NOTES ON THE TESTING PROGRAM AT T.H.S.

Results from the STEP and SCAT tests recently administered to the seventh, ninth and eleventh grades at Taneytown High School, have been received and evaluated. These tests are a part of the National Testing Program in which the High School is participating.

The STEP tests (Sequential Test of Educational Progress) measure how well the pupil is able to use what he has learned, and not just how much he remembers. In other words, these tests measure understanding, and noa memory. Also, they afford opportunities for the student to improve those skills which can be improved.

The SCAT tests (School and College Ability Tests)

The SCAT tests (School and College Ability Tests) are divided into two sections. The verbal portion measures ability to understand sentences and give meanings of words. The total SCAT scores provide the single best measure of the student's capacity to do the work of the next higher level of schooling. next higher level of schooling.

Student Reports on these results will be sent to the parents along with the next report card, and must be signed and returned to the school to be kept as a part of the individual's permanent record. There reports will show the profile made by the student indicating the parents. the student, indicating the percentile range in which he stands in comparison with students in the same grades throughout the nation. PLANNING AND ZONING COMMISSION ACTIVE

Attorney Hoffman Appointed Counsel for Year 1960

The Planning and Zoning Commis-The Planning and Zoning Commission at its monthly meeting on January 11th announced the selection of Ralph G. Hoffman, Westminster attorney, to serve as its counsel for the year 1960. Mr. Hoffman, in attendance at the meeting, expressed the desire to see the Commission pursue an active planning program in Carroll County to insure an orderly development of the County in view of the growing population predicted. of the growing population predicted. Mr. Hoffman will advise the Planning Commission during its first full year of activity on all legal matters including any temporary zoning measure which the Commission may recommend for consideration.

Five citizens of the County have accepted appointment as Agriculture Advisors to the Carroll County Plan-ning and Zoning Commission and met with the Planning Commission on Tuesday for the first time.

John J. Bixler, Westminster wi,lll serve as chairman of the advisory group which includes also Lloyd B. Wilhide, Keysville; Frank Bushey, Winfield; Jonathan Dorsey, Sykesville; and George M. Tracey of Bachman Mills.

Upon meeting with the Advisors, Chairman E. Miller Richardson of the County's Planning Commission said that the many views and objectives pertaining to Agriculture can be ably put before the Commission by the newly formed committee. He further emphasized the importance of agri-culture to Carroll County and the need or such citizen-participation in the planning program which will be conducted over the next several years.

The Carroll County Delegation to Legislature met with the County Commissioners on Tuesday for pur-poses of discussion of several local considerations prior to the opening of the General Assembly on February Brd. The matter of the proposed change in the State's Twelve Year Road Construction Program was given serious attention at the meetings, with a careful look being given to Carroll County highways still unimproved on the State program. Although no definite recommendation or action was taken, the Legislators and County Commissioners planned to explore the prospects of keeping many of the projects on a high priority when regional meeting with State Roads officials is attended at Frederick on January 19th.

Two local matters per aining to highways also were discussed without positive action heing taken. These highways also were discussed without positive action being taken. These were a State proposal to extend Muller Road and Oak Tree Road in the vicinity of New Route 97 south of Fenby, and the consideration of a proposal for changing route designations in the Taneytown area as respectively.

Attending the meeting were Senator E. O. Weant, Jr.; Delegates Preston L. Hale; Thomas A. O'Farrell; and
Joseph H. Hahn, Jr.; County Commissioners Edmund L. Carr; Charles
W. Saylor and Francis J. Crawford; and George A. Grier, Technical Assistant to the County Commissioners.

Meeting of Lions Club

A brief but timely and eloquent greeting from Lions International was brought to Taneytown Lions meeting in Taney Inn, Tuesday, January 12, when thirty-nine out of forty-one members were present in honor of the speaker, Lawrence R. ("Lou") Dorsey, Walkersville, Governor of District 22W. President Delmar E. Riffle conducted the meeting, Murray M. Baumgardner invoked divine blessing. Line Tener Lohn T. Hettinger ing, Lion Tamer John T. Hottinger led the singing, and Harry I. Rein-dollar accompanied on the piano.

