The eighth annual Maryland Asso-The eighth annual Maryland Association of Student Councils Convention was held at the Frederick High School, November 1, 2 and 3. Taneytown High School was represented by Connie Arvin and Marion Michea, president and vice-president respectively. The girls attended three general assemblies and several discussion groups on subjects relating to student groups on subjects relating to student council problems. Social features of the convention were a buffet supper, banquet, football game, and dance. All delegates stayed in private homes in Frederick, and the host school was responsible for whatever transporta-tion was necessary. Mrs. Louis R. Michea and Mrs. Wilbur Arvin supplied the transportation to and from the convention.

County Senior Day in Westminster Senior Day, an annual event sponsored by the Board of Education, was held Thursday morning, Nov. 8, at Westminster High School. Forty-seven seniors accompanied by Miss Betty Sturdivant, music teacher, and Mrs. Virginia Sanders, one of the class adisors, attended.

The purpose of the program was to assemble all Carroll County seniors, charge them with their responsibilities, help them evalute their progress to date and challenge them to do their best during the months that remain.

A social hour in the cafeteria preceded an assembly in the auditorium.
Dr. Gerald M. Van Pool, director of student activities of the National Association of Student Councils, was the principal speaker. Remarks were also made by the superintendent of schools, Samuel M. Jenness. A girls harmonic group composed of Mable Perry, Ann Marie Reaver, Edith Baumgardner, Connie Arvin, and Sylvia Keeney sang "Loch Lamond" as a part of the program.

At the close of the meal all'joined in singing, "Happy Birthday" to Mrs. John Fream who was celebrating her 80th birthday, and is enjoying good health, also the birthday of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Koontz.

The program opened with group singing, "Long, Long Ago" accompanied by John S. Harner. Several vocal solos were sung by George Myers accompanied by Miss Barbara Brown. Both are studying music at Brown. Both are studying music at Gettysburg College. Mr. Myers is a very talented baritone and the numbers he sang were very well rendered and greatly enjoyed by the group.

Mrs. Charles Miller, of Harney, played several piano solos including "Blue Danube Waltz", "Czardas", which is the National Hungarian Dance", and "The Glow Worm" which she dedicated to Mrs. Fream in honor of her birthday.

The speaker for the evening was one known by all, Dr. Nevin Smith of Immanuel Reformed Church, Hanover. After several humorous remarks he turned to the world conditions today. Why are conditions as they are today? Why are conditions as they are today? There's too much spare time—not enough home training and home life with growing children who are the back-bone of tomorrow. After that most inspiring message it indeed gave us much to think about in the future. Remarks were brought by Day Remarks were brought by Rev. Charles E. Held, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Harney and Mrs.

Earlington Shriver, President of Harnev Ladjes' Aid Society.

The program was closed by group singing. "Blest Be the Tie."

RETARDED CHILDREN

Drive for Funds will be made for Unfortunate Children

Prayers this Sunday for mentally retarded children will be made in many churches across the nation observing the beginning of National Retarded Children's Week on November 11. The Carroll County Association for Retarded Children has addressed literature to all the religious leaders in Carroll County pointing out that an estimated three out of every hundred children born are destined to carry children born are destined to carry this tragic burden throughout their lives, but their lot in life can be greatly eased by the understanding and help of their fellow citizens. As individuals, these 'eternal children' are deserving in their own right of community facilities comparable to those available to the normal children. Therefore, the Carroll County Association for Retarded Children seeks to provide among other things recreational facilities, pre-school training, tional facilities, pre-school training, a sheltered workshop, and perhaps religious classes in addition to the religious classes in addition to the special classes being operated by the Board of Education.

On a national scale, the National Association for Retarded Children with headquarters in New York, renders a program of services to the more than 400 units of the Association throughout the countrand conducts a research program for which funds are urgently needed. #### ATTENDS ANNUAL SHOWING OF FRIGIDAIRE PRODUCTS

A group of representatives of the merchandise department of the Potomac Edison Company were among an audience of over 1,000 persons who attended the annual showing of Frigidaire products for 1957. The show was held on November 2 in Washington's Sheraton Park Hotel.

Among the local persons attending the Frigidaire meeting were S. E. Breth, S. E. Remsburg. Although the new appliances will not be shown publicly in this area until late November the advance showing did reveal that Frigidaire engineers and General Motors stylists have designed new products to give any kitchen arrangement a built-in look without requiring expensive alterations.

