OUR COP Comes Well Recommended from Emmitsburg

The Emmitsburg Chronicle in its July 31, 1953 issue contained two articles commending the services of officer Robert L. Koontz during his tenure of office as policeman for Emmitsburg. The two articles follow:

"Rumors are flying as to who the next town policeman will be since it was learned that Chief Bob Koontz has submitted his resignation. They say there is a field of seven in the running and we can't help but wonder what has generated all this enthusiasm for the job that used to go wanting. True, the pay is fairly good, but when you consider the animosity that also goes with the job, I don't see why so many are interested in taking it. Just think. Every time you make a "pinch" you not only have made an enemy, but you have inflamed the guy's whole family and practically all of his relatives to boot. And to "tag" a fellow lady for parking overtime is practically a felony in this burg. Oh well, every fellow in his own trade, and don't say I didn't tell you that it wasn't all gray and no work, because there are headaches aplenty connected to the job. At any rate, we are sorry to see Bob leave us. We are of the personal opinion that he has done a mighty fine job while in action and want to commend him on the work he has done with the youth of our community. Many a boy has been steered on the right path by Bob's Junior Police Club. The best of luck in your new endeavor, Chief! About all that can be said now is that Emmitsburg's loss is Taneytown's gain."—"Most Anything At A Glance" by Abigail.

"Police Chief Robert L. Koontz of the Emmitsburg Police Dept., officially tendered his resignation to the Mayor and Commissioners of Emmitsburg last week. Chief Koontz plans to make his home in Taneytown where he has accepted charge of the Taneytown Police Dept. The popular officer has held this position here for the past two years and has enjoyed a wide circle of friends. Town officials have held several meetings screening candidates for the position, but until late this week had not yet agreed on a successor to Chief Koontz, who will remain here for about two more weeks."—"The Emmitsburg Chronicle."

The Harney 4-H Club held their monthly meeting at the home of Albert Angell, July 28, 1953, at 8 p. m. The business meeting was opened by the president, Albert Angell, followed by the 4-H pledge. Due to the absence of the secretary there was no reading of the minutes. The treasurer's report was given. Mr. Allenberger checked his record of enrollment to see if all the boys carried a project. Reports were given on the placing at the Carroll County 4-H Fair. The County Campfire was talked about but further arrangements will be made at the next meeting. The business meeting was then adjourned.

A demonstration was given by Albert Angell on "The Care of Rubber Tires." There were two visitors present at the meeting. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Gene Moore.

The annual 4-H club picnic was held at the farm of Mr. Chas. Rohrbraugh August 2, 1953, in the evening. Games swimming and boating were enjoyed by those present. There was also a weiner roast and all that went with it which was enjoyed by everyone. There were about 60 parents, guests and friends present.

(Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning a smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth! I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer. Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The beautiful Zinnas are in full bloom of all the colors of the Rainbow and are so plentiful that every vase is filled in each room plus the continued Blooms on the outside for beauty and decorative purposes.

The wise farmer has cut the hay in the fields opposite which is a beautiful shade of green and packed ready for storage for the winter months! Hay is going up in frightful figures this winter, Mr. Farmer so watch that one!

Now, here's one of which Your Observer is quite proud! I made the first pound of butter and Mmmmm good! Nellie is surely going places and is being loved and caressed more so each day. Believe it or not she fell sound asleep—her big beautiful head in my Teen-Ager's lap! By this time my Readers know who has the contented Cow!

Ladies, this winter you must be as careful and well groomed as to Your Crowning Glory due to the fact that all hats appear to be quite small and there are many of the "Half Hats" being shown. Skirts are a trifle shorter and a much more becoming length for day time wear. And you must again have that slim look! These days, the hair-cut is very, very short especially for summer wear.

Camels Hair coats are back again for the coming winter and the prices are not in telephone numbers either as in other years.

Velvet gloves will be the thing again especially in black.

Here's a cute one—a little bride tells me that she never sprinkles the laundry. She takes it down from the line before quite dry and places them in a bundle in the REFRIGERATOR! That means less work and she can iron them any time the desire presses her!

