LIONS CLUB NEWS

The fifth anniversary, on October 24, of the founding of the United Nations was observed by Taneytown Lions at their regular meeting Tuesday in Taney Inn. A stirring address by S. Raymond Dunn, native Carroll County, featured the club session presided over by Robert W. Feeser, president. United Nations committee chairman, John M. Hoagland presented the speaker who was also heard by a fine large delegation of Pennsylvania Lions from Gettysburg led by President Lippy.

Eschewing mere histrionics, Mr. Dunn sought to impress his listeners with the importance of habit in a program for developing a United Nations loyalty. No speech is valuable unless it leads to action, and simple habit-forming actions building up the idea of belonging to the United Nations are the most effective means. For example, display of the U. N. flag in classrooms and public buildings and in homes, a daily pledge of allegiance to the U. N. flag by school children in all the United Nations; prayers for it, a holiday celebrated for it; the naming of streets for its heroes are each small but cumulatively impressive means for realizing that ideal of supra-nationality which is the heart of collective security.

The individual American colonies once vied with one another in occasionally bitter strife, but in time they submerged their nationality in a federal union. Why can not a federation of the world eventually come from the first stirrings of these United Nations, who even now are pooling their forces in joint endeavor. Token now, some day they may be the battle ranks of one world, if indeed by that day they need be any but police in a universal community.

Secretary of the club, Don R. Webb reported a neat sum realized from the turkey supper Saturday ably superintended by Norman R. Sauble and his committee of Lions and their wives.

Chairman Kermit B. Reid urged members to dispose of their Amateur night tickets. The third annual Amateur Night will be presented Thursday, November 9th, in the Taneytown High school, with prizes ranging from $15 down to $2.50 being offered, plus consolation prizes for all others who enter. Applicants may get in touch with Mr. Reid at Box 323 or telephone Taneytown 4804 to register their acts.

The attendance committee of Chas. W. Eckard, chairman, John O. Garner and Carroll L. Wantz will be in charge of the club when it again convenes Tuesday, Nov. 14th. Visitation of other clubs is proceeding at a satisfactory rate, and so far a consistent 100% attendance record has been mentioned in regular meetings. Lions were pleased to have Lion Ted Jester, now with the armed forces, visit on the night of the turkey supper.

GUN CLUB HONORED

Mr. Howell Royer said that if Mrs. Yingling would buy them he would pay the bill.

It was agreed that the PTA would supply the money to furnish a health room for the school. The executive committee is to arrange the raising of the necessary funds. When one member asked why the magazine campaign money could not be used for the health room, Mrs. Shipley said that out of $2684.70 gross receipts for the magazines, we netted only about $500 which was generally spent for library books, etc.

A school student council under the direction of Miss Case is being organized and will begin operation in November. All grades will be represented on the council and members will have charge of various school projects.

PROGRAM FOR HALLOWE'EN

Parade and Block Party will be Held Monday Evening, Oct. 30

Halloween in Taneytown is becoming bigger and better each year. We started out with just a party for the kiddies a few years ago, and that set us wondering if we weren't being a bit selfish in leaving the older girls and boys and adults out of it. Then last year we had a parade, block party and dance, which was quite a success, so the same thing is going to happen this year.

The parade, block party and dance will be held Monday night October 30, with the parade starting at 7 p. m. There will be the usual Halloween prizes for the participants in the parade, such as most comical, best dressed, most original, etc. We want everyone to dress up and get in the parade. All organizations and business firms in town are urged to enter a float, for which there will also be prizes.

Don't forget that after the parade comes the big dance and block party on York Street. There will be round and square dancing for everyone, and plenty of refreshments, so come out and get the real Halloween spirit.

KIDDIES' PARTY

On Wednesday evening at 7 p. m. the annual kiddies' party will be held in the Opera House. As in the past all kiddies up to and including 10 years of age are invited. All children should come dressed in costume so they can compete for the prizes. There will be prizes for the most original, youngest boy in costume, youngest girl in costume, funniest, etc. Don't forget the date, parents, it is Wednesday, November 1, at 7 p. m. in the Opera House. Refreshments will be served and games played to make this an enjoyable affair. So, parents bring your "pride and joy" and come out to our big party.

We want the people of Taneytown and vicinity to be sure and be on hand for the parade, block party and dance on Monday, October 30, and bring your children to the Kiddies' Party on Wednesday, Nov. 1st. Let's make this the biggest and best Halloween party Taneytown has ever had!

