BALLOON DISPLAY

To Be Held in Taneytown this (Friday) Afternoon

Carroll county will have its own display of Freedom Balloons this Friday. The balloons, identical to those being released over Czechoslovakia and Poland, will be set free at the Mrs. Omer Brown, of Kane, Pa., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Wantz and the Remsburgs.

And Foland, will be set free at the following locations: 10 a. m., Hampstead Fire House; 11 a. m., Manchester Square; 12 p. m., Westminster Fire House; 1:30 New Windsor square; 2:30, New Windsor square; 2:30, Transitown Square; 3:30

Taneytown Square.

"This dramatic display will give Carroll countians an opportunity to share the excitement the prisoners behind the Iron Curtain must have experienced when they saw these huge balloons in flight", Stanley H. Tevis, Jr., Crusade for Freedom county chairman said today.

The balloons are of two types. Large, round rubber balloons, four feet in diameter, carry hundreds of leaflets with messages of hope and friendship. Plastic pillows, nearly five feet on each side, also carry mes-

Crusade for Freedom, an anti-Communist organization headed nationally by General Clay, is carrying on this program of getting the truth behind the Iron Curtain by balloons, radio, and word of mouth. All Americans are asked to join the Crusade by signing a pledge which reaffirms their belief in freedom. At the same time voluntary contributions for the maintenance and expansion of Radio Free Europe and the Winds of Freedom programs are being solicited. These gifts may be sent to "Crusade for Freedom", care of the local postmaster.

The Key Club at the high school launched the Crusade for Freedom Campaign on Tuesday of this week. Stuart Peterson, Key Club president and Kenneth Morelock, district lieutenant governor Key Clubber visited the home rooms and spear-headed the start of the movement.

The school was also requested to make a plea for the County Children's Aid Society. However, to prevent running the two campaigns concurrently the latter will be emphasized the week of Oct. 8.

The Student Council under Joan Koon's leadership issued regulations that improved the fire drill.

On Monday afternoon the faculties of both the Elementary school and the High school met jointly in the Home Economics Department and were pleased to hear Dr. George Fox give some enlightening insights regarding Greece gleaned from a recent trip to Europe. Dr. Fox is associated with UNRA.

An Alumni Card party is scheduled to be held in the school auditorium, Thursday, October 11th.

H. S. SENIORS TO BE GUESTS OF DR. BYRD AT FOOTBALL GAME

All high school seniors in the State waryland, the District of Columbia and nearby Virginia have been invited by Dr. H. C. Byrd, President of the University of Maryland to visit the College Park campus on Saturday, Oct. 6, have luncheon, and attend the George Washington-Maryland football game and pre-game entertainment.

A reception committee will greet guests in the Armory. Two students, as host and hostess, will accompany each group. Identification ribbons will admit guests to the luncheon and the game.

A tour of the campus will include visits to some of the more interesting departments such as the engineering, industrial education and home economics buildings; the agricultural research laboratories; the radio stuthe University Theatre stage and dressing rooms; and the men's and women's dormatories, as well as the historic "old campus."

Heads of the various departments will be in their offices, available for individual conferences. They will also attend the luncheon.

NOTICE TO FIREMEN

Plans are being made by the Taneytown Fire Company to give its members instructions in basic fire fighting. These instructions will be given every Monday evening in the Company and qualified instructor at College Park, Md.

All Firemen are urged to take advantage of this opportunity. Not only will these courses make better and more efficient firemen but will make for more efficiency in the fighting of fires. A good fire company decreases insurance rates, too. Don't forget the change of the meeting hour 7:30 P. M. instead of

CITY COUNCIL MET MONDAY EVENING

Tax Rate for 1951-1952 Remains at 65c per $100

The Mayor and City Council of Taneytown met in the Municipal Building, Monday evening, with President Harry Mohney presiding. The full Board was present including Mayor Raymond J. Perry and Henry I. Reindollar, Jr., Clerk-Treasurer.

The tax levy of 65c per $100. assessable property was retained for the year 1950-1951. Tax bills are now being prepared and will be mailed after Oct. 15 and payments are due on and after that date.