THE UN IS ON TRIAL

With the Korean battle-front an empty, silent scar, a two-and-a-half mile wide strip of no-man's land dividing the desolate peninsula just about as it was before the three year nightmare of blood and terror and political bungling or worse—the world is waiting to see whether the Reds or the UN "won" this war.
 The dead are being exchanged and the casualty lists are still being compiled at this writing. Soon Red Cross workers of eleven nations will be at work under the Joint Military Armistice Commission on the task of sorting out and repatriating 90,000 prisoners.

In their conference with President Singman Rhee in Seoul, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and Senators Knowland of California, Smith of New Jersey, Russell of Georgia and Johnson, of Texas are expected to suggest that all Korea be "neutralized" as a basis for unification. Under such a process, it would be very naughty, we presume, to talk about either democracy or communism, but rather, everyone should proceed as if neither existed. It is understood that Mr. Rhee has already indicated doubts that oil and water will mix.

In London, the Churchill government has declared that Communist China should take Nationalist China's seat in the UN "when the time is right" and Acting Prime Minister R.A.B. Butler has stated that Russia as well as Red China should sit at the Korean peace table. Chinese representation in the UN, Mr. Butler said, is a matter that only the UN itself can decide.

Whether you agree with this or not, it would seem there is still another matter that only the UN can decide, and that is whether or not it will, in the next few months justify its existence, and thus its right to survive. No one can deny that the Korean horror was our war, ours and the South Koreans—that while the announced intention was to "repel aggressors", only unification under democracy could accomplish this and make Korea an economic reality. It would further appear, that after a bad start, we were doing a pretty good job until the UN decided on the "containment" theory and took over strategy.

Thus, now that we have a UN true the question is whether the UN can make a peace. If it can bring unification and free elections to Korea, our mission will be accomplished. If it fails, we can't expect it to be of further help to anyone but the Communists. It will be time to pull the plug.—U. S. Press Association.

HOW TO MARKET SURPLUSES

Some time ago a special beef sales campaign to intensify advertising and merchandising of the additional meat which is being sent to market because of the drought emergency was announced by the National Association of Food Chains—an organization which operates in every state and represents some 15,000 retail food stores and supermarkets.

This action was taken under a recently established Farmer-Retailer Marketing Program, which provides a mechanism for harnessing the merchandising power of organized food retailers to sell increased quantities of surplus foods when requests are received from producers, and when a real need is evident. The program is similar to one which was followed, with striking success, during the depression. At that time, as now, the chains laid the groundwork and other types of merchants joined in and did their full part. The underlying idea is to bring the producer a better return for surplus crops than would otherwise be the case—and, of equal importance, to give the consumer good products at an attractive price.

This is an example of the tremendous selling power and efficiency of American retailing. It is also an example of the fact that producers and marketers can work together in a free economy to solve problems without relying on government to do it all. In that respect, it is a practical application of the philosophy which Secretary of Agriculture Benson has been courageously preaching. All success to it.—E. Hofer.

BEST SALESMAN

Retailers "can't get along" without newspaper advertising "and they'd better not try". Those words didn't emanate from an advertising solicitor, but from a retailer, J. C. Penney, chairman of the board of the company that bears his name, and a man who knows how to sell merchandise.

"We can't do business without newspaper advertising" said Mr. Penney. "The newspapers are our market place where we come to cry our wares."

In thousands of communities the local newspapers reach millions of readers regularly with a visual record of news and advertising that is not matched by any other means of communication.—Industrial News Review.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

ABLENE, KAN., DAILY REFLECTOR-CHRONICLE: "Perhaps the best example of a handicapped person rising to great heights is Helen Keller, one of America's greatest ladies. Her recent trip to Latin America may have won more good will for her country than all of our diplomatic missions. She is the sort of person to whom the people in the countries she visits can open their hearts."

