The oldest active Endeavor? The person who has been active in C. E. the longest? I will appreciate any information in this matter before Aug. 5.

ATTENDS KEY CLUB CONVENTION IN DALLAS

Three members of the Taneytown High School Key Club, John Reeve, Peter Westine and Jack Muenier, who attended the 13th annual convention of the Key Club International in Dallas, Texas, July 1-4 wish to express their appreciation of the financial help given them by their sponsoring club, the Kiwanis Club of Taneytown.

The convention was both fun and inspiring. The main lights were given in a previous article. We heard and saw personalities such as Harold Stassen and Kim Novak. We camped out on the way covering seventeen states and a distance of 4,141 miles. From sleeping in a ball park in Vicksburg, Mississippi, a beach in Michigan, a park in Missouri, a motel in Tennessee, a YMCA in Chicago, we hit a high peak in Dallas, a new luxury Motel which held this as its first convention.

A few highlights of our trip were the Ford Museum, in Michigan; New Salem, in Illinois; Ononogon Caverns in Missouri; Vicksburg Battlefield and United States Waterways Experimental Station in Mississippi; Stone Mountain in Georgia; Oak Ridge in Tennessee; the Smokies in North Carolina and the Museum of Science and Industry, China Town, Planetarium, Aquarium, and Museum of National History in Chicago.

REINDOLLAR REUNION HELD

The Reindollar Reunion, on Sunday at Big Pipe Creek Park, was well attended. After a picnic dinner there was a program. Part of the program was a talk by Dr. William Reindollar of Baltimore. He and Mrs. Reindollar in company with six friends recently attended the 50th Convention of Pure Foods and Drugs at New York City. With a combined business and pleasure trip he had much to tell. James Elliot, sports reporter on the Baltimore Sun, spoke. Another of interest was a poem about the Reindollar family written by Mr. Thomas Reindollar, Baltimore.

Inexpensive awards were given to: Mrs. Rena Thomson, the oldest person present; the youngest, Gary Proctor; coming longest distance, Mr. Joseph Hart and daughter, Miss Jean Hart, of Rochester, N. Y.; youngest married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Proctor; for the heaviest suit of hair on head, Miss Beulah Englar; the least hair on head, Mr. Harry Reindollar, ones coming the shortest distance, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fair; one most likely to be married first, James Elliot.

Next reunion the 2nd Sunday in July at the same place.

ALUMNI TO HOLD OUTING SUNDAY

The Taneytown High School Alumni will hold their annual outing this Sunday, July 15. It will be held again this year at Beverly Beach on the Chesapeake Bay, near Mayo, Md., south of Annapolis. All Alumni, their families and their friends are invited to join in the fun and to bring their own picnic lunches.

Cars will leave the High School Sunday morning, at 8 a. m. Anyone able to provide transportation or desiring transportation are asked to contact President Robert Waddell, Phone 3492. A large turnout is anticipated and since "the more the merrier" at an outing of this type, get the gang together and join the party.

PROTECTION AGAINST POLO

Eligibility for Poliomyelitis vaccination has been extended to all persons between the ages of 3 months and 19 years inclusive, as well as pregnant women of all ages. Presently Poliomyelitis vaccine production is almost equal to demand, and before long anyone who wishes may obtain inoculations.

It still is not too late to receive some protection, as even one or two doses imparts a certain degree of immunity, though experts recommend the full three doses. Parents are urged to have their children inoculated by their family physicians without delay if possible, and where this isn't possible, they should visit the clinics which are held at the Health Center in Westminster each Tuesday afternoon between the hours of 1:30 p. m. and 2:30 p. m.

For those children who were treated in schools under the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis program it is recommended that they visit their family physicians or the Health department Tuesday clinic for booster, or third, doses six months after second doses. As this period of time has already elapsed, arrangements should be made now.

GRATITUDE

MEETING OF LUTHERAN CHURCH WOMEN

Held on the Parsonage Lawn Wednesday Evening

The Trinity Mission Circle was hostess to the United Lutheran Church Women of Trinity at their annual combined meeting which was held on the parsonage lawn on Wednesday evening, at 7 p. m.

