WERE YOU THERE?

A well-known Easter hymn is entitled "Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" This is a thought-provoking question, and one which all of us should think about especially during this Holy Week.

Let us, first of all, consider the various people who played a part in Christ's crucifixion. Let us then, in the light of our own characters, try to imagine what our respective roles might have been, had we been in Jerusalem during that first Holy Week almost 2,000 years ago.

If we like thrills and crowds and excitement we would no doubt have been in the throng of people who welcomed Jesus into Jerusalem as He entered that ancient city, riding on the back of a donkey. We, too, would have shouted "Hosanna" as we waved palm branches and scattered garments along His road. But then, when Jesus refused to let us crown Him as our earthly king, we would no doubt have been in the very same crowd which, five days later, shouted, "Crucify Him!"

If we are inclined to be proud and self-righteous, it is entirely possible that we would have numbered ourselves with the scribes and Pharisees. These arrogant Jewish leaders hated Christ and were so jealous of Him that nothing short of His death would satisfy them. These men absolutely refused to believe that Jesus was God's only Son. If we had been in their midst, we might have bargained with Judas Iscariot, offering to give him 30 pieces of silver for showing us where to arrest Jesus. Or we might have persuaded the fickle mob to shout "Crucify Him" when Pilate asked what should be done with Jesus.

It is even possible that some of us might have been Roman soldiers whose duty it was to beat Christ and then nail Him to the Cross. Crucifixion was the Roman method of execution. To these hardened men, it was merely a job to be done.

Our role might have been that of a scornful by-stander, who jested at and mocked Christ as He was dying on Calvary. We might have shouted, along with others, "If You are really the Son of God, save Yourself and come down from the cross."

However, had we been friends and followers of Jesus, the situation would have been entirely different. True, we would have forsaken the Master when He was arrested. Like Peter, we would have denied Him. But like him, we would have shed bitter tears over the whole affair. We would have stood at the Cross, heart-broken by the cruel suffering and shameful death of our Lord. We might have helped lay His body in the new tomb. And then, wonder of wonders, we might have been among the first to hear the joyous news, "Our Lord is not dead, He is risen!" We might even have peered into the empty tomb on that first Easter morning.

"Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" All of us were there—maybe not in the flesh, but well represented by other people just like us.

—Zola Cantwell.

"Conscience is the still small voice that makes us feel still smaller."—Van W. Davis, Huntsville (Mo.) Randolph County Times Herald.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Now, Spring is busting out all over and the smiles all over are just as plentiful. Eh?

Hope you and you did not miss "The Home and Garden Show" at the Armory for it was most attractive and interesting. The color scheme was Old Rose and Dove Gray over head and carried throughout the entire Armory which gave comph to the affair. It was almost the same as other years and I loved the garden affairs for they were most fetching and the displays were beautifully done. Gave many individuals ideas as to planning a garden.

LETTERS:

Dear Observer: I am a widow and am employed and my sisters and friends do not understand when I tell them not to call on me unexpectedly as I usually clean my apartment at night and do much else around on the week-ends and I would prefer them calling me on the telephone first. Don't you think this is proper and do you think it wrong for telling them frankly? Signed, Anxious.

Dear Anxious: If you would tell me that, I do not think I would desire to ever call to see you either for there might be times when your family or I would be passing and would like a few words with you. I think you are going to lose many friends if you maintain this idea and attitude for you will be very lonely in years to come for it is the friends you have today who will be your friends in the years to come. Your O.

Dear Observer: I do not smoke and many women do who are my friends and when they come to see me, it makes me sick with the thick smoke of one cigarette after the other. It really is disgusting! What say you? How should I handle that situation? Thank you! Signed, Hostess.

Dear Hostess: Well, to that I will reply—you and me, too! Of course you could tell them that it makes you ill and they would be kind enough not to smoke so much and that way they may take the hint. Yet you must handle this situation carefully for it seems to have become a real habit with dozens of women. Your O.

Dear Observer: A number of friends had this discussion over a card table the other night after watching last Saturday night's Champagne Music and the dancers. What is the proper way for a girl to place her left arm and hand in dancing and is it proper for the girl to applaud, to, after the dance is over? Years ago it was only the gentleman who applauded, never the lady. Awaiting your reply before our next card game. Signed, Six Curious.

