EARLY CHRISTMAS MAILING URGED

Postmaster Suggests Plans for Mailing

With the Yule season approaching many of our patrons have been inquiring how they can be of assistance to us during our busy season. The Post Office Department gladly offers the following suggestions to bear in mind when preparing your holiday mailings. Buy your stamps well in advance. Make sure your cards and letters all have stamps on them before depositing in the box for collection. Unsealed cards without writing other than your name, may be mailed for 3c but they cannot be forwarded or returned to you if undeliverable. Those bearing the letter rate of 4c can be forwarded or returned to you if undeliverable provided your return address appears thereon. All sealed cards and those containing writing must bear the letter rate of postage which is 4c.

You can further assist by separating your cards for "local" and "out of town" delivery. When your cards are ready to be mailed and with stamps affixed in the upper right hand corner, tie them in bundles with all addresses faced the same way. The P.O. Dept. provides labels free of charge reading "All for Local Delivery" and "All For Out of Town Delivery". We urgently ask every patron to secure these labels at the Post Office or through your local carrier. In using these labels, for example, all mail bearing the Taneytown address, both town and rural delivery should be placed in the pack labeled "All for Out of Town Delivery". All others of course would be placed in the pack labeled "All for Out of Town Delivery". These labels will be distributed to all patrons within the next few days.

In preparing your Xmas parcels select a sturdy container and wrap your packages in good heavy paper and tie with cord or strong twine so that they will reach their destination in good condition. Write or print the address on one side only and place your return address in the upper left hand corner. Avoid the use of oiled or waxed paper for the outside wrapper. A card may be placed inside the parcel containing your name and address. A letter may be enclosed in the parcel also, if you mark on the outside of the parcel, "First Class Mail Enclosed" and pay the rate for the letter plus the parcel post charge. Valuable packages should be insured. Notations such as "Do not open until Christmas", etc may also be written on the outside of the parcel.

ANNUAL THANK OFFERING SERVICE

The annual Thank Offering Service sponsored by the Trinity Mission Circle and the United Lutheran Church Women of Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, Md. will be held next Sunday, Nov. 30, at the 10 A.M. Service of Worship. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Oren Strine of Walkersville, Maryland. Mrs. Strine is an officer of the United Lutheran Church Women of Maryland Synod, and is an excellent speaker.

Those taking part in the service will be Mrs. Wilbur Naylor, Mrs. Robert Wantz, Mrs. Glenn Reeve, and Mrs. Stanley Jennings. All members are reminded to bring their Thank-offering envelopes.

Thank offering is a special expression of gratitude by the women of the church for all of the gifts and blessings that God showers upon his people. The theme, "A daily gift - a daily prayer - that all the world our Christ may share" expressed the real meaning of the gift.

ORGAN DEDICATED

A congregation moved with a rebirth of vocal praise to God in Heaven gave expression to its inner emotions of thanksgiving as Grace United Church of Christ dedicated a new Moller pipe organ and Schulmerich carillon bells on Sunday morning at its Lord's Day Worship.

The Rev. Dr. Frederick D. Eyster, president of Potomac Synod, highlighted the worship with the dedicatory address as he challenged the "congregation, which in recent years had added many new facilities and appointments not to relax over its fine achievements". He said, "you dare not boast in speaking of our strength, our might, our construction, our sacrifice—in providing these things".

Choosing as his text some of the final words of Jesus Christ he said, "Go ye, therefore"—challenging the congregation to "be the Church and fulfill the mission and function of the Church and accept the ministry of a Christian congregation wherein all have responsibilities which none can escape." The inspiring clergyman concluded his most appealing address by saying that just as the "organ and bells are dedicated to the Glory of God alone, so also must each one of us also be rededicated to God".

In the evening a most talented son of a Methodist parsonage, Mr. Robert J. Carwithen, organist of the Presbyterian Church at Swarthmore, Penna. (near Philadelphia) thrilled a most appreciative congregation who came from various communities at distances beyond Taneytown as he most humbly displayed his talents at the console to a better than capacity congregation after many chairs had to be set up in the sanctuary for the overflowing assembly. Many voiced themselves in saying, "He really made that organ talk".

His program was divided into the various seasons of the ecclesiastical year and he rendered numbers of both the timeless composers such as Brahms and Bach, and the more contemporary writers such as McCurdy, Purvis and Messiaen.

The congregation and the community in general have already indicated their satisfaction with the new organ and bells and chimes recently installed. An art-cast bronze tablet has been installed on the rear wall of the sanctuary, next to the tower, which reads "The Carillon Bells and Westminster Chime donated in 1958 by Mrs. Georgia Duttera Reaver are dedicated to the Glory of Almighty God in Memory of Mr. and Mrs. George Kohler Duttera and family and Mr. Stanley Clifford Reaver and in honor of Dr. Carroll Duttera Dem". Grace Church is sincerely grateful to Mrs. Reaver for her thoughtful generosity in providing this most worthwhile gift to the church and community. Down through the years and generations the causes of Christ and the Christian Church have gone forward and have been able to make an impression on the world as confessors and professors of Jesus Christ have lived by and practiced the principle of self-forgetting Christian stewardship.

