GRAY LADIES VISIT HOSPITAL

Twenty-one Gray Ladies arrived by bus at the Springfield Hospital on Tuesday morning with arms literally laden-down with packages for a Christmas treat for many of the patients. We visited in seven buildings. The one building a two-story one, contained all very old and feeble women. Many in wheel chairs and some in bed. Many looked like they were very near their end of life. We visited only on the first floor, and there were around eighty. On the second floor there are about the same number. Packages of goodies were sent to them; also to the women in the sewing room.

It was most gratifying to see how the women, of all ages, tried to enter into the spirit of the occasion. Just a few of the responses from the people. "It is such a treat to get home-made cookies" and "I haven't had any home made cookies since my mother used to make them." Cookies were passed several times. One said "I have some I am afraid I will take them from some one else." About the singing, "It sounds so beautiful, it is extra special." We could go on and on.

It was only because there was such a generous response from some of the people of Taneytown that so many were made happy, if only for a short while. Taneytown furnished seventy-eight dozen of cookies, over 1,000 pieces of candy (about penny size), one crate and two dozen of tangerines and a large box of neckties for the men. Those who had a share in it, without any solicitation, were: Mrs. Norman Sauble, Mrs. Cleve LeGore, Mrs. A. C. Carpenter, Miss Virginia Teeter, Mrs. Robert Clingan, Sr., Mrs. William Lindsay, Mrs. Lillian Ibach, Mrs. James Baumgardner, Mrs. John Chenoweth, Mrs. James Fair, Mrs. Ellsworth Parks, Miss Marian Hahn, Miss Amelia Annan, Trinity Mission Circle, Mr. Ernest Dunbar, Mr. Kenneth Davidson, Mr. Harry Dougherty, and the following Gray Ladies: Mrs. John Teeter, Mrs. C. C. Hess, Mrs. William Hopkins, Mrs. Claude Derr, Mrs. Richard Rohrbach and Mrs. Margaret Nulton.

Many letters from the children to Santa were given to good old "St. Nick".

ROBERT MOTON HIGH LAUDED FOR SPORTSMANSHIP AND HOSPITALITY

Tuesday night the boys' basketball squads and cheerleaders from Taneytown High entered Robert Moton High to contest the opposing teams.

The teams representing Taneytown High have never been shown by any other school in the county, such hospitality as they received Tuesday night.

Throughout the games, each time a Taneytown player was fouled, the opponent who fouled him shook hands with him.

Following the games the players and cheerleaders were treated to refreshments in the cafeteria.

Surely this is a testimony that there is no prejudice on the side of Robert Moton High School. They will be in Taneytown January 8, so let's show them the same sportsmanship and hospitality. Taneytown Varsity, J. V., and Cheerleaders.

OFFICIAL!

Since this is the season for the perennial question, "Is there really a Santa Claus?", we are happy to be able to assure our readers of all ages that there certainly is, and that he really does live in the town of North Pole.

While it has long been rumored that he maintained his residence and work-shop at North Pole, this is now an official fact, recognized by the US Post Office and the postal services of many other lands. This town, which is 14 miles south of Fairbanks, Alaska, recently provided Santa with a tract of five acres for his permanent headquarters, which will be known as Santaland, and where all the youngsters of the world can address their Christmas letters. The main street, which will be 100 feet wide, will be called Santa Claus Lane, and the other streets will be named for the reindeer—whose names you know without our repeating them here.

Besides the workshop, Santaland will have a chapel, a recreation center and a display hall. And if you come up to Santaland next summer, you can see Santa and his helpers at work in their shop, and the reindeer will be there too, nibbling and resting up for their Christmas Night's work.

But Santa, of course, will be coming to see you before that!—U. S. Press Association.

RULES FOR TEEN-AGERS

Problems of acceptable teen-age behavior which have been plaguing parents and teachers alike, and crashing the headlines, are getting constructive attention all across the country now. The days of "let them do as they please, don't thwart their development", are passing with the realization that civilized society cannot endure on a sandy foundation of every man for himself.

From Washington, D.C., comes news of the distribution—appropriately in time for Christmas holiday use—of a set of "Guiding Principles" by the Association of Independent Schools to help parents coordinate regulations for their rebellious young folk.

The nine-point code proposes: Week-end and holiday social activity only, ending at reasonable hours, agreed to by parents and teen-agers; parents available during entertainment; no "party crashing"; parents to know where their children are visiting; no "parties after parties"; prompt acceptance or rejection of invitations; no alcohol; considerate and courteous driving to be enforced.