The Parking Meter account was closed out at this date, the 29th and final nayment of the meters was final payment of the meters was made. These meters, 139 in operation, were paid for out of three-fourths of collections. The original cost was $10,097.50 and were purchased about 21/2 years ago. Final arrangements were made to purchase a second-hand street sweeper from the City of Frederick.

The sewer plans were given consideration and the City Council promises to give all facts, data and considerations to the taxpayers and residents of Taneytown as they are received. The complete plans and specifications are still being worked out by the engineers secured for this printed.

purpose.

The Council made application about one and a half years ago from the community service of House and Home Finance Agency for funds for the preliminary survey and a government interest free loan of $13,000 was approved. One-fourth of this amount has been received. This fund is to be used to cover cost of complete set of plans for a sewer system and treat-ment plant. The balance of loan will be made upon completion of surveys and plans. Present plans of the Council is to have a special election on the referendum of the sewer system some time in January, 1952 but before this question comes before the voting people and other interested persons of Taneytown it is hoped that a full outline of plans, costs, method of payment or retirement of the necessary bonds required to carry out this big project, etc., will be given to the public so that everyone can vote intelligently.

The meeting adjourned shortly after 10 o'clock.

CHILDREN'S AID DRIVE FOR FUNDS

The annual campaign for funds by the Children's Aid Society gets under way next Monday, October 8, but already checks are coming in from all parts of the county. People realize the importance and necessity of the work done by the Children's Aid, and the fact that it is strictly a Carroll County project gives the campaign more local power and interest.

As an example of what we hope to accomplish, we have the cases of six children who are badly in need of homes. In one family the mother is hopelessly ill and in the other family the mother will be in a sanatorium for several months. In both families the fathers work and will help support their children in foster homes. The Children's Aid asks your help in providing for the 34 children now in need of care. Mrs. Virginia Sanders is serving as chairman of the Taneytown District and the solicitors are the following: Mrs. A. D. Alexander, Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner, Miss Pearl Bollinger, Mrs. Samuel Breth, Mrs. James Burke, Mrs. Chester Cartzendafer, Mrs. Robert Clingan, Jr., Mrs. William Copenhaver, Mrs. George Crouse, Miss Beulah Englar, Mrs. Morris Haines, Mrs. Harley Holter, Mrs. William Hopkins, Miss Belva Koons, Mrs. Kenneth Koutz, Mrs. Lames Lord Mrs. George Marshall James Lord, Mrs. George Marshall, Mrs. Glenn Martin Miss Joan Miller, Miss Betty Morrison, Mrs. Rein Motter, Miss Shirley Null, Mrs. Singleton Remsburg, Mrs. George Shower and Mrs. George Shriver.

The victim of the fire was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emory C. and Ada Wolf Baust, of Fairview, near Union Bridge and is survived by, besides her parents, two brothers, Laverne Baust, near, Westminster, and Lester Baust, Pottstown, Pa.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the C. O. Fuss & Son Funeral Home with Rev. Donald Warrenfeltz, pastor of the Unontown Lutheran church officiating. Interment was in the Uniontown Lutheran cemetery.

The basic need of the world is spirituality. The issue between free people and Communism is not economic;—the issue is the preservation of the freedom of man as a living soul.—Gen Douglas MacArthur.

E. U. B. CONFERENCE

Rev. Garvin is Returned to Taneytown Charge

The 163rd sessions of the Pennsylvania annual Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren church came to a close on Thursday night after three days of reports and encouragement to do greater work for the Lord and the church this next year. The closing session on Thursday night was conducted by the pastor of the host church, the Rev. Lester Kauffman, New Cumberland, and the inspiring and challenging message was given by the Bishop George Epp, of the Eastern District of the Evangelical United Brethren church.

The conference was attended by large crowds from all over the conference areas. The church and Sunday school room was crowded on Thursday night. At the closing session the Bishop read the Stationing committee's report, assigning the churches to the minister and there were only a few changes, The Rev. DeWitt P. Zuse, Emigsville, Pa., was assigned the Park Ave. church, Chambersburg. He is also the conference treasurer. Rev. Bernard Fogle, Frederick, student of Lebanon Valley College, was appointed to the Emigsville Charge of two churches. The other changes were as follows: Orrtanna, Roger Burtner; Scotland, Harold Sipe; Windsor, H. Shanefelt; Young's-Mt. Zion, W. F.