HALLOWE'EN PARTY AT TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

The Young Peoples Department of the Sunday School held its Halloween party on Tuesday evening with approximately 120 present. Everyone received a fortune upon entering the room decorated with foder, autumn leaves, and Jack o'lanterns. Everyone shook hands with their neighbors and if they didn't know each other made themselves acquainted, after which all of those in costumes formed a circle in the center of the room so the judges could pick the winners. The winners were: Adult—Harry Dougherty, Jr.; Children—Sandra Lee Shorb and Nancy Stine.

A lot of entertainment was furnished by several contestants trying to eat doughnuts off of a string. George Naylor, Jr. was the first to master his. Then a book walk relay was won by the boys and a feather carrying contest was won by the men. However, the women finally came through when Mrs. Stahl won a contest tearing a pumpkin face out back of her back.

The lights went out and Pastor Stahl told a "hair-raising" story of a haunted house boat. The story was made even more real by use of sound effects.

Glenn Bollinger won the prize for guessing the nearest to the number of grains of corn in a jar.

Some of the younger members dunked for apples and found lucky number pumpkin faces while the refreshment committee put the finishing touches on delicious refreshments consisting of cider, ginger bread with whipped cream, potato chips, candy corn and an apple.

Everyone enjoyed the fun and fellowship of the evening.

The committees were: Decoration—Members of Mr. Carroll Hess' and Mr. Norman Baumgardner's S. S. Classes. ## THIS 'N' THAT (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

It is nice to know that a local contractor built our elementary school. He made a grand job of it. It was sweet to see all the kiddies at lunch in the cafeteria eating the well balanced meal. The wise part, too, which went over big with Your Observer was the part, "you must eat all your lunch before you are served the ice cream." Best wishes to the manager.

Calling the State Roads! The 71 highway out toward Keymar is wider than from Taneytown to that part. Yes the heavy traffic especially week ends would appreciate it all to be uniform as at times cars are passing three abreast. The Francis Scott Key property along this highway and also to Frederick to the Barbara Fritchie home draws the public. And besides we should be proud of those facts.

Al Ross of WBAL surely is the "human clock" on school mornings and especially when the electric current has been off. That reminds me that Galen Fromme announced that eggs would be down to twenty cents a dozen by Christmas. That's a laugh! A bus driver going to Baltimore stated he firmly believes that those recent Sunday smokes from Canada had something to do with our Government. Going down the road that morning saw a sign printed on a bird house outside of a farm "The Boyd's Live Here." Cute?

Another cherub arrived out the 71 highway—Mr. Stork stopping at the perfect German family and leaving the bundle right there. It's a boy. And they say that one of our nice doctors around our town brought that entire family to see the light of day.

In Hanover there is a man who makes pottery in all shapes and sizes and his artistic wife decorates them beautifully. Some of the most beautiful pieces I have ever seen.

If you really want to discover the "Fountain of Youth" don't overeat. You have heard people say, "Well, I'll eat if it kills me." That is really cheapening life. Don't live to eat but put that in reverse and eat to live. A first cousin of Your Observer went on a 57 day diet of orange juice and is a well person today. They say that overeating is a bigger killer of older folks than the awful perils of alcohol.

That serious faced butcher "on the square" in that nice big immaculate grocery store is not a bit like the song, "He isn't much in a crowd but when you get him alone." He is surely fun in a crowd and especially on those Amateur nights. Attend one of those evenings and you will soon see for yourself. He will amaze you as he did Your Observer.

My readers will smile when they read I gave old Lincoln an affectionate pat, "Goodbye." Felt toward that (Continued on Fifth Page)

WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE ON NOV. 7th!!

The coming election, on Tuesday, November 7, is one of the most important in the history of the State of Maryland. It is not only important to our Government, but to every individual in this state and country. We the people of Maryland, will have the opportunity to vote for, or against communism! S. or the State of Maryland by revolution, force or violence. Therefore, you are urged to go out to the poles, vote for the candidates of your choice, and vote FOR the OBER LAW. If you have no transportation to the poles on that day, if you will dial 3871 which is the Legion Home in Taneytown, a legionnaire will call for you, take you to vote, and return you to your home at no charge. This article is one of the many items that the Taneytown Kiwanis Club is doing towards the building up of a big election in Taneytown and is its interest in seeing the Ober Law a victory.

FATHER CAREY

Father Carey was a missionary to India a century ago. He worked with his hands for his living week days, and preached the gospel on Sundays.

