KIWANIANS MEET

The Minting of Coins and their Collections Explained

The Taneytown Kiwanis Club met in regular session Wednesday evening at 6:30 at Taney Inn with President John H. Skiles presiding. The attendance was splendid, with only three members absent.

The invocation was given by Rev. Miles S. Reifsnider. Group singing was led by Raymond K. Wright. A feature of the group singing was the leading of songs by members who served on the Music Committee during the nine years of the Club's activities, with solo parts by Miles Reifsnider, Wallace Reindollar and Howell Royer. Mrs. Wallace Yingling was the piano accompanist.

Past President Thomas H. Legg presented gifts, in the name of the Club, to President Skiles and the smallest member, Dr. C. M. Benner. The following members of the Westminster Club were present: John Byers, president of the Club, Ralph Hoffman, Chas. Magee, Frank Leidy, Howell Davis and Herbert Phillips, members of that Club.

Howell Royer had charge of the evening's program and spoke on Numismatology, showing his fine collection of coins and explained the art and the historic part in the minting of coins by the U. S. government from early time to the present day.

The meeting next week will be in the form of a trip to Hershey Park to view the Ice Capades. Members and their wives and guests will assemble at the Potomac Edison building at 5:15 p. m., where they will board two large Blue Ridge busses for the trip.

A meeting of the directors was held immediately following the regular meeting.

REFORMED CHURCHMEN'S BROTHERHOOD HOLD MONTHLY MEETING

The Churchmen's Brotherhood of Grace Reformed Church, Taneytown, held its first meeting for 1949 on Thursday evening, Jan. 27 in the Sunday School room of the church. Retiring President, Delmont Koons opened the meeting with a hymn. The Devotions, in charge of Mr. Murray Baumgardner, consisted of the singing of several hymns, Scripture reading, piano solo by Eugene Clutz, vocal solo by George Motter, accompanied by Mr. Clutz, and a short address by Rev. Edwin Sponteller. The business session started with the reading of last meeting's minutes by the retiring secretary, Mr. William Baker, followed by the roll call and treasurer's report. Mr. Koons then called upon Rev. Sponteller to install the new officers for this year, who are: President, Edward Reid; Vice-president, Carol Frock; Secretary, George Motter; Treasurer, Murray Baumgardner. Mr. Reid then took the chair and the meeting continued with discussion on the forthcoming supper to be served in the Firemen's Building on Saturday night, Feb. 26. Taneytown Will Have the Telephone Dial System this Summer

Mr. William B. Hopkins, local manager for the Telephone Company, states that the Company is making substantial progress with its program to change Taneytown to modern dial service. The new building on George Street is completed, although the lot remains to be graded, and quite a few telephone men are working and living in the town. The work necessary to change over 600 telephones to dial is well under way and the new exchange can be expected to go into operation by summer.

Putting in a dial exchange is a bigger job than the casual observer many as twelve families sharing a single line. Presently, on these circuits, when one phone on a line is called, all others must ring. But with the coming of dial there will never be more than eight subscribers on a line and rural customers will hear only one ring in addition to their own. Hopkins said that another advantage of dial is what is known as "automatic ringing". This means that when a telephone number is dialed, the ringing will continue at regular intervals until the call is answered or the calling party hangs up.

Although fifty new telephones have been added to the Taneytown Exchange during the last year there are still thirty-five waiting applications still pending. Hopkins said that these applications will be served just prior to or soon after the change to dial. This activity necessitates quite a few changes not the least of which is changed numbers at various subscribers telephones. The new numbers will be incorporated in a new local directory which will be issued at the time of conversion.

REFORMED MEN DINE

The Ladies Guild Served Sumptuous Banquet

The Women's Guild of Grace Reformed Church entertained the men of the church with their guests to a turkey dinner last (Thursday) evening.

Mrs. Carel Frock, president of the Guild with her able committee of ladies served a sumptuous banquet to the men of the church and guests in the Sunday School room.

A program followed the dinner with Edward Reid acting as master of ceremonies who introduced the speaker of the evening Rev. Eugene C. Woodward, Pastor of the Westminster Methodist Church who used as his topic "Sportsmanship" in a stirring and greatly appreciated address. Rev. John Bailey Jones, of Western Maryland College was a guest of Rev. Woodward.

Delmont Koons led the group present in singing with Miss Fairy Frock at the piano. During the evening's program the following special numbers were given: Solo by Miss Caroline Shriver with Miss Marian Martin at the piano; "Deep River" and "Buttons and Bows" were presented as trombone solos by David Reifsnider with his mother Mrs. Leonard Reifsnider as piano accompanist. Mrs. Carel Frock and her daughter, Miss Fairy Frock gave a piano duet.

LEGION BEGINS DRIVE FOR FUNDS

Money Needed to Combat Heart Disease and Rheumatic Fever

Under the auspices of Hesson-Snyder Post No. 120, The American Legion, Department of Maryland commences one of the largest drives, in the history of Taneytown, for funds to combat Rheumatic Fever and Heart Disease. Richard Etzler and his committee have outlined a brief resume of activities for an eventual drive. They are as follows: The placement of plastic heart collection boxes at strategic points in Taneytown, Union Bridge, and other neighboring communities; Distribution of printed collection envelopes to school children for their parents; a door to door canvass by girl Scouts of Taneytown and Union Bridge on Saturday, February 5; and dance to be held at the Taneytown High School on Friday, Feb. 25, at 8 P. M., featuring Rudy Carroll and his orchestra, dress is optional. Advance sale tickets may be purchased from any member of the Hesson-Snyder Post. Anyone desiring ticket reservations for this dance may do so by contacting chairman Richard Etzler or by phoning Taneytown 5-W.

Last year over 200,000 children in the United States were fatally stricken by this dreaded disease. Lives have been taken and are being threatened daily by Rheumatic Fever in the Taneytown area. Rheumatic Fever has taken more lives than the five most dreaded nationally known disease combined. Thousands of innocent children will be attacked this year and if sufficient funds are not gained they may lose their lives.

The causes of Rheumatic Fever are many but the chief factors are poor diet, inadequate housing and crowded living conditions. Doctors experienced in problems of public health fear that the postwar housing shortage may result in a considerable increase in Rheumatic Fever. That's why it's so important that we raise funds now.

Research has proved that Rheumatic Fever starts from such common diseases as tonsillitis, pharyngitis, erysipelas, scarlet fever and inflammation of the middle ear. Precautionary measures for its prevention include good food, sufficient rest and adequate housing. If your child should come down with some sort of nose or throat trouble put him to bed and call the doctor.

The proceeds of this drive will be turned over to the Maryland Rheumatic Fever Association for establishment of clinics, employment of occupational therapists, purchase and maintenance of portable units and other appropriate methods of treatments.

Remember it may be your child who will benefit in health later by what you do today. OPEN YOUR HEART TO SAVE A HEART.

