THE TANEYTOWN LIONS INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

International Counsellor John W. Morgan of Frederick installed the following officers who will be in charge of the Club for the year 1963-64. Frank O. Wargny, president; Thomas H. Smith, vice president; C. David Hiltz, 2nd vice president; Donald R. Lawyer, 3rd vice president; Kenneth C. Shorb, secretary-treasurer; Delmont Koons, Tail Twister; Dr. Paul Roxin, Lion Tamer, and Directors Kenneth Gilds, Thomas Tracy, Frank Dunham and Theodore Fair.

Lion John Hottinger was in charge of the program. This meeting was a Ladies' Night with almost all wives present. President Lewis Baer presented a check of fifty dollars to the Taneytown High School Future Business Leaders of America. This check was to help toward sending delegates to the National FBLA Convention in Dallas, Texas. Betty Stonesifer and Carol Ann Bair, who were delegates, accepted the check and gave talks on their experiences at the Convention.

The new Past President Lewis Baer presented the gavel to the new President Frank O. Wargny who gave a short talk.

Due to the 4th of July falling on Thursday we will go to press one Day Earlier next week. Have your copy in to us ONE DAY EARLIER, Please.

THE CARROLL RECORD

AWARDED GOLD SEAL

The Future Business Leaders of America chapter of Taneytown High School was awarded the honor of a "Gold Seal Chapter" signifying them as one of the outstanding chapters in the nation.

Two local members, Carol Ann Bair and Betty Stonesifer, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Bair and Mr. and Mrs. Earle K. Stonesifer, received the award at the National FBLA Convention, June 9-11, in Dallas, Texas.

They arrived by jet in Dallas Saturday, June 8, and spent the day sightseeing and getting used to the warm (98-100 degree) weather.

After registration, the Public Speaking event and National Get-Together were held. Maryland's entrant won the Eastern Region Public Speaking contest.

Mr. Webb, National President, presided at the First General Session, Monday morning, where the official welcome to Dallas was given by the President of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. Arthur Smith, Vice President and Economist, First National Bank in Dallas, spoke on "First, We Must Understand."

Discussion groups met in the afternoon on five phases of "The Role of FBLA" in connection with the convention theme, "Careers in Business, Ours by Choice."

Joint sessions by regions provided the opportunity for campaign speeches and literature for national offices. Tuesday highlighted the convention as the more than 800 FBLA'ers visited a dude ranch, complete with rodeo and chuck-wagon dinner, and participated in the Awards Banquet. Awards were presented then for "Gold Seal Chapters," Public Speaking events, Mr. and Miss Events, project awards, and parliamentary procedure in both the FBLA and Phi Beta Lambda (college FBLA) divisions.

Carol Ann and Betty left Tuesday night from Love Field in Dallas and arrived Wednesday at 4:55 A. M. in Washington following a most educational and thrilling trip.

This trip was made possible through the efforts of their parents, the Taneytown FBLA, the Kiwanis, and the Lions.

Special tribute is to be made to local advisors, Mrs. Catherine Myers and Mr. Wayne L. Grubb, and the school principal, Mr. Ned C. Musser.

CAMP EMMITSBURG DAY CAMP TO BE CONDUCTED IN JULY

For the second year, a Day Camp for Girl Scouts of all ages from Brownies through Seniors will be conducted for Community 4. Community 4 covers the towns and surrounding area of Emmitsburg, Thurmont and Taneytown, and is a division within the Frederick Area X of the Girl Scout Council of Central Maryland.

Girl Scout camping applies the Promise and Laws to everyday living. It is meeting new friends and finding new interests. It is living amid the beauty of nature, learning to be helpful and sharing responsibilities with other girls. It is assuming leadership, but, most of all, it is fun. Most camp activities are carried out in small groups with the programs planned by the girls under the guidance of qualified adult leaders.

The campsite is located between Emmitsburg and Thurmont near the intersection of Route 15 and Route 76 on a grove belonging to St. Anthony's Church.

The camp will run for eight days beginning the weeks of July 15 and July 22, on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of each week. Camp will open at 9:30 A. M. and close at 8:30 P. M. each day. Older girls will have an opportunity to camp out overnight.