COATESVILLE, PA., RECORD: "The million non-operating rail workers of 15 unions, who have served new demands on 311 U.S. railroads, say they don't want more wages. The fringe benefits they are now demanding include longer vacations, paid health and welfare programs, increased overtime rates for Sundays and holidays, and more liberal free transportation allowance. This may not be money to a railroad worker—but it would be to your scribe."

BALTIMORE, MD., DAILY RECORD: "Maybe we're wrong but we wonder if the post office deficit couldn't be cut quite a bit by eliminating a high percentage of the stuff that is franked by Congressmen and various governmental bureaus. The newspapers today keep the public pretty well informed concerning matters in Washington and many of the franked matters seem superfluous."

SENATE CLOAKROOM

By J. Glenn Beall
 U. S. Senator from Maryland

Now that Congress has adjourned it will be interesting to observe the Eisenhower Administration in the coming months.

Few people understand how difficult it is to take charge of Executive Department while Congress is in session.

Congress convened on January 3, Eisenhower was inaugurated on January 20. His Cabinet and he had only a couple of months to prepare themselves and they had to take over a government administered by another party which had spent twenty years in power.

The budget given to President Eisenhower was the work of the Truman Administration. The problems handed over to him were all the problems of the Truman Administration.

Within a matter of weeks Ike and his Cabinet was expected to revise the Truman budget—they immediately cut it by eight billion dollars—and to present a legislative program to the Congress.

Cabinet officers had hardly been confirmed before they were being summoned to Capitol Hill to give opinions to Congressional committees on all sorts of subjects.

Before they had an opportunity to acquaint themselves with their office staffs they were being asked to give authoritative opinions on money policies, foreign policies, national defense, domestic economy and every other subject which might interest the Congress.

Hours were spent preparing to testify and more hours spent testifying. Many of the President's new appointees were compelled to spend more time on Capitol Hill than they did in their offices.

The adjournment of Congress will mean that the Administration will now have an opportunity to devote its attention to the problems of government without having to give daily explanations to the legislative body.

In the months ahead, I believe, you may expect to see the Eisenhower Administration become more aggressive, more positive. The leadership of your government will appear to be more firm.

New policies which the Administration has initiated in the first six months will begin to produce results, they actually will begin to take hold.

Our foreign policies will be more dramatic and our government's reaction quicker as the Secretary of State and the Administration grow more confident.

The Administration will be on its own and the experience gained between now and January will give it the confidence it needs.

There is no friend like industry: cultivate it, and you will never fail.—Bhartrihara.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Mrs. Anna M. Mower, wife of the Rev. A. B. Mower, pastor of the U. B. Church, died August 2, 1903, aged 39 years, leaving her husband and four children.

New Windsor—The Head-dress Carnival, given at Hotel Dielman, on Saturday evening last was quite a success. Mrs. L. H. Dielman took first prize, and Mrs. Irwin, second prize.

Copperville—Samuel Flickinger made a business trip to Baltimore and took in the Elk's parade.

Rev. J. D. Clark, wife and son, Russell, of Uniontown, spent Thursday with the family of Samuel Galt.

Union Bridge—Our enterprising and popular grocer, Wm. D. Engelman, has placed a first class cash register in his store on the corner of Main Street and Broadway.

Frizzellburg—Jacob Null and wife and Emory Wantz and wife, attended the dutch picnic last Saturday and spent Sunday with Levi Zahn and wife.

M. H. Reindollar is now occupying his new hardware store room in the Mehring building.

The Catholic picnic, on Wednesday while rather slimly attended, probably on account of the threatening weather in the morning, was still a financial success.

Mountain peaches sold on our streets last Saturday at 50c per basket holding a scant peck.

Both Democratic and Republican primaries this Saturday afternoon; the former at the Elliot house, and the latter at the Buffington house.

The Union Bridge Farmers Club met at the delightful home of Sarah Wolfe and Sisters, August 6, 1903.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

The Department of the Air Force recently announced that high school graduates now have the opportunity to apply for Aircraft Observer training and become flying officers skilled in navigation, bombardment, radar operation, aircraft performance engineering and related technical flying specialties.