W. MD. DISTRICT LEADS STATE IN LEGION MEMBERSHIP

The February first report of membership, for the American Legion in the State of Maryland showed an increase of six hundred members from the Western Maryland District. This district is far out in front of its membership of last year and now is far in advance of the remainder of the state. Hesson-Snyder Post, No. 120 shows a membership increase over last year of thirty-eight members. This was the report made by Post Adjutant Morrison at a regular meeting of Hesson-Snyder Post No. 120 of the American Legion, Department of Maryland, Thursday, Feb. 3, in the Post home. This is being added to daily and more veterans in and around Taneytown are urged to join.

The social rooms are open daily from 7:00 P. M. until 12 midnight; except Saturday and Sunday. They are open Saturday from 1:00 P. M. until 5:00 P. M. and from 7:00 P. M. until 12 midnight; Sunday they are open from 1:00 P. M. until 5 P. M.

Commander Powell read a letter from J. Nelson "Jack" Tribble who was relieved of his duties as Department Adjutant by Joe Dougherty. "Jack" Tribble is known by almost all Legionnaires as a great man and will be a great loss to the Legion.

During the ten years from 1937 to 1947, U. S. farmers just doubled their use of commercial fertilizer, increasing from 8,400,000 tons to 16,800,000, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

AROUND THE TOWN

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawn
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Winter skies and a cold sunny day for the inauguration in Washington, D. C., plus the "Man Behind the President" led Your Observer to the Capitol city on the morning of January 20. I started out at 8:30 A. M. with a warm coat, a sweater, warm gloves, a package of tissue handkerchiefs and a very comfortable pair of walking shoes and a thermos bottle of hot soup! Parked the car at Bethesda and then boarded a street car which went as far as the first circle on Pennsylvania Ave.

Then a long walk followed toward the Capitol building but to my astonishment at the hour of 10 A. M., the entire section was roped off not allowing others through the rope to that part. I can't tell you the great disappointment it was to Your Observer as I realized that meant not being able to see our President at all in the parade. Talked to a policeman who informed me that all was filled at 8:30!

All of you know by this time of the great esteem and respect I hold for our Honorable President Harry S. Truman and how I was with him one hundred per cent even previous to his nomination.

I then walked back to the 1700 block of Penn. Ave. and saw a vacancy next to the rope where I could get a bird's eye view of the parade which was directly opposite the Dept. of State Building. By that time, the cold winds were blowing and penetrating but there were thousands and thousands braving the cold as well as I. It meant standing from 10 A. M. until 2:30 or a little later when the parade reached the block. I must admit that only one other time in my life have I been so cold and it was on such a bitter day—horse back riding. I know now what it means to freeze to death as there is no feeling as many think.

There were hundreds of planes which soared ahead of the mammoth inaugural parade which was most exciting for the colorful pageant following. The motorcycle Police having their special kind of drills which won much applause. There were real Indians from the big West on horseback. Then came the entire West Point Corps of Cadets and Annapolis regiment of Midshipmen marching with magnificent precision which drew loud applause all the way down Pennsylvania Avenue. The "Blimp" shoving on ahead! Every element of the nation's armed forces was represented in the parade. Heated veterans of World War II, bronzed blue jackets from the battle fleet stalwart Coast Guardsmen and trim cadets of the Merchant Marine. The States of the Union were elaborately with floats.

Then came the Governors—of the various States with their ladies seated beside them, elegantly dressed in Mink with matching Chapeaus. There was much applause for our charming Governor Lane as he bowed and continuously raised his hat all along the way in only his grand gracious manner!

The Sun beamed on the flags of the 48 States which was a picture! One that will live long in my memory. There was such a peaceful atmosphere throughout the entire day. Such fine order, system and discipline in the entire set up is beyond describing. The ambulance of the Baltimore Chapter of Red Cross—No. 149-716 was driven along the curb slowly every few minutes on both sides of the avenue up and down in case of any emergency! Also the Stat. Police ambulance of Maryland—No. 230 was right there on the job and made your observer feel very proud.

Suddenly, I felt a blanket being wrapped around the lower part of my body! It was the kind act of the lady standing next to me from Washington with her two little flaxen haired daughters! How grateful I was!

The one float of which I was so proud as the Maryland "Free State" commemorating a tercentenary of religious tolerance! To this there was great applause and in my opinion the highlight of all the floats.

The parade was over around five o'clock. On the return to Maryland stopped to get "thawed out" and have a nice hot dinner in one of those famous Johnson's eating places.

All in all, regardless of the bitter cold, the Capitol city shone in all its glory on such a memorable day of days—this Inaugural of our Honorable President Harry S. Truman of these grand United States will stand out like a Star above all other such days in past and future history!

That nice "Farmer Man" from Missouri won as all of you realize by now for the man as he really is and was chosen by the people for which all can Thank God which we do freely of our own will and accord "Over Here" and not as it is handed down to Kings and Queens as "Over There"!

Now, here's another for you, Folks—we won't have any depression nor a war as long as that little big courageous heart man is in the White House in Washington!

So long until next week. Have a grand week-end and just keep on praying along with our President.

Your

HAPPY HARRY

For perpetual smile none yet has surpassed our president. The I did not vote for him I find myself in approval of most of the things that he has done since becoming our President in his own right. His inaugural address was weighted down with "peace" pledges. A dozen smiles in that short address he used the word peace.

But, and here is the rub, he also lambasted communism severely, and tho I approve all he said on the subject I fear he has driven us closer to war than we were before he spoke. Stalin and his stooges are quite sensitive on the matter and resent any criticism of the system.

Maybe they are right, maybe not, the fact remains we are closer to war with Russia than we were before Truman spoke. That war is in the offing and will occur in time—maybe not in your time or my time, but come it will. The two ideals—Democracy and Communism cannot live side by side in the same world without clashing. Armageddon is closer than we imagine it to be.

I hate war, but he who will not fight for liberty and freedom deserves neither.

LABOR LAWS

The new Congress may repeal the Taft-Hartley Act. But, maybe not! There is a majority in the Democratic and Republican parties that is almost sure to stand firm in support of the general policies of the labor legislation that was passed by the 80th Congress. The success of that legislation is admitted. The probabilities are that its principal features will remain in any new changes—or shuffling-up with the decrepit old Wagner Act.

The President used the Taft-Hartley law seven times to deal with emergencies, including John L. Lewis' coal strike last spring and the threatened maritime strike. He has personal, political reasons for it all.

There are State laws preventing the closed shop in Nebraska, North Carolina, and Arizona; and similar but less rigid restrictions on the closed shop in a dozen other States. The U. S. Court ruled in 1949 that such laws are permissible, and not a violation of the Constitution on the grounds that "States have power to legislate against what are to be found injurious practices in their commercial and business affairs."—National Industries News Service.

Care of Muddy Shoes

Even though dry mud comes off shoes more easily than wet mud, specialists advise against the common practice of letting it dry on before brushing it off. Mud stains leather, and the longer it stays on the worse the stain is likely to be. Scrape off moist mud as promptly as possible and then, wipe the leather clean with a soft cloth. Let shoes dry slowly and then polish. Mud should be wiped off leather gloves promptly.