KIWANIS CLUB HOLDS PANCAKE DAY

A successful pancake day was held this Saturday by local Kiwanis Club. Under the steady hand of Pancake flippers, Elwood, Harry, and Ned the pancakes flowed steadily. Many favorable comments were heard about the work of sausage frier Showman. Well over two hundred persons gathered to taste the Aunt Jemima cakes smothered in butter and Karo syrup. This day was possible due to the generous help of the Quaker Oats Co., the Karo Co., Pet Milk Co. and the Luzianne Coffee Co.

The Kiwanis Club wishes to thank everyone for their patronage and is looking forward to an even bigger pancake day in 1959.

Door prize winners were: Mr. John C. Duple, Mrs. Norris Sell, Mrs. Anna Foreman, Mr. Ted Jester, Sammy Reifsnider, Mr. Carroll Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Newcomer, Mrs. David Shaum.

TRUE TESTIMONY OF A TB PATIENT

Man Describes His Fight Against Dreaded Disease

I am a victim of tuberculosis. I am now only thirty-seven years of age. I enlisted in the Special Military Police of the Maryland State Guard. Shortly after the war broke out, December 7th, 1941, in perfect health at the age of twenty, after twenty-two months of service helping to enforce the laws and guard the vital installations of Maryland, I somehow contracted tuberculosis. I was given an honorable discharge and admitted to the State Sanatorium, which is now named the Victor Cullen State Hospital. The only treatment we got then was bed rest and a wholesome diet. I was discharged as a rested case in 1943 from the Howard County Health Department. In 1950 I was taken down again. I was admitted back here to Victor Cullen on July 3rd, near the point of death. Both lungs were lowered with tuberculosis, my throat was in bad shape with laryngeal tuberculosis, in fact, I could not talk above a whisper. I signed a medical application to take Streptomycin and P.A.S. solution which was still in the experimental stage. It healed my throat completely and I can talk good again. Between Streptomycin, P.A.S. Viomycin, it has added nine years to my life and it could perhaps add nine more with your support. TB has no mercy, regardless of age, creed or labor.

The development of new equipment, the discovery of new drugs and treatment run into very high finance, so when the 1958 Christmas Seal Sale comes around "Give so you can give" is a slogan that I may live and who knows, you or one of your family could be the next victim. The only way TB will ever be wiped out is by financial support and full cooperation of the patient. Your generous support will be highly solicited by me and many more like me.

Thank you kindly,
A TB Patient
Victor Cullen State Hospital
Cullen, Maryland
Dear Patient,
I received your most interesting letter. It was truly and clearly explained by you, just what you felt the Campaign's had done for you. We are hoping to make this year one of our most successful. I believe that in the past 15 years, the successful use of new drugs and new methods of treatment, have saved and are still saving many lives.

You, as a patient, know what the new drugs that are being used with success can do for you and many thousands more. With this in mind, we feel that this campaign must be continued from year to year, with good results, so that new equipment, drugs and help be given to all in need. It sounds from your letter that you have had your share of sickness, but the cooperation that you must you, I am sure, that in the near future, you will be back home again. Have faith and trust in God. This must be first and then the miracle of drugs, that are yet to come, will give you the courage to make this a successful recovery.

Thanking you for your thoughtful letter, I remain,
Sincerely yours,
Robert Lee Miller
Seal Sale Chairman
Carroll County
Tuberculosis Association

COVERED DISH SUPPER

The Taneytown Elementary P.T. A. held a covered dish supper on Thursday, Nov. 20 at 6:30 p. m. in vocation by Rev. Stanley Jennings; flag salute, singing of America, The Beautiful with Mrs. Frances Crawford at the piano.

Dinner, consisting of the following menu, was served to approximately 250 persons: meat loaf, baked beans, baked macaroni, potato salad, baked corn, cole slaw, sweet potatoes, apple sauce, carrot and celery sticks, coffee and cake.

Greetings were brought from the P.T. A. president, Mrs. Mildred Stine.

The school principal, Mr. Wargny, presented the guests.

Mr. James Fair acted as M. C. for the following program which was divided into two parts:

1. Ballet number by Karen Skiles; piano solo; Sandra Feeser; accordion solo; Carl Zentz; vocal solo, Gale Crabbs; piano solo, Susan Jennings; ballet number, Bobby Lyn Hopkins.

2. The second part of the program consisted of a short talk by Mr. Samuel M. Jenness, Supt. of Carroll Co. Schools. He talked on "Education in 1958". He compared the schools and their problems in 1958 with those in 1908.

The program concluded with singing "Auld Lang Syne".

Everyone agreed that it was a very enjoyable evening and that all of the committees are to be congratulated on a job well done.

The commonly designated "Irish potato" originally came from the mountains of Chile and Peru.

The English language has fewer definite standards of spelling than any other language, there being more exceptions to established rules.

"SPICE 'N EVERYTHING NICE"
With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Happy Thanksgiving Day! Go to church and Thank God for your many Blessings!

How beautiful the country is these days with the trees with their dresses of red and gold. There is something even about those falling leaves as one drives along! The "Last Rose of Summer" I picked at the bungalow!

A nice letter from Sammy Kaye with a large picture was a surprise to me and a very beautiful letter from Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt. She wears the "Otarion Listener" as she is deaf only in one ear.

Now, Mrs. Housewife, that old fashioned or Colonial curly feather pen is the rage today. That would make a nice gift for a special desk for a lady. They come in all colors. It really gives the desk a certain oomph

The stores these days are most Christmasy and yet there does not seem to be the crowds of last year unless it is a sale going on but, then many may not be shopping early.

