"TRICK OR TREAT"

Unique Plan by School to Help Unfortunate Children

The Taneytown Elementary School will participate in a new trick or treat plan to be used this Hallowe'en. Instead of asking for apples or candy, many of the school's pupils will be soliciting funds for UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund. Money collected will be administered by the United Nations Children's Fund and sent to foreign countries to be used for aid, primarily, to children. Aid will take the form of money to be used for purchasing the following: powdered milk, DDT, antibiotics, BCG vaccine for tuberculosis, and medicines used in general clinical practice.

Children soliciting funds will carry a half pint wax paper milk container used at the school. Around it will be an orange sticker with the words "Trick or Treat for All the World's Children, UNICEF". Children will also wear an identifying card.

It is hoped that people of the community will welcome these children and contribute to this worthwhile cause.

The UNICEF Trick or Treat plan has been widely used throughout the United States in previous years and has been started in Carroll County this year under the sponsorship of the American Association of University Women.

LOCAL FEED COMPANY ISSUED CERTIFICATE OF MIXING ACCURACY

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI—(Special)—Following laboratory tests that showed the high efficiency of their grinding and mixing equipment, Taneytown Grain & Supply Co., of Taneytown, Maryland, has been issued a Certificate of Mixing Accuracy by the Ralston Purina Company of St. Louis, Missouri.

This certificate qualifies the local feed company to mix Purina Micro-mixed supplements and concentrates with farmers' locally grown grains under approved formulas, thus enabling the farmer to make the best feeding use of his grains.

Samples of the local feed dealer's regular custom mixed feeds were sent to the Company's Research Laboratory in St. Louis where analyses were made to see how thoroughly the ingredients were mixed. These samples met the high standards of accuracy set by Purina's Check-R-Mix Department, showing a variation of less than one half of one per cent in protein content.

Feed mixed to this high accuracy has the practical result of insuring the feeder that each ingredient of the ration is found in proper quantity in each mouthful of the feed. The proper mixing of rations using grains grown locally by farmers in this area has long been recognized as an important factor in the efficient and economical feeding of livestock and poultry.

DEADLINE FOR CHRISTMAS MAIL TO SERVICEMEN OVERSEAS

Postmaster James F. Burke has announced that to insure delivery before Christmas of gifts sent parcel post and Christmas Cards to the Armed Forces in Korea, Japan and the Pacific Islands, should be mailed by Nov. 1, 1955. Gifts and Christmas Cards addressed to servicemen at U.S. Bases in Europe and the American territories of Occupation should be mailed well in advance of November 15 if sent by ordinary mail. Christmas cards may be sent as late as December 1, 1955 provided they are sent air mail. To insure prompt delivery of all your overseas mail, be sure you print the full name, rank, serial number, branch of service, organization, and the Army or Navy Post Office to which your overseas mail is to be routed.

The Post Office Department is expecting the 1955 Christmas mails to be the largest in the history of the department, therefore, the public is urged to assist with this gigantic task by making their Christmas mailings early.

Have you done your Christmas shopping? If not, do so at once, and don't forget your servicemen who are overseas with the Armed Forces by sending them their Christmas gifts and greetings to meet the dates mentioned above in order to give them a happy holiday at Christmas.

GEM THEATRE UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

The theatre has had a new screen installed along with the latest wide screen equipment, so that you will be able to see the latest pictures released. A large concession stand has been built into the theatre where you will be able to buy all types of candy, pop corn, hot dogs, ice cream and many things to delight you. Mr. and Mrs. Clem want the people of Emmitsburg and the nearby towns to feel free to voice their opinion on the way that they operate the Gem Theatre and would be grateful if any one has any ideas on how they can further improve the theatre. ## EDUCATOR SPEAKS ON DESEGREGATION

A description of desegregation in Baltimore schools was given by Dr. Harry Bard, assistant director, Bureau of Curriculum, Baltimore City Public Schools, Friday night, Oct. 14, 1955, at the fall meeting of the Carroll County Council of Churches. The dinner meeting in the Union Bridge Church of the Brethren was attended by 150 persons.

Dr. Bard presented the difference between desegregation and integration and stated that he was presenting only the facts and what has taken place in Baltimore over the period of one year. "I am not bringing you the answer to any problems, you people of Carroll County will have to work out your solutions and find your own answers," he said. In discussing Baltimore's situation, he stated, "It is clear that apart from the general influence of the community there were other factors affecting the progress of desegregation. One can only conjecture at this stage—a year from Baltimore's decision to desegregate the schools—about the factors that led to apparent success. In retrospect these six factors seem to be most evident:

1. Sincere, involving, and all-embracing belief within the educational staff that the resources of all should be harnessed toward progress.

2. Quiet, unpretentious, and effective human relations activities over a long number of years, involving pupils, parents, teachers, and community leaders.