Dear Six Curious: In dancing, a lady places her hand on the shoulder of her partner—never her arm around or across his shoulder. As to a lady applauding — it is done all over these days and I would do the same, to, if I enjoyed the dancing of my partner. Your O.

Dear Observer: Will you kindly answer the following questions? Which is your favorite TV Actress or Star and also your Musical Programs? Signed, G. M.

Dear G. M.: Julie Harris in without a doubt my favorite Star on TV and also Joan Crawford. As to any Musical TV program, I love Opera and any good Classical program with a Lawrence Welk program now and then. His show last week was the very best, Gay and Breezy! Your O.

Dear Observer: I always make a cake from any type of "Box Mix" and my husband makes me so angry stating he hates it. I do not have time for the old fashioned homemade. He keeps harping on, "This is not the kind my Mother used to make!" What do you think how appreciative he is and what would you do? Signed, Mary.

Dear Mary: I am not going to think about it for I agree 100% with your Mr. No box cake can ever, ever compare with a real home-made one! Your O.

Dear Observer: In a letter about a year ago, you stated that you believe in young marriages. Do you still feel that way? Thank you? Signed, Just Eighteen.

Dear Just Eighteen: No, I have not changed my mind as to young marriages but only when two young people have a lot of common sense and realize the serious step. Your O.

Next week's Column will be writing of the Aries Individuals—those born from March 20 to April 20. Have a grand week-end. Be thoughtful and considerate at all times and love one another. Until next week. D. V.

I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER

FACTS AND OPINIONS

Walter Lippmann writes in Newsweek: "This country faces severe competition and the American people will have to learn that they have much to learn. European industry is by way of being at least as sophisticated technologically as our own, and our advantages in resources and a mass market are disappearing. We shall be challenged in all the world markets and we shall need the kind of discipline which human beings submit to only when they know they are challenged."

A publication of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce reports that American private shipyards began 1963 with the smallest commercial order book in years. Only 54 ships were building or on order, as compared with 93 in the peak year of 1958.

From the Saturday Evening Post: "Somehow, we are less worried about embarrassing Mr. Khrushchev than we are about losing Latin America. . . . As long as Cuba remains an armed Communist state, it will continue to serve as the Soviets' advance base for their program of conquest in Latin America. . . . We must, by every means available to us as a leader among free nations, keep alive the hope of a future anti-Communist revolution in Cuba. Clearly, the present situation is intolerable. President Kennedy must stop merely hoping that Khrushchev will withdraw his forces. He must demand it and be prepared, as we believe the American people are prepared, to apply force if necessary to back up the demand. We don't care if it does embarrass Mr. Khrushchev."

Writing in the Wall Street Journal Alfred L. Malabre, Jr., says that spending by state and local governments has increased nearly 400 per cent since World War II — a far larger proportionate increase than in federal expenditures. The result is a steep climb in non-federal tax rates which continues unabated.

A publication of the Montana Power Company holds that the American people are abandoning ". . . one of the mightiest weapons that could work for America's advantage in the cold war." In its words, "If we are to take that war seriously—and we certainly should, before it is too late — it seems almost axiomatic that American high schools should not graduate any boy or girl who has not at least been exposed to enough instruction on our economic system so that he or she will understand it and can explain it fully to whatever foreign citizens may be met in later years."

From the Portland Oregonian: "It is questionable that Americans can use enough more automobiles, refrigerators, television sets, etc., to sustain manufacture and servicing sufficient to provide full employment. Especially is this true when, to meet cheaper foreign competition, automation has to be installed in American plants, which reduces in turn the number of jobs made available. The long-range answer to U.S. unemployment would seem to lie in development of foreign markets."

Americans represent only six per cent of the world's population. Yet they account for almost half of the petroleum consumed on earth each year.

An official of Texaco, Inc., says: "Don't think your letters (to Congressmen) don't count. They do. The only time they don't count is when you don't write them."

TOP DEPENDABILITY

Behind the back plate of your telephone are 475 parts.

Like all of the thousands of unseen parts that make up your telephone service—they do their job well. They're designed to. They're manufactured to.

In fact, few things you depend on are likely to give you less trouble than your telephone.

Another thought.

