SOUTHERN STATES FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Opening of Building Year Ago to Be Observed Next Saturday

Elaborate plans are being made to celebrate the first anniversary of the opening of the new building of the

NORTH SIDE OF BUILDING

Southern States Taneytown Cooperative. The celebration will be in the form of a party to be held Saturday, May 9, from 7 p. m. to 11 p. m.

Southern States Taneytown Cooperative has been operating since 1942, when it took over the business of A. D. Alexander, who had previously operated a Southern States Agency in town. The Cooperative used the same location, the old barn located in the alley between York and Cemetery streets, which barn was rented from Mrs. R. H. Alexander until May 1952. At that time the present new building at the corner of York and Commerce Sts. was occupied.

The first manager was R. D. Schnably, the second I. C. Clements, and the third and present manager, George C. Flohr.

Mr. Dan Alexander served as president of the board of directors for several years. He was succeeded by Mr.

LOADING & UNLOADING PLATFORM

Some of the other past members of the board have been Russell Fisher, Wilbur Naylor, Russell Feeser, Clarence Albaugh and William Flickinger.

The new building has provided for patrons adequate warehouse space, an attractive display room, and modern grinding and mixing facilities, both dry mix and with molasses. The cooperative this year closing June 30, will provide patrons and members with services in excess of one-quarter of a million dollars.

Employees, besides Manager Flohr, are Bill Devillibus, Donald Baker and Tommy Morrison.

The party May 9 is open to all farm people, and will feature prizes, refreshments, and dancing to the music of Texas Jim and the Stump Jumpers.

Cake walks and folk dances gave variety to the evening which was very well accepted by the dancers and the spectators.

The Adams County Senior Extension Club wishes to thank all those folks who attended the dance and contributed to its success. The Club is planning another dance in the near future. Complete plans will be made at the next regular meeting on April 30th at the Gettysburg High School.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Taneytown Chamber of Commerce met in regular monthly session Monday evening, April 27, 1953, at 7:30 p. m., in the Firemen's Hall with President Merwyn C. Fuss presiding.

It was voted that the Chamber of Commerce would pay half the expense of sending the Taneytown High School Safety Patrol to Washington to participate in the Safety Patrol Parade. The other half to be shared by The Cambridge Rubber Company.

The annual outing was discussed and various places talked of for a trip and it was decided to go to Washington and have dinner and attend a night ball game.

A number of names was talked of as speakers for the annual banquet.

PARENT-STUDY INSTITUTE

A parent-study institute was held in the auditorium of the Taneytown Elementary School on Wednesday afternoon, April 29, beginning at 1:30 o'clock. In addition to Dr. Ira Gordon of Child Study Center, Baltimore, Md., speaker of the day; Miss Dorothy Shires of the State Department of Education; Miss Ruth DeVore, Carroll County Elementary Supervisor; Miss Mary, Carroll County Personnel Supervisor; Mr. Samuel Jenness, County Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. Stanley Stahl, Taneytown Elementary School Principal were in attendance. Mrs. Charles Hopkins, President of the local Elementary Mother's Club, presided over the meeting.

Doctor Gordon spoke on the subject, "The place of the child in the family". Emphasizing the importance of parents treating each child as an individual, he pointed out the relative advantages to which the oldest, youngest and middle child in a multiple-child family are exposed and then went on to discuss the family in which there is an only child. The environment of the home and example of parents is reflected in what a child thinks, does and is but learning from others outside the home is also a rich and worthwhile experience. The happy, normal child is the one who can face the demands of home and society in the security of parent's love.

Following Doctor Gordon's presentation, the mothers assembled in a number of discussion groups. Among the forty in attendance at the meeting there were mothers from Charles Carroll, Uniontown, New Windsor, Union Bridge and Taneytown schools. Questions growing out of the group discussion were answered by Dr. Gordon in an informal and helpful manner.

At the close of the afternoon session Mrs. Hopkins announced open house for the children who will enter first grade in the Taneytown school this Fall and their parents. They will note that May 20 is the time for this special event when Miss Ruth DeVore will be the speaker.

TANEYTOWN SCOUTS ACTIVITIES PROGRAM

Paper Drive Will Be Conducted Saturday

A paper drive will be conducted in Taneytown Saturday, May 2, by Scouts of Troop 348, providing the weather will permit. Besides newspapers, magazines and rags are especially solicited, together with scrap iron. A large gathering is anticipated, since it is somewhat overdue, and the cooperation of citizens in these periodic campaigns is much appreciated.

Monday's Explorer scout meeting was omitted due to an investiture ceremony put on by the officers before the Carroll District annual dinner. Harold Slaybaugh was presented as a candidate by his scoutmaster to Robert L. Bowers, Senior crew leader, who ably managed the rites with the assistance of his deputy, Larry Eckard, Crew leaders Kenneth Frock and John Perry, and secretary William Abrecht, Jr. Advisor Stanley F. Frock concluded the induction by remarks welcoming Harold into this senior Scouting branch. Cancer Crusade fliers were afterwards distributed by Abrecht, Slaybaugh and Thomas.