Facts About USSR

Soviet Union has a population of more than 193 million, third largest in the world. About 67 per cent of the population is rural, while 33 per cent live in the cities. If the population of Russia were distributed equally throughout the country, 22 persons would live in every square mile. By far the most important occupation is agriculture. Before the revolution one-fourth of the farm land was controlled by wealthy land owners.

Let's Think

by
G. H. ENFIELD

BLESSED IS THE MAN WHO DOES NOT

We usually think of a blessed man as one who does. However, the Psalmist says blessed is the man who does not. Much Old Testament teaching is negative, as are the Ten Commandments; while that of the New Testament, especially the teaching of Jesus is positive. Many parents discipline their children negatively. It is "don't, don't." And that is as far as their disciplining goes. This is an easy type of discipline. No one has to think out something to take the place of the "don'ts." It also leaves creep holes. It also affords ground for arguments.

Yes, the Psalmist says, Blessed is the man who does not. After all the man who does not is also one who does, else he would be a non-entity. Blessed is the man who does not.

1. Walk in the counsel of the ungodly.

2. Stand in the way of sinners—walk in the counsel of the ungodly.

3. Sit in the seat of the scorner.

That man is blessed who does not embarrass a good man to be seen in their company. He has no eyes to see the indecent, the disreputable things which their eyes feast upon. He has no ear to listen to their nasty, filthy, dirty, vulgar jokes or stories. Neither does such a man walk with the ungodly to the bar of a corner saloon to imbibe a schooner of beer, or to take a swig of rum. The path of the good man lies in other directions. The counsel of the ungodly is expensive. It is demoralizing. It is destructive.

The first stage in the downward path is to walk in the counsel of the ungodly. These fellows always have some advice to give, some suggestion to offer. You are safe when you attach no importance to them. "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly."

The second step in the new relationship is standing in the way of sinners. The infrequent visits of the newcomer are now frequent to the haunts of evil. His position is more fixed. He no longer walks. He stands. He is more brazen in his conduct. His behavior is more pronounced. He no longer runs when he observes former friends and companions approaching. He stands his ground, and endeavors to defend himself and his acts with the philosophy of the world, "eat, drink, and be merry for tomorrow we die." He continues further, "we have only one life to live and why not enjoy ourselves while here. We pass this way only once." This is all the reason some folks need to enlist in the ways of world men. He stands now among the sinners. He appears to be more at ease now. He does not regard it as any sacrifice to give up the fellowship and companionship of earlier associates. The ABC store where he meets his new cronies possesses more glamour for him than the Sunday School class where he used to gather with a choicer set of young men and women. "Blessed is the man that standeth not in the way of sinners."

The third degree has been reached when he sits in the seat of the scorner. One advances step by step in the ways of evil doing. From walking in the counsel of the ungodly, and standing in the way of sinners, he now sits in the seat of the scorner. He occupies a position of authority. He now sits back and makes bright remarks about those who go to church who believe in Jesus Christ as the Savior of all mankind. He sneers when one speaks of a consecrated Sabbath. His ways, and habits, and conversation have become conformed to those of the world. His ideals and environment belong to worldly men.

While this man is progressing in the ways of the new gang, he is not aware that each step in the new course is away from his mother's teaching, away from the instruction of his Sunday School teacher, and contrary to the Sermon on the Mount. Thus he has assumed the role of a knocker, a kicker, a scorner. of the best, highest, and noblest that life has to offer. However such is the highest attainments which some mental and spiritual capacities are able to realize. "Blessed is the man that sitteth not in the seat of the scorner." He is blessed in himself, and a source of blessings to others.

Uncle Sam Says

Here's one big, safe resolution for 1949: "Resolved, I will take advantage of the opportunity presented by my government to buy U. S. Savings Bonds regularly; the finest, safest and most convenient investment in the world." If you stop to think of it there's no better time than right now to start building a comfortable cushion for later years. Upon maturity, U. S. Savings Bonds will return to you four dollars for every three dollars you put into them. They can be bought regularly under two convenient purchasing plans, the Payroll Savings Plan where you are employed or the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank.

Nation Fights Heart Disease

DISEASES of the heart and circulation are the greatest cause of death in the United States, accounting for one death every minute.

They are responsible for one out of every three deaths. They strike all ages and kill more people than the five other leading causes of death—cancer, accidents, nephritis, pneumonia, tuberculosis—combined.

To help meet the most urgent needs of this foremost public health problem in the nation, the American Heart Association is conducting a nationwide campaign during February 7-28 to finance a three-point program of scientific research, public and professional education and community service.

The association's financial goal for the campaign is to raise a fund of 5 million dollars.

During the drive the week of February 14 to 21 will be observed as National Heart Week.

Public support behind the drive—headed this year by Harold E. Stassen as national campaign chairman—will make possible an expanded research program in such neglected fields as rheumatic fever, high

Snow Crystal Recorder

Science, pressing investigations into nature's every mood, has created a snow crystal recorder to "get the jump" on all types of snowstorms. Devised by technicians of an electrical manufacturing company for the U. S. army signal corps and the office of naval research, the recorder prints on paper the geometric shape, size and frequency of occurrence of snow crystals falling in a storm.

Celebration of Arbor Day

An intensified observance of Arbor day, perennial harbinger of spring, which now is being celebrated on various dates in all states of the union, is the aim of leading horticultural organizations throughout the nation. The genuinely-needed tree planting job, which is done on Arbor day, has been urged by successive presidents of the United States since the inception of Arbor day, 76 years ago.

Siberia, Farthest North

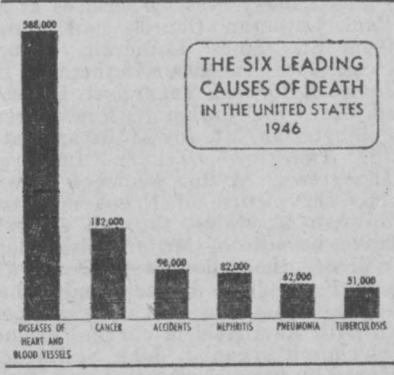

A large portion of Siberia lies north of the arctic circle. Arctic climatic conditions in Siberia reach south as far as Lake Baikal in Eastern Siberia, which is about twice the size of Lake Ontario and more than a mile deep. North and west of Lake Baikal lies the Region of Irkutsk, a huge plateau which is being developed agriculturally.

Canned Baby Food

Production of canned baby food has developed into a big business in the last few years. Figures show that the average baby in this country was eating only two pounds of canned baby food in 1935. He was eating 13 pounds by 1939. Baby's consumption of foods specially canned for his use was up to 45 pounds in 1947.

Egg Expectancy

A high quality hen may lay 200 eggs per year, and, if fed adequately, may produce a dozen eggs on less than five pounds of feed. Others, not bred for high production, may lay less than 150 eggs per year and may need eight pounds of feed or more to produce a dozen eggs.