Representatives of students themselves played a major part in setting the standards which prove once more that young people in general only need some direction to their path.

Christmas vacation entertainment for teen-agers this year in the District of Columbia appears to stand a good chance of becoming a happy memory for everyone.

Meanwhile, maybe some of us who no longer rate as teen-agers could use the "courtesy rules" too.—Christian Science Monitor.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., YE TOWNIE CRYER: "As long as there can be honest difference of opinion, our democracy is safe. That is one difference between a democracy and a totalitarian state. The death of Stalin brought a great upheaval and a struggle for power in Russia. At about the same time in this country the reigns of government were handed over from one party to another with scarcely a ripple."

WADENA, MINN., PIONEER JOURNAL: "The Constitution shields the innocent, not the guilty. The fifth amendment protects only the witness himself, not guilty confederates who are shielded by his refusal to testify. And it should always be kept in mind that no committee of Congress can try any man for crime—it is not a court. "Harry Dexter White, a public enemy working as a spy, could have been convicted and punished if a federal grand jury could have considered evidence obtained by wiretapping. As this evidence could not be admitted under the law, he escaped indictment."

PLAINFIELD, IND., MESSENGER: "We believe that if we were ever called upon—and we hope we will not be—to sit in a position where we were responsible for the expenditure of taxpayers' money, we would insist that every action of the office involving even matters of the least importance be made a matter of record for all who follow after us."

MOULTON, TEXAS, EAGLE: "The cattlemen who marched on Washington were little more representative of the livestock industry of the nation than the "bonus marchers" of an earlier day typified the American war veteran—nor were they any more successful."

ADDISON, N. Y., ADVERTISER: "When one party dominates any unit of government, and that party it controlled by self-perpetuating bosses—good government is pretty sure to go out the window."

OAKLAND, CALIF., CALIFORNIA VOICE: "As the distaff side comes more and more into its own in the government, old-time politicians may view the trend with some alarm. We don't blame them for that. Many of them will have to buckle down and earn their government keep more convincingly, or a horde of determined, hard-working women may eventually give the Capitol a clean sweep and take over."

HAGERSTOWN, MD., MORNING HERALD: With human nature what it is, the surprising thing is that so few succumb to temptation and that such an overwhelming majority of the law enforcement officers of this country are so industrious, conscientious and incorruptible."

URANIUM RUSH

A new townsite in the Beaverledge uranium field in Saskatchewan, Canada, is called Uranium City, according to the American Peoples Encyclopedia 1953 Yearbook. The town was laid out last year and claims were opened to public staking. A thousand claims were recorded. The Canadian government's Eldorado corporation planned to bring its Ace mine in this uranium field into production.

SLOW TRAIN IN RED CHINA

Refugees from continental China estimate 20 miles per hour as the maximum speed for trains on the newly-completed Chungking-Chengtu railroad, it is reported in the 1953 American Peoples Encyclopedia Yearbook. The Communist regime's excessive haste in construction, plus inadequate materials and lack of technical skill also would require constant major repairs to keep trains running at all, refugees say.

WORLD WAR ON DISEASE

At a recent World Health Organization assembly in Geneva, Switzerland, plans were announced for a global campaign to fight infantile paralysis. At the same meeting, according to the American Peoples Encyclopedia 1953 Yearbook, leprosy was added to the diseases to be fought on a world-wide scale. Encouraging progress in the control of disease was announced and new lows for tuberculosis were reported in 30 countries.

BILLION GAIN INDEPENDENCE

Since the end of World War II, nearly a billion people in the world have attained national independence, according to the American Peoples Encyclopedia 1953 Yearbook; but there still were some 200 million who had not yet achieved full self-government.

TOLL ROADS GAIN FAVOR

As a means of controlling traffic congestion, the trend to construction of toll roads has reached eleven states where such highways are planned or completed, the American Peoples Encyclopedia 1953 Yearbook reports.

RADAR CHASES GHOSTS

In England—where psychic research always has been popular—the newest rage is hunting ghosts with radar, reports the American Peoples Encyclopedia Yearbook. These "spook trackers" set up radar screens in haunted houses throughout Britain, the Yearbook says.

