Town Council Meets

The Mayor and City Council held their regular monthly meeting on Monday evening December 4, at 7:30 p.m., with all members present.

Officer Hahn reported 32 Over Time Parking Violations, 1 Fire, 1 Trip to a Hospital, 6 Warnings in the new 3 hour parking zone on Fraderick 3 hour parking zone on Frederick Street and 63 Warnings to motorists going through stop signs which have been placed throughout the town.

The Town Clerk reported a balance of $45,372.14 in the General Expense Account and $4,095.31 in the Parking

A letter, requesting a new stop light at the square has been written to the State Roads Commission. Action was taken to purchase the necessary Stop Signs needed to complete the Safety Program currently under way. It was reported that contributions to the Christmas Decoration Fund from the business establishments of town has been slow coming in and it is hoped that more of our businessmen will contribute to this fine undertaking to help make our town as nice as neighboring towns during the Christmas Holiday Season.

The Snow Removal Committee is drawing up a plan of action for the removal of snow during a heavy snow Discussion was held on the course of action which the City of Taney-town should take in order to collect back taxes due the town from delinquent tax payers.

The Council would like to remind the citizens that as of December 31, 1961, $35,000 of matured sewer bonds have been paid on a total indebtedness of $650,000. This indebtedness was a result of the sewer installation in 1954. The present rate of interest is at 3.5%. Bonds are presently maturing at the rate of $10,000 a year. Interest is averaging around $21,000 a year making an average annual payment of $31,000 for the retiring of bonds including interest on bonds to be matured. All bonds will be matured by the year 1994.

Your attention is directed to the amount of money needed yearly for sewer obligations ($31,000) in relation to anticipated yearly revenue ($100,000). You will note from this that strict budgeting of our money is necessary if we are to continue to give Taneytown the improvements it needs so as not to retard the growth of our town. It is hoped that this information will bring you up to date on our sewer obligations.

nomes are safe. Because several hundred Mary-landers will be told by their doctors in 1962, "I'm afraid you have active tuberculosis"

When you use Christmas Seals on your mail, you add a note of good cheer and a note of serious purpose as well. These Seals are traditional expressions of community spirit, of the help we all give each other.

Christmas Seals work for you and your friends and family all through the year. They help to find people who have TB and don't know it, to pay for research in prevention and treatment. They help in education and in rehabilitation, in finding and closing the gaps in TB control.

If you haven't already done so, please send in your Christmas Seal contribution today. And use Christmas Seals on all your holiday letters and packages. When you do so, you help to protect your own good health as well as the health of your community.

Taneytown Jaycees Contribute To Christmas Street Decorations

The Taneytown Jaycees, at their Board Meeting last week, authorized the donation of $100.00 to the town for improvement and expansion of the city's Christmas Street lighting. The Jaycees were assured by the Mayor and City Council that this gift would be used this year.

This gift was made in anticipation of profits from the annual Jaycee Christmas Tree Sale which begins this week-end. Kenneth Crouse, chairman of the tree sale, states that hundreds of exceptionally fine, fresh cut nursery grown trees will be display-ed at the rear of Dunn's Cities Sered at the rear of Dunn's Cities Service Station, East Baltimore Street. The trees were cut and shipped this week from Indiana County, Pennsylvania, "The Christmas Tree Capital of the World". All are sheared and shaped #1 stock, Mr. Crouse said. Dougherty's and Bair's Groceries will also handle trees for the convenience of the mublic. of the public.

In addition to the improvement of the Town's Christmas lighting, it is hoped that the proceeds will also finance the Santa Claus and Santa's House projects which the Jaycees sponsor. It was voted several months' ago, to relinquish the Christmas lighting and beautiful homes contest for this year. However, they would still encourage residents to continue their lovely displays and to help make the town attractive throughout the season.

A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.

I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer the cheer to cheer the cheer to bring you happiness!

BRRRRRR wait until you read the "Farmer's Almanac" for '62! At last I was able to secure one the other day. So, Folks—PREPARE! Even along the city streets where there are trees, those dear little Squirrels are scampering about trying to secure trees, those dear little Squirrels are scampering about trying to secure food to store up for the winter!

