I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may heln to cheer
Fach future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The lawn appears as a summer one The lawn appears as a summer one or the beginning of that season after the delightful heavy rains. The fol-iage upon the trees also seems thick-er and everything is delightfully green. The countryside is beautiful right now and it would be a grand time for that vacation.

Driving over to Carroll County (which was rather unexpected, not having planned it) on Saturday was really a thrill with the rolling acres all before us. My companion said, "I just imagine, Mother, we are driving home!'

Then when we arrived 'around the town' we were informed of the supper just around the corner at the Catholic Church. As soon as we neared the place there were those hospitable people greeting us and we did feel very much at home. There were the little girls of six years ago and now grown young women and most attractive, too. The babies of six years ago were there, too now the cutest girls you ever saw. And as for that supper—well— that was Mmmmmmmmm GOOD! It was a ham and fried chicken dinner and just about everything was served with it even the dessert. That sup-per I would not have wanted to miss and the Hall was crowded at such an early hour as it began at 2 o'clock.

The approach to Taneytown is something to be proud of and of which every small town cannot boast. It is really growing more attractive as the years come and go. Mrs. Housewife—why not start now by cleaning one room thoroughly a week or even two rooms? Leave all the fresh draperies and curtains go for the last detail and then hang all those in the one day or longer depend-ing upon the number of windows in your house. Women can save so much work for themselves and it is wise to

Period of Years 1930-1957 Public school authorities are con-fronted not only with the recent prob-lems of population growth, increased enrollment, teacher scarcity and new demands, but are also subjected from time to time to extreme and bitter criticism regarding costs and services. Such criticism may come from: (a) those who do not endorse the Amer-ican idea of universal education; (b) those who have no interest in children and no realization of their needs in our complex social order; (c) those opposed to public education; and (d) those opposed to taxes and the services made possible through the tax system. Friends of education and friends of children may find in this article helpful material with which to article helpful material with which to answer such critics. Tamsey Stonesifer, program chairman of the year, presented the speaker of the evening, Mrs. William Herring, Chairman of Civil Defense for the Junior Women's Club of Westminster. In observance of National Civil Defense week she chose for her theme: "Government in Emergency", a sub-ject which is of vital interest to all citizens. She said in part. In case of a disaster such as a flood, a tornado, or an enemy attack with mass destruction weapons, our homes may become isolated and the supply of food and commodities may be disrupted. She discussed the types of food to have on hand in case of an emergency that will provide a family for three to seven days. She also spoke on where we should place our air raid shelter and how it is to be equipped. In brief she told us what our families should know to protect themselves against Germ warfare. In conclusion she stated that Taneytown is one of only two towns or communities that have not sent a representative to the Civil Defense Council for instruction. During the talk Mrs. Herring gave to be built in Westminster. In supporting the county's campaign for drive for funds, the Mayor asked the Junior Chamber to head the house-to-house canvass which covers the entire Taneytown district. The Jaycees responded favorably to the Mayor's request whereby President Boone immediately appointed a committee of Harry Dougherty, Jr., Chm.; Marlin Rittase, Earl Lookingbill and Geo. Fream to formulate plans and schedules in preparation for the can-vass. With an area of this size to solicit, past experience reveals that a large number of canvassers is required to accomplish the mission successfully. The Jaycees very earnestly invite all volunteers in the town and rural areas throughout the district to contact one of the above named committeemen as soon as possible. Other business of the evening in-cluded approval of a contribution to the High School Band Uniform Fund. Approval was also given to make an appropriation to build a float to be entered in the Halloween Parades in near-by communities. All Jaycees will be needed to help build the float as soon as the material arrives, so please cooperate with the float committee when contacted and make our entry a winner. Bernard Ruppert and Stewart Peterson were received as new members on the Javcee register.

A lady writes that she is up in years but does not appear her age but her neck "gives her away!" She would like to know if there is a remedy for this. Well she did not write me if she was thin or stout for that will make a big difference as very thin people show lines in the neck more so than stout individuals.

