REV. GALAMBOS CALLED TO CINCINNATI

The Rev. Gideon E. Galambos, pastor of the Emmitsburg, Piney Creek and Taneytown Presbyterian churches has accepted an unanimous call to the Elmwood Place Presbyterian Church of Cincinnati, Ohio, where he has many friends.

During his ministry here the congregations have added to their numbers, active organizations have been formed and a Hammond organ installed in Taneytown. The benevolence giving has greatly increased as he strongly feels that the giving church is a living one.

Notwithstanding the few years he has been in this country he has shown great ability in adopting the language and has been much sought after as a speaker in this community and elsewhere.

Mr. Galambos' friends here are loath to lose him as pastor and friend, but with him and his family goes their heartfelt wishes that their work in the new field will be most successful, happy and rewarding.

SAFE DRIVING AWARDS

Taneytown Rural Letter Carriers Honored

The Post Office Department in keeping with the policies of the National Safety Council in conjunction with and advocating Safe Driving throughout the nation, has awarded safety certificates to drivers deserving them. The Postmaster at Taneytown was happy to present to two of his carriers emanating from his office with certificates of safe driving and a pin of merit denoting the years of safe driving.

Mr. B. W. Crapster, rural carrier on Route No. 1, covering a distance of 44.55 miles daily, was awarded a certificate and gold pin for 13 years of safe driving.

Mr. H. B. Royer, rural carrier on Route No. 2, covering a distance of 40.40 miles daily, was awarded a certificate and gold pin for 18 years of safe driving.

The combined mileage for these two carriers for the periods stated above amounts to 803,202 miles in their work as rural carriers without serious accident or bodily injury.

The Post Office Department's rural delivery service today serves more Americans than ever before in history. This observation was made by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield in calling the nation's attention to the 60th birthday of the service.

Experimental rural delivery service began October 1, 1896 with three routes at Charles Town, W. Va., and two routes at Halltown and Uvilla, near Charles Town.

These sites for the initial experimental routes were picked by Postmaster General William L. Wilson, a native of West Virginia.

Old records show that in its first week the three Charles Town routes provided for surprised farmers delivery of 214 letters, 290 papers, 33 postal cards and 2 packages. Previously, they would not have received this mail until they went into town to pick it up, often a matter of weeks or even months.

That was a far cry from today's mail load handled by rural delivery carriers. For example, in a recent 12-month period, nearly 8 billion pieces of mail were handled for rural patrons.

Today, there are 31,888 routes serving 34,930,000 mail patrons over more than 1-1/2 million miles of routes that extend into virtually all the counties of the United States, as well as into territories and possessions of the United States. And, during the fiscal year ended last June 30 alone there were 594,900 patrons added to rural delivery routes, while a total of 11, (Continued on Eighth Page)

POTOMAC SYNOD MET IN TANEYTOWN

Representatives of Reformed Church at Grace E. & R.

About 120 ministers, laymen and laywomen representing the Evangelical & Reformed Churches of Carroll, Frederick and Washington Counties met on Wednesday in Grace for the fall conference meeting of Potomac Synod. The theme of the all-day meeting was "Christ Calls To Faith and Action Now" which is the theme adopted by the General Synod for the next triennial as it met on the campus of Franklin & Marshall College this past summer.

The conference opened with the morning devotions by the minister of the host church at which time Rev. Morgan Andreas set the tone for the meeting in the key-note sermon on The Call to Advance, based on the text in Ex. 14:15 - "And the Lord said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward."

Dr. Frederick Eyster, president of the synod, spoke on the importance of the work of the Church and what the church is doing as he based his remarks on the words of Jesus - "No man having put his hands to the plough and looking back is fit for the kingdom of God." He intimated that because church people have kept their hands to the plough they have increased their facilities, erected more buildings, have added new members and have been more prosperous in recent years.

The Rev. Lonnie A. Carpenter, the minister of First Church, Burlington, N. C., brought on the message of the Commissions on Christian Education and Higher Education. He emphasized the necessity of the Church having an enlightened constituency and that the denomination offers the best materials for the finest Christian nurture.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

(Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health-life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way-help to bring you happiness!