SLAVERY FOR $1,500,000

An estimated 1,500,000 persons of the former republics of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania have been sent into slave labor camps by Russia, it is reported in the 1953 edition of the American Peoples Encyclopedia Yearbook. Reports from the Baltic States indicate that they are little more than Russian colonies.

CATTLE AND SHOES

In the first 11 months of 1952, 4,710,000 cattle hides were used for sole leather and 13,025,000 hides were used for uppers, the 1953 Yearbook of the American Peoples Encyclopedia reports.

ONE DAY EARLIER

In order to get our paper to most of our subscribers before Christmas we will go to press one day earlier next week.

FEESERSBURG

"CHRISTMAS"

Christmas is not merely a Christian festival but a holiday of mankind. In every country, the world over it is celebrated in one form or another, under different names and for different reasons.

The Christmas story is told so eloquently in two verses from Isaiah, the 9th chapter, verses 6 and 7. "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulders, and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace."

Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with justice henceforth even forever.

The oldest celebration of Christmas is that of the Armenians. Christmas wasn't celebrated anywhere until the second or third century after the birth of Christ. There were two major reasons why: First the great truth of Christianity is the resurrection and the promise of eternal life.

For several centuries, there was no general knowledge of where, or when Christ was born. Many Biblical scholars today assume Jesus was born in either April or May—when shepherds do watch their flocks at night, and not in winter when the sheep are kept in pens.

Forty years ago the average hen in the U. S. produced about 87 eggs per year. Now a hen isn't worth the feed she eats unless she produces at least 198 per year.

Farmers are noted for their enjoyment of food especially the quantity they can consume. Saturday evening at the Farm Bureau dinner which was served in the Westminster High School cafeteria 1400 persons were served 1350 pounds of turkey, 30 gallons each of corn and lima beans; 150 pounds of cabbage; 8 bushels of sweet potatoes; 190 loaves of bread; 2000 rolls; 2400 cup cakes; 32 pounds of coffee; 24 gallons of cranberry sauce; and 175 gallons of ice cream.

Herb Shriver says: People know what everyone in my town is doing. Every week though they read the paper to see if anyone has been caught at it.

At last the Carroll County farms had a good drink for according to our measurements, three and a half inches of rain fell Sunday and Sunday night. Once again the streams are gurgling merrily through the meadows and in some spots water is standing in the fields. This we haven't seen since spring.

This week both sides of the question of whether segregation should end in all public schools was being argued before the Supreme Court. It will be months before the court will hand down a decision, but in the meantime it would be well for all of us to reexamine the question in our own minds.

Thirty-three carol singers from Kriders Lutheran church, went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Myers to sing Christmas carols for Mrs. Mattie Myers, who has been a shut-in for the past six months. Mrs. Myers served refreshments to the carolers.

They have hung up the red-nosed reindeer and have wound the lamp-posts with green; all the merchants have done their dog-gondest to create a Christmas scene; but I guess I'm pretty stubborn, for this don't spell Christmas to me—there's a whole lot more meaning to Christmas than just a Santa Claus and a tree! So I gathered my thoughts together, to find what Christmas really means besides the Santas and bells and reindeers, and the shining reds and greens, I must first put the Christ in Christmas, and along with him Joseph and Mary; all his own folks in their home together, where the closest friends may tarry. It seems that for me this spells Christmas; 'tis found in the home, not the store, where our loved ones can all be together and commemorate Christ's birthday once more.—Nellie Twain.

Wishing you and yours a very Merry Christmas; and Blessings of a Happy New Year.

PANEL DISCUSSION TO BE HELD

Some of the questions to be presented to the County Commissioners at the panel discussion meeting to be conducted by the Legislative Committee of the Carroll County Council of Parents and Teachers at the meeting in the Westminster High School on Friday evening, Dec. 18, at 8 p. m. will be: Have the County Commissioners ever been given a complete picture of the actual needs for each section of the county, and if so, what have they done about it? What is the position of the Commissioners towards appropriating funds which would meet the requirements as set forth in the public school laws for Maryland, which specify that after July 1, 1951, each classroom should be limited to 30 pupils? Are funds available that would carry out a building program which would supply adequate facilities to care for the student load up to the point of 1955? What tentative long range plans are in the making to provide for future increased enrollment within the next five to ten years? What steps are being considered by the Commissioners to provide a salary scale for teachers which would approximate the scale paid by Baltimore County, Montgomery County, and Baltimore City, taking into consideration that the purchasing power of the dollar is practically the same in Carroll county as in these other three localities?