The following program was presented: Quiet music, Miss Hazel Hess at the organ; Hymn, "O Zion Haste, Thy Mission High Fulfilling"; Scripture, Mrs. William Hopkins; Opening Prayer, Miss Edith Hess; Duet, "Thy Kingdom Come" by Mrs. Stanley B. Jennings and Mrs. Kenneth Shorb; Brief summary of the lesson and introduction of the speaker, Mrs. John Copenhaver; Speaker, Dr. Roy Dunkelberger; Violin selection, "Flower Song", by Miss Fairy Frock; Closing Prayer, Miss Mary Reindollar; Hymn "Christ for the World We Sing." Benediction.

Dr. Dunkelberger, a native of Pennsylvania and for over 45 years a missionary to India, drew a most informative and inspiring picture of the land and people he served. After displaying interesting Indian curios, he discussed the vast political, educational, social, and spiritual changes which have come to India during his long ministry there. He pointed out that one of the chief causes of this great forward movement has been the impact of Christianity. One hundred and fourteen years ago there were no Christians in India—today there are 243,000 church members. While never confessed Christians, both Gandhi and Nehru have been profoundly influenced by Christ's way of life. However, still much remains for the Christian church to do, for in India's teeming millions less than 3 out of 100 are Christians. The young church and institutions are poor and must bear heavily on the Mother Church for spiritual and financial help.

The discussion ended with a most interesting question and answer session.

The group felt it a unique privilege to have Dr. Dunkelberger, who will continue to live in Gettysburg after his retirement in August of this year. The meeting concluded with a delicious dessert course of ice cream, cake, punch and pretzels. Mrs. Glenn Bollinger was chairman of the refreshment committee; assisting her were Mrs. Richard Eitzler, Miss Hazel Hess and Miss Eleanor Kiser.

LIONS CLUB AND FAMILIES PICNIC

The Lions Club kicked off the beginning of 1956-57 fiscal year with a family picnic at Taneytown's beautiful Memorial Park, Tuesday evening. A fine picnic dinner was served by Donald Baker and his committee of Harry Dougherty, Homer Myers, Delmar Riffe, David Shaum and Denton Wantz. These Lions were given some fine assistance from a group of Lionesses and the President, A. Heltebride. 99% of the membership present at this our first meeting.

The group enjoyed a little league baseball game between the Cubs and Cards. This was a regular scheduled game and both teams are sponsored by the Taneytown Lions Club. If any person has never been out to see a game played by these 8-10 year olds he should make it a point to attend the next game. It is unbelievable how well the plays are executed. Thanks to the excellent coaching these teams receive from the able staff of Myron Tracey, Irvin Coum, Harry Dougherty, Jr., Dean Nusbbaum and Crawford Banks.

Program chairman Singleton Remsburg is planning a ladies night party at a nearby Summer Theater, August 14. The annual Crab feed is scheduled for August 28.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

(Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

If you can't sleep these hot nights, don't worry about it and become relaxed by looking at the lightning bugs going through the trees like shooting stars. That is a beautiful sight.

The recent rains have caused the grass to become beautifully thick and I have noticed just recently that the grass is more beautiful when cut with a hand mower instead of a power mower. Mr. Farmer will agree with that one, I am sure, as the old-fashioned way of plowing the ground with a team of horses meant a much finer and richer ground.

Ladies, if you really want to start something, look on your page 44 of The Ladies Home Journal, and you will read of the most fabulous diet! Hope to try that one out myself and I'll let you know in a later column. In the summer time would be the best bet on that, I am sure.

The friend traveling all alone from California and driving through the desert at night, finally arrived in Baltimore. Now the suspense is over as far as I am concerned! Ugh! That is the third time for her!

So many people, both men and women, who are 35 to 40, write that it is so difficult to secure a position regardless of the experience they have had. Henry Ford used to employ men only over 40! After all, think of our Presidents—most all were over 50 when they became the executive of these United States and our nice President Eisenhower is past 65 and the people still desire him to run again.

I know of an elderly couple, the wife 78 and the husband 80, and the wife is urging the husband to purchase a tiny unfinished house in the country. This house does not have any plumbing or heating and that little woman keeps saying, "Why, Charles, can you do it? Nothing like the power of a woman! Eh? So you see, Life does begin at 80!"

