KIWANIS MEETING

Speaker Explains Preventive of Tooth Decay

President David Smith presided at the meeting of the Taneytown Kiwanis Club Wednesday evening. Group singing was led by Raymond Wright, Mrs. Wallace Yingling was the piano accompanist.

Mr. James Lantz and Mr. Herbert Anders of the Westminster Club were present. Mayor Raymond Perry and Councilman Raymond Davidson were guests of the club.

Following the dinner Dr. Benner's program committee took charge of the meeting. Edward Reid introduced the speaker, Dr. Richard C. Leonard of the State Board of Health. Dr. Leonard outlined the beneficial effect derived by the fluorination of drinking water. The speaker said that by placing fluoride in drinking water, in a city's water supply, decay of children's teeth could be prevented to a great extent. He also stated that many places, such as Arkansas, Colorado, Texas and parts of the Eastern Shore of Maryland have an element of fluoride in the water and because of this natural condition it was noted that very little tooth decay in children is in evidence. This led to an investigation by chemists and resulted in the indorsement of placing fluoride in city's drinking water. The doctor assured his audience that no harmful effects, of any kind, can result in placing this chemical in the water supply. No actual figures as to the cost could be given by the speaker but he was sure that it would be negligible considering the benefits derived.

The meeting next week will be "Teachers' Night" and George Crouse will have charge of the program.

The meeting on Wednesday, June 27 will be "Family Night" and will program will be in charge of Edmund Nusbaum. An evening of entertainment with a dinner at Piney Mountain Inn, near Caledonia is scheduled.

MRS. LANDIS, AGED 95, TAKES A TRIP WEST

Mrs. Ida Landis, a guest at Homewood, the Reformed Church home in the 2800-block of Virginia Avenue, has just returned from a week's visit in Kansas. This would be just a "personal mention", of course—were it not for the fact that Mrs. Landis is 95 years old.

"I personally think it's never too late for a person to start traveling," said Mrs. Landis when interviewed yesterday. "Land sakes, in my younger days folks never dreamed of traveling 1,400 miles to visit relatives—then return 1,400 miles just a week later. So, now that it's possible to get around like this, I'm certainly not going to sit back and say I'm too old. Only place I draw the line is at flying—no one's ever going to get me up in one of those aeroplanes!"

Mrs. Landis made the trip out to Kansas with her "kid" brother, Charles Shriner, of Taneytown, who is just 89 years old. They went out to Wakeeney, Trego County, Kansas, to visit their "baby" brother, Samuel A. Shriner—an infant of 85 years. Along on the trip were Charles' daughter, Alma, and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Shriner, all of Taneytown.

The important feature of this sentimental journey westward was that it was the first time Mrs. Landis and her two brothers had all been together at the same time for "quite a spell"—30 years to be exact. Born and reared near Middleburg, Carroll County, they are the children of the late James L. and Sarah C. (Hann) Shriner. Samuel complicated all of their lives by moving so far away from his birthplace because, as Mrs. Landis recalled today, she has seen him just three times since the turn of the century, on her three visits to Kansas—in 1912, 1919 and 1951.

Mrs. Landis was born Ida Shriner on September 22, 1855. She married the first time in 1888, to James A. Shildt, and lived very happily in Taneytown, Md., until her husband's untimely death remarrying, in 1916—and now declares she should have waited eighty! "I was truly happy when I was Mrs. Shildt," she muses, "but I haven't had much from my second marriage except the name. He just up and disappeared one day—so I'm through with men now. I've been here at Homewood now since 1940 and, so far as I am concerned, they can transport all men far beyond the Northern sea—with the exception of Rev. Wagner, superintendent of Homewood here"—from the Hagerstown Mail.

RECEIVES B. S. DEGREE

Miss Joyce Owen of Taneytown was graduated from the University of Maryland June 9, 1951. She received the degree of Bachelor of Science from the College of Education with a major of Home Economics and a minor in Science. Rev. and Mrs. Charles S. Owen and Neil, and several friends attended the graduation. About ten thousand people witnessed the exercises at which 2956 were awarded degrees.

Miss Owen graduated from the Taneytown High school in 1947 where she won the scholastic award. In a competitive examination she also won a scholarship to the University of Maryland made available through the State Legislature and given through the courtesy of Donald Six of Middleburg, Member of the House of Delegates. This was the first time that one of these scholarships was awarded to a Taneytown student. While attending the University Miss Owen was elected to Omicron Nu, National Honorary Home Economics Fraternity.