Present also were Lion Harry E. Filler, Walkersville, Secretary in Gov. Dorsey's cabinet, as well as these guests and their hosts: George M. Harman guest of Thomas J. Smith, Joseph R. Funk guest of Hottinger, and Cub Fred B. Garner, introduced as a new member of the club by his

Lion Dougherty was then asked to say a few words, and he expressed appreciation for all the effort being expended in his behalf, with special reference to a neighboring district governor's night at Line-boro-Manchester Thursday, January

Deputy district governor Dougherty, who also was program chairman for the evening, then presented the District Governor, who was accorded a standing ovation. His short words of greeting told of incidents which deeply affected him as he progressed through his tour of duty, mentioning the school for district governor-elect where all but three of them in the entire world succeeded in attending. He painted a moving tribute to Melvin Jones, founder of Lionism, em-phasizing that January is a stock-taking time for all clubs, when membership drives are encouraged. He said one must keep in mind that the purpose of belonging to this 14,626-club organization of 582,704 members in 102 geographical locations is to serve the community if one is not to leave interest in his membership.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 14, 1960

THE STEEL STRIKE "SETTLEMENT"

Washington, January 11, 1960 Although the agreement signed by steel labor and management last week settled a strike, it will inevitably begin another vicious spiral of wages and prices. Shortsighted spokesmen have called the contract a "victory" for labor or a "surrender" for management, but, in truth, it was a severe defeat for a balanced American economy and the stability of the dollar.

Management agreed to terms apparently because it was warned by certain high-placed men in Government that punitive legislation would be forthcoming from the Congress if it did not sign. And so, steel management agreed to a new contract providing for wages higher than those first demanded by the unions last July. Dizzy with visions of labor votes, the administration interfered with due process of arbitration and forced a settlement without serious consideration of its ultimate cost and its cumulative assault on our nation's market place.

The happy smiles of the steel workers will turn to uneasy frowns when the price of steel, as it must be, is raised. And when steel, a basic | American commodity, goes up, everything else, cars, houses, roads, will go up. In addition, other industries presently involved in wage disputes, nong them, shipping and railroads, will take their cue from steel and make similar or greater demands. The American public, of course, will pay for every cent of the wage and resulting price increases. Those with fixed incomes will tighten their belts another notch and steel workers' wives will begin paying more for groceries while asking themselves why their bigger pay checks are not going any farther.

Inflation is not an economic term confined to textbooks and classroom discussions but rather constitutes an expanding threat to every household budget in the nation. The steel strike has been settled, but there will be others, and the greater issue of inflation remain unsolved. Its solution does not lie in fitful interference by any administration, but in the considered legislation of the Congress. Happily, recent history has demonstrated that the legislative branch appreciates its responsibility not to General subscription rate, $1.50 a year; appreciates its responsibility not to months, $1.00. IF YOU'RE PLAN-NING A TRIP, remember that purchasing round trip tickets can usually save you money.

Trailways Travel Bureaus report that all inter-city bus lines offer a 10% discount on all round trips. Railroads offer round trip discounts on certain routes. Airlines have discontinued the deductions. The travel experts say you should always ask about round trip prices and also inquire about "package" tours that include hotel and sight-seeing accommodations at special rates.

HAVE YOU EVER found yourself stranded in the middle of a lake, while your husband tries heroically - but 19 vainly - to start the outboard motor? As luck usually has it, you probably are smack under the noon-day sun and far from shore. Well, there's no easy "Out" to a situation like that. But you can help prevent such occur-rences from happening in the fu-ture. Champion Spark Plug Com-pany engineers advise boat owners to play it safe - start the boating season with a set of new spark plugs. Chances are, with new plugs in your outboard motor, you'll have uninterrupted fun - not trouble.

