we may be pardoned for stating another fact. We have traveled over a great part of this old globe and know that less than which represents our own thoughts: eight per cent. of our own commerce is carried under the Stars and Stripes. There is not a single American vessel that plies regularly, at present, between this country and the Philippines; our mails and diplomatic correspondence are forwarded to our Samoan naval station, under a Japanese flag. There is something wrong with the in'ards of Uncle Samuel, though this is the fairest land on the earth.

Dublin is a fine city, much of which we saw by jaunting car. St. Pacrick's Cathedral stands on the site of a church built by St. Patrick himself. Like all Cathedrals, it is interesting. The grave of Swift is here.

The Castle does not appear as ancient as its history, because of many recent lieve there is much money for him in the renovations. Its chapel we found dark | small farm, says Allan L. Beson in The and gloomy. The Bank of Ireland is a Delineator for November. Ask him if his little churches stood, and the holy designs upon his life. wells, where he baptised, turning the haunts of river fairies into fonts of bap- living from the soil-which, probably he tism. Few countries have a completer will not be-he will tell you that he history in eloquent stone.

passed through picturesque Wales to him decent comforts. More likely, he Chester. This is also a very old town, would reject the farming proposition having been one of the principal military altogether, and take a polite clerkship stations of the Romans of Britain. The at twelve dollars a week, or a place in a city is enclosed by old walls, which en- factory at ten dollars. circle it completely, giving it quite a mediaeval appearance. The walls con- from the land. In 1792, ninety-six per tain several towers. What is known as cent, of the population lived on farms. the Water Tower, contains a museum of Now, seventy per cent. of the popula-Roman remains. What are known as tion are not engaged in farming. Amerthe Rows, are the two main streets icans are quitting the land as if they which run through the city at right had measured its possibilities and found angles. A unique and very peculiar them insufficient. feature of these streets is that besides the best stores are located here, the oth- Earth as a lean mother. They believe ers being underneath, on the ground much land must be used to get a little floor. There was the customary Castle living. They believe all land is like a here, also Cathedral, but we did not visit them. From Chester our route lay through Birmingham to Stratford. Birmingham seemed to be a great smoky city, a second Pittsburgh, only greater.

people yearly, mostly Americans. It is a picturesque town, most beautifully situated on the Avon. Several fine bridges cross the stream and there is a can be kept all that Ponce de Leon splendid park on the banks. Stratford wanted to be himself-perpetually church is located on the west bank also. Shakespere is buried here, in the south transept near the chancel. The church has a fine stone spire, part of the building being nearly 700 years old. There is run as poorly as farms are tilled, a ped olives, salt, pepper and a little suan elegant stained window illustrating passenger would require a week, instead gar. Add to the hot mush a compara-Shakespere's "Seven Ages," which was of eighteen hours, to go from Chicago tively large piece of butter or lard and contributed by Americans. The Memo- to New York. Lack of understanding orial Theatre is pleasantly situated on is the rule on the farm. There are just be put in with the pepper and garlic the Avon also, and has a large monu- enough exceptions to prove the rule. ment in the grounds in front with four large figures representing Shakespere's plays. There is a large drinking fountain in the public square of Stratford, the gift of Mr. Childs, of Philadelphia. Shakespere's house, in Henley street, is much the same as in the early days of the great poet. We saw the room in which he was born, with its antique fireplace. Another room is a museum, containing many Shakesperian curiosities, and many of his early manuscripts and editions, which are of countless value. It is national property. A very pleasant drive brought us to Shottery, one mile 50c. at R. S. McKinney's.

away, the home of Anne Hathaway, Shakespere's wife. We notice the foot path across the fields, by which he often travelled, and the whole seemed so romatic that we were not surprised that a man of his wonderful genius could formulate verse even on serious occasions like that. Anne Hathaway's cottage is a wooden structure with a plastered front and thatched roof. The interior is much the same as it was in her time and was duly inspected.

Once more we returned to the great city of London to pack our belongings and start for Southampton and our homeward voyage. Accordingly on July 29th. we embarked on the Hamburg-American Liner "Amerika" for New York, bidding farewell to the old world and its many interesting places. The "Amerika" is a 23,000 ton boat, 690 feet long, but we did not like her as well as the "Cleveland." Our voyage home was uneventful. We had had a most wonderful trip and thanks to the Great Architect of the Universe, were able to enjoy the same, having had no sickness nor accidents. We had visited Japan, destined to become one of the greatest countries in the world. We had seen the Taj Mahal of India, the most beautiful and perfect building in the world, situated among a race degraded almost to the level of animals. We had visited Canton, China, and Benares, India, and there saw scenes which can never be effaced from our memory. We had seen Cairo, Jerusalem, Athens and Rome, and had walked in the footsteps of the Pharaohs and the Cæsars. We had seen much of Europe, including beautiful and quaint Holland, and wonderful England. But the most momentous time of the whole trip was when we sailed up New York harbor, with band playing and in sight of the great Statue of Liberty, and the happiest moment of the whole trip was when the train halted at our own home station. And now we feel that we can close this long and rather uninteresting epistle no better than by quoting the words of Van Dyke "It is good to see the Old World, and travel up and down, Among the famous countries and the cities of renown:

To admire the crumbly castles, and the monuments of kings; But soon or late you have enough of antiquated things.

"Oh, its home again, and home again, Ameri-My heart is turning home again to God's own country. To the land of youth and freedom, beyond the ocean bars, Where the air is full of sunshine, and the fiag is full of stars."

Don't Underrate the Small Farm.

The average American does not besplendid building. Sackville street is he believes he could make a living on a the principal thoroughfare, and several ten-acre farm for a wife and three fine monuments erected thereon. All children, and he will throw up his over Ireland you will find St. Patrick's hands. Suggest five acres to him, and foot prints. They will show you where he will begin to suspect that you have

Even if he be disposed to wrench his could do nothing on less than forty Crossing the channel once more, we acres, and that eighty would barely give

Our national tendency is to get away

The fact is that Americans never even the ordinary sidewalk there is a contin- dreamed of the possibilities of land. Old nous covered gallery through the fronts as the earth is, Americans don't know of the second stories of the houses. All what it can do. They regard Mother lime from the corn and grind it fine. yeast cake-good only a little while; witness the abandoned farms to be found in New York and New England.

Americans are wrong. A little land is enough for a living. All land is good. Stratford is said to be visited by 14,000 | Crops can be grown on sand if the grower knows how to grow them. No farms ever become useless. It is the farmer who becomes useless. Any land | cook like much. young. Broadly speaking, no land in America ever produced for a year a tenth of the wealth that it is capable of pro- minutes. Then add the chopped meat ducing every year. If railroads were and season the mixture with finely chop-

Reaching the Top in any calling of life, demands a vigorous body and a keen brain. Without health there is no success. But Electric Bitters is the greatest Health Builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of the stomach , liver, kidneys bowels, purifies and enriches the blood, tones and invigorates the whole system and enables you to stand the wear and tear of your daily work. "After months of suffering from Kidney Trouble, "writes W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., "three bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man."

Locust Plague Near.

To warn farmers and orchardists against the resurrection of the "Seventeen-vear Locust" or "Periodical Cicada" that will occur in certain areas of this country next Spring, a call for preserving the wild birds that destroy this pest is to-day being issued from the headquarters of the National Association of Audubon Societies in New York City. Two giant broods of these remarkable insects, that come to ravage orchard vegetation only after incubation intervals of thirteen and seventeen years, are set down by scientists as due to descend upon this continent within the next six months. Only the birds that can be counted upon to eat up by thousands the units in this swarming locust plague will avail to avert serious losses in the coming season, it is declared.