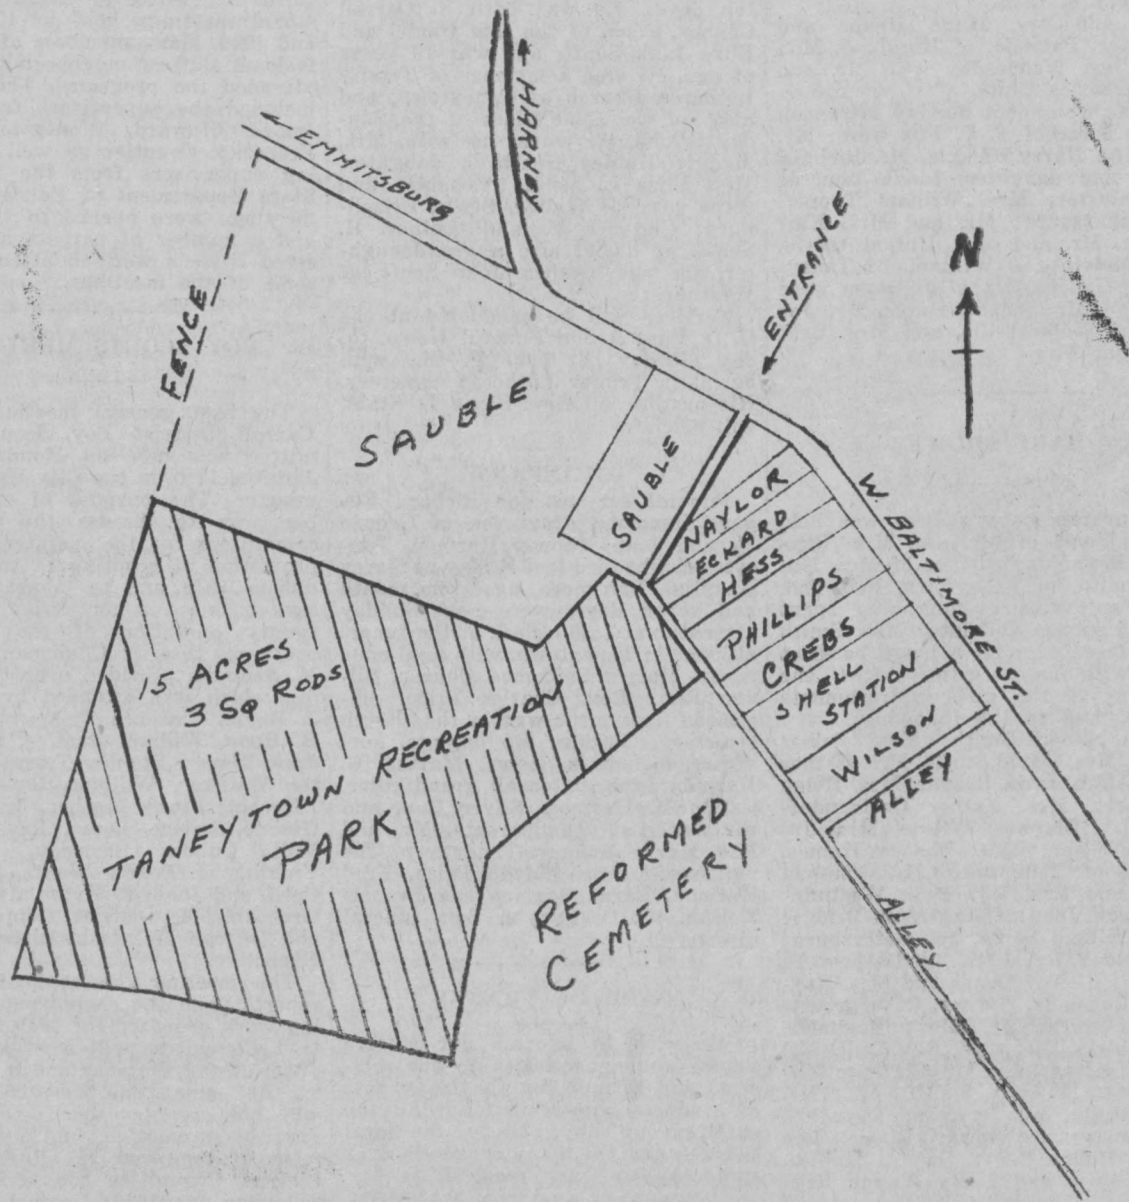

blood pressure and hardening of the arteries, which are responsible for 90 per cent of all heart disease.

Special emphasis will be placed on research during the campaign because that is the arch upon which medical progress rests.

Of the 5 million dollars the association hopes to raise, 3-5 million will be earmarked for use by local heart associations to maintain and expand their community cardiac programs. The other 1.5 million dollars will be used by the American Heart Association for the expansion of its national program.

FEESERSBURG

The Maryland Cooperative Milk Producers, Inc., formerly the Maryland State Dairyman's Association held its 14th annual meeting at the Lord Baltimore Hotel, on Saturday, Dr. R. W. Shermantine, Secretary of the Association gave an extensive report upon the milk situation in the Baltimore market. He said the producers of milk had been notified that the price of milk will be $6 per hundred weight, Class 1, 4 per cent milk f. o. b. City and is to be continued throughout the year 1949 and the condition of the market is excellent. After the speeches, a musical program was given and lunch was served. Those attending from our community were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kiser and Mrs. Russell Bohn.

Kay Luttrell celebrated her ninth birthday Thursday when she invited some of her school-mates to go home with her and surprise her mother. Like a good mother, Mrs. Luttrell rose to the occasion with humor and fortitude and a birthday party was produced like magic. Needless to say the children had a wonderful time. An orchid to Mrs. Luttrell and some time under the same circumstances may I uphold my own third grader's dignity in the same manner.

Mrs. Harry Lambert suffered a heart attack Tuesday, and is confined to bed.

Gossip may spice up a conversation but even the harmless kind is dangerous. Aren't there more things to talk about in life than the scandalous doings of our friends and acquaintances? I do not believe women realize how much damage and suffering they cause by vicious and untruthful gossiping. I say women, because men rarely hit below the belt with this weapon—gossip. Whenever I see two or more women with their heads together I know some member of their own sex is being literally torn to shreds and I always think of a classmate of mine whose career was ruined by jealous, lying gossip peddlers. The gossip itself is too ugly to tell but she was expelled from school where she had stood high in her class. It wasn't long afterwards that the person who started the gossip was filled with remorse and her conscience left her no peace of mind until she confessed it was all a lie, made up by herself due to jealousy of the other's personality and high marks. But all the damage had been done and no amount of remorse or regret ever made up for the suffering that was so carelessly inflicted.

The door bells in the community have been ringing frequently by youthful salesmen selling garden seed. One cannot say "no" to a child who has that half wistful, half hesitant, look on its face. "Furthermore" one argues with oneself "Spring is almost here and I really do need new garden seed."