According to local district man ager S. E. Breth, the new line of Frigidaire appliances embody the clean, squared-up lines popular in today's modern architecture and functional interior design. 4,941 tional interior design.

Thanksgiving is in the air and it Thanksgiving is in the air and it will soon be upon us. The snow fences have been erected on the fields and there are only a few leaves left on the trees. The house next door—a charming old fashioned country home is visible again and it is nice to see the evening lights shining from all the windows.

Thinking of the big day of Thanksgiving, I have noticed the grand big turkey platter selling for $12.50 and up in the most colorful pattern plus of course the big bird in the centre. There are blue, red and yellow designs. They always sell mostly around Thanksgiving which means they come in handy for the big Christmas turkey dinner.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION"

DALLAS, PA., POST: "In the horse-and-buggy days, flying trashespecially wind-borne newspaperswas a frequent cause of runaways. Quaint as it sounds, you'd think such accidents were a thing of the past, but they're not! Today trash on the highways kills and maims more people than ever before. The Western Insurance Information Service reports from 750 to 1,000 deaths and nearly 100,000 serious injuries are caused every year by cars striking objects thrown on the road by litterbugs"

OPPORTUNITY, WASH., SPO-KANE-VALLEY HERALD: "The Spokane Valley is an example of an area in which small business concerns predominate. Most of them are doing what the founders intended, offering bread and butter while providing a measure of independence . . . . Where the small business man has attempted to give service, keep good account of his operation and stays cheerful while putting in long hours, he has survived."

BENAVIDES, TEXAS, FACTS: "Unless the nation is to be rocked periodically between paralyzing, nation-wide strikes and wage price inflation, the ability of giant unions to wield an arbitrary monopoly power over entire industries must be curbed, by changes in the anti-trust statutes or by other means to restore bargaining to the local level."

WASHINGTON, IOWA, EVENING JOURNAL: "Prediction: The new tax on tires and gasoline to build fourlane highways will be increased as the program advances, and the cause won't be a matter of cost. It's just the way taxes work."

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, MINN, DAILY JOURNAL: "Nationalization, a form of socialism under which the government controls basic resources and industries, is a two-way street-The return of a nationalized function to private operation is both possible and feasible-however, it is much easier to scramble than to unscramble. England's conservative government has been finding this out. Since coming into power in 1951, the conservatives have tried to denationalize only two, the trucking and steel industries. Neither effort has been entirely suc-

NOGALES, ARIZ., DAILY HER-ALD: " . . . To a very substantial degree, the wage gains won by steel labor are sure to be largely offset within a fairly short span of time by higher price tags on the things the worker buys."

LAKE WORTH, FLA., HERALD: ". . . One would hardly be out of line to say that 90 per cent of all traffic accidents are the result of carelessness-oftimes criminal carelessness-on the part of one or both drivers involved.

SULLIVAN, IND., UNION: "While the farm situation will continue as a political question, it is not expected to be an over-riding issue because of the slow but steady rise in farm prices, and the belief the index will be even better in late October. United States Department of Agriculture officials pointed to hog prices, the precipitous slip in which was a major cause of farm unrest a few months ago, as now being upwards of 60 per cent above December 1955 low point."

WASHINGTON, MO., CITIZEN: "They have to register in the larger cities before they can vote, but in the smaller towns not even registration is necessary. All we have to do in towns like Washington and Union is take a few minutes and cast our vote. Let's show 'em this November!"

Jou know all that talk you've been I hearing about the 1957 new car models being really new?

Well, in the case of the 1957 Buicks it's true - gospel true.

We mean these 1957 Buicks are new in the precise and literal sense. We mean new from the ground up, and from gleaming grille to sassy taillights.

We mean new lowness, new styling, new bodies, new windshields, new controls, new safety-padded instrument panels, new safety steering wheels, new seating, new fabrics, new colors.

We mean new front end, new rear end, new frame, new braking, new steering, new handling, new riding, new roadability-a whole new chassis of greater solidity and safety.

We mean V8 engines new from the crankshaft up - engines that deliver an all-time high in horsepower and

SCHOOL PUPILS THAT GO HUNTING

The Board of Education of Carroll County, through the office of the Co. Superintendent of Schools, has issued a directive to high and elementary school principals related to the absence of pupils from school on the opening day of hunting season, Nov. 15. The statement directs principals

(a) Advise all pupils that absence from school for the purpose of going hunting is not a legal excuse for ab-

(b) Advise all pupils that if they are absent on this day they will be required to bring carefully prepared letter from parent advising the school that pupil will be absent from school with approval of parent.