If and when something does go wrong with your phone, we take care of it. Repairs are made quickly and at no additional cost to you.

Our aim is simple: to make sure that your low monthly service charge buys you the most dependable, convenient telephone service possible.

CURRENT EVENTS
FIFTY YEARS AGO

The weather, this and last week, with the frequent snow squalls last Sunday, has been anything but Spring like—more like March than April.

Mrs. D. W. Garner left for Newark, N. J. on Wednesday taking with her to his home, Master Robert Hoagland, who had been here about three months.

The following were present every day during the Spring term at Hobson Grove school: Elsie Foreman, Grace Hahn, Helen Hahn, Blanche Hahn, Elizabeth Kiser, Elenora Kiser, Bruce Shirk, Luther Hahn, Luther Jones, Charles Hahn, Albert Hahn, and Carroll Valentine.

Last Saturday was a "red letter" business day in Taneytown, the chief attraction being the Bowersox sale. The town was filled with hundreds of people, many of them from a distance, and our business places generally were well patronized.

Harney — Josiah Wantz has been taking away the trees in front of his house. Charles Harner lost a horse and colt last week. We are informed that the little year-old child of Augustus Dayhoff, died on Monday night from a ruptured blood vessel caused by coughing.

Copperville — Percy H. Shriver, his little daughter, and nurse are visiting in Baltimore with the family of Dr. Hering. Mrs. Bendigo Newcomer in assisting her son, Samuel, in moving met with a serious accident. There being several doors close together, she opened the wrong door and fell into the cellar, fortunately there were no bones broken. Samuel Hill, colored, of Taneytown, moved on Tuesday to Thomas Fleagles property near Trevanion.

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR

Greetings to you: Happy birthday greetings on the 12th to Mrs. Mark Baumgardner of Keytown.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller who were married Saturday afternoon at the Middleburg Methodist Church. Mrs. Miller is the former Miss Ruth Smith of Middleburg, Pa., near DuBois. They are employed at the Rosewood Hospital in Owings Mills. Those who attended the wedding from the Terra Rubra Girls' 4-H Club—of which Mrs. Miller was a former member—were Mrs. Carroll Wilhide, Jane and Beth, Mrs. Richard Wilhide and Patti Poole.

Congratulations also to Mr. and Mrs. James Melvin Austin who were married at the Keysville Lutheran Church on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Austin is the former Miss Patricia Miller of Westminster.

The Keysville-Detour Homemakers next meeting will be Wednesday the 17th at the home of Mrs. Edward Coshun with Mrs. William Weishaar as co-hostess. Mrs. Coshun and Mrs. Weishaar are the Food Leaders and will have the demonstration for the evening entitled "Buffet Meals from the Freezer."

Cub Pack #450 will hold their next Pack Meeting on Friday the 19th.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide of Keysville were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide, Jane and Beth, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wilhide and Denise of Detour and Mrs. William E. Ritter and Mr. and Mrs. John Harner, Steven and Brenda, of Taneytown, as well as Richard Keilholz of Keysville.

Guest speaker at Keysville Lutheran Church on Sunday was Mr. Larry Camberg, student at the Seminary in Gettysburg. The Easter Lily was placed in the church by Mr. and Mrs. William Fleharty in memory of her mother, Mrs. Elmer Wolfgang, and his aunt, Miss Mayne Fleharty.

There was some confusion this past Sunday about the Altar flowers so I would like to take this opportunity to repeat: If at any time anyone who is not on the Flower Committee for the month would like to place flowers in the church, please contact the chairman for that month to make arrangements. It helps the chairman to plan ahead.

Mrs. Raymond (Elizabeth) Myers, who is a patient at the Frederick Memorial Hospital, was operated on on Wednesday, April 3. Latest report I've heard is she is responding well. Elizabeth is a fine person and has had so much illness already. I'm sure she very much appreciates cards sent to her.

How nice to see Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Heaps, Patsy and Helen, of Street, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eicher of Baltimore, in Church on Sunday. I'm sure the Heaps family were visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cluts of Keysville, and Mr. and Mrs. Eicker with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Steffen of Sixes Bridge Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Miller of Frederick were Friday evening visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide of Forest and Stream Club Rd. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conover and Debbie of near Taneytown visited on Saturday evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fogel of Johns-ville.