Examples of some of the questions to be asked the School Board are: To what extent and in what areas do we have housing shortages in Carroll County schools? What plans are now in execution for taking care of these particular areas? Do these plans for buildings provide sufficient housing facilities to take care of the school enrollment and the anticipated increase in enrollment for the next five to ten years? Explain for the information of the public the ill effects of overcrowded classrooms on the children of Carroll county. There are three important phases of school activities which have been overlooked as far as public is concerned, and it is felt that these fields of service are inadequately staffed and underpaid. They are transportation, custodial service and plant maintenance and repair. What can be done to improve the conditions in these three departments?

Mr. Milson Raver, Executive Secretary of the Maryland State Teachers Association will explain how problems similar to those in Carroll county have been solved in other sections of the State.

By attendance at this meeting residents of Carroll county can learn what they as citizens can and must do in order to assure adequate school facilities for the children of Carroll Co.

This meeting is open to the public in order that they may become informed on both local school needs and needs in other sections of the county. Investigation has disclosed the urgent need for expansion and improvement of existing schools, plus the construction of new schools in many communities. In some areas community growth is rapidly approaching a point where present school facilities cannot possibly meet the needs. The Council is of the opinion that the citizens of the county should be made aware of these shortages. This meeting will provide the opportunity for the community as a whole to participate in a plan for financing the expansion and improvement of school facilities in Carroll county, and to insist upon an adequate program for not only their own children, but all children in Carroll county, if such is their desire.

"A baby-sitter is a girl you pay to invite her friends to your house to keep your children awake."—Franklin P. Jones.

ter, Mrs. Arthur Haines, New Windsor.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Gladhill home today (Thursday) at 2 p. m., by the Rev. Willis R. Brenneman, her pastor. Interment will be in Kriders' church cemetery. H. Bankard and Son, Westminster, are the funeral directors.

LONG TIME NO SEE

A torrential shower came on suddenly, so the woman in the sable coat boarded a street car.

"I don't think I've ridden on a street car for nearly two years," she said to the conductor, as she tendered her fare. "I ride in my own car, you know."

He looked solemn and said: "You don't know how we've missed you!"

WHY THE GIRAFFE IS DUMB

A youngster's composition on the giraffe ran: "The giraffe is a dumb animal and cannot express itself by any sound, because its neck is so long that its voice gets tired on its way to its mouth."

ANSWERS
YOUR QUESTIONS

Q. How can I stop egg laying slumps caused by colds?

A. Commonly considered a cold is the poultry disease infectious coryza which is caused by bacteria. At first signs of sniffling or sneezing, put Dr. Salsbury's Ar-Sulfa in the drinking water. Easy to use and economical, Ar-Sulfa cuts losses in egg production. Keep Ar-Sulfa on hand in case colds strike your flock. It will pay.

Prince of Peace

Lesson for December 20, 1953

GOD'S will is for a warless world. No one can read the prophets and make anything else out of it. God's will is for peace in this world. Peace among angels, yes, peace beyond death, yes of course; but that is not the whole of it. God's will is for peace among men, peace on this good green earth. So long as there are wars, we know that God's will and intention for mankind is being resisted. God wants a warless world.

Leader To Peace

One of the many names for Christ is "Prince of Peace," a title given by a prophet long before his birth. It will be worth our while to look into that title this week and see what exactly is meant by it, for it is much more than a striking phrase. The word "Prince" has nothing necessarily to do with royalty, though it often does. Its literal meaning is leader, captain, chief.

Dr. Foreman

As Prince of Peace therefore, our Lord is Leader of Peace. But again, the title may mean more things than one. Let us start with "Leader to Peace." In this sense, Christ is one who points out the road to peace, shows mankind what peace means. As the Bible uses the word, peace does not mean simply the ebbing of a battle-tide, the lull between attacks. It is not a negative word, it is positive. The kind of peace to which Christ points is not mere indifference, it is based on love and good-will. For instance, as these lines are written, the United States is at peace with Canada; it is also at peace with a dozen other countries that could be mentioned. But while it is barely possible that war might break out with any nation, it is probably less likely to break out with Canada than with countries with which we have less in common and for whose people our own people have a much weaker affection. True peace is based on mutual good will. Jesus taught us much more about peace; for example his reference to "peace-makers." But we must pass on.

