CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC STUDENTS

Held in Mt. St. Mary's H. S. in Hagerstown

The first monthly meeting of the Blue Ridge Conference of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade was held at St. Mary's High School in Hagerstown, Md., on October 7, 1948. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Father Dausch, the moderator of the Conference. This was followed by the pledge to the flag, led by Robert Vidoni; and the Crusaders' Pledge, led by James Keller.

The roll call was made with the following units present: St. Joseph's College, Emmitsburg; St. John's High School, Frederick; St. John's High School, Emmitsburg; and St. Mary's Hagerstown. Due to a retreat, the unit of Mt. St. Mary's Seminary was absent. An address was made by Miss Beverly Ford who acted as President pro tem.

The election of officers for the coming year was held with the following results: President, Miss Regina Bielein, St. Joseph's College; Vice-President, Guy Baker, St. Joseph's High School; Recording Secretary, Patsy Dunham, St. Mary's; Corresponding Secretary, Billie Hahn, St. Mary's; Publicity Secretary, George Greco, St. Joseph's High School; Treasurer, Patricia Jasper, St. John's, Frederick; Parliamentarian, Miss Rosita Bravo, St. Joseph's College.

The President recognized a speaker from the floor who wished to know when and where the November meeting was to be held. A representative of St. Joseph's High School offered their school as the next meeting place. It was decided by Father Dausch to be held on Thursday, November 18th.

As usual, a topic for discussion was chosen for the next meeting. The subject is "Why I Think Some Marriage Fail." Monsignor Vaeth sent his apology for being absent, and he hoped to be present at the next meeting.

The meeting was adjourned with a prayer and the song "Call of the Missions." Benediction was held in St. Mary's Church and refreshments followed in the school cafeteria.

WESTMINSTER'S HALLOWEEN PARADE AND DANCE

This affair has been held for a number of years and each year has shown a deeper interest. It is the desire of the committee that more floats enter into the spirit of the program, for which there will be worthwhile prizes. Parents are requested to encourage their children to take part and adults as well should enter into the spirit of the occasion. Organizations and groups are requested to take part. There will be generous awards given to those marching in the parade and for the promenade in the Armory. Further details will be announced later in the papers. Prepare now for the big event. Should you desire further information, contact J. Albert Mitten, Chairman.

REV. GUY P. BREADY WILL RETIRE

Has Served the Taneytown Pastorate for Over Thirty-three Years

Rev. Guy Pearre Bready, who has served as pastor of the Taneytown Charge of the Reformed Church, consisting of Grace Reformed Congregation at Taneytown, and Grace Reformed Congregation at Keysville, has announced his resignation and his retirement from the Christian ministry after November 1 of this year. On November 3, he and Mrs. Bready, and Mrs. Bready's daughter, Mary Ellen, will move to their home at 511 N. School Lane, Lancaster, Pa.

Rev. Bready came to Taneytown on July 15, 1915, and is therefore closing a pastorate of thirty-three years, and four months, a record pastorate in point of time for any church in Taneytown. He is the oldest pastor in years of service of any church of whatever denomination in Carroll County. Previous to his coming to Taneytown, he served pastorates in Thurmont, Md., from June 17, 1906 until March 15, 1909; at Walkersville, Md., as pastor of the Glade Charge from March 15, 1909, until June 15, 1914; and at Shepherdstown, West Virginia, from June 15, 1914, until July 15, 1915.

During Rev. Bready's service here, many improvements to the church properties have been made. At Taneytown, the Sunday School room was repaired and re-modeled in 1919, and in 1934, extensive improvements were made to the church auditorium at a cost of approximately seven thousand dollars. The congregation is now looking forward to the erection of a parish house within the next already provided for.

At Keysville, the Reformed Congregation bought the Lutheran interest in the Union Church in 1919, and then practically rebuilt the church at a cost of about ten thousand dollars. Later, the Keysville school-house was

KIWANIS NEWS

Thirty-five Members were Present at Meeting

The Taneytown Kiwanis Club held its regular weekly meeting at the Taney Inn on Wednesday evening at 6:30, President Geo. L. Harner presiding. Thirty-five members were present; also Kiwanians Miles S. Reifsnider and Herbert Anders of the Westminster Club and Delmont Koons as the guest of Rev. Guy P. Bready. The period of group singing was in charge of David Smith, chairman of the Music Committee, with Mrs. Wallace Yingling as accompanist.