Well, Ladies "SLENDERELLA" is the word!

Your Observer entered the lovely Salon, 307 North Charles Street and immediately was seated by a "Charm-er" one of those slim tall girls dressed in black. A colored maid came forward and asked if I would like a cup of black coffee (which I refused as I only drink one cup of coffee a day and that is for breakfast).

Then, the Hostess came forward and as she was expecting me led me in the care of a sweet young assistant who directed me to one of the private booths. One must remove a girdle and shoes for relaxation. A most comfortable "treatment" table is right there and there are a number of such rooms or booths.

The young girl explains what each position does for you after the current is turned on and the entire treatment takes exactly 45 minutes. After each five minute or so position, it turns off automatically and then the individual presses the bell for the assistant who comes in and tells you to lie in a different position. This is so as every part of your body is exercised. The rooms all have overhead lighting and there is music while you relax and the young girl said to me that she never had any one to relax as I did.

"Slenderella" is truly just about the most busy place in every County in the State. Betcha, there will be in the very near future just a place for the gentlemen and I do think a good name would be "Slenderella" Eh? Whatever you do go in for a trial treatment and you will desire to go back, I am sure. Just call them on the phone and make your time.

Hutzler's had their windows all with many objects of Foreign countries but the most interesting one was "The Hobby Show" in honor of the Anniversary of Gutman's Department store. That store really can save one dollars in so many articles throughout the departments.

As I walked around to each window the following is what I saw—Money from all over the world. A home painted on China by "Evelyn Gunther of Westminster. (Make inquiries about that direct as she will paint your home on a platter.) Then there was the hobby of "Shells from the Pacific", Pitcher collection, Hand made original toys, Art needle work, Wood carving, Hand made Wool braided rugs by a Mrs. Atwood of Lutherville (which were of the beautiful colorings as the pictures of "Wallace Nutting"), hand made houses, old salt cellars, dogs, china and the old type of soldiers. Everyone was taking it all in and no one passed it by.

As I write this Column that precious "Sugar" (Silk'n Satin) is lying at my feet. When I come over and browse around the town next week, I'll bring her along. (Then you and you will see what I mean!) Now, the famous old cough drop is again in the stores and the best ones are "Welch's" Horehound! Always good to have a box in the house. Ask your druggist about that one. Too bad that narrow little street called, "Tyson" which belongs to the artistic in Baltimore right down town which it to go with the rest! Now, Young Man if you are hesitating because of the ring as to a Diamond—remember that it not true about the song, "Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend!" for the Zircon sold in Hochschild's in Baltimore is beautiful and not near the price of a diamond yet there are many Zircons which are worth more than a diamond (depending upon that diamond). When you hear a salesman say, "Just think of the investment of a diamond! You can always get your money back." That is positively not true! A Pawn Dealer will give you less than one third of what you paid for the diamond and that even depends upon the diamond. The Zircon has the brilliant lustre, the cut, the sparkle and many times even an expert cannot tell a fine Zircon from a diamond. Visit that store, Young man with your young lady and be convinced. It is on the first floor at the end of the jewelry counter. A very fine and experienced lady will show you the stock and explain it all in detail.

Years ago in our Greatgrand-mother's Day, a plain gold band was the engagement ring with a wider band for the wedding day. It is not the diamond that counts or the kind of a stone but what is within your heart!

Be sure and give your dog fresh water daily and that several times and don't forget to give your broom a big drink, too as it will last longer. Have a grand week-end. Hope to be seeing you next week. D. V. I am,

Faithfully,

YOUR OBSERVER.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

RIVERTON, WYOMING, RANGER: "Increased reliance on the Federal government for services of every description has led to higher income taxes. These taxes have finally risen to a level where people are encouraged to cheat a little if the opportunity arises. The result, we fear, is a general weakening of the moral fiber of the great American people."

ROSEBURG, ORE., NEWS-REVIEW: "It is evident that the average worker considers himself a citizen first and a union member second. Also that more and more are beginning to view with suspicion the political labor stooge. . . ."