English sparrows, robins, woodpeckers, orioles, scarlet tanagers, cuckoos, goldfinches and nuthatches nave been proved by the government biological survey to have rendered the greatest service in devouring these periodical cicada on their last raids of the country, according to the records that have been searched by the Audubon workers. Eating the soft bodies of the locust pests or their wings and heads as well, cat birds, flickers, towhees, gnatcatchers, martins, peewees, thrushes, vireos, chickadees and flycatchers are among their other destroyers. Only two species of all the birds examined at Washington have been found not to feed upon these destructive insects. To protect these birds and all other insect eaters through the coming months is declared to be an emergency measure that must be seized upon by the farmers of the land.

Shielded in tiny shells, the periodical cicada are to-day preparing to burst forth in countless multitudes over the fields of both North and South, the entomological experts declare. Unnumbered hosts of these weird insects will next summer slit young trees and deposit to blight their tender sprouts the eggs that will bring forth the species seventeen years hence, it is assured. Apple, peach and pear orchards and vinevards will feel their destructive power, the government authorities admit, unless an abundant force of the wild birds is preserved to lead the fight against the impending insect plague. Compreheneive state laws for the protection of the insect-eating birds and widespread efforts to shelter and feed them through the storms of next winter are advocated in this emergency by the National Association of Audubon Societies, which has for years urged the people of America to consider such problems from the economic standpoint.

"The fear of the locust plague that is now spreading over the agricultural sections only points sharply the moral of our general campaign," said William Dutcher, president of the National Association of Audubon Societies at its headquarters, 141 Broadway, recently. that will be invaluable in this particular | cent apiece, without reckoning in all the case as they are in every case of insect pests. Since 1634, when these so-called upon the pilgrim fathers at Plymouth, the agricultural prosperity of this country has been constantly menaced by insect encroachments that can be met only by the birds that Nature has provided as checks, not as targets for pot hunters."

Mexican Hot Tamales.

While there are several kinds of tamales, the best are those made from chicken. For chicken tamales boil one large chicken or a little more than five pounds of chicken meat in salted water, and when tender chop the meat fine. Boil two pounds of corn and a handful of lime in water until the skins of the corn are loosened. Then wash the

If you do not care to do this work use corn meal, though it will not be as distinctly Mexican, as the cooked corn. Then select a dozen red chilli peppers, peel and seed, and after softening by soaking and simmering in boiling water, drain dry and pound into a mortar or grind fine with three pieces of garlic until of a pastelike consistency. Take the liquor in which the meat was cooked and stir into it the ground corn, then

Fry a small chopped onion in a little lard and add a teaspoonful of flour, and when the onion has commenced to brown add the peppers and cook for five mixture, as well as more chillis if the

When the chicken or beef mixture has cooked thoroughly spread wet corn husks with the prepared meat paste, then add a layer of the chopped meat and olives. Put on another husk, spread with meat, and so continue until the tamale is the size required.

Roll the husks so the meat may be completely surrounded with the paste, turn the ends, tie securely with twine and steam from three-quarters of an hour put the bottom tamales on top. Send to the table in their husks, that pation. 10% and 25%.—Get at McKelthey may be eaten piping hot.

The Size of Wedding Fees.

After you have known a clergyman for twenty years, perhaps you can induce him to talk freely about his marriage fees-not before. The subject is too complicated; too personal; too disappointing. When you have broken down the barriers of his reserve, it is probable that he will tell you some highly entertaining stories. At least, you may find them so.

Large wedding fees are rare, even in New York. Fees of $50 and $100 are considered large. The $1,000 fee, when it makes its appearance, usually goes to the rector of a wealthy congregation who enjoys a salary of $10,000 or $12,-000 a year. Larger fees are sometimes given. The man of wealth, actuated by a high regard for his pastor and friend, occasionally gives his check for $2,000 or $3,000 under the guise of a wedding fee. He wishes to help the minister, and knows the money would not be acccepted under any other circumstances. Such gifts, it is needless to say, are extremely rare.

A Methodist minister in Baltimore recently married a young man of the Bowery type who asked him, at the conclusion of the ceremony in the parsonage, how much he "charged." As a hint to the clergyman to keep his fee within reasonable limits, the young man drew a half dollar from his pocket while speaking. The minister explained that no "charge" was made for his services. Whereupon the delighted young husband exclaimed, "Do you hear that, Mag? he don't charge nothin' !" and dropped the half dollar back into his pocket.

But the pastor had more to say. He told his visitor that the fee depended on the valuation he placed on the service rendered. If it was worth nothing to marry the young woman at his side, very good; but if he valued her his fee would give some evidence of it. The groom was impressed. Slowly he produced the half dollar and laid it in the minister's hand. A $1 bill followed. Then he grasped his bride's arm and moved toward the door.

New York has a few clergymen whose marriage fees average $1,200 a year. The pastor of a large Presbyterian church on Broadway has estimated that his fees amount annually to $1,000. These are top-notch figures. The fee received by an American minister for officiating at the wedding of one of his wealthy parishioners in Paris, a few years ago, is said to have covered the expenses of his four months' vacation on the Continent. Such fees, however, are extraordinary. They are beyond the wildest dreams of the average pastor, who may be able to recall one of $50 in his entire ministry.-Frederic Walter Norcross, in the Christian Herald.

Stories at less than a Cent Apiece.

In the fifty-two issues of a year's volume The Youth's Companion prints fully For years we have been working to two hundred and fifty stories. The arouse the country to the danger of the subscription price of the paper is but destruction of the insect-eating birds, $1.75, so that the stories cost less than a rest of the contents-anecdotes, humorous sketches, the doctor's weekly article. 'Seventeen-year Locusts'' descended papers on popular topics by famous men and women.

> Although the two hundred and fifty stories cost so little, they are not cheap stories. In variety of scene, diversity of incident, skill and truth in characterdepicting, they cannot be excelled.

The Announcement for 1911, beautifully illustrated, giving more detailed particulars of these stories and other new features which greatly enlarge the paper, will be sent to any address free with sample copies of current issues.

Every new subscriber receive free The Companion's Art Calendar for 1911, lithographed in thirteen colors and gold, and if the subscription is received at once, all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1910.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 144 Berkeley St., Boston, Mass.

A Banana Tip.

"Now that winter is approaching," said a food specialist, "we should eat a lot of fruit. 1 myself, all winter, will go in for bananas. But bananas give most people indigestion. That is because they don't know how to eat them, though. Listen.

"The average person selects a solid banana without a fleck on its blonde skin; he consumes the white, hard flesh of the fruit, and for seven or eight hours afterwards he keeps tasting banana-he has indigestion-and the next day, ten to one, he rises with a headache. "But the native considers such blonde solid bananas green. The native eats a banana whose skin is quite brown, and whose white flesh has turned to a brownsalt to season. A little tomato may also ish pulp of the consistency of stewed fruit. The native, in fact, must eat his banana with a spoon; it is so far gone as

> "Yes, it is far gone, but it is quite sweet. Yet we couldn't stand it—it would seem to us unappetizing. But we could stand a nearly ripe banana. I eat brown, pulpy fellows myself, and these, I assure you, always agree with the most delicate stomachs."

Simple, Harmless, Effective.

Pure Charcoal Tablets for Dyspepsia, Acid Stomach, Heartburn and ConstiFalling Hair

Ayer's Hair Vigor promptly destroys the germs that cause falling hair. It nourishes the hairbulbs, restores them to health. The hair stops falling out, grows more rapidly.

Dandruff Ayer's Hair Vigor just as promptly destroys the germs that cause dandruff. It removes every trace of dandruff itself, and keeps the scalp clean and in a healthy condition.

oes not Color the Hair

We wish you to positively and distinctly understand that Ayer's Hair Vigor does not affect the color of the hair, even to the slightest degree. Persons with the whitest or the lightest and most delicate blond hair may use it freely without having the hair made a shade darker. Ingredients: Sulphur. Glycerin. Quinin. Sodium Chlorid. Capsicum. Sage. Alcohol. Water. Perfume.

Show this formula to your doctor. Ask him what he thinks of it.

