The Boy Scout Movement is an important effort toward the molding of the citizenship of tomorrow and holds an important part in the activities of any community. We of Taneytown can be proud that we have made such a contribution to this worthwhile project. The general slogan for scouting this year is "Strength Liberty." The newly organized student council has elected the following officers for the school year: President, James Wolfe; Vice-President, Norma Bloom; Sec'y, Edith Baumgardner; Treas., Lamar Ausherman. The first project begun by the council was the organization of a lost and found department, to facilitate recovery by the owners. Another project under way will be the placing and trimming of a large Christmas tree at the entrance of the school. This will take the place of the usual custom of having a tree in each homeroom.

Approximately 150 more books have been added to the school library, bringing the total of fiction books to about half the number needed to meet the standards of a modern elementary school. These latest additions were received through the courtesy of the Taneytown town library and are greatly appreciated. It is hoped that the growth of resources in the library will continue to develop, as a good library is an absolute necessity in school work. One of the important functions of library service is to provide a well-rounded collection of reading materials suitable for use by children of various ages. This can only be accomplished by accumulating books of adequate number and proper level of difficulty.

KIWANIS NEWS

Meeting Centered Around Christmas Seals

The regularly scheduled meeting of the Taneytown Kiwanis Club was held at Taney Inn, on Wednesday last. The meeting was called to order by Vice-President, David Smith in the absence of President Lewis Crum-packer, who along with George Harner, was attending a testimonial dinner for International Trustee, Claude B. Hellman which was held in Baltimore.

The meeting was highlighted by Rev. Miles S. Reifsnider distributing cigars amongst the Kiwanians announcing the birth of a most cherished addition to his family, namely, Miles S. Reifsnider, Jr.

Group singing as usual was under the direction of Wallace Reindollar with Mrs. Estella Yingling at the piano.

The program for the evening was under the sponsorship of the Public Relations Committee with G. Albert Baldwin serving as chairman. Kiwanian Baldwin devoted the meeting to a challenge to those present to participate in the 44th annual Christmas Seal Sale which is at present in progress. He stated that during the calendar year 1948 43,833 people lost their lives as a result of tuberculosis which means that every 12 minutes some one in this country of ours died as a result of this disease. Approximately 500,000 Americans today have active tuberculosis.

Between the age of 15 and 35, the most productive years of man's life, 13,000 people lost their life as a result of this plague as compared with 7,000 caused by heart disease and 5,000 by cancer. The average age of all tuberculosis deaths is 46 years as compared with 65 years with cancer and 40 years with heart disease. The death rate per 100,000 population has been decreased from 195 fifty years ago to 33 during the year 1948.

Christmas seals were first sold in Denmark in 1904. The idea was brought to America by Miss Emily Bisseell, who in 1907 in an effort to help a few surgeons who were doing charity work in Wilmington, Delaware in connection with the care of tuberculosis patients, decided to use the same means in order to collect funds. She issued Christmas seals in the hope of securing $300.00 and much to her surprise raised, at this first Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Sale, a sum of $3,000.00. Since this time the sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals have become an annual event. 79% of the funds collected remain with the local association, 15% goes to the State Association, and 6% is forwarded to the national tuberculosis association.

At the conclusion of these remarks a film was shown entitled "You Can Help." Mr. Ernest W. Dunbar took charge of this portion of the program. Mr. Dunbar is a member of the board of directors of the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association of which Kiwanian Baldwin is President. Next week's meeting will be in charge of the program committee with Howell B. Royer serving as chairman. A Christmas program is planned to which the ladies are invited.

SANTA CLAUS VISITS TANEYTOWN TODAY

Parade and Program this Evening

Santa Claus will arrive in Taneytown at 7 P. M. this evening. This year he will bring along his own Post Office Department by which to receive letters direct from the children. Two big mail boxes will be provided and carried along on each side of the street in the parade. All the children can bring their letter to Santa and drop them in these mail boxes. The children are invited to do this. By this means it is anticipated that Santa will receive a lot of mail.