PRUNING TREES AND BUSHES will be easier for you this spring if you remember these three tips: Cut the branch flush with the trunk so there's no stub of dead wood remaining. Use a sharp prun-ing knife to trim the bark away after you have made the cut. Dress the wound to keep wood free of rot. A handy aerosol spray, the Antrol Tree Wound Dressing, prevents the flow of sap and seals against moisture and decay.

A VOICE FROM CARROLL COUNTY

We wish that an interested group would get together and organize a drive to raise funds for research into the causes of mental and emotional illnesses. The need for it is far greater than for some of the research now going on in a dozen other fields of medicine. On any given day in the United States there are a little more than 1.4 million people in hospitals and of this number more than half or around 750,000 are mental or around 750,000 are mental patients. High as it is, this figure only begins to tell the true story. We do not have nearly enough hospitals and beds to take care of our mentally ill and it has been estimated that around 300,000 more patients urgently need hospitalization but do not get it. In adition mental illness and per-sonality disturbances play a large roll in causing suicides, crime, youth delinquency, narocotic addiction and problem drinking, the last of which say the authorities affect some 3.8 million Americans at the present time. Trying to tackle this vast probthe amount of effort and public concern that goes into raising money for research in such diseases as muscular dystrophy (100,000) victims in the United States and polio (38,000) a year. We had hoped that after the vaccine had been discovered for polio, that the foundation would give its attention to research in mental illattention to research in mental illness, but for some reason it turned its attentioin and resources elsewhere. Public opinion could do much to change the apathy toward research in this field. It is urgently needed as the figures we have presented proves. There isn't one family in the U.S. that at the present time isn't affected in some way by a mental or emotional illness. Its time all of us turned our attention and resources to finding its attention and resources to finding its cause and how to eliminate it.

Along with a number of things which should be outlawed are the "stiletto" heels which at the present time are the "very must" on womens the are the "very must" on womens the are the "very must" on womens. shoes. The Frizellburg Improvement Association met at Willow Farms Dairy Bar on Wednesday evening January 6th. Election of officers were as follows: for president Mr. John mar Warehime, and Treasurer Mrs. The result was that they banned the wearing of stiletto heels. A Fourth grader proudly showed his report card to the next door neighbor, who asked how he made such good grades. "I pay attention to the teacher", he said, "and don't turn around to look at pretty girls in class like some boys do. When in class like some boys do. When I come in the morning, I take one good look at the girls—then I'm through looking for the day".

It was his custom to stand at the door of the church armed with a hugh whip, with which he speeded the progress of latecomers. And even during the course of the service, while the psalm was being sung, it was his practice to leave the church and scout around the village for truants. If he found any he drove them before him with the aid of his bullwhip. Times have changed a great deal since 1750, for those were strong days when the philosophy of "spare the rod and spoil the child prevailed". Today we are kinder but are faced with all kinds of crime and dishonesty. What would Parson Grimshaw do if he were to come back today. How would he handle the pressing problems that bedevil al of us. In the Parson's day men got very angry about corruption, double-dealing and dishonesty. If you read the literature of that time you cannot help but notice that men in those days did not speak out of both sides of their mouth or hide behind social prestige or political immunity. No, they spoke out in loud voices and were willing to stand up and talk about everything and anything. All of us play "too nice" and 'too easy" about the things we know are true and the things we believe. We hope in this election year that there will be many like Parson Grimshaw, who will get very angry and shout and demand the truth by means of the bullwhip if necessary. Its time the American people got angry again. We have had a nap for twenty years. Its time again to wake up and flex our muscles and brains. The directors of the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association held first quarterly meeting at the Med-ical Center, Westminster, Monday, January 11th. Charles Stonesifer, president of the Association presided. Reports were read of the various standing committees which reviewed the work done during the past year by the Association. Preston Coffman, who served as chairman for the Christmas Seal Sale gave his report, which indicated that when all re-turns are tabulated, Carroll County's goal of $10,000 will be met. If you are one of those persons who have forgotten to return your Christmas Seal money to the Association, do so now. Just last week a family of four was found ill with Tuberculosis here in Carroll County. The Association is constantly on the alert to be of service to those in need of treatment. completely surprised on their six-tieth wedding anniversary, December 20, 1959 at Rocky Ridge Church of the Brethren, where approximately two hundred guests had assembled to celebrate the occasion.