That precious "Sugar" girl (six months old Cocker Spaniel) keeps bringing me things like these—stones, twigs, string and lays them at the back kitchen door. She awaits for my approval and when I say, "Oh, Sugar, why do you bring me all this junk?" she gets up immediately with the look in her expression, "well, I'll hunt something else for you and bring it back which might satisfy you!" She walks slowly away and then a bear trot over the three acres and keeps hunting until she thinks I am pleased. That is the Retriever in that type of dog. Dogs are sensible if you care to have patience and understand each breed. A Cocker is especially independent and stubborn and that means you must be doubly patient but it will reward you in the end for they truly are watch dogs!

Now that July is almost to the middle of the month, you will see the big sales in all the stores in any place.

There was nothing that I have wanted more than a big new American flag. Do my readers recall the one I placed daily at the corner of the lawn each morning at the farm? When we moved, that big flag could not be found when the truck arrived with the furniture from one county to another and although I was upset about it, I felt that a real American must have wanted a flag! Now, I have a much larger one on the tall pole on the lawn and as the wind blows and it unfurls so proudly, my heart beats faster as I say with reverence, "Long May It Wave!" There were many flags displayed on the 4th of July and that is as it should be! Hundreds were to "Holloway Beach", enjoying the outing, which is just above Harve de Grace, off route 40. It made one think of Coney Island with the mob!

Mrs. Housewife, usually after the 4th of July, garden furniture and porch pieces are drastically reduced. If you are undecided about taking that summer vacation, why not dress up your lawn and porch or having the porch enclosed? You will really enjoy it all and you can have it for keeps each year. That one, you will never forget.

Have a grand week end, folks. Drive carefully and wisely. See you next week D.V. I am,

Faithfully,

OUR EVERYDAY ROADS NEED HELP

There are two systems of roads in the United States. Best-known is the network of "dream highways"—the four- and six-lane super-highways that are our "Sunday best", for the occasional long-distance trip. Less-known—but carrying nine-tenths of all traffic—is the system of existing smaller roads. These are our "everyday" roads... the ones you usually travel when you go to town... that your wife uses to go shopping... that factory workers use to get to work.

CURRENT EVENTS
FIFTY YEARS AGO

Both town and country are full of visitors—so many that it is impossible to mention them. Those who desire such items to appear should hand them in at the office.

Judge and Mrs. H. M. Clabaugh are enjoying the comforts of their handsome summer home, at the edge of town, having arrived the latter part of last week.

Miss Augustus Johns McKellip, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. McKellip, was married to Mr. Alfred Brazier Howell, of Catonsville, at the rectory of Memorial Church, Baltimore, last Saturday, by Rev. William M. Dame.

Frizzellburg—The raspberry crop which was a good one this year is about over, Jacob Null, an extensive grower, has picked and sold 2000 boxes of the fruit from about a half acre of ground. Three-fourths of them were sold in Westminster.—The German Baptists will hold their regular service in the Chapel here, this Sunday night.—Now that the time of recreation is here, fishing is being restored to. Some of our young men brought home some fine bass recently.—The farmers are threshing and the yield is very encouraging.—Work has begun on the new telephone line from this place to Pleasant Valley. Workmen from home and elsewhere are employed, and progress is rapid.

Harney—On last Sunday evening, Rev. Joseph Voluce, a mute, preached in the U. B. church, using the sign language all the way through the service. The church was well filled and a liberal collection fell for the afflicted brother. Samuel Snider was the only one who understood all.—J. D. Hesson left last week for York where he has secured a job driving a baker wagon.

H. A. Heck who moved to York, last Spring, has again moved his family back to this place and is now occupying S. S. Shoemaker's house. Harney is not such a bad place after all, is it?—Mrs. M. R. Snider, accompanied by her sister and several friends, are off on a trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.—Rev. L. A. Bush's family is spending some time with J. Newcomer, while the Reverend has gone on a visit to Chicago to see his brother, J. Luther Bush, who was formerly one of our town boys, but for a number of years has lived in the windy city.—The P. O. S. of A. will hold their annual picnic in Geo. Shriver's grove, near Harney, on Saturday afternoon and night, July 21. There will be a band of music and speaking.

happy vacations begin in a Chevy

You'll love to travel in it, because it loves to travel! When you get this Chevrolet out on the road, you'll want to keep going—and so will the whole family.