PECATONICA, ILL., NEWS: "Honestly, though, don't you sometimes wonder where this great country of yours and mine is headed for? Regimentation seems to be the answer whether we like it or not. The great American spirit which was for so long a shining example to the rest of the world, held in envy and awe, seems to be disappearing under an avalanche of corruption, vice and promises of security from the cradle to the grave."

BELLINGHAM, WASH., HERALD: "The 'farm problem' has been with us for years. It has been aggravated by conditions of war and peace. But experts who do not want to keep it before the people as a political football regard the program now in effect as the most hopeful long-range solution yet offered for turning the farm business back to private enterprise farmers."

What put the magic in the new kind of FORD?

The new Ford Fairlane 500 (118-inch wheelbase). Longer, lower, larger than many medium-priced cars, yet lower in price than most of them!

Here's what put the magic in the new kind of FORD!

It all started with the new "Inner Ford." When Ford engineers planned this baby, they didn't just think in terms of new springs, new brakes, new axles. They thought in terms of a car through-and-through new.

The wheels got smaller. Yes, this new Ford is so new in every detail that even the wheels have changed. Now smaller and broader for a better grip on the road, they help you take off quickly... give you a better ride.

The wheelbase got longer... so now you can choose between a Ford that's over 16 ft. long—or one that's over 17 ft. long!

The frame got wider. Side rails bow out to give a more stable riding platform... a lower, sleeker silhouette.

The ride got smoother. With new suspension, new springing front and rear, the ride this new Ford gives you is the closest you'll ever come to coasting on velvet-covered clouds. And that holds true on back roads, too!

The handling got easier. Poised and balanced like a panther, this car has new swept-back front suspension that works its magic when you need it most.

The power got hotter. This new kind of Ford is packed with Thunderbird GO! It offers a wide range of Silver Anniversary V-8's to fit every horsepower need*... plus a new version of the famous Mileage Maker Six.

"Six or V-8 the going is great"

The roof got lower. And it's designed to let you make the easy entries and graceful exits you've always known.

The body got quieter. It's the strongest body ever built for a low-priced car. And no car in Ford's field has such generous sound-proofing.

The room got bigger. There's head room to spare for a tycoon-type hat. There's real stretch-out leg room, too.

The lines got sweeter. Ford gives you the longest, lowest, low-priced car ever. Each graceful contour of its sculptured-in-steel body says, "Let's go!"

The style got smarter. With this new-look Ford you have a car that belongs anywhere! Example: all Fairlane models, including sedans, have the look of a hardtop.

The value got greater... and the price is still Ford-low. The result—even more promise of buying a car that will keep its value high... a car that will stay worth more.

*A special 270-hp Thunderbird 318 Super V-8 engine available at extra cost. Also, an extra-high-performance Thunderbird 318 Super V-8 engine delivering up to 285 hp.

SEE IT FOR YOURSELF!

So now you know the magic of the '57 FORD!

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The board was advised of the approval on the part of the State Dept. of Education of plans for the proposed junior-high-elementary school, as well as approval for the site of the consolidated high school in the northwestern area of the county.

The board was also advised of the completion and use, for the first time, of the North Carroll School building, situated on the Manchester-Hampstead Road, and housing grades 9, 10, 11, and 12 from this area.

A brief report was heard from the attorney regarding the dismissing of the suit which had been pending in the Circuit Court regarding integration of Negroes into white schools.

Unanimous approval was given by the board to the report recently submitted by the State Board of Education to the General Assembly through the Legislative Council, establishing or requesting that legislation be enacted increasing the state minimum salary for teachers to $3600 as a beginning salary and $5400 as the maximum salary, the increase to be borne by the state and distributed through some plan of basic aid. The superintendent reported having attended and participated in a recent hearing before the legislative council on the problem of teachers' salaries for the State of Maryland. The board noted that considerable improvement in its bargaining position for the service of teachers would become possible through enactment of this legislation and the superintendent was directed to exert all possible effort to promote general public acceptance of the proposal and its passage in the Legislature.

