A big Christmas season in Taneytown is the aim of the merchants. Already the street decorations are in place and the stores are well-stocked for the shoppers' convenience. Memo to Motorists: Speeding is feeding the jaws of death.

A PLEA TO PARENTS CONCERNING GUNS

The shooting of guns by children and young people should be a source of concern to thinking parents who love their own and other children for, beyond the shooting, the realization must always be present that someone may be shot. The result may be serious injury or death.

There have been many instances in our own and adjacent communities which illustrate the dreadful consequences of permitting children to shoot guns—either rifles or BB guns. The writer recalls in his childhood the case of two playmates playing with a revolver belonging to one's father. One, pointing a supposedly unloaded revolver at the other, fired twice, placing two bullets in his head and killing him instantly.

Surely, eyes, limbs, and life itself, are far too great a blessing to risk for the momentary pleasure of firing an air rifle into the air or discharging a .22 at a bird or woodchuck. Although there are laws regulating the shooting of guns in some areas, the most effective control of this menace can only come from intelligent parents who must realize the danger of allowing young people to shoot guns unless accompanied by an adult, far from populated areas.

As good citizens, interested in all the people of our community, may we please put these guns away, forbid our youth to play with them, and express to proper sources our disgust with TV, radio, and movie programs which emphasize a form of drama based upon violence and shooting.

LIONS AND KIWANIS HOLD JOINT MEETING

Veterans' Day Was the Theme of Speaker Himler

The annual joint meeting of the Taneytown Kiwanis and Lions Clubs took place at Taney Inn last Tuesday night, November 11, when Lions President Frank T. Dunham warmly welcomed Kiwanians headed by their president, Ned C. Musser, John T. Hottinger was called upon to present his guest, Archie Conner, former Taneytown Lion, who now lives in Berkeley Springs, West Virginia. Following President Dunham's announcement that the first supply of fruit cakes for Thanksgiving and Christmas sale had arrived, the chair was turned over to President Musser, who likewise drummed up trade for the forthcoming Kiwanis Pancake supper, an Aunt Jimma promotion.

After the delicious fried oyster Taney Inn dinner, Lion Murray M. Baumgardner appealed to all public-minded citizens present to look into the activities of a PTA committee to improve facilities at Taneytown high school so as to match, at least in part, those to be incorporated in the newly building Junior high.

The evening was thereupon consigned to the program chairman Lion David B. Shaum who introduced as Veterans' Day speaker Lion Henry H. Himler, of Westminster, president of Consumer Finance Company. Mr. Himler reminded his hearers of the sacrifices of those who volunteered for the various armed service branches and besought them to consider it each his duty to keep abreast of the times and to help preserve his heritage, which he summarized in three directions: (1) that individual freedom is priceless; (2) that all forms of freedom are in danger when any one of them is threatened; and (3) that the willingness to cooperate, make our system the most productive in earth. The power of example is great, and he concluded with the urging that each might do no better than, like the signers of that famous 1776 Declaration mutually to "pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor."

All Lions are urged to turn in their CARE project donations to Chairman Robert W. Feaser immediately, and the next meeting will be that of Nov. 25, in observance of Thanksgiving, with Kenneth R. Gilds in charge of program.

"SPICE 'N EVERYTHING NICE"
With all my heart, I wish you every morning.
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer.
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The lovely roses up in the garden at the bungalow are still blooming beautifully and each week when I cut the lawn, I bring back a bunch and place them in the vases. No doubt, the lawn has been cut for the last time this winter!

Halloween will soon be upon us so why not plan a nice party this year. Nothing is more fun for children or adults than to be costumed for the occasion. Refreshments need not be expensive either but much laughter can be made by many interesting games.

Well Mr. Used Car Dealer, your troubles will be over selling those cars when the BTC raises the fare to 25 cents! Betcha!