3. Strong, united and respected leadership by school authorities.

4. Clear, firm, and unequivocal support by executive, legal, judicial, and enforcement authorities.

5. Intelligent, forthright, and widespread support by community leaders.

6. High morale and professional competence among the teaching staff.

Miss Mildred Atkinson, director of the Department of Christian Social Relations of the Maryland and Delaware Council of Churches brought greetings. Special music was given by Miss Laura Littler of the New Windsor Service Center.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, the Rev. C. Lewis Robson. Election of officers was held and the following were installed by Rev. Harold H. Hodgson: president, Rev. Donald A. Warrenfeltz; vice president, the Rev. John H. Eberly; general secretary, Mrs. Richard H. Bollinger; public relations secretary, Mrs. T. E. Robbins; treasurer, Clifton Warner; chairman of commission of Christian Education, Ames Six; chairman of Commission on Social Actions, the Rev. Rufus S. Abernethy; chairman of Commission on Community Relations, Dr. John B. Howes; chairman of Commission on Stewardship, J. Paul Bowman; chairman of Commission on Evangelism, Rev. Russell E. Fink.

SCOUTING

A Taneytown Girl Scout Neighborhood meeting was held in the home of the chairman, Mrs. Robert W. Smith at 8 p. m., Oct. 25. Adult scouts attending were Brownie Troop leaders Mrs. James Fiscus, Mrs. Theodore Fair, and Mrs. John Skiles; Troop committee members Mrs. Roy Hailey, Mrs. Frank Wargny, and Mrs. John Chenoweth; and Honorary Scout, the Rev. Morgan Andreas.

The order of business included an evaluation of scouting in Taneytown. It was gratifying to note the formation of a second Brownie Troop under the leadership of Mrs. Stanley Jennings and Mrs. John Skiles and the fine support given the scouting program by the community. However, many Taneytown girls desiring scouting will fail to derive its many benefits until more volunteer adults can be found to lead them.

The Brownie Scout Troop 820 will entertain Mrs. Stacey Jennings, Mrs. John Skiles and the members of its newly formed Brownie Troop at a Hallowe'en Party, Monday, Oct. 31st from 7 to 9 p. m., in the Sunday School Room of the Grace Evangelical and Reformed Church. Everyone is requested to come in costume.

There will be no regular meeting of Brownie Troop 820 on the afternoon of Monday, Oct. 31st.

The Boston tea party was planned in the back room of the Boston Gazette.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

(Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Pink, scarlet, saffron, yellow, mahogany, mauve, green—colors that blend and break in undreamed-of opulence—greet the eyes of him who goes traveling on the highways this time of the year—Autumn! All seasons have their special kind of beauty but right now Autumn is heavenly! There is a bewitching lure in the intriguing loveliness of it all and it makes one glad! Even the nasturtiums at the bungalow are more abundant than in this past summer. Now is the time for that very special trip!

Things that happened this week—the man who lost the $64,000 answer. (Well, he never had it, so he had nothing to lose. After all, he did get that handsome Cadillac car!)

Having a year old baby in the house for a week—too short a time for it was such a joy!

A little brother arriving in the arms of the youngest son and the nice part they named him just plain John (my favorite name!)

Collecting the staple food items for the two homes—Kelso and Strawberry Methodist Homes (girls' and boys') which is a once a year affair and the booths were beautiful!

The bride who returned to the Parsonage for that very special license for Uncle Sam (and I think you know just what I mean. Allotment, of course!)

Reading where that nice Clark Gable is to really be a father in the month of May (and that for the first time!)

Seeing all the children's toys bountifully displayed in the stores both big and small, for the coming season and that only two months away.

Purchasing a very special gift yesterday which is now half the price of the article at the Christmas time rush!

The grand work by "The Carroll Rug Company" cleaning the two parsonage rugs which really appear brand new after that special shampoo!

The arrival of the new 21-inch Motorola T. V. which is perfection plus the grand "trade in"!

The refinishing of the beautiful old Communion set engraved "Franklin M. E. Church" 1899 by "The Holmes Co." on Clay Street in Baltimore! Much sentimental feelings about that one!

Reading "My Philadelphia Father" by Cordelia Drexel Biddle in the Oct. issue of The Readers Digest! That was a surprise!

The visit to the big Fiesta in Harve de Grace which was given for the benefit of the Harford Memorial Hospital in Harve de Grace. Those ladies surely did work and the booths were quite lovely!

Visiting a newly built home which the young couple had waited for—for 7 years and on the outside was "God Bless Our Mortgaged Home"! The lovely gray-haired lady offering her seat to the very aged colored woman in the bus in Baltimore.

Writing an article in as few words as possible to the question, "How Juvenile Delinquency Could be Solved". (And that, in my opinion, would have to start right with the Board of Education in any State!)

