GRASS ROOTS OPINIONS

RICHMOND, LA., BEACON NEWS: "Whether one realizes it or not, advertising is perhaps the most wonderful development of the modern commercial age. It is the maker or breaker of business, big or little. It is the one factor of successful sales that is most apt to be overlooked by the merchants and businessmen of small towns and cities.

"Advertising is.....the power that will make little concerns grow into larger success. It is a science that requires study and be it said, character. It cannot succeed if it is based upon untruth; it must build upon faith and integrity.'

KNOXVILLE, IOWA, EXPRESS: "The railroad workers we fear are fighting a losing battle. Excitedly they are battling against every effort of the railroads to eliminate unnecessary jobs in operation, but with rail lines being abandoned in many places it looks like the railroads are faced by necessity to do this. Modern equipment has done away with firemen on the old coal-burning engines and no one expects him to keep a job for sentimental reasons.' DUBLIN, GA., COURIER-HER-ALD: "Labor Party's No. 2 man in Britain, Aneurin Bevan, notoriously anti-American.....blamed the defeat of his party's candidates on America. Said the labor party leader: 'The overwhelming majority of them (British voters) are in debt, either buying their homes on heavy mortgages and for buying domestic equipment and gadgets of all sorts on installment. This section of the population has become thoroughly Americanized, it's chief ingredients consist of a brash materialism, shot through with fear.

"Mr. Bevan failed to note that installment buying is prompted by a firm belief in the future rather than fear, and we cannot see that being Americanized in the sense that one seeks the better and more comfortable things in life can ever be an evil."

TRENTWOOD, WN., ROLLING VIEWS: "American industry's lead in productivity is the reason why American workers have been able to earn considerably more than workers in other countries."

TERRE HAUTE, IND., ADVO-CATE: "The hunting season is here, and each year millions of Americans look forward to it. Unfortunately, hunting accidents.....have multiplied to an alarming degree-mainly because the number of hunters has increased.'

PRIEST RIVER, IDAHO, TIMES: "One parent we know thinks it only fair to apply a withhold tax to the youngster's allowance just so the younger generation can get gradually accustomed to a procedure to which adults are now hardened."

SALMON, IDAHO, RECORDER-HERALD: "The men who laid the foundation for these United States treasured and gave their lives for a democratic, free way of life. It is the responsibility of us all to preserve this government as they intended it

MORAN, KANS., SENTINEL: "It has been said that every congressman needs 10 assistants on his staff-one to answer his correspondence and nine to assist him in deciding on what to promise in the next campaign."

NORWALK, CONN., HOUR: "This is a land of free speech and free prophecy, too. Anybody can make guesses about what's going to happen. What's going to happen next to the shape of automobiles?

"Will many new yearly models come and go before the advertisements begin putting delicate emphasis on a person's not having to bend double to enter a car-and on his having plenty of headroom once he's seated?"

With one such kit, evergreen branches, pine cones, candles, or almost any material can be sprayed with a liquid adhesive and sprinkled with tiny red and white pellets to impart the effect of fallen snow and holly berries. Called "Holiday Sprinkles," it's a kit that is available at low cost in department stores, and at food and variety chain stores.

An ordinary door wreath, or a simple arrangement of needled branches can be given a professional glitter if treated in

The adhesive and pellets can, If they're gay and original, moreover, be applied directly to wood or glass and later removed with common soap or detergents and leave no scars. Thus, a design or message can be written on a picture window, a mirror or glass table-top to help impart a Christmasy atmosphere -and be quickly removed after the holidays.

Fortunately, too, both spray and pellets are both fireproof and non-toxic. Small children, or pets, who like to gobble up everything in sight during the holidays won't be injured if they should swallow a few.

As for stretching your imagination on Christmas decorations—the task is lightened immeasurably by a folder of instructions and suggestions for creating various items right in the package. You can deck the halls with holly almost painlessly.

Christmas Safety Junior Fire Marshal Goal

TV personality Art Linkletter, author of the recent best-seller "The Secret World of Kids," has learned in show business that children are pretty savvy. An example of the wisdom of youth, he says, is the current Christmas safety campaign being waged by the nation's more than 3,000,000 Junior Fire Marshals. Here Art helps two honorary Junior Fire Marshals attach a "Golden Rule for a Happy Yule" safety tag to a Christmas tree on sale in their home town. The tag lists seven rules to prevent home in their home town. The tag lists seven rules to prevent home fires during the holiday season. This tagging activity is but one phase of the year-round public service Junior Fire Marshal program sponsored by the Hartford Fire Insurance Company.

Did You Wonder Why Santa Drops Gifts Down Chimney?

How did it come about that Santa drops his gifts down the chim-

For the answer to this common belief about Santa and Christmas, we must go back to Saint Nicholas, responsible for so many other customs related to Christmas.