That man, Santa Claus is now just about in all the stores and of course all the Kids are wild! Brings back the days when I used to take my three little Step-sons—ages 4 - 6 and 7 each year and such expressions upon their little faces as Santa would ask the usual questions! So the other day, I rode up in the elevator and just I rode up in the elevator and just stood there and listened and somehow I was wishing right then that it was all over again! Never will I forget or those three boys either when I edged my way to the next one to meet Santa Claus and I said so loud so as all would hear me, "I have been a good girl, too, Santa!" I looked at the little astounded faces and it was all worth it with the Mothers laughing in the background! The stores are ing in the background! The stores are more crowded than previous years but I do think it due to many saving that Christmas money each year at the banks.

This time of the year, always brings back thoughts of the Army and Navy games and my cousin always bringing my brother the 'Practice' football of the Navy. The one when they win is always painted gold and kept each year for "Memories"!

Saw a girl the other day in the Lexington Market with such a high hair-do as a "BEE-HIVE" that every one stopped and simply stared at her.

one stopped and simply stared at her.

one stopped and simply stared at her. More and more there appears straight hair and, Betcha all the Hair-Dressers have observed it!

Heard the nicest thing the other day, a young husband desired to surprise his wife with a car and brought it to the door on the very morning of Christmas and the Cadillac people presented her with a gold key!

And as for a cute saying and this also was true, a little girl returned home with a Lolly pop in her hand and the Mother asked where she had gotten it and the little girl replied that the man down at the gas station gives the man down at the gas station gives all the children one. To this the Mother asked, "Oh, I hope you did not ask for it?" The reply came quickly, "Oh, no Mother, you don't have to ask for it or say anything just stand close to the gas man and look up at him!"

How foolish can one be in these

How foolish can one be in these treacherous times? The Society peo-ple in New York and Washington are building luxurious fallout shelters in their gardens and many have stated while they are building them, they are going to be stylish! Even in Miami, John Jacob Astor is building a ten room shelter! Gimbels in New York City is already advertising a hat their help is needed too.

Because the happy family scene decicts the gift of good health which kit for fallout shelters. It weighs kit for fallout shelters. It weighs 50 pounds and costs $39.95 and holds two weeks' worth of food of canned goods, juices, candy, sterno, a can opener, flashlight batteries and the like. I would not want to survive to come out of a shelter and see all dying a slow death! Where would all the food come from for the next five years? It is beyond describing not alone thinking about!

Can you imagine, Folks that in 1960 Americans consumed 11 BILLION Hot Dogs? UGH! Hardly believable. I did not know that the First President of these United States lived in Newburgh, N.Y. or I would have visi-ted the Historic Shrine when I was there years ago. The article states that it is on the bank of the Hudson River and is one of the most significant buildings in America. The house was built in 1725 and was more than 50 years old when a distinguished visitor arrived to take up residence. It was April 1 of war-torn 1782 and the new tenant was the Commander of The American forces. He was to make his headquarters here for the final year of conflict. It was in this very house Washington learned of the proposal that he be made King and replied with a resounding rejection. It was in this very house the Order of the Purple Heart was crea-ted at Washington's command and it was here that he announced to his fellow countrymen that at last the struggle of Independence had been won! So, I guess there are many places of which we do not know are one of the places "where Washington slept here!" "Paradise" may be modified in two ways as to the show—"Bachelor in Paradise" with Bob Hope at the Town Theatre. First of all the name happens to be the little town where Bob Hope was assigned in the picture and not just that he was a Bachelor living a life out of this world. He has a pretty hectic life all throughout the picture and one viewing it does not know what to expect next. Very little music is in it but the lovely scenery and excellent photography, grand costumes (which the ladies will love) and all in Techni-color. It appears to be a Valley in Cal. with the mountains far and near. Bob Hope gets into all kinds of entanglements as there is only one single girl right there. Lana Turner is more beautiful than ever and she has a very charming speaking voice. All the girls are glamorous looking and the nice part that they all love the better halves at least that is how the story ends. Go see it to enjoy just about a one hour and three quar-

So long, Folks until next week end please do—"DRIVE with CARE just EVERYWHERE!"

GRASS ROOTS OPINIONS

SELBY, S.D., RECORD: "Nowadays, you often read about the federal spending program and the billions of dollars being spent annually. This year's program cost 88 billion dollars. Most of us think we have a faint idea of how much a billion dollars is. I thought I did until I read an article the other day explaining in language I could understand, just how gigantic a sum a billion dollars is. This is how it was described: 'Suppose a business were begun at the time Christ was born. Each and every day thereafter, it-lost $1,000. To date, the loss would be only $715 million. Not for another 778 years would it reach a billion.' Think on that for awhile."

FARMINGDALE, N.J., BOOSTER: "A liberal is a guy who thinks the world owes him a living-A conservative knows the world owes him a living-but he also knows he has to work like the devil to collect."