On December 20, 1899, S. R. Wey-bright and Miss Lillie V. Fogle were married in the bride's home by the hrother of the groom, Rev. John S. Weybright, now deceased. The late Weybright, now deceased. The late John T. Royer, brother-in-law to groom, played the wedding music. Their attendants were Miss Annie Weant and Emory Warner, also deceased. The Misses Verna Diller and Weant received the one hundred and twenty-seven guests present for the ceremony. Six of the original guests gave memories of the wedding sixty years ago.

A delightful program of vocal, piano and violin music was given in their honor by the members of the family. Following the program the ladies of the church served delicious refreshments in the church social room which has been beautifully decorated for the occasion

This is the year when you'll really go wild over hats. Thanks to those understanding milliners, hats, hair and ready-to-wear have entered a triple alliance that will make you more hat-minded than you've been in years.

Rosalind Russell, voted the "best hatted woman in America," says, "The new hats will truly go to your head and turn the heads of the men in your direc-tion. You'll want a whole wardrobe of them.

If you once thought of one or two little hats to go with almost everything, you'll get over this outmoded idea fast once you see the variety of styles, fabrics and colors."

We are in complete accord with Miss Rus-sell. When you see how much the new hats do Rosalind Russell for you . . . "I love hats" what a different

"I love hats" what a different personality you are in each, you'll want to buy every new type you try. Begin with your suit hat since that's the first new outfit you'll wear in the Fall. You have a choice that it is the same or dealing. of pixie types, or derbies, homburgs and fedoras — but with such a feminine look you'll forget they were borrowed from the men. Very femme fatale are the ones with eye shadowing brims.

These, along with the Garbo-type slouches and high-crown cloches, are the perfect comple-ment with the new tie-belted wrap and coachmen coats . . . and the longer belted jackets seen in suits and costumes.

For afternoon . . . you'll love the way you look in the new tall pill-boxes that are so elegant. Or perhaps you'll prefer one of the high-climbing toques, spiraled turbans, or the new, Russian-inspired chechias in tall, stiff or rather softly-draped types; in fur or fur-felts.

Colors are delicious, even when subdued. There are two schools of thought... one to blend your hat with your costume, such as gold, moss green, coffee, cocoa beiges and grays with clothes of matching tonality.

The other idea is to liver black.

The other idea is to liven black, gray and all those subtle, smoky tones with white, beige or vibrant reds, purples, royal blues and turquoise. This is certainly the season to be hat-happy with every costume, on every occasion.

Fred Astaire, who ran away with the lion's share of last season's "Emmy" awards, comes back for an encore on Wednesday, Nov. 4, 9:00-10:00 p.m. The all-new colorcast "Another Evening with Fred Astaire" features the same lineup of supporting stars that helped make Fred a winner on his first show: Barrie Chase, Jonah Jones and David Rose . . Dale Robertson and Vivian Vance check in for ball-room duty on the "Arthur Murray Party," Nov. 3 . . . Darren McGavin, co-star of the new "Riverboat" series, visits Ernie Ford, Nov. 5.

The Army-Air Force Academy football game at Yankee Stadium will be televised on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 31. This historymaking gridiron battle will be the first between the two service academies . . Young actor Allen Case had to leave the cast of the Broadway musical, "Once Upon a Mattress," to accept the role of the gun-shy storekeeper on "The Deputy" . . . Charlton Heston hosts a special "Telephone Hour" salute to the armed forces on Friday, Nov. 6. Cast members include Johnny Desmond, John Raitt, Jane Froman and the Four Lads. * * * *

Guest star Ann Blyth finds herself in a tight situation when she's captured by Indians and forced to become the chief's bride on "Wagon Train," Nov. 4 . . . Peter Lind Hayes portrays a San Francisco bookie who is faced with the plight of concealing his imprisonment from the Korean War orphan he is supporting on "Alcoa Theatre," Nov. 2 . . . Guest stars Art Buchwald, Eddie Constantine and Marcel Marceau add the flavor of France to the "Dinah Shore Show," Nov. 1 . . . Anthony Quinn stars as a carnival strong man in the award-winning film, "La Strada" on "Saturday Night Playhouse" Oct. 31.