In a near future column will begin Horoscopes for each month due to so many request and the first one will be Sagittarius, The Archer from Nov. 20 to Dec. 20, inclusive.

If you have not tried the delicious drink of "T A N G" put it on your next shopping list. Don't add much water. Ummmmmm GOOD!

Don't forget, Folks when you shop in town, park at the Lexington garage where every employee is most friendly and the rates much more reasonable. You park your own car right off of Paca Street. (Across from the Lexington Market.)

Last Sunday, Your Observer was a Guest at a very large Church wedding and the colors were quite unusual as to the gowns. The Matron of Honor was dressed in a beautiful olive shade of green and the bridesmaids were dressed in vivid red. It was really most striking with the bride and flower girl in white. Just different and that pleased all the ladies!

If you desire to see a grand show by all means see "Houseboat" with (Sophia Loren and Cary Grant (My favorite actor). You will see how flabbergasted a father can be with his little brood without a mother. (I know!) You will learn how he welcomes this girl (Sophia in his household and how he manages in the end to keep her right there. You will see a leaky boat and what anyone would call a "Wreck" transformed into something of beauty and that done gradually as the picture goes on. Don't miss it. I'll spoil the story if I tell you more!

As for "Love In A Tunnel!" there was drinking that went overboard and coming out of the theatre it left a bitter taste in one's mouth and I think you know just what I mean. All of that could have been omitted and frankly, I do think that is the real reason the theatres today are not crowded.

Up until now it meant that the telephone operator would get the number for me and it has been changed to dial. Now, I can get my own wrong number. Anyway, I surely will miss those kind operators in hearing the pleasant, "Number please?"

Well, folks, Your Observer predicted that the Dem's would slide right in and so—

Men who wear woolen socks do not have foot ills. Just change over to them, Gentlemen, and you will soon discover your feet will be "TOPS."

Mr. Auto Dealer, you still won't have to worry about selling those used cars. Grab all you can get for the Bus Service with that frightful fare is simply lousy! One waits on any corner for twenty full minutes and I have had much experience.

What a surprise walking along Lexington Street to come face to face with the Col. who recently was on the $64,000. question. Floyd A. Spencer who missed the last question of the "Gilbert and Sullivan" category.

What a disappointed man as I interviewed him and he still thought up to that time that he was right and he would get the money. The lady in the Booth with him was not a bit of help to him and he lost. Well, the show goes on and I think each one should stop if they get as far as that $32,000. question and be most satisfied. Oh?

Recently a little miniature magazine arrived in my mail which was a reproduction of that first magazine of "L I F E" The date Jan. 4, 1883.

Almost forgot to state that I saw that Gal, Brigitte in the show, "La Parisienne" and if she comes to America, I hope we all say, "Go Home, Brigitte Bardot, GO HOME!" I do not understand why these type of pictures are shown and really feel it is the foundation of all trouble of Teen-agers.

Thinking of dresses for evening wear, all the stores are showing the real Ball Gown of yesterday and they are truly Beautiful! So long, Folks until next week D.V. Have a grand week end. Until then.

I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

FACTS AND OPINIONS

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI has announced that special law enforcement conferences will be held wherein his organization will outline to state and local law enforcement officials the co-operative services the FBI provides in connection with bombings and theatre of bombings against educational and religious institutions. He believes these outrages can be materially reduced by an aroused public opinion, a co-ordinated effort on the part of Federal, state and local law enforcement agencies, and by stern treatment of the perpetrators.

How far can runaway inflation go? Germany has provided a classic example. Prior to the inflation that began in 1919, the mark was worth about 25 cents. In late 1953, it was valued at 4.2 billion to the dollar.

The 75th anniversary of Standard Time will occur on November 18th. On that day, in 1883, all railroad clocks in the United States were set to the then-new standard. Before that there were more than 100 different local times under which trains were being operated, to the continuing confusion of all concerned.

In 1957, customers spent 22 per cent of disposable income for food. But government studies show, they would have spent only 16 per cent if they had bought the same market basket of food they bought in 1935-39. In other words, American eating is being "graded up." In many European countries 50 per cent of income goes for food, and the figure is as high as 75 per cent in parts of the Middle East and Asia.

Changing Times reports that the cost of running state governments may total $25 billion this year—five times the 1946 figure. It adds that, as a rule, increased costs must be met with higher taxes, as most of the states have used up their surpluses and are in debt to the hilt.

The highest court in Maryland has unanimously ruled that a 4 per cent sales tax and a 2 per cent gross receipts levy on advertising imposed by Baltimore is unconstitutional insofar as they apply to newspapers, radio and TV stations, and their customers.

From Farm Journal: 'Government agents in Indiana improved the two tractors that a farmer owns. In Michigan, they tie up farmers $3,400 bank account. Two Oklahoma ranchers are hauled into court in Dallas, Tex., and sued for $502.06.

"What crimes did these men commit? They planted wheat beyond the 30-acre limit, to feed their own stock, without a government permit or allotment! Government agents aren't to blame—they're only enforcing a law that Congress passed. Nevertheless in this land of the free such events seem incredible! How ridiculous can a law get? When the lawmakers return in January let's change it."