Mrs. Maude Martin, spent Tuesday with the Runalda Martin's, of Union Bridge.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Geo. Zinkhan, of Union Bridge, our family has become acquainted with a magazine called "The New Yorker". We like it very much for two reasons. First, because of its cartoons which gives us many a hearty laugh and second, because it runs a column called "The Talk of the Town" which while the writing is bright and brittle appeals to small town readers as well as sophisticated New Yorkers who incidentally are just glorified small towners. Here is a sample of this bright and brittle talk: "We found the corpse of a praying mantis the other day and I always think of commonly interested in the discovery, since we have been praying lately our self, and if we were to die suddenly, our remains would probably look as comical in supplication, as dry and light. The mantis (female) measured three and five-eighths inches from eye to tip of folded wings—a truly formidable bug. Her legs and the leading edge of her wings still held their beautiful grass-green color, and her thorax was the rich ruddy-brown color of cornstalks. In fact, the mantis, in her desiccated condition, was curiously vegetable-like, a sort of animated twig (animated in retrospect, that is). Her arms were still in the attitude of prayer, her chin resting on one hand in perfect piety. We cannot guess what she prayed for, what she asked: Possibly that a room in a suitable apartment might prove to be a suitable place for depositing eggs. Our own prayers have been of great violence recently: we have implored God to strike down evil persons who are deliberately stirring up a rumpus and creating situations of incalculable mischief for the world. These are idle prayers or at least badly conceived, and like the mantis, we may die praying; but many people are muttering such prayers these days, and earnestly. In prayer, we feel more angry than religious."—Taken from The New Yorker.

The three small children of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Fink have just recovered from the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. David Miller and Mrs. Andrew Theisz visited the Lutheran Home in Baltimore on Sunday.

Through the kindness of Paul Eichman, the very obliging manager of the Carlton Theatre in Union Bridge, the March of Dimes Committee was permitted to take up a collection three nights for the benefit of the Polio Fund. The response was very generous and the Committee thanks one and all for their help.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Sifert and daughter Jane of Red Line, Pa., were guests of the Millard Roelkes on Sunday.

Port McHenry, in Baltimore, the site that inspired "The Star Spangled Banner" is second of the nation's 85 national monuments in popularity with visitors. The first, of course, is the Statue of Liberty.

Fire is the greater peril on the farm than in the city. Fully one-third of the people killed by fire live on farms, although only one-fifth of the population lives there.

If the ground-hog was silly enough to leave his nice warm house and come out he most certainly saw his shadow. I don't believe he was that dumb.

The Never Weary Class of Baust Lutheran Sunday School met on Tuesday night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Myers, Jr., with Miss Audrey Myers as leader. The meeting came to order by singing hymn, "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations." The Scripture lesson was read from Rom. 8:35-39, II Cor. 12:10 and Prayer by the leader. The topic for the lesson was "Heroes of Faith Who Have Died for Christ" taken from "The March of Faith." A discussion followed. Pastor Andrew F. Theisz then led in prayer. Memory verse, II Timothy 3:12—Yea, and all that would live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. Hymn for study, was "In the Cross of Christ I Glory" written by Bowring. At the business part of the meeting officers were elected as follows: President, Kenneth Lambert; Vice-President, Vernon Zimmerman; Secretary, Doris Haines, Asst. Sec.; Harold Shorb, Treasurer; Edna Myers, Asst.; Treasurer, Charlotte Shorb. Flower committee appointed for the month were Mary Grace Haifley and Norman Welk. The meeting closed with singing class song and closing prayer after which refreshments were served to thirty members and guests. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold Shorb with Mr. Walter Myers, Jr., leader.

The flowers in the altar vases given by the Never Weary Class went this week to Mrs. Ralph Starner, Mrs. Harry K. Myers and Mr. Arthur Masters. Two weeks ago I should have said the flowers were given to the Elwood Myers family, instead of to Mrs. George Sanner, (I'm sorry Gladys, my mistake). Well it is so much better not to be sick, even though we do miss getting the flowers.

Two modern little girls coming from Sunday School were solemnly discussing the lesson, "Do you believe there is a devil?" asked one, "No," replied the other promptly, "of course not. It's just like Santa Claus—he's your father."

BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETS

The teachers of Carroll County participated in an all day professional conference on Friday, Jan. 21st, 1949. The conference was held in the auditorium of the Westminster High School from 9:00 a. m. until 4:00 p. m. All teachers assembled for a general session at 9:00 o'clock and in another general session at 1:30. Included in the program were group meetings at various locations in the building during the day. In the morning general session a musical program was directed by Mr. Philip Royer, Music Supervisor, and the Reverend Father John Broderick, St. John's Catholic Church, Westminster, pronounced the benediction. Greetings were extended by the Superintendent of Schools, S. M. Jenness and all teachers heard an address on the "Educational Aspects of the School Lunch Program" by Mrs. Katherine Wisely, Area Nutritionist, U. S. Department of Agriculture. A business meeting of the Carroll County Teachers Association was held at the close of the general session. Group meetings during the day included motion pictures under the direction of the elementary supervisors, Miss Ruth DeVore and Mr. Charles Reck. The title of the picture shown to the elementary teachers was "Meeting the Emotional Needs of Children". High School Group Meetings were held during the morning session as follows: Commercial teachers, under the direction of the chairman, Mrs. Mildred Barnes; Home Economics teachers, under the direction of the Supervisor of Home Economics, Mrs. Josephine West; Industrial Arts teachers, under the direction of Mr. H. M. James, State Supervisor of Industrial Education; the music teachers under the direction of Mr. Philip Royer. All other high school teachers assembled in the library for a discussion of "An Effective Reading Program for Junior and Senior High Schools", led by Miss Mabel Henderson, Consultant in Reading from the John C. Winston Publishing Company. Lunch was prepared by the staff of the Westminster High School Cafeteria. Group meetings of elementary teachers were held by grades in the afternoon. Grade One meeting under the direction of Mrs. Corrine Watkins, chairman, Mt. Airy School; Grade Two, under the direction of Mrs. Madeline Bankert, West End School; Grade Three, with Miss Margaret Murray, Westminster Elementary School, presiding; Grade Four, under the leadership of Mrs. Mabel Price of the Sykesville School; Grade Five, led by Mrs. Rebecca Harman of the New Windsor School; Grade Six, with Mr. Lionel Yohn, Principal of the Winfield School presiding.

The feature of the afternoon program was a splendid address by Dr. Alice Keliher, Professor of Education New York University. Dr. Keliher spoke on the subject "Developing Personalities for Democratic Living". She is an authority in this field and has received national recognition for her outstanding work in the field of promoting pupil-teacher and parent-pupil-teacher relationship. Dr. Keliher's address was enthusiastically received by all teachers.

Mrs. Thelmas Rice presided at an afternoon meeting of elementary teachers where the topic "The Characteristics of a Good Reading Program in the Elementary Schools" was conducted with Miss Henderson assisting as consultant. High School teachers met for motion pictures and other professional matters in the afternoon under the direction of Dr. Sarah Smith, Associate Professor of Education, Western Maryland College, assisted by Mr. George Thomas of the Westminster High School. The motion pictures shown were entitled, "Developing Pupil Interest" and "Teachers and Pupil Planning and Working Together". The staff of the county office and the principals of the schools met for a meeting with Dr. Keliher at the end of the day with the county superintendent, S. M. Jenness presiding, where the applications of Dr. Keliher's address were considered as related to the carrying on of instruction in the county schools.