The Rev. A. W. Garvin was appointed the Taneytown Charge for another year. This conference year is stressing Evangelism in all its phases for winning people to God and

A CHALLENGING CALL TO CHRISTIANS

This Sunday Christians the world over will be one in a fellowship that nothing man-made or man-dictated can overpower or destroy.

Regardless of denominational affiliation or congregational loyalties all the followers of Christ as their Lord and Master are challenged to be present in the church of their choice to partake of the Lord's Supper as an expression of strong unity and binding fellowship which only the spirit of Christ can generate in a world disrupted by strife, conflict and rumors of war.

It isn't enough that men profess their faith. They must also undergird that profession with a sincere expression in a witnessing action. One of the most powerful onslaughts which the Christian world can hurl before the communistic, totalitarian, godless ideology is the bond of World wide Communion when regardless of nationality, race, station of life or worldly success all mankind stands on a common level before God, their

DR. ELLIOT RETIRES

After a half century of handling and prescribing in the profession of years of diagnosing medical doctor, Dr. Francis T. Elliot, Taneytown, has been forced to retire because of failing health. He and Mrs. Elliot have purchased a home in surburan Fountaon Head, Hagerstown, and expect to move to the new residence about November 1st.

Starting his career in 1901, Dr. Elliot was first employed as a lad in the Apothecary shop of Dr. Frank Siess, in Littlestown. From there he went to the Peoples' Drug store in Gettysburg. In the fall of 1902 he enrolled at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy where he was graduated in June 1905. Dr. Elliot practiced pharmacy in Philadelphia, Johnstown and Pittsburgh in the capacity of head pharmacist of the Furgeson store in Philadelphia, and manager of the three latter places. In the fall of 1907, Dr. Elliot entered Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia from where he was graduated in 1911. In August of the same year, he located in Carroll county, where he has practiced medicine continuously until his recent retirement. October 1912, Dr. Elliot married Miss Margaret Campbell Carson, a daughter of the late Dr. James S. Carson, also a graduate of Jefferson College class of 1887, prominent

Dr and Mrs Elliot are parents of six living children: Mrs. Paul S. Griffith, Hagerstown; Francis T. Elliot, Jr, Union Bridge R. D. and Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Harold B. Skinner, Indianola, Neb.; Lewis H. Elliot 2nd, Baltimore; James C. El-liot, Baltimore, and Washington, D. D.; John Carr Elliot, Baltimore. One daughter, Miss Margaret Elliot, passed away of a blighting illness in 1935. There are seven living grandchildren. Friends of Dr. and Mrs. Elliot are wishing them well.

KIWANIS NEWS

Mr. Huell Warren, assistant chief and Daily News Editor of the Baltimore office of the Associated Press addressed the Kiwanis Club at its regular meeting Wednesday evening. Being National Newspaper Week the speaker chose as his subject "Freedom of The Press." To those concerned in the publishing of facts and the fight against a controlled press the speech was quite interesting.

The meeting next Wednesday evening will be an Inter-Club meeting with the Hanover Club at Hanover. President, David Smith and Norman Graham are attending the annual convention of Capital District Kiwanis International, being held this week-end at Roanoke, Va.

She had worked in a one room on a third floor flat in New York city coming from Lith-uania in 1895. She made garments of lingerie and for four years she struggled to make a living. Then at 20, she married David Bryant, a Russian jewelry salesman. The couple had a son, Raphael but the husband died when the child was a few months old. The young widow bought a sewing machine and started to sew lingerie at home. Six years later, she was able to borrow enough money to start her first store. She married Albert Maslin, also a Lithuanian, in 1909. A partnership was started in business for women's wear in manufacturing. When Maslin died in 1923. the Lane Bryant enterprises were grossing $5,000,000 a year. Four years ago they did an estimated annual gross of $45,000,000. #### YOU AND YOUR CONGRESS

THIS SESSION of Congress has featured a good deal more talk than action about federal economy.