Of course, even in a Chevrolet the happiest vacations may involve one or two minor problems. Like fidgety small fry who want gallons of water and keep asking if you're almost there. The big things, though, are beautifully taken care of by this roomy Chevrolet's smooth and easy way of going. That's for sure.

The fact is, few cars at any price hold the road with Chevy's grace, with its solid feeling of stability. And with horsepower up to 225, Chevrolet moves out like a whiplash, for safer passing. It's no wonder that so many people who used to buy higher priced cars are changing to Chevrolet! Stop by soon for a ride.

America's largest selling car—2 million more owners than any other make. AIR CONDITIONING—TEMPERATURES MADE TO ORDER—AT NEW LOW COST. LET US DEMONSTRATE!

FEESERSBURG (A Voice from Carroll) Along about this time every year we use to envy our friends who were fortunate enough to get away on a vacation and when the postcards arrived from far away places we sometimes felt very sorry for ourselves. But that is all past now, for we have seen too many vacationers return from a trip complaining of bad food, bad beds, bad traffic and impossible people. It sometimes took them a month to get over their vacation. So now we are content to stay put on the farm and do our traveling by remote control, through travel-folders, television, magazines and our friends movie camera. Of course it is true, that while our neighbors talk about Canada, Mexico, Alaska and the wide, wide world we either listen or brag about Carroll County. But what's wrong about that? We could travel the world over and never find anywhere the peace and contentment that we have found so abundantly here in Carroll. Why travel to distant lands when what one has at finger tips is so nearly perfect? The Frederick Post carries a weekly column by Joe Eisenhauer called "Frederick Notebook" which we enjoy reading very much. Joe seems to be "town" conscious just as we are "County" conscious. We like people who appreciate what is in their own backyard and not forever berating the short comings of their own community. Of course it is necessary at times to prod people into doing things that need to be done for the growth of a town or county and Mr. Eisenhauer does this at times very diplomatically and well. But more often then not, he writes affectionally of his town and it's people. Its good writing by a good Joe, and its good reading. Last week Unionville established a world's record by having it rain 1.23 inches in one minute. The previous record was 0.69 of an inch in one minute. But many people would have been perfectly satisfied to have done without the world's record as many basements were flooded and corn-fields washed out by the downpour which lasted about an hour and cascaded 3:60 inches of rain on the small community. Westminster too, had about the same amount and many basements and club cellars were ruined by the water. We whole heartedly subscribe to "Free Speech", although there are times when I wonder if speech is really free. For while one is talking someone has to listen and often it isn't convenient to listen—especially when one has a cake in the oven or a steak on the grill. When one burns a steak trying to catch the last word in a conversation it isn't exactly "free speech" is it? A very pretty wedding took place in York, Pa., Saturday evening at 7 p. m. when Miss Patricia Ann Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Myers became the bride of Mr. Ronald W. Wilhide, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mehrle Wilhide, of York, and formerly of Keysville. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of lace over satin and carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. Her veil of tulle fell from a coronet of white satin. The double ring ceremony took place at Kingdom Hall, in York, which was decorated with palms and baskets of white flowers. The bride had two attendants gowned in pink and blue chiffon with caps of white flowers matching the old-fashioned bouquets they carried. Mr. John Wilhide was his brother's bestman. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the North York playground auditorium for over two hundred guests. After their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Wilhide will live in York. Those attending the wedding and reception from Middleburg district were Mrs. Maurice Wilhide, of Detour, grandmother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide, Mr. Carroll Wilhide and sons, Richard and Myron, and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Coelke. Nothing ties parents and a teenager more closely together than driving the same automobile or separates them more competely. Some parents solve this problem by refusing to allow their teenagers to drive. This is pure selfishness. (I will hear about this). We warn people frequently not to take literally everything that is written—that rarely can any writer stick entirely to the truth although they should desperately try to do so for the written word as the poet said is mighty potent stuff. For example—Harriet Beecher Stowe wrote "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and attacked the attitude toward Negro and white man for a period of over a hundred years. The only basis for the book was one week-end that Miss Stowe spent in Northern Kentucky. No one can estimate the harm this book did, because the readers thought it was factual—instead most of it was fiction. St. Swithin's Day is July 15th. Already we have had enough rain in this month so we hope St. Swithin's day will be fair, although doing with our rain for forty days is too long. No doubt you know the story of St. Swithin but it bears repeating. On his deathbed St. Swithin asked that he be buried outside the wall of his cathedral where passers-by would step over his grave, and rain-drops fall upon it. But his parish refused thinking it wouldn't be dignified. So in revenge St. Swithin rained them out for forty days. Why is it that a strict mother turns into a doting . . . soft-touch grandmother? The answer probably lies in the fact that mother knows she is responsible for the way her children turn out, but after she is a grandmother the responsibility passes on to someone else so she can afford to spoil and enjoy her grand-children—and she usually does. The trouble with opportunity is that it generally comes disguised as hard work and of course hard work is not very popular these days. Its hard to believe but we read in a farm magazine this week that the way to end surpluses and the high cost of producing farm products is to return to horse farming and do away with high priced machinery. Either the writer had horses to sell or he was trying to be funny. Does some reader of this paper have a secret concoction for getting rid of poison ivy? We walked through it about two weeks ago and have tried everything in the book to get rid of it but nothing seems to help much. To say the least its annoying.—Ruth Roelke. A Legore man was arrested for reckless driving following a two-car accident, Monday afternoon, in which he and the driver of another vehicle received minor injuries on Long's Mill Road near Rocky Ridge. Damage to the two automobiles was estimated at about $500. Bickford Stottlemeyer, 25, Legore, Md., who was charged by State Trooper Robert Snyder with driving his car recklessly, was treated at the Frederick Memorial Hospital for lacerations of the knee. The other driver involved was William Weddle, 65, Thurmont. He was treated for face and chest injuries and released. The Thurmont American Legion ambulance took Weddle to the hospital while Stottlemeyer was transported in a police car. Trooper Snyder gave this resume of the accident: Stottlemeyer, driving a 1952 Ford convertible south on Long's Mill Road at about 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, was rounding a turn and hit Weddle's car, which was traveling north. Weddle said his injuries resulted from being thrown against the dash of his car. LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor: The author of the column "Irish Sez", in THE MESSENGER-NEWS of Des Moines, Iowa, has been speculating about the case of nerves that all America seems currently to have, our unaccustomed edginess toward neighbors and fellow-workers, and the mounting deaths from "heart attacks". She wonders whether this may be a result of the "Communist influence", but admits (as most of us would) that she doesn't know.