Much interest was shown by the teachers in the program which is the third in a series of January professional meetings held in 1947, 1948 and 1949. Many members of the professional staff of neighboring counties attended the programs. The visitors included the supervisors from Baltimore, Howard, Montgomery and Frederick Counties as well as visiting supervisors from the Maryland State Department of Education. The meetings were opened to the public and a number of parents and interested citizens were in attendance at some of the meetings.

Card, Clarence Fishpaw, Raymond Selby and Frank Conaway.

It is hoped that through the active work of the committees and through the cooperation of the local sponsoring organizations, that the program of scouting in the county can be materially expanded during the coming year. Mr. McIntosh made a brief report at this meeting of the Scout Fund Collection Campaign completed under the leadership of the Finance Chairman, James M. Shriver assisted by many volunteer workers in Westminster and throughout the county.

THE NEW 1949 CHEVROLET

Chevrolet's 1949 passenger cars, completely restyled and possessing more mechanical improvements than any model within recent years, go on display at dealer showrooms here on Saturday, January 22.

The automobile is the product of three years of engineering research and design development. Begun immediately after V-J day, experimental work has included 1,068,000 miles of test driving over the roads of the General Motors Proving Ground and arid highways of the southwest.

The local showing will be held simultaneously with displays in other cities and is expected to draw one of the biggest crowds in the history of events of its kind.

"From inquiries at our offices and dealer showrooms, we know that literally millions are waiting to see the car," said T. H. Keating, general sales manager. Chevrolet's solid reputation for value and reports of impressive new features have kindled a nationwide interest.

"We do not believe the public will be disappointed. While the car carries numerous comfort and convenience advances, it maintains our tradition of rugged, reliable transportation at the lowest possible cost."

ANNAPOLIS LETTER

January 31, 1949

To the Editor: Dear Sir: LEGISLATIVE REPRESENTATION

At the present time each county of the state, and each legislative district in Baltimore City, has been represented in the House of Delegates of our State Legislature on the basis of a formula prescribed by Section 4 of Article 3 of the Constitution of Maryland.

This section prescribes that each of our 23 counties and the six legislative district of Baltimore City shall have a minimum representation of two delegates. Should the county or district have a population of over 18,000 "souls" it is then entitled to an additional, or three delegates. Over 28,000 entitles it to the present maximum of six delegates.

Carroll County, having a population of approximately 38,000 citizens (1940 Census) is now represented in the House by four delegates. Under the present law if our 1950 Census shows us to have over 40,000 inhabitants we would be entitled to a fifth delegate. It is estimated that our population is now close to 42,000.

Senate Bill 11, sanctioned by the Legislative Council, proposes to change our Constitution and establish a new formula whereby the less thickly populated areas of the state would lose a portion of their representation in the House and the City of Baltimore and several counties would gain.

For example, Carroll County, instead of gaining one delegate in the 1954 election (the first election following the publication of the 1950 Census) would lose one of our present seats and we would be entitled to only three representatives in that body.

A legislative district in Baltimore City with a population of 300,000 would have 10 or more seats instead of its present six.

Such a law would obviously throw the balance of power in the House in favor of the metropolitan areas.

If the Bill passes the legislature and the constitutional amendment is placed on the ballot the voters of Baltimore City, with the help of the urban counties whose representation would be increased, would undoubtedly outvote the rest of the state and the new law would go into effect in 1954.

The city representatives are, naturally, in favor of the Bill and the county representatives for the most part against it. A hot fight between the "slickers" and the "yokels" is bound to occur when this SB-11 hits the floor.

VOTING MACHINES

Senate Bill 25 has been introduced for the purpose of making the use of voting machines mandatory in all general, special and primary elections in the state. There is considerable support for this Bill because of the favorable experiences of those parts of the state in which voting machines have been in use for a period of years.

Over one-half of the voters of Maryland are now using voting machines with complete satisfaction. They have been found to insure far more accurate and prompt election results than can be obtained by the use of paper ballots.

Records, now a long and costly procedure, are eliminated. The O'Connor-Markey senatorial recount took over a year to complete and cost several hundred thousand dollars.

Lost votes are also avoided. In the recent mentioned thousands of votes on paper ballots were thrown out because of smudges, ink spots, pencil marks outside of sources, improper X-marks and for many other reasons. About 5% of the votes cast in Carroll County were not counted for one reason or another and our "lost vote" was light in comparison with other areas in the state.

Their use has also demonstrated that over a period of years they can be paid for with the saving resulting from the decreased cost of printing and clerical help and that after the initial cost has been paid election expenses can be materially reduced. The Bill provides for payment for the machines by the counties over a period of years by either of the three methods prescribed in the measure. These provisions permit the purchase without the necessity of levying taxes for their total cost in a single year.

ROADSIDE CONTROL

Once again the much discussed Roadside Control Bill (HB-26) has been presented to the Legislature for passage. This Bill, or a similar one, has been introduced in each regular session of the Legislature since 1937, and each time has been defeated.

The Bill is intended to promote the beautification of our State highways by placing in the State Roads Commission the power to regulate the use of a 200 foot strip of land on each side of all highways carrying 1000 or more vehicles per day. This would include some 2400 miles of our state highway system and give to the Commission control of over 99,000 acres of roadside land.

The Carroll County roads subject to control under the Bill are Route 140 from Reisterstown through Silver Run to the Pennsylvania line, Route 31 from Westminster through New Windsor to Libertytown, Route 30 from Reisterstown through Manchester to the Pennsylvania line, Route 26 (the Liberty Road) through out, Route 91 from Finksburg to Gamber, Route 27 from Westminster to Taylorsville, and Route 32 from Sykesville to Eldersburg.

Although most people agree that some steps should be taken to improve the appearance of our highways it is unfortunate that the sponsors of this Bill have chosen a method that is open to so many objections by the owners of roadside property.

The Bill embodies what is known as "compulsory control" over the subject land. The Commission is given the power to make rules and regulations covering the use of such land and regulating, controlling and restricting "business and commercial structures, private roads, entrances and detriments to the preservation of natural scenery." The rules and regulations are to be enforced by prohibiting the construction of the regulated uses and structures until a permit has been issued by the State Roads Commission.

Agricultural structures, under the provisions of the Bill, would be made to conform to such set-back lines as may be established by the Commission, as would roadside stands erected for the sale of agricultural products. Existing structures are not subject to the proposed regulations.

No compensation is provided for those who lose the free use of their roadside land.

Appeals are permitted from the decision of the Commission but the right of a jury trial is expressly prohibited.

That there can be successful preservation of the scenic values of our highways without the use of such "compulsory controls" has been demonstrated in other states as well as in areas within Maryland.

A "voluntary control" plan has been regarded with favor by the landowners and the proponents of roadside control.

Under the voluntary system roadside control groups work with landowners in areas that have scenic value and, with the cooperation of the State Roads Commission, set aside certain areas where commercial structures are permitted.

Several states have successfully established extensive scenic routes by use of this method.

An outstanding example of what can be accomplished by this means is found on the newly built Route 40A west of Frederick. In this area Captain Jim Gambrill and his associates with the cooperation of the property owners along the road, have established a "Scenic Area" extending some 2 miles in length. This group now plans to extend its activities into the Western Maryland counties.