TELEPHONE GIRL'S VERSION.

telephone girl who had studied e ocution was called on to give a reading, and this was the manner in which she gave "The Charge of the Light Brigade:

> Half a league, half a league, Half a league onward,
> All in the valley of death
> Rode the Six-double-O. "Forward the Light brigade! Charge for the guns!" he said Into the valley of death Rode the Six-double-O.

Cannon to right of them, Cannon to left of them, Cannon behind them, Volleyed and thundered. Stormed at with shot and shell, While horse and hero fell, They that had fought so well Came through the jaws of death, Back from the mouth of hello. All that was left of them, Left of Six-double-O.

When can their glory fade? Oh, the wild charge they made! All the world wondered. Honor the charge they made! Honor the Light brigade, Noble Six-double-O!

—Detroit Free Press.

Dippy-I heard you lost $10 on the ball game

Slippy-It is not lost. I know where it is. Brown has it.

Scilor Shocks a Sympathizer. A passenger on a transatlantic liner had an experience recently which was calculated to make her believe that a seaman is not apt to waste many thoughts on his personal troubles.

The seaman who brought the traveler to this opinion had, the second day out, a fall which resulted in a bad cut on the head. She was most solicitous in her inquiries as to his welfare when she saw the captain that night and would undoubtedly have continued her sympathy had not a rough sea called to mind her own suffering.

Four days later, however, when she emerged, white and weak, from her tateroom, she the poor sailor. In the course of the day she encountered him with a strip of plaster on his forehead.

"How is your head?" she asked kindly as he passed by her bent on some

"West by south, ma'am," was the reply.-Harper's.

MODERN FARMING.

Motor Plows That Pull From Six to Ten Plowshares at a Time.

"The motor plow is rapidly replacing the old time horse plow in the Illinois and Indiana corn belts," said T. H. Stachman of Terre Haute, Ind.

"On nearly every large farm in central Illinois and the Indiana corn belt there is in operation a motor plow. These machines, which are really big gasoline automobiles, pull from six to ten plowshares at one time. The saving in labor and horses is immense, and almost five times as much work can be done with one of the plows as a team and a double plow working in the old time way can do.

"An average day's work of one of these plows in breaking old ground is fifteen acres. The machine plows much deeper than the ordinary hand plow and team and larger crops are the re-

"It does not pay a farmer, however, to use the motor plow unless he cultivates at least 160 acres. Those farmers who own smaller places are rapidly getting around this difficulty, however, by pooling their interests and buying a motor plow for combined use.

"Within a few years you will see all kinds of gasoline driven mechinery on farms in the middle west."-Washington Post.

Remarkable Opals. Queensland is celebi ted for its opals. A particularly brilliant set, the finest ever brought together in Queensland, has lately been assembled. Numbering just over thirty pieces, the set is valued at considerably more than £2,000 and comes entirely from Queensland fields. In some of the specimens the vividness and peculiar blend of the colors are almost dazzling, even in the dullest light. One especially fine block of the harlequin pattern opal presents the appearance of a mosaic done in all the colors of the rainbow, while another, an oval shaped stone, graduates in color from a glorious amethyst blue at one end to a fascinating combination of fully twenty different colors and shades at the other.-London Globe.

Classified Advertisements.

Dentistry.

J. S. MYERS, J. E. MYERS, Westminster, Md. New Windsor, Md

Drs. Myers, SURGEON DENTISTS,

Are prepared to do All Kinds of Dental Work, including

ALUMINUM PLATES. DR. J. W. HELM, SURGEON DENTIST,

New Windsor - - Maryland, Will be in Taneytown 1st Wednesday of each month. I have other engagements for the 3rd Saturday and Thursday and Friday, immediately preceding. The rest of the month at my office in New Windsor.

Nitrous Oxide Gas administered. Graduate of Maryland University, Baltimore, Md.

A Record Unsurpassed. In the Purchase of a Packard Piano

one secures an instrument that has passed through all experimental stages; the result of many years of study and experience. The production of creators and masters of the art who have made Piano building a labor of love rather than a labor for gain. No fancy prices for reputation or name; just a fair price for a first-class artistic Piano.

Send for Illustrated Catalogue.

BIRELY'S Palace of Music,

Cor. Market and Church Sts., 9-19-tf FREDERICK, MD.

Littlestown Carriage Works.

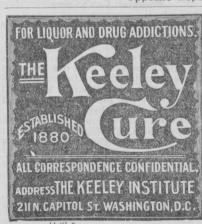

S. D. MEHRING.

Manufacturer ot -CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, PHAETONS, TRAPS, CARTS, CUTTERS, ETC.

DAYTON, MCCALL AND JAGGER WAGONS.

Repairing Promptly Done. Low Prices and all Work Guaranteed, LITTLESTOWN, PA., Opposite Depot.

BLOTTERS

are now recognized as one of the very best methods for advertising almost any business, next to newspaper publicity, because they are constantly in demand by all who have correspondence, whether in the home or office.

BLOTTERS

are convenient to mail with business letters, to use as business cards. or to wrap up with merchandise. We are prepared to print them in any style, size or quantity--enameled backs and assorted colors.

BLOTTERS

are worth considering--you are using somebody's blotter advertisements yourself, consequently ought to know their value for keeping your business before the public. Let us give you the price on 500 or 1000!

Compound Syrup White Pine and Tar for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, &c.-Get at McKellip's.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson V .- Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 30, 1910.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xxvi, 1-16. Memory Verse, 13-Golden Text, Mark xiv, 8-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

We are to have five lessons in this chapter, the greater portion of which is recorded by Mark and Luke also. The first five verses and the last three are in the regular order of events, two days before the Passover, and Jesus again announces that He is to be crucified (verse 2). The record says that not only had the chief priests, scribes and elders determined to kill Him, but they were actually consulting as to how they could do it in a quiet manner without an uproar, for they feared the people. "Then entered Satan into Judas, surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve, and he went his way and communed with the chief priests and captains how he might betray Him unto them," and for thirty pieces of silver he agreed to do it in the absence of the multitude (verse 15; Luke xxii, 3-6). Luke also tells us that during those last days He was in the daytime teaching in the temple, and at night He went out and abode in the mount that is called the Mount of Olives (xxi, 37). After such a record concerning Him whose witnesses we are and whose steps we are to follow shall we ever again complain if we are hated for His sake, if one who professed to be our friend joins the enemy against us.

The anointing by Mary is recorded by Mark and John also, but not by Luke. In Luke vii, 36-50, there is a record of an anointing which was also in the house of a man called Simon. but that Simon was no friend of Jesus, and the woman is unnamed and was confessedly a sinful woman.