During the past eight weeks prior to her graduation she did her Student Teaching in Home Economics at the William Howard Taft Junior High School, in Washington, D. C.

If you do not desire to take a long vacation this summer, why not take day or two day trips. Sometimes, that way, one really enjoys the summer more. For instance, there are so many places near base. Start with Phila. where you can actually have a walking tour of The Independence Square neighborhood. First is Independence Square located between 5th and 6th Sts. Chestnut and Walnut. Independence Hall, Congress Hall, Old City Hall, The American Philosophical Society, The United States Custom House, Carpenters' Hall then on to the oldest banking building in America which later was opened by Stephen Girard from 1812 to 1831. Have lunch then at Book-binder's—that delightful sea food house. Return to Chestnut street and walk East to 2nd street, then walk North crossing Market St. On the West side is Christ Church built in 1727. Then on to the home of Betsy Ross around that corner, then to the oldest Friends' Meeting House. Then to Christ Burial ground where Benjamin Franklin and his wife, Deborah were buried.

Then visit the Curtis Publishing Company, home of the Saturday Eve Post. Directly across the street to Independence Square is Washington Square, then to see the oldest theatre now standing in the United States—the Walnut Street Theatre built in 1808.

At Pine Street and 4th is the Old Pine Street Presbyterian Church built in 1768 which is the only Presbyterian church preserved from the COLONIAL period.

PLENTY OF HEADACHES

The retail merchant who wants to be a law-abiding citizen has been suffering from a severe series of headaches in recent months. These are the results of various Office of Price Stabilization orders which have been next to impossible to follow. Even large stores and chains, which have all kinds of specialized talent in their employ, have found compliance difficult. Small stores are in the worst position of all, as they haven't the staffs to carry out orders which demand the compilation of endless forms and reports.

OPS, faced with a wave of protests from retailers, has changed some of its orders, and additional changes will be made. But the situation is one more example of the fact that when government dictates to business, confusion and waste are inevitable. The government administrators may be good men, trying hard to do the best possible job. In most cases, they just aren't familiar enough with the problems and internal workings of the businesses they control.

In some instances, OPS policies have been definitely unfair to retailing, in that they do not permit retailers to add to their selling prices increases in wholesale and operating costs. In such cases, retailers have no choice but to stop ordering the merchandise involved. Retail profits are just too small these days, despite high prices, to make any other course possible.

OPS has a great deal to learn. It is to be hoped it learns its lessons fast and applies them without delay, otherwise the national economy will be seriously weakened. If that happens, everyone—including the consumers OPS is supposed to protect—will be hurt.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

ODEBOLT, IOWA, CHRONICLE: "The two party system is a great thing in a democracy, but there are times when the two party principle can be carried too far. That is the sorry circumstance today. The country is in desperate danger, yet there are may representatives of the people in Congress who prefer to jeopardize the welfare of the country by playing politics as usual."

BUFFALO, WYO., BULLETIN: "The American people demand four specific actions by the Truman administration. Until these guarantees are given by Washington, popular confidence will continue to sag, says Senator John W. Bricker, of Ohio. 'First, elimination of all non-essential Federal spending. Second, preservation of the value of the U. S. dollar, which already has been adulterated to half its 1940 purchasing power. Third, avoidance of all unnecessary regimentation. Fourth, maintenance of decent standards of political ethics,' continued the Ohio Senator in an address on the floors of Congress. Can Pendergastism accomplish these urgent reforms in time to rally national sentiment to a real defense program?"

OAKLAND, CALIF., VOICE: "There are billions of dollars that can be cut from the non-military budget. And they should be. Why should the American taxpayer tighten his belt when the Government continues its merry spending spree?"

ELDORADO, KAN., TIMES: "Many Americans do not doubt this country's financial ability to maintain the nation in a 'garrison state' for a number of years, or even to fight a full-gauged war, if necessary. What they are wondering about—with reason—is whether they can maintain the nation's tremendous army of bureaucrats."

ANN ARBOR, MICH., WASH-TENAW, POST-TRIBUNE: "Adam Smith's rule that 'Money' should be one-fifth or one-tenth of 'Annual Produce' is even now in 1951 badly broken—for our money is now $175 billions, or more than one-half our Annual Produce," whereas it should not at the utmost exceed $60 billions, or one-fifth."