There is nothing particularly unasual about that. However, there has been more talk about economy in this session of Congress than usual.

One reason is that this Congress has approved spending at a rate higher than any ever previously known in the country's peacetime his-

This has caused considerable concern among those members who really worry about the future of the country's economy. But most of the increased spending is for military or related purposes and, not being miltary experts, those members who would like to effect possible economies find themselves equipped to do little except talk about it.

Another reason for the greater than usual amount of talk about economy is that members of the House got a wacation last month and had an opportunity to get back home and find out what the people are thinking about Congress.

A number of them report that many of their constituents are beginning to associate the forthcoming tax increase with the sharp rise in federal spending. That sort of public feeling is apt to make a man who depends on votes for a living nervous. But with both the tax rise and spending increase now practically a matter of record, about all he can do at this point is talk about the need for more government economy.

WHEN THE BOOKS of this Congressional session are closed as scheduled next month, it will be seen that Congress succeeded only slightly in reducing the total bndget requests of the various government departments for the current fiscal Moreover, some of the trimming almost certainly will be nullified by the granting of supplemental or extra appropriations before the fiscal year ends next June 30. If that doesn't happen, it will be the first time in many years.

While its use sometimes is necessary for special reasons, the supplemental appropriation also is a handy device for appearing to economize but not actually doing so.

GENERALLY SPEAKING, the public isn't aware or loses sight of

Neither does it realize that much of the federal budget each year is for spending which Congress has authorized in previous years.

For example, Congress passes a law authorizing the construction of a dam which will cost, say, $250 million. But it does not appropriate $250 million for the dam the year that the authorization law is passed, because the work that will be done on the dam that first year will cost only, say, $4 million the first year and then, during subsequent years, other appropriations must be made to progressively pay off the balance of $246 million on that dam-or, which is highly unlikely, work on the dam must be stopped by repeal of that original authorization law.

WHAT IF CONGRESS was required to appropriate the entire $250 million for the dam that first year? Chairman Cannon (D-Mo.) of the House Appropriations Committee believes that in such case Congress probably would be inclined to approve less new dams and other long-range spending projects. Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.), top-ranking minority member of the Appropriations Committee, agrees. Congress should present the cost picture of a new projects as large as it actually is, says Taber, "rather than in small

THOSE TAXPAYERS who, according to their members in Congress, are beginning to associate federal expenditures and taxes, may now be realizing that those "small doses" Taber speaks of finally add up to very large ones.

If such a feeling should become widespread, there may be less talk and more action in Congress regarding federal spending.

Who asked you to pay for electricity used by people you never even heard of, a hundred or a thousand miles away?

Nobody! But you do help pay the bills for hundreds of thousands of favored people and hundreds of privileged businesses using electricity from certain federal power systems. Your taxes helped build those systems. Your taxes are used to subsidize service to their customers.

Who asked you to foot the bill so that this country could have socialized electricity?

Nobody! Yet, there are 72 federally owned power systems already in operation, under construction, or authorized at a total cost of over 10 billion dollars-and hundreds more are planned at a total cost of about 60 billion dollars. That's your money that's financing socialism!

Who asked you for permission to keep on building expensive socialistic power systems when every tax dollar and every pound of critical material is needed for defense?

Nobody! But the backers of socialized power are planning to use more of your tax money to build costly electric lines that actually duplicate facilities of business-managed companies! Why? To put the government further into useless and killing competition with business-managed companies.

Who asked you whether you have enough electric power or not?

Nobody! The "planners" who favor socialized electricity speak vaguely of a "power shortage." Yet, the business-managed companies have more than doubled this nation's power supply since Pearl Harbor. And they've got a lot more coming!