There has been some progress made toward the formation of a statewide "voluntary roadside control" organization with active units in each county. These units are to be composed of representatives of farm groups, civic and service clubs, local businesses and industries. It is planned to have these units select roadside areas upon which scenic routes could be established and by agreement with the landowners set up voluntary restrictions to prevent the erection of unsightly structures.

It is anticipated that such an organization will be formed in Carroll County in the very near future. The fact that this type of control does work and has been successful in neighboring counties, lends encouragement to those who believe that something should be done to prevent our highways from developing into eyesores.

Sincerely, STANFORD HOFF

Ventilation in Barns
 Ventilation is one of the most important factors in successful farming, agricultural specialists emphasize. They point out that dairy barn ventilating fans, operated by motors of a quarter or a half horsepower, should have a capacity of 60 cubic feet per minute per animal, and that there should be one fresh air intake for every four cows. Recommended for poultry houses are fans, powered by 1-40 to 1-20 horsepower motors, with a capacity of 75 to 100 cubic feet per 100 birds housed.

When to Pick Strawberries
 Strawberries which ripen on the plant have finer flavor and more vitamin C than those picked green and allowed to ripen afterward. Berries picked when half red and held for two days until fully red increased, successive tests showed, in vitamin C but did not increase as much as those ripened on the plant. The light and sunshine of the last week before harvesting berries is most important for the production of Vitamin C in the fruit.

Our Friend, the Elephant
 Elephants, rarely born in captivity, come from Asia or Africa. They are usually strangers to peanuts until they reach America's shores. They swallow water not through their trunks but by sucking it part way through, then squirting it into their mouths. Insects drive them nearly crazy in hot weather, despite the fact that shaving their hides with a blow-torch merely tickles them.

Uncle Sam Says

The smart man knows that the only way to protect his family and himself is with a safe, systematic plan of saving. U. S. Savings Bonds provide the safety and the Payroll Savings Plan or the Bond-a-Month Plan is the systematic way. No one can provide security for the future by free-spending. You can face the future with confidence, however, by investing a part of today's earnings in Savings Bonds. That is the intelligent way. And you have the choice of two convenient plans of purchase, the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or, if self-employed, the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank. U.S. Treasury Department

IN A COUNTRY THAT WAS TO DEDICATE ITSELF TO FREEDOM, IT IS SIGNIFICANT THAT THE FIRST PIECE OF PRINTING IN AMERICA WAS THE "FREEMAN'S OATH" — A BROADSIDE ISSUED BY STEPHEN DAY, PRINTER, IN 1639.

NEW POLIO TECHNIQUE

In addition to providing medical care for victims of polio, March of Dimes funds are used for infantile paralysis research, which has developed a new technique for treating bulbar polio, most fatal form of the disease. Part of the technique involves cutting an opening into the windpipe and inserting a tube to enable the patient to breathe more easily. Here, Nurse Dorothy Gatson prepares to clear the tube in the neck of six-year-old Johnny Morgan, a bulbar patient in Greensboro, N. C.

This is a diesel ... a modern locomotive that means better service to you.

Leaders of two unions think it's a feather-bed ... a "make work" grab that means less service to you.

Leaders of unions representing railroad engineers and firemen seek to force railroads to add extra, needless men on diesel locomotives. This is sheer waste — a "make-work" program which would mean fewer improvements and higher costs — for YOU!

Railroads use modern diesel locomotives because they are one of the means of giving faster, better service to you.

Two men compose the crew of a diesel. They occupy a clean, comfortable cab at the front. The engineer handles the throttle. The fireman sits and watches the track ahead. With no coal to shovel, he has practically nothing else to do.

No Benefit To You

Now the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen want to use the diesel locomotive as a means of forcing a feather-bedding scheme on the railroads. The extra men they propose to add to the diesel crews are not needed. There is no work for them.

The union leaders are fighting among themselves about which union should furnish these extra, needless men. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers have even threatened a strike. You may not be interested in this dispute of these two unions, but you would be vitally concerned if these groups succeed in putting through this feather-bedding scheme, because it would mean a slowing up of the improvement program of the railroads — of which the diesel is the outstanding symbol. Diesel crews are among the highest paid railroad employees — real aristocrats of labor! Their pay is high by any standard. Granting of these demands, therefore, would mean that the railroads would be paying out millions in unearned wages to those in the very highest pay brackets.

We'd Like To Spend This Money On You

You know how much the diesel has meant to you in increased speed, comfort and convenience. The railroads have many more of them on order for even greater improvement in service to you. But needless drains of money, such as this present demand of the unions for needless men on diesels, reduce the ability of the railroads to spend money on better service for you.

Proud as the railroads are of the diesel, it is only a small part of their improvement program. Since the War, literally billions of dollars have been spent on improvement of tracks and stations, on new passenger and freight cars, as well as on diesel locomotives, and on the many other less conspicuous details of railroading that contribute to improved service.

Feather-Bedding Means Less Service To You

But brazen feather-bedding schemes like the one now proposed would, if successful, divert large sums of money from our present improvement programs. Even worse, they make improvements like the diesel worthless, by making the cost of their operation prohibitive.

These demands are against YOUR interests — as well as those of the railroads. They are schemes to "make work". Neither you nor the railroads should be forced to pay such a penalty for progress.

That's why the railroads are resisting these "make work" demands to the last ditch — and why they are telling you about them.

Teaching Religion

Lesson for February 6, 1949

SOME PEOPLE, strange to say, don't believe in Sunday schools. Most North American Protestants do, because Jesus did. The word may not be found in the New Testament, but the thing is there. If Jesus did not believe that religion could be taught, then he was guilty of wasting much of his time, for he worked at teaching in season and out of season. He was a product of the Sunday school, in a sense. During his childhood he would go to the synagogue school week days and especially on Sabbaths; we know that by the time he was grown it was his "custom" to attend synagogue services.

Dr. Foreman

And in every Jewish community the synagogue was the place where for two hundred years and more, children and youth and older people had been taught the Word of God.

If Christians today are faithful to Christ's example, we also will keep at the job of teaching our religion to every child within our reach.

Body and Soul
READERS of the gospels will note that when Jesus went home from the synagogue on the Sabbath, his day's work was not done. He would spend hours, sometimes till far into the night, healing people brought to him for cure. Jesus ministered to mind and soul. Jesus was interested in personalities, whole people, not half-people. Our minds have to be fed, but we live in bodies, and bodies have no little to do with personalities. Jesus was not content with teaching sick people; he made sick people well. So the church today, if it is faithful to Christ's principles, will consider people as complete personalities.

The Common People
WE FIND that Jesus did not insist on university audiences. Indeed, he never spoke to a university audience. There were great universities in those days, but it was not necessary for any one to be a graduate of one of them in order to enter Jesus' school, or to understand what he taught. He taught the plain people plainly. Again the church of today takes a leaf out of Jesus' book. Most of our Sunday schools, for instance, have graded lessons; the little tots do not study from the same quarterlies the grown people use.

In all our teachings we try to use the pupil's language and to put our Christian ideas in the thoughts that the pupils can understand.