With the month of May the Explorer program takes on a new complexion with less frequent indoor meetings, and with outdoor, social, and service activities taking their place. Two which have been approved by the membership for the coming month are an outdoor game period followed by picnic refreshments, and some kind of defense training project. Even directors are to be named shortly by Bowers and Frock and will form their own committees to carry them through.

Scouts swam in the Gettysburg College pool on Friday the 17th as their meeting that week, transportation being provided by the American Legion, secured through Raymond E. Haines, troop committee chairman. Last Thursday they concluded their present pioneering program by lashing trestles of deadwood poles brought for the occasion by each patrol. Using these frames as "chariots" for a single rider drawn by two other scouts, an exciting race was won after several heats by the Foxes, whose team consisted of Larry Dinterman, Robert McKinney, Donald Tracey, Jr., and Peter Westine. Recognition in the swimming activity was awarded the Pine Trees, who turned out with the best percentage in the persons of LeRoy Barnes, Jr., patrol leader, George Abrecht, assistant, and Chas. Baker, scribe.

The younger branch of the Troop is looking towards the events of the District Camporee at Deep Run Scouting Reservation on May 15-17. An outdoor freubuilding and cooking contest will be staged among patrols at next meeting, the weatherman being willing, and nature walks and specimen collecting will emphasize that phase of the camporee.

Scouts will gather at the hall Saturday, May 2 by 8:30 a. m. for the paper drive, and in case of unsuitable weather, a new date will be announced.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

(Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning a smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth! I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer. Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The trees are just beginning to open their tiny leaves and it is fascinating just to sit and watch closely. Who could doubt the WISDOM IN BACK OF IT ALL?

Last Saturday was "OPEN HOUSE" at "ROLLING ACRES" at Gaithersburg, Maryland, (where the old folks really live!) As I entered the grounds leading up to the beautiful horse shoe shaped building, I stood there under a tree and looked around at the sloping acres—the home tucked in among clusters of trees which appeared as a very special building with its Southern atmosphere of Washington's home at Mt. Vernon.

As I entered, the spacious living room with all those dear hearts and gentle people sitting there so very much at home, I thought of elderly Queens and Kings! Then I thought how much we could learn from those "DEEP WELLS" with all their experiences in life and of their knowledge.

Usually an old folks' home can be a rather sad place but not this one. The folks are from 65 to 90 years of age.

The Superintendent, Dr. Herman Wilson has really set the rule to be only, "THE GOLDEN RULE" and in many little ways the home goes out of its way to consider the pride of its guests. The home has its own branch post office with a guest serving as a government—qualified postal official. Guests do not have to be addressed at "ASBURY HOME FOR THE AGED"—but "ROLLING ACRES, GAITHERSBURG".

Right now there are 101 ladies and five men. There will be many more to reside here when the additional wing is completed.

As I went from one room to the other on the three floors, I saw how beautifully kept each room was and how nicely furnished with draperies at the windows, personal bed spreads, much needles work, a number of braided rugs and every little detail carried out as though they were in a home of their own.

The business meeting was called to order by the President Albert Angell. The 4-H pledge was repeated, followed by the roll-call which was to name a health habit. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

On May 17, the Harney 4-H Club will observe National 4-H Club Sunday by attending one of the community churches in a body. Mr. Allenberg told the club about the tractor driver operators contest and the importance of the tractor maintenance project which will be held at the Carroll Co. Fair, July 21-23. There will also be a meeting of the Tractor Maintenance Safety Project which will be carried on throughout the summer months.

This meeting is for the purpose of learning more about the proper care and adjustment for machinery. This meeting is about mowers. The meeting will be held at Finch John-Deere Sales and Service in Westminster. The business meeting was adjourned.

There was also a surprise birthday party for Jack McLaughlin. He received many gifts. Refreshments were served consisting of hot dogs, rolls, pickles, sandwiches, tea, coffee, candy and cake.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

CORVALLIS, ORE., GAZETTE-TIMES: "Perhaps the best suggestion for government loans to small business, is that the government should not make them, but guarantee them, as it now does loans to veterans. That was the recommendation of the Hoover Commission—Small business would get help, banks would get the business, and politicians and influence peddlers would be frozen out."

SHELDON, IOWA, MAIL: "The Post Office, despite all opposition, continues to print names and addresses on stamped envelopes for forty-four cents per thousand. A Congressman doesn't have to be a printer to realize no one could set type, get a press ready, and run 1,000 envelopes through it for that price."

FARMING IS A PROFESSION

A late March issue of Pennsylvania Farmer carried a brief but significant article by Wellington D. Smith of the Pennsylvania Young Farmers Association. His theme was the almost incredible progress we have witnessed since the turn of the century. As he put it, "Fifty-two years ago the telephone and electricity were in the infant stage. No one believed in the horseless carriage or the gasoline engine. Old Dobbin and the wagon wheel were here to stay. The breech loader was then our secret weapon."

"Today I am surrounded with the necessary but apparently luxurious automobile, stream-liner, super-sonic jet aircraft, atomic submarine, radio, television, deep freeze, electric kitchen, combine, hay baler, field chopper and diesel tractor. Even old Daisy (the family cow) is equipped with a jet pump. During the years following World War II there have been fabulous investments made in agricultural enterprises. Such investments have served to cause a tremendous increase in agricultural production."