Important on the agenda for the meeting was the opening of bids for the construction of new school facilities at Westminster, to be known as the Westminster Junior High & Elementary School, and to be located on land east of Pennsylvania Avenue, between Wade Avenue and Carroll Street Extended. A proposed building and plans had been prepared by B. E. Starr of Harrisburg, Pa. It is to consist of 36 regular classrooms; 2 rooms for home economics instruction, 2 specially equipped rooms for science instruction, two rooms of Industrial Arts, one room for music instruction, a cafeteria and kitchen, a large combined gymnasium-auditorium with shower and other auxiliary rooms. The plans also include the necessary offices, health rooms, library and auxiliary facilities. Bids were opened on the project and were as follows:

General Contract: E. E. Stuller, Taneytown, Md., $747,000; Henry A. Knott, Inc., Baltimore, $864,900; W. H. Ward Contractors, Inc., Baltimore, $826,982. Plumbing & Heating Contract: Heer Brothers, Baltimore, $218,000; Manchester Hdwe. Co., Manchester, $229,500; Westminster Hdwe. Co., Westminster, $184,000; J. H. Alender Sons Co., Hampstead, $214,500. Electrical Contract: Almond Electric Co., Harrisburg, Pa., $112,000; Mid-Town Elec. Co., Taneytown, 103,800; Angell's Electric Co., Taneytown, $89,000; J. E. Shaeffer, Reisterstown, $89,000.

The County Commissioners attended the board meeting and, following the opening of the bids, the board took action to approve the acceptance of the low bid for each part of the construction with instructions to the superintendent to affect any possible savings through elimination of non-essentials or substitution of materials. It is expected that contracts will be concluded with the low bidders in each case promptly and that work on the project will begin without delay.

The superintendent was directed to proceed with the securing of the necessary furniture and equipment for the Mount Airy School which is expected to be completed early in 1937.

The superintendent was also directed to work out a plan for the distribution of available funds for the assistance of schools in the operation of physical education and library programs and to distribute said funds to the schools.

The board took action to begin the planning of a consolidated high school to accommodate the northwestern section of the county and to permit the consolidation of the senior high grades from New Windsor, Union Bridge, and, perhaps, some of the Taneytown area. It was directed that preliminary planning be undertaken without delay on this project.

The superintendent was directed to continue with the preparation of the School Budget for 1937-38 and to participate in any negotiations related to the Budget for the school year 1937-38.

The board approved specific policies related to the encouragement of professional growth and improvement of instructional and administrative practices for supervisors and teachers.

Adjournment was at 12:15 P. M.

UTOPIA—

Utopia is a place which you and I
Shall some day view with the physical eye;
But, with a better perspective we regain
Things, as we see them, shall remain.

Utopia and Heaven are not far apart;
But, to enter either, one must be smart;
The language they speak, he must know,
Else, with those people, he could not go.

Before we enter a country, its tongue we should speak,
If we would find the pleasure we seek;
But, in those two places, it is especially so;
We must learn their language before we go.

Like Canada and America, Utopia lies north,
So, those in Heaven go to and come forth,
Just as we travel here to-day;
But, they are careful, of what they say.

When men learn to know God, and from Satan flee,
The puzzles of time shall cease to be;
Like a morning fog, they shall roll away
At the dawning of the endless day.

The Bible says "At night it shall be bright"
For the earth shall furnish its own light,
So it shall be when Time ceases to be
And we all shall enter eternity.

The atom is a jewel of priceless worth;
But, there must be a change of mind on earth,
Before the uplift by atomic energy
Shall benefit all humanity.

For greed and selfishness will find a way,
To keep from the people of our day
The blessings God intends the atom to bring;
And, of which all peoples someday shall sing.

For a day is coming when exploit shall cease to be,
When, even ambition from men shall flee;
It is then the peoples shall know of its worth
For God will make this a heaven on earth.

In that day broadcasting stations everywhere
Shall send heat, light, and power through the air;
Even our climate shall change, it is said,
And disturbing forces we shall no longer dread.

Labor, as we have it, shall disappear;
In a week we shall raise enough for a year;
A loving exchange of commodities will take place
To the joy of every nation and race.

Money shall automatically disappear;
So, taxes shall drop from year to year,
This earth shall be what God wants it to be
When the time arrives for her Great Jubilee.