That Ghost Town of Harpers Ferry which I visited two years ago when I went up the Sky Line Drive is being restored for the big event of next June—the Centennial—takes place. That will be interesting with the beautiful scenery as a background. And here is the description of Thomas Jefferson: "The passage of the Potomac through the Blue Ridge is perhaps one of the most stupendous scenes in nature. You stand on a very high point of land. On your right comes up the Shenandoah having ranged along the foot of the mountain a hundred miles to seek a vent. On your left approaches the Potomac, in quest of a passage also. In the moment of their junction they rush together against the mountain, rend it asunder and pass off to the sea!"

If you are contemplating new furniture—why not go all the way DANISH? They are beautifully and substantially made, graceful and neat and most comfortable! Shop around and find one for yourself. And thinking about furniture—one the second floor here there is an entire apartment completely done in the very finest of Antiques. Upon entering, one would think you were walking into hoods such as Queen Victoria might have occupied. Beautiful is the word to every item!

I know of a very aged couple who are truly 80 and 82 years young and now I really believe that "LIFE BEGINS AT EIGHTY!" They are selling their little home to purchase one toward the Country! For they both love the wide and open spaces! You should see, folks that dear couple dance while some one plays the Player Piano! And that is how they met at a dance just 62 years ago! Your Observer would enjoy taking them up on the T.V. Show called, "I've Got a Secret!"

And thinking of home, Mrs. Housewife to be really fetching looking in the evenings—you must reflect your Discriminating Taste... Harmonious Home Decorating Hues in Congenial colors! Nice!

Now that the "Oriole" has moved away from Howard Street right in the shopping center by all means try "THE DUTCH GRILL" on Eutaw Street right across from Schreiber's. For instance there is one plate—a Seafood for the small price of 85 cents—Crab cakes, special fish, Scallop; relish, Salad and vegetable plus home-made rolls and they are hot, too! UMMMM Good!

And don't miss the Movie at my favorite and charming "LITTLE Theatre, "The Reluctant Debutante" with Rex Harrison and Kay Kendall. You will enjoy the delightful entertainment for there is not a dull moment—just wondering what's next? Plenty of good laughs and the acting excellent. I leave the rest to you. Nuff Sed!

Hope you are seeing "The Arthur Murray Show" each Monday night on T.V. plus all those STARD Katharine Murray always ends up by saying, "For A Little Fun in Your Life—Try Dancing" No other Studio can compare!

As for the most reasonably priced and fine Furs, Ladies—PELTZ tops them all—228 N. Eutaw Street and that since 1893. The Sons have taken over since Mr. Peltz passed away a few years ago and they seem to be keeping up the fine tradition with the most Exclusive Furs!

There is a Reason.

(Room 8.28)

For every pain that we must bear.

For every sorrow, every care,

There is a reason.

For every falsehood that is said,

For every tear drop that is shed,

There is a reason.

For every grief, for every trial,

For every weary, lonely mile,

There is a reason.

But if we trust Him as we should,

All will work out for our good,

GOD KNOWS THE REASON!

So long, folks until next week.

Have a grand week-end. Drive slowly and relax and that you can enjoy the country side which is so beautiful at this time. I am,

Faithfully,

YOUR OBSERVER.

"FIGURES CAN'T LIE"

"Arithmetic is a science of truth", said the professor earnestly. "Figures can't lie. For instance, if one man can build a house in 12 days, 12 men can build it in one day."

"Yes," interrupted a quick-brained student. "Then 258 will build it in one hour, 17,280 in one minute, and 1,936,800 in one second. And I don't believe they could lay one brick in that time."

While the professor was still gasping, the smart "ready reckoner" went on: "Again, if one ship can cross the Atlantic in six days, six ships can cross it in one day. I don't believe that either. So, where's the truth in Arithmetic?"—A.A.M.V.A. Bulletin.

CUT EVERYWHERE - UNLESS IT HURTS

President Eisenhower told his post election press conference: "We have got to stop spending if we are to keep further dilution of the dollar from taking place". The President went on to warn that our very liberty, political and economic freedom, the whole American system is at the mercy of the loose fiscal policies he fears from "the spending wing" of the Democratic party. Reckless spending, he said, "must stop or the United States is in the most serious trouble that we can think of".