DOUGHNUTS WITH A DIFFERENCE!

of orange are delicious and festive fare for holiday parties. Team them with ambrosial apple cider to make food fit for the gods—and guests!

SUGAR 'N SPICE DOUGHNUTS

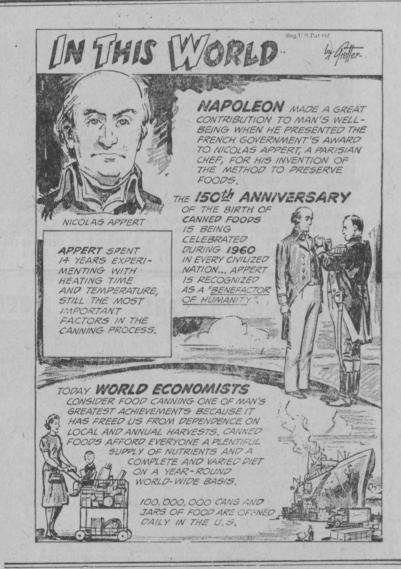

1 cup milk 1/4 cup margarine or butter 1/2 cup light brown sugar

1 teaspoon salt 1/4 cup warm (not hot) water 1 package or cake yeast, active dry or compressed

2 eggs, well beaten

2 teaspoons nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
51/2 cups sifted flour

Scald milk. Stir in margarine, light brown sugar and salt; cool to lukewarm. Measure water into large bowl (water, not hot, water for active dry yeast; lukewarm for compressed yeast). Sprinkle or crumble in yeast and stir until dissolved. Add eggs, spices, orange rind and lukewarm milk mixture. Stir in flour. Turn out onto the light floured board and knead until smooth and elastic. Shape into ball. Place in board and knead until smooth and elastic. Shape into Ball. Place in greased bowl and brush top with soft shortening. Cover with dampened cloth and let rise in warm place (85°) until double in bulk, about 1½ hours. Turn out on lightly floured board and roll out ½ inch thick. Cut with 1½ or 2-inch biscuit cutter. Place on baking sheet, cover and let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until double, about 30 minutes. Fry 3 or 4 at a time in hot fat (365°) about 3 minutes. Drain on paper toweling; sugar while warm. Makes 4 dozen.

Enclosing a Patio?

Dishing-In' Effective Way To Insulate Floor Areas

Using a sharp knife, workman cuts a flange of vapor barrier at end of batt. This flange is stapled to inside of sill.

Workman staples vapor barrier flange of mineral wool batt directly to side of joists in "dishing-in" method of installation.

When a patio or terrace is being converted into a year-round room, builders often lay floor joists over a vapor barrier that has been spread over the concrete or stone surface.

Mineral wool batts or blankets then are installed between the joists, providing a warm, comfortable floor.

fortable floor.

An effective way to install mineral wool in this type of construction is called "dishing in." The vapor barrier flange of the batt or blanket is stapled to the insides of the joist rather to its top.

To insure a snug insulation seal, ends of batt are fitted carefully against header joist at end of joist space.

CLOTHING, SHOES, FOR NEEDY OVERSEAS

"OPERATION WAREHOUSE" as it functions for the annual Catholic Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing Collection is one of enormous proportions. Millions of pounds of wearable used clothing, shoes, blankets and other supplies arrive by box car, truck and private auto in cartons, drums and boxes. The process of getting the materials overseas begins, upper left, with cartons being conveyed to sorting tables, upper right; shoes being sorted and bagged, left center; clothing made into bales of 115 pounds, right center; wraped in waterproof paper and encased in burlap tubing, lower left; stencilled for shipping port of destination, lower right. You can participate in this great work of charity by contributing wearable used clothes, shoes, bedding materials to the nearest Catholic church.