NEW SHARON, IOWA, STAR: "All 'welfare states' are alike. They promise you anything and everything if you'll vote them into power—security, more money for less work, sharing the wealth, 'soaking the rich'. Look out for all those promises of something for nothing. They don't put that cheese in the trap just because somebody loves mice."

WYNNE, ARK., PROGRESS: "When we can learn to do without some of our pork-barrel projects we will have our wish—adequate government at a reasonable cost. As long as we continue to call for the plush we will pay plush prices."

BRIGHTON-PITTSFORD, N. Y., POST: "Joined in the fighting in Korea are Turks, Greeks, Brazilians, British and any other members of the United Nations who wish to take an active part in sponsoring the cause of free men. All free nations who are a part of the United Nations can get in but Nationalist China, one of the big four, still recognized as authentic representative of that country and denied the right to fight its own cause of freedom."

NIAL PERIOD. At 3rd and Pine is St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal church founded in 1761 where George Washington had a pew.

Old St. Joseph's church, now completely hidden by the growth of a city and which is the oldest Roman Catholic Parish in Philadelphia.

You will see at 212 S. 4th Street the building organized in 1752—the oldest Insurance Company in America (IT'S FIRE MARK IS THE HAND-IN-HAND). A few doors further south is the Mutual Assurance Company which fire mark is the GREEN TREE. Then by all means do not miss visiting Old Swede's Church, Gloria Dei as it is the oldest church in Philadelphia built in 1700. It is located at Swanson Street near Front and Christian Streets. This latter church is nine blocks from all those above but all those former places are within walking distance of a few blocks and would be a grand tour and all for free and think of all you would learn!

Father's Day is Sunday! You know that nice man who pays and pays and pays all the bills in your house! Many times you have heard that a father is just as important as a Mother. You may think that Father knows you love him—that it is not necessary to be affectionate with him but you are wrong. There is not a Father living who would not like to be carressed and told how much he means to you.

I know dozens and dozens of fathers who just pay the bills for every item that may arise or for that College education without a word of appreciation. Then when he has passed on, you begin to realize and say, "What a wonderful father you had and what he meant to you!" He does not want "Stars in His Crown," he would like it here while he lives! Just this Sunday, Folks pretend he is a King and wait upon him and do all the little things which he would love and then keep it up 365 days of the year!

Your Observer heard a lady say around our town just recently, "I never knew how much my children loved their father until he was in the hospital and what he really meant to them!" Wonderful!

So long, Folks. Have a happy Father's Day with that wonderful guy for the awful part is that we can't have him always. Do just as he desires that very special day of his. Will be seeing you next week. D. V. Until then, I am,

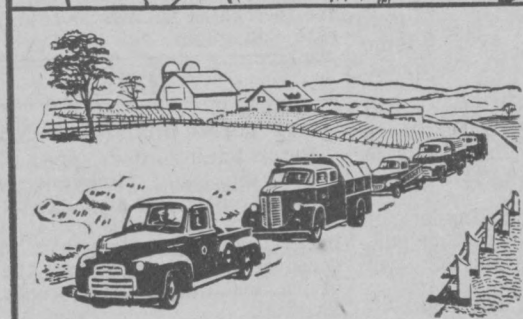

Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

Marylanders like to talk!

This Company is now handling a record volume of 2,375,000 calls a day! What's more, these calls on 611,000 telephones are going through faster than at any time since prewar days. Yet expansion and improvement of telephone service throughout Maryland goes on.

The fleet's in!

In the last five years, telephone trucks and crews have been a familiar sight on the highways and byroads of rural Maryland. It is all part of the Telephone Company's program to bring more and more service to rural communities. More than 23,300 miles of open-wire circuits have been added. Since 1945, the gain in rural telephones in Maryland has been no less than 68%.

"Finished" in more ways than one

As you finish a call, please be sure you replace your telephone receiver carefully. A receiver off its cradle or hook "finishes" all service. Your telephone and all other telephones on your party line are "busy" to anyone who calls until you hang up.

Here's a toast to Dad on this Father's Day: "On the crest of the wave may you travel, Dad, and the winds be kind and true; and a lucky star keep you ever glad, charting life with joys for you."