The result of this, Mr. Smith believes, is that farming is becoming a true and integral part of our vast industrial system. And here he made the telling observation that farming "—is no longer a proposition for the man with the hoe. It is a profession for the man with a knowledge of the science of the soils, the language of a cow, and the heart of a tractor."

Science and machines have gone a long way to transform the face of the land. And they are transforming the lives of the men and women who live on the land.—Industrial News Review.

By limiting the amount of oil entering the United States the coal mined here would have a greater market, which would result in more pay for the miners, more business for the railroad workers who haul the coal, and more business for the distributors.

Limiting the exporting of oil would reduce Venezuela's capacity to purchase in this country, and they are good customers for foods processed here and other manufactured products.

A number of businessmen have told me that the amount of trade they have with Venezuela has increased tremendously in the past few years. One Eastern Shore food packer wrote: "I would not have believed that such a development was taking place in that country unless I had seen it with my own eyes."

A manufacturer of electric tools wrote that his firm has now established a sales office in Venezuela and describes the growth of this South American market as "attractive and rapid."

So, welfare of the coal mines in Western Maryland, the cannery worker on the Shore, and the craftsman of a Baltimore plant are directly concerned with the economic life of Venezuela. Maryland industries should study the Reciprocal Trade Agreement Act, H.R. 4294, very carefully, and I would appreciate hearing how the amendments would effect business in our State.

Senator Butler and I entertained State delegates to the conference of Republican women being conducted by the Republican National Committee. The delegates were honored at a breakfast in the family dining room of the Capital on Friday.

I testified before the Senate appropriations sub-committee on behalf of the National Capital Planning Commission, advising the sub-committee that some funds should be made available so that the Commission could continue its land buying program for parks in the Capital area.

"RURAL MAIL BOX IMPROVEMENT WEEK"

The week ending May 9, 1953 has been designated in this area as "Rural Mail Box Improvement Week." Rural mail boxes which are not properly erected or in good serviceable condition retard the delivery of mail and expose it to damage from weather.

Patrons of the rural delivery service are encouraged to provide suitable mail boxes and to erect them so they will be readily accessible to the carrier, as well as to present a neat appearance.

The Post Office Department desires boxes be maintained in a condition that will assure proper protection to the mails placed therein; also, that the names of the box owners be inscribed on the side of the boxes visible to the carrier as he approaches them, and the boxes and supports be painted. Those who have unapproved boxes, top-opening, revolving door or other types, are not required to discard them provided they have been in use by the present owners for several years and are in good serviceable condition. Boxes not of the present standard type and of such design that they cannot be properly served by the carrier from his vehicle or are in such condition as not to protect the mail, should be replaced with approved types of boxes. Boxes, of course, regardless of type, should be of such design and condition that there will be no likelihood of the carrier's being injured when serving them.

The Department further requests the cooperation of the patrons of the rural service to effect the close grouping of boxes wherever possible, particularly at or near crossroads, or at other places on the routes where a considerable number of individual boxes are located. A simple and practical support for rural mail boxes consists of a board erected on posts firmly planted with the height of the shelf upon which the boxes are placed about 3 1/2 or 4 feet above the surface of the ground.

The purpose of "Rural Mail Box Improvement Week" is, of course, for the mutual benefit of the Post Office Department, its rural letter carriers and patrons of the rural delivery service. All are urged to comply with the suggestions shown above, as such action will facilitate the handling of the mail.

NEAL A. SIBLEY, Postmaster.

It is my desire to receive a good rating on the condition of the mail box equipment on our routes, emanating from this office during the annual inspection of rural mail boxes in May, and I am asking you as patrons, to help me with this program, and solicit your cooperation.

JAMES F. BURKE, Taneytown Postmaster.

ANNUAL SPRING MEETING OF CHURCHES

The Stone Chapel Methodist Church was host to the first annual spring meeting of the Carroll County Council of Churches on Thursday, April 9. The W.C.S.C. served a turkey dinner to one hundred fifty members, representing twenty-three churches of six denominations in the county. Group singing was led by Rev. Ray Abbott, accompanied by his wife. Introductions were by Mr. Gerald Richter, toastmaster. The speaker for the evening was the Rev. Lowell B. Hazzard, of the Westminster Theological Seminary. He based his talk on the ecumenical movement among churches. The Rev. Nevin Smith, Hanover, originally scheduled to address the meeting, was unable to attend. During the business sessions, conducted by the Rev. Abbott, president, the Rev. Harold Bomberger was named chairman of the nominating committee. Other members include Mrs. Alfred Zollickofer, Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner, the Rev. Leslie Coltrane, and Mr. Cyril Groff. THE TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR

The typographical error is a slippery thing and shy; You can hunt it 'til you're dizzy But somehow it will get by.

Til the forms are off the presses, It is strange how still it keeps; It shrinks down in a corner And it never stirs or peeps.

That typographical error, Too small for human eyes 'Til the ink is on the paper, When it grows to MOUNTAIN size.