For the first time since World War II, a young man with a high school diploma can apply directly from civilian life for flying training.

In addition to being a high school graduate, an applicant must be between the ages of 19 and 26 1/2, single, and in good physical and mental health. Minimum vision requirement is 20/50 if corrected with glasses to 20/20.

An individual is placed under no obligation by submitting an application for training. He will not enter the Air Force until he is found fully qualified for Observer training and desires to enter the program.

The Aircraft Observer course is divided into three phases—Pre-Flight, Primary and Basic.

The three month Pre-Flight phase consists of intensive office type training that includes drills, customs and courtesies, physical training, etc.

Upon completion of Pre-Flight, Aircraft Observer cadets receive 30 weeks of Primary training which covers the fundamental skills and techniques common to all Aircraft Observer duties.

After completing the Primary phase, the Aircraft Observer cadet attends one of several Basic courses that trains him for a specific aircrew position on a bombardment, interceptor, reconnaissance or transport type aircraft.

After approximately a year of training the cadet will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Force Reserve.

Full information concerning Aircraft Observer Training can be obtained by visiting or writing Aviation Cadet Selection Team Bolling Air Force Base, Washington, D. C.

FEESERSBURG

The heavy showers Saturday and Sunday gave Carroll county a different look. Brown lawns turned green again and the meadows came to life. The corn appeared to grow a foot overnight. Just for curiosity, we placed a square pan on the lawn Saturday just before the storm broke and Sunday morning we measured three and a half inches of water. At Detour it is reported that seven inches fell. One person said it didn't come down in turns—it looked like the clouds just dripped over and emptied themselves like huge tubs.

A one percent sale tax will go into effect Sept. 1 in Pennsylvania. It is quite complicated. Some items of food and clothing are exempted which only adds to the confusion of the buyer.

The average area of the forty-eight states of the Union is 63,000 square miles. Georgia, with an area of 59,000 most nearly approaches the average. Texas, of course is the largest with an area of 265,000 square miles, while Rhode Island is the smallest with an area of 3,824 sq. miles.

Our neighboring country to the North of us held an election this week and returned the Liberal party to office. The conservatives tried to win with the slogan which gained the Republicans their victory in the U.S. But the "Time for a Change" didn't fool the Canadians. They just looked over the border and decided the Liberals were doing all right and they would stick to them. No doubt the Canadians are meeting some Americans who do not look particularly happy with the change they got. Especially if they happened to be farmers.

I tried a new dessert today. Gingerbread with lemon sauce. The family was unanimous in saying it was okay. They proved it by eating it all in one sitting.

The use of DDT has brought on a new breed of flies. They have the stamina of elephants and have to be hit over the head with clubs before they give up. No spray on the market seems to have too much effect on them. Indeed they seem to like the stuff.

Wise word of a teenager: "Mother, please relax — stop sheltering me. I love you most when things are kind of sloppy."

There seems to be a tendency among the young girls graduating from high schools during the last few years to turn their backs on careers and head straight into marriage. Of course in grandmothers day this was the only thing a girl could do, but today when a girl can choose between a husband and children and a job with her own freedom it is challenging to say the least to find most girls preferring family ties to the business world. It may be that the present generation is wise beyond its years. For when the final score is counted up nothing can ever take the place of family life. Glamour and independence may be fine for a while, but for long lasting contentment and for a feeling of stability one needs a home, marriage and children.

"Beauty seen is never lost" wrote John Greenleaf Whittier. This is true whether we see it with our eyes, hear it with our ears or feel it with our contact with certain individuals possessing a beautiful character or kind heart.

Are you the kind of cook that turns her nose up at prepared cake mixes? I must confess that I belonged to that skeptical tribe until recently. First, I tried a prepared cake out on the family and found out it lasted no longer than one I mixed by hand. And the difference in taste doesn't make up for all the extra work. Once in a while now when I feel extra energetic I bake one of my favorite recipes, but the prepared mixes definitely have a place in our pantry from now on.