Please Note: At 1:30 P. M. on Friday, April 19, there will be a meeting at the Keysville Lutheran Sunday School Building to plan for the Vacation Bible School which will probably be held the last two weeks in June. Teachers and helpers are needed. If you would be willing to offer time and help to this worthwhile project, please contact Pastor Brake (775-2278) or Mrs. Ruth Wilhide (756-6818) even though you will not be able to attend this meeting. Thank you.

Don't forget the Luther League Paper Drive on April 20 and 27. Have you called 775-5802 one evening to ask for pick-up service? The money realized from this drive will be used toward new choir robes which are much needed.

Those who visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conover and Debbie on Sunday afternoon were Mr. Norman Baumgardner with his granddaughter, Patti Jester, and her girl friend, Susan Lowry, all of Taneytown. Super guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Fogel and son, Junior, of New Midway. Visitors to this same home on Monday afternoon were Mrs. Luther Claibough, Mrs. Daniel Ridinger and daughter, Betty.

Lutheran Church Women are invited to attend the District Assembly Meeting on Thursday, April 18, at Trinity Lutheran Church in Taneytown. Registration from 9 to 10 A. M. and the meeting from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. with lunch to be served for $1.25.

Communion will be served at Keysville Lutheran Church on Easter Sunday. Service begins at 10:45 A. M. An Easter Sunrise Service will be held in the Union Bridge Methodist Church beginning at 6 A. M.

The Union Bridge Lutheran Parish Men's Chorus sang Sunday evening at the Beaver Dam Brethren Church for a Palm Sunday Service arranged by the Young People of the Church. Slides were also shown and the story told was called "Light in Darkness."

Big doings at the Key-De-Blue Farm owned by Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide: A big new silo is being constructed there. It is a Fickes silo and the measurements are 26' by 60'. Work began on April 2 with four workmen commuting from near Carlisle, Pa., and at this writing—o-

Tuesday afternoon—they are in the process of doing the plastering. We Fleharty's have had "ringside seats" (so to speak) for it is directly below us. It has been quite interesting to watch it grow, and when I said it is big, I meant BIG!

At last my family and I have had the opportunity to meet Miss Macie Forney of near Keytown. Thanks to the kind invitation of Mrs. Charles Brawner of Baumgardner Road, with whom Miss Macie is staying during her illness, Mr. Fleharty, the children and I visited with them on Sunday afternoon. It was also our first meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Brawner and we had a fine visit together. Miss Macie so appreciated all the cards she received after I wrote of her illness.

The Elmer Wolfe P-TA met on Monday evening after classroom visits with the teachers. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. David Cramer. New business was the report by the Chairman of the Nominating Committee, Mr. Berman Weeks. The ballots are to be mailed to you soon and it was stressed to please return them immediately so they can be counted and the new officers elected for introduction at the May Day Exercises on May 1. If this can be done it will not be necessary to have a later P-TA meeting for the May Day Exercises have been moved forward to the first rather than be held on the usual P-TA meeting night. A Panel Discussion was held on "Honor Roll" with Mrs. David Cramer, Mrs. Francis Nusbbaum, Mr. Robert Martin, and Mr. Gilbert Peron as the Panel and Mr. Paul Bowman as the Moderator. This served to explain why an Honor Roll is not used by the Elmer Wolfe School for Junior High students, and was very well done.

As a "fairly new" P-TA member, I have been amazed at how small the attendance at the meetings. Surely with eight grades at Elmer Wolfe School there are more than a handful of parents who are interested in what goes on and in visiting with the teachers before meetings for personal reports on their children. I can't help wondering: What can be the drawback?

—Dharlys Fleharty.

This poem was given me by a friend, the title:

My Get Up and Go, Got Up and Went

How do I know my youth is all spent? Well, my get up and go has got up and went; but in spite of it all, I am able to grin when I think of all the places my get up has been.

Old age is golden, so I've heard said, but sometimes I wonder, when I get out of bed. With my ears in a drawer, my teeth in a cup, my eyes on the table until I wake up.

"Ere sleep claims my eyes, I say to myself, is there anything else I should lay on the shelf? And I am happy to say as I close my room door, my friends are the same and peeps a bit more.