But the lady seems on surer ground when she goes on to talk about the morass of legislation in which we have ensnared ourselves: "We have laws, in-laws, by-laws and even lawmakers who will and have broken the laws they helped to enact. So many seem to enjoy breaking laws. Some of our laws bring about the cause of law-breaking."

"For an example, our child-labor law. A boy or girl 14 or 15 years of age can not legally work in any job worth having, or a job which places any responsibility on their shoulders. During school vacation they can only roam the streets or parks or wherever they can to occupy their time. Dad and Mom must furnish spending money for entertainment and ride herd on them to keep them out of trouble. We have juvenile delinquency, of course. We also have adult delinquency."

While we have always regarded these two afflictions of the body-politic as the same thing—in a phrase "adult delinquency"—there can be no doubt that inflexible legislation barring youth from being constructively and profitably useful has given this plague tremendous impetus. At the same time it is not-so-slowly stifling the normal urge of youth to try its wings, to taste of successful accomplishment, to win respect and admiration. To pervert this primal drive by law will give us (is giving us, in fact) mobsters and molls of a type even more incomprehensible than have sprung from earlier "noble experiments".

Youth should be protected against conditions against bad working conditions and excessive hours which is no problem where working permits are issued to the physically-fit by the local authorities. And certainly, youth should be equally protected from the gangsterism that is the unfulfilling fruit of enforced idleness.

And, by the way, the Congressman is home now, isn't he?

Sincerely, BOB TAYLOR

We are not sure whether this is Editor Lois V. Wetmore or a young lady on her staff. If we are advised on this point, we shall be happy to report later. RNT

THOUGHTS FOR THOUGHT

Life is one long holiday for those who have no mind to work.