There's a story about an impoverished nobleman who was unable to find husbands for his three daughters because he could not afford a dowry for each. He was about to sell the daughters into slavery when St. Nicholas heard about it. Silently, Old Saint Nick dropped three bags of gold down the chimney. All three daughters married and lived hap ever after.

Thereafter, Saint Nicholas was often pictured holding three bags of gold. It is thought that he died about 343 A.D. and historians say that for 30 days after his death his genial spirit roamed the earth, filling the hearts of mankind with love and generosity.

It could be said that St. Nick and Dr. Clement Moore, who wrote "A Visit From Saint Nicholas" (now better known as "'Twas the Night Before Christmas") contributed most to our present concept of Santa Claus.

A Tip For Santas Everywhere

Singing star Teresa Brewer gives Santa an important Christmas assignment—the delivery of a United States Savings Bond to each of her four children. The lovely recording artist, whose inimitable style has thrilled millions on radio and television, thinks that the now better-than-ever Savings Bonds make ideal Christmas gifts for children and adults alike. "They are the present with a future," Teresa says, "the one that keeps on giving." She recommends Savings Bonds to all Americans as the ideal Christmas gift.

A Suntan at Christmas Time

You can give a suntan to someone this Christmas by making a present of this handsomely styled sunlamp—the "Hanovia". A full spectrum of both tanning and health giving ultraviolet rays are produced by a fused quartz mercury arc tube of the same type found in professional lamps used by hospitals. Attractively modern in black and chromium, the new gift item is compact and weighs less than a pound. Power requirement is regular 110-120 volt alternating house current. Latest in the famous 50-yearold line of health lamps manufactured by the Hanovia Lamp Division of Engelhard Industries, Inc., the lamp is widely available in leading appliance, drug and department stores,

Mr. and Mrs. William Fleharty and children Wayne, Ellen and Bruce, Forest and Stream Club road, visited on Friday evening and on Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun and family, Keysville-Detour road.

Mrs. Luther Keeney, Keysville-Taneytown road took a trip to Har-risburg, Pa., on Saturday. The Keeney's daughter, Mrs. (Harold) Sylvia Hanson, is attending Beauti-cian's School in Harrisburg, Pa., as well as being a telephone operator in Gettysburg.

Fred Wilhide, a seller of Christmas trees from Indiana, Pa., spent from Friday until Monday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide, Keysville. Fred visited other relatives over the week-end too, as well seeing many of his friends and relatives when he attended Keysville Lutheran Church.

The remark made by Jane Wilhide "DeShields House in Detour looks just like a picture" is so true. As you travel from Keymar to Detour, just as you reach the top of the hill at Longs, the DeShields home comes into view. The entire front is in a blaze of light and the house seems to be hanging in space because the hill upon which it sits is not visible. Santa is in his sleigh at Longs. The Detour Bank is very beautifully decorated this year, as are many of the homes in Detour. Santa is on his ladder again at the Edward Coshuns.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Overholtzer, of Harney are receiving congratula-tions upon the birth of a daughter, Cindy, last Friday at Gettysburg. The Overholtzers have one other daughter, Kathy. Mrs. Overholtzer is the daughter of Mrs. Virgie Ohler,

The Keysville - Detour Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Hubert Null, Taneytown with Mrs. Charles Null as the co-hostess on Dec. 17th. Mrs. Null had a full house with a large number of guests as well as members being here. Mrs. Grier Keilholtz, although a member is seldom in attendance, was present, others were Mrs. Emma Ritter, Mrs. DeShield, Mrs. Charles Null's mother, a neighbor of Mrs. Clarence Jackson, there may be others (Mrs. Coshun couldn't recall any more at the time). Mrs. Harvey, a guest, was in charge of the games. The home was decorated very nicely in the Christmas fashion. Gifts were exchanged and very delicious and pretty refreshments were served. Carroll Wilhide and Beth visited on Sunday at the home of his uncle, Mr. Edward J. Clabaugh, junction Naylor's Mill road and Six's Bridge road—the Charles Clabaugh home Beth visited with her cousin, Connie. Beverly Priest, daughter of Mr.

dinner on Sunday.

There is a hush that comes on Christmas Eve — Life's hurry and its stress grow far away; And something in the silence seems to weave a mood akin to sadness, yet we say A "Merry Christmas" to the friends we meet and all the while we feel that mystic spell, as if the Christ child came or noiseless feet, with something old, yet ever new, to tell — The eyes grow misty, yet they shed no tear, And those that we have lost, somehow seem near. — Margaret E. Bruner. I'm wishing for the Record, the staff it's correspondents and all the readers — A very Merry Christmas, a happy, and healthv New Year.