Miss Nancy Roelke is spending this week in Catonsville as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Witzke and Mrs. William Bartgis, Jr.

One of the hazards to driving a car is the family pet—be it a cat or dog. In the space of one mile the other morning I jammed the brakes 3 times to avoid two cats and one dog. Usually they dart in front of the car before one has time to see if there is a car behind. When one stops suddenly, without time to signal an accident often occurs. One does automatically stop to avoid striking an animal, but too often it causes an accident. It is cruel to confine animals but it is also cruel to kill them with a car.

Harsh things are being said about some of our soldiers captured by the Chinese who have elected to turn to communism instead of returning home. It would be wise before judging and condemning to know the facts. Living behind the safe and snug haven of our homes it is easy to condemn and say that we would never fall for a communist line. But maybe if we were five thousand miles from home and freedom, hungry, bewildered and sick we would find it difficult indeed to act like brave men and women. In fact some of us never show any bravery under the most normal circumstances. Be kind in your judgment, so that some time when you are found wanting, people will be understanding with your shortcomings. — Ruth Roelke.

Stopping for gas in an Iowa town, I found a line of cars at a filling station which displayed a sign: "Your tank full free if you guess how much it takes." After I had guessed—and lost—I asked the busy proprietor how his plan had worked out. "Fellow guessed right about 2 years ago," he said, "but it only cost me $1.30. And we don't get any 'Gimme a dollar's worth' customers any more. Everybody makes a guess and fills up."

Colorful "Quiz 'Kerchief"
 Popular New Children's Game

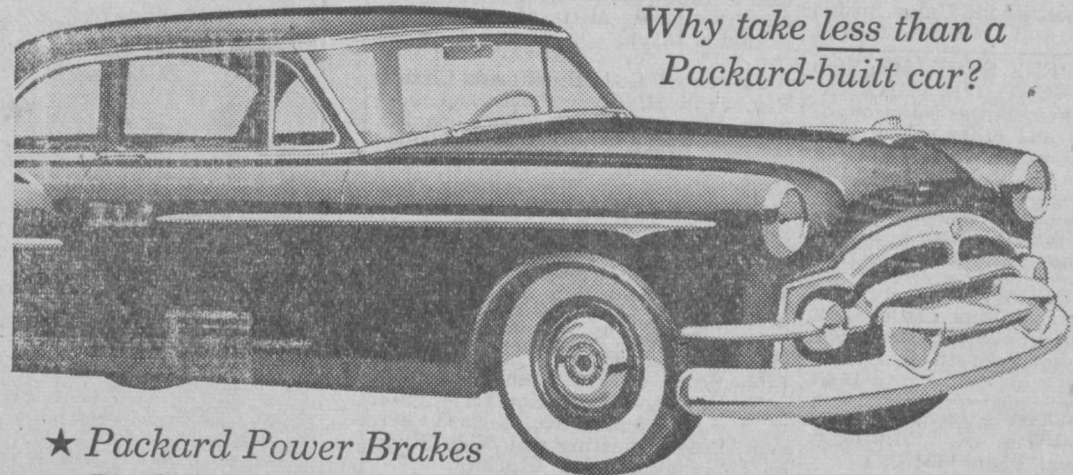

THERE'S A BRAND NEW PARTY HANDKERCHIEF GAME for kids. It teaches them to concentrate and count, improves their sense of color and design, sharpens memories, not to mention acquainting them with the value of handkerchiefs for cleanliness purposes.

It's "QUIZ 'KERCHIEF" and calls for (1) As many various colored and patterned 'kerchiefs as there are kids at the party. (2) A clothesline and clothes pins. (3) Paper and pencil for each guest.

With the wide variety of patterns—dots, checks, cowboys, animals, Walt Disney characters and others, found in children's handkerchiefs—it's easy to make up a clothesline of no-two-alike, however large the guest list and . . . the fluttering array adds gaiety to the group.