So it shall be when the atom is complete
There shall be nothing with which to compete;
Plenty shall cover the face of the land,
And everything shall grow and expand.

To-day, Utopia is only a picture in mind;
But, God intends (as you shall find)
That such a place on this earth shall be,
And He shall make it a reality.

Home School

Lesson for October 21, 1956

NOT many people are born in a school-house. But most people in America move to some school-house before they are two weeks old. Because then they come home from the hospital; and home is the greatest school in the world. Experts tell us that a child learns more before he is six than he ever learns afterward; but at the age of six he is only just starting to school, as the saying is. It's only a saying, because he has been learning every minute since he first blinked at the light, and most of this he learned right at home. Learning is not just what is printed in books. The child learns to understand and to speak his mother-tongue; he learns to walk and run and eat and play. He learns a little about how to get along with other people. Among the most important things he learns are what never gets into a book—prejudices, habits, attitudes, both good and bad.

Dr. Foreman

Learning Religion at Home

If it is true that our relation to God is more important than any other relation of life, then it is true also that the religion learned in the home is more important than anything else learned there. Suppose a child's home-school teaches everything except religion, how much hope is there that religion will become real to him? There are 168 hours in every week. Take out 56 for sleeping (it would really be more for a child) and you have left 112 waking hours. Let us suppose that little Johnnie Doe, Jr., is sent off to Sunday school by Mr. and Mrs. Doe, who take him and fetch him afterwards, but never, no never go to Sunday school or church themselves. That makes one hour of religion per week, 111 hours of no-religion. How much of anything is a child going to learn if he has less than one per cent of his time to put on it? If all the religious homes of America stopped teaching religion, the churches and synagogues would soon fold up.

But Can Religion Be Taught?

At this point someone may catch us up. Can religion be taught? Isn't it "caught, not taught"? Quite so. The genuine spark is kindled, only on the invisible altar of God. But in your car engine, the spark does not come to life in an empty chamber. There has to be there the right mixture of gasoline vapor and air. Without that, the sparks shine for a brief instant and go out—and nothing happens. When a gardener plants vegetables, he knows that if the seed is not fertile his work is useless. Everything depends on a germ he did not and cannot create. But that does not give him leave to quit his job. The gardener's job is to prepare the seed-bed in which the living seed will sprout and not die. So the home prepares the seed-bed in which the living seed of God's grace can bring forth a harvest. Speaking without parables, the home can teach a great many things about religion which can't be learned by inspiration or absorption. The Bible is high among these; in the home begins the work of filling the storehouse of the mind with treasures from the Word of God.

"When Your Son Asks You . . ."

The great sixth chapter of Deuteronomy is perhaps one of the most often quoted chapters of the Bible. In it, father and mothers are commanded to be teachers. God knows that rabbis and priests and preachers are never enough. But we find in this chapter also (among many others) this further thought: Children will not always understand all they are taught. They will ask "Why?" So, when (in the words of Deuteronomy) your son asks, "What is the meaning of the testimonies and the statutes and the ordinances . . . ?" The father and mother are not to dodge such questions. There is nothing meaningless about true religion; on the contrary, religion discovers life's central meaning. True religion is not a set of "scruples" as an unsympathetic sociologist has put it, —not a collection of senseless "Don'ts." A great phrase in Deuteronomy put a great deal in a few words: true religion, all the commandments of God, everything we ought to believe and be and do, is "for our good always." But father and mother must learn that first before they can teach it.

COMPETITION

COMPETING WITH OTHERS

High School physical education, to my opinion, is one of the most valuable subjects taught. We had a teacher while I was in school, that we respectfully called "Cap Weigle". Whatever the game may be, you were expected to learn all possible, play fair, but play awful hard to win; we were taught not to gloat when we won or cry when we lost, true champions are very few, so there is always someone better and usually someone worse. The thing that would make him mad (and I have seen him that way) was someone not trying or something he felt was unfair.

Now that my game playing is over (except checkers) and I am in the insurance business, competition still does not worry me a bit. I am going to learn insurance to the best of my ability, be fair, and try awful hard to win your account. I know I cannot win all of your accounts, but I have won several and I like the game.