Many women pay more attention to their face and forget their neck! Here is an excellent way to keep your neck smooth and the texture of the skin fine. Twice daily wash your neck with plenty of good soap and warm water by rubbing briskly until it is a pink glow. Rinse a number of times with cold water and then massage with a good cold cream for dry skin for about five minutes or longer if you can. Wash off again and pat dry and dust with plain baby powder and don't forget that you have the BACK part of your neck to treat in the same manner. In one week you will be amazed at the difference.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

We think Editor William Branen of the Burlington, Wis., STANDARD-PRESS has a good idea. Under the heading, "Make Men of Them", he savs editorially:

"We don't want to start something that would harm anybody, but we feel the boys at our high schools should be required to wear shirts, dress pants, and have a shine on their shoes.

"We feel that training along this line is more important than some of the subjects taught to-day, mainly because it prepares the man of tomorrow for tomorrow. "That's the idea of schools in the first place. It's a place where the youngster is required to learn the fundamentals of life. Let's start teaching them. "The Rochester (Wis.) basketball team of 1956-57 was the talk of the tournament because they wore street suits becoming of champions.

THE WORKMEN WHO NEVER SHOWED UP

Have you ever figured out what the federal government costs you-and related the cost of taxation to other costs you must bear?

Publisher Guy T. Ludi of the Wahoo Newspaper, Wahoo, Nebraska, has done just that. His paper is a small business, with a circulation of about 4,500. Last year, he finds, the federal government took $6.53 per hour for every hour the plant was in operation. As he puts it, that was equal to the pay of three skilled workmen-"three skilled workmen that never showed up for work."

Then Mr. Ludi did some more calculating. His federal taxes came to over $260 in cash each week, and amounted to nine cents out of every dollar taken in, whether or not a profit was made on the transaction. And those taxes took enough money out of the plant to pay for any one of the following: heat for 22 years; postage power for 9 years; electric heat for years; telephone for 21 years, and in- years ago is still giving good service. surance for 15 years.

FAIRVIEW

It sure is wonderful to see at long last they are working on this road. The last two weeks sure has made a big improvement. They are widening the road and clearing away the big banks which also make it look so much nicer.

We were sorry to learn of the deaths of Mr. Earnest Lawrence and Arthur D. Starner. The families have our

b. Starner. The families have a deepest sympathy. Mrs. Levi Frock spent from Sunday till Friday in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rich-ard Adkins and family. Sunday School at Bethel Method-ist Church at 10 o'clock. Mr. E. J. Hancock is on the sick list, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Poole remain about the same. Those who visited Mrs. L. C. Stitley on Sunday and during the week were the Bellingy sisters of Westminster, Mrs. M. Baile and Miss Sarah Baile, of New Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. R. Hancock and son; Mr. and Mrs. W. Barber and Mrs. H. O. Farver Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Farver and daughters Farver and Vicki daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Weishaar near Detour, at the Middleburg church. Sandra was consecrated for her work as a student in Nurse's Training. She presented herself at the altar and received a Bible her parents joined her at the altar. The Pastor then asked the congregation to stand promising to remember San-Beverly Priest of the Gettysburg College spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Priest. Don't forget Rally Day for the Keysville Lutheran Sunday School on Oct. 6, at 9:30. Mr. Ealy of Littlestown will be the speaker.

Those who gathered for supper at the Edward Coshun home on Friday 20th to help celebrate his birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Stine, Rox-ann and Nancy; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Baumgardner, Mrs. Robert Stine all of Keysville and Mrs. Guyda Hummel, of Steelton, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zimmerman returned on Saturday the 21st after havin gspent two weeks in Mrs. Zimmerman's native community of Cor eys, Tupper Lake, New York. The Zimmermans had a grand vacation although they encountered very cold weather. The reunion with the various members of the family and being able to enjoy the many colors of the leaves seemed to make the traveling of 500 miles for a vacation very worth while.