The remainder of the issue May be clean as clean can be, But the typographical error Is the only thing you should flee. —Fleet Flashes

CLOTHING COLLECTION SUCCESSFUL

The Carroll County Board of Education office announces the successful termination of the clothing collection sponsored by the county schools in cooperation with Save the Children Federation, New York City. The collection was carried on in the schools of the county during the week of April 6 to 10 which resulted in the collection of approximately 8,000 pounds of used clothing which was packaged and shipped to the Tennessee Workroom of the Federation. Clothing is distributed to underprivileged children in our own country and in war devastated countries overseas. The principals and teachers in the county are to be commended for their assistance in this program. Miss Mae Grimes, Supervisor of pupil personnel, Miss Evelyn Maus, visiting teacher and Mr. Roland Haifley, of the Board of Education staff rendered assistance in the collection of clothing. By courtesy of the Tidewater express lines and Mason Dixon truck line the clothing was transported free of charge to the Knoxville, Tennessee workroom.

The clothing collection was authorized by the Carroll county Board of Education and was planned by Superintendent of schools, S. M. Jenness. Many teachers used this collection as an opportunity for making geography and social studies real to the pupils.

WOODCHUCK TIME

Woodchucks in Carroll County and throughout the state of Maryland are becoming increasingly more prevalent and the economic damage caused by them is rather high, according to County Agent, Landon C. Burns.

In order to help combat them the Extension Office has provided some very effective gas bombs that can be used effectively in controlling woodchucks. They should be used when the temperature is around 60° or above. Now is the time to use them to get best control. The bombs or cartridges are available now as long as they last and can be secured between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 5 p. m. each day, and until noon on Saturday.

If there is no better control measure, it properly used. Now is the time!

CANNERS ARE TOP BUYERS OF STATE VEGETABLE CROPS

Canners and other food processors last year were the biggest buyers of Maryland's eight major vegetable crops.

More than four-fifths of the state's total production of asparagus, lima beans, snap beans, sweet corn, cucumbers, green peas, tomatoes, and spinach in 1952 were canned, and otherwise processed, according to M. Goodwin, Maryland representative for American Can Company.

The representative for the can-making firm explained that approximately 278,587 tons of eight vegetables were harvested during the year for processing and fresh markets. Of this total, more than 227,700 tons were processed. The fact that over 80 per cent of Maryland's major vegetable crops are grown for processors points up the value of the canning and freezing industries to the prosperity of the state's agriculture. Mr. Goodwin said, "Canners and other food processors are maintaining and creating markets for farmers, provide year-round markets for seasonal agricultural commodities, making large-scale farm production economically practical."

He pointed out that the United States last year in total production of truck crops harvested for processing.

8th ANNUAL BABY DERBY MAY 2

There was a time when it was considered fortunate to be born "with a silver spoon in your mouth", but any baby born this Saturday, May 2, 1953, between 12:01 a. m. and 12 p. m., midnight, will indeed be lucky because its proud parents will be the recipients of an award that will be worthwhile and appropriate.

The famous Baby Derby conducted by the Acme Super Markets and American Stores grows each year in appeal and popularity and is a fitting climax to National Baby Week. This will be the 8th Annual Baby Derby and all babies born in this area on Saturday, May 2, 1953, will be eligible to receive a generous gift package of baby foods. Last year about 500 babies were born on Baby Derby Day and the gift included an assortment of 65 baby foods and other items for baby, both nationally advertised items and the chain's own products.

To obtain this gift package the Father, Aunts, Uncles, Relatives, Friends, Doctor or Nurse need merely fill in the special coupon which will be found in the Acme Markets or American Stores advertisements and mail it to the address shown in the coupon not later than May 16. Then, after that lists have been compiled and verified, the big prize carton of baby food of every description will be delivered to the Mother at the designated address.

TO ALL EZZEE FLOW DEALERS

Their entire assets were sold as of April 15, 1953, to the Avco Manufacturing Corporation who will henceforth incorporate this operation into their New Idea division. To those of you who have the New Idea contract, this will not work any hardship because you will, of course, continue to be able to buy EZZEE FLOW machines and parts.

Here are eight points of life I thought you would like to read. 1. Don't contradict others, even if you know that they are right. 2. Don't be inquisitive about the affairs of even your most intimate friends. 3. Don't meditate anything because you don't possess it. 4. Don't believe that everybody else in the world is happier than you. 5. Don't be rude to your inferiors in social position. 6. Don't repeat gossip, even if it does interest a crowd. 7. Learn to hide your aches and pains under a pleasant smile. 8. Learn to attend to your own business. This is especially important.—Sunshine.

FEESERSBURG

In a few years we will celebrate the 500th anniversary of the invention of movable type by Gutenberg. This invention made possible the millions of printed pages we know today, and hanged the entire human race. No truer truth was ever uttered than he one saying the pen is mightier than the sword. For as long as man continues to read, his thoughts and his deeds will be governed by what he reads. Books have been able to sway entire nations and to mold public opinion for or against certain problems. It may be thought, that in the future, man will forsake the printed word for the means of communication used, it is to be hoped the right thoughts and ideas will be forthcoming and that they will find a reception in the mind of man. Things have always improved, however. They have improved because it is the inescapable destiny of mankind to improve things. It is the belief of some intellectuals that man has only fifty years of life on this earth left to squander. They believe that man is out to destroy himself in scientific wars. It may be that they are right for there is much evidence to bear them out. But looking back over man's history one has the feeling that there are men like Gutenberg, who will come forward and lead the people back to the period of social culture that was enjoyed when writers, artists and poets molded public opinion, and power politics was only a minor condition to be considered.