If you like to compete, get your insurance policies or your checker board out, then send for me. You will find I am hard to beat at checkers or insurance.

DEMOCRATS . . .

"It is true what they say about Georgie"

GOVERNOR WM. PRESTON LANE, JR. (DEM.)

(In Full Page Ad in "SUN", Sept. 10, 1950)

"Mahoney sent one of his gumshoe investigators down to the Eastern Shore Hospital and had him take some phony pictures. One showed a man drinking out of a tin cup. But what he didn't show you was that the picture was cut so as not to show the dispenser of paper cups less than a foot away! "Another picture showed what they said were flies all over a ham. There were no flies there; the picture had been retouched. And, what do you think the little black specks were? CLOVES!"

REPRESENTATIVE LANSDALE G. SASSCER (DEM.)

(Baltimore Sun, May 3, 1952)

"I think it is time that Mr. Mahoney's tactics be exposed for what they are—a complete fraud and a hoax. In the first place, he has hired professional performers to dramatize events which never happened, just to delude television audiences. These actors tell a story about housing in St. Mary's County, using photographs taken at Great Mills, and telling the public they were taken at Lexington Park."

(Baltimore Sun, May 5, 1952)

Sasscer said that the pattern of Mahoney's campaign had been "vilification, innuendoes and statements uttered without any regard for truth, accuracy or fairness . . ."

E. BROOKE LEE (DEMOCRAT)

(Baltimore SUN, June 22, 1954)

Lee said, "The advertising boys always built up Mahoney as a fighting man. Some 500,000 Maryland men managed to get into World Wars I and II. Mahoney was old enough for the first and young enough for the second and also rich enough to serve without hardship in the second. Yet Fighting George did not connect with either World War. He just took no notice of either. Now the publicity boys have a veterans committee working for this phony Mahoney."

DR. "CURLEY" BYRD (DEM.)

(Baltimore SUN, June 17, 1954)

Dr. Byrd called George P. Mahoney a "political character assassin" who "twists up and misrepresents" facts.

(Baltimore SUN, June 23, 1956)

Dr. Byrd accused Mahoney of using "misrepresentation" and "political trickery" with the race question. He said that Mahoney is "preaching the doctrine" to Negroes in Baltimore that he (Dr. Byrd) is prejudiced against the Negro race. He added that Mahoney supporters mailed out literature to five rural counties, purporting to show that he (Dr. Byrd) is "working too strongly for Negroes."

(Baltimore Sun, June 25, 1954)

Dr. Byrd added that it is impossible in a fight with Mr. Mahoney to "discuss the real problems of Maryland's state government because he and his advisors seem convinced that his best chance—perhaps his only one—is to indulge in mud-slinging and smears and downright misrepresentation."

MAYOR THOMAS D'ALESSANDRO (Democrat)

(Baltimore SUN, May 1, 1952)

Mayor D'Alessandro told members of the Young Men's Bohemian Democratic Club that George P. Mahoney is a "party wrecker". He said that Mahoney "is trying to wreck the Democratic Party." He accused Mahoney of trying to smear Representative Sasscer. He said that Mahoney had padded the Office of Price Administration "with four of his relatives", and was using it for political purposes.

BALTIMORE "SUN" (Editorial, April 29, 1956)

" . . . But in all of these years of persistent politicking he (Mr. Mahoney) has failed to offer a single valid reason why he should represent this State in the United States Senate, or any indication that he has the capacity to cope with the fateful issues which that body must deal with. Such comments as he has made from time to time on public questions have carried no conviction, nor even given the impression that he knows what he is talking about."

BALTIMORE "SUN" EDITORIAL (August 23, 1956)

"Mr. Mahoney, so far as the public record is concerned, is devoid of political principles and in no way equal to the demands of the position of Senator."

BUT—Maryland points with pride to Sen. Butler's Record

"John Marshall Butler has been consistently attentive to his duties as a Senator of the United States, and constantly aware of his obligations to the State of Maryland and its citizens. While well-versed in the broad fields of national and international affairs, he never has lost sight of the opportunities to advance the proper interests of Maryland. As a member of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, he is in an advantageous position to give the best possible representation to this maritime State. He has used this advantage wisely and effectively."