An executive of one of the country's largest advertising agencies says this is the "saddest year" in TV history, with program quality and public interest both sinking. He added that it might be a good idea for newspapers to stress the value of their departments as the best selling climate for advertisers who have cooled toward TV. Magazines are aggressively doing that.

The longest tug-of-war ever contested lasted two hours 41 minutes, and took place in India in 1889 between two companies of British infantry.

Fashions: frankly

by Pat Reardon

Come, dear readers, fly with me to Paris today. Gay Paris, fashion capital of the world. You will burst with excitement over the breathless prettiness of the new Queen Josephine Empire fashion treasures. Let us discover them together, for you to wear now, and throughout the year.

We start right at the top of Parisian fashion. See the old world elegance of the mighty Lanvin-Castillo with his little daytime jacket dresses in rich damask fabrics. Now the collections of Laroche, Balmain and Patou who give us the pretty high waisted EMPIRE look. They are fashioned of little bodices, brief jackets, free and easy (though shorter) skirts.

And now, back home again, let us stroll through the pages of McCall's Magazine to see their clever adaptations by our American designers . . . and at such attractive prices!

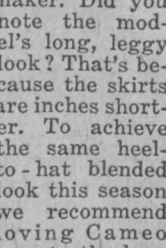

For the girl who knows clothes, says R&K Originals, there is this darling little bodice-loving Empire drape in butter-soft wool and rabbit hair fabric, set off with two jeweled accents. What smarter way to go to town . . . and to dinner with best beau!

Sh-h-h, we hear a pretty girl coming! Harken to the rustle sweep of her pure silk surrah skirt in a new pin wheel print design. See the high-rise Empire wedding-band waistline and the ever pretty décolletage. You will adore these R&K's and many more in your favorite shops. Done up so prettily with their own sweet touches of shirring, bows, and tucks, we call them the "AMERICAN EMPIRE" look. And at only $20 to $30 in a full range of sizes.

A pretty dress deserves a pretty coat, and especially when it's designed by the g-r-e-a-t Balenciaga himself, out of luxurious Borgana. Only between $80 and $90 because Balenciaga styling has been brought to America by Dave Bellsey in line-for-line originals! Superb tailoring detail in the banding together of Empire with the Chemise line. Note the waistline tabs! Caress your face in the soft, toasty warm Borgana. Fulfills your desire for expensive furs. Ask to see other Borgana makes. You'll love their easy-to-care for shades.

The best Empire line must start with the best foundation. That's why we turn to the Promise High-Rise girdle by Poirette. Superb construction in only 2½ ounces of waist-cuddling dacron and elastic. Ask to see the exclusive Biaband control feature which slims inches off from mid-riff to mid-thigh. And only $16.50 for this wonderful Empire maker. Did you note the model's long, leggy look? That's because the skirts are inches shorter. To achieve the same heel-to-hat blend look this season we recommend loving Cameo care to the hosiery issue. By Bur-Mil, these stockings are seamed and seamless, in an exciting collection of hues just for you.

Christmas Merry Ice Cream Snowmen

ICE CREAM SNOWMEN are a refreshing dessert at a holiday dinner. They are delightful surprise refreshments at a children's party, too. With a couple of trays of ice cream in the refrigerator they're easy to make—a scoopful of ice cream with features of maraschino cherries, well drained and chilled, makes each snowman easy to assemble in a jiffy.

You can be sure of velvety smooth ice cream if you make it with condensed milk. It needs only one beating while freezing, and it's always delicious.

MAGIC SNOWMAN ICE CREAM

(Makes 1½ pints)

½ cup (½ 15-oz. can) sweetened condensed milk
1½ teaspoons vanilla extract
½ cup water
1 cup heavy cream

Set refrigerator control at coldest point. Combine sweetened condensed milk, water and vanilla. Whip cream to custard-like consistency. Fold into chilled mixture. Pour into freezing tray. Cover tray with waxed paper. Freeze to a firm mush, about 1 hour. Turn into chilled bowl. Break up with fork, then beat with rotary egg beater until fluffy but not melted. Quickly return to tray, cover tray with waxed paper. Return to freezing unit. Freeze until firm.

Why Give Thanks?
The giving of thanks is one of the signs of normality, the thankless man is abnormal, ingratitude, which has no sense of dependence of obligation, it absorbs all and returns nothing but a repugnant glare.

The life that never responds, to which there comes no season of growth and bursting flowers and singing birds, is a life of selfishness, isolated, out of harmony with the great reciprocating universe with which it should be vitally associated.

The spirit of thanksgiving has wings it soars and sings, and from each loftier height pours out its grateful joy.

A happy Thanksgiving to the editor and co-workers and all the readers.

IN MEMORIAM

BAKER—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, CHARLES A. BAKER, who departed this life, six years ago, November 7, 1952.

Today recalls sad memories,
Of a loved one gone to rest,
And the ones who think of him today
Are the ones who loved him best.

A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness,
The world can never fill.

They say time heals all sorrow,
And helps to forget,
But time so far has only proven,
How much we miss him yet.

Rest in peace, your cares are ended,
Rest in peace, your work is done,
You are gone, and those that loved you,
Will be coming one by one.

By his loving WIFE and CHILDREN.

LIONS OBSERVE THANKSGIVING AT TANEY INN

Kenneth R. Gilds in charge of the program.