The event of our lesson today was six days before the Passover, and it was at Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, and Martha and Mary and Lazarus were all present. They made Him a supper, and Martha served, and Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with Him (John xii, 1, 2). It was on that evening that Mary took the pound of very precious ointment of spikenard and brake the alabaster box and poured it both on His head and on His feet as He sat at meat. and the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. Compare the three records. Mary, like the other woman, wiped His feet with her hair, but the other wiped her own tears with which she had washed His feet, while Mary wiped them after she had anointed them with the ointment (Luke vii, 38: John xii, 3). In the one case it was the heartfelt gratitude of a truly penitent sinner, while in the other it was the devotion of true worship and an anointing beforehand for His burial, for He said so, and He knew her heart and her purpose. My own conviction is that Mary had received His words concerning His cruel death at the bands of His enemies and knew that would therefore be impo ssible for His friends to show any kindness to His body then, as far as she could see, and she had made preparation and had watched for her opportunity. which has now come. Can any one say that He, knowing all things, had not arranged this stop at Bethany specially for her sake? The other women, who, like Peter and John and the rest of His disciples, had not received His sayings concerning His sufferings, bought spices after His death and burial to anoint His body when the Sabbath had passed, but they never used them for that purpose, so that Mary was the only woman who was privileged to anoint Him for burial. Those who receive all His words have blessings beyond all others. Some one has suggested that in the three, Martha, Mary and Lazarus, taken together, we have what constitutes a well rounded Christian life-Lazarus. the power of a resurrection life, because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away and believed on Jesus (John xii, 11); Martha, restful service, because that here we do not read of her being cumbered, as on a former occasion; Mary, true devotion and worship, for such is always costly. David said. "Neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the Lord my God of that which doth cost me nothing" (II Sam. xxiv, 24). Let us ponder, as in His sight, the cost of our worship of and devotion to Him. Financially how does it compare with our worship of self and the world? If we become as devoted to Him as Mary was not only will some Judas criticise us, but many professedly devoted ones will find fault also, for, while no one will, perhaps, condemn our love for self and this present world, many will protest against too much devotion to Jesus Christ. Well, let them, if only we can have His "She hath done what she could," "She hath wrought a good work on me" (Mark xiv, 6, 8). If fault finders with devotion to missions could by any means hear His voice they would doubtless hear a "Let alone." "Why trouble ye them" (verse 10; Mark xiv. 6). Think of the honor conferred upon Mary in that a testimony concerning her love and devotion is given in all the world wherever the gospel is preached. Oh how real devotion to Him is needed ir our day, when all the world is open to the gospel and the age of unparalleled opportunity is fast closing, and soon He will come again to take His church to Himself. May we abide according to I John ii, 28.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning Oct. 30, 1910. Topic.—My denomination at work in other lands.—Ps. ii, 1-8. Edited by Rev. Sherman H. Doyle, D. D.

Five weeks ago we had this very same subject as applied to our own land. But our denominations do not limit their labors to the boundaries of our own land, to our mainland and its islands, but to all peoples as far as possible. Christ said to begin at home, but also to continue the work of witnessing for Him "unto the uttermost parts of the earth."

This, too, all Christian denominations are striving to do. Modern missions in foreign fields have rapidly increased since their origin a little over a century ago.

The Old Testiment as well as the New breathes the spirit of foreign missions. In the second psalm perhaps as strongly as in any other place God emphasizes this work, setting forth through the psalmist the futility of heathen opposition and the sure success finally of the kingdom of Christ.

When first missionaries began their work there was much opposition to them. In China, India, Japan and the isles of the sea they were mistreated and many times won the crown of martyrdom. This was not so much because they were Christian missionar'es, but because they were foreigners. Most of these nations were closed entirely to foreigners altogether. China had its great wall to keep them out. Japan, now so vigorous, was a closed island to all foreigners, and Commodore Perry of the United States navy was the first foreign naval officer to be received, and thereafter treaties were made and foreign trade begun and with it (and sometimes here and there a single missionary before) the missionaries. But still "the heathen raged" and often took their spite out on the missionaries. But the "blood of the martyrs," as in the time of the persecutions by the Roman empire, "became the seed of the church." Kings and rulers took counsel together, but with futile results. The kingdom was bound to make progress and to win out in the end.

Had the church been but human it might have been kept away, but instead it is the church of the living God and nothing could stop it. While they derided. God in the heavens laughed and held them in derision and brought them to a position where the door of every nation was and is opened to missionaries, and they are free from persecutions, except in case of some local outbreak, which the authorities soon control.

Under these conditions God sent out his servants to invite them "to be wise." "to fear the Lord," "to kiss the Son, lest he be angry and ye perish." The people, no longer derisive, are listening to the call of God's messengers and by the thousands are coming into Christ's kingdom.

The societies of each denomination should study the work of their own denominations.

BIBLE READINGS.

Isa. lii, 1-7; lx, 11-22; Ps. lxxii; Isa. ii, 1-5; xxxv; xlii, 1-7; Nah, i, 15; Acts i, 1-8; xiii, 1-3; Rom. x, 12-15; II Cor.

New York's New Field Secretary. Dr. Bernaud Clausen of Binghamton, N. Y., is at present state secretary of the New York Christian Endeavor union. Dr. Clausen has been many years in medical practice. He is a member of the New York State Medical society and of the Broome County Medical society. Dec. 1, 1909, he assumed the duties of state secretary of the Christian Endeavor of New York and has been actively pushing this work throughout the state since that time. He has organized many new societies and is at present engaged in pushing the New York state convention which is to be held in Rochester Oct. 4, 5

DR. BERNARD CLAUSEN.

Chinese Lecture Club.

Through the efforts of some Christian Endeavorers about thirty Chinese students attending Birmingham uni versity, England, organized a Chinese lecture club. These students visit Christian Endeavor societies and churches in small groups and lecture on various aspects of Chinese life.

Christian Endeavor.

Let me sing a song of hope For the weary and the sad; Let me light the feet that grope; Let me make some lone heart glad. Thus my life will flow forever Through a sweet Christ-like endeavor -John R. Clements.

THE FORTUNE

A Scheme That Brought a Surprise to Alicia.

By CLINTON DANGERFIELD. "Do you mind telling me," I said, looking in open wonder at Alicia's calico gown and rural hat, "what you are wearing that getup for?"

"Doesn't it seem suitable to a farmhouse in the country?" she inquired, with obvious satisfaction in her cos-

"I can't see why white lawny stuff, with embroidery and things, the kind you usually wear, wouldn't be quite as unostentatious," I said discontent-

Alicia leaned near to me. Really she ought not to put that kissable mouth of hers so close to even a married man. Then she whispered dramati-

"I'm poor. I've lost every cent." "What?" I cried, aghast. Alicia is not fitted for poverty. "Sh! Not truly, you know. I'm making believe. I want to meet a few men and know they are not fortune

"Humanity is more decent than you usually suppose it," I said dryly. "There are a few ripping good poor fellows in our own set, untainted by self seeking, though that guardian aunt of yours won't let you believe

"Well, but here," said Alicia, with such satisfaction that I knew at once some one was on the tanis-"here one can be absolutely sure."

"Whom have you met?" I asked sternly.

"No one," said Alicia obstinately. But the next moment she blushed rosily as a tall, sun browned young man came slowly up the wide steps of the piazza. A red handkerchief knotted around his columnar throat and a wide hat sat slightly atilt gave a picturesque finish to him. I am bound to admit he looked attractive.

"Mr. Roberts," said Alicia, "I want to have you meet my friend Mr. Hamlin Johnson. His wife comes out to board here next week."

"You are down to have a look at the lay of our country?" suggested Roberts, holding out a strong tanned hand and nearly smashing mine in it.

As he spoke Alicia vanished. She returned immediately with a huge pan of green peas and, seating herself on the step, began shelling them as industriously as though her future depended on it. Roberts promptly joined her, while I discontentedly dropped into Alicia's hammock. Alicia was too utterly unlike her bored and ennuied self. She laughed now in low ripples and then lifted the shining eyes of a child to Roberts' earnest and altogether too handsome face. It would never do. I told myself, to permit Alicia to throw herself away on an uncongenial

For the next two days I criticised Roberts fiercely to myself. I could not seemed capable of taking on polish and that his grammar, while not of the best the made breaks occasionally). was reasonably good. He openly and frankly adored Alicia, who proudly aired her poverty and exulted in her captivation of a man who must indeed love her for herself alone. But I could not bear the thought of it all. At last, for I saw matters were approaching a climax, I determined to appeal to Roberts' generosity.

I got him off on a day's fishing, and as we came homeward I prepared my appeal. I led the conversation up to marriage by beginning to talk of home. Yes; his father and mother were living, he said. Yes; the old folks did miss him, but he got an extra good chance to get a job with Farmer Ketterer, and he guessed they could stand it awhile longer.

"I suppose," I said bravely, "that some day you will be thinking of marriage, just as they did once.' He shot a peculiar glance at me.

"And when you do marry," I pursued, "of course you want everything fair and aboveboard. You want no chance for ill feeling or mischief makers to creep between you and your wife because there was any misapprehension at the beginning.'