Mrs. Oden Fogle, Mr. and Mrs. Norhome on Saturday. They came to view the motion pictures which were taken at the Fogle's golden wedding anniversary celebration. The Keysville-Detour Homemakers

Club met at the home of Mrs. Donald Hoff near Detour on Thursday, Sept. 19. There were 11 members and 1 visitor, Mrs. Steve Dendis, present. Mrs. Harold Thomas, president, con-ducted the business meeting. All the members are supposed to pay their dues in October so that the reports can be sent into the office in November. Mrs. Thomas told us that the Carroll Co. Booth won grand prize at the Timonium Fair again this year. The prize money which I believe would amount to about $100.00 will be given to the Agricultural Center to help defray the debt on the building. Members were urged to write to the Counsons, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frock and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carl and son, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carl and son, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adkins and daughters, spent Sunday after-noon, Sept. 15, in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Frock. Wedding bells will soon be ringing again in our vicinity. Congratulations to the happy pair. September by J. C. C. Roll-Call at the next meeting is to be answered with something in celebra-tion of this week. Mrs. Thomas gave some information concerning Ortheoedic Clinic at Frederick. This Clinic has been made possible with our purchase of Easter Seals. It was recommended that we get a representative from the Clinic to tell in detail about this good work. The Oc-tober meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Jackson. The No-vember meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Byron Stull. We learned that Mrs. Harold Thomas had been nominated for the position of Carroll County Council of Homemakers Secretary. Mrs. Lloyd Wilhidé gave a very interesting report on a demonstration which was given at Thur-mont. This concerned cooking with a must in our diet". The meal plan-ner could take a lot of important in-formation home with her from this demonstration. Mrs. Hoff served good refreshments of ginger bread topped with whipped cream and a cherry, po-n't talk much about hastier sunsets. If he mentions the speeded up twilight at all, he calls it "dusk"—which is a pretty good word, even if poets seem to like twilight better. Twilight, per-haps just edges into dusk and a farmer just turns on the electric lights. Nature seems to always have the edge on man, although man builds a lot of cities and pats himself proudly on his generation's head as his world edges through space. A man can turn on a light, but nature, that ancient public utility, lights a star above a mountain every night. And tomorrow she will turn her unlimited sunlight on goldenrod, just as if day had never edged into twilight and dusk into night. Does a chicken lay eggs because she wants to or because she has to? Professor L. E. Weaver says the an-swer to both questions is "yes". A hen enjoys laying. She sings happily and expectantly when she enters the nest and she cackles hilariously after the performance is over. In a very real sense a hen is an egg-making factory. When she reaches maturity the factory is ready to begin opera-tions. All the machinery is in place and ready to go. The key that unlocks the door, pulls the switch, and puts the machine in motion is light, either daylight or artificial light. Give a pullet plenty of modern laying ration, good care and fourteen hours of light each day and she will have to lay in spite of any will of her to the con-trary. Not all hens need the same amount of light. Some will keep on laying with only a ten-hour day. Exman Waltz, Mr. and Mrs. Howard tra light does not harm the layers Smith visited at the Edward Coshun even when the lights are left on all night

We wonder what makes people act the way they do ?A family can go out and buy a home, a new car, the latest clothes and even a swimming poo without their friends and neighbors raising an eyebrow, but when that same family begins selling their prop erty everyone in a radius of a hun dred miles perk up their ears and start acting like the said family has either lost its buttons or has committed a crime. It seems normal to accumulate property but highly un conventional to want to dispose of it. The truth of the matter is that there comes a time in everyone's life when material possessions become a burder and a bore. Not many people will admit it but every normal guy some times wishes he could chuck the whole mess of owning things and just wander off somewhere with only the rags on his back. Not many of course ev-er give into this feeling because responsibility chain us to our duty. The late Fred Allen boasted that he never owned a piece of property in his life. He made his home in a hotel and when he died he left an estate of two mil-lion dollars. He always said that property caused too many worries and headaches. If one is so inclined money can do the same thing and even lack of money makes many people worry—especially bill collectors. This just seems to be a worrying time all around. There seems to be no cure and we sometimes believe that peo-ple want no cure. If they did they wouldn't be worrying over what others are doing all the time. Little boys who started to school last week have already made "Perry Masons" out of their mothers, even as their fathers before them. When they come home in the afternoon, no amount of coaxing will loosen their tongues about the days events. If they have a black eye and the sleeves are missing/from their shirt, mother may electronics. Mrs. Gilbert Stine and Mrs. Mark Baumgardner gave an in-teresting demonstration on "Protein, she asks the right questions she may she asks the right questions she may get a detail or two. Little girls, on the other hand, are hardly in the door before they are briefing mother on all the school gossip plus the informa-tion that the teacher had on a beauti-