"When I was a little tad, I followed close beside my Dad. I mimicked everything he did—I even called my hat a lid! I thought his stride was quite O. K., and tried my best to walk that way I had some shirts and jeans of blue; I wanted boots, and jack-knife, too. My fists were always quick to fight, just to prove my Dad was right. Now that I have grown up tall, I have not changed my mind at all; I seem to feel the same old way about my Dad, this very day! I'm sending orchids to you Dad—the nicest bean I ever had."

At the conclusion of this school year Miss Pauline Fuss will retire from the teaching profession where she has given her talent and energy toward the education of many girls and boys. Devoting the best years of one's life for other peoples children is no mean accomplishment, nor is it a little task. I can think of no other profession which has more far reaching effects than that of teaching. For as long as a person may live he or she reflects in no small degree that which has been taught by some teacher. Therefore, it must be with a certain sense of pride that Miss Fuss retires from her profession, knowing that she has influenced so many girls and boys for the remainder of their lives, toward a fuller, more productive means of living. While the community, reluctantly sees Miss Fuss leave her sphere of influence in our school, it would be selfish to deny her the right to live her own life for awhile after devoting so many years of it to the public good. Our only hope is that she will continue to take an active part in the cultural activities of our community.

Let us take time out to really live. Let us play more with our children and less with gadgets and superficial sports. Let us take a walk in the woods instead of racing up the highway at 70 miles an hour. Let us look at Nature's creations instead of spending so many hours in front of a TV set. And let us be kind to one another. Instead of brushing aside man's loneliness, let us hold out our hand in friendship and understanding.

I don't see why the housewife need get alarmed over the threatened scarcity of beef. There are plenty of other kinds of meat available. I would like to know who eats all the beef steaks, anyway. This is one family, living on a farm, who never sees a steak, believe it or not. I am sure there are plenty of families just like ours.

TIME FLIES

The winter days are ended,
The summer days here
We need not feel offended,
Nor any one to fear.

Bright days of supreme pleasure
Without one doubt or fear
We enter on our journey
That ends with the year.

How can we best endure it
With weather pleasant free
We just accept the weather
As it comes to us free.

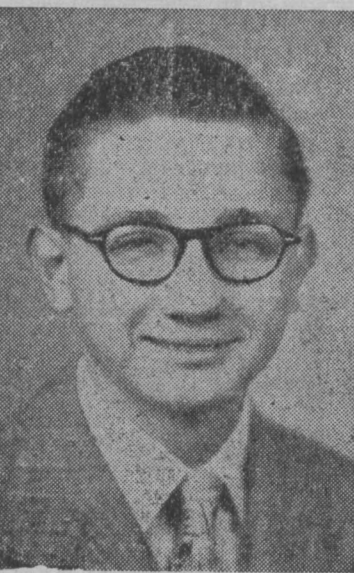

Summer days will soon be here
With fruit and all things fine
And when we come to the end
We sit upon the time.

The harvest will be plenty
On grain and fruit and vine
So we can take it easy
Nor for things to repine.

How we shall spend the summer
The harvest soon will come
We'll cut grain and shock it
And place it in the barn.

The corn will soon be ready
Roasting ears and all
We'll eat our fill and plenty
And that will end it all.

Robert Irving Millard of New York City, a member of the graduating class, spoke at the exercises highlighted by the initiation of seniors into the Peddie Chapter of Cum Laude, national scholastic honor society.

Peddie's 86th year was marked by the dedication of the new $125,000 Ayer Memorial Chapel whose foyer is featured with individual portraits and biographies of the 63 Peddie men lost in World War II and the $350,000 Davella Mills Gymnasium considered one of the finest in the secondary school field.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL

Officers of the Kiwanis Club of Taneytown, Wednesday announced the names of delegates who will represent the club at the 36th annual convention of Kiwanis International, June 17-21, in St. Louis. They are David Smith and Howell B. Royer.

These delegates are among the anticipated 10,000 Kiwanians and their families who will meet to elect international officers for the coming year, and to participate in panel conferences on various activities sponsored by Kiwanis, among which are youth, community and citizenship services. David Smith, president of the local club, said many internationally eminent speakers will address the convention. All addresses will be based on the organization's nine objectives of this year as well as Kiwanis International's 1951 administrative theme "Freedom is not Free."

The Rev. Terence J. Finlay, a distinguished clergyman and civic leader of Ottawa, Canada, will speak at the "Convention Prelude" Sunday, June 17.