Leader Of Peace

As Prince of Peace our Lord is also Leader of Peace. That is to say, where Christ is known and honored (not in name only, but actually known and loved), there peace is far more likely to be than where He is not known. It is sometimes said that civilization breeds wars. No doubt it does; but barbarism breeds even more. Savage tribes are in an almost perpetual state of warfare. It is also pointed out that Christian nations are often warring. On the other hand it may be asked: Where do you find a really Christian nation? Who starts the wars? Are the "Christian" nations the aggressors or do they have to rise to the defense against aggression? One thing is certain. Before the coming of Christ, wars were taken as a matter of course. No nation ever bothered to apologize or explain their fights. Since Christ's coming, and more than ever in recent years, nations that go to war have a bad conscience about it. Piles of "white papers" and the like are put out to show why it was necessary to declare war. At least, Christian nations are aware that the road of war is never the right road except as a last resort.

Leader By Peace

Another meaning that may fairly be given to "Prince of Peace" is "Leader by Peace." That is to say, the leadership and Lordship of Christ is never one of coercion. There have been leaders by the sword; there have been leaders by lies, for the human race is all too easily misled; there is one and only one Leader of men who will reign only through love. At Christmas time men often wonder why it is that the angels' song has never been fulfilled. Peace has not come on earth to stay. Peace is always pictured as a bird poised for flight. The full reign of the Prince of Peace seems to be so slowly coming. The reason is that unlike all earthly leaders, Christ will have none in his kingdom who is not there by his own free will. God could no doubt beat the world into silent submission in a very short time. It is not beyond the power of the Almighty to bring every human war to an end.

WOMAN'S WORLD

Good Box Lunch Is Nutritionally Complete, Filling

SCHOOL days bring youngsters back to full activity, and that means that Mom must be on the job too, with lunches that are complete nutritionally and satisfying, also.

Good box lunches should include a hot soup for the nippy days, fruit juice for not-so-cold days, a hearty sandwich or two, fresh fruit and a good tasting dessert. Pack a surprise in every lunch box, too, to keep it interesting such as a piece of candy, some special cookies, a gay napkin, stuffed celery, favorite pickles or even a small gift.

These chewy bar cookies are a perfect lunch box dessert because Easy to mix, easy to eat are these wholesome Coconut-Pineapple Squares in any boxed lunch. They're nourishing, too, so you can serve the youngsters plenty of these cookies.

they stay fresh and moist long after baking, and they're nourishing, too, because of the rolled oats:

Coconut-Pineapple Squares (Makes 20)

- 1/2 cup sifted enriched flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup shortening, soft
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 egg, unbeaten
- 1/2 cup drained, crushed pineapple
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/2 cup rolled oats (quick, or old fashioned, uncooked)
- 1/2 cup shredded coconut
- Few slices maraschino cherries

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt into a bowl. Add shortening, sugar, pineapple and vanilla and beat until smooth, about 10 minutes. Blend in rolled oats. Spread into a greased 7 x 11-inch baking pan. Sprinkle coconut and cherries over top and press lightly into dough. Bake in a moderate (350°) oven for 25 to 30 minutes. Cool thoroughly and cut into squares.

Personal Daintiness Is a Daily Concern

Although bathing is done primarily for cleanliness, it can also add luxury, stimulation and a sense of restfulness to every woman who is truly desirous of being fastidious about her person.

There are soaps for every type of skin as well as lotions, perfumed salts and other bathing aids to make every bath a real joy. Choosing the aids which appeal most to you, as well as a proper time for the bath can make your daintiness a luxury instead of a drab task.

Wake Yourself Easily

Early morning baths or showers, especially for those who must be off to work, should be quick and stimulating. They're intended to remove sleep and sluggishness from the system.

Whether you take the tub or shower variety, have the water moderately hot. This makes soap lather freely and you can wash easily. Follow with a brisk cold splash, if you can take it, and dry briskly by rubbing to speed circulation.

You may not have time to apply lotion in the mornings, but a few pats of fragrant dusting powder will do wonders for your morale.

Pick-Up Bath

A "pick-me-up-bath" is wonderful if you want to relax after getting home from work, or after a trying, busy day around the house. They're excellent, too, when you're planning to go out for dinner and the evening.

For true refreshment, run hot water into the tub, add your bath salts and then let warm water run to the depth you want.