One time he was asked what was his business. His answer was, my business is serving God, I make my living mending shoes. Few of us, it is feared take such same view of life as sainted father Carey did. The battle is already raging, Satan and the Lord are in deadly conflict thru the instrumentality of mankind. It is to be feared that the anti-christ in the person of Stalin is already here, and if so Armageddon is not as far off as many of us suppose it to be.

TIME FLIES

The wheels roll on rubber tire
Wood piled in heaps will increase the fire
Brooks flowing down o'er the mountain side
Eventually end in the ocean tide
Life starts its race with the infant
Ends it at length in the foot ball cheer
So we move on somber and slow
Watching our step in the path where we go
Much to wonder at much to fear
Life is to all of us each one quite dear
What will the end be, tis not quite clear
Each of us hold that life is quite dear
Some seem so weary, the road is so long
Others are buoyant and happy and strong
Why should we worry if time seems long
It will go fast as the March winds blow
In our childhood how times crept along
Slow was its march, the days seemed so long
Now near the end time swiftly does glide
Scarce is it spring till in autumn we glide
But at the end the fear must come
Both to the old as well as the young
But near the end I feel its sublime
For I have had just a bully time.

AYRSHIRES POPULAR IN CARROLL COUNTY

According to the Ayrshire Breeders' Association Executive Secretary, C. T. Conklin, of Brandon, Vt., Carroll County, Maryland, ranks among the top 50 counties in the nation in numbers of Ayrshire dairy cattle registered during the first half of the year.

Owners of purebred Ayrshires register their cattle with the National office of the Ayrshire Breeders' Association in Brandon where complete records on the breed in the United States have been maintained for three quarters of a century. The popularity of the Ayrshire breed of dairy cattle in the country, and throughout the country as well, is due in no small way to their ability to produce economically at a high level with an average butterfat test of 4%.

FEESERSBURG

It seems to me the leaves are more reluctant than usual to leave the trees this year. As if they knew their little day was done, never to return. As we all must know it one day, believing that the empty places will all be filled—better, maybe. But anyway, filled. Driving through the countryside, these October days—and we do our share of this, we are amazed at the honeysuckle in bloom. It doesn't have the same heavy fragrance of June honeysuckle, but nevertheless it is one of nature's delightful surprises to find it at all in October. This fall has been especially kind to all flowers. Every house one passes has its flower beds and whether they contain asters, zinnias, marigold, scarlet sage or dahlias, they are a sight to behold. Deep reds, bright yellows and salmon pink are colors to catch any eye. Nature seems to flaunt her beauty this fall in a very frank and reckless way, but a delight to the human eye.

The supper put on by the members of the Keysville Lutheran church, Saturday evening proved quite a success. The ladies sold 367 suppers. There were several other suppers in the community the same night and they too came out successfully. It seems to be an American custom to like to eat out on Saturday night, which is a very fine custom. For while one is enjoying good food, one is also helping to support a church or some worthwhile civic group.

Visitors of the Merkle Wilhite Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Seeger, of Frederick, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas and children.

Mrs. Cleon Wolfe represented the Missionary Society of the Mt. Union church at the convention held in Hagerstown, on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. Besides obtaining valuable instruction and ideas on missionary work, Mrs. Wolfe renewed some old friendships with representatives from other societies which she had made some years ago.

Mrs. Truman Myers, chairman of the Children's Aid drive of the Union Bridge district reports that contributions have been generous and she is most pleased with the public's interest. Each contributor should feel pleased too, that by or she held out a helping hand to some neglected or needy child. If there is anything worth saving in this maladjusted world today its the children—both our own and our neighbors.

Our community has been suddenly struck by that much dreaded disease—polio. The word itself strikes terror in the heart of all parents, but one cannot allow this fear to give way to panic. While medical research has not yet discovered the source of this disease, much has been learned in how to treat it. Over half the patients recover with no lasting paralysis and three out of ten with only a slight paralysis. The one hope is that some time in the near future medical science will find out where the germ causing polio comes from and thereby find the means of preventing it. Until that time comes, parents must use sensible precautions, keep calm and support the "March of Dimes" campaign. It is through the money raised in this campaign that research is carried on.

Miss Betty Hu, Chinese Missionary will be the guest of honor of the Missionary Society at the Keysville Lutheran church, November 5th. Miss Hu is Superintendent of Bethel Missions of China and a very interesting speaker. The public is invited to attend this meeting.

Miss Sylvia Roelke, Union Bridge, along with her horse Rusty and dog Rex, spent Saturday with her cousin, Nancy Roelke, at Merry Knoll.