"In eating, the human jaws generate an electrical current of .005 volt." Wonder what the voltage is in gossiping!

Sex is nature's attempt to vary the monotony of life, according to T. C. Barnes, biology, Yale University.

There are those ignorant of the law, and others ignorant in the law.

"A single whale may be valued commercially at $500 to $10,000." What a whale of a price!

"In mid-summer, female glow worms crawl about on the ground and emit light to attract their more frivolous partners." Glow worms are not the only species of female that attract frivolous partners!

A little learning turns the head, much learning turns the mind.

Religion is an "opiate" only when the preacher puts the congregation to sleep.

Squeals are not confined only to the swine family.

"Columns" are not the only support of publishing houses!

Some people make a success of love and others love success.

A person at the North Pole is about 13 miles nearer the center of the earth than is a person at the Equator.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge.—RSV (Prov. 1:7).

Your bank will order series H Savings bonds for you, if you want current income on a completely safe investment. They sell for $500, $1,000, $5,000, and $10,000, are redeemable at par after six months on one month's notice and pay interest twice a year for nine years and eight months.

With those who know investments best, the U. S. Savings Bond has no superior.

The Christ Of The Beatitudes

Rembrandt's Head of Christ, often called The Christ of the Beatitudes, will probably be studied by more people during the next two months than at any time since it was painted in the 17th century. It appears on the cover of The Upper Room, daily devotional guide with more than 3 million circulation. The painting is in New York.

Dr. J. Manning Potts, editor of The Upper Room points out that in this picture Rembrandt was seeking to show the compassionate Christ — friend of the lonely, the poor and the suffering. Rembrandt painted this picture after he had himself experienced great personal sorrow, lost his fortune and his popularity. Worshipers of wealth and power brush him aside but the poor and suffering see compassion and love in his eyes.

TANEYTOWN AND ITS FARMS—More Advice to Farmers:

Of the history of Taneytown this is part 7—
To me, it was once the gateway to heaven;
Its people then lived the primitive way;
But, they left an agenda for us to-day.

In my story of the town, I named its farmers last;
But, among the pioneers, they should be classed;
It was those bumper crops of wheat, corn and hay
Which helped to make the place what it is to-day.

The early settlers were mostly of German descent;
So, to sit idly around, they were not content;
Six days of each week were spent on the sod,
But the Sabbath was a day devoted to God.

That is the secret of the big, red barns
Which, to-day add to Carroll county's many charms;
The whole country was blest, they used to say,
Because of the people who lived in that day.

And some of their progeny still live in the town;
And, do their best, to give it prestige and renown;
Norval Shoemaker and David Hahn, they say,
Are among the beacons who live there to-day.

Hezekiah Hahn, a farmer, was popular everywhere;
He was always willing to do his share;
And, there are many others, whose ancestors I knew well,
Who left the country, and came there to dwell.

Dan'l Harman was a man who had little to say;
But, he was a prosperous farmer, in his day;
He set an example for all around,
And taught many farmers how to till the ground.

David Mehring was also a model man in his prime—
His farm and the church took up most of his time;
But his daughters were jolly and full of fun,
So to visit there was a pleasure for everyone.

Jacob Mehring was also a fine tiller of the loam;
His wife was the angel in his home;
She was always good to others—as kind as could be;
And never failed to color Easter eggs for me.

Old Emanuel Knipple, and "Kitty," his wife,
Lived out in the country all their life;
They had no offspring of their own;
But, no other couple were better known.

They were frugal; but, as jolly as they could be,
And, for that reason, were blest with company;
Every Sunday people went there to spend the day,
And they all seemed happy when they went away.

Abram Hess was another big farmer of the past;
His farm, as one of the best, was classed;
One of his daughters married Preacher Long, they say,
And his grandson, Claudius is with you to-day.

Another Jacob Mehring lived on the Emmitsburg road;
On his face, honesty, fairly glowed;
I knew his daughters, Ida and Grace, quite well;
So, of his mannerism, I delight to tell.

Wm. Clutz was another good man in his day;
His whole family was highly respected, I might say,
And that is true of "Dan Null, Charlie Hess and "Abe" Naill;
With them, justice always seemed to prevail.

"Tom" Rudisil was a famous farmer in his day,
He had many servants, the people say;
Being wealthy, he was respected everywhere;
So, few, with old Thomas, could we compare.