The fee for the eight days is $4.50 per girl and includes program supplies, milk and insurance. Registration forms are available through any Girl Scout Leader. Registrations are open until 2 weeks before camp opens, however, we urge those interested to register as soon as possible. Registrations will be dated as received and those received first will be accepted first if registrations exceed the camp capacity.

In the Taneytown Area, carpools will be used for transportation to and from camp.

Girls who are unable to pay the whole camp fee may apply for campships, which are made possible through funds from private contributions and some funds from cookie sales.

The Camp Director will be Mrs. Harold Curry of Thurmont and the Assistant Camp Director will be Mrs. John Chatlos of Emmitsburg. Mrs. Curry is a Brownie Leader and Mrs. Chatlos is Leader of an Intermediate Troop and also Troop Service Director for Community 4.

THE GARDEN CLUB

Miss Liza Carpenter entertained The Silver Fancy Garden Club at a beautiful luncheon in her lovely home near Taneytown, Md., on June 20th at 12:30 P. M. Fifteen members and one guest were present. After lunch, a business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Andrew Eyester, president of the Club. Plans were discussed for a forthcoming flower arrangement workshop to be open to the public. Mrs. Simon Klosky and Mrs. Thomas J. Frailey acted as co-hostesses.

The next meeting of the Club will be held at the home of Mrs. John D. White, Emmitsburg, on July 18th. Mrs. Andrew Eyester and Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner are co-hostesses.

MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL MEET

Due to vacation and the 4th of July, the Mayor and City Council met on Monday evening, June 24, instead of the first Monday night of July. All members of the Council were present.

The Council reorganized for the coming year with Neal Powell being re-elected President of the Council. Other appointments were made as follows: Town Clerk, Henry Reindollar; Superintendent of Utilities, Carol Frock; City Attorney, Stanford Hoff; and News Reporter, George Naylor, Jr. The City Policeman, James Marshall Boone, Sr., will be hired for 30-day periods beginning July 1, 1963.

Town Committees were appointed as follows: Street Lighting Committee: Mayor Raymond Perry; Sewer and Water: Carol Frock, Chairman; Glenn Bollinger; Snow Removal, Delmont Koons, Chairman; Glenn Bollinger, Town Officer; Weed Control: Neal Powell, Chairman; Carol Frock; Street Committee: George Naylor, Jr., Chairman; Delmont Koons; Public Relations: Neal Powell, Chairman; George Naylor, Jr.

The citizenry is reminded that when problems arise to contact the committee involved so that appropriate action may be taken.

The Town Clerk reported a balance of $23,900.55 in the General Account and $6,776.98 in the Parking Meter Fund.

Action was taken to publish the Financial Budget and the Tax Ordinance for the year '63-'64. The tax rate will remain at $85 per hundred dollars on real estate property. Tax bills will be mailed within the next two weeks and it is hoped that all taxpayers will send in their remittance promptly.

An "O'Brien Sewerking," a cable-type power rodder, was purchased to be used for cleaning and maintaining our sewer lines. This piece of equipment is made along the lines of a roto-rodder and is designed to clean out sewer lines working in two directions from any manhole. This machine is able to reach a distance of 350 feet in one direction. On the average, our manholes are 400 feet apart so there will be no problem cleaning a line by working from the manhole on either side of the trouble. It is felt that due to the length of time that our sewer lines have been installed, this piece of machinery will become quite useful. Frederick is the only other town in the area owning one of these machines.

Bids were received from several painting contractors and upon further investigation, one will be accepted for the painting of the elevated water tower located near the old fairgrounds.

This Saturday morning, June 29, 1963, at 9:30 A. M., a volunteer group from Hanover, celebrating the Civil War Centennial will stop in front of Trinity Lutheran Church on West Baltimore Street on their tour of historic Civil War sites. All interested Civil War enthusiasts are asked to be present at which time the Rev. Howard Miller will comment on the Civil War heritage of Trinity Lutheran Church. It is hoped that a number of people will be present for this short ceremony.

An inspection of all unmovable lots within Taneytown will be made in the very near future by the Weed Control Committee.