String the colorful hankeys on a clothesline across the room. Make up a list of descriptive questions. Have the kiddies study the clothesline about 10 minutes. Then move the party into another room. Give each child a pencil and paper on which he writes his name. Read off the list of questions slowly, one by one, allowing 3 minutes answering time for each question. A prize goes to the child answering the most questions correctly. The grand finale takes place back at the clothesline where each child takes a 'kerchief from the line.

It's an all-guests-get-gift party game since each happy guest receives a 'kerchief as a consolation prize, as well as being a subtle, good-habit influence on the younger generation. (ANS)

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Scripture: Colossians 1:1-2:7. Devotional Reading: Psalm 67.

Christ Above All

Lesson for August 16, 1953

THE reader who goes to Sunday school will have noticed that the quarterly never prints all the Scripture that is listed in this column. The reason is, the interdenominational committee preparing these lessons selects more Scripture than any quarterly is going to have room to print. This is in the hope that the student will not be content with reading short bits from the Bible at second-hand, but will go on to read more fully in the Bible itself. This particular column is

Dr. Foreman

Christ Pre-eminent

It ought to go without saying that Christ is pre-eminent, that is to say, above all, for the Christian. It does not go without saying, because Christians incline to forget it, or more exactly, they forget him. Paul uses the word "pre-eminent" only once in Colossians 1, but he uses many other ways of declaring that Christ is above all. In Christ we have forgiveness of sins; in him all the fullness of God dwells; he is the head of the church. The Christian has been transferred to Christ's kingdom; through Christ all men may be reconciled to one another; in Christ are "hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge"; the Christian is to be "filled with the knowledge of his will." The Christian receives him, is rooted in him, built up in him, grows to maturity in him; he is the Christian's hope of glory. All this is "in the book"; but is it in life? Does Christ actually loom as large in the life of Christians as he does in the plan of God.

You Received Christ

Speaking of the way the Christian life begins, Paul says, "You received Christ." That is what ought to happen at the very start. If it does not happen, there is no real start. What do we receive at the beginning of the Christian life? A certificate of church membership? Water? The Communion bread and wine? A name like "Methodist" or "Baptist" or "Lutheran"? Even a name like "Christian"? Now, it is true that the Christian life begins with an "I will." There is a vow, a determination, a hope and intention. But unless there is a receiving, all the hopes and intentions go for nothing.

So Live in Him

Paul says the Christian is "rooted" in Christ (as if we were plants) and "built up" in him or on him (as if we were brick walls). He puts these both together when he says "Live in him." If we are like plants "rooted" in Christ, that means he is to us what the soil is to a plant. All our spiritual life comes from him. Not from a book, from a creed, from a set of ideas, least of all from our own thin selves; but from Christ, in whom is "all the fullness of God." Again, if we are "built" on him, that means he sets the line of our lives. Just as a wall cannot lean one way or the other off its foundation, and still stand, so our lives either follow the line that Christ has set, or they collapse.

Mature in Christ

Christ is not only the ground and foundation, he is the goal of life for the Christian. Are we walls? He is the blueprint. Are we plants? He is a perfect specimen. Paul wants every Christian—not a few selected saints!—to be "mature in Christ." (The older translation "perfect" is misleading, since the Greek word means mature, not perfect nor sinless.) Why is it we are so easily self-satisfied? Why are so many Christians midges, permanent babies, in mind and spirit and character, when they ought to be growing up? Once there was a baby whose parents lived at some distance from other families with small children. For more than a year they thought their baby was doing very well. Then they visited another family where there was a normal baby, the same age as their own. For the first time, they realized their own child had not grown as it should. So we Christians compare ourselves with ourselves, or with other imperfect Christians, and we are foolishly content.

This demonstration showed me the way to a better deal!

I'd been planning to buy a higher-priced car until I found out all Chevrolet offered—and how much I could save!

You get more power on less gas

That's because Chevrolet's two great valve-in-head engines are high-compression engines. In Powerglide* models, you get the most powerful engine in Chevrolet's field—the new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame." Gearshift models offer the advanced 108-h.p. "Thrift-King" engine.