Two visiting delegations of Lions were recognized by President Dunham, namely Lions Frank Bohn, Paul Bowman, and Ralph Cartzenfander from Union Bridge, and Lions Hefner, Kirchner, and Wright of the Libertytown-Unionville club. A note from Frederick Lions advertised their Pancake Day on Sat., Dec. 6, of particular interest to sportsmen, since the hours of serving are 3:00 A. M. to 7:00 P. M.

Zone Chairman Harry B. Dougherty, Taneytown, took advantage of a rare privilege to present 10-year perfect attendance pins to Homer Y. Myers, Harry I. Reindollar, Norman R. Sauble, and Kenneth C. Shorb. President Dunham then elicited from Murray M. Baumgardner a brief report of the favorable reception accorded by the County Commissioners to his PTA committee's plea on behalf of the plight of the high school in some special equipment needs. All members were urged to pick up their fruitcakes for holiday sale from Chairman David B. Shaum, who brought a supply from his store to the meeting for his fellow members' convenience. A club attendance award plaque for the third successive year of 100% attendance received from Lions International, Chicago, was unveiled by the president before members and guests, after which he handed over the gavel to program chairman Gilds for introduction of the speaker.

The Rev. Mr. Hendricks is minister of the Taneytown and Emmitsburg Presbyterian churches, having been graduated from Penn State and Pittsburgh's Xenia seminary. His message recalled many little known facts about how Thanksgiving came to be the legal holiday it now is. It began, in a sense, with the persecution of our Pilgrim forefathers by the Puritans, causing them to flee England for Leyden, Holland, eventually heading for America in the Mayflower, a ship but 24 by 50 feet, yet holding 110 persons, 53 of them men. Touching at Provincetown, they sailed across the bay at Plymouth, named after the English port where they had lain at anchor for a month prior to sailing in 1620 on Aug. 18 for a 128-day crossing. With no protection aboardship from wind or storm but the scanty stern galley where stood the helmsman, after a hard winter in which half had died by March 1, yet, following a bountiful harvest from 20 acres of corn and 6 of barley and peas (the peas were a total loss), none wanted to return to England the following November. Their blessings were so patent, in their eyes, that they must give thanks to God, 53 whites in company with 91 Indians, headed by Massasoit, red tutor in the art of growing maize, and for 5 days the first Thanksgiving began each morning with a period of worship. Periodically presidents proclaimed days of thanksgiving, until Congress in 1941 set officially aside the fourth Thursday of November, which we observe in this age, like the ancient Jews did on their Feast of Tabernacles.

Concluding his remarks with a family anecdote of the orphan nephew who said "Too much", when confronted with a plethora of gifts, he urged each one to stop and render thanks for the unbelievable abundance he enjoys. He comes into the world with nothing; he leaves with nothing; whatever one sees before him are gifts from on high.

MARY E. STONESIFER EXHIBITS RESERVE CHAMPION 4-H SHORTHORN

Mary Ellen Stonesifer, daughter of Mr. Earl Stonesifer, Taneytown, and a member of the Taneytown 4-H Club, exhibited the Reserve Champion 4-H Shorthorn Steer at the Eastern National Livestock Show at Timonium Fair Grounds, on November 17, 1958. Of the 21 entries in the lightweight class, Mary Ellen's steer was first, receiving $30.00 premium money, plus additional premiums given by the Shorthorn Breeders Association.

Of the 17 Carroll County 4-H beef entries, Miss Stonesifer's steers was the one receiving highest honors. Other 4-H club entries were as follows: from the Hampstead Boys' 4-H Club, shorthorn steers owned by Ralph Dull, Donald Lippy, Wayne Rill; from the Taneytown 4-H Club E. Kenneth Stonesifer, Betty Stonesifer, Angus steers; from Woodbine 4-H Club, Ralph Murray, Allen Murray, Howard Murray; from the Hampstead Boys' 4-H Club, Donald Lippy, Carl Rill; from the Bachman's Valley 4-H Club, Michael Hull; Hereford steers from the Freedom-Sykesville 4-H Club, Warren Seymour Percy Ames, Jr.; from the Pleasant Valley 4-H Club, Edmund Dutterer.

The Swine entries were as follows: from the Harney 4-H Club, Merle Weant, Clyde Weant, from the Taneytown 4-H Club, Richard Feeser, Franklin Feeser; from the Sales 4-H Club, James R. Hoff.

The above 4-H Club members of Carroll County received a total of over $600 in premiums, winning approximately $200 in beef and $400 in swine.

WHAT THANKSGIVING MEANS TO ME

Dianne Null—7X

To some people Thanksgiving means a big meal and a long nap. To others it means a four day vacation and rest. To others it means less than this. But to me it means many things.

Having a special day set aside for giving thanks gives me a chance to stop and think of all these things. I am thankful for being a citizen in a land of plenty because I realize there are many countries in which the people have little to eat and insufficient clothing to wear. I am thankful that the things I need and desire are always there whenever I have need of them.

I am also thankful for freedom in the United States because I know there are many countries in which the citizens do not have the privilege to say and do as they wish. I am thankful that I will have the chance to choose the occupation I desire when I grow up.

I am thankful for the chance to laugh, have fun, and enjoy all the little things that make life so pleasant.

And most important of all, I am thankful I can worship as I choose.

On this Thanksgiving Day let us all take stock of our blessings and be grateful for a country in which we can all "praise God from whom all blessings flow".