Raymond Rippeon, well known farmer of Mt. Union, died unexpectedly early Monday morning at his home of a heart attack. Sunday evening he and his wife had called on neighbors and he seemed to be in usual health. His sudden death was a shock to his neighbors in the community where he had lived for the past forty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ardel Robertson have sold their farm and will move to Silver Run where they have bought a home. They expect to move in about two weeks.

The Uniontown Parish choir journeyed to Washington Sunday and gave a musical program for the guests at the Lutheran Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bohn entertained the Smiling Sunbeams of the Mt. Union church Tuesday evening at their home.

Frederick residents were startled the other day to see an airplane being driven down Market street minus wings but with its propellers humming. The owner explained to the police that he was trying to move it to the local airport under its own power. He was advised to hire a tow truck and get it off the street as fast as he could.

Nearly every person if he lives long enough will have a hypodermic needle thrust into him at one point or another. In his opinion it represents a form of ancient torture conceived in the brain of man. But the principle of this medical instrument was borrowed from the fangs of snakes and bites of insects. In the mouth of the cobra snake are parts similar to the parts of the man-made syringe: the hollow needle like teeth, the barrel in which the venom is located; also muscles to squeeze the poison from the barrel into the flesh. The only difference between nature's and man's hypo is that nature can seldom be improved upon.

Nancy Roske was among the students presented in a recital Thursday evening at Peabody, Baltimore.

I tried to force a bee out of my window, and I was stung. The next time he came, I enticed him into a flower and easily was rid of him.—Aline Hughes.

The idea of inherently superior races and inherently inferior races is being fast exploded by science. There are undeveloped races, but no permanently inferior or superior ones. An outstanding biologist says, "There are cultural differences between races, but no biological." The four types of blood found in one race are found in every race. The I. Q.'s of the colored children in New York are as high as those of white children. The cultural background of the homes from which they come may help or retard their progress, but the raw material is the same. An English judge in Burma who had also been a judge in England, said he had discovered that the brain of humanity is one, for lawyers in Burma and in England argue from the same fallacies to the same conclusions! The boys in the service who have spent a year or more in Korea, in contact with the different races come back impressed, if somewhat surprised, with the fact that the color of one's skin neither adds nor detracts superior wisdom nor makes one a more efficient or less efficient soldier. This is a truth that all must learn to accept.

A friend of mine tells this story on her five year old son and on herself. New neighbors moved in next door to them and the female side of the family was young, pretty and friendly. My friend's young son was bewitched and spent most of his time next door. No doubt the young lady became tired of so much attention day after day so one morning she suggested to young Romeo that he had better go home—that his mother wouldn't like him being with her so much. Young Romeo's answer was: 'Oh, Mother doesn't mind me coming over to see you; it's daddy she doesn't want to come.'

April: Let me live and live on an April day; When the wind is high and the world so gay. When the fields are as green as Chinese jade; And the birds sing so pertly a spring accolade.—Ruth Roelke.

HILBERT—In loving memory of our dear grandmother, MARY E., who departed this life one year ago, May 3, 1952. May brings sad memories. Oh a loved one gone to rest; She will never be forgotten By us who loved her best. Her smiling face no more we see, Her gentle footsteps no more we hear, Her willing hands and face so sweet, In Heaven some day we hope to meet. Her loving Granddaughters, MRS. LEVINE NELL and MRS. HARVEY SHORB.

HILBERT—In loving memory of our great-grandmother, MARY E., who departed this life one year ago, May 3, 1952. Loving and kind in all her ways, Upright and just to the end of her days. Shrewd and true, in her heart and mind Beautiful memories she left behind. Her loving great-grandchildren, DAVID, WILLIAM & LINDA SHORB.

OTTO—In loving memory of our dear mother and grand-mother, AMANDA C., who passed away 4 years ago, May 2, 1949. Death has robbed us of our mother, Of the one we loved so well. Took her from this world of sorrow Safely home with him to dwell. We watched beside her bed and prayed The Lord her life to spare But heavenly angels came and took From this world of pain and care Peaceful be thy rest dear mother, It is sweet to breathe thy name, In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same. Sadly missed by daughters, MRS. WILLIAM STITELY and MRS. WILLIAM ABRA and granddaughter, MARGARET.

(Continued from first page) butter and milk, fresh fruit and vegetables which are available from their own farm which lies directly in back of the home. In the usual home for the aged, the newcomer turns over all his possessions and from that moment he becomes subject to directions and directives. He may have been his own boss for 50 years, he may have been an employer of other folk but now he must rise and retire by bells, eat when and what he is told, receive visitors by stated hours, go out only when permission is granted by the institution staff and keep hours as strictly as any school child. Worst of all, he has little to occupy his mind and still less to do. All this IS JUST the opposite at "Rolling Acres." Those individuals right there simply are a "case" or "charge". The guests are free to go to the town or out of town at will and they are not required to report to institutional officials. There is no regimented "signing out" as in a college dormitory.