The program was in charge of the Committee on Agriculture, Robert Smith, Chairman. However, since the Committee was disappointed in the non-arrival of the speaker for the evening, the Chairman, who is also the Secretary of the Club, in his capacity as Secretary, spent some time in checking with the members their attendance for the year to date in order to make a permanent record of the same.

It was reported that the gross profits of the recent card party amounted to $180.00, with some small expenses yet to be accounted for. Albert Baldwin announced that a delegation from this Club will carry the "traveling gavel" to the Westminster Club on next Tuesday evening, October 26, and invited as many members as are able to do so to attend the meeting in Westminster when the gavel is presented.

Elwood Baumgardner, Chairman of the Inter-Club Committee announced the annual "Hallow-E'en Party" and Ladies' Night for the next meeting on October 27. President Harner announced that the annual election will be held on Wednesday evening, November 3, and appointed as the Committee on election, Carel E. Frock, Frank Alexander and William Hopkins.

AROUND THE TOWN

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

There is a little lady in Tyrone who sits on the porch these days with a Seal Cape over her shoulders and a black scarf under her chin. She has a sweet face and her eyes almost black and has a smile that makes me think of that painting of "Mona Lisa". She is very wise and speaks only when spoken to. her husband built the store forty years ago and now the married son carries on taking his father's place.

The other day heard some one remark talking about neighbors that they were foreigners. That is such an unbecoming word just as though one would say "Wop" for an Italian or "Spaniards" for a Spanish born individual. After all, all of us have ancestors who were born abroad and like that movie this country is "The Melting Pot." So the next time you are about to utter the word foreigners always remember that some one—somewhere and some time of your family were "foreigners" too.

That nice boy "Joe" who enlisted for his country was home on a furlough. Betcha, he will be wearing "honor" stripes some day. He seems so fitted for his choice! He now is in that grand "West."

Now, here is one for the husbands. Your Observer knows a little wife whose husband sure can win her over by sweet notes and this is really a fact. She dislikes darning his socks or any socks for the matter and she told me that with every good intention that she takes them out to darn and finds so many of them that she puts them in the bag again and stuffs it into a drawer to get them out of sight. To her surprise, the last time she took them out with the same good intention there was a note which read, "To be darned by my Sweetheart!" That husband sure uses his head and not just for his hat for since then the little wife told me that she is darning three pairs of those socks daily!

That nice Bachelor from New York over Bruceville way was found in his "last sleep" by his retired school teacher sister. He was not ill previously and it was a shock to everyone. That sister can always remember the beautiful life they had together.

Have often wondered why it is just before a Presidential election that each party travels around the United States just slamming each other? I think if I happened to be one of those parties that I would state just what I would do and not mention the other individual. The same attitude as a good and tactful auto salesman who does not knock the other car but points out some better features of his car that makes it more valuable. What say you? Still betcha it will be Truman!

Last week, Your Observer spoke in the church in Baltimore one evening on "This Night of Love, Confidentially Yours. Your Pastors Wife Speaks!" That audience surely was interested. So my next will be called, "Life in The Parsonage!"

The new little farmer who was sowing some wood, severed his first finger of his right hand two weeks ago. Here's hoping he is getting well and hope that he tries to be thankful it was not his arm! There is always something for which we can be thankful like "Pollyanna" of the book by that name.

Those roads "Around The Town" are sure getting a grand "New Look" and those men sure do know "how" for you will agree with Your Observer when you drive over those awful Pennsylvania roads and make comparison.

Calling all housewives! Whatever you do when you are about to use your gas oven be sure it is lit or that it won't go out! The following happened to Your Observer and I pass it on to you. Had just finished making three pumpkin pies for the family in the big city and placed in the roast which was partly done when a terrific explosion took place throwing me straight across the room and naturally I was stunned for a few minutes. It was my first experience of that kind with all the years of cooking! The family and the neighbors of course all came running for it was heard three houses above which is a city row. The Gas and Electric Company was called immediately which concern sent their trouble man "Mr. Emergency" who informed me that I did not have the oven lit. I showed him the pies and the meat partly cooked but he still insisted that the oven was not lit or otherwise it would not have done such a thing! So I let it go at that thinking all the while, it surely was a miracle how those pies were baked and the roast partly done! He told me that I only thought I had lit it! Life is funny! So be careful, ladies and don't let that happen to you!