Learning this method to nourish a fern—by placing two raw oysters under the soil near the roots and the plant will grow like magic! And this—when making a lemon pie, boil the rind in the water before adding the sugar. The flavor is just as good and it saves time!

If the rugs need to be taken away for a real shampoo, don't hesitate on this one as it will mean long life for any rug.

So long, folks. Have a grand week end. Start the Sabbath off always by attending church regardless of the denomination. (You will feel better all day and the following week.) See you next week. D. V. Be sure and plan that special Hallowe'en party for either adults or youngsters and whatever you do—go in costume! Nothing like it for fun! I am,
Faithfully,

SPECIAL DELIVERY

Under a Congressional act, the Defense Department must send two 66-passenger, super Constellation from here to Europe to bring back three US Senators and their wives. You'd think one 66 passenger plane ought to be enough for six people—but they don't all want to come back at the same time. October 23rd was the deadline for Senators McClellan, of Arkansas and Stennis of Miss., and a scheduled Army flight on the 25th would be too late. Senator Chavez and his wife will make their regal return all by themselves on November third. A scheduled flight on November 6th (also free) won't do.

The Air Force figures the flights will cost the taxpayers about $20,000. Thus, even though the Senators did go abroad on an official inspection tour, there may be those who will wonder whether it's worth that much to get them back.—U. S. Press Association.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

DELANO, MINN., EAGLE: "There's always free cheese in a mousetrap but we don't think the mice that get it are very happy".

MOUND, MINN., MINNETONKA, PILOT: "An attitude change must be affected among our teenagers if we are to increase the supply of scientific minds. They must be made to see the necessity of doing more than meeting just the minimum requirements both in high school and college. This is a job which falls squarely to the teacher, the counselor and the parent. . . . By allowing, and sometimes inadvertently encouraging youngsters to take the course of least resistance, we not only defeat our purposes but possibly crush our own society".

BEEVILLE, TEX., BEE-PICAYUNE: "Yes, the power to tax is the power to destroy and when America reaches the point where it is taxed to the limit and we can no longer tax ourselves for emergency; when we have reached the point where we destroy private business with excessive taxes; when we can no longer raise funds because we have been taxed more than our ability to pay—then we will be destroyed as a nation".

YOUR INSURANCE IS AS GOOD AS YOUR AGENT

To my opinion, and from my experience, that just about sums up the entire insurance situation. If your agent has thoroughly checked the companies he writes for, studied their policies, their financial standing, compared their rates, knows the character of the company, then advises you of the cheapest and best ways to buy your insurance; keeps the policyholders interest in mind instead of his commission; then you have good insurance.

So often though I run into people that thought they had wind-storm insurance, but did not. Farmers that are paying insurance on machinery, stock and buildings, that they no longer have; while the new machinery and new buildings are not protected. Others that were sure they had collision insurance until they wrecked their automobile, then found they only had liability; while still others took out insurance where they financed their car, thinking they were fully covered, but lost their license because the finance company was only protecting their interest and did not write the liability or property damage coverage.

Another man told me he had made definite plans for use of his 20 Year Endowment Policy, but now finds out the policy is a 20 Pay Life. If you are in an assessable company, what does your policy say about how often you can be assessed, and for what amount? If your health and accident policy says Cancellable at the option of the company, will you have protection next year if you need it? Think over what your insurance agent recommends, talk with other agents, then decide for yourself.

Go over your insurance coverage before the loss occurs, it is a sad thing to think you are protected, then find you are not.

Ask yourself, are you buying friendship, a bank loan, or an insurance policy? Did your agent tell you to compare policies and prices with any other agent? Would you change agents if you could buy the exact same coverage at a much lower price? Are your personal needs properly covered at the right price? Can your agent be at the scene of a local accident and fill out the SR21 report while the State Trooper is still there?

Experience is a good teacher, but don't have a bad experience before you look over your insurance policy and the agent that sold you that policy.

CURRENT EVENTS
FIFTY YEARS AGO

Shellbarks are plentiful and sell readily to the dealers at $1.00 per bushel. Some trees produce three or four bushels, which is quite a profitable revenue.

John W. Stouffer has sold his property at the head of George Street, to Calvin T. Fringer, for $2500. The house, which now blocks the extension of the street is to be moved aside so that the street may be extended and lots sold on both sides. This will be quite an addition to the town, and in a few years will no doubt be built up.

There was another runaway in town, last Saturday, caused by an automobile, which resulted in a damaged carriage. It might be a good idea to have a law requiring automobiles, like traction engines, to be preceded by men to take care of frightened horses and thus prevent accidents.

The C. and P. Telephone Company is engaged in delivering poles and digging holes between Taneytown and Harney, which means that the long-talked-of connection will be made. It is said that the line will eventually be extended to Gettysburg or Littlestown.