The President's theme is, of course, similar to what was, perhaps, his major appeal for that "change" in 1952, and for his reelection in 1956. At both periods it was heeded and acted on by the voters. But nothing impressive in the way of Federal economy followed either campaign. Instead, the national debt went through two ceilings.

Like the woodmen in the old fable, it appears that the voters failed to respond the third time to Mr. Eisenhower's cry of "Wolf!" As the President himself confessed, "I did talk about the spender-wing, and apparently that didn't make any great impression, for obviously, we didn't get enough Republican votes."

But there can be no doubt that the wolf is in our national parlor. To get him out, the President said spending must be cut in every area of Government where the law allowed, and perhaps some laws should be changed. Pinned down on whether he would cut foreign aid, housing and schools, Mr. Eisenhower declared that foreign aid was a part of defense, but that "you shouldn't spend money unnecessarily anywhere".

Somehow, we have the feeling that this is where we came in.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

NEW PLYMOUTH, IDAHO, SENTINEL: "The government takes over an Indiana farmer's tractor to collect a judgment for over-planting wheat and a lot of farmers across the nation realize for the first time that government handouts have claws under the greenbacks....We trade a little of our liberty and freedom every time we invite government to solve a problem for us, whether its in the city, on the farm or super highways to join the two."

POCOMOKE CITY, MD., WORCESTER DEMOCRAT: "Pay for the government's 2.3 million civilian employees last year was $11 billion.... That's a lot of employees, and a lot of government, and an awful lot of taxes. Maybe we should tell our vote-hunting congressmen it is too much of all three."

GREAT FALLS, MONTANA, LEADER: "The fuel used to hurl the biggest of these new-fangled satellites up there in space is kerosene. Of course it's mixed up with liquid oxygen to make it burn faster, but that kerosene is an old friend for a lot of fellows...."

"A lot of them will never forget the funny taste when they got dosed with old-fashioned 'cold remedies' like kerosene and snogar and kerosene mixed with goose grease. Wow! That stuff was powerful. Science is just finding out?"

QUARRYVILLE, PA., SUN AND LEDGER: "Throughout history, farming has been an honorable occupation, and remains so today, even though this is an age of rocket missiles, jets and satellites."

"In spite of all the progress, the farmers' product is still vital, his annual toil mandatory for our survival. Suppose, for example, that all farmers decided to strike during one harvest season, such as some unions do. The population would soon begin to become destitute."

BREWARD, N. C., TRANSYLVANIA TIMES: "Worry is like a rocking chair—gives you something to do, but doesn't get you anywhere."

ALINE, OKLA., CHRONOSCOPE: "The Soviet government supplies MIG's to the Chinese Reds to shoot up Quemoy Island and they think it supplies the Chinese Nationalists with sidewinders that hunt out and destroy the MIG's. Now that's a helluva thing to do, say the Reds. You just can't please the Commies."

VIRGINIA, MINN., NEWS: "The freedom we enjoy has its own peculiar perils. It seems often to encourage softness, laxity, self-indulgence, and indifference to responsibilities.... A civilization is only as vital and strong as the men who give it life. It must falter when they do. If their moral fiber, their character, grows slack, then their system must surely decline."

FULTON, MISS., TIMES: "You have heard it said that churches and newspapers rise and fall together. In every land bent under a tyrant's yoke, two things stand out: (1) a controlled press and (2) an intimidated church. You may put it down for a truism that there cannot long be a free church in a nation which has a slave press. By the same token, a free press will not endure alongside an imprisoned church."

"The two thus are dependent on each other and complementary to each other. The press maintains freedom of the mind and the church preserves freedom of the spirit. Both are necessary. Take one away, and the other is sorely distressed."

ANDERSON, S. C., FREE PRESS: "We were glad to note that members of the North and South Carolina Theatre Owners, Assn., meeting in convention recently, adopted a resolution urging the film industry to provide better films. They requested, specifically, more family type pictures and less so-called 'adult' fare. "We think these theatre owners are to be commended. For years, motion pictures have supplied family entertainment for millions. Good motion pictures are both enjoyable and instructive. But the trend toward sensationalism is resulting in more and more movie 'trash'."