If Bert Parks of "Stop The Music" calls you, feel confident it is the theme song of "Yale" just as the theme song of Annapolis is "Anchors away."

So long until next week and have a grand week-end these glorious days

VOTE

There is not much difference between the two major political parties, scratch either and they will bleed. The "X" or unknown quantity in the coming campaign is the hybrid corn producer, once Republican, then Democrat, and now, if reports are to be believed, a communist. Anyway Henry will poll all the communist vote and some more. He will poll more votes than either of the old parties are willing to concede to him.

I don't like his tie-up with the communists. That bunch is a real menace to the country and in time they will win. They work on the job 365 days in the year, while Democrats and Republicans are all het up about a month before election time then cool off and forget it all the day after election. The trouble with our America—you, me, and the other fellow—is that we don't take these matters as seriously as we should. We have the best form of government that was ever invented, and because we have are too prone, too often to let George do it. Too few of us take the time and trouble to vote, not over 40% of those entitled to do so vote in any election. I shall vote as long as I am able to go to the polls. My candidates lose oftener than they win, but still "hope springs eternal in the human breast." I hope you (readers) all vote, too your vote kills mine. Vote! Vote!! Vote!!!

W. J. H.

VOTERS TAKING CAMPAIGN SERIOUSLY

Unless all signs fail the November election will find the voters in every part of the country going to the polls fully convinced about who to vote for. That doesn't imply that they will all vote one way—but the above is notice to all political parties and leaders that union labor workers know which side their bread is buttered on; consequently they are not going to let their Bosses tell them how to vote. The workers know that the present labor laws went through the fires of two Truman vetoes and were put on the statutes by an honest and able Congress.

All voters are upset over the high costs of living and the terrific spending sprees of the Truman administration. Who among them is there that does not know that our President is failing to convince the American people that he should be elected? On the other hand it is almost a conceded fact that the Republicans will win the House, Senate and the Presidency.—J. E. Jones.

Narrow Escapes From Death Are Common for This Woman

MEMPHIS, TENN.—Mrs. Thelma Ruth Pafford has almost a charmed life. Eleven years ago when she was 18 she leaned against the door of a moving automobile and fell out, but survived.

During the war a ton of rubber and cloth matting slid from a carrier crane, Mrs. Pafford was partly buried, suffering a leg injury.

Three years ago she was in an automobile accident in which the car was demolished. And now Mrs. Pafford is recovering from another accident—she fell out of a taxicab.

Universities Offer Free Scholarships

Many Require the Fulfillment Of Unusual Conditions

NEW YORK.—According to Clarence E. Lovejoy, in his "Complete Guide to American Colleges and Universities," more than 75,000 college students are eligible annually for scholarships in addition to the thousands more who win state scholarships and those who take advantage of army and navy educational opportunities.

Many of the awards, however, have novel conditions and stipulations. Since 1916, there have been several scholarships available at Harvard if your name is Murphy.

If your father worked on the Pennsylvania railroad, you are eligible for a scholarship at Princeton and one of several others at the University of Pennsylvania. At Pennsylvania, too, there is a Coxie grant which provides a scholarship for a young man who fulfills the requirement that he come from the coal regions of Pennsylvania.

Ancestry plays a large part, too. If one of your ancestors fought in the Confederate army you may apply at Tulane for a scholarship. The Massachusetts Institute of Technology has scholarships for sons of officers of the regular army, navy, marine corps and coast guard, while daughters as well as sons of army and navy officers are in line for Indiana university scholarships.

All you have to do is come from Vermont to be eligible for the Ellis scholarship at Columbia university.

Morality comes into consideration at Dartmouth and several other institutions which stipulate that the student may not drink intoxicating liquors, while still others will not consider smokers. Princeton has several funds for the education of "pious youths for the ministry."

There is hardly an important industry that doesn't offer scholarships. Eager ceramic students may study at the University of Illinois thanks to the Illinois Clay Manufacturers association. Juniors or seniors who are interested in taking agricultural and dairying may apply for a $200 scholarship at the Rhode Island State college thanks to Dr. Charles H. Hood. The W. Atlee Burpee company's $100 award is, appropriately enough, for an interest in flower and vegetable growing.

Northwestern university has announced eight scholarships for sons and daughters of the A. F. of L. Chicago Flat Janitors union and pointed out that this was the first time an American labor union had offered general, unrestricted scholarships.