Following the President's message Monday morning by Don H. Murdoch, Winnipeg, President of Kiwanis International, U. S. Senator Herbert R. O'Connor, twice governor of Maryland, newly appointed chairman of the Senate Crime Investigating committee, and leader of the Senate "economy bloc", will address the huge convention body in Kiel Auditorium. "How to Work for Freedom" will be the subject on which Dr. Arthur H. Compton, Chancellor of Washington University, will speak. Dr. Compton, a Nobel prize-winning physicist, initiated the first atomic chain reaction which led directly to development of the bomb.

Chief Justice E. K. Williams, Court of King's Bench, Manitoba, Canada, will speak Tuesday during the morning convention session. A frequent contributor to journals and author of several volumes on jurisprudence, Mr. Williams has practiced law since 1911, and serves on numerous Canadian commissions for civic improvement.

President of National Kids' Day Foundation and Hollywood movie columnist and commentator, James M. (Jimmie) Fidler will again address delegates on behalf of Kids' Day celebrations which net hundred of thousands of dollars for underprivileged children.

The same morning, Wednesday, Rear Admiral Ellis M. Zacharias will talk on "Behind Closed Doors: Our Future Security". Successful author of nonfiction and former deputy director of naval intelligence, Admiral Zacharias leaped to international prominence during the Pearl Harbor inquiry when it was learned he had forewarned, in detail, of the Japanese attack.

Henry J. Taylor ABC radio news analyst, will speak at the closing session Thursday morning. Mr. Taylor's varied career as businessman, economist, author, lecturer, journalist, war correspondent, and globe trotter has enabled him to prepare news analyses of clarity and forthright thinking, for which he won the Alfred I. DuPont radio award.

High on the crowded entertainment calendar, Pres. Smith said, is a spectacular cavalcade of the romantic history of St. Louis and the Mississippi River. Entitled "Passport to Yesterday", this colorful panorama will employ hundreds of actors, dancers, singers, and musicians. Scenes lifted from history will re-enact the arrival of the first French explorers, Indian wars, pioneering homesteaders, river roustabouts which Mark Twain immortalized, and the final evolution of St. Louis into the great metropolitan city it is today. While the delegates participate in convention conferences Monday afternoon, their families will attend a professionally produced stage and fashion show in the St. Louis Opera House. An orchestra will play throughout the showings and accompany the entertainment features.

CONTRIBUTIONS ASKED FOR MEDICAL CENTER

Drive for Funds Now Being Conducted

The citizens of Carroll County will be given a challenge to raise an emergency fund of $27,000 for the completion of the Carroll County Medical Center. This money must be raised by June 24 in order that the project will receive aid of 44 percent from the Federal Government under the Hill-Burton Act. The Carroll County War Memorial Fund committee has available a little over $96,000. The low bid received on the building and plumbing and heating on Friday morning, in the office of the general chairman, Scott S. Bair, was $125,500. It will be impossible to make any changes in the present plans already completed by the architect, B. S. Starr, of Harrisburg, as the committee requested only the essentials be considered in drawing up the plans in the beginning.

Under the fiscal year, July 1, 1950, to June 30, 1951, the State Department of Health has this project on its construction schedule on $100,000 estimated costs. The basis this year for Federal participation is 44 per cent, with likely changes next year to 33 1/3 per cent pending action taken by Congress.

There were 11 districts of the general county committee represented at the dinner meeting held Friday evening at the Charles Carroll Hotel, called by Chairman Scott Bair. It was the unanimous opinion of the group which also included the County Commissioners, State Senator Stanford Hoff and former State Senator A. Earl Shipley, that the project should be carried out.

The original plan for a medical center as a memorial for the men and women of Carroll County who served in all wars, was started in August 1943, with the leadership taken by the three men's service clubs of Westminster. The late Claude T. Kimmye, Westminster, served as general chairman until his death when Mr. Bair was elected by the county committee to succeed him. The funds collected during this campaign amounted to $33,500 in bonds which have accrued interest during the interim.

The Federal Government will not lend any aid until the required amount of $125,000 including Federal participation, is in hand when construction starts.

With the limited time, special committees all over the county will aid in this very important work. District leaders in the original campaign were reminded by many persons in the county, that they would increase their donations if and when the project was started. This is the time if the Carroll County Medical Center is to become a reality.

The banks of Carroll County will be contacted early in the week asking their assistance. Any contributions left at the banks will expedite the work of the special committees. Anticipating this call there are organizations in the county that have kept their health project committees intact.