Elderly people like to hear a little money jingle in their pocket for which they are accountable to no one. The assets of an entering guest are deposited to his credit and he may draw on this up to 2 per cent. Upon his death, the principal adds to the home's assets. People often fail to understand what it does to a man's pride not to have money in his pocket" says Dr. Wilson

Going up to the third floor, there is a hospital with another addition to be added which is almost completed. Any sick guest is taken there and after getting well is again brought down to their room.

There is a grand big room with a stage and as I was looking around saw that the one who donated this lovely affair was Mr. Walter Davis—late of Westminster. The guests present their talent and they have "the time of their lives"! The assistants of Dr. Wilson are Rev. Frank I. Cockrell, with his charming wife. It was truly a wonderful day at "ROLLING ACRES" where those dear hearts and gentle people are bubbling over with happiness, peace and contentment and where they are truly growing old gracefully!

When money is donated to these types of places (and there should be dozens of more such homes) you feel that you have done something really worthwhile in life!

Have a grand week-end, Folks. Take a drive there regardless of denomination and see for yourself a home where people are really loved and cared for. Adjectives could not describe this lovely place and you will agree with Your Observer that it is the best home you have ever known! Every Methodist should visit this home and feel very proud. The drive there is most picturesque. Will see you next week, D.V. I am, Faithfully,

Let's Think by G. H. ENFIELD

We will have to wear out this winter weather if it doesn't wear us out first.

The insignificant can never become significant until there is a recognition of the importance of the significant.

Too many parents overfeed the "ego" of their children and thus hinder a normal development.

Any person may ascertain how "important" he is by subtracting from himself his "self-importance."

What type of structure can one build on a foundation where there is neither pride nor shame!

A young face is naturally a blushing face. Some older faces may improve by frequent applications of a smiling lotion.

The spinster who believes all men are in pursuit of her should take a second look over her shoulder.

To win and enjoy permanent peace, we must win men's minds rather than kill their bodies.

What creature talks back so much when kindly talked to as a pup!

TODAY'S CHUCKLE He was a playful middle-aged wolf. Seating himself close to a little blonde on the bus, he leaned over and asked: "Where have you been all my life?"

She looked at him coolly and replied: "Well, for most of it, I wasn't born."—Butler Eagle.

A barking dog to a possum said, Come down the tree, and I'll kill you dead; But the possum leisurely slept away And let the dog do his 'say.'

A sound picture will be shown at the Harney E. U. B. Church, at 7:45 p. m., on Sunday evening which is called, "Challenge of Africa." N'anta a village boy went to that city, filled with ambition for himself and his people. He was different from others—his mother and father before him had been Christians and had been trained in a Christian school. He was misled by the words of Communist comrades, that sounds like the fellowship with Christ. The public is cordially invited to see the outcome of this Communist-led lad.

A Minister

Lesson for May 3, 1953

GOING up in a canal-boat to the interior of China or somewhere, stopping now and then to preach a sermon and distribute some Testaments and then shoving along to the next stop—this is some people's idea of foreign missions, but it won't do. It isn't the way the best work has been done. And it most certainly is not the New Testament way of spreading the Gospel. St. Paul, for instance, traveled many a mile, and he is known for his "missionary journeys." But an examination of the New Testament story shows that his journeys were mostly stops, some of them right long ones. Paul believed not only in preaching the Good News but in establishing churches. He stayed in Corinth a year and a half, and in Ephesus two whole years. He left going congregations behind him at both places, and he kept up with them for years.

Dr. Foreman a year and a half, and in Ephesus two whole years. He left going congregations behind him at both places, and he kept up with them for years.

Minister

All sorts of names are given to ministers. Some call them "Reverend," a title hanging over from the Middle Ages and one that most ministers, to tell the truth, would just as soon not have. Some call them "Preacher," and they do preach; but few ministers preach for more than two or three hours out of the 168 hours in the week. A bigger word and a better word is just "Minister." This is a word St. Paul used about himself, and it was not original with him. Our Lord used it of himself. Our English language rather conceals the fact that the word means "One who serves," for in the Greek that Paul used, the word "serve" and the word "minister" are almost the same. Minister does not mean "servant" in the cap-and-apron, hired-man sense of the word. It does mean one who is of service. There is one country minister in North Carolina, much loved by his people, who not only preaches and cares for the souls of his people but who has shown them how to raise strawberries better than were ever grown in those parts before. He spells Service in letters that spread over all of life.

Teacher

If all you get out of church is a "good feeling," you don't get what was intended, or else your minister isn't quite up to his job. The minister who takes St. Paul for his model will be a teacher and not simply a preacher. We know that Paul at Ephesus taught in the lecture-hall of Tyrannus every week-day, perhaps Sundays too. The good minister's sermons will be a kind of education; but he does not stop there. The minister can't teach all the classes in Sunday School but he can see to it that the Sunday school selects good teachers. He can oversee the whole business of religious education in his church, check on what is being done, help to plan with the teachers and other workers, see that the teachers have a chance to attend training classes, help build up the Sunday school library... there is hardly any end to what the minister can do as a teacher, if he has half a mind in that direction. Above all, the minister is the Bible teacher.