(This article is from the 7th Grade English Class on the topic "What Thanksgiving Means to Me" and was selected as the best.—Ed.)

MILESTONE EVENT

Mrs. John T. Doukas, director of the Carroll County Association for Retarded Children's new Baile Hall Center, greets the children on opening day. They are being assisted by the two station wagon drivers, Mrs. Lula Mullinix, center, and Mrs. James Strine, right. This is another activity to be supported by monies donated during the present annual fund campaign 16-29 November 1958. Enrollees include those children no longer eligible for public school classes because of age or degree of retardation but who will benefit from special training. No state or county funds are available for this facility.

C. E. THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The Thanksgiving service sponsored by the Carroll County Christian Endeavor Union was well attended at the Wakefield Church of God Sunday night.

The Rev. David L. Ring, pastor of the Church of God at Carrollton, spoke on the subject, "The Offering of Thanksgiving." Special musical selections were: vocal trio by the ladies of the EUB church at Millers, with Mrs. Richard Hawn, accompanist and trumpet selections by Richard Bowers, Carrollton Church of God.

County President Roger L. Boone presided and read Scripture and the Maryland State Union C. E. President, Herbert Wilson, offered prayer. Wilson announced the state C. E. convention, to be held at Hilltop Ranch, Colora, Md., the last week in September and that the International Society of Christian Endeavor will hold a convention July 6 at Philadelphia. Boone announced the events for the County Union, that of the Christmas Candlelight service, Dec. 7 at the Westminster Church of God and that the C. E. Week banquet Jan. 22. C. E. Week will be Jan. 25 to Feb. 1. Officers of the County union met at the home of Miss Mabel R. Albert, Westminster.

"OTHERS"

The Salvation Army, continually working among the less fortunate, has knowledge of the most worthy families in a community. Because of years of practical experience with the support of many friends, this organization is able to give immediate relief in most every emergency. The despondent receive hope and encouragement, spiritual uplift, and essential material aid including food, clothing, shelter, and furniture.

Here is an actual Carroll County case: A young woman with her five month old baby came to a local S. A. welfare secretary in distress. A couple of rooms had been provided for them in the community. During an interview it was found that furniture was the great need. Making a list of what was essential, including a bed, a crib, table and chairs, a gas stove, and a refrigerator, the local worker set about to meet the need. Within a few days, a Salvation Army truck from the Baltimore Social Service Center delivered to the young mother the entire list of pieces requested.

And so, many are assisted in the making of life. The Army's strength is in its faith. The sinews are the gifts that friends provide. The Carroll County Service Unit, with the help of the people of the county, will continue to serve. "Inasmuch as ye do unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me."

Mr. Taylor expressed the many significant changes he has noted from his life on a farm in Virginia to the present day. He noted that the farmer of today is considered to be an important business man, which was not true at one time. Indications of this can be seen in the numbers of persons who are leaving the cities for the business of farming.

A SALUTE TO CONGRESS

The 85th Congress heads for home and the election campaigning with a record of accomplishments that has earned the respect of everyone who has worked closely with it.

Few Congresses in history have faced up to more critical problems, or worked more strenuously to solve them. At the start of the second session early this year the most urgent problems were the Russian sputniks and the deepening economic recession.

Congress was caught in a dilemma between the two. There were urgent demands for more government spending to meet the Russian missiles threat and, at the same time, an insistent public clamor for tax reductions to counter the recession.

Growing unemployment was a serious problem. More than five million people were without jobs. Industrial production was declining. There were demands for increased unemployment and other social security benefits.

Foreign Aid

With economic troubles at home and growing communist activities in nations friendly to the U. S., Congress debated whether to continue spending billions of dollars to bolster the economy and military strength of the alliance of Western nations.

The decision to expand our missiles research and, at the same time, continue economic and military assistance to friendly nations, meant (1) no general tax reduction and (2) a substantial increase in the national debt.

Those were difficult decisions, and more especially in a year in which all of the House members and one-third of the Senators must face voters in re-election campaigns. It took statesmanship of a high order to make them.

The crisis in which we sent troops into the Middle East during the latter days of the session brought closer the threat of World War III. The decision to defend the freedom of friendly small nations was one in which the Congress concurred with the President.

Record Work Load

Even without those major decisions to be made, the 85th would have been one of the busiest on record. More than 17,000 bills were introduced during the two years it served.

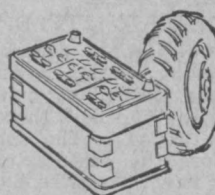

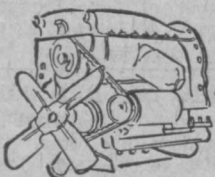

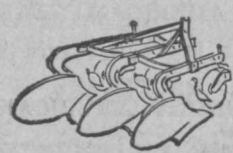

Among them were bills to reorganize the Pentagon defense setup, raise the pay of government workers, new farm legislation, anti-racketeering labor legislation, extension of the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, a $2.5 billion public works program, and a $40 billion national defense budget.

Each of those bills received careful consideration by committees. Some involved weeks and months of hearings, then long debate in the Senate and House. Congress did a tremendous amount of work in the seven and a half months between convening in January and the end of the session.

How To Store And Save

Improper storage of farm machinery in the off season is often the cause of costly repairs and premature wear-out. In extreme cases, according to J. Zimmerman, general manager, Massey-Ferguson Service, expenses resulting from improper storage can mean the difference between profit and loss.