In this emergency solicitation, pledges will be accepted. The immediate campaign will be directed by the chairman, Mr. Bair, and his co-chairman, Colonel T. K. Harrison.

As the committees organize more material on the building will be available showing all its clinical services, laboratory services, x-ray, metabolism, electrocardiogram, and an accident room with a health nurse, provided by the State Health Department on 24-hour-a-day call.

The erection of the Medical Center is the first step towards a hospital for Carroll County. The plans on hand include those of a hospital, with the only change in a small partition in the lobby, to carry through to the next building. In the state survey Carroll County could not obtain funds for a hospital, but was given priority on the building of a medical center, with anticipated financial assistance for a hospital in several years. The Medical Center will be the first unit of a hospital and its equipment may be used for the hospital.

Atlee W. Wampler, Jr., will head the activities from the Westminster Retail Merchants' Association and attorneys. Senator Hoff will contact Rotary Clubs in the county; Ralph G. Hoffman the Kiwanis Clubs; Mrs. Gladys M. Wimer the Soroptimist Club, Venture Club, Beta Sigma Phi and the Parent Teacher Association; J. Ralph Bonsack will contact the banks; and Mrs. Randall G. Spoerlein the Carroll County Council of Homemakers Clubs. Other chairmen will be announced shortly.

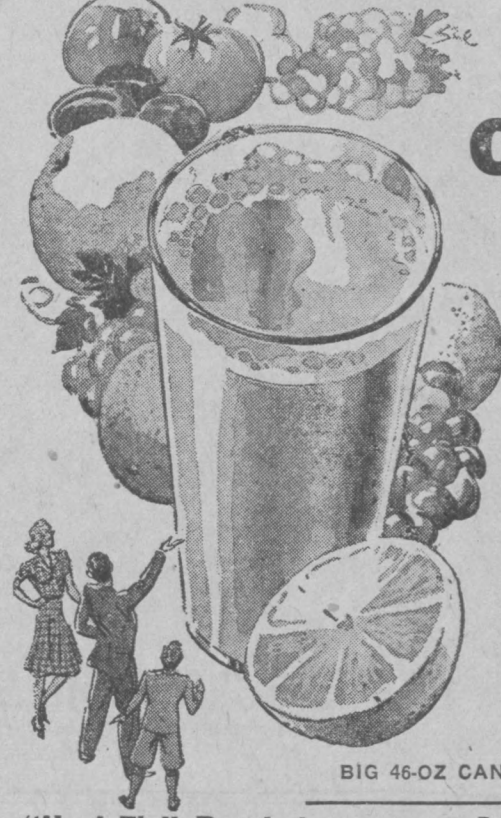

Mr. Clyde L. Hesson, Cashier of the First National Bank and Mr. Charles R. Arnold, Cashier of The Birnie Trust Company are appointed to make solicitations for this project. Their respective banks will receive any contributions anyone wishes to make.

As we go to press we were advised that the following contributions have already been received: Westminster Soroptimist Club $500.00; Carroll County Council of Homemakers Club $500.00; Carroll County National Bank $300.00 and the Westminster Kiwanis Club $1000.00.

On other days, President Smith said, tours have been scheduled to St. Louis' famed zoo, gardens, parks, art galleries, and museums. In addition, excursion steamer trips on the Mississippi are available. The great social event of the five day meeting, the President's Reception and ball, is set for Tuesday evening, June 19. Because of the speakers program, entertainment, central location and attractions of St. Louis, officials of Kiwanis International expect this convention to be one of the largest in the history of the organization. Delegates in attendance will represent more than 202,000 fellow Kiwanians from every state in the Union, Canada, Alaska, and Hawaii.

Tell the Story!

Lesson for June 17, 1951

TELL me the old, old story" is a favorite hymn in many places. But the first Christians would have been considerably puzzled by that hymn if you had tried it on them. It was no old, old story for them, it was hot news.

Whatever objections people may have had to Christianity in those days, they never said it was "old stuff." More than that, Christians did not go around telling one another the story of Jesus. When Jesus said, "Be my witnesses," his first hearers did not think he meant "only to those for whom it is an old story."

The early church was by no means an organization devoted to repeating something they knew by heart, like the ritual of a lodge. It was devoted to telling the good news about God to people who did not know that God had any good news.