Fireman Rescues Girl Trapped in Bathroom

SALT LAKE CITY.—The little "lady in red" smiled as the 200-pound man squeezed through the window into the bathroom.

The man unbolted the door and released the young lady.

Waiting outside was her mother, Mrs. Donald L. Vaughn. The man tipped his hat and went back to his station. He was City Fireman Walter N. Collins.

Facing the mother was a scrubbing job for her daughter, 2-year-old Valerie, had found something to do after she accidentally locked herself in.

Valerie had used a lipstick to paint herself, the basin, mirror, tub and walls.

It may not happen again—the Vaughns removed the door bolt.

Talk With Stranger Nets Diner Free Ride to Jail

DENVER, COLO.—Two men were sitting side by side at the counter of a Denver cafe.

After closely eyeing the other, the man identified as Albert Huett, 54, Rawlins, Wyo., spoke up.

"Packing a rod?"

"Yep," the other replied.

"Gotta car?"

"Yep."

"Come with me," Huett said in a low voice, "I know where there's a drugstore in Fowler we can knock off for $1,500 or $2,000."

The pair went out and got in the car. The driver immediately headed for the police building, where he identified himself to chagrined Huett as Detective Fred H. Currier of the Denver police department.

The 1949 FRAZER

Trailblazer-of cars to come!

Once in a blue moon the stylists and engineers outdo themselves. They create a car that goes beyond today and sets the pattern for cars of the future.

This is what they have done with the FRAZER for 1949!

Low, sleek and differently handsome it is the trailblazer in style of cars to come. Its exclusive colors and fabrics have made the world's leading fashion designers fall in love with it. They call it "the dream car".

The same car, the FRAZER for 1949, has even won the hard-to-win hearts of the test drivers who must relentlessly punish a car mile after mile for weeks on end. They say the Frazer makes such driving no punishment for them. Its driving ease and riding comfort "make 600 miles a day a breeze," they say.

There's a thrill waiting for you at your dealer's today. With 100 new features, improvements and refinements, the 1949 FRAZER is ahead of its time... out front—trailblazing the way for all the cars to come.

First to break clean and scrap tradition, the car from Willow Run have done it again. Because unlike other "new" cars built since the war, they've road-proved their dependability—2 billion miles worth! Value-proved to a quarter-million justly proud owners. See and drive the new FRAZER now! It's at your dealer's. Kaiser-Frazer Corporation, Willow Run, Michigan.

THE PURPOSE OF NAVY DAY

The Navy League of the United States is suggesting that Navy Day be observed in the public schools. Navy Day was first sponsored by the Navy League. Since its beginning in 1922, Navy Day has received the approval of all patriotic and veterans' organizations. The purpose of a Navy Day program is that the thoughts of the American people might be turned to the meaning and purpose of their Navy. The observance of Navy Day also affords an occasion to pay tribute to those splendid young naval heroes who gave their all in winning and maintaining our liberties, as well as for the courage and heroism of those who did come back from the World Wars. Why should not the youth of our American schools learn about this institution which is one of the guarantors of their independence and freedom? "Navy Day provides a means of fostering more direct contact between the Navy and the public." The more we know about our Navy, the more we shall appreciate its three dimension force equipped and trained to defend and control the surface of the sea, the waters below, and the skies above the sea.

October 27 has been selected as Navy Day because on that day, 1775, the first resolution to authorize American warships in defense of the Colonies was presented to the Continental Congress. Again, this date is most fitting, for October 27 was also the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt, who as President of the United States gave himself to establishing a strong naval policy. He achieved a national reputation by writing a naval history of the War of 1812. The work was of such outstanding merit that it was incorporated into Clowe's Royal Navy, a monumental history of the British Sea Service. Both as Assistant Secretary of the Navy and later as President, Theodore Roosevelt poured out his abundant energies to impress upon the people of his country the need of an adequate Navy and undertook to realize this ideal. Although Theodore Roosevelt died three years before the first observance of Navy Day, he did, however, keynote the purpose of the Day when he said:

"For the building and maintaining in proper shape of the American Navy we must rely upon nothing but the broad and far sighted patriotism of our people as a whole; and it is of great importance that there should be some means by which this patriotism can find an effective utterance."