FACTS AND OPINIONS

Secretary of the Interior Seaton says: "In the years ahead more dams must be built, and they will be; more water must be impounded, and it will be; more acres must be put under irrigation, and they will be.... And the greater the measure of non-Federal co-operation, the more local and State and nonpublic organizations which continue to get into harness and help pull the load, the better and faster that job will be done. That's just plain sense! In reclamation as in recreation, the Federal government cannot and should not bear the whole load. In the first place, it is a load too heavy for one branch of government. Second, wherever Uncle Sam's dollars go, his control follows...."

Economic Intelligence points out that an annual increase of only one per cent in prices means cutting the value of the dollar in half in 70 years. A 2 per cent annual increase cuts it half in 35 years. And a three per cent annual increase does the damage in 25 years.

Fortune anticipates that gross farm income this year will be $37.2 billion—a jump of eight per cent over last year. Production costs are rising only half as much, so net income is due to increase 18 per cent, from $10.8 billion to $12.7 billion.

This country really has a sweet tooth. Candy and gum sales by the food chains alone are expected to reach a 1958 total of $393 million.

The two-cent daily newspaper used to be common in this country, but now it has gone with the wind. The last of these papers, the Hanover, Pennsylvania, Evening-Sun, has raised its prices to five cents.

National Review reports on government in business: "While one military service was buying sun glasses for $5 a pair, another was selling them as surplus at less than $1.00. One agency of the government is revealed to have sold rice, for export, at $40 a ton to a firm which promptly resold it to another government agency for $60 a ton."

A recent survey finds that newspaper readers would like more scientific news, including medical news. Two-thirds of those polled said they would willingly give up some other kinds of news to make this expanded coverage possible.

Senator Byrd points out that at the current spending level, the Fed-

HOSPITAL NEWS

The way was paved last week for the preparation of the final working or construction drawings for the new Carroll County General Hospital.

Mr. Atlee W. Wampler, Jr., President of the Hospital, announced that with the completion of working-plans the project will be advertised for bids, and the actual phases of construction will get under way.

It was strongly emphasized by the Architectural Consultant, Mr. Edward H. Nokes of Washington, who is collaborating with Mr. Bernard Starr of Harrisburg, that the working-plan stage must not be hurried but must be carefully prepared, as the Hospital is actually built from these drawings. Undue haste in this phase could easily account for considerable needless cost and expensive errors. It is approximated that four or five months will be required for this phase.

At the same meeting of last week the preliminary plans were given full approval and it was directed by the committee that these detailed sketches be presented to the Hospital Division of the Maryland State Health Department for approval.

This Agency, headed by Mr. Herbert G. Fritz, is charged with the responsibility for the Hill-Burton, or Federal Hospital funds, and their concurrence is indispensable for such participation. The Carroll County General Hospital project has high priority and no difficulty is expected from this quarter.

Mr. Nate Weinstock, Chairman of the Building Committee, and Mr. Wampler have been consulting with the County Commissioners of Carroll County, relative to the dedication of sufficient land, rights of way, and other details involved so that there shall be no obstacles in the future development and expansion of the Hospital facility.

Others present at this meeting were, Scott S. Bair, Dr. C. L. Billingslea, F. Kale Mathias, Richard Richardson, David A. Scott and Mr. John Ryan of Gordon A. Friesen Associates, Inc.

Help Fight TB

Buy Christmas Seals

"It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas" at headquarters of the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association. The Civinette Club women of Westminster spent Monday morning sealing 14,000 envelopes in preparation for mailing to county residents the Christmas Seal Sale letters on November 14, when the campaign opens.

"The big job of getting ready for the traditional Christmas Seal Sale is handled entirely by volunteers," said Robert Miller, chairman of the campaign. "These generous people save the association hundreds of dollars and thousands of hours of staff time which can then go right where they should go—to TB control activities."

The Sandymount Homemaker's Club, Mrs. Ralph Lockard, president, contributed their time to stuff the Seal Sale letter into envelopes previously addressed by the Senior Commercial students in the high schools throughout the county.