Work on the improving and the building of streets is progressing very nicely and will be completed within the next few weeks.

The Council adjourned at 11 P. M.

4-H DEMONSTRATIONS

The Taneytown Girls' 4-H Club held its recent meeting at the Taneytown Grain & Supply with Betty Stonesifer, president, presiding. Susan Null gave a demonstration on oatmeal sugar cookies.

For their June meeting, the girls met at the Agriculture Center, Westminster, for a Record Book Workshop on June 15.

On June 24 the club will have a Demonstration Night at the home of Shirley Keilholtz, near Keysville, starting at 6 P. M. in preparation for the county demonstration days.

Members of the girls' club giving demonstrations on June 27 and 28 at the Agriculture Center for the Carroll County Demonstration Days will be Brenda Anders, Sharon Ebaugh, Sharon Feeser, Rebecca Gartrell, Barbara Harvey, Debbie Hommerbocker, Shirley Keilholtz, Susan Null, Virginia Null, Barbara Rinehart, Betty Stonesifer, Mary Ellen Stonesifer, Diana Windisch and Dorothy Windisch.

PUPILS RECITAL

Mrs. Doty Robb presented her piano pupils in recitals at her home on W. Baltimore St., on Friday evening, June 21st, and Saturday evening, June 22nd. Awards for highest averages were given to Chris Miller and Debbie Bollinger, and awards for perfect attendance during the year were given to Joan Alexander, Debbie Bollinger, Diane Fream, Eddie Herring, Anne King, Alan Laird, Susan Laird, Margaret Laird, Barbara Motter, Cindy Nusbaum, Ruth Sanders, Katie Sanders, Linnia Welty, Jeanie Zimmerman and Linda Zimmerman.

Refreshments were served to 80 pupils and guests.

MRS. KAMALA SAVARIRAYAN SPEAKER AT LCW CONVENTION

Convention time will soon be here! The first convention of the Maryland Lutheran Church Women will be held Wednesday and Thursday, June 26 and 27, at Gettysburg College Campus, Gettysburg, Pa. Registration will be at 9:00-10:45 A. M. in the Student Union Building.

A full program is being planned by the committee consisting of the address by Mrs. E. G. Price, LCW President; a panel discussion; a reception for Missionaries and Auxiliary Guests, and Missionary Speakers, also many other speakers of great interest and the banquet on Wednesday evening.

The banquet speakers will be Mr. and Mrs. Savarirayan. Mrs. Savarirayan was born of Christian parents in India where the Christian Church was established about the seventeenth century. She has specialized training in Indian classical music, and especially in the seven-stringed classical Indian instrument — the Veena. She taught Indian music. She is interested in the social work at Vellore School. On the college campus she is at present serving as the secretary-treasurer of its chapel and shares in the teaching program of the Vellore College Staff Children's School—the Vidyalam. She has held various offices in the Vellore Ladies' Recreation Club which was organized years ago by Dr. Ida S. Scudder.

Plan to attend one or more of these sessions without any cost or obligation (except for the meals wherever you choose to eat). This being the First Convention, let's make it one worth remembering.

HOG FARMERS' CHALLENGE IS CLEAR TODAY

The hog farmers' challenge is clearer in times of declining prices than when thriving hog markets provide automatic profits. That is why good hog farmers today are more concerned with increasing their efficiency of production than in shaving necessary production costs.

Cutting the amount of protein supplement fed with grain is not as thrifty as it might at first sound, according to Dr. H. B. Geurin, Manager of Swine Research for the Ralston Purina Co. It takes about 12 bushels of straight corn to produce 100 pounds of pork; he points out. The same amount of pork can be produced on only about 5 bushels of corn and 45 lbs. of supplement. This is a gross saving of 7 bushels of corn against 45 lbs. of supplement, representing a net saving that is particularly critical when hog prices are not the best.

Hogs fed a proper ration of grain and protein supplement reach market weight in about 4 2/3 months. Hogs fed corn alone require about 8 months to reach the same weight. Obviously, diluting the ration by reducing the supplement slows the farmer's production turnover, a critical factor no matter what kind of prices prevail.