The Gospel Is a Story

THE saying has been quoted in this column before: Christianity first came to the world not on the editorial but on the news pages. Christianity is not God's new advice to the world. It is first of all the something God has done for the world.

"Gospel" in Greek means simply good news. It is the story of Jesus, the kind of person he was, the kind of truths he taught, the kind of work he did, the death he died. But the story of Jesus is more than the story of a man, uniquely great though he was.

It is, after all, the story of God. God who became man so that in the life of Christ Jesus we can read the unreadable God, see the Invisible, know the Great Unknown. The early Christians were not theologians, and they did not use the language or the formulas that centuries of thought were to hammer out. They never used the word "Incarnation" and seldom used the word "Atonement." But that was what they were driving at.

The Story Is a Challenge

LOOK through the book of Acts for the story of Jesus as the early Christians told it, and you will see that the Incarnation and the Atonement are there. The Incarnation—that God has lived among us as a man among men, that the glory of God is in the face of Christ. The Atonement—that for Christ's sake God offers forgiveness to all men, that the door to God's love is a wide-open portal.

The early church taught and told this; but not just as a story to entertain or inform, not as a puzzle to be solved, not as something to be believed or not, as we please; but as THE story, not only the "greatest story ever told" but beyond any comparison the most important.

If you cannot see God in Christ, where can you see him? If you will not take God's forgiveness for Christ's sake, then what right have you to look for forgiveness at all?

Christianity Is a Life

THE readers of the book of Acts will discover that the early Christians were not simply preachers. They lived a new sort of life. The essential thing was that they lived as a family—the family of God. They so lived that few have fully imitated them since.

The way in which Christians treated one another was so different from what the world was used to, that an almost new word had to be used for it.

When Paul went about preaching, a good deal of what he said was about himself. Was this because he had taken the place of Jesus? No, it was the other way around—Jesus had taken his place. That is, what Paul had to tell was not simply the story of Jesus "from Bethlehem to Calvary," it was not even the story of the Resurrection.

What always aroused Paul's finest eloquence was his story of what Christ had done to him, for him, through him, in him. The Gospel is the power of God, he said to the Romans. And if this were not true, do you suppose the Christian religion could have lasted as long as it has?

But the telling of this story, and the living of it, is not something the church can leave to the women, or to the preachers, or to "missionary societies." Letting the world know the news, the good news, is the business of the whole family of God.

BOARD OF EDUCATION REGULAR MEETING

Resignation of Some of the Teachers Accepted

The regular June meeting of the Board of Education was held in the offices in the City Hall on June 4, 1951, at 3 P. M., with Clyde L. Hesson presiding. Mr. Paul Niswander, Union Bridge who has been appointed by Gov. McKeldin and has recently received his commission was in attendance at this meeting and was introduced to the Board and supervisory staff.

The Board considered the matter of school transportation contracts for the coming year and after consideration gave approval to the contractors whose names had been submitted including Charles Eckard, Augustus Crabbs, Taneytown; Devilbiss and Smelser, Uniontown; Herbert Phillips, Frederick Myers, Ernest Myers, John Mann, Beasman Jordan, Frank Bell, Charles Wardenfelt, Roland Poole, Albert Shoemaker, Arthur Ford, Westminster; Curvin Flickinger, Union Mills; Lester Patterson, Finksburg; James P. The Board also approved contracts for janitorial services in the schools of the county including, Charles Fritz, Uniontown; Frank Brothers, Mechanicsville; Curvin Flickinger, Silver Run; Oliver Fritz, Luver Owens, Roy Storms, Westminster High School; Austin Howard, East End School; Albert Shoemaker, Westminster Elementary; West End School, Charles Dalghreen; Noah Bosley, Hampstead; Stanley Pickett, Winfield; Ezra Miller, New Windsor; Charles Houck, Mount Airy; William Summers, Robert Moton; Edward Jason, Johnsville Colored School, Anna Cross, Westminster.

The Board accepted the resignations of eight teachers from positions in the schools of the county and approved the appointment of eleven candidates to fill existing vacancies in the county for 1951-52.

The Board considered several requests for library aid for some of the county schools and gave approval for specified amounts for these schools.

Consideration was also given to the purchasing of fuel oil for the school year 1951-52 and the acquiring of land at several of the locations where this seems necessary.

The Board also approved the schedule of fire insurance of the school buildings in the county, the insurance to be distributed among the agents in the county.