The Massey-Ferguson service expert offers the following reminders to preserve farm equipment and machinery while in storage.

- 1 Implements—clean and coat with a light grease or lubricating oil to prevent rusting.
- 2 Engines—drain cooling system or protect with high grade anti-freeze. Apply a rust preventative oil. Drain fueling system—start engine and operate 'til carburetor runs dry.
- 3 Belts — loosen tension; clean off grease and oil.
- 4 Chains — clean thoroughly with solvent, then apply light weight lubricating oil to prevent rusting.
- 5 Tires — place sufficient blocking material under axle to relieve tires from weight of machine while in storage.
- 6 Batteries—remove and store where they won't freeze; recharge at 30-day intervals.
- 7 All machinery—store under weatherproof covering.

WORKING TOWARD YOUR CAREER

A Public Service Feature from New York Life Insurance Company

SHOULD YOU BE A SECRETARY?

A woman's career in a man's world. That is how the secretarial profession is described by Clare H. Jennings, president of the National Secretaries Association (International), and author of one of a series of brochures on career opportunities.

prepared as a public service by New York Life Insurance Company.

"In many professions," Miss Jennings says, "women are in constant competition against men. The secretary works with men. Ours is one of the very few professions where being a woman is of greatest advantage, rather than being a subtle handicap in reaching the top. Employers value the feminine qualities of tact, intuition, imagination and manner that women bring to an office."

According to Miss Jennings, who is a certified professional secretary, the girl who finds her greatest reward in being a part of a team, rather than a solo star, shows the natural talent to work for and with others toward a joint goal that is essential to success as a secretary. She describes loyalty, judgment, integrity and adaptability as the special qualities a secretary needs for success.

"The girl who makes and keeps many friends, and who sticks up for them and for her family at all times, shows the loyalty in word and deed that a secretary must bring to her boss," says Miss Jennings.

She adds that a successful secretary must be able to "accept sudden changes of plan amiably and without flurry" and be able to "turn on a dime" and work efficiently under heavy pressure "when an emergency challenges her chief." She must also be accurate, neat and prompt in her work.

Miss Jennings advises a girl to "approach secretaryship as her chosen career and not as a stopgap before marriage, or as a stepping stone to other positions." For the ambitious girl who has prepared herself for advancement, the financial rewards can be sizeable, she points out. Although salaries above $6,000 a year are the exception and not the rule, several secretaries earn $10,000 annually, and it is possible for the outstanding secretary to go even higher.

In their effort to keep the calorie-count down, many persons who are dieting tend to cut corners on nutrition, too, not realizing that they are depriving themselves of the food elements which are so vital to good health. The wise homemaker, however, never loses sight of the body's requirements for nourishment and plans her menus carefully so that every meal, while low in calories, carries to her family its share of health-giving vitamins and minerals.

One breakfast menu which is popular among these homemakers... and popular with their families, too... is a cool, refreshing glass of fruit juice, Kellogg's Special K (ready-to-eat high protein cereal), poached egg on toast and a beverage. Plan to serve this breakfast to your family too, for, dieting or not, it's the healthful start for everybody's day.

Why Parables?

Lesson for November 30, 1958

LIKE all good teachers, Jesus was not tied to any one style of teaching. But his favorite style was the story style. To some people this seems puzzling, as if Jesus were almost forgetting his divine dignity. You can imagine some Roman intelligence officer, on the alert for suspiciously large gatherings of restless orientals, going down to the lakeside to hear what was going on that was attracting such large crowds. Some political agitator, maybe? Or maybe only a traveling magician. But he would find neither. Only a man in a fisherman's boat, his great voice (for outdoor speakers in those days had to have tremendous voices) booming out over the crowd—of all things just telling stories. Very simple stories too, no plot to speak of, no dramatics. Just stories about farmers and wheat and housewives and fish... everyday things, harmless and (from the Roman's viewpoint) meaningless.

Dr. Foreman

For Simplicity

"So this is their great Teacher!" the Roman would think to himself. "Well, he may be all right for farmers. There's surely no harm in him." The Roman would not realize that he was listening to the greatest teacher of all time, and that in those simple stories, or thumb-nail illustrations, which we call parables, were wrapped up ideas which were destined to change the world.

Why did Jesus choose the story style for his teaching? He could teach with parables, as for instance in parts of the sermon on the mount. But according to Mark, he never spoke without a parable somewhere in his talk. One reason why he did this was for simplicity's sake. The story reduces down a complicated idea, high-lights the heart of it. People who have difficulty following or remembering a lecture will remember a story.

For Survival

There are still on record the sermons of some of the rabbis who lived and taught about at the same time with Jesus. They are pretty impressive for their scholarship, their quotations from authorities, their ponderous correctness. But nobody would remember them. They are literally curiosities today, little more. Jesus' little stories on the other hand, are memorable. They have passed into the language and culture of many lands, they have inspired works of art, they comfort the grieving, rebuke the sinful, give a lift to weary hearts.

Strange things have happened to the human race, and will still happen. Our ancestors would find it hard to find their way around our electronic world, and lectures in our class-rooms would bewilder them. If Jesus had spoken in the learned terms of his day, his teachings would have been laid away in obscure libraries like the lectures of other teachers of that time. But speaking as he did, in story form, his teaching endures to this very day, and will be understood in the space-age of the future, if the world lasts so long. Lectures die; stories survive.