In the interests of our great harbor facilities, the future of Friendship International Airport, our overland commerce by rail and highway, the general economy of this rapidly growing State and the prosperity of all its citizens, the people of Maryland will serve themselves best by re-electing Senator John Marshall Butler.

798 extensions of rural routes were made to provide more and better service.

Rural delivery was first officially suggested by Postmaster General John Wamamaker in 1891.

The first bill authorizing rural delivery service was introduced in the House of Representatives on January 5, 1892, by James O'Donnell of Michigan, but it failed to pass.

A bill by Congressman Thomas E. Watson of Georgia became law March 3, 1893, appropriating $10,000 for experimental rural delivery. This, together with $20,000 appropriated for the same purpose on July 16, 1894, was not immediately used, the Postmaster General deeming the amount insufficient.

On June 9, 1896, another $10,000 together with the prior $30,000, was made available and the first experimental rural delivery service was established the following October 1.

Many events in postal history have been marked by big ceremonies, such as when the Pony Express began between Saint Joseph, Missouri and Sacramento, California, on April 8, 1860. But the West Virginia experiment was launched with little fanfare, and under a cloud of criticism. Critics said it would be impractical and expensive.

TANEYTOWN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL P.T.A. MEETS

On Tuesday evening, October 16th, the Taneytown Elementary School P.T.A. met in the school auditorium at 8 o'clock. Previous to this time, from 7:30 until 7:55, the teachers were in their respective rooms, available to the parents for discussion of student problems.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. Frank Dunham, and opened by singing one verse of "America", followed by the flag salute, and the invocation by Rev. A. W. Garvin. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary of the association, Mr. Glenn Bollinger. Mrs. Clyde Wilkie, treasurer, gave her report, with each being approved as read. The Chairman of the membership committee reported 282 members to date. Mr. Dunham announced the meeting of the Congress of Parents and Teachers, to be held November 1 and 2 with Mrs. Theodore Jester representing the local P.T.A.

The program consisted of a piano solo by Jeanne Myers and several selections by the fourth grade song flute group under direction of Mrs. Crawford. Mr. Frank Wargny introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Dale Blough, Assistant Director of the Church World Service Center, with headquarters at New Windsor, Md. Mr. Blough, who had formerly worked in Greece with the Village Reclamation Service, told of a few of his experiences there and he also described the different projects carried on at New Windsor. Some of these are the Material Aid Program, which sends food and clothing to destitute areas in foreign countries; International Gift Shop, which features articles made by refugees; Heifer Project, Inc., which distributes livestock both overseas and in the States; the Student Exchange Program; and the Refugee Resettlement Program, taking care of students and refugees from foreign countries. He explained that the personnel to operate these different projects is supplied by Brethren Volunteer Service. These volunteers train at New Windsor for two months and then go to different parts of the world for service. Mr. Blough closed his brief talk with a hearty invitation extended to all to visit the Church World Service Center.

The meeting adjourned at 9 p. m. with refreshments of cider and ginger cookies served by the refreshment committee. The attendance was very gratifying with hopes of the P.T.A. of a continuance of same.

CIVIL DEFENSE

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Holgate will leave by plane Sunday for Boston, Mass., after a visit with Mrs. Holgate's mother, Mrs. Cora Went Duttera. While in Boston the Holgates' will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Loeb.

Mr. Loeb who is president and editor of the Union Manchester Leader, of New Hampshire also serves as one of the leading members of the Reno Advisory Board of Civil Defense. Mr. Loeb has recently made his official residence in the city of Reno, Nevada.

The Holgates plan to emplane from Boston to Detroit, where Mr. Holgate who is Civil Defense Director of the Reno area, and recipient of the first "Distinguished Achievement Award" in the State of Nevada for "Operation Skywatch", will have a three day briefing on "Civil Defense" matters under the direction of Maj. General Holmes E. Dager, former Military Advisor to the Reno Sector.