Speaking at a kickoff meeting recently at Hoffman's Inn to volunteers who will carry-out the campaign, Mr. Miller said, "Proceeds from this year's Christmas Seal Sale must do more than maintain our present TB control activities. We must expand our efforts to find all the unknown cases of TB lurking in this community. We must expand our educational program so that people of all ages learn how to protect themselves from TB. We must put more money into medical research to find better ways of fighting TB. We must increase our efforts to help ex-TB patients get back on their feet and stay there."

America's Wagon Specialists!

Here's the fresh new direction in wagon design: hardtop styling. And how your neighbors will love it!

For '59, all six Ford wagons are bigger ... over 7 inches longer inside with over 13 cu. ft. more cargo space riding on a 2-inch longer wheelbase. They're far easier to open and load, too, than other wagons in Ford's class. They have a still-larger glass area. And thanks to Ford's unique thin-pillar design, you get hardtop styling for that wide-open, modern look! What's more,

Ford is the only manufacturer of the most popular three who knows how to provide comfort and convenience—and still keep all seats facing forward!

As for economy, both of Ford's standard engines for '59—Six or Thunderbird V-8—are designed to thrive on regular gas, save you up to 5¢ a gallon. And new aluminized mufflers will normally last twice as long as conventional types. But with all their economy, you'll still find these 59 Fords a masterpiece of underpricing!

Buy Christmas Seals

Tuberculosis - fighting Christmas seals make their annual debut Friday, Nov. 14, in Carroll County and across the nation. Seal sale chairman, Robert Miller, reports over 14,000 letters will be delivered to Carroll Countians by Saturday. Reminding everyone that Christmas is near, the cherry red and green good-will stamps are being mailed to most homes with appeals to buy and use them.

Money raised by the annual seal sale helps to promote good health for all by fighting and preventing the scourge of tuberculosis both by finding and treating persons afflicted with the insidious disease and by financing medical research on its prevention and cure.

The Christmas Seal sale is the only fund-raising appeal of the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association. Mr. Miller wishes to express thanks to the following people who have already aided in Christmas Seal preparations for the campaign: Schools: Westminster High, Mrs. Martha Ruppert; Sykesville High, Mrs. George Herding; North Carroll, Mrs. Maitland Lippy; Taneytown High, Mrs. Catherine Myers; Mt. Airy High, Miss Ruth A. Kimmey; New Windsor High, Miss Lois Silverburg; Elmer Wolfe High, Mrs. Evelyn Boose; Robert Moton, Mrs. Jewell Duggins.

Albrecht's classes, who assisted in transporting material from Seal Sale headquarters to and from the schools: Richard Leppo, Larry Devibiss, Kyle Dickens, Robert Zintz, Lewis Swartsbaugh, Wayne Brunk, Wayne Wilson, Rodney Warehime and Thomas Kinser. Radcliffe M. Helm, of Watkins Amusements, supervised the transportation of the seals from TB headquarters to the post office.

Women of the county have been instrumental also in the preparation of the various mailing processes which must be completed before the envelopes are sent to the post offices throughout the county. Homemakers from Sandymount Homemakers Club; Mrs. Ralph Lockard, president; Mrs. Clarence Lindsay, Mrs. Allison Peeling, and Mrs. Norman Barrick. NEW CITY STORE CENTER PLANNED

Plans for a huge, new shopping center in the Northwestern section of the city were announced today with completion of the land purchase on Reisterstown road at Patterson avenue.

Promoter of the project is Food Fair Properties, Inc., the real estate arm of the grocery chain known as Food Fair Stores, Inc. Branches of two of Baltimore's department stores, The Hecht Company and Stewart & Co., are planned for the enterprise which also will contain another large outlet of Food Fair, plus about 50 more retail stores.

To be known as Reisterstown Road Plaza, the 60-acre shopping community is, subject to a zoning application, to be started next spring and would be finished early in 1960.

Application has been made in City Council for a zoning ordinance reclassifying a part of the site from residential to commercial. The first 150 feet of the area in depth from Reisterstown road already is zoned commercial. The application has asked for reclassification to first commercial of an average of 1,300 feet to the rear line of the property.