Folks eat apple griddle cakes with maple syrup and butter as they hadn't had anything to eat since they were weaned. Make a good usual griddlecake batter and at last mix in a cup of tart apples chopped very fine. Bake on the griddle and serve hot, one by one as they come. The ideal way to eat griddlecakes is to lure the cook to the stove, arm her with a pitcher of batter, facing a hot griddle, and start talking. This means eating in the kitchen. As she flips from griddle to plate, help yourself to bacon or sausage and coffee. But let the cook be. Sounds tempting doesn't it?

The supper committee for the coming P. T. A. supper on Nov. 6 met at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Jos. Coshun, Tuesday evening, to work out the menu and other plans. At present the Scouts are making very attractive molds of different designs which will be on display in the near future.

The only war I ever approved of was the Trojan War; it was fought over a woman and the men knew what they were fighting for.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Roelke and daughter, Nancy, spent Sunday in Brunswick, visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Dintaman, parents of Mrs. Roelke.

David Buffington spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Venzie, Jr., in Philadelphia.

Our dog Mitzie woke up this morning (Tuesday) with her persistent barking. After investigating we found she was protesting the migration of the geese going South, as there was a large formation flying over. As it was dark one could only guess at their number by the honk honking they made.

The ladies of Mt. Union church will hold their annual supper November 4th in the Parish Hall. As usual the public can expect a delightful meal. Mrs. Ralph Bair is chairman of the supper committee.

It really doesn't make a lot of difference how many women there are in the neighborhood who start gossip, as long as there's just one woman who stops it.

HARNEY

Don't forget the Harney P. T. A. meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 1, 1950. The members of St. James Reformed church along Harney-Littlestown road will hold a turkey dinner, November 4. Start serving 3:30 and thereafter. Don't forget this supper and bring your friends for a good social time not to say anything about what they will serve. Just plan to go and you won't leave hungry.

THIS 'N' THAT

Ladies, you can make an old, dark closet actually glamorous by having it either painted or papered in white. Place shelves to your convenience and purchase gayly flowered zipper garment bags, shoe bags, sets of quilted plastic covered hangers, transparent hat boxes, hat stands and triple shoe valets. Place a harmonizing edging on each shelf edge and if there is very little light, have installed an electric light which lights as you open the door.

When in Baltimore and you desire to dine, try the Oriole Cafeteria on Howard Street. That food will please you as it is just "exactly like Mother's cooking".

There is a nice young father of three daughters over at Middleburg who formally resided in Westminster for seventeen years. When he returned from overseas he purchased a car from a lady (36 Chevy) who had bought a Buick. On "Westminster Nights" Your Observer made the special trip down that way and sat on the running board of this car and sent a message by Mental Telepathy to my minister to drive along that road instead of the back road which is always the one he uses when traffic is heavy. In about an hour along came the car and this is what he said, "Well, I saw the waiting for message not to go up my usual way but to drive up this way instead."

There is a stamp out now that came on the back of a letter from Florida the other day which was very colorful and written across it was, "Be Thankful that you can See!" That made me think of "Liggett's" Drug Store in Hanover last week. The noon hour was jammed in the popular drug store where Your Observer enjoys the very special food which those ladies prepare. As I looked around for a single seat noticed there was a table in the extreme front with only one individual seated with the three vacant chairs. The mob was standing to the front door. I wedged my way over in between the crowd and sat down. The person seated at this table was a very young man with a handsome face (dark complexion) with unusually heavy set eye brows. He had just finished his meal and sat enjoying his cigarette and I noticed he kept his head lowered. The familiar lady came to take my order and when the young man heard my voice, he straightened up suddenly and appeared most attentive. As he raised his head I was shocked to see that he was totally blind! My heart stood still! Never had I a desire to talk to anyone as I did this fine young man.

Words failed me! When I was about finished my lunch, he arose and I was surprised to see one of those wonderful "Eyinge Dogs" come out from underneath the table and lead his young blind Master to the front door and then to the street.

So long, Folks. Be good and be careful and have a grand week-end. Thinking of the words on that colorful stamp, "Be Thankful that you can See." Will be seeing you. Until next week. DV, I am.

Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

LIFE'S TIDES

I do not know the future,
I cannot tell the past;
I place myself in the hands of God,
who
Watches and reigns over all.

Contrary to the will of God
The rooster goes on his way,
And sooner or later he learns
That sin and crime don't pay.