(c) Advise all pupils who absent

(c) Advise all pupils who absent themselves from school on this or other dates for the purpose of hunting, that special work will be required of them by each of their classroom teachers and that such work must be done at once to the satisfaction of each teacher in order to receive credit in said subject for the school term.

(d) Advise all pupils that absentees on this or other dates for the purpose of hunting, who do not conform as indicated in items (h)

dicated in items (b) and (c), will be subject to temporary suspension and parents will be required to visit principal for consultation before re-instatement of pupils. (e) Advise all parents that absence from school on the part of pupils for hunting is not approved be county and local school authorities and that disapproval is based on:

(1) Safety of pupils and others.

(2) Interruption to regular school program. Absence from school for hunting has become a serious problem and school authorities find it necessary to take positive steps to exercise control. All wise and reasonable parents of school pupils will, it is hoped, understand the problem and cooperate fully with the local school administration.

Anxious, I have been a widow for two years. My two small children are four and three. Just the main is nicely fixed, I do not know what to do a state if this man likes your children for that means much. Love can grow especially when a person is good to you will know the right answer. Well and they insist that I go to college. This I don't want to do as I was the production of the production of the production of the Boy.

Well, Just a Boy—you must be a sweet one to write me as you have. I, too had three little boys who went to College and the eldest boy went so far away to the College and this is what happened, I opened the door one evening to the ring and there stood a tall boy whom I did not recognize as he had on a soldier suit. I looked at him and he; my precious Eldest Step son (we never use that awful word) said, "Mother, don't you know me?" We stood minutes in each other's arms crying! He was so homesick that he borrowed a soldier's uniform and crying! He was so homesick that he borrowed a soldier's uniform and hitch-hiked all the way back to me. That was during Christmas holidays. After our long talk for days, he returned after the holidays and continued on with school. He graduated with distinction from the State Phoenix College and is now a teacher in Casa Grande. ### This Is It

Lesson for November 11, 1956

THREE questions are asked over and over again by people who take life seriously but are still groping for the answers. First, What is Good? Is it altogether a matter of taste? Is there anything that is never good and anything that is always good, no matter what? Second, What does God want of us? What does it take to please him? Is there any simple ordinary way of knowing what God wants?

Third, Why Dr. Foreman doesn't God speak to us as he used to do to the prophets of old? Why doesn't God, who knows all the answers, share his knowledge with

Country Preacher

Long ago a country preacher had these questions thrown up at him. His name was Micah. He was not a preacher in the regular sense, for he had no church, and in fact he had no connection with the regular official religion of his country. But he did speak and preach,-so far as we know, only to his fellowvillagers; but what he said was remembered. We have extracts from his sermons in what we call the Book of Micah, among the minor (that is, shorter) prophets of the Old Testament. Maybe he never preached a full-length formal sermon. Maybe he just stood or sat around in the market-place, and talked to any who would listen. At any rate it is plain that he was asked much the same questions as those three just now mentioned. The country of Judah, in which Micah's small town of Moreshah was located, was either in a very prosperous condition or was running down,-depending on where you lived. In the capital city of Jerusalem everything seemed to be booming. But in the farmlands and in the little villages it was a different story Even in the cities there were some who suspected the boom would not last. There was a kind-of revival of interest in religion going on, but it was confused. People had an idea they ought to be better, but what was "good"? They felt sure they ought to obey God more carefully; but what did God want, really? Why didn't God come right out and tell people what they would have to do to "get right" with him?

This Is It

If the answers to such questions as these were written on gold plates in a strange language and kept on top of a seven-mile mountain guarded by seven wise archangels, the roads to that mountain would be jammed, and people would pay the archangels big money to translate the mystic words of wisdom. But a country preacher talking in the simple words anybody ten years old can understand—? Yes; the people of that village already had the answers only they didn't realize it.

Why doesn't God speak? He has already spoken. Why don't we have prophets? We do have prophets, right there in your Bible. Yes, but they are hard to understand! Well, Micah says, it's not so hard to understand. What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God? Oh, somebody in the crowd might say,old stuff! Yes, exactly. Amos the prophet spoke of Justice, and Hosea spoke of Love and Kindness, and Isaiah spoke of humility before God Most High. This is it. you don't need to write away to find out, this is it right here. What is Good, what God wants of us. God has already spoken. He does not change his mind.

