Protestant Churches as One Great Hour of Sharing for the help and ben-efit of less fortunate mankind in the world. The following is a prayer world. The following is a prayer submitted for our meditation as we look to this day: "O God, our heav-enly Father, we call to mind that ONE GREAT HOUR long ago when Thou didst SHARE with us the King of Kings, born in Bethlehem's lowly manger. We remember ONE GREAT HOUR, when Christ Jesus died a HOUR when Christ Jesus died a criminal's death that he might SHARE with us the salvation Thou alone does offer. We recall ONE GREAT HOUR when we who had mown the death of the cross was vic torious over death, making it possi-ble for us to SHARE in his resurrection, and the life that shall endless be. Now, as we worship, help us to make this another GREAT for all Thy mercies to us, we SHARE our blessings, spiritual and material, with our needy brethren around the world. May the willingness of Christ to be sacrificed on the Cross for us, make us willing in his Name, to sacrifice for those less fortunate than we. Help us to express our faith not only in creed and wor-ship, not only in song and prayer, but in giving and sharing with our brother-man. We pray in the Name of him who said,"As you did it to one of the least of thee my brethren, you did it to me".

THE PRESIDENT'S CHOICE

I'd like to know which Democratic candidate for the Presidency would be the choice of President Eisenhower as the one best equipped to steer R. Gisbu the course of state.

I suppose it is on the verge of sacrilege to suggest that the leader of one I. Trott. party commend any rival candidate. sell goo But from the standpoint of the good of the nation it would seem sound the esta theory for the people to know the of York President's views on this question.

From the political standpoint, Republican leaders probably hope that the Democrats will select the weakest of their candidates - one who is vulnerable for attack on as many counts as possible. But from the consideration of the future of our country, it would seem safest if, in No ember, we were asked to choose giply to between the two men best qualfied for the leadership of our government.

I would like to be able 'to feel that if the man for whom I vote should be #3338888888 the loser, a capable man will be the winner.

WASHINGTON - An informal biography of Vice President Richard M. Nixon has been the most popular and best selling - non-fiction political book published in 1959, according to Harper & Bros., New York publishers.

The book-"Richard Nixon, A Political and Personal Portrait", by Earl Mazo - was released in June, and went into a sixth large printing in December.

It was listed as a National Best Seller by the New York Times, the New York Herald Tribune, Time Magazine and other principal barometers of the publishing industry.

The author, a correspondent in the Washington Bureau of the New York Herald Tribune, said, "the vast popularity of the book simply reflects the great and widespread interest of Americans everywhere in Vice President Nixon."

Mr. Mazo explained that under normal circumstances few political books — and "very, very few" books about living political figures "below the rank of President" ever become National Best Sellers.

The Mazo book about Mr. Nixon has been acclaimed by reviewers in practically every recognized literary supplement and journal as "a fact-1al, objective and honest" reoort on Mr. Nixon's life and ublic career.

Report of Welfare Board

The Carroll County Welfare Board headed by Chairman Ralph G. Hoff-man, at its monthly meeting on March 9, 1960, discussed a report to the Carroll County Commissioners showing the expenditures of the De-nertment for 1050 Tatal partment for 1959. Total expendi-tures fo rthe Welfare Program in Carroll County were $295,545.58. This was derived from a combination of County, State and Federal funds; $63,808.17 being the County share. This represented an increase of expenditures over the year 1958 by $31,508.72 in Federal, State and local funds. $15,000.88 of this increase came in the category of old age assistance. and $10,055.38 in the category of aid to the disabled. This was caused by an average increase of 8 cases per month in old age assistance and also an increase in the average grant. The report, prepared by the Direc-tor John Q. Issac, showed the follow-ing detail of expenditures for the wear 1050.

year 1959: Old Age Assistance .....$110,521.30 Number assisted in December 164 Aid to Dependent Children $ 57,241.50 Aid to Dependent Children $ 57,241,50 Families assisted in December 57 Aid to the Blind ......$ 3,214.84 Individuals assisted in Dec. 5 Aid to the Disabled ....$ 47,947.61 Assisted in December 82 General Public Assistance $ 7,285.70 Assisted in December 18 Foster Care of Children ...$ 17,398.35 Number of Children in Dec. 50 Administration $ 51,936,28 Administration .....$ 51,936.28 Total ......$295,545 County Share .....$63,808.17 $295,545.58

Attention Farmers:

After many years of purchasing farm separated cream we are now expanding our operations to include the purchase of whole milk also.