Protein supplements fed in proper ratio with grain are necessary for hog production profits, Dr. Geurin points out. It is always good business to buy a dollar's worth of supplement if it might save two or three times that worth of corn or other grains.

Rev. Jimmy DiRaddo To Speak At Wakefield Church

Rev. Jimmy DiRaddo, Associate Director of Hampstead Youth for Christ, will be speaking at the Wakefield Church of God on Sunday, June 30 at the 9:30 A. M. Sunday School Service. Evangelist, soloist and song leader, Jimmy also coordinates the YFC high school club program in Hampstead.

He is a native of Camden, N. J., is married, the father of three sons and has traveled widely in the United States and abroad. He began preaching at the age of 17 and is a graduate of Asbury College, Wilmore, Kentucky and Temple University School of Theology, Philadelphia. In 1957, he was sent to Israel to study for 3 months at Hebrew University and had opportunity to preach at the Church of Scotland in Jerusalem.

Rev. DiRaddo served as a Methodist pastor in the Philadelphia Conference for seven years.

The public is invited to this service to hear this fine speaker. He will also be featured as a soloist and organist.

COUNTY SURVEYOR

The County Commissioners last week appointed George Bucher John, Westminster, as County Surveyor replacing John M. Reevee who resigned from the office to which he was elected in November of 1962.

Mr. John was Clerk of the Circuit Court prior to November and has been active in surveying in the County for many years.

The appointment was made to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Reevee which runs to the year 1966.

A deficit is what you've got when you haven't as much as if you had nothing.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer you.
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The day is June 14—"FLAG DAY" and my Flag, "OLD GLORY," is flying in the breeze and although the sun is not shining, I must be careful that the predicted rain must not fall upon it. It is the flag which my Minister mounted on the pole and due to that I have never removed it from the tall pole, although it does not have the additional stars added for the new states which belong to Uncle Sam! Each Holiday — a Patriotic one that is—I have always placed the flag out on the front lawn. Remember, folks way back when that flag was always at the farm in the corner of the huge lawn at 71 highway just a little distance from the little town waving not just for any Patriotic Day but everyday in the year.

A workman dug the big hole on the front lawn in which the two-in-pipe was placed in white cement all around the base to make it secure and there is a top which screws on and off when in use and again replaced so as the snow and bad weather does not sink in. I'll always remember when I carried the Flag when I was a member of the Auxiliary of The American Legion, "Around The Town" and the night my Minister joined, The American Legion, to; and the day we rode in the car for the parade right there! I have now presented his cap to my youngest son!

I feel very proud as to my background, although I rarely, if ever talk about it, but I did write it some time ago in a Column, although not all. So due to "Flag Day" and with the hills and thrills that come over me—here it is — I am a direct descendant of Juan Florian Ponce de Leon—my Maiden name which I have never dropped only adding, "LOVE" to it! I am a second cousin to John Philip (de) Sousa. My grandmother, Miriam Caroline deSousa deLeon was Sousa's Aunt — (his father's sister). He dropped the "de" due to his profession. A cousin was the one who sponsored and paid entirely for the trip of Charles Lindberg to Paris and when my cousin, Daniel, passed away — Lindberg flew over the open grave at the funeral and dropped orchids down! My eldest brother, Sidney was a bugler in the Spanish-American War. My husband served 18 months overseas and when in the trench saw his buddies shot to pieces, he the only survivor and he talked much about it to many people. I have always thought that was the beginning of his heart pains although he was mustered out at Camp Meade in good health. He always complained after that about his heart. My youngest brother, Clifford, caught a German spy at Bensonhurst, Brooklyn, N. Y., when he was on duty as he had enlisted in the Navy. Another relative was a General Surgeon in the Confederacy. Dr. David deLeon in N. C. and was given a citation by the President of the United States. Another relative, Jacob de Corlova drew the first correct map of Texas and was the big land merchant for that state in 1860 and a recent book has just come off the press about him. Everyone who resides in Texas is very familiar with the name of de Corlova. He had always predicted what a big rich state it was going to be!