For Selection

You remember our imaginary Roman official who went off thinking what a stupid affair this story-telling was? That was part of Jesus' intention. The reader will notice that it was not the Roman official, it was not the chief priests, it was the disciples, who stayed for an after-meeting and asked what Jesus meant by his parables. Jesus' main effort in teaching was to get at his own inner circle of followers. He wanted to stir their interest and curiosity, and at the same time let the careless, the indifferent, the hostile, go their way. The story style which he made his own, was just right for this purpose. The parables were like magnets that would attract only the men with true steel in them. The sophisticated, the know-it-alls, then and now, hearing or reading the parables, think only "What simple stuff!" But the people who are attracted by these tales and feel there is something beneath the surface, find in them a wisdom beyond this world. They are as clear as the night sky through which we see the story of the stars.

GOD AND HIS PLAN—

When God created the "Christ Child" it was His plan To give Him a home, and, call His body man; So, He sent Jesus to show how mortal man must be Through all the ages of Time and Eternity.

The whole thing to me is as plain as a-b-c— To be one of God's sons, like Jesus, man must be The Bible says Jesus came to show us the way We all must be in the endless Day.

The real you lives in your body year after year; That is why God keeps sending you here; So, try to make this wonderful body of clay A body which shall never go to decay.

That is why God sends all His Sons down here— (His reason for doing so is to me quite clear); We must learn to be like Him—(Don't you see?) How else could one live through Eternity?

Jesus told many things about our Great God Who uses love for persuasion—(not the iron rod!); So, let us all like Jesus try to be; And, make ourselves fit for Eternity.

There are many lessons on earth we must learn— (That is why the fires of hell still burn?); God knew that, like Jesus, we all must be Else we could not live in Eternity.

In a perfect body mortal man must be To meet all the tests of Eternity; So long as we listen to self, and do as men say We shall have bodies which will go to decay.

Jesus said to all peoples: "I am the way"; So, let us do as He did, from day to day; His whole life was spent doing good; they say He even made cures, after He went away!

There are many secrets in God's Great plan Of how to make one's self a superman; But, the greatest secret for one and all Is, to show Love and Mercy, on this great ball.

Our God is Love, the Scriptures also say; So, to emulate Him, there is no other way; And, unless we do, the savants all say, The bells of peace shall not ring in our day.

What a wonderful world this old earth shall be When the time arrives for its great jubilee! Even the wild animals shall learn of God's plan— The Bible says they shall all become pets of man.

When the earth shall furnish its own light, We shall have constant day—nevermore night! That, alone, gives a hint of how things shall be Through all the long years of Eternity.

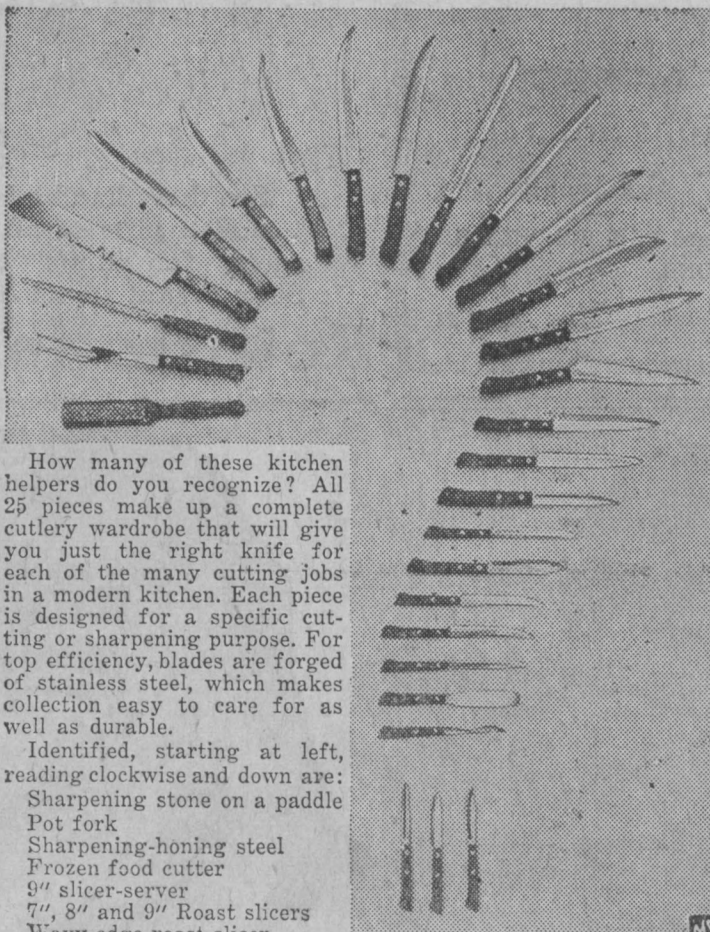

So, study the Scriptures!—(put in practice the plan) To make of yourself a perfect man!; For, so, God intends, all His sons shall be At the end of Time and through all Eternity.

God is still pictured as a Tyrant, by some, on this sod; But, those who do so, do not know our God; "God is Love"; and, all of the things I see Prove, that His only thought is of you and me.

Then, let us forget what the ancients have said— Our God is a God of the Living—not a God of the dead! His only thought now is of you and me; And, so it shall be, through all Eternity.