BISHOP, CALIF., INYO REGIS-TER: "About the only thing that's the matter with promoting good oldfashioned Americanism is that it seems to offend those good old-fashioned communists."

HARTLAND, WISC., LAKE COUNTRY REPORTER: "Communism is an ideology. All communists think alike. Those of us in the free nations often not only don't think alike, but have no common idealogy or world aim. We need a common ideology. One united goal that will overturn the advances of communism. We must not only think freedom,

CORVALLIS, ORE., HERALD: "J. Edgar Hoover reports that fines, savings and recoveries in FBI investigated cases during the year ending last June 30 reached a new peak of $167,654,622, a figure which represents a return of $1.34 for every dollar appropriated for the agency."

MELROSE, MASS., FREE PRESS: "In the old days we used to walk to school, thereby getting fresh air and exercise. Now we have to have school buses pick up and return the youngsters. Because of the lack of exercise, we must erect gymnasiums and provide physical education instructors. The last, and best, is the case of the Westmere, N.Y., father, who won a contract to tote his own two daughters to a private school (optional if within 10 miles of their homes) in the family Cadillacs. Dad collects $1300 for this service."

WEST VA., SALEM HERALD: "Government statisticans show concern over the fact that 25 percent of American families live beyond their incomes. Look who's talking!'

CELINA, TEX., RECORD: "The federal government wants to give Tyler, Texas money on the grounds that the city is a 'depressed area'.

"Just how silly can politicians get? Tyler is one of the best cities in Texas, and many Tyler people don't like the implication that their progressive, lovely city is seeking alms from the rest of the country."

MOVILLE, IA., RECORD: "A farmer bought a painting, took it home and lung it first one way and then another. Each time the effect was confusing. Finally his wife asked, 'What in the world is that supposed to be? 'Why, said the farmer, 'it's a realistic picture of the farm situation. No matter h w you look at it, it just don't ALTOONA, PA., MIRROR: "The whole traffic solution in the country today lies in the use of the railroads. Still, lowever, those in authority are blind o this actual fact, and have been for y ars." VI INIA, MINN., MESABI NEWS: "Hardly a city-based polit in exists who does not shout the 1 d for urban renewal. But few bother to explain what it involves, except in the most general way. Nor do any of them tell the public that the little people in the small towns are paying for the urban renewal in the big cities."

HINSDALE, MONT., TRIBUNE: "We've had too much socialism already. Millions of Americans right now would like to see the trend reversed instead of intensified and we are among that number. If this sounds like we are against sending our money, great jobs of it to Washington, and then getting a little bit of it back as federal 'aid' in order to nationalize our schools and every other phase of American life, you're absolutely right."

NORWALK, CONN., HOUR: 'Many a politician lives to wish he had observed the Chinese axiom: 'It is better to keep one's mouth closed and better to keep one's mouth closed and be thought a fool than to open it and be thought a fool than to open it and remove all doubt."

Phones where you need them keep the whole family happy

Daughter's at the age where just asking "How's Bill" wins a big pink blush. Her own phone in her room gives important privacy and makes her feel you realize she's growing up.

For mother, the extension phone in the kitchen is like a "third arm"-saves countless steps during the many hours she spends there. She can always keep an eye on what's doing-and do it more easily!

Dad has a phone in his workshop that he wouldn't trade for a new set of tools. It gives him convenience and privacy for making or taking calls in his "leisure

Extension phones cost only $1.15 a month each, plus tax, after a small installation charge. And the new, little Princess extension phone, with built-in night light, is just $1.90 a month, plus tax, after installation. Your choice of five Princess colors at no extra charge.

Just call or visit your Telephone Business Office. Or ask the man in the telephone truck.

Well Loved Toys Need Washing.

Every toddler has a precious friend in a soft cuddly toy. Sometimes, though, this precious friend gets just too dirty by adult standards. Then comes the hour, nap time or overnight, when it must be cleaned. The makers of NuSoft, the blue concentrated fabric softener, suggest this way to wash it.

Shake well, or vacuum clean it, to remove surface dust and dirt. Make a suds with a mild soap or detergent, applying it with a small brush to the surface of the toy. Work quickly to avoid wetting the stuffing. Remove excess suds with damp cloth. Rinse very, very quickly under running water. Finally, to restore the silky, soft, like-new feel to the plushy "coat," add a half bottle capful of fabric softener to a washbowl or dishpan and fill with lukewarm water. Dunk the animal in this briefly but long enough to allow the fabric softener to act on the material—about one minute. To dry, squeeze in turkish towels and place on a rack or line. An electric fan will speed the process. Or, toys may be tumble dried in an automatic dryer at low heat.