My brother's daughter, Mrs. Marion Grace deLeon, is one of the Executives of The Red Cross, (and that for many years!) My first cousin, Harry deLeon was Sergeant at Arms in the Naval Academy for 32 years and his funeral was the biggest that was ever held in that little town with the colored folks walking slowly in the rear! He was truly loved by everyone! My two sons enlisted immediately on their 18th birthday in the service—one in the Air Force and the other in the Army. The youngest and third boy joined the National Guard.

I was always happy to serve as a "Gray Lady" in The Aberdeen Proving Grounds Hospital and never had any fear of going into the rooms where there was any contagious disease. All those men regardless of rank were so appreciative!

My beloved Dad was named after our First President of these United States—Geo. Washington!

And now the sun is shining beautifully!
Have a grand week-end and always thank God that we are living in "THE LAND OF THE FREE!"
Until next week. D. V.

I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

WITH THE ARMED FORCES

GEORGE AFB, Calif. — Airman First Class Gail W. Kline, Jr., of Mount Airy, Md., has received a cash award for his military improvement suggestion which has been accepted here.

Airman Kline suggested the use of quick disconnect connectors on aircraft escape hatches.

The airman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gail W. Kline, Sr., of 116 Prospect Ave., Mount Airy, is a graduate of Mount Airy High School. His wife is the former Exa Iann Jones of 4064 Acacia St., Arlington, Calif.

THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1963

PAYING TWICE FOR POSTAL SERVICES

Basically, the Government operates the postal service for all the people as a giant monopoly financed by general taxation. But then, it insists also that postal revenues from mail rates shall balance postal costs.

Under this policy, both the amount of taxes going to support a public service postal system and the rates being charged mail users have gone only one way for many years — up, and ever up.

In fact, postal rates have now climbed so high that it is time to ask whether we aren't paying twice — once through taxes, and again in stamp charges — for the same poor quality service.

First class stamps have gone from three to five cents in two steps since 1961; second and third class rates have been increased more than 100 percent in the same period.

This insistence on higher postal rates, in addition to a larger flow of money from the general tax fund to the postal service, is at variance with Federal policy for other departments and agencies rendering important public services.

For example, the Federal Government spends approximately $91 million a year for the National Park Service, $205 million on inland waterways, $23 million for the patent office, $5.2 billion for Agriculture Department services not billed to farmers. None of these agencies is required to charge fees, in addition, which will approximately balance expenditures.

With postal costs at an all time high, Congress should take a long, hard look at Post Office budgeting, accounting, cost ascertainment and mechanization to cut costs.

You should urge your Congressman and Senators to find out whether we aren't paying two or three times the amount of money really needed to furnish a modern, efficient postal communications system.

FACTS AND OPINIONS

From National Review: "If the House approves the multi-billion-dollar Mass Transit Bill, the Federal Government will move even deeper into the transportation business. At present, Washington throttles railroads through the ICC, hobbles airlines with the CAB, subsidizes and controls shipping through two maritime agencies, cements control over a vast highway network through the Bureau of Public Roads, and generally stuffs sand from the Potomac into the nation's gear boxes. In the interests of efficiency, Senator Case (R., N. J.) wants to consolidate all the transportation agencies under one cabinet-level department. Question: how will the bureaucrats who oppose private mergers for efficiency react to the proposed combination of trade restrainers?"

According to the American Medical Association News, more than 93 percent of the 17.5 million Americans over 65 live in states which are using some portion of the Kerr-Mills law, which provides federal aid to the states, with administrative control primarily placed at the local level. Forty-four states with combined over-65 population estimated at 16,388,688 have made use of either the medical assistance to the aged facet of the law, or of its provisions for state Old Age Assistance programs.

Small oil wells play a big part in America's energy picture, according to Oil Facts. Some 68.7 percent of the nation's oil wells produce 10 barrels a day or less, and the average output of these "stripper wells," as they are called, is 3.96 barrels. But, together, they produce 592 million barrels a year — about 23 percent of total U. S. production.

Representative Thomas B. Curtis of Missouri says: "Regardless of the fact that our federal government is the biggest spender, the biggest employer, the biggest property owner, the biggest tenant, the biggest insurer, the biggest lender and the biggest borrower in all the world—we find a growing impatience on the part of many holding high office in our land to make government even bigger."