The Christmas parade is slated to start promptly at 7 P. M. Prior to the parade Christmas Carole records will be played over the loud speaking equipment to be installed for this purpose. The Myers' Band of Westminster, the American Legion Drum Corps and Color Guard, floats and community organizations, will meet Santa Claus on West Baltimore St. Here the parade will be formed and march to the monument turning on the Christmas lights along the way.

The parade will then return to the platform in front of the Mid-Town Electric Store for the ceremonies to follow. Merwyn C. Fuss will preside. As one of the features of the program Santa Claus will greet the children in person. Later he will visit among the stores. This is the time when the merchants will begin to distribute the tickets for the prizes to be given away.

THIS 'N' THAT (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The first light snow has fallen which is laying upon the ground after the bitter night of winter! There are rabbit tracks around the garden and walks. The clean aroma of the week's laundry is through the house. Domesticity prevails!

"You do speak Espanol?" so asked the new waiter at my favorite Chinese Restaurant, "Asia" where the meals are superb (in the big city). Since eating there last time, to my surprise, the Chinese waiters were replaced by the Latin race although the Chinese Chef was kept on.

"Buenas tardes, Señorita!" I looked up into the face of the new waiter and smiled as he handed me the menu saying, "Con mucho gusto" "Gracias!" said Your Observer. I discovered that this tall slim young man was of Argentine blood and realized, too that he was anything but a waiter—perhaps a dancer, artist, actor or musician. Scanning the Menu quickly he said, when I told him my favorite dish, "Al medio de la pagina!" Music continued to play very softly and as I finished my meal, the waiter had to be instructed about the proper change of which he was not accustomed to the currency as yet. Removing my chair, he said, "Adois to you, Senorita." "Adois to you!" I replied. So you see, folks what I mean when I write that a waiter or waitress is not such always which is most evident in the manner in which they wait upon the customer!

Here's to the ladies! If you are inclined to be a little too plump start rolling on the floor every morning and whatever you do don't over eat. You have heard people say, "Oh—I have eaten so much that I can't move!" Well, just get up from the table a little hungry and then stand for twenty minutes after each meal. Just do without potatoes, bread and sweets and in one month you will be amazed. You don't really have to go on a strict diet. If you have the suit that still fits you perfectly only that it is too short at the hem, here's a grand stunt which Your Observer saw lately. The suit was a most at-

CARROLL COUNTY SEAL CAMPAIGN

Mr. G. Albert Baldwin, chairman of the County Seal Sale Campaign, announced the goal for that campaign as being $5,500. Funds from this year's Seal Sale will finance the 1951 tuberculosis prevention and control program of the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association, which is conducting the Seal Sale. The quota set for the County is the minimum needed to carry on the Association's work during the coming year, Mr. Baldwin stressed. The sale of seals is the only means of support for this association.

Mr. Baldwin pointed out that most of the funds realized from the Seal Sale remain in the county to support such projects of the association as its case finding program which includes mass x-ray surveys and its health education program.

Of the total proceeds 21% will be forwarded to the Maryland Tuberculosis Association and of that sum, the state association will allocate six per cent to the National Tuberculosis Association with which the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association and the State Association are affiliated.

For the first time, seals were mailed from the office of the local association which was newly formed in April of this year. 8,595 letters, with two sheets of seals per letter, were mailed on November 17. Mr. Baldwin expressed the hope that every Carroll Countian would want to purchase and use these gay little stickers this year.

WORLD WAR III

When will it start? That depends on Stalin. He will start it when he thinks he can win. He is the world's greatest menace. He comes close to measuring up to the Anti Christ of scriptures. Yes strange to relate he was educated to be a priest of the Russian church. He is the world's supreme ingrate.

When Russia is in deadly combat along a fifteen hundred battle line the United States furnished him without cost tanks and other materials of war at no cost to Russia, but was he grateful? Not that any one can observe. He is out to dominate the world, and his first and greatest aim is to conquer the United States. Will he be able to do so? We do not think so.

The United States has but 7% of world's population but is richer in resources and brains than any other country. War will come. It may be in 5 years or 10, or 15 but it will come.