This is the time, too, to replace lost "eyes" or other features.

A VOICE FROM CARROLL

We are glad we live in the same world and at the same time that Carl Sandburg does. For Sandburg's America is the America that we know best and love best. He writes and sings of the farmland, the coal miners, the railroad workers, the migrant workers, the oppressed Negro and the forgotten Indian. But above everything else he made America appre ciate Lincoln. Fortunately he writes in a style that is agreeable to the ears of many and in a language that is understood by all. To hear him speak is like listening to Mark Twain and Walt Whitman doing a duet in poet-ry and Americana set to the tune of Yankee Doodle Dandy. Sanburg understands what makes America different and he tries to make others see that difference and be proud of it.

Not all students resent a strict teacher. We recently heard about 160 seniors of a high school in Baltimore who signed a petition in an effort to have their teacher deferred from army duty. One student wrote "Today there are few dedicated teachers available and so we hope it will be possible to postpone our teacher's assignment to army duty until the end of the school year. He is strict, capable and a devoted teacher."

The first Christmas carols were solemn hymns devoted exclusively to the supernatural aspects of Christmas, rather than the human sides. Saint Francis of Assisi was the first to introduce the joyous spirit into a carol

Man has invented many things but one very important item he cannot claim as his brain-child, and that is paper. For the hornets made primitive paper long before man found his way out of the caves. Anyone who has explored a woods knows this is true for somewhere along the trail one will find a gray ball hanging from a low limb. This will be a hornets nest. This time of year it will be safe to exam-ine it, for all the hornets except the queen is dead and she has departed for parts unknown to hibernate until next spring. Ever since there were hornets and trees, hornets have been making wood pulp, softening it with their own saliva, and building their nests with it. The nests usually have double walls for insulation, another hornet invention. Inside the nest there are hundreds of cells, like an apartment house and ever bit of the nest is made of paper, hornet paper, the first paper ever invented. The nests are never used but once. In the spring the queen will emerge from her hiding place, build a small new nest, lay eggs, and hatch another brood of workers. The workers will gather wood-pulp and enlarge the nest, which by the middle of the summer will be a hive of activity. And woe to man or beast that disturbs it. Three times in our lives we have been stung by hornets and once knocked out cold and so we have a deep respect for their paper bag dwelling. Colorful hives are not uncommon for some hornets chew up painted wood and sometimes even discarded paper and cardboard. So don't be alarmed if you see a red, blue or pink hornets' nest perched on a tree limb, some time when you are out exploring. It will just be hornets gone modern with an artistic temperment.

We were pretty excited about a month ago when we bought a McGuffey's Third Reader at a sale. It has been estimated that the Readers, which went through many editions sold better than 120 million copies. The reading habits of nineteenth-century Americans were formed by these books and was second only to the Bible in molding the reading culture of that period. Even today, a sort of mysticism surrounds the readers. Looking through the one we bought we see at once why our mothers and fathers could read so well and write so clearly with the English language A remark at the beginning of the book echo's what modern parents are beginning to say: "To read well is, to convey with the voice fully the mean-ing contained in the passage which is To do this, it is necessary to UNDERSTAND what is read." Another reason the McGuffey readers were popular was the fact that the man responsible for them emphasized the good side of life and avoided dogma and sermonizing. Although the readers sold well Professor Mc-Duffy didn't grow rich in money. He did however, gain fame and lasting affection from thousands of school children. It is well to bear in mind when we talk about bomb tests, that up to last week, the United States was known to have conducted 157 nuclear tests since the beginning of the atomic era. Britian has detonated 21, France The total explosive power of all Mr. and Mrs. Scott Sullivan and the Western tests is about 125 megadaughter Lamore, were Saturday tons. In the same period the detection evening dinner guests at the home of 86 Soviet tests have been announced by the West. The Soviet tests have produced 170 megatons of explosive power it has been estimated. We must also remember, though many of us would like to forget it, that our thank each and everyone who rememnation was the first to drop the bomb ing at 10:00 o'clock. Mr. Howard on cities in Japan without any warn-underwear!

IN MEMORY

BAKER—In loving memory of my beloved husband and father Roy H. Baker who passed away over seven years ago.

The one we loved was called away, God took him home—it was His will, But in our hearts he liveth still.