Wilson Nusbaum is building a dwelling on Baltimore Street, east, and will have it ready for occupancy in the spring. This makes five dwellings, a store-house and a hall, added to the town this year.

O. T. Shoemaker has been awarded the contract for extending the water mains, as advertised by the Burgess and Commissioners.

The following Jurors have been drawn by Judge Thomas for the term of court which will begin Monday, Nov. 13. Taneytown, Richard S. Hill, Howard F. Legore, Pius J. Fink, Albert A. Clabaugh.

Keyes-Cornwell—Mr. William R. Keyes, of Strasburg, Va., formerly assistant teacher at Milton Academy, Taneytown, was married on Wednesday, Oct. 18 to Miss Martha B. Cornwell, of Rockingham county.

Hoffman-Fissel — Miss Edna Blanche Fissel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Fissel, and Jesse Hoffman, of Harney, Md., were married at high noon on Wednesday, at the home of the bride in Hanover, by Rev. W. G. Minnick, pastor of Mt. Joy Lutheran Church. The groom, who is a clerk in the store of M. R. Snider, at Harney, will enter business in Gettysburg, where the young couple will make their future home.

Worms aren't welcome in the laying house, so be sure you house a "clean" flock. Free your pullets of worm burden, improve their health and feed efficiency, and help them lay better by giving 'em Wormal. Wormal expels 3 major kinds of worms: large round, tape, and cecal. And you can give Wormal in the feed (ask for Granules) or individually (in tablets). Either way, Wormal does the job safely, surely. Help your layers become good payers — treat with Wormal.

Does money really grow on trees?

Certainly not for most folks—but for a couple of million people it seems to.

They are people who get their electricity from power plants owned by the federal government. They pay less for electric service than other people do, simply because you and everybody else pay part of their electric bills.

Here's how that happens. First, part of your taxes goes to pay for the government power plants that serve these people with electricity. Second, the electric bills these people pay do not include many of the taxes you pay in your electric bills. So your share of taxes has to be increased in order to pay their share.

For example, the federal government's TVA pays 5% of power revenue from customers, excluding sales to agencies of the United States. This is in place of taxes to the states and counties in which it operates.* Your local electric company pays 23.7%—about five times as much.

Not exactly fair, is it? Yet some people are trying to push the federal government into building and running more unnecessary power plants and power dams—to extend this "special privilege" still farther.