The world is not yet ready to beat the sword into plow shares, or the spear into pruning hooks. Our atom bomb and our H-bomb are our safety.

THE COUNTRY PRESS SAYS

PORT ST. JOE, FLA, STAR: "This country is now committed to a policy of active resistance to Communist aggression. It is a policy whose cost no one can as yet estimate. In the light of this, how can further waste and unnecessary domestic spending be countenanced? In a world struggle for survival, there is no room for the welfare state..."

CLEAR LAKE, CALIF., OBSERVER: "Can you afford to take a pay cut so that the people in the Tennessee Valley can buy power from the government at a fraction of its actual cost?"

CANYON, TEXAS, NEWS: "If the government succeeds in taking over the medical business, it will not be long before it will take over the newspapers, the lumber yards, the grocery stores, and all other lines. The bureaucrats are after power, and more power."

GREENE, IOWA, RECORDER: "That the fault of the present day squeeze lies at the door of the Federal government is a foregone conclusion. The government has never operated like a business. It has spent monies for projects which are not for the general good of the country, and the matters which have benefitted all have been accomplished in a wasteful and extravagant manner."

DENVER, COLORADO, MINING RECORD: "Government, unlike private enterprise, is not faced with the necessity to make its projects pay off. Government can soak up losses forever, because it can make them up by reaching into taxpayers' pockets."

KALKASKA, MICH., LEADER: "Of course we realize we must pay for national defense, but it does seem that there are many economics that could be effected in government so that additional taxes would not be required at this time..."

OAK HARBOR, WASH., FARM BUREAU NEWS: "The prospect of a $60 billion Federal budget should arouse some sober thinking...$60 billion, is six times the largest pre-war Federal peacetime budget. It is approximately equal to the total national income in any year through the 1930's."

DENVER, COLO., MINING RECORD: "Expressing fear that the United States government policy of deficit spending is making the nation fiscally vulnerable from within and perhaps so greatly extended as to be military vulnerable, U. S. Sen.

Harry F. Byrd, of Virginia suggests that the country put on the brakes. He said the nation's only hope for survival is in free enterprise, but the President and our leaders are still insisting upon expansion of costly socialistic legislation."

EL DORADO, KANSAS, TIMES: "One of the strangest anomalies in the often giddy procedure of recent administrations is the policy of trying to break up large corporations, and then calling upon these same corporations for eminent services when the safety and welfare of the country are concerned."

FAIRMOUNT, INDIANA, NEWS: "Uncle Sam has a bargain basement sale in the making with a total of 307 attractive offers of financial aid to state and local governments. All the Federal government wants in return is a bigger say in running home-town affairs."

SOMERSET, PENNA., DAILY AMERICAN: "Black markets, an inescapable by-product of controls such as are being put in effect, certainly do inflate."

OF INTEREST TO RESERVISTS

Inequities in present regulations regarding the call to active duty of reservists and guardsmen and of men drafted for the Armed Forces were scored by Commander-in-Chief Chas. C. Ralls, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

Ralls said that the present system of calling National Guardsmen and Reservists, without regard to family ties, former disabilities or other causes for which draftees are deferred, is not compatible to the V. F. W.

He called for early revision of these regulations so that more balanced and justifiable program could be arranged in building up Armed Forces personnel.

"Men who have served their country," Ralls declared, "have never hesitated to answer that call again; but we do feel that there should be an equalization between those who have never worn a uniform and those men who have previously jeopardized their safety in the nation's interest."

"One glaring inequity seems to be that inactive Reservists with service disabilities ranging up to 30 percent or more are being recalled and placed on limited active duty. Certainly, some of the deferred draftees could also serve on limited duty where some physical qualities may be lacking."

"The V. F. W. is also on record as favoring the advance of the draft age to 35 years and tightening up on deferments which might give the Selective Service Boards a greater opportunity to work out a justifiable program," he said.

"While I understand that the House Armed Services Committee, of which Rep. Carl Vinson is chairman, has under consideration connective legislation to present to Congress upon its return to Washington on November 27, the V. F. W. feels that something should be done for those who have already been inducted under this unequal setup."