Old Sol peeps into the room
And opens sleepy eyes,
Then stealthily he moves on
Across the azure skies.

"No man for me," the spinster said,
With a shrug of her shoulders and a twist of her head;
But down in her heart was a sigh
quite plain;
I would like to have one just the same.

G. H. ENFIELD.

TANEYTOWN KEY CLUB AWAITS
CHARTER

Nineteen young men of the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades of the Taneytown High School were in attendance at the regularly scheduled Kiwanis Club meeting held at Taney Inn on Wednesday, October 18th.

The meeting was opened as usual by President Lewis Crumacker with Kiwanian Raymond Wright giving the invocation. The future charter members of the proposed Taneytown Key Club which is to be sponsored by the Local Kiwanis Club. In attendance were: Calvin MacLachlan, Robert D. Boone, Arthur W. Garvin, Jr., Robert Waddell, James Fream, Stuart C. Peterson, Kenneth Morelock, Harold E. Stutphin, Andrew D. Alexander, Fred E. Clingan, Philip R. Lawry, Marlin L. Rittase, Calvin L. Amoss, George L. Hughes, Leonard J. Singel, Harry Dougherty, Robert B. Peterson, Nevin M. Ohler, Belmont Koons. Other guests in attendance were Kiwanians Paul Kuhns, Erman Shoemaker and Walter Grumblin, all of whom are members of the Westminster Kiwanis Club.

The meeting for the evening was in charge of the Key Club Committee of which Kiwanian George Shower is chairman. However, due to the fact that Kiwanian Shower was not sure that he could be present on time the program for the evening was conducted by honorary member and acting secretary, Miles S. Reifsnnyder.

Kiwanian Reifsnnyder introduced Lieutenant Governor J. Vernon Coblenz who congratulated the Taneytown Kiwanis Club on their fine performance thus far during 1950, particularly in reference to the Key Club which is being organized.

Kiwanian Coblenz introduced fellow member of the Frederick Kiwanis Club, Kiwanian Anders, who is the sheriff of Frederick county. Kiwanian Anders spoke on the subject of citizenship. He stated with considerable vim and vigor that to be a citizen in this day and age requires a clear conscience, a great deal of sacrifice and an unusual amount of courage. He urged each member present to accept their citizenship seriously stating that our system of Democracy and the things for which it stand are at present in great peril. He cited that the forefathers of our great country were inspired men of God for in establishing our form of government they considered human shortcomings and placed the legislative branch first, the executive second and the judicial (the balancing division) third. Thus we have an trium form of government with the legislative or representative branch in a position to conduct the affairs of this great country of ours. He cited, however, that with events as they are developing at present in Washington, the executive branch of our government is more and more being placed ahead of the legislative branch which brings our form of democracy closer to the dictatorships about which we hear much in countries other than ours. Kiwanian Anders urged all present to accept their share in the responsibility of conducting the affairs of this country of ours and that on all occasions to exercise their franchise not only in this coming election but in all elections of the future.

What's Your Intake?

Lesson for October 29, 1950

FEW PEOPLE would care for a diet of sawdust, mixed with old bacon rinds and with carbolic acid for a drink. Yet some people who are very careful of what goes into their stomachs are astonishingly careless about the intake of their minds.

What goes into your mind counts for more, and lasts longer, than what goes into your mouth. What you eat can kill you—your body, that is; but what you think, what you read, what you hear, can kill your mind. It can even kill your soul. You can afford to be particular. Down at the Cracked Cup Cafe they give you no choice. If you don't like the 50c dinner you can walk out; and if you are at all particular you will walk out. But at the best restaurants you are offered a wide choice, and the experienced diner-out will read the menu carefully before ordering.

Are you a Christian? Then don't feed your mind at the mental equivalent of the Cracked Cup Cafe. Go to a better spot. The beauty of food for the mind is that the best costs no more. The best foods for the table are rather expensive; the best mind-foods, soul-foods, are not.

Ear-Gate

WHAT you listen to, good for your mind? What's your intake, by ear? A woman who had roomed in another woman's house for some time was looking for a new place. Her old room was inexpensive, sunny, convenient, clean; there was nothing wrong with the room. But she had to listen to the landlady every day, and from her she never heard good of any one.

"If I stay there any longer I shall go crazy," the roomer confided to a friend. "She'll get me to thinking the way she does, and she thinks everybody's a crook."