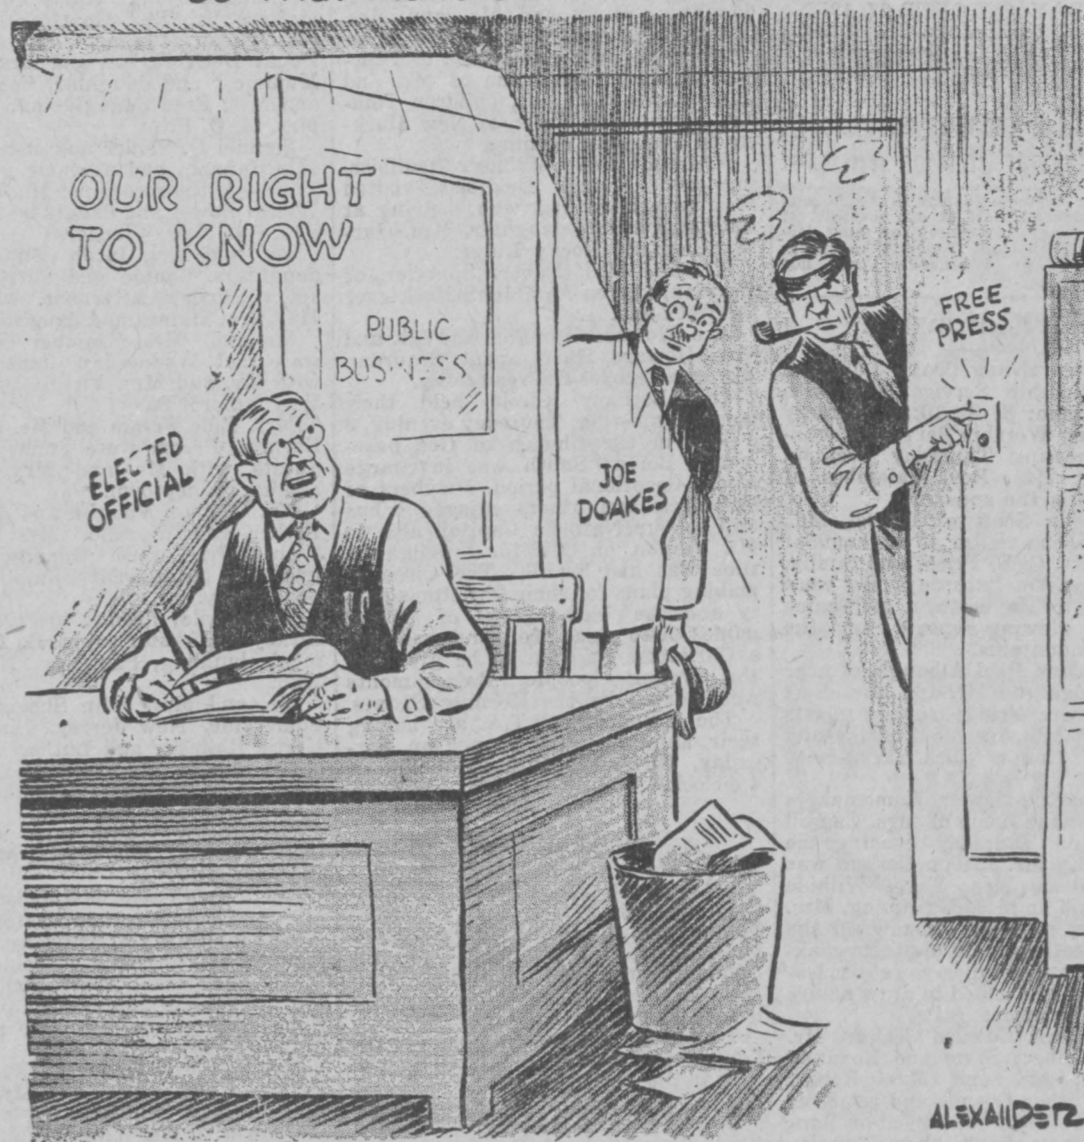

This kind of favoritism is unfair to everybody—especially to you who have to pay for it. That's why we're bringing you these little known facts.

Mrs. James Fiscus, Taneytown, Rt. 2, has won a pushbutton range in Hotpoint's $2,000,000 Golden Anniversary national contest.

Lambert's Electrical Store, Taneytown, local Hotpoint dealer, said official contest judges in Chicago selected Mrs. Fiscus' name recently as having the best dealer prize entry from this immediate area.

Lambert's Electrical Store sponsored the Taneytown contest as part of the appliance company's national Anniversary celebration. Other first, second, and third prizes now being awarded to families in the United States and Hawaii include four completely furnished electric homes, 50 pushbutton kitchen-laundries and almost 5,000 major appliances.

Lambert's Electrical Store said the Hotpoint contest, largest of its kind ever sponsored by a major appliance company, was specially designed to dramatize 50 years of progress in pushbutton electric living. They pointed out that Hotpoint got its name from the first electric iron "with the hot point" and said that the company later pioneered the world's first electric range and fully automatic dishwasher. They predicted that with increased public demand for electric home appliances and the expected availability of atomic power, new homes 25 to 50 years from now will be operated completely with electricity.

When the ghosts walk by and you count thirteen, And the big black cats are long and lean,

And the witches go for a nightly ride Astride their broomsticks side by side; When you see the friendly pumpkin man,

Who always laughs as hard as he can, And the owls in the trees and the owlets, Begin their wailing, "Who, who, who-o-o";

When the goblins stalk and the door-bells peal, And the grownups shudder and children squeal;

When the moon rides high and the winds are keen, Then everyone knows it's Halloween! Kathryn S. Gibson.

PSALM XXII—THE MAJESTY OF GOD REVEALED IN A STORM

The godly man sees God all about him. The phenomena of nature reveal Him. We sense His power in the roar of the thunder, we see His glory in the flash of the lightning, we receive His blessing by the rain, and His peace in the calm which follows the storm.

The twenty-ninth is another Nature-Psalm. The Psalmist portrays the Majesty—the power and the glory of the Lord in the display of a severe rainstorm. So awe-inspiring were the phenomena that worshippers in the temple cried, "Glory!" The Psalmist exhorts the angels to ascribe to the Lord glory and strength. For these attributes belong to His Nature. In recognition of His Majesty worship the Lord in 'holy array'. In the dignity to which His Name entitles Him. Worship Him 'in the beauty of holiness'. Worship Him in 'holy array' like the robes of the priests in an earthly sanctuary. In addition there is beauty in the spiritual quality of holiness.

The Psalmist describes the sevenfold peal of thunder as "the voice of the Lord".

1. The voice of the Lord is upon the waters (not of the sea, says Dummelow, but of the storm-cloud).

2. The voice of the Lord is powerful.

3. The voice of the Lord is full of majesty.

4. The voice of the Lord breaks the cedars.

5. The voice of the Lord flashes forth flames of fire.

6. The voice of the Lord shakes the wilderness.

7. The voice of the Lord makes the oaks to whirl (or the hinds to calve).

What a majestic portrayal of the glory of a rainstorm! The storm sweeps across the Mediterranean to the Lebanon and Sirion (Hermon) Mountains, the highest in northern Palestine, and then southward along the entire length of Palestine to the Wilderness of Kadesh.