"It seems to us to be eminently unfair to call Reservists and Guardsmen regardless of age or disability, dependencies and jobs which they now hold, and then to exempt from the draft men over 25 years or with a dependent. Most of these Reservists have already seen active military service in World War II."

"This manner of selection," Ralls continued, "for Armed Forces duty seems to place the burden pretty much on the veterans, many of whom have already served a number of years on active duty—and in combat."

The Veterans of Foreign Wars sincerely hopes that Chairman Vinson and his committee will wipe out these inequities and see to it that the disparity now prevailing between the two groups will be ended," Ralls concluded.

tractive Fall or Spring gray in a two piece affair and a false hem of about five inches of very attractive harmonizing plaid slit at each side of the skirt. At the neck, was worn a corresponding kerchief tied most stylishly and the result appeared most chic!

Surely miss that chubby man in the bank around our town and I have learned he is residing in Florida to gain good health. The "Mrs." is to follow soon. Best wishes!

A Carroll County man has been living in Hanover for forty years where he operates a Confectionery store and sells those big luscious pretzels. He told me that he sells 4,000 of them a month! Wake up, Taneytown! For two years, Your Observer has been trying to convince a bakery man of the idea!

Now, this from Republican Senator Brewster of Maine, "General Mac Arthur should use the Atom Bomb against Chinese Communists!" Umph! You know, Folks what that will mean and for which they are just waiting!

Perhaps you read this one, too. It gave me the creeps. A man in Thurmton handles snakes as he would fondle a little puppy! Awful, eh?

The blind young man of whom I wrote in a recent column has a store on York Street, in Hanover.

What a lovely letter arrived from Washington from the only daughter of our President to Your Observer! She is sweet!

The Army and Navy football game always brings back those "practice" foot balls of the Navy which were always brought to my brother by my cousin who was "Master at Arms" in the Naval Academy for thirty-two years in Annapolis. And if the Navy won, the winning ball would be brought back to Annapolis and painted gold with the date printed on and hung up in the Academy!

A lady around the town had a real Thanksgiving dinner by candlelight in Philadelphia where the electric was turned off for many hours. Many dinners are served that way today under the soft lights of the candle and it is most charming and enchanting with much silver and beautiful pastel colors to carry out the decorative scheme.

Now, here's to the man who drove a car going about 70 miles an hour!

Mr. Man if you could have seen the sad picture that followed, you as well as any other man would have cried. You killed my precious Boston Terrier instantly not giving her a chance for her life to jump to the embankment of our home! You were not fine enough to stop even if it was an accident! To see, my Minister on crutches with his leg in a cast dig that grave and lower that box in which he placed my pet, the tears that were shed as he trembled to lean on one crutch and lower that box in the newly made grave under the Baby Breath Bush! Mr. I know you would never run over another dog and just go on and think, "Oh—it was only a dog!" Many times a pet is as important as a member of a family! Perhaps, it would have touched you deeply, too to see my little daughter pick the last of the purple chrysanthemums in the cold mornings at a very early hour and walk over to that newly made grave and place those flowers there. She stood crying as though everything in life had left her as "Lady" and she were the most devoted Pals. Please be careful, I beseech you when and wherever you see a dog on any road—slow down and wait until he has a chance to save his own life!

Now, here is truly the sweetest short story Your Observer ever heard!

A very close friend who has had many proposals of marriage and declines always because she loved the one man in her life to whom she was engaged who had suddenly died from pneumonia when she was just eighteen. She had an apartment in the big city overlooking a very beautiful garden next door. There were two beautiful trees and one recently was dug up. The tree remaining is dying from loneliness she says which goes to show that every thing must be in pairs! You know the rest of the story, dear Reader! I leave it to your imagination!

Have a grand week-end. Be good and be careful and when you see a dog and you are driving. Stop! After all it may be the pet of any household. So long until next week. Will be seeing you D.V. I am, Faithfully,

YOUR OBSERVER.