This year, by agreement with the participating colleges, one examination will be held for both scholarship programs. A student who wishes to become a candidate for either a Teacher-Education Scholarship, a Senatorial Scholarship, or both, must take the examination on February 27 in any one of the 24 local test centers. Test centers will be located in each county and in Baltimore City.

Application forms and further in-formation concerning the two scholarship programs wil be available at the local public and nonpublic secondary schools and participating colleges early in January. Those who intend to take the test in Carroll County will need to submit applications and will be requested to appear for the examination at the Westminster Senior High School, ed band adorned with seed pearls and couselors or principals in the Carecondary Schools, or to the Office of the Board of Education in the County Office Building, Westminster, Maryland.

In memory of my dear Husband GEORGE MARLIN FAIR Who passed away 2 years. Dec. 26, 1957.

Loving memories never die, As years roll on and days pass by In my heart you linger yet and never will I forget.

The days and nights are long, and drear since you were called away You're in my heart and thoughts each day. And always will abode there to stay.

Into Heaven's Mansion he has entered. Never to sigh nor weep. After one year of suffering.

Away upon a Journey. To a land that is bright and fair. And tho we all do miss you here. We know you are happy there.

Insulation Sure Cure For Shivers

Doctors agree that among the worst culprits responsible for family colds and related illnesses are chilling drafts inside the home.

It's a scientific fact that un-healthy drafts can occur in a house even when all doors and windows are closed. Here's how this can work: Walls with little or no insula-tion stay cold in winter, even in a heated room. The heated air is chilled when it touches the cold walls and falls rapidly to the floor, scudding across room in a chilling, unhealthy

Byron Grossnickle Mary Wharff

Two north Maryland 4-H en-thusiasts are about to reap greater rewards for their combined 19 years in 4-H activities.

Mary Jane Wharff, 16, of Wood-Mary Jane Whall, 16, by Woods bine, and Eyron Grossnickle, 20, of Union Bridge will be in Chicago Nov. 29-Dec. 3 to attend the National 4-H Club Congress and match their 1959 state awardwinning projects with entries from across the U.S. and Puerto Rick The envoyingment comes Rico. The announcement comes from the State Extension office.

They will make the Chicago trip because they have been declared tops in Maryland for their electric and swine projects. They will compete for $400 national scholarships.

whit compete so scholarships.

Miss Wharff, a Carroll county representative and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wharff Jr., picked up first-place state honors with her electric project. She started her 4-H activities nine years ago and today keeps busy with the Freedom Girls' 4-H Club.

This Mount Airy High School senior's trip is made possible by the Westinghouse Educational Foundation.

In neighboring r'rederick county, young Grossnickle is ready for the Chicago jaunt by virtue of his first-place award in the swine project.
The 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Grossnickle has been in 4-H work for 10 years. A 1957 graduate of Frederick High School, he now is devoting his time to farming.

Grossnickle gathered most of his 4-H experience through the Liberty Senior 4-H Club. He has won many honors for his ability as a swine judge.

His trip will be provided by the Moorman Manufacturing Co.

God, Our Help

Lesson for December 27, 1959

A T SUNSET, not a ray of hope. Alone, behind high walls, guarded by four squads of soldiers under special orders, his friends not knowing whether he was alive or dead. But by midnight-! the man was free, talking with his friends. (Naturally, hunted by the police . . . but they never found him.) What was the explanation of it? Nobody has ever quite succeeded in explaining it. The man himself said an angel did it; but an angel is

In Great Crisis

Did God help people in "Bible times" only and not since then? By no means. God himself cannot be seen, remember; so it is always possible for some one to doubtto say, "Well, I didn't see God there." Nevertheless all through history there have been special occasions, crises as they may be called, when believers have been quite sure that God must have been specially interested and active.

For instance, in World War II, on D-Day, innumerable slips occurred during that great invasion of the Normandy coast. One writer who was there said that everything that could go wrong went wrong, and some things that couldn't. But in spite of it all, the Allies got their foothold in the enemys land. What accounts for that? Or take the German guided missiles. If they had been just a few weeks farther ahead with production, England might have been completely smashed and the war would have had a different ending.

What held the Germans up? Hitler, of course; but what made Hitler (ordinarily a shrewd man) so

"Out of Weakness"

For some people it may be easier to believe that God takes care of nations and of great events, than that God takes care of me. Let us not deny his presence in the great crises. Last June a streamliner with 180 passengers on board ran over a suitcase filled with enough dynamite to blow the train in two and the fuse was lighted! But the fuse went out, and the train was not hurt. When the passengers learned about it, isn't it likely that most of they said, "Thank God!"

Some of them said it (perhaps) who hadn't thanked God for anything in years. Yet God can be in simple ordinary lives, giving help to the weak and the unimportant, just as truly as he helps a Saint Peter or the British Empire. An immigrant woman abandoned by her GI husband, with three hungry children on her hands, said once "Sometimes I go to bed and I don't think I can get up again. But God, he wakes me up with a song in my throat and I begin again." Sometimes the only way we discover God is to reach a point of weakness where we know that without him we are done for.