Bread is the staff of life-at least the majority of people believe that for as a nation we consume an estimated 40 million loaves a day. Even at the present high price bread is served three times a day in every American home or rather I should say in most American homes for there are families who cannot afford the Frederick Fair this week. bread three times a day. Of all the people eating bread the consumer and the farmer are probably the ones most interested in the price. How thick a slice of the bread dollar does the farmer get? The consumer may be surprised to learn that if the average loaf of bread was sliced into 20 slices, the farmer would get 2 slices for his share. The remainder 18 slices goes to the miller, the baker and the distributor. The largest share of the loaf goes to the baker for baking and wrapping the bread and delivering it to the retail stores. Eleven slices represent the bakers share. The remaining 7 slices are divided between the miller and the retailer selling the bread to the consumer. It takes 21/3 bushels of wheat to make 100 lbs of flour. The baker can make 154 one lb. loaves from a 100 lb of flour by adding 14 lbs of other ingredients plus water. In terms of ling week. wheat, 1 bushel (60 lbs) produces enough flour to make 66 one lb loaves

The new minister was enthusiastic about foreign missions, and one of his first tasks was to call upon parishioners whom he knew to have money and enlist their support."I'm sorry replied a wealthy farmer," but its no use asking me. The increase in the use of drugs such as narcotics and opiates is a sign that a large segment of people can't stand frustration. Life is beating them down so they turn to drugs as props to help them through trying times. What they really need is a religion and faith in themselves.

The first PTA meeting of the El-Wolfe school for this year will be held Monday evening, October 8th, at 8 P. M. in the school auditorium. The new teachers will be introduced and the school will be open for inspection. Every parent should make a special effort to be present and become acquainted with their children's teachers. The parents and teachers should have but one aim and that a common one—to do all within their power for the welfare of the It takes a lot of cooperation to achieve this ideal. Suppose some morning at the breakfast table your partner was to say: "My dear, we have had a pleasant association but I have decided to leave you at the end of the week. That would be a shock that few of us could take, wouldn't it? Suppose your family physician, after years of association was to tell you during a consultation that he had decided to leave the community and go some other place. That would be almost as great a shock, especially if you had been seriously ill and learned to lean on his wisdom and understanding. It seems to many of us who have watched the progress of medicine through the last 20 years that the patient is no longer considered as a human being with internal conflicts as well as symptoms of disease. It requires a doctor and a patient a little time to adjust to one another and for the patient to acquire faith in a doctor's abilities, without which all the medicine in the world will prove of little benefit. Therefore, when a doctor settles in a community he should do so only after he is sure he will put his roots down and become a part of the community and be willing to spend the rest of his life there. For one can touch so many lives and influence so many families as a good doctor. He has a great responsibility, whether he wants it or not. Doctors like ministers have a sacred trust for both are dealing in human lives and in human souls. There are four professions that the persons entering them must possess a special calling for. They are the professions of teaching, of nursing, of the ministry and of medicine. This special calling or trait is that of being able to put aside self. Maybe the layman does expect too much from these professions but unless the ideals of

WOMEN'S GUILD MEETS

The regular meeting of the Women's Guild of Grace E. & R. church was held Thursday evening with Mrs. Mervin Wantz, social service chairmen, and her committee in charge The topic was: "The Road to World

The meeting opened with a piano selection by Miss Sandra Remsburg. Mrs. George Motter then sang "The Lost Chord" accompanied by Mrs. Rein Motter.

The theme was dramatized as Mrs. Mervin Wantz acting as a church paper reporter interviewing a group of vomen concerning the Food griculture Organization of the United Nations. The women taking part were: Mrs. Singleton Remsourg, Mrs. Rose Overholtzer, Mrs. Lyman Hitchcock, and Mrs. Murray Baumgardner. Miss Ruth Stambaugh and Mrs. Rose Overholtzer each gave reading on the topic.

Mrs. Wantz then gave a report on the activities of her committee for the year which included securing members for the Homewood Auxiliary, rolling bandages, pre-school packets and the packing of materials for "Remnants for Refugees". They had on display a table filled with articles to be sent to refugees and in-buttons; scissors; needles; pins, and yarn. Mrs. Wantz told the group it was not too late to give these artierseas.

The theme hymn for the year was sung followed by prayer.