Are We Free?

Lesson for January 17, 1960

HEADLINE writing is tricky business. You have only so much room, and so cannot always say clearly what you mean. That "Are We Free?" up there in the headline could mean some things it doesn't. The question does not mean, Are Americans free? or, Are readers of this column free? The question is about Christians. Are we free?

That still is tot clear enough. Free from what? Christians are certainly free from terror in the presence of God. Dr. Foreman We are free from the burden of guilt. We are free (or have a right to be) from anxiety and worry, and especially from the fear of death. But that is not the question we mean. To get down to brass tacks, our question is this: Is a Christian free from the law of God, especially from God's law as made known to us in the Ten Commandments?

The Question Is An Old One

The first Christians held their first great convention or conference to decide on this question. The way the problem came up with them was this: The first Christian churches, you remember, were made up almost exclusively of Jews. They were brought up on their Scriptures, our Old Testament, and they took it seriously as the Word of God. They found in it not a mere Ten Commandments, but at least Six Hundred Thirteen Commandments. It may have been a chore to try to abide by all these laws spread out over pages and pages of Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy. But there the laws were, and conscientious ex-Jews who became Christians brought these laws right along with them.

Now when Paul and Barnabas went out on their evangelistic tours, the churches they started were made up, for the most part, of non-Jews, and most of those people knew nothing whatever about the Old Testament.

The Jerusalem Christians kept sending messengers to these new Gentile Christian groups, telling them they really were not Christians at all, they hadn't been saved because they hadn't kept the law of God in every detail. The Gentile Christians said, Oh, but we are free from the law. The Jewish Christians said, No man is ever free from the law. So there at last had to be a great church meeting to decide who was right. There was a high debate, and finally an agreement. Scholars do not fully understand the terms of the agreement, which was sent out as a decree to all churches. But one thing is clear: the decision went against the Jerusalem church. The question really was: What do you have to do to be a Christian? What do you have to do to be saved? The Jerusalem church had been saying, You have to do a great deal to be saved. You have to be an avowed keeper of the Law before God will even consider saving you. But the apostles had a higher view. Essentially it was this: Every one who is saved, is saved by grace—that is, by a free act of God's loving will.

Free From Slavery; Freed To Serve

The question was settled there in that great Council. But it kept coming up, and Paul had to write to the Romans and to the Galatians explaining it all over again. It comes up in our time in many ways. What do I have to do before God will come to my rescue (for that is what "save" means)? There are two common wrong answers. One is that every single law in the Old Testament is binding on each Christian. It is keeping these laws that saves us, really. In short, God saves us provided we are good enough. The other wrong answer is that God saves us regardless, and then since he has saved us we can go do as we please. We can't possibly go wrong if we have been saved. The right answer is always this: God saves us because he is good, not because we are; and having been saved, keeping his laws is then a joyous token of our gratitude. Freed from slavery, we are set free to serve. God's grace can never be earned, it can only be taken-by faith.

One loaf to keep . . . one to give APPLE-CHERRY NUT BREAD

Here's a holiday loaf studded with cheery little cherries, filled with nut meats, given apple fruitiness with tangy canned apple sauce—and also kept fresh and moist by same. It is brown, beautiful, compact and slices willingly.

Cut slim-Jim and buttered, it's a perfect companion for tea, coffee, or soft drinks. Cut sturdy, and spread with cream cheese or conserve, it's a youngster's delight.

With this loaf waiting back stage, let the visitors come. Daytime or evening, you are ready with a refreshment.

The bread is easy to make. So simple, in fact, you can make two loaves as readily as one . . . one to keep, the other maybe to wrap and give.

to wrap and give.