I cannot say, and I will not say, That he is dead—he is just away, With a cheery smile And a wave of the hand, He has wandered into an unknown land.

He left us dreaming how very fair, It needs must be since he lingers there, And you, oh you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and glad return.

Think of him passing on, As dear in the love of there As the love of here. Think of him still as the same, I say he is not dead—he is just awav.

OTTO-In sad but loving memory of my dear friend, Frank W. Otto, who passed away three years ago, Dec. 8, 1958.

God saw the road was getting rough, The hills were hard to climb, He gently closed his loving eyes, And whispered "Peace be thine."

His weary nights are passed. His ever patient worn out frame, Has found sweet rest at last. The years may wipe out many things But this they wipe out never, The memory of the happy days,

His weary hours, his days of pain,

When we were both together. Do not ask me if I miss him, There's such a vacant place, Often I think I hear his voice, And see his smiling face.

Days of Sadness still come o'er me Tears in silence often flow, Memory keeps him ever near me, Though he left me three years ago.

Some may think you are forgotten, Though on earth you are no more, But in memory you are with me, As you always were before. By his devoted friend,

WHO HUNG THE TAIL ON MY CLOTHES LINE

No one was home at our place Saturday afternoon, yet when we returned home about 4 o'clock there was a deer tail hanging on our back porch clothes line.

Last year a group of us were deer hunting and at lunch time I went in with a fresh cut deer tail in my hunting coat. I told the story about knocking down a buck but while getting ready to stick him he jumped up and I grabbed and slashed at him but only got his tail. I don't think some of the members of the party quite believed my story even though I had the tail.

One member of last year's party who I respectfully call Ned, never did say he thought I varied from the truth but never did seem to believe my story correct in every detail.

The grape-vine tells me he was in this section on Saturday while I was away and that he had a deer on a little car. Do you think he is trying to disprove my story, showing me the bucks still have tails?

So far I only have circumstantial evidence on this fellow, but if anyone could give me proof, I would appreciate it. I do not know what the law would say, but it is just not right to hang a tail on some other person's clothes line.

WEEKLY SPORTS REVIEW

The United States Naval Academy, Saturday, defeated West Point's Cadets' by a score of 13-7. It was Navy's third win in a row, and their third under coach Wayne Hardin. It gave Navy their 27th victory compared with 30 for Army and five ties in the historic rivalry dating back to 1890. Some 5,000 persons including the academy's 3,800-man brigade, greeted the conquerors in a rally at Tecumseh Court, on the campus of the service school, Sunday pus of the service school, Sunday night, The team this year completed what coach Hardin describes as 'the greatest season Navy ever had—when it started with nothing."

Davis Wins Heisman Trophy

Ernie Davis, Syracuse senior half-back, became the first negro in the 27 years of the Heisman Trophy to be named college football's player of the year. Davis, a brilliant 212 pounder who is nicknamed the "Elmira Express" for his upstate New York hometown, is a quiet, soft-spoken business administration major whose blazing speed has made him as dangerous on the business end of a pass or kick as from scrimmage. Ernie, the third Eastern halfback to be honored in the past four seasons, received ored in the past four seasons, received the award December 6 at the Downtown Athletic Club in New York. Davis succeeds Navy's Joe Bellino, last year's winner.

Local Lads Honored

Ron Corbin, a 5-8, 145 pound senior at Taneytown High School was named as halfback on the 1961 Carroll County Carbolastic Sector Learning All Stars as halfback on the 1961 Carroll County Scholastic Soccer League All-Star Team. The team was selected by the circuit coaching fraternity. Others from the school who received recognition were: Dwight Copenhaver, second team lineman; and honorable mention went to Dave Hopkins, Bob Shaffer, Jerry Tracey, Wayne Hively, Wayne Putman, and Don Koontz.

Patterson Retains Title

Floyd Patterson floored Irish Tom McNeeley eight times while knock-ing out the previously unbeaten deadgame challenger in a free-swinging brawl to retain his world heavyweight boxing title. The 24-year-old challenger drew an ovation from the fans as he left the ring. For a few fleeting seconds in the fourth round, he had Patterson dizzy but the sleek champ snapped out of it and ended the fight with 2:51 of the fourth round gone.

Colts Draft Ten

As the N.F.L. drafts got underway, the Colts acquired ten players. The list at the halfway mark contained list at the halfway mark contained three backs, three tackles, and a line-backer. Three of the players drafted were futures with another year of college eligibility left. In order of selection the Colt choices were:

1. Halfback Wendell Harris, L.S.U.

Linebacker Bill Saul, Penn State. Tackle Dan Sullivan, Boston

4. Halfback Jim Dillard, Oklahoma

State.