The business meeting was in sister of Mrs. Upton Austin, is a charge of the president, Mrs. Clyde Hesson. Attention was called to the Hospital with a broken leg. turkey and oyster supper of the Guild on October 20th. Miss Ruth Stambaugh told the group of the play to be presented on November 8 and 9th. The play is entitled, "Faith, Hope and Flarity."

The members were urged to attend the Fall meeting of Maryland Regional to be held in Hagerstown on Oct. 10th. Mrs. Glenn Martin, newly- elected president, gave a report and urged the cooperation of all the women.

The meeting closed with a brief social hour to meet in November with Miss Margaret Shreeve, Thankoffering Chairman and her committee to be in charge.

TANEYTOWN KEY CLUB

The Taneytown High School Key Club held its regular meeting Tuesday, October 2, 1951, during our lunch period.

The meeting was opened by the singing of "America", followed by the flag salute. The blessing for the day was offered by James Fream. Following the meal President Stewart Peterson talked about "The Crusade for Freedom, the project which the Key Club is undertaking. We talked about the health room, which we are going to paint green and white. Our guest for the day was Mr.

Wanted: Pioneers!

Lesson for October 7, 1951

IT IS on record that a Virginian in the 18th century wrote to his family that he was moving "to the far west," meaning the neighborhood of what is now Bull Run, Va., not far from Washington, D. C. Well, the "far west" moved and m o v e d, till it reached the Pacific. Beyond that ocean is the Orient, crowded past belief. Where now can the pioneer go? For Dr. Foreman pioneering ways in the blood of man. Not in every one's, to be sure; there always are contented stay-behinds; but also there always are the restless souls, not content with what has been or is. How shall pioneering instincts have their way when all frontiers are closed? . . .

Un-Traveling Pioneers

THE traveling pioneer has about had his day; what we now need is the un-traveling pioneer.

Such explorers are of various sorts. One is the mental pioneer, moving to new frontiers of the mind. These can be found breaking out new trails in various directions.

In science there are the men whose minds produced X-rays and plastics, the men and women who did the brainwork that lay behind the splitting of the atom; in government the men on the judge's bench, in lawyers' offices or in professors chairs, who have been and are still thinking out the undiscovered meanings of democracy; in education the men and women who have pioneered in new ways of teaching, such as Dr. Laubach, great scholar and missionary, who has led the way in teaching the "silent billion" to read and write; these are all pioneers of the mind. God send us

Moral Pioneers

WE need also pioneers of the moral life. "Time," says a line in a poem by J. R. Lowell which has made its way into most hymnbooks, "makes ancient good un-

For instance: once upon a time, practically all Christian people supposed that slavery was not only a good thing, but that God had commanded it for all time. Whitfield, a famous evangelist, said that what America needed for its development was more slaves imported from Africa, and more home-brewing of liquor. Today this sounds so ridiculous that it is hard to believe that a Christian could have said it.

Time has made ancient good uncouth. But time alone will not do this. There must always be some moral pioneer, some one who will run the risk of being called "bad" by going out in front of popular opinion.

Between Whitfield's time and ours there have been moral pioneers, notably a Quaker named John Woolman on whose mind and heart God laid the message: Slavery is a

Pioneers of God

WE need also spiritual pioneers, persons who will move forward to new discoveries of God. most persons, God is still an "undiscovered country"; and no man can discover God for another, though he may testify to his own discoveries. So in the realm of the spirit each must be his own pioneer; and some men and women, even from sickbeds, unable to walk as far as the door, have made great discoveries of God.

The man who is honored as a saint by three religions—Christianity, Judaism and Mohammedanism Abraham, is sometimes known for the wrong thing. He may be thought of as a traveling pioneer because he moved several hundred miles during his lifetime. But he was not a pioneer in the "old American" meaning of that word, for the Canaan to which he went was no unsettled wilderness but a well-populated civilized country, and he never owned the land he lived on.

Abraham's pioneering was in the realm of the spirit. We know from Joshua 24:2 that even Abraham's father was an idolater; Abraham moved out from the pagan religion of his father and his people, to the discovery of the One True God. No more important journey was ever taken.

The traveling of Abraham's feet was of little importance by comparison. It was the traveling of Abraham's spirit that has most blessed us all.