He turned red under his tan. "Misapprehension? How could there be? What do you mean anyway?" The guilty look on his face gave me a sudden insight into the matter. Alas, poor Alicia! This innocent rustic lover belonged to the very class of men she most abhorred. He knew who she was, and he had deliberately let her play her poor little play before

"You know who Miss Alicia Gordon

"Yes, I do," he answered doggedly. "She is Alicia Van Anderson, the heiress and society woman."

"And, knowing this as you do," I said, bursting with natural indignation, "you dare to let yourself make love to her, to let her believe you hon-

"I hold myself honest," he returned quietly.

"A man cannot be considered honest," I said sternly, "who courts a woman under false pretenses. You are letting Miss Van Anderson think that you love her for herself alone."

"And you would argue that I love her for her money!" he said in a tone of bitter sarcasm. "It looks that way," I retorted angrily. "I mean to let her know the whole truth unless you have good ranse and manhood enough to quietly withdraw. You don't want that ugly name 'fortune hunter' applied to you,

"No; I don't want that applied to me," said Roberts, punching holes in the moss with his rod, for we had got so near the house that by mutual consent we had seated ourselves on a log for our discussion, "especially as I have asked Alicia to marry me, and she said she would give me her answer tonight."

"She will give it to you now!" cried a clear voice, and Alicia's own hand parted the bushes near us. "Oh, I know it's contemptible to listen, but when your whole happiness depends

A little sob choked her sentence. We both sprang up and stood staring at her-Roberts with a yearning intentness of gaze, I hopefully.

"I certainly trust," he said slowly, taking off his hat and standing bareheaded in the sunset rays, "that nothing I have done, Miss"-

"Miss Van Anderson henceforth," she said significantly and scornfully. "That nothing I have done, Miss Van Anderson"-

"Is it nothing," cried the girl, "to find that you have been deceiving me all along; that you wanted the heiress, not me? If only you had come to me and said, 'Alicia, I know about your wretched money, but I mean to marry you in spite of it,' then I would have respected you. But you preferred to have me think you took me for a simple country girl."

To my intense surprise Roberts coolly and audaciously caught both her hands in his, fixing a magnetic gaze full on her face.

"Alicia," he said slowly, "God pity you. All your life you have proved how suspicion is born of wealth. That horrible taint, suspicion, blackens your whole world. And yet, God pity me. too, I can understand how your soul has been soiled by this. I can pity, forgive and love you."

"Love me!" cried the girl. "Why weren't you honest? You lived a lie with me!"

"Was my pose much worse than yours?" said her lover coolly. "I am Robert Castleton, and my fortune, dear child, is double all you can count."

We both cried out in amazement. Loosing Alicia, he drew out from an inner pocket a locket set round with rubies and, pressing the spring, showed us an exquisite face, which I recognized at once. "My mother." he said simply. "And here are letters, and of course I can offer you all the proofs you want by telegraph or"-

"But how on earth"- I stammered. "To be frank," said Robert Castleton composedly, "I was sick of being hunted down by designing women who wanted me for their ugly daughters or for themselves. If I hadn't seen Alicia once at the opera she would have deceived me as completely as I did her." His simple, straightforward manner, the casting off of every shred of the rustic as he talked, convinced me wholly. I burst into a fit of ringing laugh-

"Lord, this is good," I choked-"you two flying from the fortune hunters and then making what will prove the match of the season!"

I turned away, laughing still. A turn but admit that he was manly, that he | sidewise Alicia's pretty head reposing on the fortune hunter's breast.

Nature as a Dentist.

A curious tale of a gold filled tooth being found in the jaw of a prehistoric mastodon is told in "Gold Diggings of Cape Horn," by John R. Spears, who received the story from a South American miner:

"This miner, searching for gold along the coast, found in an earth bank a fossil which proved to be a part of a mastodon's jaw, with two teeth in place. The bone was in such a decayed condition that the finder was about to throw it away when his eye fell on a crack in the top and side of one of the teeth. The cavity thus formed was filled with a foreign substance, to which the miner applied his knife and found, to his astonishment, that it was pure gold. The explanation of the curious discovery is probably as follows: The gold, contained in broken down quartz, was washed into the cavity by the action of water, deposited there and the fine grains united to form a nugget. The old bone simply happened to be lying in the track of the silt. The piece of gold thus formed weighed about eight grams."

The Earliest Surgeons.

Surgery is said to be older than medicine, and probably, in its simplest offices, it is as old as human need for Skulls of the neolithic period give evidence that the operation of trepanning was then practiced.

The Hindu surgeon Susruta, who lived several centuries before Christ, had more than a hundred different sorts of surgical instruments, and there is abundant proof that his countrymen were skilled in amputation, lithotomy and operations for hernia, fistula and even for restoring lost ears and noses.

Hippocrates, who lived 400 B. C., was a skillful surgeon, and discoveries by Ebers and others in Egypt prove that the ancient Egyptians practiced surgery with suitable instruments nearly 6,000 years ago.

Among the six hermetic books of medicine mentioned by Clement of Alexandria was one devoted to surgical instruments. The Greeks are thought to have learned the Hindu methods, and the Romans were skilled in surgery.

The fire you kindle for your enemy often burns yourself more than him .-Chinese Proverb.

That Cold Room

on the side of the house where winter blasts strike hardest always has a lower temperature than the rest of the house. There are times when it is necessary to raise the temperature quickly or to keep the temperature up for a long period. That can't be done by the regular method of heating without great trouble and overheating the rest of the house. The only reliable method of heating such a room alone by other means is to use a which can be kept at full or low heat for a short or long time. Four quarts of oil will give a glowing heat for nine hours, without smoke or smell.

SMOKELESS OIL HEATER Absolutely smokeless and odorless

An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. Filler-cap does not screw on; but is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached by a chain and cannot get lost.

An automatic-locking flame spreader prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that it can be cleaned in an instant. The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be unscrewed in an instant for rewicking. Finished in japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental. Has a cool handle.

Dealers Everywhere. If not at yours, write for descriptive circulato to the nearest agency of the Standard Oil Company

COME HERE FOR YOUR SHOES, HATS AND MEN'S FURNISHINGS

We have by far the largest stock and greatest variety of

Men's Women's and Children's Shoes

in Carroll County, at the right prices. We have all the correct styles in HATS, NECKWEAR, SHIRTS, COLLARS AND HOISERY. We want your trade.

WM. C. DEVILBISS,

22 W. Main 3t.

WESTMINSTER, MD.

Just Six Minutes to Wash a Tubful!

This is the grandest Washer the world has ever known. So easy to run that it's almost fun to work it. Makes clothes spotlessly clean in double-quick time. Six minutes finishes a tubiul.

Any Woman Can Have a 1900 Gravity Washer on 30 Days' Free Trial.

Don't send money. If you are responsible, you can try it first. Let us pay the freight. See the wonders it performs. Thousands being used. Every user delighted. They write us bushels of letters telling how it saves work and worry. Sold on little payments. Write for fascinating Free Book today.

Repairs for all kinds of Washers and Wringers. Local Agents Wanted L. K. BIRELY, General Agent, MIDDLEBURG, MD C. &. P. Telephone.

A Bernhardt Trick.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt, who is supposed to be something of an artist as well as an actress, was recently called upon in one of her marvelous creations to enact the role of a sculptor and to model a certain bust in view of the audience. This fairly electrified the critics, but when going into rhapsodies over the technical skill in handling the clay which Mme. Bernhardt exhibited they showed that they knew little of the artistic tricks of actors and actresses. As a matter of fact, she does nothing of the kind. The bust is modeled and baked, and over it is placed damp clay of the same color. This the actress merely pulls off, leaving the beautifully modeled head underneath.

Autoplane.

-Strand.

The Gaulois of Paris some months ago asked its readers for suggestions for a word to designate the new methods of aeronautics. The best word sent in so far is "autoplane," the editors believe. The inventor of this vocable is one of the doyens of the Paris Press, M. Mortimer d'Ocagne, who has been one of the leaders of thought in the French capital since 1859, when he joined the Courier du Dimanche. The word "aeroplane," it is contended, applies equally to any kind of balloon, but autoplane would be suitable either for a biplane or monoplane.