Did you know that Maryland law provides that it is illegal for any third party other than a licensed agency to assist parents in placement of a child for adoption? Procedures of the Maryland Children's Aid Society provide the best possible chance for a permanent plan for the young-ster, the natural parent, and the adoptive parents. Adopted children come from a different part of the State from that in which they are placed, and precautions taken by the Agency eliminate all former identification.

> FEESERSBURG (A Voice from Carroll)

It would be easy enough to say that farmers do not read poetry and that they are seldom heard in quotation or praise of featherless singers who write either upstage or up-garret. But once in awhile there is a line which gets a country-man's approval because it is as true as nature, and indeed, poets mostly do have a keen eye for nature, even if they don't how potatoes, pick tomatoes or do any fall plowing. Thus when a poet talks plowing. Thus when a poet talks about this time of year as one of "edging twilight" a farmer knows at one that there is a man who knows his September stuff. For these are the days of course, when twilight does edge moving as slowly as a 'opossum across a dual highway. It comes earlier every evening, to take the light out of the dairy barn and darken the unseeded fields. It makes a man squint hard to see the furrows as he hastens to finish plowing for next spring planting. Edging twilight is best seen where there are edges of mountains. A farmer, although he is full dress but was in a terrible temper. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reo and family of Baltimore were Sunday af-ternoon and supper guests at the Junior, meanwhile has discarded his where he has been, he replies "around". As he grows older Junior mother knows anything about her sor is by overheard telephone conversations, scraps of information from his friends and rare chats with the next door neighbor. Eventually Junior grows up and marries and drives his wife crazy by being the kind of husband whose entire conversation con sistts of: "Whats for dinner" and "Whene can I find a clean shirt?"

You cannot expect to become a skilled conversationits until you can learn to put your foot gracefully through a television set.

Several cases of Asian Flu have been reported in the community. It is difficult to diagnose the disease with out a laboratory test which takes about ten days. The best advice we have heard about the disease is this: If you think you have it go to bed and stay there, taking ten grains of aspirin every few hours, and drink plenty of fluids. If you think you need a doctor call one if you can find one. In the meantime don't get into a panic although we must confess that the ones in authority have done everything to make the public panic. Life is worth living if for no other reason than to see what fools we can make out of ourselves.-Ruth Roelke.

TANEYTOWN IS VICTOR IN FIRST PLAYOFF GAME

The Pen-Mar League best of three final got under way with Taney-town rolling to down Union Bridge, 8-4 in a game high lighted by five home runs.

Trailing 4-1 Taneytown unleashed its long ball attack to pull the game from the fire. A circuit clout by Leonard Singel with a mate aboard and Graham Wildasin and Robert Fogler solo shot knotted the count after eight

In the ninth, Larry Eckard singled across the tie breaking Marker and Paul McNair came through with a three-run homer to ice matters. Crawford Banks, Taneytown out-fielder and pitcher, injured his ankle during the game and probably will be lost to the squad when the teams tangle in the second game of the series Sunday at Taneytown Memorial Park.

THE CARROLL RECORD, TANEYTOWN, MARYLAND

GOD'S MODEL COUNTRY-

"There never was such a country, many say, As the United States of America is to-day! And, no other spot, on earth, they also say, Can equal it in wealth, or, in any other way.