This milk which is used for manufacturing sweet cream butter and milk powder will not require any farm inspection. The only requirements are that the producers have good milk cans, a milk strainer and an electric milk cooler.

We are interested in hearing from any one in this area who would be interested in this type of milk market. No producer too small to take advantage of our market. We xpect to receive milk from distances up to fifty miles or even further from Hagerstown, Maryland.

The price of this milk will be based on the value of butter and milk powder as established by the Government support program.

like to work up a milk route from this area.

Address all inquiries to Potomac Creamery Co. Inc., P. O. Box 124, 3-3-4t Hagerstown, Md. Phone RE 9-6380.

March 24, 1960

Lesson for March 27, 1960

A DS ON billboards, in buses, in A newspapers, tell us to Go to Church. A fleet of taxicabs will, if paid enough, carry posters telling the world that "The family that prays together, stays together." Some of this advice must be taken, to judge from the crowds one sees coming out of churches of all kinds. Our country may not be a maturely Chris-" tian country, but at least the church is respectable, and popular besides. This is not true all over the Dr. Foreman world. There are more places where this is not true, than where it is true. In East Germany today a boy or girl comes near losing all chance of a job if he or she does not leave the church and join the youth organization sponsored by the Party. In Japan, India, and other countries, to be a Christian is to be thought of as unpatriotic.

We Have Always Had Rivals

America is one of the few places now where Christianity is both popular and respectable. These other places where it is not are more like the situation when the Christian faith was new. Many American Christians have the curious idea that if the going is rough we should not send missionaries; that if there are lots of religions in a country like India, for instance, we should not upset their theological apple-cart and confuse them with a new religion. The real New Testament Christians would have thought such notions rather ridiculous. It cannot be said too often: The Christian religion did not get its start in a religious vacuum. Everybody had religionof some kind. Only most of the kinds were bad, and the good kinds were not good enough. Christians did not propose to merge with other religions, they urged men to "turn from dead idols to the [not "a"] Living God." The "Gospel train" has never tied in with any other.

A Door for the Word

Christianity, in other words, is exclusive. But it had amazing success in that world so crowded with this was because Christians like Paul never failed to take advantage of any door for the Word that stood open. Paul, while a prisoner at Rome, had what most modern preachers would consider a bad situation. He was drawing no salary, he "had no church" as the saying is, he could not look forward to promotion, he could not do any organizing, his only "parish" was a jail and jails don't offer much in the way of a future. And what a congregation! Criminals and prison guards-not much hope there. Yet Paul could write to his friends at Colossae about a "door for the word." He did not expect a door for himself, but he did pray for one for the Word of God. His prayer was answered, too. One of the doors for the Word was the conversion of a runaway slave called Onesimus. Through this man the religion of Jesus spread where Paul himself could not go. Then at the end of Paul's letter to the Phillippians, written from a Roman prison, he speaks of the "saints in Caesar's household,"-palace servants no doubt. Paul would never have been invited to the royal palace; but these humble Christian men and women, whom Paul had probably converted in prison, since he had no chance to go anywhere else-these would take the Word where Paul could not hope to go.

checkup. If he recommends a new roof instead of repairs, it doesn't mean instead of repairs, it doesn't mean he's trying to make an easy sale. It's a fact that a roof wears out all over at the same time, and that walking on it to make spot repairs can open up new leaks. A complete new roof of asphalt shingles in a color that compli-ments your house is a long-term investment that adds value, beauty, and security to any home. The next winterizing step is to look for cracks around foun-dation, windows, and doors. Even tiny cracks let heat escape and cause drafts. These can be filled with caulking compound. Large cracks should be stuffed with oakum, then caulked. Storm sash and doors should be checked carefully. A snug fit is important to keep wind out and heat in. If new storm sash and doors

And If No Door?