This effective utterance can be made on Navy Day! More than three years after V-J Day we do not yet live in a peaceful world. There are many problems yet to be settled. Hunger, fear, anxiety, misery, and suspicion still continue in many areas of the earth. Until these world conditions are brought under control, and until there is some form of world order and world stability, there must not be any thought on the part of the American people of disarmament. A nation's victory in winning peace can be no more sure in the face of a stubborn foe than the strength of the clenched fist she is able to show. Our naval forces symbolize the power and might of the United States.

The far-sighted American has a keen appreciation of the necessity for this nation to continue to endeavor to lead the world back to ways of sanity, and forward toward lasting peace. That this might be done, the United States requires strength sufficient to meet its international obligations and to support its worldwide responsibilities.

The United States Navy stands ready to do its part. Americans, this is your Navy! And Wednesday, October 27, is Navy Day!

If a telephone call were as simple as this...

... the only equipment we'd use would be flags. And, if we needed more of them, it would be a simple matter to make new ones from sticks and cloth.

But expanding and improving telephone service is an entirely different story. It means constructing new buildings... adding miles of wire and cable... installing complex switchboards and thousands of other precision-made devices.

That's why the job is so costly. Our present construction program alone requires millions of dollars—money that must come, as it always has, from investors. They entrust their money to us because they believe their investment will be secure and pay them a fair return.

The huge sums used in this program of progress do not come from the money paid for telephone service. This money must go to meet everyday expenses—wages, materials and other operating costs—which are now at the highest peak in our history.

FRIZELLBURG

"Heaps high the farmer's wintry hoard!
Heap high the golden corn!
No richer gift has Autumn pour'd
From out her lavish horn
We dropped the seed o'er hill and plain,
Beneath the sun of May
And frightened from our sprouting grain
The robber crows away.
All tho' the long bright days of June
Its leaves grew green and fair,
And wad'd in hot mid-summer's noon
Its soft and yellow hair.
And now with Autumn's moon-lit eves
Its harvest time has come,
We pluck away the frosted leaves,
And bear the treasure home."

LITTLESTOWN WINS SERIES

The Littlestown baseball team took the last game of the final series in the Penn-Maryland League by nosing out Taneytown 7-3 before well over 3,000 fans in Emmitsburg last Sunday. Littlestown won the regular season pennant with Taneytown taking second place in the final standings. In the semi-finals of the Shaughnessy playoffs Taneytown took two straight from Blue Ridge Summit while Littlestown eliminated Hanover in the first two games. In the finals Littlestown took the first game from Taneytown 7-4, only to have Taneytown win the second with a shutout, beating them 7-0 on the Taneytown diamond. The two teams decided to play the final decisive game on the neutral Emmitsburg diamond.

Last Sunday's game was very well attended and provided plenty of thrills and excitement for the fans. The statistics as well as their records prove that both teams were very evenly matched, but Littlestown was able to make use of their opportunities and come through in the pinches to clinch the victory. Taneytown made eight hits off the servings of Weaver, recently signed by the St. Louis Brown while Littlestown collected ten off of Unger. Both pitchers were hindered the first few innings by the style of unpiring used by the American League umpire, Jim Boyer. Maitland and Kress, of Littlestown and Pete Stout, of Taneytown were the batting stars each receiving 3 hits. Fred Shank drove in all three of Taneytown's runs and collected the longest hit of the game. He drove in two runs in the seventh inning when he hit the ball out of the park, approximately 25 feet on the other side of the 325 foot left field fence, but the fielders ability to find the ball in the weeds held him at third base, never to score.

Some of the series statistics show how evenly the teams were matched. In the three games both teams scored fourteen runs but Taneytown collected 29 hits to Littlestown 22. Five of Taneytown's hits were for extra bases while Littlestown captured 3.

The town team has done remarkably well again this season and deserve the credit they have gained. The fans were back of the club and all the games were well attended. Everyone connected with the club deserve the praise of the community and the respect of the League, from the President of the club, the Manager and Captain right on down to the bat boy and ball-chasers. We would like to print the names of everybody who have helped to make this a successful season, but we are afraid the string would be too long to print. The club expects to hold a card party some time next month. The proceeds are to go toward a community recreation park. Here's hoping they get it. Last Sunday's score:

who was killed in Italy, Oct. 24, 1944

We've missed the sound of your footsteps. And your voice since you have gone. And though we no longer see you. In our minds you still live on. And so we smile in the day time. But some nights our hearts are sore. As we think of the dear one God took away.