To tell of the Keyzers and Zentz's would take space
But, they too, were popular in the place;
Old Wm., John, Frank and Grant, I knew well,
No better people ever came there to dwell.

The Hiltbricks, Galts, and Joshua Koutz, I left out
(That they were big farmers we do not doubt);
What I want to do is to prove what I say:
"They all feared God in that early day.

The James Unger and Harry Sell farms
For some itinerants have many charms;
Likewise, those of "Wash" Baumgardner and John Fair
Are some of my favorite places up there.

And there are many places I once liked were,
Places of which I delight to tell;
Some are near the water, others cover the hills,
But, they all enchant, and cause many thrills.

The Calvin Fringer farm is off the main road;
But, to me, it was always an ideal abode;
To pass away time: I used to ride out there,
For tranquility seemed to exist everywhere.

The Feezers, "Billy" and Harry, were old friends of mine;
But, to tell of them, and others, I must decline;
The list is already too long, I fear,
To be of interest to strangers not living near.

But, of those I have mentioned I delight to tell;
It seems like bringing them back here to dwell;
They were all good men, never cast a frown
On the fellow who slipped, but was not quite down.

Old Tobias Eckenrode was a wonderful man,
Even when a boy, I liked the way he would plan,
In those days men like old "Toby" were few;
It was he who started to make the town new.

He burnt tons of limestone to improve the farms;
That is what gave the fields their charms;
He also made bricks for the houses up there,
A sample of which may be seen at the square.

When I think of Taneytown when I was a boy,
Then see it to-day, it fills me with joy;
God, too, remembers those days gone by
When the people all thought He was up in the sky.

But they worshipped Him, wherever He might be;
All that mattered to them was eternity;
And they thanked Him that, in the regions of space,
He had found for them such a wonderful place.

Now that the people begin to see the light
The town keeps growing day and night;
And a beautiful city it shall turn out to be
When they celebrate its tercentenary.

The lovely fields which surround the town
Shall then give it distinction and renown;
Instead of producing wheat, corn, and hay
They shall be covered with houses in that day.

This is a panorama of how it shall be
When Taneytown celebrates its next jubilee;
The birds, the sky, gorgeous mountains in the rear
Shall make it a paradise right here.

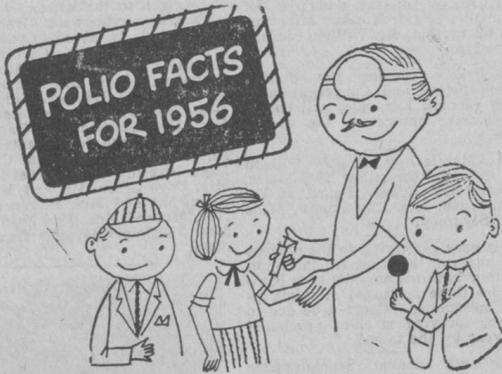

So, read The Carroll Record!—its paper tell
Not only of the present, but the future as well;
If you are a homeseeeker, let your wandering cease,
Go to a town where you can live in peace.

Build a domicile where, in value, it shall increase,
Where booms and enterprise never cease!
Where the fields are fertile, and the skies are sunny,
Where love often takes the place of money.

The lofty mountains, not so far away
Guard its inhabitants night and day;
They change the course of the storm-cloud's path,
And protect the whole country from its wrath.

That is my advice to those who don't know
Just where to settle, the right place to go;
Build a home where God's handiwork you can see
If you would be truly happy in this "land of the free."

It's a Great Time to Buy a Buick

Buick SPECIAL 6-Passenger 2-Door Riviera

(And at the Best Buy Yet!)

WHAT'S IN IT for you — if you step out and buy yourself a 1956 Buick right now? Well, first of all—the time is right. Right now, your present car is at its peak worth. And, with the whole summer and almost half of '56 still ahead of you, you'll get more enjoyment out of a spirited new Buick this year — if you buy now. Second, there's the matter of how much more automobile your money buys in the best Buick yet. We tell you flatly that nowhere but in a '56 Buick can you get so much bounty for so little booty. For example, take the beautiful big '56 Buick SPECIAL pictured here. It's one big reason why Buick now ranks in the top three of America's best-selling cars. Yet, you'll find it priced right close to the well-known smaller cars.