5. Tackle Gerald Croft, Bowling Green—received for prior trade.

6. Choice traded to Redskins for

6. Choice traded to Redskins for Gary Glick.
7. Tackle Fred Miller, L.S.U. has year eligibility left.
8. Halfback Pete Brokaw, Syracuse.
9. Fullback Roy Walker, Purdue, year of eligibility left.
10. Tackle Fred M.

10. Tackle Fred Moore, Memphis State, year of eligibility left.

Lola Lucas

With faith, hope and courage, a chubby little blonde girl has answered a call to battle. The call swered a call to battle. The call came from Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, which selected seven-year-old Lola Lucas of St. Louis, Missouri, as its 1961 National Poster Child. Accepting the responsibility with an awareness of purpose unusual in one so young, the lit-

News an army of volunteers in the MARCH FOR MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY, MDAA's annual drive for funds to fight the tragic disease that afflicts Lola and tens of thousands of children like her.
Lola is a pretty, brown-eyed, precocious youngster, sparkling and energetic in spite of the musclewasting disease that weakens her daily. Diagnosed at the age of four as having dystrophy, she now must wear braces to walk. In her own words: "When I was small, I couldn't walk and all I had was prayers. Then I got orthopedic shoes and then braces. It was just in that order—prayers, prescriptions, shoes and braces—and now I'm walking."
Lola recently toured the Institute for Muscle Disease in New York City. This $5,000,000 facility, built and maintained by MDAA, is the only research center in the world devoted solely to the study of muscle and its diseases.

After watching scientists at work in their laboratories and talking with young volunteer research patients, Lola thoughtfully commented: "Now I must go out and make money to keep this place roing."

At the White House During a Washington visit, Lola was greeted at the White House by Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, who was pinch-hitting for Mrs. John F. Kennedy, Honorary Chairman of MDAA. President Kennedy, while still U.S. Senator for Massachusetts, served for three years (1958-60) as Honorary State Chairman of the MARCH.

The Kennedys were in Hyannis-fort at the time of Lola's visit, but the little girl was thrilled at see-ing the President's rocker and desk ("The wood is old, old, old"), Caroline's doll house ("Boy! Is that ever a big playhouse!") and the swimming pool ("Looks more like a 'lake")

Lola's earnestness and dedication astonish and charm everyone as she goes about recruiting for her army. She has personally en-listed the support of such Wash-ington notables as HEW Secretary Ribicoff and Senators Dirksen, Symington, Holland and Beall.

Unshakeably Poised Lola loves an audience. A gifted Lola loves an audience. A gifted mimic and singer, her uninhibited performances generally bring down the house. Recently, in an appearance before a large audience in Washington, she gave a saucy rendition of "Whatever Lola Warts, Lola Gets." As the applause subsided, she remarked coolly, "The it's nothing. I've done it a jillion times on television." In addition to making personal specific personal specif addition to making personal appearances on local TV shows, Lola is co-starring with Jerry Lewis, MDAA's Nacharl Chairman, in a spectacular case-lour TV film called "High He case"

Children and flicted with dystrophy rarely survive to maturity. Their only hope lies in scientific research. However, the day when dystrophy is conquered will undoubtedly come a little sooner because of the inspiration and fighting spirit of this little. Joan of A.

Growing By Study Lesson for December 10, 1961

DECEMBER 10th of this year is celebrated all around the world by Christians as Bible Sunday. There are many fine and truthful things to be said about story of how it came down to us is a story of courage, brilliance and heroism. But people do not read it enough. Not even Christians, whose book it chiefly is, spend

Dr. Foreman enough time on it. What conceivable good could you get out of any book if you read only from one to six inches of it a day?

Books are like foods

You expect to see half-starved people in certain oriental countries, where most people never see a square meal. But sometimes you see half-starved people in America, in the midst of abundance. This may be for several reasons. This scrawny person may eat a good deal of the wrong kind of food, or of only one kind. He may fill up on trash and not have an appetite for solid nourishment. Or he may have something wrong with his insides, so that no matter what he eats, his system does not assimilate it.