The site was purchased from Associated Catholic Charities, Inc., and Seton Institute, Inc. The land involved was a portion of that owned by St. Vincent's Infants' Asylum and an adjacent area owned by Seton Institute.

Heading the negotiations were Ralph Biernbaum, vice president and general manager of Food Fair Properties; J. Raymond Greenhill, president of Stewart & Co.; Geoffrey Swadlow, vice president and general manager of the Baltimore stores of The Hecht Company, and Joseph H. Rash, assistant secretary of Food Fair Stores and director of the group's operations in Maryland.

Parking for 4,000 cars is planned. The project calls for the widening of Patterson avenue with a view of easing traffic. The shopping center will front on Reisterstown road for 1,800 feet, and on Patterson avenue for 1,400 feet.

The site is about three miles from the proposed county beltway, and within easy access of other main arteries.

The Hecht Company store, embracing 175,000 square feet on two levels, will be the largest unit of its Baltimore branches. It also will have 10,000 square feet of outside selling space.

Stewart & Co., with 150,000 square feet of store space on two levels, plus 10,000 square feet of garden shop, also plans a service and administration building on adjacent acreage, adding 160,000 more square feet of space. This building will be connected with the main unit by a tunnel.

These two main stores, and the 28,000 square foot unit of Food Fair, will be joined by a landscaped mall, will be one of the largest developed by the chain which has 373 outlets along the Eastern Seaboard.

The large stores and the other smaller units will embrace all types of shopping and services including a restaurant, according to present plans.

Food Fair Properties, Inc., which is developing this Baltimore project within the city, now operates fifteen such centers along the East Coast, and seven more are under construction. The Reisterstown Road Plaza will be comparable in size to those regional centers it now is constructing at Jacksonville and Miami in Florida, and at Harrisburg, Pa.

Evenings and Thursdays seem to be the major grocery-buying periods. In addition to a swing toward Thursday food buying, about one-third is now being done in the evening.

Fall Lunch

Fresh, nippy weather will soon be upon us and more hearty meals will be the order of the day. A good week day lunch for kiddies coming home from school or for Saturday after a morning of raking leaves is hot soup and wedges of corn bread.

It won't take long for you to mix up a pan of Corn Wedges if you use a package of your favorite corn muffin mix. Pour the batter into a pan instead of muffin cups and then after it is baked to a golden brown cut it into wedges. Serve with steaming tomato soup and relishes as we have done here.

CORN WEDGES

Makes 16 sticks

One pkg. Flakorn Corn Muffin Mix
1 egg
1/2 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
1 tablespoon sesame seed

Heat oven to hot (400°F.). Empty contents of corn muffin mix package into bowl; add egg, milk and garlic salt. Blend only until dry ingredients are thoroughly moistened, but not smooth. Pour batter into greased 8-inch square pan. Sprinkle sesame seeds over batter. Bake in preheated oven (400°F.) about 20 minutes or until golden brown. Cut into sticks about 4 x 1 inches.

Body and Soul

Lesson for November 16, 1958

DRIVING through the typical American community, the visitor gets the impression that healthy people live here. All the persons he sees are able-bodied and active. But if you laid out on the courthouse lawn all the sick, the lame or the incapacitated, who belong to that community, you might think it a pretty sickly town. Nowadays we keep our sick folk carefully out of sight.

Dr. Foreman

But is is different in the Orient, where people with all sort of diseases are to be seen on every street. It was different in Palestine in Jesus' time. One late afternoon, we read, they brought all the sick people in town (including some mentally ill) to the house where Jesus was staying, and collected around the door, a melancholy sight.

People are More Than Souls

That happened to be a Sabbath day, and Jesus had been (as we would say) to church and had taught there. He had also restored a man who had been under the influence of a screaming devil, if indeed he was not one himself; and more quietly and privately he had healed his host's mother. In the morning she had been too sick to go to church; after Jesus had cured her she was able to get a meal for the family. (Jesus' cures were not half-way starts.) You might think he would be tired, and probably he was; but this yard-full of sick people, out under the twilight sky, moved him to action.