Simple and Final Looked at in one way, these three great requirements of God are not simple. Justice-how easy to say, how hard to make sure what is really the just and fair thing in every action! Kindnessyes, but who knows what is the kind thing to do every time? Isn't what is just in one case perhaps unjust in another? Yes, to be sure: No commandment of God is going to save us from having to think. This is not so simple as to be automatic. Nevertheless this is simple in the main. We can see the lines along which the good life must be built. We always know: if it is not just, if it is not kind, then it is out of line with God's will. And all this is final, too; again not in the sense of saving us any further thought. But final in the sense that this is God's word. We can't now or ever get beyond or above,-we can't graduate from,-justice and kindness and humble everence before

"FEAR NOT!"

Because of ignorance, man is a victim of fear; He does not know His God is so near; But, the real you, who inhabits a body of clay Is fearless, never tries to run away.

He knows that fear is just an emotion;" It has no power, (it is only a notion) But it causes all of our ills to-day, Both physical and mental, experts say.

Fear has power to make the face white or red; It all depends on what his has been said; And, on the animals, it acts the same way, They too, all try to get away.

When I was a boy, in my earlier days, Certain horses were classed as "run-a-ways"; When a country band began to play They always tried to run away.

The noise of the instruments caused them to fear: Something seemed to tell them danger was near; But the horse is a lover of music, it is said; And, when he finds it is harmless, draws near instead.

In the same manner fear acts on man It is just the opposite of God's great plan; Jesus said: "Fear not!"—only believe, And the blessing you ask for you shall receive.

Fear is an archer you must fight from the start; His arrows are sure—never miss the heart; And, unless you are crafty, and let them pass by Earth's sojourn will end, for you shall die.

Standing on the corner in Taneytown one day I saw a horse, a beautiful dapple-grey; A engine passing shook the ground under his feet, And the lovely creature fell dead on the street.

And fear is, daily, doing, doing the same thing to those Who are fearful; (we see it wherever one goes). But, remember, God gave you dominion here, So, you have the power, to conquer fear!

Imagination is the father of Fear, we are told; And through a weakling, Fear is bold; But, put on your armour, and enter the fray, And you shall be the winner, the scriptures say.

Those whom Jesus healed when He was here Were made whole because they had conquered fear; Remember, God made everything down here, And He is your Father, so do not fear.

When fear is conquered, faith comes you way; Nothing, not even mountains, stand in its way; Faith is an attribute which God admires, In fact, it is a virtue which He requires.

So, put your faith in Him, and the boggies you see Like little lambs shall turn out to be; For the thing from which we all try to flee Nine times out of ten is a non-en-ti-ty!

The physical body is only a thing, Like the moon, from itself, no light can it bring; The moon reflects the light of the sun, So it is with God and everyone. Man has always thought his body is him-That is why he caters to each tiny whim; But, it is only a house in which to stay, And tinker around from day to day. For ages the sages to men have told That the body we see does not grow old; Because of "free will", and the things we say We cause it to crumble and go to decay. That this is a mental world man soon shall know; When he listens to God he shall know how to go; He shall then build a body in which to be, And in which he shall spend eternity. So, listen to the real you, and the "cares of the day Shall fold their tents, and steal away", For God's throne is in man's conscience they say; It is He who directs, and shows us the way. It is a sin for man to call himself a worm, A thing which, to exist, must kill, crawl, and squirm; The real you is like God; and, destined to be A god among gods through eternity. Many think they are one, but they are two—The body men see is not the real you; Man is God in manifestation; can't you see? That is why he shall live through eternity.

God does not speak direct to physical man; To speak to him through you is His plan; The real you came here, don't you see? To build a physical house in which to be. What would the world know of God, were it not for man? That is one of the secrets of His great plan; Man is God's eye, mouth, and ears even His hands; Through him He carries out all His plans. For every change which takes place on earth God sends a leader made perfect through rebirth Adam, Noah, David, Cyrus, Moses, Lincoln, many more Were all good men who had lived before. That is why Reincarnation is part of God's plan, To make a perfect earth and a perfect man; It is the only way mortal man could be Made fit to live and reign through Eternity. God and man together always shall be, Through the Ages of Time and Eternity

So, as I understand it, it is part of God's plan

To make this earth a paradise for man.