WASHINGTON'S THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

As we are approaching Thanksgiving, it will not be amiss to read the First American Thanksgiving Proclamation. A study of the Thanksgiving Proclamation issued at various periods in the history of the American people will give a picture of the development of significant thoughts in the minds of American statesmen and people.

Washington issued the First National Thanksgiving Proclamation setting Thursday, November 26th, 1789, as Thanksgiving Day. The Proclamation is given below:

"Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey his will, to be grateful for his benefits, and humbly to implore his protection and favor; and whereas both Houses of Congress have, by their joint committee, requested me to recommend to the people of the United States a day of Public Thanksgiving and Prayer, to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many and signal favors of Almighty God, especially by affording them an opportunity peaceably to establish a form of government for their safety and happiness.

"Now therefore I do recommend and assign Thursday, the twenty-sixth of November next, to be devoted by the people of these States to the service of that great and glorious Being, who is the Beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be; that we may then all unite in rendering unto him our sincere and humble thanks for his kind care and protection of the people of this country, previous to their becoming a nation; for the signal manifold mercies, and the favorable interpositions of his providence, in the course and conclusion of the late war; for the great degree of tranquility, union and plenty which we have since enjoyed; for the peaceable and rational manner in which we have been enabled to establish Constitutions of Government for our safety and happiness, and particularly the national one now lately instituted; for the civil and religious liberty which we have acquired, and diffusing useful knowledge; and, in general, for all the great and various favors, which he has been pleased to confer upon us.

"And also, that we may then unite in most humbly offering our prayers and supplications to the great Lord and Ruler of Nations, and beseech him to pardon our national and other transgressions; to enable us all, whether in public or private institutions, to perform our several and relative duties properly and punctually; to render our National Government a blessing to all the people, by constantly being a government of wise, just, and constitutional laws, discreetly and faithfully executed and obeyed; to protect and guide all sovereigns and nations (especially such as have shown kindness to us), and to bless them with good governments, peace and concord; to promote the knowledge and practice of true religion and virtue, and the increase of science, among them and us; and, generally, to grant unto all mankind such a degree of temporal prosperity as he alone knows to be best."

Sharing Our Faith

Lesson for December 10, 1950

SCRIPTURE: Acts 8:1-13; 18:1-7; 1 Corinthians 9:16-17; II Corinthians 5:17-20; Philippians 1:12-18; 2:12-18.

DEVOTIONAL READING: Romans 1:8-17.

A COMMON sight in cities of ancient times was the "libation." Statues of gods or goddesses stood at every prominent corner, in every yard; they were as numerous as billboards today. Before one of these statues some one would be pouring out wine from a cup or goblet, an offering of thanksgiving or dedication. Saint Paul even used the libation as a figure of speech to describe himself. My life, he said to his friend Timothy, is being poured out—there was not much left of it, but all of it, every drop, would be poured out as an offering to God.

Dr. Foreman

Miser of Life or Spender?

PAUL was no miser of life. If life was a full cup, it was not a cup with a tight lid, not like one of your grandmother's jars of very special preserves to be saved and saved but never used. Paul was a spender of life. Whatever God had given him was to be poured out, not to be saved.

There is something in every one's cup of life; something that spoils if kept too long, something fragrant and beautiful when poured out in service. The miser of life finds that life at last turns sour on him. The spender of life finds that as he has given, in the same measure it will be given him.

Faith Can't Be Hoarded

ONE very important part of the Christian's life is highlighted for us in this week's Scripture: his faith. Indeed, faith ought not to be a part of life for the Christian. Faith is no more a "part" of life than sunshine is a part of the out-of-doors. Without the sunshine there might as well not be any out-of-doors. So without faith the Christian's life would be mere existence.

The question is: What do we do with our faith? Do we keep it for ourselves alone or do we pass it on? Last summer a man tried to get a grocery store to take back 100 pounds of sugar which he had laid up during World War II. He had hoarded it till it was hard as rock and he could not use a pound of it. (The grocery would not take it back, and it served him right.) Faith is like that. It is sweet and good—but only if we use it and share it, not if we keep it to ourselves.

What Is Sharing Faith?