To His distant and golden shore.

SALT OF THE EARTH AT TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

A coal mine cave-in and a Holy Communion service 200 feet down in a Pennsylvania coal mine are two of the dramatic scenes of "Salt of the Earth", the new religious motion picture of The United Lutheran Church in America, to be shown at Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown at 7:30 o'clock, on October 24th. This special performance has been arranged by the pastor, the Rev. Glenn L. Stahl and a laymen's committee headed by Mr. Elbert Crum.

"Salt of the Earth" was produced as a special feature of the 30th anniversary of the United Lutheran Church, being celebrated this year. The film is being scheduled for showings in all 4,000 congregations of the church body located in all parts of the United States and Canada. It will be released for use by other denominations on January 1st through the facilities of the producer, Cathedral Films of Hollywood.

"Salt of the Earth" is the authentic, heartwarming story of a coal miner, Harley Russell, who decides that a Christian must do something about his religion. The role is played by Robert Armstrong and the supporting cast includes Russell Hayden, Pierre Watkin, Lane Chandler, Kurt Katch and the King's Men Quartet. The film was produced in a semi-documentary style with many of the scenes photographed in the Pennsylvania coal fields and farm land. Camera Work was done at Port Carbon, Mahoney City, Pottsville, the Morea colliery of the Morea-New Boston Breaker Corp., and in the Hegins Valley, Pa.

This is the second film produced by the United Lutheran Church. The first, "And Now I See", produced last year, is now being seen in all parts of the world. Like the new film, its theme was "Christian Stewardship is the practice of the Christian religion."

purchased from the Carroll County Board of Education, and remodeled for use as a parish house. Last year, a kitchen was added to this last named property. Ten years ago, further improvements were made to church and parish house at a cost of approximately twelve hundred dollars. At the parsonage, many improvements have been made to the extent that the residence of the pastor is now completely modernized.

Rev. Bready has taken a healthy interest in the community, besides his service as a pastor. He is a charter member of the Taneytown Kiwanis Club, and served for nearly four years as its secretary. For many years he was a member of the Chamber of Commerce, and served as secretary of that organization for five years. He is a member of the Masonic Fraternity, a member and Past-Master of Acacia Lodge No. 155, at Thurmont; he has been a member of the Taneytown Lodge of Odd Fellows, and of the Knights of Pythias. He and Mrs. Bready are members of the Historical Society of Carroll County.

For a period of twenty-five years, he served as teacher and Vice-Principal of the Taneytown High School, coming into contact with more than a thousand boys and girls who came under his instruction. He retired from this position in June 1944.

Rev. Bready was born at Adamstown in Frederick County, Md., on March 23, 1882, the son of Eleven Tobias and Mary Thomas (Hays) Bready. On his father's side, he is a lineal descendant of John Bready, who settled at what was afterwards Breadyville in Montgomery County, Pa., in 1688; of Captain John Bready, who was murdered by Indians during the French and Indian War; and of George Bready, who served in the American Revolution and who settled in Frederick County, Md., near Adamstown in 1776, and who is buried in the family graveyard on the old Bready farm. On his father's side, he is also descended from Richard Butler, Duke of Ormond in Ireland, to whose duchess Dryden, the poet, dedicated his "Ode to St. Cecilia's Day", from Richard Butler, who served in the American Revolution, and from Ormond Butler, who was an officer in the War of 1812.

On his mother's side, he is descended from Thomas Leonard Hays, one of the pioneer settlers of Montgomery County, Md., and a descendant in the ninth generation of James Pearre, a native of France, who settled in Montgomery County, Md., in 1760.

Rev. Bready was graduated from the Adamstown Elementary School in 1893, from the Adamstown High School (its first graduate) in 1897, from Mercersburg Academy in 1899, from Franklin and Marshall College, with the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1903, and from the Eastern Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church in 1906. He did post-graduate work in Education at Western Maryland College, at the Johns Hopkins University, and at Gettysburg College. He received the degree of Master of Arts from Gettysburg College in 1931.

Rev. Bready is the author of "A Comparison of Intelligence and Achievement in School Children" (Master's Thesis), based upon two thousand tests administered to school pupils in Carroll and Frederick Counties, "A History of the Utica Charge of the Reformed Church," "History of the Manor Charge of the Reformed Church," and two bound volumes, "History of Grace Reformed Church at Taneytown," and of Grace Reformed Church, at Keyville," and the "History of Maryland Classis". The editions of the two last named books are entirely sold out.