Let me tell you of a few things many persons do not know; Some think, things are the same every place you go; But, these figures may help to change your mind; For, America is half as great as the whole earth combined!

The following statement may cause some surprise; But, it is intended to make you open your eyes! For America, they say, is God's Leader here below To show other countries, how He wants them to go.

40% of the world's coffee is drank in America, they say-

Some persons drink it three times each day; And 53% of all the tin, statistics say, is used here To make toys, spouts and pans, for the people each year.

53% of all the Rubber is used in this country to-day, You see it on millions of Autos coming your way; And 21% of all the Sugar, people buy here To sweeten tea and coffee and make candy each year.

73% of the Silk to make dresses, they also say, Is sold by American merchants to-day; And 36% of all the coal dug, is burnt here

In our country's factories and furnaces, each year.

42% of the Pig Iron and 47% of the copper they say Is also sold and used in our factories to-day; And, of the world's crude Petroleum, 69% is sold here Even though the price varies year after year.

80% of the Motor Cars on the roads to-day Are made, owned, and run by Americans, they say; And, 33% of the world's Railroads, we all know,

Take those without cars where they want to go.

70% of all the Oil is produced right here; And, the people use more and more each year; And, of all the Wheat and Cotton on earth to-day 50% of it grows in America, the papers say.

40% of the Lead and Coal used on the globe

Is bought and sold right here where we rove; Both seem of little use to some, we now say; But, many people use them day after day.

Half of the world's Gold-(11 billion dollars) they say,

You will find in American vaults to-day— God seems to have reserved the Silver and Gold For a purpose about which we have not been told. 2/3 of the world's Banking Resources are here-

(Much of the world's business comes to us each year); So, America's purchasing power is greater, they say, Than that of 500,000,000 people in Europe to-day.

Asia, too, they tell us, is not what it used to be Once it seemed to hold priority; But, the purchasing power of our country, to-day Is greater than 1,000,000,000 Asiatics, they say.

This is not braggadocio—It only pictures things to be When the time arrives for Earth's great jubilee; It is a mind picture God wants all peoples to see;

For, as America is, all of His countries must be.

For, the whole Earth shall be a Paradise some day; So, here He shows how to make it that way; This, they say, in His pattern Nation of how Earth shall be All the time of the end and through all Eternity.

For ages God kept America hid, they say-

To make it a pattern for the world of to-day; So, it is up to us to carry out His plan To make the whole earth a heaven for man.

In all of the 48 States we work the same way; As a whole, we do as the Scriptures say; And, that is how the whole Earth must be When the time arrives for its great jubilee.

God has watched and blest this great land of ours; And, made it the mightiest, of all the powers, To show all Nation's how He wants things to be At the end of Time and through all Eternity.

Many patriots' portraits are to be found in the Bible; Nehemiah is one of these. He was a governor of Jerusalem, under the Persian Empire, more than a hundred years after Jerusalem's freedom had been lost. Jerusalem had had a string of governors before; but not one of them, or all of them together, accomplished for that city and its people what Nehemiah did in his term of office. He was a true patriot, one whose services really benefit his country, one who renders services without asking payment in return; or if he is a man on salary, as Nehemiah ems to have been, he goes be-

Lighting Planned for New Highways To Assure Safe Night Visibility

A great lessening of the night traffic accident horror is seen for the future on new highways designed by the state highway departments in cooperation with Federal Bureau of Public Roads Information on plans to light hazardous locations was obtained by a poll of state highway departments. The following states answered

"yes" to the question, "Do your highway construction cost esti-mates include provisions for lighting hazardous highway locations ?'

Ind Mo Ore. Ala. Kans. Mont. R. I. S. C. Ariz. Neb. Ark. Ky. N. H. La. Me. Calif. Tenn. Colo. Nev. Tex. Md. N. Mex. Utah Conn. N. Car. N. Dak. Ohio Va. Wash. Mass. Del. Mich. Ga. W. Va. Ida. Miss. Wyo. Minn. Okla. Ill.