That sure makes Buick a whale of a lot of car for the money. And look:

Nowhere but in a '56 Buick can you get the absolute smoothness and the electrifying performance of Buick's terrific new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

Nowhere else can you get the obedient responsiveness of Buick's big and mighty new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine. Or Buick's matchless new handling ease and ever-level ride buoyancy — or Buick's bold new sweep-ahead styling, and solidity of structure, and stretch-out roominess.

Add it all up and the answer comes out the same, any way you figure it: Now's the time to buy your 1956 Buick.

Will you come in — before another sun sets — and get set with your best buy yet?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

AIRCONDITIONING at a COOL NEW LOW PRICE. It cools, filters, dehumidifies. Get 4-Season Comfort in your new Buick with genuine FRIGIDAIRE CONDITIONING

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

Savior of Men

Lesson for July 15, 1956

THE Bible does not say that Jesus saves men from hell. It does say that he saves men from their sins. This is much more important; for suppose a man were saved from hell but not from his sins? Perverted by sin, such a man would carry his own hell with him even through the gates of heaven. Christ is the Saviour of men here and now, not in the future alone, but in the living present. In the Bible the word "save" means, first of all, to rescue. Christ as Saviour comes to the rescue of men who are chained and beaten, men who are the victims of their worst selves, bondsmen of the devil. Your worst self hates your best self. Left alone, your best self has a very slim chance, if any. You need to be rescued from yourself, and Christ is the rescuer every man needs.

Dr. Foreman

Sin-bearer

How does Christ rescue men? The Bible suggests, and the church echoes, many answers. Let us look at three. Christ rescues men by taking their sins on himself. As a modern Christian writer (Hordern) puts it, he "took the rap" for mankind. As St. Paul put it, "He who knew no sin was made to be sin, for us . . ." In a long-ago battle for Swiss independence, the story is that one of the front-line soldiers seized as many of the enemy's spears as he could gather in his arms, and forced himself on them, thus making by his death a gap through which his fellow-soldiers poured to victory. In North Carolina, when the United States government was about to punish the Cherokee Indians for an alleged crime, their chief Junaluska offered to give his own life if the government would let his people go. So he was killed, and his people went free. These are imperfect illustrations of what Jesus Christ did as sin-bearer, as self-giving Sacrifice. He "tasted death for every one." That does not have to be done twice.

Example

Another way in which Christ saves is by just being himself. Once there was a school-room in which the small boys and girls seemed to learn a courtesy, a graciousness of manner, which children in other rooms did not learn. Some one who wondered how the teacher did it, and who knew how hard it is to teach some children even the ABC's or of politeness, asked one of the boys how the teacher did it. "She don't teach us at all," the small boy said. "She just walks around, and we feel as polite as anything." A well-known "Spiritual" sings, "I want to be like Jesus, in my heart." Jesus saves men from their sins by so inspiring them that they know there is nothing better than to be like Him. If you are learning to play the piano, you don't learn best by listening to poor pianos poorly played. You learn by listening to a master-pianist, a real artist. Now there is an easy way of misunderstanding this matter of Jesus saving us by his example: it is to suppose that we must every day compare him with ourselves, keeping (so to speak) a chart on which our "spiritual progress" is charted every day—20% like Jesus in 1955, 25% in 1956, and so on. That is absolutely the wrong way to do it; all you become is a Pharisee. The right way is to keep our mind fixed on Christ, so to love him in sincere earnest, that we shall grow more and more like him, one may say almost without knowing it. True saints are not self-conscious.

Unseen Guest

Once Jesus invited himself to dinner at the house of a very shady character named Zacchaeus. After dinner Jesus said, "Salvation has come to this house," and we know that Zacchaeus began to be a different man from that afternoon. In the last book of the New Testament a picture is drawn of Christ standing outside a closed door. "If any one hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in . . ." So Christ saves men by being their permanent unseen Guest, by being the Inner Companion whose very presence is a saving power. Christ is Saviour, not alone by what he does for men, but by what he does in men. Being "saved" is more than knowing or believing; being saved is becoming, by his invitation, host to the Lord of all.