At the best seminaries, young ministers-to-be are carefully taught how to put the great Christian doctrines in ways that the simplest over people's heads is not teaching.

God and Education
JESUS did not try to teach people carpentry, or arithmetic, or geography. No doubt he could have done so. But he had something more important on his mind, something which he alone could teach. He taught religion, or in other words he taught the truth about God, and about man, and about right relations between God and man. So the teaching church, whether in the Sunday school or in the books written by its scholars or in its schools and colleges, when it follows Christ's example, is always teaching religion first and foremost. We do not believe that religion is a secondary issue, something you can "take or leave."

Religion On Two Feet
JESUS did more than talk. He lived. His whole life and character were saying more loudly and plainly what his words said.

So the Christian church today, when it is faithful to Christ, must translate into actual living the faith she teaches in Sunday school lessons, in catechisms and books and sermons.

What we do, as Christians, speaks louder than what we say. Every Sunday school teacher needs to remember that what is said on Sunday is important, but what the teacher does on Monday is more impressive by far. The reason why Jesus was more effective than John the Baptist was that John, after all, was a Voice, while Jesus was a Friend.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA

Dear friends in Taneytown,
We left Jan. 6th, came down thru Va., thru Roanoke and stayed over night in Dublin. We slept in a high George Washington canopy bed, reminding us of Mt. Vernon. On the floor were large Hereford cattle rugs. This is a cattle section. Thru Tenn. stayed one night in Chattanooga. That state requires no drivers license and seems to have no speed limit. Was like a race track in the residential section where we stayed. We left next a. m., very foggy there but soon drove out of it. Thru Atlanta, on to Thomasville, Ga. where we spent the week-end in a mansion with high rooms. We were entertained by the fire place in the living room by the hostess, real Southern hospitality. Saw many lovely roses in bloom here. An annual rose show is held here in April. This is a wealthy city. Thru this state we saw cotton growing and many textile mills where they make chenille bed spreads, etc. We came through much waste country. We looked for peach trees where our early peaches come from. The leaves are off the trees now.

Our next stop was St. Petersburg, Fla., the Sunshine City, Population 60,800 where we found a place to stay; but finally found an apartment out from the busy part.

We call it a cottage. We have tall palm trees in our yard, double red poinsettias also white on one side. Beautiful flame vine brazilian pepper or Florida holly and others, a few yards from us are bananas with fruit on grapefruit, oranges, pineapple, papayas and other fruit.

We had strawberries with Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle, (who owns it) from their garden. They must plant them every year.

Mervin goes fishing with Mr. Loyd from Chicago. Their catch has been whitties, sheep head and red snappers and others.

There are many fine beaches here. We have been out on the million dollar pier over Tampa bay. There are many amusements also Radio Station WSUN there.

There are churches of all denominations here. Concerts in the park. Good store. A remarkable one Webbs City covers several blocks of 47 departments has an annex over a St. where the florist store is. You could spend a day in the different departments and get your food in the Cafeteria. Their success is due to having their own parking lots.

On Inauguration day we went to Bok Tower 92 miles from here. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mohler, from Rochester, N. Y., went with us.

Through Tampa City limits thru Plant City Lakeland and Winter Haven where you see many citrus fruit packing houses, Mt. Lake Singing Tower is located at the highest point in Florida 205 feet high, built of Florida rock and Georgia granite. The carrillon with 71 bells said to be one of the finest ever cast. The recital lasts three quarters of an hour. There is a golden door at the front not open to the public.

Surrounding it are tall palm trees, a lake and many fine birds. Along the walks ten thousand white pink and red azaleas bloom, orchids, camellias, white cala lilies and many other flowers, many of these have been imported from Islands.

It makes you think of the garden of Eden or a dream. Erected by Edward Bok to carry out the injunction, "Make you the world a bit better or more beautiful because you have lived in it."

Another enchanting place to see is Treasure Island along the gulf over the causeway to Bassagrille Beach, two fishing piers also deep sea fishing.

On Thursday we visited Pinellas Co. Fair at Largo, lots of poultry and stock exhibit, of course lots of citrus fruits and vegetables, no harness races, three to five gaited horse shows, the main attraction.

Temperature ranges from 78 to 82 degrees, hot every day. It is too soon to know if climate will benefit Mervin. It is very dry. They must water every day. We will be here until Feb. 14, then we will try to see more of Florida if we can. People here at St. Petersburg say we will come back here. Bye now.

MR. & MRS. MERVIN WANTZ.

RATHER WISE

All neatly, inconspicuous set
Upon a dense thicket hill,
Men hurriedly set their traps;
For animals, this isn't a thrill.

Now animals aren't so stupid as you think,
They knew nature didn't disguise
Traps with brown tinted leaves;
They're smart, they're rather wise.

Now it makes it rather inconvenient
For a trap to be setting at your door;
Not just one rusty trap
But probably three or four.

But their instinct told them
To stay indoors for a day or two,
Or make another hole
Which they could go out through.

Then for Mr. Intelligent Man
This would be rather a surprise;
He would get tired of looking
At empty traps he tried to disguise.

And soon all animals wouldn't have
To be scared to their wits end;
Mr. Man would take up his traps
And their troubles would be to an end.

CATHARINE KEILHOLTZ.

HO, HO—THE WEATHER MAN

Ho, ho, the weather man—
He sure does have a sloppy plan;
In June he starts with April showers
Since then they've come at regular hours—
Each week, each blessed day.

How can the farmer make his hay,
Or hope to store his grain away?
Say, Weather man, please change
your plan,
And give us clear skies if you can.

Dog days will soon be here,
And picnic days will soon appear,
So pray, good weather man, lets hear
You've ordered weather that is clear.

W. J. H. 7-16-41.

CARROLL COUNTY MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

Pastoral psychiatry will be the subject of the Reverend Ernest E. Bruder, Protestant Chaplain, St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, D. C., at the monthly luncheon meeting of the Carroll County Ministerial Association which will be held Wednesday, Feb. 9, in the Church of the Brethren, Westminster. Chaplain Bruder, who is an ordained clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal Church, has had experience in the parish ministry as well as a wider experience and training in institutional work. He will speak on "Insights from Psychiatry, which can be of help to the Pastor."

In order to cooperate with the speaker, the business session will be held first—11:30 sharp, with Rev. Arthur C. Day, presiding. The luncheon will be served by the ladies of the hostess church at 12 noon when the speaker arrives. A discussion period will follow the speaker's discourse. Every minister in the county is invited to take advantage of this opportunity. However, please send a postal requesting luncheon reservations immediately to Rev. Harold Z. Bomberger, Park Place, Westminster, Md.

CARD OF THANKS

The Taneytown Recreation Association wishes to take this means of expressing their gratitude to all who contributed, so graciously of their time and effort, to the success of the turkey dinner which was served at the Fireman's Building, last Saturday. Without the splendid cooperation of the persons who prepared and served, and the public in general who patronized our dinner this project could not have been a success.

Those of our friends who haven't already taken advantage of our checking account facilities are cordially invited to drop in and talk the matter over.