There must have been times when even for the Word there was no door that Paul could find. So it is in many parts of the world today. Nobody is expecting any great outbreak of Christianity in East Germany or Japan or Yemen or some places on the Amazon. When all doors are closed, as they are now in China, what do we do next? Do we write off missions as a lost cause? Paul did not. He wrote to his friends at Colossae to pray that God would open to him a door for the Word. You do not pray for what you already have. So now, when doors are shutting in many ands, we are poor Christians if we just accept this as final. For Japan, for Russia, Abyssinia - yes for Suburbia, that often pagan land, we must pray f the open door.

Is to make the whole earth a heaven for man.

To show the others how to go His way.

Just so it has been in all ages! They say,

Mortal man lives on and on, the Scriptures say; "He must come and go till he learns God's way;" Like the Father of the Prodigal Son, God shall be; For through us, He shall reign in Eternity.

Eli of old was a righteous man, the Scriptures say But his sons were all "founders" in that day So, God put so much in his home they say

At Gettysburg, when God set the sons of Ham free, Geo. Gordon Meade, a hero, was said to be He rode between the lines on the 3rd day Shouting: "God save the Army of the Potomac" they say.

"God always sends a Leader who do things His way? Then, too many righteous men—have welcomed some today

So, God puts the bad with the good to learn His way.

Let me name a few great Leaders in our day, They all obeyed God, and, did things His way; I do this to prove to you all what I say

That, God controls the "ballot box" in our days.

Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln, and, Roosevelt, they say, All were trained before God sent them this way; America is God's City of Refuge they also say; So, He watches over it carefully night and day.

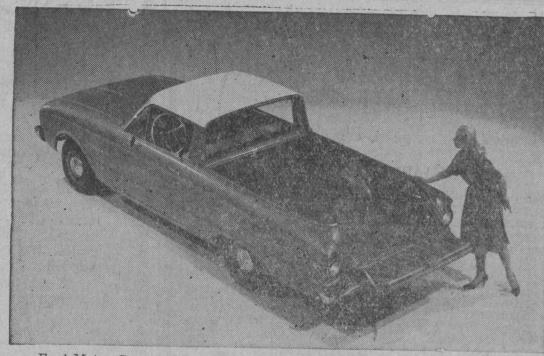

Just so, it has been in all ages; they say; God always finds a Leader, to do things His way" He named Cyrus, before he was born they say To set Jesus in Babylon free in his day.

This poem may be tiresome to some of you; But, it tells others things they never knew; It is God who tells you and me how, and, what to do; And, He does it, they tell us, through the real you.

So, do not listen to what men have to say_____ (The man of the earth does not yet go God's way?) Follow Jesus; and do what tells you to do; And, He will make a perfect man of you.

Hershey Prize Trip

Hershey Prize Trip The winners of the 1959 patrol con-test were taken by car to Hershey Arena on Saturday, March 12, where they witnessed an exciting contest in ice hockey punctuated by considerable disturbance between the Hershey Bears and the Quebec team. The win-ning Fox patrol were led by their leader, James Tracey, and accomp-anying him were Scribe Dom, Quarter-master Hoffman, and James Bowers. By custom the second-place patrol was also allowed to go, at half the cost, and this group was the Panthers, under Patrol leader Donald Koontz and Assistant Bower. Other Panthers attending were Airing, Bell, and Ricky Clingan. Transportation was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Amidee L. Bollinger and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur O. Thomas. O. Thomas.