Pastor

When all is said and done, however, there is no finer word than Pastor, and no higher work than what he does. There simply is not anywhere any institution except the Christian church that has anything like the place and work of the pastor. An old-fashioned name for this is the "cure of souls," and that never meant just the cure of sick souls, but also the care of souls to keep them from being sick. Paul, when he was reviewing his work in the church at Ephesus could have mentioned some of the startling and sensational events which Luke mentions in chapter 19. Instead, Paul describes his own day-to-day, door-to-door work as pastor of his people. To put it as simply as possible, the pastor brings God into the lives of his people, and brings his people to God. While the minister may have a salary, as in most churches he does, he can never be paid for what he does as pastor. How can we pay a man money for comfort and warning and faith and strength, that we would not have known without his help?

Prospects for Major Processing Crops

Now's time to plan processing crop plantings.

Growers of crops for processing in the New Jersey-Maryland-Delaware area can plan their 1953 production with growing assurance of a good market. The controlling factor, of course, is still supply and demand, though this has become much more stable both in acreage and in farm income from canning crops because of the increasing use of contracts by growers with canners. Best industry gauge lies in 1952 statistics on national and area crops, together with existing supplies of canned foods and how fast they are moving to the consumer as compared with last year. Enough such statistics are available now for processors to know about where they stand. When that is coupled with the optimistic national outlook, and probable better yields this year, the season ahead appears promising for growers. In terms of some of the major processing crops grown in these Tri-States, the prospects are: Lima Beans: situation greatly improved over recent years for the canned product and about comparable to 1952 for frozen limas. Reduced pack last year aided materially in liquidating excessive carryover. Outlook for return to normal marketing of canned limas, continued healthy growth for frozen. Green Beans: final official production figures show 1952 pack-together with continuing normal consumption, indicates a satisfactory year ahead for growers. Asparagus: smaller pack last year offset higher carryover at beginning of 1952 season. Existing stocks are estimated as somewhat larger than a year ago, however, indicating that consumer price resistance is a strong factor in determining quantity to be consumed. No price increase expected. Corn: although 1952's pack was about 25 per cent above the previous year, shipments are better than in 1951, indicating that no overburdening stocks will be on hand. Satisfactory demand seen. Peas: reduced pack last year offset higher carryover at start of season. Existing stocks substantially less than a year ago, outlook correspondingly bright. Tomatoes: complex outlook, but on the whole, the generally favorable stock position of this area's packers and the proximity of our consuming markets point to prices comparable with 1952. Yields probably will be much improved. Tomatoes for canning face reasonably good demand. For juice, present stocks are more than 20 per cent higher, the 1952 pack having been almost identical with 1951 and the beginning season stocks high. Somewhat similar to the juice situation, though to a lesser degree, is that for catsup and chili sauce, important to much of the area.

ANSWERS YOUR QUESTIONS

Q. What is the best way to clean a brooder house?

A. Start by removing everything -- equipment, litter, dirt, etc. Scrape and sweep away all filth, then scrub with hot water and detergent. Use Dr. Salsbury's Germex as a disinfectant. Germex is a powerful germ-killer, yet is odorless and will not stain. Economical, too. Remember, sanitation needs doing right -- so buy Germex now and use it now.

Down the Line with Johnny Bell

"One for all and all for one"

This famous motto of the Three Musketeers brought them safely through many adventures. Usually they were able to survive great peril only by dramatic teamwork. Of course, their adventures were purely fictional, but teamwork can give real-life drama a happy ending too. Lives can be saved by considerate party-line users who give up their lines to others in an emergency.

Do it the easy way

Remember the story of the fellow who loaded his mule with a sack of potatoes on one side and balanced it with a sack of stones on the other. He made many trips this way until someone suggested that it might be more efficient to balance the first sack with another sack of potatoes.

There's a more efficient way to make Long Distance calls, too. When you give the operator the telephone number, instead of just the name and address of the person you want, your calls go through faster.

A May is a good month to Make every day Mother's Day... Put up grass silage... Lay pipes to the poultry range to save all that work of carrying water... Prepare a deep, loose seedbed for corn... Order nitrogen fertilizer, so you'll be prepared to side-dress corn at the last cultivation... Cultivate tree rows in young plantings... Plant annual flowers... Detest the farm freezer when stocks are low... Clean the fertilizer attachment on the corn planter before putting it away... Vaccinate young stock against blackleg... Prepare for hot weather by insulating chicken houses, and adding new ventilation... Fertilize straight grass pastures to stimulate production and increase protein content.

LUTHERAN WORLD ACTION APPEAL

The local church is one of more than 10,000 affiliated with the eight Lutheran church bodies participating in the National Lutheran Council, the agency which supervises the gathering and distribution of Lutheran World Action funds. The local church is also affiliated with the Lutheran World Federation, representing 51,000,000 Lutherans in 52 churches around the world.

The American Lutheran church bodies participating in the National Lutheran Council are the United Lutheran Church in America, the Evangelical Lutheran Church, the American Lutheran Church, the Augustana Lutheran Church, the Lutheran Free Church, the Suomi Synod, the United Evangelical Lutheran Church and the Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The Lutheran World Action goal for 1953 is $2,600,000, of which the local church is asked to give $672.00, Pastor said.

Since the Lutheran World Action was begun thirteen years ago, the Trinity congregation has contributed a total of near $11,000.00. In addition to the cash gifts, it has gathered 3,000 pounds of used clothing, shoes and bedding, which have been shipped to needy abroad by Lutheran World Relief, the material aid arm of Lutheran World Action.