While the tub is filling, pin or tie back the hair. Wring out a pad of absorbent cotton in cold water and on this place cleansing cream to run over your neck to cleanse thoroughly. Wipe off with tissues, then use astringent on another pad for face and neck.

Make a lather of scented soap suds in the wash bowl and lather yourself all over. Now, step into the tub and just relax. When you feel calm and clean, get out slowly, wrap yourself in a big towel to absorb the water.

While your body is still moist, pat on your cologne or lotion, gently and easily. Use dusting powder if desired, as well as a deodorant.

Santa Claus Is Coming To Town

AND WITH A SLEIGH FULL of homemade sweet spreads! These sparkling jars of jams and jellies—made in your kitchen the easy short-boil way—fill handsome jars that can be used later for cosmetics. Nestled in the gaily painted toy sleigh with pine cones and holly leaves, these spreads make a Christmas gift or centerpiece that will be a real holiday hit.

Try this easy-to-make recipe for Strawberry Jam made with quick-frozen strawberries as a starter. When you use natural fruit pectin, you cut down on boiling time so that not one bit of the delicious flavor is lost and the result is always superb. A recipe folder comes with each purchase of natural fruit pectin—so try tangy Orange Marmalade and tart Apple Jelly too—and spread "Merry Christmas" throughout the year.

QUICK-FROZEN STRAWBERRY JAM

Yield: about 9 medium glasses

- 4 cups (3 twelve-ounce boxes) quick-frozen sliced strawberries
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 5 cups sugar
- 1/2 bottle Certo liquid fruit pectin

Thaw strawberries as directed on package. Place in a very large saucepan and add lemon juice. Add sugar to strawberries and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and at once stir in liquid fruit pectin. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with 1/8 inch hot paraffin. (ANS Features) if you can name the 11 winners and actual yardage gained by rushing and passing by leading team listed in the above bracket.

FOLLOW THESE RULES CAREFULLY

The object of THE SPORTING NEWS FOOTBALL BOWL CONTEST is to select winners of the 11 games listed above.

After making your predictions by circling names of winning teams, list the name of the team you think will gain most yardage by rushing and passing, plus the number of yards you think it will gain by these means. This prediction will have a bearing on the awards only in the case two or more contestants are tied in the selection of winning teams.

Contestants must make all 11 selections and designate a choice of team to gain the most net yardage together with the prediction of the most net yardage gained by rushing and passing.

Print your name, street address, city, zone and state on your entry. Entry must be submitted on a postal card (not in an envelope) to THE SPORTING NEWS CONTEST EDITOR, P. O. Box 11, St. Louis 3, Mo. Copy the form above on a postal card. No part of THE SPORTING NEWS or this newspaper will be required. Your entry must be in the office of THE SPORTING NEWS by noon of December 31, 1953.

In event of postponement of any game or a change in the schedule necessitating its being played on a day other than scheduled or game not being played as listed, then such game is automatically excluded from the contest.

A first prize of $200 will be awarded the individual whose entry names all selections correctly. If more than one contestant names all winners correctly, the first prize winner will be selected by checking the accuracy of the team named to gain the most yardage, and by computing how close the contestant comes to the correct yardage made. In case of absolute ties duplicate prizes will be awarded. In the event no entry contains all selections correct, the nearest number of correct selections will receive first prize. Second prize of $100, third prize of $75, fourth prize of $50, fifth prize of $25, and ten prizes of $5 each will be awarded to contestants whose selections follow next in order.

Winners of this contest will be announced in the issue of THE SPORTING NEWS dated January 27, 1954 and in this newspaper during the same week. Decisions of the judges will be final in all cases.

Each contestant is limited to ONE set of selections in fairness to others. Each entry must be submitted on a postal card, not in an envelope.

Any person or persons may enter this contest, excepting employees of THE SPORTING NEWS and their families.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

show was on again to a vast audience at the Mat plus the TV audiences! Without a doubt "ROCCA" is the King of Wrestling and the audience right there was as pleased as ever and if not more so. Tony sure was full of pep and z.p. after his recent visit to South America. He made that Mr. X feel like a lot of jelly by bouncing him around continuously that took Mr. X by surprise which ended up with the "ARGENTINE BACK BREAKER" WHICH MADE THE MASKED FIGURE SURRENDER! More shows like this and the show will continue on! Your Observer hopes to see Tony right down there on the Mat on his next appearance. Will be seeing you there! Many thought that Rocca was interested in tearing off the Mask but he was only interested in one thing—winning over that fellow who was taller and much heavier.