In Tennyson's "Idyls of the King" is that fine rule of the Round Table: "To speak no slander—no, nor listen to it..." Listening to slander, trash, mean and malicious gossip, day after day, is bound to have a serious effect on any one's mind.

Eye-Gate

THE STRANGE thing is that Christians can be seen taking the greatest of pains picking out the right food for their dogs and cats, and yet never exercising the least choice in what comes into their minds by ear or eye. They will let the radio run on hour after hour, they look at whatever the television puts on the screen—the dirty with the clean, the trash with the jewels (if any). They read the newspapers from front to back, or vice versa, they read all the comics whether they are amusing or not. But when it comes to picking out something good for their minds, really going to the trouble of selection, and paying out folding money for it, how many, even Christian people, will do it?

It would be interesting to compare what most people spend on quite unnecessary stuff like soft drinks and cigarettes, with what they spend for books in a year's time. Would you like to sit down with a great and good man or woman and let him talk to you by the hour, to give you the best of his mind and heart? It can always be done—with a good book. Not, usually, the best sellers!

An intelligent Christian woman recently had to move almost a thousand miles; when you move that far and have to pay by the pound for what you take, you screen your stuff pretty carefully. "I am throwing away all my best sellers," she said. "There's not a one worth wasting freight on." She was right about most best-sellers. But the old-time, long-time, all-time best seller of them all is the Christian Bible.

Is Your Mind a Vacant Lot?

IT IS MORE than a question of what you read and see and hear. An even more serious question is: What do you think about? Good reading, even the Bible, was never meant to be a substitute for thought. One of the great books of ancient times was "Consolations of Philosophy," written by a man in jail without a book in his cell. But the fine books he had read were in his head and heart, and when he became a political prisoner, alone and poor and friendless, his mind was still a garden. What is your mind—a garden, or a desert, or only a vacant lot littered with junk?

4-H CLUB NEWS

The Taneytown Agriculture 4-H Club met at the club house, October 13, at 8 P. M., for its monthly meeting.

We opened our program with a film shown by our Assistant County Agent, Mr. Schabinger. Calvin Amoss then gave a talk on "How to Break a Steer."

The business meeting was opened with our 4-H pledge, and the roll-call was answered by each member naming a county official. Twenty-three members were present, with two new members and one visitor.

In our old business we made plans for a square dance, which will be held at the Taneytown High school on Nov. 18, from 8 P. M. until 11 P. M. Four club members volunteered to make posters and distribute them to advertise our square dance. The 4-H Senior council of Carroll county will be in charge. Also a committee was appointed for our refreshment stand.

In our new business, Robert Flickinger was elected to give a talk on the slides made of our club members and their projects at the annual club banquet, which will be held at Gamber on Nov. 9, 1950.

The week of Nov. 5 to Nov. 11th has been set aside for National 4-H achievement week.

There will also be poultry meeting Oct. 26th.

Our meeting was adjourned by singing songs and refreshments were served.

"THE WHIZ KIDS"

The hilarious 3-act comedy, "The Whiz Kids" will be presented next Thursday and Friday evenings in the Taneytown High school auditorium, at 8 P. M. by the Christian Endeavor Society of Grace Reformed church. Many hours of preparation have taken place, and without a doubt, this is one thing that none of us can afford to miss. Archer Kingsley, a handsome Bachelor, played by George Motter, inherits a gloomy old mansion from an eccentric relative; along with it, the total of 5 cents and a family which he feels he must support including a pair of thirteen year old twins played by Betty Byrd and George Hughes. In playing the Cupid for Archer, they tangle up things and get his boss and lady friend mixed, who end up being rivals. These parts are played by Mrs. George Rue and LaReina Fream. Wilbur Thomas takes the screaming part of LaReina's lispng son. And to really make the play worth your while, David Reifsnider and Mrs. William Airing blacken themselves as the negro servants who are scared out of their wits by the Whiz Kids. Ruth Stambaugh is the English housekeeper who is supposed to be so good at singing, but what it really amounts to is a lot of howling!! So, don't miss seeing "The Whiz Kids" and get in your share of howling.

Garden crops of dry beans, peace, onion, squash, pumpkin, and sweet potatoes should be stored in a cool, dry place.

A "CHECK" on the Harvest

Both the check and the harvest represent pretty much the same thing:—security during the long months when money has to be paid out and little comes in.

A farmer can maintain a pretty good "check" on himself when he pays by check. He knows what he has and how he spends it when he maintains a checking account. He has an automatic record of payment and an automatic receipt.

And checking accounts build credit for seasonal needs.