When I was young, my slippers were red; I could kick up my heels right over my head. When I grew older my slippers were blue but I still could dance the whole night through.

Now that I'm old my slippers are black; I walk to the store and puff my way back. The reason I know my youth is all spent, my get up and go has got up and went.

But I really don't mind, as I think with a grin of all the grand places my get up has been. Since I've retired from life's competition, I busy myself with complete repetition.

I get up each morning and dust off my wits, pick up the paper and read the obits; if my name is still missing, I know I'm not dead, so I eat a good breakfast and go back to bed!

A VOICE FROM CARROLL

There is a two-page article in this month's Reader's Digest which is thoughtful reading for everyone from age ten to eighty. The title, "Let's Dare to Be Square." The main thought of the article is about the word "square." Not too long ago it meant honesty and fairness. Today the meaning has been twisted to imply a not too bright person who has never learned to cut corners, to goof-off, and to play everyone for a fool. A person is a "square" if he's burdened down with old-fashioned honesty, loyalty and thrift. If he believes in discipline for himself and others or if he likes classical music and good books. Indeed, "square" has become a naughty word to part of our population. Read the article. It will give you something to think about. Many people complain that there is no purpose to their life today. After you digest the article you may find that your purpose is to dare to be a real "square."

No symbol, in art or religion, is so universal as the cross. It appears twice in our alphabet as the letters T and X. It is worn by priests on their robes, by distinguished laymen as a sign of distinction and by less distinguished persons for one reason or another. It is engraved on church vessels and embroidered on altar cloths and cut in relief on tombs and monuments. But it is a mistake to suppose that the cross has only a Christian meaning.

It was used by primitive people of North and South America as well as ancient nations of the Old World. Spaniards found the cross as an object of worship in the temple of Mexico when they invaded that country. The Mexican never heard of the Christian religion until the Spaniards introduced it into their country. The Indians regard the cross as a mystic emblem of the four cardinal points of the compass. Neither was the cross always regarded as a symbol of honor. Among the Syrians and later the Romans, it was used as a brand to punish slaves, robbers, assassins and rebels. Jesus was reckoned a rebel because He proclaimed Himself the Messiah.

Cicero believed the cross should be abolished for the many evil things it represented. Even Bertrand Russell thinks that the cross is a symbol of shame.

The Christians adopted the cross as the symbol of their faith because of the death of Christ on the Cross. They did not look upon His death as one of shame but one of glory. The instrument of Christ's Passion, by His death upon it, became sacred to all who believe in the Christian religion.

All who grew up in the era when Grandma was the main medical consultant for the family, surely remember the high castor oil bottle that had its sacred spot in the family pantry. Of course, the bottle, along with Grandma, has disappeared since viruses and doctors have become more popular. But castor oil has reappeared. Not to be swallowed in job lots by the ever-suffering families but to be used by electronic experts in the deep-sea acoustic projector. (Whatever that is.) The electronic engineers are welcome to all the castor oil that they need for the bad taste of it still lingers after twenty years with me and if modern science has found a use for it other than human consumption it has my undying gratitude.

We suggest that Americans adopt an Arab custom of bead thumping. Many Arabs go about their daily routines carrying a strand of beads. Whether walking, talking or sitting, the Arab thumps the beads on a string in rhythmic motion. It is not a religious act but a practice to relax tense nerves and soothe away the cares of the day. Arabs say the beads help to induce tranquil thinking. What couldn't these "nervous" beads do for jittery America. One could start a fad and a business by introducing them to all the weight-watchers, chain smokers, pill swallowers and highway speeders as a cure for their weakness.

The Maryland Tuberculosis Association held a luncheon at the Hotel Stafford, Baltimore, April 4, to honor the counties that exceeded last year's Christmas Seal total. Virtually every county in the state received an award. The Carroll County Tuberculosis Association was represented by Mrs. Ethel Cook and Mrs. Ruth Roelke.

Eight-year-old Danny was showing business know-how beyond his years when he proposed to raise rabbits and sell the babies for Easter bunnies. All went according to plan, and he banked money regularly. But when he kept putting money in his bank long after the baby rabbits were sold, his mother became suspicious and questioned him. "Well, Mom," he explained, "with snow on the ground I've promised to lead my mother rabbit around people's yards on the night before Easter . . . I'm selling rabbit tracks."