Books are something like foods. They nourish their readers-that is to say, good books do. Some books are like trash, they fill the mind and starve it at the same time. Some books may be good, but not good by themselves; as a steady diet they lack some important vitamins,-like cornmeal, and lettuce, for instance. And sometimes a man or boy may read a perfectly good book and get nothing out of it, because the mind just won't take it in, or the heart rejects it. Christians, even some who read the Bible, may have scrawny souls for any of these reasons

Growing in Mind

A person who did nothing but read the Bible day and night would not be a good Christian, just as a person who sat at the table eating, day and night, would be a mighty poor specimen physically The Bible, however, is like corn-flakes in one respect; a few flakes a day are hardly enough. Reading it wisely and regularly, with all the help you can get, will surely nourish you .- Your mind, to begin with. A book which appealed to your emotions alone would not be a good book-it would be like the cotton candy they sell at county fairs The Bible introduces you to great thoughts, great truths, great people. Consider Jesus; if he were the only character in the Bible, it would still be the greatest book in the world because he is the greatest person in the world. A man said of a great lady, "to love her is a liberal education." This could be said more truly about Jesus; one who comes to love Him through study of the Bible, in which He is the central Figure, will findto use Paul's words-that he is being transformed through the renewing of his mind Growing in Spirit nourish the soul of the reader. The Christian grows in spirit not less than in mind What this means can be seen from that famous passage in 1 Timothy 3:15-16 The sacred writings, Paul says, are "able to instruct you."-not guaranteed to do so. for if you don't want to be instructed you won't be!-"to instruct you for salvation through faith." Inspired Scripture, Paul goes on to say, is profitable (among other ways) for training in righteousness. This does not mean learning some code of conduct or any set of rules. It means becoming an expert in the kind of living that Christ shows us. It means not merely doing more right things, it means becoming a more right person.

But the Bible will especially

wo things are necessary for growth: food and exercise. Without the Bible, the Christian's life may be active but it is not healthy, it is the nervous activity of cose who lack solid foods. On the other hand, reading the Bible or even studying it, without ever presing it, produces spiritual in a sestion, not growth. Righteousness -- goodness, straight-ness as the old Hebrews called itcorner by faith; but faith calls for works just so food calls for ereceise, if we are to grow in strengt:

After Three Years

Clean Electric Heat Wins Praise From Active Family

The Fred Cerfedas, of South Salem, N.Y., have done a heap o' livin'—three years of it, in fact—in their Gold Medallion Home overlooking Lake Truesdale near the Connecticut border.

Theirs is an active family, but they've found their all-electric home has been able to keep pace with them. Electric heat, always part of a Gold Medallion home, is one of the features they value especially especially.

"Of course, electric heat is comfortable," Mrs. Cerfeda says, "because there aren't any drafts, and it's convenient because of a thermostat in every room. But the thing I like most is its

"Both my husband and I are teachers and are away from the house most of the day, so we appreciate anything that helps lighten housework." Cleaning bills have been a lot lower, too, the adds bills have been a lot lower, too, she adds.

The Cerfeda's point out that with electric heat they have no furnace, pipes, or boiler to maintain or clutter their basement. Without these items to pay for, their heating system cost less to buy and install.

Mrs. Cerfeda has found that performing her dual jobs of teacher and housewife is made a lot easier by other Gold Me-

Are "Cold" Winters Necessary?

BY JOAN MARCH WORDEN Director, Pine Cleaner Information Center.

One of the reasons that "woman's work is never done" is because she spends a lot of her working time looking for her "tools" among the vast assortment of cleaning aids she can find on today's market.

Reducing your cleaning kit to basics and assembling them in one place is a great short cut to cleaning which results in a carry-all to carry out most cleaning projects.

You can easily turn a soft drink carton into a kit for basic cleaning materials. Here's

1. Cover the carton with adhesive plastic in whatever pattern you like. The one pictured was done with three pieces of plastic—exactly half the width of the ordinary roll you can get in the dime or hardware store. The plastic does more than just decorate: it strengthers the carten and protects it. ens the carton and protects it against moisture. 2. Stock the kit. Basics can vary, but here are five good

1. A pine oil cleaner: Any of the general purpose cleaners containing pine oil on the market will do. Make sure the label says "contains pine oil", then look to your pine cleaner to do such jobs as cleaning tile and faucets; scouring kitchen pots and pans; helping to dissolve grease on stove or frying pans. Why look for "pine oil"? Because it's nature's own solvent-since it dissolves grease and oil it gives a big boost to any other cleaning agent it may be combined with as well as do-ing a lot of hard cleaning jobs well on its own.