He did not say, and he never said on any occasion of record, to the sick that their sickness was doing them good, just accept it! He did not say, "I am a physician of souls—my interest is in the spirit of man, not his body." And above all, he did not say, "All your pain and suffering, your broken legs, your ulcers, are not real, they are only mistakes in your mortal mind. Think you are well and you will be well; for pain and illness do not exist." Quite the contrary: Jesus was concerned for these people's physical health, he made cures of real diseases. For he was interested above all in people, and people are more than souls, they are souls-in-bodies.

Body Supports Soul

The Christian church today is coming awake to this fact. We knew it all the time, but now we are doing something about it. The great interest in healing which is now being shown by even the "old-line" churches, the growth of hospitals operated by the church, and the contribution the churches make (as in Boy Scout work, in playgrounds and in good-health instruction toward preventive medicine, are evidence of this.) A man who has been raising funds for a Christian hospital in the southern mountains writes, "The appeal . . . is meeting with almost unbelievable success, thanks to the Great Galilean whose spirit is the challenge."

One of the reasons why Christ first, and the church after him, have been interested in physical health is that if we are interested in the human spirit—as indeed we must be—we cannot afford to neglect the body as if it did not matter. Bodily illness affects the mind and the soul. A healthy body supports a healthy mind and soul.

Soul Supports Body

On the other hand, Jesus himself more than once showed that he knew this works both ways. If body supports soul, so soul supports body. Some doctor has calculated that more than half the patients in American hospitals, on any given day, would not be there if they had a different attitude toward life. A young man lay dying of pneumonia, away back B. P.—Before Penicillin—with a nurse on duty, when there was a knock at the door. No one thought the patient was conscious; but he was, and all set to die, till he heard the visitor whisper, "How is he?" The nurse answered, "He won't last till morning." The physical disease was not touched by those words, but the young man's spirit was. "I made up my mind I'd get well," he said . . . and he did. Long ago it was a proverb: "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine, but a broken spirit drieth up the bones."

C. E. NEWS

The 13th World's C. E. Convention drew 14,000 delegates to Frankfurt, Germany recently. A resounding demonstration of Christian Endeavor Youth and leaders of youth from around the world, united in singleness of purpose to serve Christ through His church. It was Christian Endeavor's greatest experience under the banner, "Christ, the Light of the World!" Delegates from every corner of the globe crowded the great "Festhalle" to capacity. "That they all may be one," because alive and more real to delegates from 29 countries gathered in Frankfurt, language barriers were completely dissolved, old national hatreds and rivalries were completely faded, as the delegates were molded into oneness in God through Jesus Christ His Son. The United States Armed Services loaned the convention two thousand cots.

A thrilling meeting was held in West Berlin, Germany, almost within the shadow of the Iron Curtain. It was the presentation and dedication of furniture for the "Ohio Prayer Room" in the Christian Endeavor Mission Hall in Spandau, Berlin. The furniture being a gift of the Buckeye Endeavorers, to the Endeavorers of Berlin. Dr. Daniel A. Poling, having come into the work of the Ohio C. E. Union fifty years ago as field secretary, made the principal address. The Ohio Endeavorers played a tape recording of the 1958 Convention in Painesville, O., as a greeting to the Berlin group, at the point where the youth were singing Martin Luther's great hymn, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God," the entire congregation of Germans in the Mission Hall spontaneously joined in.

The largest overseas delegation came from Great Britain about 300. North America was second with 100. The delegates from the United States and Canada traveled a total of two million miles. 64 U. S. members left New York by TWA. The group visited eight countries. Harold Westenhoff, Columbus, O., directed the tour. Countries represented in spite of international uncertainty in the Middle East were Syria, Lebanon, Egypt, India and Ceylon. Dr. Clyde Meadows, Chambersburg, Pa., vice-president of International C. E. led the great choir of 1200 trained voices, quite indescribable, also a brass choir of 150 pieces led the singing. 90 per cent of those in attendance seemed to be under 25 years of age. There were hundreds of decisions for Jesus Christ. Invitations for the next World's Convention in 1962 were received from India and Japan. How Christian Endeavor for "Christ and the Church" is appreciated universally, describes what it has to offer for the young people to-day both here and abroad.