A Perfect Insulator. "Thomas A. Edison prophesies the disappearance of the horse and the disappearance of the shop assistant," said an editor. "Transportation wi! be electrical some day, and shops will be automatic slot machine concerns. "Mr. Edison is always original and striking. I remember the first time I ever interviewed him. "'Mr. Edison,' I said in the course of the interview, 'what is the very best insulator?

"'The only absolutely perfect insulator,' he replied, 'is poverty.' "-Exchange.

Whither.

"I hope you will accept my condolences," began Mr. Somber.

"Thank you," replied the widow of Mr. Gayrake. "Yes," continued Mr. Somber, "we must remember that we must all go that way some day, and that"-"Oh, my." exclaimed the widow, "I hope not!" -Catholic Standard and

Good For Seasickness. The Rivers family was preparing for a trip across the lake. "Lena," asked Rivers, "is the lunch basket all packed?" "Yes," said his wife. "Well, you can take out the pie, cake and jam and put these lemons in their place. There's a strong east wind."-

Didn't Scare Him.

Chicago Tribune.

"Of course," said Dr. Price, "I cannot properly treat your case without a diagnosis.

"Don't let that worry you," replied Mr. Nuritch haughtily. "I got barrels o' money. I suppose that's the medical word for 'fee in advance,' eh?"-Catholic Standard and Times.

A Refined Vulgarian. "Jones is the most refined man I know." "How's that?" "He uses a separate toothpick for each tooth."-Buffalo Express.

to talk."-Cleveland Leader.

Easy.

"How is it that Grace believes everything you tell her?" "I gain her confidence by telling her she is beautiful just before I start

Of Course. Husband-My dear Emily, why is it

I am always in the wrong? Wife-I suppose it's because I am always in the right.-New York Jour-

Mr. William Erb, who is working at carpentering, in Baltimore, was home over Sunday.

Mr. Chas. E. H. Shriner returned, the first of the week, from a visit to Chicago, and Rockford, Ill.

Mr. Truman Bowers kllled a black snake, this week, on the farm of Birnie Ohler, which measured 5 feet 3 inches

Mr. Karl Mayers and sister, Miss Margaret, of Littlestown, visited their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Elliot, from Friday until Sunday.

By request, the Junior choir of the Reformed church will repeat the story and song service, entitled "Saved at Sea," on Sunday morning.

Mr. Wallace Reindollar spent several days this week in Gettysburg, and attended the exercises of the installation of the new president of the College.

The assessors finished their work in Taneytown district, on Thursday. Middleburg district will be taken up next, and field work will likely begin on Mon-

There will be Reformed services in the Keysville church, on Sunday. Rev. D. J. Wolf attended Synod at Altoona, Pa., this week, but will return in time for Sunday services.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Clark, and family, left for Baltimore, on Monday, where they expect to make their home. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Little have moved into the house vacated by them.

Rev. J. P. S. Young has been assigned to the Taneytown charge by the United Brethren Conference. Rev. C. W. Christman goes to Chewsville, where his friends wish him deserved popularity and suc-

On account of the absence of Rev. Wm. E. Wheeler, at Synod, at Smithburg, Md., there will be no services in the Lutheran church, on Sunday. Mr. Luther T. Sharetts accompanied him as lay delegate.

Our list of advertisers against hunting and fishing grows slowly. Perhaps it is not realized that it costs no more to go in it now, than it will a month later. The charge is but 25%, at any time during hunting season.

Mr. John T. Cassell, of Westminster, an occasional contributor to the columns of the RECORD, paid our office a visit, on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Cassell visited Mr. Henry C. Wilt and others, in town and vicinity.

Mr. B. O. Slonaker has sold his land at the edge of town, on the Westminster road, 13½ acres, to Mr. D. H. Essig, at $2300., or about $175.00 per acre. This is a high price for land, but it is very desirable, both in quality and location.

Rev. Wm. E. Wheeler, Rev. S. R. Downie, George H. Birnie, D. J. Hesson, Samuel H. Mehring and P. B. erick county. Republicans and Democrats alike admit it. There is no concealment about the facts. As a politi-President Granville, of Gettysburg Col- cian he possesses skill, nerve and exin Mr. Mehring's auto.

Owing to the odious election law we j have in Maryland, a number of citizens off the helm the machine wobbles and is ineffective. When he has hold it runs of this district, in both parties, must go as smoothly as a watch. He is an able to Westminster, before election day, and an upright judge, who apparent-"declare their intention" of becoming citizens, before they will be allowed to and to whose character and integrity register and vote next year.

splendid time to secure the services of a first-class yocal instructor, for Taneytown It makes of him a political dictator talent. There does not appear to be any good reason why a large class could not be secured by the right man, and live in his community, hesitate about atthose interested in our various church tacking or opposing him. A like situation does not exist in any other part of choirs, especially, should take action in Perhaps no entertainments were ever held in Taneytown equaling the interest produced by "The County Fair" and Warner, Jr., owe his nomination for "Pauline." We suggest that both of Congress. Had it not been for Judge these be reproduced, this winter-or Motter Pearre would have stayed in the their equivalents—and that the proceeds be devoted to some worthy public local object. The talent is here for both, and it will be worth while to keep it in training.

him Alexander Hagner could have beaten either of his opponents.

It rested absolutely in the hands of

A Delightful Birthday Party.

(For the RECORD.) A delightful surprise was tendered Mr. Benedict Knott, at his home at Bruce-ville, on Saturday evening last, it being the anniversary of his birth, Mr. Knott having reached the 48th. mile stone. A delightful evening was spent by all present. At about 10 o'clock a bountiful collation was served which was heartily

Those who partook of the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Knott were Messrs. Geo. Galt and wife, Gust Zents and wife, William Six and wife, Jesse Lescalleet and wife, Charles Knott and wife, Bud Reid and wife, Bruce Weant and wife, John Rentzel and wife, Roy Knott and wife; Mrs. John Fleagle, Mrs. Samuel Fuss, Mrs. Ira Ramsburg, Mrs. Harry Welty, Mrs. John Fream; Misses Effiie Fogle, Helen Six, Myrtle Knott, Ruth Zentz, Hilda Ramsburg, Helen Fogle, Margaret Weant, Nina Ramsburg, Margaret Knott, Laura Fream, Esther Fleagle, Alice Fream, Daisy Fleagle; Messrs. Scott White, Thomas Lescalleet, Frank Rentzel, James Lescalleet Albert Welty Donald Ramsburg, Earle Lescalleet, Carroll Knott and Walter Fleagle.

After expressing themselves as having spent a pleasant evening and wishing Mr. Knott many happy returns, all de parted for their homes hoping to spend many such evenings in the future.

Orphans' Court Proceedings.

MONDAY, October 17th., 1910.-J. Sylvester Fink, executor of William J. Fink, deceased, returned inventories of personal property, money and debts and received orders to sell personal property and real estate.

D. Jacob Hesson, executor of Abraham Hesson, deceased, settled his first and final account. Lewis H. Wisner and Jacob Wisner, administrators of Peter J. Wisner, de-ceased, returned additional inventory of

T. Wesley Frank, executor of Ruth Caltrider, deceased, settled his first and August Shilke, administrator of Mary nesday, Oct. 26th., 1910. Shilke, deceased, returned inventory of personal property and received order to ell personal property. T. Wesley Frank, executor of Ruth Caltrider, received order to deposit in Manchester Bank amount distributed to Mamie R. Hann, an infant.

TUESDAY, October 18th., 1910.—Annie M. Dinst, administratrix of William E. Frizzell, deceased, returned inventory of money and inventory of real estate and settled her first and final account. George E. Warner, administrator of Lydia Warner, deceased, returned inventories of personal property, money and debts and received orders to sell personal property and stocks.