2. & 3. Two types of sponges: The "soak up" and 'scrub off" type. 4. A sponge cloth: It wipes up moisture and doubles as a dishcloth and polisher. 5. A pine spray: Nature's own fragrance doesn't compete with flowers or perfume but adds a glamorous touch to an unglamorous job.

These simple basics for cleaning are chosen with an eye toward simplicity as well as function. A recent Gallup survey turned up the information that women want one product that cleans, disinfects and deodorizes. That's pine cleaner. And, since women answering the same survey also said they'd like rooms to smell as clean as they looked, pine spray was fit-ed into the kit to insure this.

Previews of Progress

Students were treated to an action-packed 45 minutes last Friday, as "Previews of Progress," General Motors' traveling science show, was presented before the Taneytown High School students and faculty. The two young men who presented the program, Ron Theis and Ted Morand, are one of the seven two-man teams touring the country with identical science programs sponsored by General Motors.

eral Motors.

The show was off to a flying start as Mr. Theis poured the contents of a small bottle of bluish liquid into a clear liquid in a pop bottle. He then announced that he would "shake the bottle well before using." After "checking the exits in the event of an unusual occurrence," the cork was released from the bottle and a grey glob of synthetic rubber leapt for-glob of synthetic rubber leapt for-ward, startling many of the students. Microwaves, the method used in transmitting television programs and telephone messages across the country, were demonstrated. By using his hands to stop and reflect the waves, Mr. Theis was able to conduct the orchestra music on a record player that was attached to the microwave transmitter.

A new mode of transportation was shown as a model ground effect vehicle was started and slid over a table on a thin cushion of air. Perhaps the most fascinating demonstration was the Sunmobile, a 15-in. stration was the Sunmobile, a 15-in. model car, that features photoelectric cells as a means of energy. A floodlight was used to simulate the bright rays of the sun as the car scooted across the table; propelled solely by the power of light.

The show then moved along into the construction of three "fuel cells". These were explained as another alternate method of producing electrons.

ternate method of producing electricity after the world's reserves of oil and gas are depleted. Three drops of fuel were sufficient to power a portable, ring a bell, and spin a wheel

A highlight of the show, to the delight of the audience, occurred when a volunteer was picked to help with a demonstration. The volunteer, Ronnie Corbin, was asked to pick up a small suitcase on the floor that emitted a strange buzzing sound. Ronnie was then told to swing the suitcase at his side in a straight line. Unknown to him and the audience at that time, a gyroscope within the suitcase had previously been set in motion and then rendered the suitcase stubbornly uncontrollable. So as the suitcase was moved, it failed to respond as expected. highlight of the show, to the

to respond as expected.

Man's development of new materials through chemistry was shown.

A foam plastic was made that proved soft and resilient enough to permit an egg to be bounced on it without breaking.

The grand finale was provided by a roaring jet engine. A miniature pulse jet was demonstrated that proved to be so loud that the audience had to cover their ears.

Mr. Musser, the principal of Taneytown High, remarked that the program was outstanding and afforded many ideas for student science fair

He asked that General Motors include Taneytown High on its next science show itinerary.

MEALTH HINTS FOR THE FAMILY LITTLE CHILDREN AND THEIR COLDS

by: Margaret Little*

Tommy was being given an intelligence test. One of the questions was "Name some things that run."
Tommy thought a minute and then came out with "Boys' noses." And Tommy was right, boys' noses do run a lot when boys are little—and right' posses are no better.

and girls' noses are no better. Tolds, runny noses, some coughs, are part of growing up. They are certainly a nuisance, and sometimes more than just a nuisance because they can develop into more serious illnesses such as previous because they can develop into more serious illnesses, such as pneumonia or bronchitis. Some little children have more colds than others but every little child has more colds than he gets a bit older.

And this is the crux of the matter. Older children and grown ups have fewer colds than they had at an earlier age because each tim they live through a cold they build up a little resistance and finally they build up enough so that they do not catch cold so frequently. The runny nose of childhood passes

In general a child in good health can weather his colds with less danger of complications than a child in poor health. So good food, plenty of sleep, exercise and sun-shine, are always desirable.

The first sign of a cold is usually

These measures will help pre-vent the cold from developing into something more serious. It will take a youngster four to five days, sometimes a week to recover from a simple cold and you can feel you have added one more brick to the wall of resistance, that, in the years to come, will protect him.

Needless to say if any child, seems unduly ill with his cold, has the runny nose, sometimes there is some cough too. If that is all, keep the youngster a little quieter than usual, if you can, give him juices than high fever, is drowsy or knocked out, take him immediately to your doctor. He has more than a simple cold.