Workers Together

We said that God had more for Simon Peter to do. This midnight miracle was the last of its kind in Peter's life so far as we know. He lived for years after this, a hardworking missionary, no doubt often in danger, but kept and strengthened by what we absurdly call the "ordinary" Providence of God. Then came a day when Roman guards came for him once more, and this time there was no angel to help him. So he was crucified. Had God forsaken him at last? No; his work was done. If you are, as he was, a "worker together with God" you may be sure that until your work is done you are immor-

We are at the gate of a New Year. What will it bring? Great dangers, great distress, great responsibilities? Whatever it may be, God knows what he is doing. We may see no angels, but with the eye of faith we can see the good hand of God guiding us, protecting us, giving us the help we need, when we need it. 13

More Tips for You

More hints and help are available to you, free of charge, in a booklet called "The Art of Decorating." This booklet contains not only decorating ideas for the Christmas season, but for many other holidays and occasions throughout the year as well. Your FREE copy will be mailed to you promptly upon request. Simply address: Noma Lites, Inc., 55 West 13th Street, New York 11, N. Y., and ask for "The Art of Decorating." We believe it will help you enjoy the hrightest, gayest, safest Christmas you have ever known.

PERFECT ROSES are the gardenpiece. Yet it's easy to grow a garden full if you do four things: mulch with peat moss to preserve moisture; fertilize thoroughly, one handful per bush: use one bucketful of water per plant if 10 days go by without rain; and spray or dust once a week or after each rain. Roses are simpler to keep healthy than cure when they're sick. Most diseases begin when foliage is wet, spray or dust within 24 hours after each rain. It's easy with a push-button sprayer, such as the Antrol Rose Bomb, or a handy squeeze duster, like the Antrol Multi-Purpose Dust. Both products are lethal to the baker's dozen of insects that can attack roses. If you spot danger signs on your rose bushes—black spot, powdery mildew, or rust— remove the infected parts and spray every few days until the disease is under control.

PLANNING A LATE SUMMER TRIP? It's best to broach the subject fully armed with a carefully planned itinerary and a realistic budget. Tip: Check with your local bank to see what travel services it bank to see what travel services it offers. You may be pleasantly surprised at how much help it can give you. Banks these days grant travel loans, provide vacation savings plans, sell traveler's checks, issue letters of credit, transfer funds and in some cases make airline, train and hotel reservations. Some even maintain complete Some even maintain complete travel departments.

IN THE FAMILY?
If you do, it's nice when one of the kiddies falls sick, but kind of hard on his poor wife who probably yearns to see more of the "family doctor". If you're in this category or even a plain, "office-widow", here's news to cheer you up. Some doctors all around the country-as well as many business executives—now carry in their cars a small, portable electronic marvel, called an Edison voicewriter. Then, after each "sick" or business call, they "talk away" the medical record or sales report while the facts are still fresh in their minds. Result? Mountains of critical paperwork "melt away" during the day leaving nothing but substantial savings in time and money, But more important for the wife, the voicewriter dictation machine permits more time for the "head-of the-family" to spend at home.

SWEET SURPRISE

Out of the midnight sky a great dawn broke Out of the midnight sky a great dawn broke And a voice singing flooded us with song. In David's city was he born, it sang, A Saviour, Christ the Lord. Then while I sat Shrivering with the thrill of that great cry, A mighty choir a thousandfold more sweet Suddenly sang, Glory to God, and Peace — Peace on the earth; my heart almost unnerved By that swift loveliness, would hardly beat. Speechless we waited till the accustomed night Gave us no promise more of sweet surprise; Then scrambling to our feet, without a word We started through the fields to find the Child.

BY HEAVEN'S AIR MAIL

God is wrapping His Christmas Gift In the softest mightnight blue; God is sealing His Christmas Gift

With a star incredibly new —
And God is dispatching the strangest post
That ever the roads of night did boast —
A multitude of the heavenly host,
Winging the heavens through.

Now God be praised for His Christmas Gift Dropped at our heart's low door: And never a sin and never a shame Need bar God's Gift, if we keep aflame Through faint as the lantern when first it came -A flame in our deep heart's core.

STAR OF THE EAST

Star of the East, that long ago Brought wise men on their way Where, angels singing to and fro, The Child of Bethlehem lay — Above that Syrian hill afar Thou shinest out tonight, O Star!

Star of the East, the night was drear
But for the tender grace
That with thy glory comes to cheer
Earth's loneliest, darkest place;
For by that charity we see
Where there is hope for all and me.

Star of the East! show us the way In wisdom undefiled To seek the manger out and lay Our gifts before the child — To bring our hearts and offer them Unto our King in Bethlehem!