Total Lutheran World Action and Lutheran World Relief gifts contributed nationally since 1940 exceed $57,000,000. More than $34,000,000 of this amount has been contributed in cash, while the used clothing, shoes, food and other material given to Lutheran World Relief has been valued at over $23,000,000.

All the funds have been used for emergency activities of the Lutheran Church at home and 67 countries abroad, the major share to provide spiritual and physical relief in war-ravaged countries around the world. The goods given to Lutheran World Relief have been distributed to the needy in 24 countries.

The most important current projects of the Church to be supported by the 1953 Lutheran World Action gifts include ministry to military personnel, support to foreign mission work and younger churches throughout the world, aid to refugees and to war-ravaged or persecuted churches in Europe, and Asia, and emergency missions to Americans in temporary defense development communities.

Of the 1953 goal, $290,000 has been earmarked for spiritual service to Lutheran men and women in the armed forces. This ministry is conducted by the National Lutheran Council in cooperation with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. It provides pastoral care for service personnel while they are in training camps in this country and on duty abroad.

Last year, more than 170,000 people made use of the forty-five parish centers, service centers and lounges operated by the Lutherans for personnel of the armed forces throughout the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, Panama Canal Zone, Formosa and Japan. In communities where no special service centers had been established the spiritual, ministry to men and women in the armed forces was carried on by nearly one hundred "contact pastors".

$650,000 of the 1953 goal have been allocated for the support of younger churches and so-called orphaned missions, that is, missions which were cut off from their supporting societies in Europe during World War II and which are still dependent on aid from the U. S.

In the past 13 years Protestants of the world have spent nearly $11,000,000 to support such orphaned missions in Africa, India, China, Japan, New Guinea and Indonesia. More than half, or nearly $6 million of this amount was contributed by American Lutherans, it was recently reported.

At home the Lutheran church bodies cooperating in the National Lutheran Council are set to meet the challenge of the rapidly shifting population of the United States. To minister to Americans who move "thirty million strong" each year, the Church is establishing new mission congregations in rapidly growing communities around new defense plants and elsewhere when needed. The combined American missions program of the eight church bodies cooperating in the National Lutheran Council has grown to a $3,000,000 a year enterprise. The ministry to temporary communities is supported by $50,000 of LWA funds.

Over the past years aid to displaced persons and refugees has been a major activity of the Lutheran World Action program. Thanks to LWA funds it has been possible to resettle over 36,000 displaced persons in the United States under auspices of Lutheran Resettlement Service.

Although last year the United States Displaced Persons Act expired, closing the gates of America to the flow of refugees, the Lutheran World Federation continues to aid refugees in many parts of the world, particularly in Germany where the tide of refugees from Communism is rising again, and in Palestine, where some 800,000 Arabs, driven from their old homes in Israel, are in a desperate situation. $365,000 of the 1953 LWA goal have been allocated for these purposes.

To aid churches in war-ravaged countries in Europe and elsewhere, and especially to aid the Protestant churches in East Germany, now experiencing violent persecution by the Communists, $475,000 of the 1953 Lutheran World Action goal will be used.

A comparatively new program of the Lutheran church of America, also supported by LWA funds, is the ministry to Lutherans in Latin America, where the immigration of large numbers of Lutheran refugees from Europe has necessitated organizing and aiding of Lutheran congregations in Venezuela, Peru, Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Columbia and other countries.

Other allocations of the 1953 Lutheran World Action fund are $250,000 for Lutheran World Relief, $125,000 for special projects in Europe and administration, $185,000 for promotion, $95,000 for work in cooperation with other agencies, and $20,000 for the American Bible Society.

RADIO STATION APPROVED BY FCC

The Federal Communications Commission has approved the application of the Carroll County Broadcasting Corporation for the new radio station to be located at Westminster. The construction permit was granted March 25th however a 30 day waiting period was specified to permit filing of any objections by existing stations. The 30 days have elapsed with no protests, therefore construction will begin immediately.

Of special interest is the assignment of the call letters WTTR which will soon become well known throughout the area, as a result of the many fine programs planned for our listening pleasure.

The major equipment items are being supplied by the Gates Radio Company, of Quincy, Illinois, and are expected within the next few weeks. The tower is being supplied by the Blaw Knox Steel Company of Pittsburgh. It will be erected by the Wright TV and Radio Company, of Hampstead. The building contract has been awarded to Peck Dull, wiring to be done by Carroll Electrical Service, Plumbing and Heating by Crowl and Leister, and well drilling by Kyker and Abbott, all of Westminster.

The equipment installation will be performed by Mr. Russ Morgan, general manager of the new station, and Mr. Leo Karns. Both men have had considerable radio engineering experience and have the installation planned so that a minimum of time will be required to ready it for final inspection by a federal inspecting engineer.

It was originally thought that the sign on date would be during the month of May, however the 30 day waiting period and a slight delay in equipment shipment, have revised this to around July 1st. You will be advised of the actual sign on date in plenty of time to hear the initial broadcast from WTTR which will mark another milestone in the forward progress of Carroll County and adjoining areas.