The personal income of American families and unattached individuals totaled $419 billion in 1962, up $23 billion from 1961. This rise compares with increases of $14 billion and $16 billion in the two previous years.

Writing on the subject of fiscal reform in the Oregon Voter, Ralph T. Moore says that it "... must come from the public itself. We, ourselves, will have to stand firmly behind every effort toward economy in government, regardless of partisan flavor or political authorship. We shall have to pay attention to the statements of candidates as indicating their personal attitude in this matter so that we can weed out all of those fond of big spending for its own sake. We've been mighty sloppy about this selection responsibility in the past and it has cost us plenty. But the bottom of the barrel is now in sight and we can't afford more of such mistakes."

The U. S. natural gas industry has a capital investment of $1 billion in "empty" space. This is far from an empty investment, however. The "empty" space involved consists of the underground storage areas in which natural gas is "banked" for use in periods of peak demand.

The cost of electricity makes up only 1.4 percent of consumer expenditures and only 1.9 percent of value added in manufacturing. Furthermore, electricity is one item the price of which has not gone up two or three times. While the cost of living has about tripled since World War I, the price of electricity to the residential customer is less than two-thirds of what it was then.

CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE OF CARROLL COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY TO PRESENT PAGEANT

Spurring and whipping his horse an elderly gentleman rode at high speed toward the Washington Road in Westminster on June 29, 1863.

The men of Companies C and D of the First Delaware Cavalry were given the command to horse by their daring and dashing young captain, Charles Corbit.

The cause for all this excitement was the approach of the Horse Legions of General J. E. B. Stuart, descending on the village of Westminster, Carroll County, Maryland.

The old man, Mr. Francis Shriver, who was evidently planning a one-man defense of the town was fortunately overtaken by the Delaware Cavalry and made to turn back for this was serious business and they feared for the old fellow's life.

The small but peppery Delaware group met the rebels at the forks—Washington Road and Main Streets—in a head-on clash. The flashing of sabers, the firing of weapons, the clatter of hoofs, and the mad scramble was the first and last actual skirmish the town was to witness. Even though the attackers were driven off the effects of this onslaught on the fearless Gen. Stuart and his men was one of delay and one he could ill afford. This was one reason why General Robert E. Lee at Gettysburg kept repeating, "Where is my cavalry; where is Stuart?"

The people of the town thinking this was the great battle about which they had heard so many rumors, and believing it was the beginning of the great seige, many of them locked their businesses and homes and retreated to their cellars.

When it was made clear that this attack was only a skirmish and the Confederates were in control their sympathetic followers were elated and entertained General Stuart and some of his men in their homes. They were most grieved when later he bade them farewell.

It is unbelievable that people dwelling in a small town, living neighbor to neighbor, many of them in disagreement on the great rebellion, could possibly see the same things and have so many varied viewpoints. We have many personal diaries, letters, eye-witness accounts, newspaper reports which give their many different opinions.

On June 29, 1963, at 3:00 P. M. at Hoffa Field, Western Maryland College, Westminster, many of the stirring events that took place will be dramatized. This will be sponsored by the Civil War Centennial Committee of the Carroll County Historical Society.

This pageant will be free and open to the public; all are invited and welcome.

MATHIAS RECEIVES APPOINTMENTS

Mayor Joseph L. Mathias has been named to the Maryland Commission for the New York World's Fair by Gov. J. Millard Tawes. The Fair will be held in 1964—65.

Mayor Mathias has previously been appointed by Gov. Tawes to other significant Committees of State-wide scope, including the Development Credit Corporation of Maryland.

AREA RESIDENTS ATTEND LUTHERAN BROTHERHOOD CONVENTION IN CHICAGO

Some 280 Lutheran men and women from all parts of the United States and Canada witnessed a first-hand demonstration of fraternalism in action at Lutheran Brotherhood's 16th general convention in Chicago recently.

As delegates to the convention at the Conrad Hilton hotel they took part in balloting for five members of the fraternal life insurance society's board of directors.