Bready was President of Maryland Classis in 1913, its Stated Clerk from 1920 until its dissolution in 1944, and its Treasurer for three years. Rev. Bready was ordained to the Christian Ministry in Trinity Reformed Church, Thurmont, by Revs. Isaac M. Motter and Aaron M. Gluck on Sunday, June 17, 1906. He was married on June 6, 1906 to Miss Bessie Schuler, of Lancaster, who died on June 12, 1941. He was married on November 14, 1943, to Mrs. Anna Leh Kidd, of Lancaster.

MRS. IBACH'S CLASS HONORS HER WITH A SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Monday evening, October 18, as Mrs. Ibach sat reading between naps, she was aroused by the ringing of the door chimes. She braced up, rubbed her eyes, patted her hair in place, and thinking some one needed the assistance of a plumber went to the door. To her surprise here stood her good friend, Mrs. E. S. Harner; no sooner had greetings been exchanged when a chorus of 18 girls members of her S. S. class sang "Happy Birthday." All were greeted and invited into the house. We were told it would be necessary to remain until the next morning since the party was a day ahead of time. We went a little sooner, believing Mrs. Ibach would be at Cumberland attending the Missionary Convention. We regret that four of the members were unable to be present.

All were made most welcome. To say Mrs. Ibach was surprised and happy was putting it mildly. Games were played and Mildred Stine entertained us with a reading. The dining room door opened displaying a table decorated in white, green and yellow candles, napkins and favors, and adorned in the center by a three-tier birthday cake, iced in the three colors. Refreshments of cookies, candies, nuts, punch and coffee were served. Jokes were told and songs were sung. All present enjoyed every minute of the time.

Among the gifts presented was a sterling silver necklace on which hung a sterling silver cross set with Marcasite, also several beautiful linen handkerchiefs. Several times during the evening Mrs. Ibach remarked "Girls I love you all for being so kind and thoughtful, you certainly have made me happy, and I shall always cherish the memory of this occasion." The message on the greeting reads:

No wonder folks all love you so
You certainly possess
A kind and understanding way,
A warmth of friendliness
No wonder when your birthday's here
Your wished a year that brings
Complete fulfillment to your hopes,
And all life's finest things
To the nicest teacher ever, one who really practices what she preaches.

Your S. S. Class

Those present were: Mary Jane Smith, Anna Mae Winschhoff, Ellen Sklar, Mildred Strine, Alice Cashman, Elizabeth Ohler, Idona Teeter, Mrs. Clarence Phillips and Cherie Lee, Mildred Jester, Thelma Reifsnider, Grace Putnam, Thelma Ecker, Emma Reifsnider, Alice Fuss, Oneida Skiles, Betty Hess, Mildred Carbaugh, Charlotte Shorb, and Helen Halter.

Strange American Towns

Many American towns bear strange names. For instance, there's Annabessacook, Maine and Zephyrhills, Fla. Railway expressmen don't blink an eye when they spot express shipments bearing address labels
reading: Choccolocoe, Ala.; Agawan, Mont.; Embarrass, Minn. And, for the romantically inclined there's Loving, N. M.; Eden, O.; Paradise, Cal.; while the state of Texas offers, Lovelady, Honey Island, Happy, Blessing, Ponder, Moody, and, to top it off, there is Goodnight, Tex. A few more, which might suggest the high cost of living:
Cash, S. C.; Cash Money, Fla.; Dollar, Ore.; Greenback, Tenn.; Coin, Ark.;
and Dime Box, Tex.

Answer to Puzzle Number 9

Series J-48

1 1/2 Billion Dollar Road Block!

RAILROADS MUST OPERATE around the clock
every day and night of the year.

Although they know this, leaders of 16 railroad unions are demanding a five-day, Monday through Friday, week for one million railroad employees.

They want 48 hours pay for 40 hours work
—in itself a 20% wage increase.

They also demand a minimum of 12 hours pay for any work performed on Saturdays, and 16 hours pay for any work performed on Sundays and holidays.

On top of all this they want an additional increase of 25¢ an hour for every employee!

You'd Pay the Bill!

Summing up these demands, they mean that these union leaders seek to force the railroads to give one million employees an annual raise which would average $1500 per employee!