Prominent in these plans is provision for lighting hazardous locations to assure safe night visibility. Such locations are: Interstate Highways and other controlled Access Roadways — (a) interchanges and intersections; (b) connections to service areas; (c) elevated and depressed expressways; (e) bridges, over-passes and viaducts; (f) high traffic density sections; (g) areas made unusually hazardous by regular or frequent conditions impended by weather or climatic conditions; (h) transition sections such as changes in number of lanes and traffic direction.

Uncontrolled Access Roadways -All of the above and in addition: (i) dangerous curves and hills; (j) railroad grade crossings; (k) approach to urban areas; (1) highways running through municipalities with build-up areas such as suburban business districts and congested S residential section areas. It is at these locations that changes in speed or direction of travel create hazards requiring maximum visibility for safety.

Illuminating engineers and na-tional authorities on traffic safety at night hail with enthusiasm the designing of lighting into hazardous highway locations by 40 of 48 states.

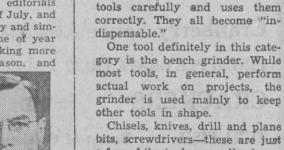

"Until now, lighting has been installed on highways by very few states to a very limited ex-tent," said Edmond C. Powers, educational director of the Street and Highway Safety Lighting Bureau of Cleveland, Ohio, leader in the national campaign advocating adequate street and highway lighting for safe visibility at night.

"When we realize that inability to see accident hazards in time to stop or avoid collision annually causes the deaths of 10,000 per-sons, serious injuries to 500,000 others and an economic loss of $1 billion, we derive tremendous satisfaction from the lighting provisions in new highway plans.

"The new highways referred to are those in the 41,000-mile roadbuilding program authorized by Congress under leadership of President Eisenhower and being engineered by state highway de-partments in cooperation with the Federal Bureau of Pablic Roads."

yond what he is paid to do. Nehemiah never had to be pushed or prodded. He was out in front, seeing what had to be done and starting to do it, while other men slept.

Leadership

There have been patriots without much power or gift of leadership; but surely a better type of patriot is a man or woman who can stir other people to serve their country too. This Nehemiah is famous for building a wall; but he may never have laid a brick, personally. He did something far more miraculous than that; for the first time in 140 years, he got the people of Jerusalem hard at work at what they should have been doing long before: getting a wall built around their little city. The people "had a mind to work," but it was their governor who inspired this ambition in them. The great patriots of every nation's history,—David, Scipio, Henry V George Washington, Syngman Rhee, and all the rest, have been men from whom as from a dynamo electric current flowed to vast numbers of their countrymen. Under their leadership, weak men were brave, discouraged men full of hope.

Religion

Religion, in any nation, is not like an auxiliary water tank, for the use of the fire department,something that can be tapped in an emergency and then turned off again when the trouble is over. Religion if it is worth anything is more important than patriotism, just as God is more important than any country. Nevertheless, though God refuses to be used as a political ally, as Hitler and others have tried to use him, other things being equal the man with the most vital religion makes the best patriot. For religion is first and last a reliance upon God, as supreme Helper and as final Judge. Nehemiah's religion comes out in many ways, but it is plain that he was no oncea-week believer. His faith in God was woven into all his actions. He never spent long hours in prayer; but there was no corner of his life shut off from it.

But for each additional 10 m.p.h., you greatly increase the chance for a fatality. The 1957 edition of "Accident Facts," the statistical yearbook of the National Safety Council, shows that the chance of an accident being fatal at 35 m.p.h., is one in 115 at

WHAT WILL YOUR PROSPECTIVE NEIGHBORHOOD BE LIKE IN TEN YEARS?

Usually, barring catastrophe, what your community will be in ten years —it is now becoming.

If left alone to drift, the change is usually one of magnitude-more of the same.