The terrific storm does not get beyond control. Nevertheless, it does break the cedars, the strongest trees, of Lebanon, and shakes the wilderness of Kadesh, and makes the oaks to whirl, and the hinds to calve, an actual effect of a terrifying thunderstorm, and strips the forests bare. However, the Lord is Master of the situation.

The Lord sits enthroned over the flood The Lord sits enthroned as king forever.

The Lord of the destructive flood is now invoked to give strength to His people, and to bless His people with peace.

Read this Psalm in the Revised Standard Version to sense the grandeur of the rainstorm, and to experience an inspiration.

Self-Portrait

Lesson for October 30, 1955

THERE are people who don't care how they look to other people; they have no particular long-range plans or pattern of life, they live (as they might say) by ear. We call such persons extroverts; they never stop, so to speak, long enough to look into a mirror. There is an opposite kind of person who is painfully interested in himself. He is forever looking into a mirror, as it were. He makes the most careful and detailed plans and is quite upset when a detail goes wrong. We call such persons introverts. In between these types is a more balanced sort of person. If one could "type" Jesus of Nazareth he would be the balanced sort, by all means. He was self-conscious enough to know and care what he was doing, but not in the least self-centered.

Dr. Foreman

Action Portrait

Jesus once had the opportunity, which to some young people is a rather frightening thrill, of speaking to a crowded audience in his own home town. He knew what was in nearly everybody's mind: "Give an account of yourself. Who do you think you are and what do you think you are doing?" To them he was just a home-town boy; but they had heard of strange things he had said and done, and they wanted to hear him talk. So he had the opportunity on a Sabbath Day of speaking in the synagogue. As he read the Scripture for the day, from Isaiah 61, Jesus stopped in the middle of a sentence, and sitting down (as teachers did in those days) he said, "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled..." In other words, as Americans would put it. This is it. This is my plan of life. This prophecy, hundreds of years old, describes what I am and what I am doing. In short, Jesus took this prophecy to himself, as a self-portrait. It is more like a motion picture than a still picture; it expresses what he was, in terms of what he did.

For Others

That, by the way, is typical of the Bible way of describing people. Adjectives like "good," "merciful," "truthful," always have verbs behind them. Adjectives describe actions. A man does not have one kind of character and another kind of action. His actions are his character, not his external actions alone, but together with the motives and intentions which are a true part of every act. Now Jesus describes himself and his plan for life not only in terms of action, but of action in relation to other persons. John Wesley says somewhere that when Christianity ceases to be social it is not any longer Christian. The idea that any one can become a higher type of Christian by retiring permanently from the world, devoted exclusively to prayer and contemplation, is a notion not derived from Jesus. For him, the meaning of life is in contact with other persons. But note the sort of person Jesus mentions: the poor, the captives, the blind, the bruised... the very people so many of us avoid. Most people jump at the chance to get their pictures taken with famous people. Jesus' self-portrait was a picture of him with obscure people, people in trouble. What would happen in a community if every church member became more interested in doing something for people than in "doing" people?

For All Others

What really enraged those churchgoers of Nazareth was not that Jesus was dedicated to helping others. That was fine, they were all in favor of it. The thing that raised them to murder-heat was that he drew no lines. He was for helping one and all, yes even Gentiles. What Jews of that day thought of Gentiles is expressed in a passage from a popular book written about the same time as the New Testament: "For our sakes you (God) made this first-born world. But as for the rest of the nations which are sprung from Adam, you have said they are nothing and are like spittle." (II Esdras 6:56). So when Jesus made it clear that he (like Elijah and Elisha before him) would draw no race or national lines, that he intended to carry God's love to the last and least of men, these race-proud Nazarenes threatened to lynch him. WINNERS IN SOUTHERN STATES TALENT CONTEST

Mrs. Beverly Wehland, a vocalist, of Ellicott City, Md., has been named the winner of the Southern States Cooperative's Farm Talent District Elimination Contest held Wednesday, Oct. 19, 1955 at Frederick High School.

Second place honors went to a Hill-billy Band composed of Dave Copper-smith and George Tyler, both of Gettysburg, Pa.; Kenton C. Denisar, Aspers, Pa.; William Beard, Woodsboro, Md.; and LeRoy Kessler, Littlestown, Pa., while the third place was won by Charles Van Metre, a vocalist, of Shepherdstown, W. Va.

This elimination contest is one of 18 being held by Southern States throughout the six-state area served by the Cooperative. Participants, all are amateurs, in these contests were chosen from some 400 talent contests held earlier this year in the local communities.

The winner at each elimination contest will be given an expense paid trip to the Southern States Annual Membership Meeting to be held in Richmond, Va., Nov. 16-17, to compete in the final contest. Second place winners in the eliminations will receive a $25 cash prize, while the third-place winner will get a $10 cash prize.