SHARING your faith means helping others to have a faith at least as strong as your own. All around us there are persons who have no faith at all. They are discouraged, blue, bewildered, at loose ends—in the sad old phrase, they are lost. Sharing your faith means sharing it with just such people.

With some things, the more you give away the less you have left; but the arithmetic of religion is different. The more you give away, the more you have. Shared faith is living faith; shared faith is growing faith.

There are more ways than one of sharing our faith. One way is to talk about it. A person can "give a testimony" in a prayermeeting, and share faith that way; but this is not the only way. A person who merely talks about faith is a little like a gardener who is proud of his own garden and brags on it, but never helps his neighbors with theirs.

How Can We Do It Every Day?

REMEMBER, what we are really trying to share when we "share the gospel" or "share Christ" is not an argument, a set of propositions. The big thing is not arguing other people into becoming Christians.

Very few persons have ever become Christians because someone talked them into it. Talk has its place, and every Christian should be eager to say a good word for Jesus Christ at every chance. But good words for Jesus have their best effect when they come from a life that is really His. A Christian whose faith is something put on on Sundays with the "church clothes" is not going to have any great success as a soul-winner. We can't share faith we don't have; we can't share second-hand or imitation faith. A former Mohammedan, being asked what was the great argument that won him to Christianity, replied, "It wasn't any argument, it was the lives of some missionaries."

TRUTH

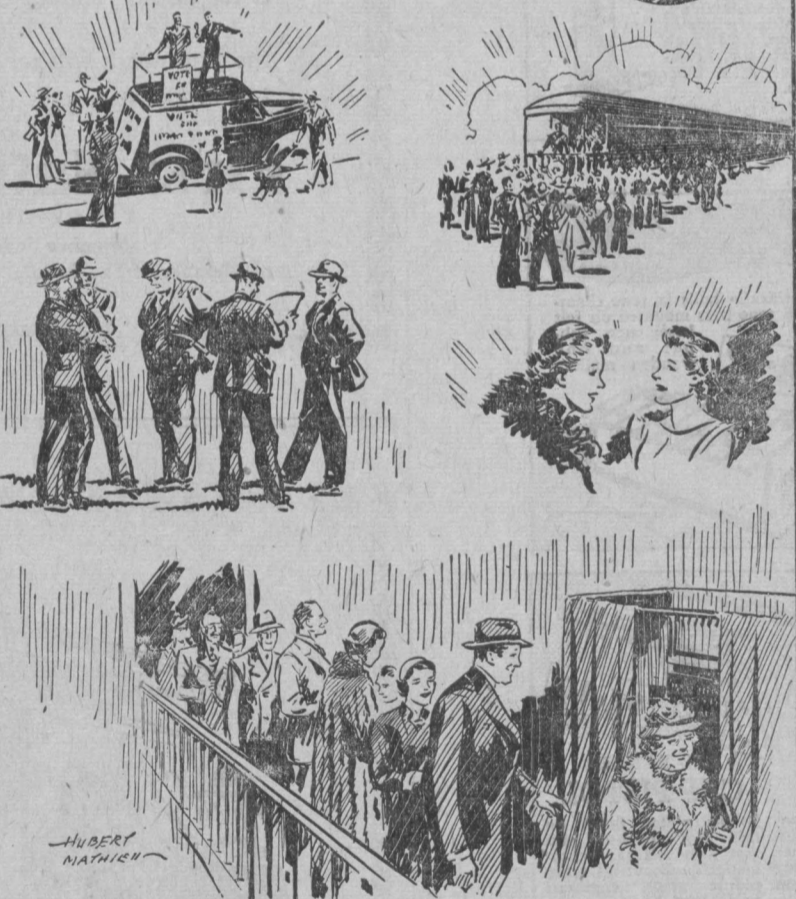

What is poetry, who can tell
Whether it be ill or well
That we to our neighbor tell
What we do the good to swell.
There is much that we can do
If to ourselves we are true
But what truth is who can say
Whether it be night or day
That will chase dull care away.
Truth is but that happy ground
Where alone true grace is found
We can find it if we try
Now or in sweet by and bye.