The Board entertained a delegation of teachers from the Carroll Co. Teachers Association who were interested in the outcome of the salary negotiations which had been in progress since the close of the Maryland Legislature. This group was notified that the Board of Education had requested an increase in salary from the County Commissioners and that after consideration an adjustment had been possible making the minimum salary in Carroll County $400.00 above the State Minimum, effective January 1, 1952. The teachers were given copies of recent resolutions which had been submitted to the County Commissioners by the Board of Education in connection with salaries and with additional school buildings in the county. The teachers expressed their thanks for the Board of Education saying that they appreciated the effort that had been made by the Board of Education and the Commissioners but wish to be on record as urging the adoption of a more liberal salary schedule as soon as this is possible.

The Board considered the appointment of candidates for the district scholarship vacancies existing in the county to Western Maryland College in 1951-52. After consideration the Board directed that the following be awarded scholarships, Lois Ohler, Uniontown District; Philip Lawyer, Uniontown District; Samuel Mann, Woolery's District; Mary Angell, Freedom District; Gertrude Banker, New Windsor District; Fred Baker, Union Bridge District; Nancy Joan McWilliams, Berrett District; Shirley Sue Lippy, Shirley Woodruff, Sally Ann Griffin, Harold Robertson, Allen F. Grumbine, Charles Albert, Lyman Earhart, Dennis Boyle, Shelly Myers, Chester W. Rill, Westminster District. Many of these appointments were for a period of one year since they were made from districts where no applications had come.

The Board directed the superintendent to be responsible for repairs to buildings during the summer vacation and approved the operation of a maintenance work crew during the summer holidays.

The Board also considered several requests for the introduction of vocational agriculture into the county schools and directed the superintendent to continue the study of possibilities of the introduction of vocational agriculture and the securing of qualified teachers for this work.

The superintendent was further directed to continue to expedite the completion of plans for improving school facilities at several locations in the county in order to accommodate the increasing enrollment.

The Board adjourned at 5:30 and were entertained at dinner by Dr. Thomas H. Legg former Vice-president of the Board of Education at his country place, Trevanian, near Taneytown. The Board members and some staff members, and superintendent ent enjoyed dinner at 6:30 with Dr. Legg at Trevanian.

The Board of Education of Carroll County announces that at its meeting on May 8 and June 4th 1951 serious consideration was given to the problem of salary adjustment for teachers in the county. As a result of these considerations resolutions were prepared by the Board of Education and approved for submission to the County Commissioners as related to this problem. A resolution was also approved connected with the continuing need for physical improvement to the school buildings of the county. The Board of Education directed that these resolutions be submitted to the County Commissioners and that they be made available to the press of the county.

As a result of the negotiations the Board of Education announces with gratification that the County Commissioners have cooperated by an agreement making the salary scale in Carroll County $400.00 above the state minimum effective, January 1, 1952. This step was approved by the Board of Education and agreed upon by the County Commissioners because of the serious problems encountered in securing and holding of qualified teachers in the schools of the county. The Board is also able to announce that the County Commissioners have agreed to make every effort to make a limited amount of additional capital outlay funds available to the Board of Education to improve the classroom facilities at certain crowded centers in the county. It is hoped that these moves will be understood by the citizens of the county and as necessary to the maintenance and operation of an effective school system.

SWIMMING INSTRUCTIONS FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS

A "Learn to Swim" program for children and adults in Carroll county is under way through the efforts of the Carroll County Chapter American Red Cross and the water safety chairman, Mrs. George Bingham. The Red Cross recognizes the need for teaching people of the county to swim, especially the youngsters and quoted statistics which show that over 7,000 people drown each year, and that only about 10 per cent of the people in the county can actually swim.

Tentative plans call for three courses to be offered which will include three grades of swimming classes ranging from beginning thru swimmer levels. In addition, Junior and Senior life saving courses will also be on the agenda.

Students who successfully complete one or more of these courses will be awarded a Red Cross swimming certificate. Those who complete life saving courses will also receive badges. These courses will be given absolutely free of charge.

The director of the "Learn to Swim" program for Carroll County is Leslie M. Hamill, a student of Georgia Institute of Technology. He is a qualified American Red Cross Instructor, having been given special training by National Red Cross water safety experts. He will also be aided by other instructors receiving the very best instruction at the American Red Cross Aquatic school.

Interested persons should watch their local newspapers for times and places available for swimming instruction.