TELEPHONE CO. NOT SOLICITING

The local office of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company reported recently that it has no connection with a mail solicitation for listings which is being made by a "classified business directory".

The local telephone office was besieged with inquiries and requests for more information recently from persons who assumed that the directory in question was the yellow pages of the telephone directory.

Telephone company spokesmen announced that the classified business directory firm which apparently sent materials to all business firms recently has no connection with either the telephone company or with the Reuben H. Donnelly Company, which handles the yellow pages advertising.

The yellow pages advertising for the telephone directory's coming edition was sold some weeks ago.

Much of the confusion apparently resulted because the printed matter sent out by a Baltimore firm for the "classified business directory" resembles in appearance the telephone company statements, and includes the telephone number of the person to which each item was sent.

MEETING OF WM. WINCHESTER CHAPTER D.A.R. HELD

Mrs. W. A. Pickens, Regent, Wm. Winchester Chapter D.A.R. conducted the first fall meeting of the chapter which was held at the home of Miss Mary Cunningham, West Green St.

Miss Cunningham, Mrs. Frank Cunningham and Miss Bessie Clemson were co-hostesses. The meeting was opened with a prayer by the chaplain followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and the D.A.R. pledge, Perpetuate the Spirit of America.

Minutes of the May meeting were read by the Sec. Mrs. Frank T. Parish and Mrs. Harry C. Reese, Jr., Treas., read the financial report.

Mrs. James T. Marsh read the President General's message from the Oct. issue of the D.A.R. Magazine. In this article Miss Carraway stresses the importance of always striving for that goal which has never varied since the organization of the National Society and to work together for "what we believe to be the best interests of our Constitutional Government and to preserve our American Way of Life".

Mrs. Pickens presented an article on "Status of Forces Treaty" from the National Defense column of the magazine.

The Regent reported that during the month of August she contacted the Mayor of each town in the county asking that they observe the period Sept. 17th and ending Sept. 23rd as Constitution week. The Mayors in turn issued local proclamations similar to that issued from the White House office by Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States of America. These proclamations asked that all citizens observe that week with appropriate ceremonies in their schools and churches and in other suitable places. The churches and schools co-operated and posters were placed in public windows urging that all citizens strive to "protect America's future thru Patriotic Education".

Mrs. Allen Feeser, Chr. of Good Citizens Committee reported that plans are being made to again conduct the Good Citizens contest in the county High schools. This is a competitive contest with the county winner entering the state finals and is limited to Senior H.S. girls. Mrs. Robert Gist announced that donations for the American Indians were now acceptable and would be allocated to St. Mary's school for Indian Girls in South Dakota. Mrs. Edgar Barnes, State Genealogical Chr., requested that during the year each member send copies of Bible or cemetery records to the State for permanent binding.

Mrs. Wilbur Shreeve, Chr. of Approved Schools, reported that boxes of clothing had been sent to two approved schools during the summer and that donations receivable at this time would be shipped to Tamassée in November. All redeemable coupons should be sent to Mrs. Shreeve and will be given to the Terra Rubra Society C.A.R. for their project.

Mrs. Arthur G. Turner, Senior Pres. Terra Rubra Society, C.A.R. announced that the Society now has 14 members and that their charter will bear the names of these members.

Mrs. F. Donald Shriver introduced the speaker, Miss M. Louise Mathews, Chairman of the Magazine, who stressed the importance and interest which have appeared in the magazine during the past year. The state of Maryland now ranks highest in percentage of membership subscriptions. Honor Roll requirements were read and explained to the members. The Wm. Winchester chapter is one of five in the state to meet the requirements for the National Gold star honor roll award.

Twenty-two members attended the meeting and among the guests were, Mrs. Lewis K. Woodward, Mrs. C. Benedict Platte, Mrs. Sherwood Kay, Mdm. Henri Boulvin, Mrs. Grace Leroy, Miss Lottie B. Geiman, Miss Lola Wood and Miss Jane Reifsnider. Other guests attended the tea which followed adjournment. Miss Madeline Shriver and Mrs. Frank B. Hurt presided at the table.

WITH OUR ARMED FORCES

ATLANTIC FLEET (FHTNC)—A visit by a polar bear was logged by Benjamin F. Crowl, Jr., pipe fitter third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Crowl of 30 Webster St., Westminster, Md.

The bear made his first appearance to the crew of the dock landing ship USS Lindewald during a beach unloading operation in September at the Arctic Fox Basin area. Since polar bears cannot be harmed without permission of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, the men evacuated the area without delay.

After nosing into tents and equipment, and satisfying itself that no food was available, the bear departed and operations were resumed.

The next day a cook on one of the landing craft beached in the heavy ice looked up from his breakfast preparations to stare at the twitching nose of the bear. It was standing in the ice looking through a port hole into the galley. . . . fortunately only the bear's head fit through.