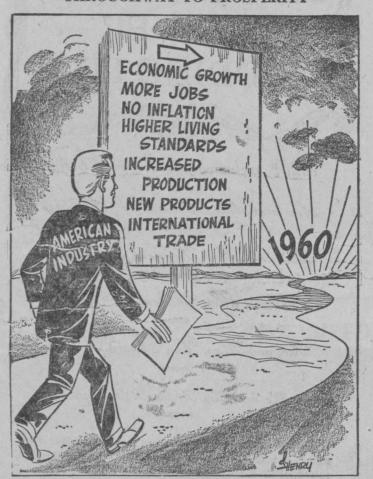

2/3 cup butter or margarine 11/3 cups sugar

4 cups sifted all-purpose flour

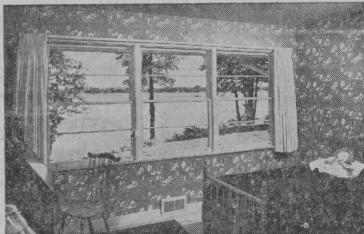

2 teaspoons baking powder 1 teaspoon baking soda 4 eggs
2 cups canned apple sauce
1½ cup milk
2 cup milk
3 cup maraschino cherries,
3 cup maraschino cherries,

Cream together butter or margarine and sugar; add eggs, one at a time, beating after each. Stir in apple sauce and milk. Sift together flour, baking powder, baking soda, and salt; add to creamed mixture; mix well. Add grated lemon rind, chopped nut meats and drained maraschino cherries. Pour into two greased loaf pans 9" x 5" x 3". Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, 60 minutes. Remove from pans; cool on wire rack. Makes 2 loaves. (For 1 loaf just use half of quantities listed.)

New Double-Hung Windows Feature Insulating Glass

Double-hung wood windows with insulating glass keep child's room warmer on cold days, stop costly heat loss.

Remember when Grandma cooled her wonderful apple pies on the sill of the double-hung window? Well, both apple pie and double-hung windows are still top favorites today. Old-fashioned apple pie, of course, could never be improved, but manufacturers have been making consistently better double-hung wood windows for years. The latest improvement is insulating glass.

Insulating glass for double-hung windows is possible today because of the development of a process that employs two lay-because of the development of a process that employs two layers of glass that is thinner and lighter than the glass used in previous methods. A dead air space between the panes provides insulation.

This means that in today's double-hung wood window a home owner gets two advantages:

Easter Seal Campaign

Leading the 1960 Easter Seal Campaign team, as he so brilliantly led the World Champion Baltimore Colts, will be Johnny Unitas, All-Pro Quarterback and player of the Year. J. Milton Brunk, President of the Maryland Society for Crippled Child-Maryland Society for Crippled Children and Adults, when announcing the appointment of Mr. Unitas as Easter Seal Campaign Chairman for 1960, went on to say, "With his usual modesty, Johnny Unitas accepted chairmanship of the Maryland Easter Seal Campaign for 1960 with the understanding that this would be a team effort and that "Teamwork for Maryland's Disabled" would be the theme land's Disabled' would be the theme of the campaign."

Co-captains of the 1960 Easter Seal Co-captains of the 1960 Easter Seal Campaign in Maryland are Johnny Unitas, brilliant quarterback of the World Champion Baltimore Colt team and Larry Semerad, Maryland's East-er Seal Boy who attended every Colt game and is personally known to all the players.

Working with Johnny Unitas during the Easter Seal campaign, which will run from March 17th through April 17th, will be an old friend of his— eight year old Larry Semerad. Larry attended the Colt training sessions in Westminster, became a favorite with all the players and hasn't missed a all the players and hasn't missed a single home game all season.

Larry has a disability known as Perthes hip, which, with proper care and treatment, is correctible. He attends the Easter Seal residential camp for crippled children, located in Western Maryland, and uses other Easter Seal services and facilities throughout the year.

In addition to writing the annual Easter Seal letter, Johnny Unitas will appear on television, make Easter Seal radio spot announcements, persuance of the spot announcements, persuance of the spot announcements, persuance is a simple of the season.