The total cost of this would be no less than 1 1/2 billion dollars per year, which is more than twice the expected net income of the railroads this year.

You'd pay the bill, because if these increased costs are forced on the railroads,

they must have still further rate and fare
increases

Demands Unreasonable

These employees have had substantial raises during and since the war. Their average weekly earnings are higher than the average weekly earnings of workers in manufacturing industries. They have more job security than the average worker in American industry. They also enjoy paid vacations, a retirement system and other advantages more generous than the average worker receives.

In contrast with the demands of these 16 unions, which add up to the equivalent of 48¢ an hour, the Conductors and Trainmen recently settled their wage request for an increase of 10¢ an hour.

Railroads Run for Everybody— Not Employees Alone

The railroad industry must serve not one but many groups—producers, businessmen, shippers, passengers and the general public—night and day, every day of the year. These unions are proceeding in utter disregard of this important difference between railroads and other industries. Industrial plants can be shut down over weekends and holidays, but freight, mail, express and passengers must continue to move. Everybody who enters railroad employment knows this.

Strike Threat

On September 18, 1948, the leaders of these 16 unions began taking a strike vote. But the threat of a strike will not alter the opposition of the railroads to such unreasonable demands!

God's Hand in History

Lesson for October 24, 1948

SUPPOSE you were given a long flexible wire and were asked to arrange it on a pattern which would represent history, what would you do to it? Some people would cut that wire into little bits and let them fall in a pile like jackstraws. History, they would say, is a meaningless collection of disconnected events—it has no real pattern.

Dr. Foreman

Someone else would arrange the wire like a long arrow pointing upward; others would make it into an arrow pointing downward; these would be the pure optimists and pessimists among historians.

Others would arrange it in a series of up-and-down curves—history, they would say, sometimes goes up and sometimes down, but it never gets anywhere. Others again would make an immense circle, history goes around and around in cycles, repeating itself.

Others still might take that wire and shape it into a kind of spiral, almost repeating itself but never quite, often seeming to go backward but actually making some progress.

God's Chosen People

A GOOD deal of the Old Testament is taken up with history. Starting with Genesis and going through Esther, most of what you read is history. But it is not mere chronicles, that is to say it is not a mere listing of events.

The historical parts of the Bible were written by men who had a theory of history. They would agree that the Golden Age is ahead of us, not behind.

They would all agree that the most important figure in human history is not a human being at all, but God the Creator. They would all agree that his hand can be seen—if you look for it—in the events of man's existence here. And they all affirm that among all the nations of the earth there was one which could be called truly God's chosen people, the little nation called Israel, the people we know as the Jews.

The whole of Hebrew history is a sort of sermon on this text: Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people. The history of any nation, ancient or modern, would illustrate that text just as well; only the Israelite historians saw it most clearly. They showed how, when their people followed God's leading and his laws, they prospered; when they went their own stupid, selfish ways they suffered.

Somehow Good

ONE great lesson the Old Testament history teaches is that God's will is good, and that when man defies and disobeys that will, he does it to his own destruction, but that God can bring good out of evil.

People often act from bad motives; yet even the worst of motives God can overrule. David waded in blood to his throne, and he treated cruelly many of his enemies. That was not good; yet God brought out of that a national independence and strength.

David put Solomon on the throne because he was the son of his favorite wife; that was pure favoritism. Yet God brought good out of a choice which was selfish.

When the Israelites were tempted to fall for the cheap and nasty gods whose shrines filled the land, that was bad; but it gave the prophets their great opportunity to make perfectly clear the difference between false and true religion.

The Voice of God

HISTORY is no bucket of ashes. If you have ears to listen, it is the voice of God. These ancient tales of a nation long since dead, that lived in all scarce 500 years, carry God's voice to us today.

The diseases which are fatal to a nation's life are here described; the foundations on which alone true national welfare can be built are made quite plain.

Up to now, all nations have perished sooner or later. We can see some of them decaying in our own time. That is because no nation ever yet has built its life on God's design. But the pattern is there, the lesson has been written. God still waits for a people who will learn his lesson in how to live.

STRENGTH FROM SOUND BANKING POLICIES

A tall building, a big bridge, or a sound bank all have to be built with solid, scientific precision.

In managing this bank through the years, we have weighed and measured every important act and decision with careful deliberation. We have done this for your protection no less than for our own.

We are glad to be known as a conservative bank.