And it's the lowest-priced line

A demonstration will show you that Chevrolet offers just about everything you could want. Yet it's the lowest-priced line in the low-price field.

*Combination of Powerglide automatic transmission and 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine optional on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models at extra cost.

You get greater getaway with the new Powerglide*

A lot finer performance on a lot less gas. That's what you get with the new Powerglide automatic transmission. There's no more advanced automatic transmission at any price.

Biggest brakes for smoother, easier stops

An easy nudge on the pedal brings smooth, positive response—right now! Chevrolet's improved brakes are the largest in the low-price field.

It's heavier for better roadability

You're in for a pleasant surprise at the smooth, steady, big-car ride of this new Chevrolet. One reason is that, model for model, Chevrolet will weigh up to 200 pounds more than the other low-priced cars.

You're "sitting pretty" behind the wheel

Take this Bel Air model. First thing you'll notice is the quality of the interior. Rich-looking appointments. Roomy seats with foam rubber cushions. Turn the key to start the engine and you're ready to go.

You can see all around

You look out and down through a wide, curved, one-

Let us demonstrate all the advantages of buying a Chevrolet now!

MORE PEOPLE BUY CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

Well, you can't prove it by the National Safety Council. In the 1953 edition of "Accident Facts", its statistical yearbook, the Council is forced to beg the issue because no one knows how many miles each sex drives. The Council knows that eight out of 100 drivers involved in fatal accidents in 1952 were women. Drivers of the fairer sex figured in 12 out of 100 motor vehicle accidents of all types. But there are not as many women drivers as men, and they drive a lot less. And since no one knows how much less, the argument must go on, and even the authoritative National Safety Council can't settle it. MARRIAGE LICENSES Daniel T. Harris, Hellam R. After an initial period of some banging around all was quiet in the upper regions of the house. Concerned that her painter was loafing on the job, the housewife called up the stairs: "Are you painting, no?" "Yes'm" came the reply. "I was wondering, because I hadn't heard any noise" she called back. "Sorry, lady," he retorted irritably, "but I ain't putting it on with a hammer." An impatient dowager fumed because the hotel elevator did not arrive immediately when she pushed the button. "Where have you been?" she snapped at the operator. Came the sensible reply: "Where can you go in an elevator?"

FLASH The National Highway Users Conference tells us that ten more states, Delaware, Iowa, Idaho, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Carolina, South Dakota, Vermont and Washington have passed legislation this year requiring new motor vehicles to be equipped with turn signal devices. Since Minnesota, New Hampshire, New York and North Dakota already require this practical substitute for mind-reading, that makes fourteen states that have thus far seen the (flashing) light. We are also advised that at least 37 states have adopted hand and arm signaling rules that are substantially uniform. The trouble is that not substantially uniform... and if a lady-driver is talking, she's got to keep one hand on the wheel, hasn't she? Chances are, however, we won't need any more legislation to make the mechanical flashers universal. When fourteen states require them, the car manufacturers will most likely make them standard fixtures on all new models. And certainly, when anyone has once driven in city traffic with these strictly wonderful gimmicks, he's all through with flapping a wing out the window. SOMETHING GOOD ABOUT YOU Wouldn't this old world be better if folks we meet would say, "I know something good about you!" And then treat us just that way. Wouldn't it be fine and dandy if each handclasp warm and true carried with it the assurance, "I know something good about you!" Wouldn't life be lots more happy, if the good that's in us all were the only things about us that folks bothered to recall? Wouldn't life be lots more happy if we praised the good we see? For there's such a lot of goodness in the worst of you and me. Wouldn't it be nice to practice That fine way of thinking too? You know something good about me. I know something good about you! —Exchange YOUR ESTATE large or small NEEDS PROTECTION An estate representing a lifetime of effort may vanish in a few short years, largely because no thought has been given to its protection. DO YOU KNOW THESE FIRE FACTS? FIRE WON'T ELIMINATE PESTS such as chiggers — it sets the stage for more of them. And snakes usually find a way to escape when the woods burn.