"I am completely committed to the whole principle of Academic Freedom as an essential atmosphere where those scholars can work who are devoting their lives to the search for truth, and who are attempting to open windows of understanding through which their students can peer in their search for knowledge. Freedom not only to think but to put thoughts into words without fear of reprisal, must of necessity be the hallmark of any college worthy of its name." (Taken from the President's column and written by Lowell S. Ensor, President of Western Maryland College.)

The wind last week took our old apple tree. It was so old that it rarely bore any fruit but it was an ideal place for birds to build their nests. The storms and winds it had weathered had twisted its limbs into grotesque shapes that gave it a look of strength and an air of nobility. But the wind was stronger than the tree and gently laid its full length on the ground. From there it will eventually find its way to our fireplace. For a time we will miss its shade and the birds will miss its branches but we will plant another tree and the birds will find another nesting place. Life goes on.

This is the season when parishioners get insulted because the pastor doesn't recognize them from one Easter to another.

—Ruth Roelke.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS
International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

He Lives

Lesson for April 14, 1963

Bible Material: Mark 15:42 through 16:8.
Devotional Reading: Matthew 23:1-10, 16-20.

CHRIST is risen! That will be said countless thousands of times this Easter day. If the human race has not wiped itself out by this day, there will be millions of Christians throughout the world who say this amazing sentence with thankful joy. The words should never become commonplace. Consider what the early Christians meant by this. All the first Christ-believers were Jews; and at that time they all believed that the words they put it, (Daniel 12:2.) As we would put it, they believed in a kind of delayed immortality. If you had asked the ordinary pious Jew of Jesus' day, "Where are the dead, now?" he might have said, "Asleep in the dust," or "Among the others in the shadow-world of the grave."

He lives!
But after the first Easter Sunday, the Christians did not go around saying, "Christ is asleep in the dust! Christ is a ghost among ghosts!" Those are far from comforting thoughts. What the Christians said was, "He is risen!" which means, if it means anything, "He lives!" And they didn't mean "in heaven." They meant right here, where they had seen Him and spoken with Him. It is true, after a time He disappeared and was seen on earth in the old way no more. But that did not depress those Christians. They never knew how to explain it, and they did not try. But what they had seen, they had seen, and nothing ever shook them out of the conviction: Jesus lives! To put this in another way: The characteristically Christian way to think about Jesus Christ is as a now-living person. He lives in memory. He lives on the pages of history. Books have been written to show that Jesus was a real historical character; but that is not the point. Past tenses have never been enough for a Christian speaking of Christ. True, He was and He did thus and so. But it is more important to remember that He is and He does so and so. Read through the New Testament and you will find that Christ is in the past tense in the gospels, because they are dealing with history. The rest of the New Testament speaks of Jesus mainly in the present. He lives!

Another way to look at this Easter-faith of the church is to emphasize that little pronoun HE. He lives. The early Christians could see a difference between the Jesus they knew before Calvary and the Jesus they knew after the resurrection. The difference was great enough so that they sometimes did not recognize Him at first. Nevertheless when they did break through their hesitations and believed what they saw, it was never as a stranger that they saw Him. If the man next door to you is a man you know little of except that he is a friendly grey-haired man who always has a pleasant word for his neighbors and works on his yard on Saturdays,—and then one day you discover he is a superior court judge, you may be taken aback; you may not recognize him with his robes on up there on the bench. But it's the same man. So the Jesus, whose living-forever the church celebrates at Eastertide, is the same Jesus we read about in the pages of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. Not somebody better or different, but Himself. HE lives! "Risen in you"

"If Christ be risen in you,—" so begins a famous chapter in Colossians. This seems at first like a strange way to think about the Resurrection. Not as a historic event outside us, like most events, but an event that happens inside us. Is this a miracle? Perhaps it is. But perhaps it is what God intended for us all along, that we should not be burial-grounds in which the thoughts and the love of Christ are laid away, but resurrection places, from which Christ rises every day, not once in a lifetime,—rises to think in our thoughts, hope in our hopes, work in our work; or rather rises in us so that we have to say at last, All the good in me is not mine but His!