By the third day friendly relations had been established and the bear was being regularly fed and it wandered about the beach at will. Polar bears are not normally considered friendly, but this one, so long as he was well fed, seemed to like company.

One day the bear caught sight of the Lindewald anchored about a mile off the beach. He swam out, probably to check the food supply.

As the bear swam between ice floes it was spotted and two landing craft were loaded with would-be bear handlers. After a two-hour chase led by the Lindewald's captain, Navy Odr. P. A. Lilly, Jr., the bear mounted a foe for rest. Since no one volunteered to drive it back into the water, the chase was abandoned.

What they would have done had they been able to capture it is not known but a polar bear unloading exercise would probably have commenced immediately.

How Advertising helps you
BY CHARLES B. ROTH
People May Know
A long time ago an intelligent man phrased a single sentence which has outlived every other thing he wrote. This was Dante, Italian poet. And the deathless sentence he penned reads simply: "Give the people light and they will find their way."
This light-giving function of advertising is one of its most important and fascinating and, yes, in a way, unbelievable aspects.
For of late years men have discovered that, by spreading light through the medium of advertising, they can accomplish unbelievable results—for good.
One of the current advertising miracles is the campaign to minimize forest fires. When forestry men discovered 90 per cent of all forest fires are caused by man, they asked how they could induce man to cause fewer of them. Being tough—and functional-minded individuals, these forestry experts decided to advertise.
You have seen the ads. "Remember only YOU," they told you, "can prevent forest fires." That was putting it on the line. Look at results: In 1942, there were 210,000 forest fires in this country. They destroyed 30 million acres of valuable forest. Then came advertising, and "Smoky Bear," and your responsibility. And last year there were only 164,000 fires, and the destruction was a third of what it was in 1942—10 million acres.
It's easy to say, "Yes, but that was a big national campaign, and there was a lot of money to spend. Can advertising do just as well on a smaller scale?"
It can. And does. A few years ago, in an egg-producing section of Kansas, a produce dealer decided to help the poultry raisers make more money, hence to enrich everyone in the community.
He began running small ads in the local newspaper. They were simple ads, plain ads, and they merely told farmers what they ought to know about raising chickens, feeding their flock for best results, grading their eggs; just a simple informative campaign. It didn't cost much.
But it produced immense results. Every poultry raiser made more money, and the benefits of the advertising reached every one in the community.

'MONEY TALKS: "AND U.S. SAVINGS BONDS SPEAK THE ONLY LANGUAGE THEY CAN"—"ANGELS IN THE REVELL SAVINGS PLAN WISHED YOU WOULD..."' 'WHITHER $: "THE DOLLAR SIGN WAS DERIVED FROM THE OLD GERMAN PIECE OF SILVER THE BRANNOON RESEMBLED THE LETTER 'S'. FARMER BROWN'S CAMPAIGN FOR GOVERNOR IN 1895

One of the most vivid recollections of my boyhood spent at the old mill concerns the colorful campaign conducted by farmer Frank Brown in the Fall of 1895 for the Governorship.

It should be explained that in those days the political campaigns preceding the Fall elections were looked forward to as the last big entertainment before the coming winter and were high-lighted by torchlight parades, bands of music, and great rallies with beef and pig roasts ("hot dogs" had not been heard of) where refreshments consisting of barrels of cider somewhat matured for the men and tubs of "pop" in ice for the boys (women didn't attend) were served. There was much oratory from the candidates and professional political speakers, punctuated with loud cheers from their supporters and "boos" from the opposition in the mixed audiences and sometimes they wound up in fistcuffs which all added to the excitement.

One day late in October Farmer Brown, mounted on one of his blooded horses, was leading a long procession of his political friends past Father's mill on his way to speak at a rally in Union Bridge. A fine figure of a man, he was dressed in a Captain's uniform with a dangling sword at his side and his accompanying staff, likewise in the new khaki outfits and also mounted, followed. Then came the musicians and his followers in carriages. Seeing the group of watchers before the mill, the buglers suddenly struck up a fan-fare and everybody yelled for Farmer Brown. All this noise was too much for our old red rooster down in the meadow below the mill and he suddenly wanted "home". Squawking loudly and wildly flapping his wings, he flew across the road directly in front of the leader's spirited horse, who promptly reared up, swapped ends and bucked wildly to unseat its rider, but didn't succeed as he was a superb rider.

All this caused much confusion among the other horses, stopping the parade. Our old rooster, thinking he had vanquished the "great dragon" likewise stopped his flight and crowed victoriously three times. At this, everybody laughed and cheered, except Farmer Brown who was too busy regaining control of his mount. To add to the melee, one of our group yelled, "Governor, why didn't you draw your sword and cut off the rooster's head?" Then even the Governor-to-be laughed and gave the signal to proceed.