John M. Delashmutt, Jr., administrator of John M. Delashmutt, Sr., received order to sell stocks. The Union Bridge Banking and Trust Company was appointed guardian of Darrell R., Loron K., Upton L. and Nella R. Austin, infants.

Charles O. Clemson, was appointed guardian of Clara Virginia Stem, an in-

Laura B. Beasman, executor of Caroline Bennett, deceased, returned inventory of real estate and report of sale of personal property and settled her first and final account.

Maretta W. Mills, executrix of Maria E. Duvall, deceased, returned inventories of real estate, personal property, money and debts and received order to sell personal property.

A Birthday Surprise.

(For the RECORD. A very pleasant birthday surprise was given at the home of Mr. John Powel last Sunday, it being Mrs. Powel's birthday. Those present were John Powel and wife, William Lawyer and wife, Oliver Angel and wife, Grant Baker and wife, John Baker and wife, Harry Myers and wife, Jessie Cartzendafner and wife, Herbert Winter and wife; Mrs. Rosa Winter, Mrs. Ida Angel; Misses Josephene Lawyer, Rena Baker, Edna Angel, Mabel Baker, Margaret Cartzendainer, Elma Myres, Lola Myers, Carrie Winter Catharine Baker; Messrs. Milton Cart-zendafner, Franklin Baker, Walter Powel, Ralph Cartzendafner, Charley Baker, Mr Jackson Hawn, wife and daughter.

Says Judge Motter is a Political Power in 6th District.

Frederick, Md., Oct. 17.-The most powerful political figure in the whole of the Sixth district in this campaign is that of a judge on the bench. His name is John C. Motter. For more than 15 years he has presided over the courts in

For nearly 25 years he has been the recognized Republican organization leader of Frederick county, ruling with an iron hand, dispensing patronage, making nominations and directing campaigns. His control and the degree to which he exercises it are far greater now than at any period of his career. He is the Republican leader of Fredlege, on Thursday. The trip was made in Mr. Mehring's auto machine in the state, and he, and he alone, runs it. When he takes his hand ly does not let politics interfere with the administration of justice from the bench, even his enemies testify. But he plays the game openly and has for years. We think that this winter would be a His position gives him a power no other whose word in his own party is law and whose judicial authority and influence make men in the opposite party, who Maryland. No other judge in the State has a tithe of the political power of Judge Motter, and no other would dare exercise that power if he had it.

To him and to no one else does B. H. fight and won. Had it not been for

Judge Motter to name the candidate and he picked Warner. -Balt. Sun Corres-

One of the greatest patriotic demonstrations ever held in the United States will take place in 1913 on the battlefield of Gettysburg, if the plans discussed at a preliminary meeting of the arrangements committee in Harrisburg, last week, are carried out. The demonstration will be in observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the great battle between the Union Army under General Meade and the Confederate forces under General Lee. That the celebration of the semi-centennial will be truly national in its scope is already assured by the acceptance by nearly all the states of the invitation to participate. Two Southern states, Georgia and North Carolina, were the first to respond to the invitation. It is expected that the Grand Army of the Republic and the United Confederate Veterans will have the leading parts in arranging for the celebration, and that virtually all the other patriotic organiza-

If you like the RECORD, and believe in it—believe in its efforts and policy in general-get back of it and boost it by getting it new subscribers and business.

tions of the country will participate.

How Much Are Your Eyes Worth?

How long would it take you to decide on what your eyes are worth? Of course, money could not buy them.

I invite the public to call and see my set of Electrically Lighted Instruments used in examining eyes.

WALTER, The Optician,

Will be in Taneytown, Md., ONE DAY, at Bankard's Hotel, on Wed-

Eves Examined Free! All Work Guaranteed as Represented.

WALTER, The Optician.

Republican Mass Meeting in Taneytown.

Saturday, Oct. 29, 1910 at 7.30 p. m., in Opera House.

Addresses will be delivered and the issues of the campaign discussed by

HON. WM. B. BAKER, Candidate for Congress. HON. CHAS. R. SCHIRM

- and -MR. WILLIAM PEROT, of Baltimore.

MUSIC BY-

TANEYTOWN BAND

general invitation is extended to all voters to be present.

PUBLIC SALE

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1910, at 2 o'clock, the following described Rea

A BLOCK OF HOUSES.

A BLOCK OF HOUSES, on Frederick St., suitable for renting to three families, together with a half acre lot and all improvements thereon, a good stable, hog house, etc. There is a good well of water at the door, good cistern, and the property is also connected with the town water supply. Also a large two-story Machine Shop and Blacksmith Shop located at end of above described lot, known as the Fink shops, in good repair and now having a good run of trade. Both lots of buildings are located on the corner of a public alley.

The above properties will be offered separ-tely, and as a whole, and possession will be iven April 1, 1911.

given April 1, 1911.

TERMS. One-third cash on day of sale, or on the ratification thereof, and the residue in two equal payments, the one payable in months and the other in 12 months from the day of sale, the credit payments to be secured by the bonds or single bills of the purchaser, the option of purchaser. J. SYLVESTER FINK, J. N. O. SMITH, Auct. Executor

Also at the same time and place, wili be offered at public sale, a lot of personal property. See Bills.

CLOSING OUT SALE OF Lumber and Cord Wood At Public Sale.

FRIDAY, NOV. 4, 1910,

On the premises of the undersigned, lately Dr. Clotworthy Birnie's estate, in Carroll county, Md., on the road lead-ing from Taneytown to Westminster.

be sold at public sale, 35000 Feet Oak BOARDS, PLANK & SCANTLING. (FULL EDGE.)

45 Cords Oak & Hickory Slab Wood 75 Cords Oak & Hickory Wood A Credit of 3 Months will be given.

Sale to commence at 1 o'clock, p. m., on Friday, Nov. 4, 1910, when terms and conditions will be made known by A. M. KALBACH.

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned will sell at public

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5th., 1910, at 1 o'clock, on the premises, the farm house-keeping, will sell at public sale at recently owned by L. F. Miller, deceased, her premises, 1½ miles east of Taneyknown as the Josiah Eiler farm, tenanted by Edward Mentzer, located on the road from Ladiesburg to Detour, at 1 o'clock, the following household Md., near Haugh's church, containing 160 ACRES, 1 ROD, and 24 Square Perches of Land, more or house, bank barn, and all necessary out-buildings, all in good repair. Water at house and barn, supplied by wind wheel. Land under good cultivation and fences cepted.

Possession given April 1st., 1911. TERMS OF SALE. - One-fourth cash on day of sale; terms for balance made sums of $5.00 and upward, a credit of 3 known day of sale

MRS. L. F. MILLER. T. J. Kolb, Auct.

The Anti-Saloon League of Maryland offers $1000 in essay prizes, as follows: A first prize of $500 for the best essay, and three additional prizes of $250, $150 and $100, respectively, for the three next best essays on "What It Costs the People of Baltimore to Secure the Million Dollars a Year Which the City Now Receives Under the High License Law." The contest is open to any person except salaried employees of the League, Essays must not exceed 5000 words, and must be received at the League office on or before April 1, 1911.

Special Notices.

General Advertisements will be inserted under this heading at one cent a word, each issue. Real Estate for sale, Two Cents each word. The name and address of advertiser must be paid for at same rate; two initials, or a date, counted as one word. Cash in advance, unless other terms are mutually agreed upon. Postage Stamps received as cash.

EGGS WANTED! Also Young Guineas, 1½ to 2½ lbs.; Young Chickens, 2 pounds, 11 and 12c., clear of feed; Old chickens, 11c lb. 500 old Roosters wanted. Good Squabs, 22cto 25c a pair; Young Ducks, 3 lbs. and over; Good Calves 7½c 50c for delivering. Poultry not received later than Thursday morning.
—SCHWARTZ'S Produce.