Several letters arrived from Mr. Husband asking me what I thought was favorable to give the little wife for Christmas. Now, Mr. Husband that all depends and after all you know the little wife much better than I. First of all there is the type whom we all know that does not desire a household appliance for a real Christmas gift by saying, "Well, I knew that I was going to get that gift for the house anyway. I wish Sam would just think a little and realize by now that I would appreciate a little personal gift—something that he would select himself which I could love just because he bought it!" There you have it, Gentlemen—that's the way of any woman (I know because I am a woman). There is fine Cologne, Personal Garments, a fur coat, a fine piece of jewelry (according to your pocket book) and whatever you do don't buy her candy especially if she is chubby!

Husbands are much easier to please. Anything you present to the man in your life will bring a great big smile of pleasure as long as it is a personal gift with a kiss and a lot of love behind it. Just hang up his sock, Mrs. Housewife along with the Kiddies and as he takes out the little nic-nacs—as by one just watch his expression—just like a big school boy!

If you need a new chair for the living room be sure that it is one that your husband can throw himself into it at night for relaxation as he reads the evening newspaper. Don't purchase it just for appearance and because you need a new chair. Those big comfy ones which are beautifully built are in for good plus the style and comfort and stability. They come in all colors to match your living room. A nice gift also to present to your husband and one which he will enjoy (especially if he is a real Marylander) is a delightful book of Photographs called, "Christmas in My Maryland" by A. Aubrey Bodine which can be purchased at the department stores in Baltimore. The price is $7.50.

Don't forget, Ladies the "ICE CA-PADES OF 1954" will be in Hershey, Pa., on Feb. 11. It really is "THE SHOW OF SHOWS ON ICE"! It will be in Washington, D.C., January 21. So try and make either place and keep the dates in mind. You will be thrilled with every minute of it! At times, Your Observer rose with enthusiasm to applaud as did many in the audience!

Now Mother here is the last letter for your precious Kiddies!

Ho! Ho! Ho! My Little Friend: It's the week before Christmas, I've been working all year. My brownies, too have been busy, just wait till you hear. We made dolls for the girls and trains for the boys. Yes, hundreds and hundreds of all kinds of toys.

I'm packing my sleigh for that magic flight. From rooftop to rooftop, flying all thru the night.

Down the chimney, I'll come with a bound, And into your living room with scarcely a sound. I hope you'll be sleeping snug in your bed, While visions of sugar-plums dance in your head.

Then, I'll leave your presents and away I'll fly. Happy Christmas to you and a Merry Goodbye!

Your Jolly Old Friend, Santa Claus. So long, Folks. Have a grand weekend. Be good and be careful so as you can really enjoy the holidays and always remember the other fellow driving and walking on the road! Until next week. D.V. I am,

Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

HAVE YOU ENTERED THE FOOTBALL BOWL CONTEST?

Carl Furillo is the ninth Brooklyn National League batting champion. Paul Robertson of the Wesson (Miss.) Enterprise reports that the Co-Lin football team and Perkinston, both junior colleges, played to a 6-6 tie in the Laurel (Miss.) Lions Bowl, Dec. 5, in the annual Blue Ribbon classic of the state. That the Baltimore Orioles figure they're not too bad around the first sack. The combined showings of Dick Kryhoski and Roy Sievers are 24 homers and 85 runs batted in. YOUNG REPUBLICANS MEET

J. Thomas Anders, vice president of the Board of Election Supervisors of Carroll County was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Young Republican Club of Carroll County held December 7 at the Charles Carroll Hotel. Mr. Anders described the various duties of the Board. He asked the club's help in publicizing the correct marking of a ballot at election time, since it is so often necessary to throw out ballots for this reason. The Club went on record as favoring voting by those 18 years of age. This was in line with a recent action taken by the executive meeting of the State Young Republican Clubs. The group also passed a resolution praising Governor Theodore R. McKeldin for an honest and able administration. Miss Ellen Arnold, president, announced that the State Young Republican Clubs are planning a state-wide rally to be held the latter part of March. The Club is planning to observe the 100th Anniversary of the founding of the Republican Party during 1954. A discussion was held concerning those club members whose names will be submitted for candidates to fill vacancies on the Republican Central Committee. The next meeting will be held February 1 at which time a panel discussion is planned.