They also attended a dinner at which Lutheran Brotherhood's extensive United States savings bond activity drew recognition from top government representatives.

Attending the convention as delegate from this area was Mr. Harry Dougherty, Taneytown, Md.

Lutheran Brotherhood, one of the nation's largest fraternal life insurance societies, is governed by its members, who send delegates to the society's general convention every 4 years to elect directors.

Five directors were chosen at the Chicago convention, including W. P. Langhaug, newly elected, and John W. F. Lienemann, A. Herbert Nelson, Russell Matthias and Dreng Bjornaraa, all re-elected.

Mr. Langhaug and Mr. Lienemann are vice presidents of the society, which serves Lutherans of all synods. Mr. Nelson is president of A. Herbert Nelson Co., Minneapolis, and former Minnesota state insurance commissioner. Mr. Matthias, a Chicago

A VOICE FROM CARROLL

"Just South of Gettysburg" is the title of a book just published about Carroll County and it's part in the Civil War. Like Maryland, as a whole Carroll County was divided in its sympathies and no where was this division more marked than at Union Mills. The road was the dividing line between the North and the South and families living on opposite sides of the road were of opposite sympathies. The book will be of interest to those persons living in Carroll County but we doubt very much if any Civil War scholar will give it a glance. This comment is no reflection upon Professor Klein and his collaborators, who have done a very good job with the material they had to work with. But the Civil War has become an overworked subject and at times a dreary one. It is time to lay it aside and let it rest along with the courageous men on both sides.

Any gardener will tell you that there are two ways to get rid of weeds... kill them or eat them, and some gardeners do both. There are many so-called weeds that make a delicious dish when cooked with ham broth. To name a few there lamb's quarter, polk and the tender leaves of burdock. My grandmother loved to gather greens as she called them from the garden and fields. She said they were spring's tonic for winter tired bodies and would build up one's energy for the long hot summer. She was right, for now medical science is using all kinds of weeds for many kinds of tonics. Nature made weeds for some purpose other than driving gardeners to the edge of frustration and a psychiatrist. They can be converted into food or medicine.

A local father blew up while trying to mediate the usual family argument around the dinner table. "Everybody wants his own way around here!" he bellowed. "Me, I'm just the poor jerk of a father. When do I get my way for once?" Five-year-old Cathy pulled at his sleeve and suggested, "Cry a little."

"Got a cough? Short of breath? See your doctor!" This is the simple message of the current information (education) campaign that is now going on throughout Maryland and the rest of the Nation. The campaign emphasizes the two chief symptoms of chronic respiratory diseases—chronic cough and shortness of breath. Respiratory disease, both acute and chronic, are leading causes of disability and death in the United States. The purpose of the current campaign is to get people to realize that the two common symptoms are warning signals or may be dismissed as of no consequence. This campaign is not to alarm people but only to explain that a persistent cough is not normal and should be checked before it leads to a serious illness. This is a case of an ounce of prevention is worth five pounds of cure. More information can be furnished by the Carroll County Tuberculosis Association located on Main Street in Westminster.

"Farm products sure cost a lot more than they use to," the city man complained to the farmer. "Yes, and why not?," quickly retorted the farmer. "When we farmers are supposed to know the botanical name for what we raise, and the zoological name of the insect that eats it, and the chemical name of what will kill it, somebody's got to pay!"

It looks like the United States is not the only country where it's public officials can cook up a spicy scandal. England has its hands full at the moment with a full-fledged one including a high government official, a girl, a Russian and a doctor. Mickey Spillane could not have drawn better characters for one of his crime-sex books. True life stories are always better than fiction.