HIGHEST CASH Prices paid for Eggs, Calves and Poultry. 50c for delivering Calves Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.-G. W. MOTTER. 6-10-9

FOR RENT.—Half of my house (5 rooms) on George St., on April 1. No children .- MICHAEL FRINGER. FOR SALE. - Edison Phonograph complete, 40 four-minute records. Price $17.00.—E. D. Z, R. D. No. 1. 10-21-2t WANTED.—A Range. Will sell cheap No. 8 Red Cross cook stove, with tank, nearly new.—J. P. WEYBRIGHT, Detour,

ALL THE LATEST Fall and Winter Millinery. Give us a call.-MRS. M. J.

CHOICE BARRED Plymouth Rock Cockerels for sale. - W. K. ECKERT, R.

D: No. 1, Taneytown, Md. FOR SALE.—My property in Uniontown, Md.—M. A. ZOLLICKOFFER.

FOR SALE.—3 Fine Cows; will be fresh latter part of Dec.—MRS. CLARA

IN GLOVES-we lead. For your at the Hotel Bankard, Taneytown, Wednesday, Oct. 26, 1910, one day, with a full line electrical instruments for the purpose of examining eyes and fitting glasses. All diseases of the eye treated. No charge for examination. LADIES .- I have just opened an up-to-date Millinery Store in the Centra Hotel building, Baltimore St., side, and would be pleased to have you inspect ore going else where.—MRS. J. E. POIST. DID YOU EVER get left ?-then have your time for our Vacuum Cleaner reserved, now. Charges, as usual, 25cd the room; $1.00 the day. - REINDOLLAR Bros & Co. STORE ROOM For Rent, now occu pied by Dr. Benner. Especially suitable for Physician or Jeweller. Possession April 1, 1911. - MRS. M. H. REINDOLLAR. CIDER MAKING and boiling butter, on Wednesday and Thursday of each week. Engage your day and hour F. P. PALMER, R. D. 3. Taneytown Md.

FOR SALE—3 Fine Mare Colts, coming 2 years old.—Eli Dutterer, near Middleburg. 9-30-tf

CIDER-MAKING and Apple Butter Boiling. Operating days during balance of season, Tuesday, and Wednesday, of each week. Drop me postal and engage your date. CHAS. E. MYERS, Harney, Md.

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned intending to quit

at 1 o'clock, the following household goods: 3 BEDSTEADS, 1 SOFA,

1 corner cupboard, with glass front; 4 less. Improvements consist of a brick house, bank barn, and all necessary out-buildings, all in good repair. Water at house and barn, supplied by wind wheel. iron kettle, lot of tubs, benches, buckets in good condition. Growing crops ex-cepted.

In the ketse, of stone jars, glass jars, crocks, 2 lamps, lot of potatoes, shovels, forks, rakes, and many articles not mentioned. TERMS: Sums under $5.00 cash. On months will be given. CATHARINE THOMAS. J. N. O. Smith, Auct.

NOTICE

To Corporation Taxpayers

I will be at the Commissioners' office in the Firemen's Building, on Oct. 29th, and Nov. 5th and 12th, from 1 to 4 o'clock, to receive taxes for the levy of 1910. After Nov. 15th interest will be quested to make immediate settlement BURGESS S. MILLER, Collector.

'Taneytown's Leading Fashion Store." TANEYTOWN, MD.

Never Before—Such Astounding Values Every Article is Worth More than You Pay For It.

The Most Stylish and Dis-

Trimmed Hats

Beyond a doubt, the most stunning and charming Hats you've seen this season. The high Millinery Standard long established by "The Fashion Store" is fully carried out in style, quality and workmanship. There's no stinting of anything. The very best materials are used. Every day we are adding to the display-there's something new to be seen.

WOMEN'S FALL SUITS Tailor-made Suits, of Strictly Pure Wool Material. It is a plain statement of the fact to say that this collection of Suits will show greater variety, greater value and more practical style than has ever been displayed in Taneytown. Single-breasted Suits made of broadcloth, diagonals, serges, fancy mixtures, and all the newest mater-

$7.50 to $23.00.

Shoes

Work

Reliable-that's the word-Re-

That's the idea-protection against wet, damp feet and consequent

$3.00 $3.45 $2.00 Black Taffeta

39c to $6.00

Silk Petticoats Well made in every blue and white, black and white, and other detail-$3.25 to $5.00 Other very pretty pat

90c to $1.75 Bed Comforts, 98c to $3.00

Ladies' Coat Sweaters Men's Sweaters. Red, White and Grey,

Grev. Blue. Black Grey and Red, &c. single & double breaste 48c to $3.50 48c to $3.00

39c

Ladies' Long Coats. Black, brown, striped and mixed Brussels, Matting and Oilcloth goods, in all new style.

MISSES COATS. New Presto Collars, colors light

$3.89 to $18.00.

mixed goods, green, and blue, with all the new style trimmings. $1.98 to $10.00.

Here's the Best Values in Town. ing our Women's Stylish Shoes. High Shoes of patent colt, lace and button. Cuban heels and extension Patent colt, button, cloth top, $3.00 Gun metal, lace and button, $2.50 Also a very dressy Shoe, for $1.60 Shoes for Little Boys and Girls. Suitable for school or dress.

90c to $2.00. Gentlemen's Dress Shoe.

Gun metal, patent and vici, lace and button, high toe, high heel and extension sole $2.25 to $4.00.

Dress Goods and Trimmings. ALL NEW. Suitings in black, blue, brown, grey, green, red, and striped goods.

25c to $1.00.

Boys' and Girls' Bed Blankets All sizes, in white Sweaters Red, white, grey, red nd white.

Reliable

50c to $1.25 Men's 50c Fleece Lined Underwear,

Horse Blankets Lap Robes Biggest line in town.

RUGS

Many different patterns in bright 39c to $3.00.

seeking to dress himself in the best manner at moderate cost will consult his own best interest, by inspect-

Dependable Clothes. Why do we sell so many

MEN'S HATS. Ask the men that wear them.

Carpets, Linoleum, Oilcloth. WONDERFUL VALUES

Just Think! Ingrain Carpets in eautiful flower designs; full yard Linoleum. 2 yards wide, good quality, pretty design. Per square yard, 40c.

Men's Overcoats and Raincoats.

Special Display. New Presto Collars. All the popular shades.

TANEYTOWN'S "EVERYTHING GOOD TO EAT" STORE OTTO BROS.

Even though it has been dry, we have CABBAGE, cheaper than the Plants-$1.00 a Barrel, or 14c a pound.

BANANAS, 12c dozen, and all the Fruits and Vegetables of the season. A Full Line of Groceries, with Many Bargains.

Egg-O-See Corn Flakes, 8c Package. Smoking and Chewing Tobacco, 4c Soap that makes Washing twice as easy, package; 7 packs for 25c. only 4c a Cake; 7 for 25c. 25c Cake of Chocolate, 17c. JARDINIERES—just the kind to add beauty to a home—that sold from 50c to $1.00; now only 30c to 60c. Don't fail to see our Lamp Globes—the kind you can't break.

Fresh Fish every Tuesday and Friday.

Thanking you in advance.

Yours truly, OTTO BROS.

Baking Powder, 2 Cans for 25c.

Canned Corn, Pork and Peas, 8c Can.

Ohio & Kentucky Horses

Crown Raisins, 7c lb; 4 lbs, 25c

Will receive an express load Ohio and Kentucky Horses, on Saturday, charged. All parties in arrears are re- Oct. 22, 1910. Call and see them.

H. W. PARR.

Baltimore Markets. 98@1.00 35(@37 76(0,78 Hay, Timothy, Hay, Mixed, Hay, Clover. Straw, Rye bales, Taneytown Grain and Hay Market.

Wheat, dry milling 90@90 Corn, dry..... .65(@.65 Timothy Hay, prime,..... .10.00@12.00 Mixed Hay HANOVER, PA. Bundle Rye Straw,