The 68th Anniversary Convention of the Maryland Christian Endeavor Union was held at Goucher College, Towson, Md. Theme, "I Joy In Serving Christ". A full program was enjoyed at this 3-day convention, with 85 full-time delegates, many visitors and 140 attended the Fellowship Banquet on Saturday evening. Herbert Wilson, Baltimore, President of Md. C. E. Union presided. Arch McQuilkin Trustee, Int. Society of C. E. was the speaker and many other familiar persons taking part.

At the Alumni Tea, following the banquet, Miss Nellie Griffin, Junior Supt. projected pictures of "C. E. through the years" including many scenes of happenings at conventions and special occasions. One of the most recent was a view of Miss Jean Vaughn's wedding in Hagerstown. Miss Vaughn is the Md. C. E. Secretary. Also some pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kiser at the International Convention in Portland, Oregon last summer. The International Convention will be held in Philadelphia, Pa. July 1959. Plan to attend.

CARROLL COUNTY ASSOCIATION FOR RETARDED CHILDREN

The campaign kick-off meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, Nov. 12th at 8 p. m., at the Westminster Elementary School Auditorium, North Center Street. Mr. Thomas J. McNulty, president of WWIN Broadcasting Station and prominent Baltimorean, will be the guest speaker. Another program highlight is a film, "A Light To My Path" shown through the courtesy of the National Association for Retarded Children. It is anticipated that over 400 workers and guests will attend.

Serving on the program committee for the meeting are: Mrs. Jean McAvoy, Mr. Ray LeGore and Mrs. Marion Matthias.

The general solicitation for funds throughout the county will be held 16-29 November. Day and night solicitation will be conducted to provide everyone an opportunity to contribute. A fund brochure describing the local associations efforts, its progress and its needs, will be mailed to each home. Coin containers will be prominently displayed at business and public locations.

One of the most pressing needs requiring funds is the organization and support of the "Day Care Center" presently being formed. No state or county funds are available for this activity.

Other immediate and future requirements for the estimated 1500 retarded in Carroll County include speech therapy, pre-school age training and a sheltered work-shop.

Mr. Smith stressed that "eighty-five per cent of funds collected are expended in direct support of our county retarded. The remaining fifteen per cent goes to the National Association for Retarded Children and is used primarily for research. Reports from doctors presently engaged in this research program reveal notable progress in the search for causes of retardation. One positive cause, with an incidence rate of 1 in 20,000 births and a remedy therefore following proper diagnosis, has already been discovered."

Funds from Preu Camp have been used to support a summer day camp, for teacher training scholarship, and for the purpose of two station wagons and special equipment.

WANTED MEN AND WOMEN WITH IDEAS

Do you have any advertising ideas?

We're looking for an advertisement that will tell everyone just how wonderful an All-Electric Home Laundry is. If you think you can make up an ad like this, send it along and if we like your idea we'll use it in 30 newspapers of this area.

In addition to giving you credit in the ad for your idea, we'll select the advertisement we think best and send its originator his choice of a toaster, table lamp, electric clock, or hand iron.

You don't have to be an artist . . . just make up any sort of rough drawing . . . cut pictures out of magazines or newspapers if you wish . . . then write the reasons why you like electric washers, dryers, ironers. That's all there is to it.

Hints: Most housewives prefer an All-Electric Home Laundry because it's (1) Clean, there's no smoke, soot or fumes; (2) Easily installed and moved . . . minimum plumbing and venting; (3) Safe; (4) Economical; (5) A vital part of your home's All-Electric Future. You don't have to use these features, however, in your ad. We want your ideas, so use your own imagination.

All entries must be received by January 31, 1959 and become the property of the Potomac Edison System Advertising Department.

If you want to become an ad writer, just send your ideas to: Advertising Department, The Potomac Edison Co., Hagerstown, Md.