Gen. Dager is now serving the Federal Civil Defense Administration, as director of National Disaster Services of the U. S. and just recently returned from Puerto Rico, where he inspected the Island Section by reason of havoc and devastation created by the last hurricane, necessitating Federal aid by National Civil Defense.

Gen. Dager was formerly Commanding General of the 11th Armored Division under Gen. Geo. Patten, and served as Military Governor of Vienna.

Mr. Holgate has been on official leave attending the Ground Observation School at Tyndall Airplane Base, Florida, and then to Atlanta, Ga., where as a member of the United States Civil Defense Council he attended briefings on a National Scale consisting of: radio active fall-out; Survival; Shelter and evacuation problems. Target area operations, Health and special weapons, while in Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Holgate was privileged to be a member participant with the distinguished Civil Defense Director of Baltimore, Maryland, Col. Frank Milani. Mr. Holgate comments were to the effect that the Baltimore section and environs were indeed fortunate to have a director of Civil Defense with a back ground and knowledge such as Col. Milani who received Presidential recognition for service relating to Civil Defense.

EXPLORER SCOUTS TO SPONSOR DANCE IN TANEYTOWN FRIDAY

One of the outstanding social events of the Halloween season will take place on Friday evening, Oct. 19, with Explorer Scouts of Troop 348, directed by Adviser Robert L. Bowers, will sponsor a dance in Taneytown high school. Eddie Dunlap and his orchestra from York will furnish music, following in the popular tradition of the famed Keysmen, their ensemble including saxophone, brasses, piano, and drums. Tickets are available from ticket agent Carroll Hively, Jr., or from any Explorer member, or they may be purchased at the door.

Final preparations for dance arrangements comprised the Explorer business meeting last Monday in the Scout hall, and the aid of every member has been enlisted by Mr. Bowers to handle refreshments, cake walks, posters, decorations, and ticket sales, proceeds of which are designed to augment building funds towards a future scout meeting place. George Abrecht skillfully combined his Morse code theme into a game and contest which ended in an overtime period, and after much seasawing of the score, Philip Garrett's team finally winning over that chosen by Jack Bowers. The presence of the old explorer William Abrecht, after long absence, was insufficient to ensure Jack's group the victory, but it is to be hoped that Bill can now play a fuller part in the activities of this group of young men, many of whom have been in Scouting for more than five years.

Boy scouts of the troop have been concentrating on knots, whipping, and lashing in recent weeks, last Thursday's theme being the square lashing and the principle of the triangularly braced truss. There was also an inter-patrol contest in the clove hitch relay which resulted in a Raccoon triumph for Patrol leader John Myers' unit. Mounted football went off pretty well in the evening's game period. An intriguing request for corncobs and turkey feathers by the theme leader for this week's meeting is to be fulfilled by Ronald Corbin, Luther Foglesong, and Robert Shaffer.

Shaffer received his registration card last week, Assistant patrol leader Edward Reaver a year's 100% attendance pin, and First Aid merit badge has been earned by Scribe Ronald Hopkins, with David Hopkins being awarded one for Scholarship. Roger Blanchard did a solo 10-mile hike for the badge in Hiking recently, and in fact a number of awards in this subject will be due for recognition after the boys' reports are turned in.

Boy scouts are looking forward also to a hayride the night of Friday, October 26, and on Saturday, November 3, the next drive for paper, rags, and iron will take place. With these seasonal "musts" out of the way, plans for periodic Green-Bar leaders councils will be set in motion, the inter-patrol contest begun, an overnighter worked into the calendar, a swimming event scheduled, and the winter progress towards advancement in scout rank brought more purposefully into the Thursday night programs.

The aid of parents in providing candy, cakes, and cookies for the Record hop and the Halloween dance is greatly appreciated. Members of the Troop committee and their wives have also been invited to chaperone the Explorer dance Friday, the hours of which are 8:30 to 11:30, with dress informal. The privilege of presenting so distinguished an outfit as Eddie Dunlap's Orchestra is a matter of great pride with the Explorer scouts, and an enchanting evening, no matter what the weather, will be in store for all in this gala, witches' holiday season.