Over a month ago our faithful friend and protector died. His name was Mike and he was a dog. A dog that came into our lives fourteen years ago as a puppy and for fourteen years gave us his devotion and unquestioned loyalty. If it had been necessary he would have laid down his life for us. As someone pointed out long ago, "No greater love has any man than he lay down his life for a friend." Why is a dog's devotion to a family given for nothing except for a word of praise now and then and a friendly pat on his head? He is unique among all other animals in this respect. Man and dog have been friends for more than ten thousand years. It began as an arrangement for the mutual benefit for both. In the caveman era the dog volunteered his services as hunting companion in return for a bone or a chunk of meat. As he waited for his portion of meat he drove away any predatory animal that came near the cave. Our ancestor, the caveman, was quick to see the advantage of having the dog stay around the caves. It was a satisfactory arrangement for both. Gradually an emotional bond was formed between man and dog. Once a dog is taken into a family he becomes a member of the family in the truest sense. Mike was a member of our family. We loved him, we trusted him, we punished him when he disobeyed, we nursed him when he was ill and we grieved for him when he died. Sometime in the future we will adopt another dog. But the memory of Mike will always remain with us.

A society in which consumption has to be artificially stimulated in order to keep up production is a society founded on trash and waste, and such a society is a house built upon sand.

According to the papers, the Blue Cross is going to offer older persons a policy without the necessity of a physical examination. The cost, about $300 per year. Just how many older people have $300 a year to spend on insurance? It is just another way of trying to keep medicare under Social Security from becoming a fact.

If you can be pleasant until ten o'clock in the morning you can find it easy to be pleasant the rest of the day.

FROM MIDWAY ISLAND

KMTH Radio on Midway Island in the Mid-Pacific recently celebrated its Tenth anniversary by a series of live remote broadcasts around the island. The anniversary week was climaxed by a live show from the local Enlisted Men's club featuring local bands for the music. A packed house was testimony as to how the show was received. Due to the overwhelming response of the show KMTH returned to the club for two more remote radio shows.

John M. Breth, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Breth of Taneytown, is the station Manager of KMTH radio and was the engineer of the remote broadcasts. John is now completing his tour of duty on the Mid-Pacific island and will be returning home in late June. He was recently promoted to Petty Officer second class and was presented with the Navy Good Conduct medal.

Besides acting as Station Manager of KMTH, John is d. j. of the EARLY BIRD SHOW heard each morning on Midway.

SAVE THOSE ICE CREAM STICKS

The Carroll County Tuberculosis Association will again seek ice cream sticks to be used in the TB state hospitals and the TB patients at Springfield State Hospital. These patients pass the long and lonely hours while confined to the hospital by making trays, lamps, ash stands and many useful articles with the sticks. Last year the TB Association received over 10,000 sticks from the patients, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and other organizations and individuals all helped to make the TB patients happy. The following persons have already been in the office with their collections; Marion Rakestraw, Union Bridge; Mike Armaeost, Colonial Ave.; Frank Myers and daughter, Evelyn, 100 Pa. Ave.; Anna Shaffer Bowersox, Green St.; of Westminster and Mrs. Ella Nail, Rt. 2, New Windsor, Maryland.

You, too, can help these patients by collecting all the ice cream sticks you can find, send them or bring them to the Carroll County TB Association office on the second floor of the Times Building, AFTER YOU HAVE WASHED THEM.

ZIP CODE FOR KEYMAR

Keymar's five-digit ZIP Code is 21757, Postmaster Cora Sappington has announced.

Everyone in Keymar, Md., will use this ZIP Code on all their correspondence to speed mail deliveries and reduce the chance of mis-sent mail, Postmaster Cora Sappington said.

ZIP Code, the Post Office Department's revolutionary new system of improved mail dispatch and delivery, goes into effect nationally on July 1.

The Postmaster stressed the importance of all citizens of Keymar learning this city's ZIP Code and using it in their return address on all correspondence. In answering mail, she said ZIP Codes taken from return addresses on incoming mail should be used.

The ZIP Code is literally the last word in mail addressing, Miss Sappington said. It should follow the city and state in addresses. She cited this example of the proper use of ZIP Code:

Miss Cora Sappington
Postmaster
U.S. Post Office
Keymar, Maryland 21757

The new ZIP Code plan, Miss Sappington said, for the first time will permit the Post Office Department to short-cut repeated address reading. The address on mail must often be read as many as eight or ten times by postal employees, to get it to the proper destination, she said. Each handling slows the process of mail dispatch and adds to the opportunity for human error.

With ZIP Code, a clerk needs only to glance at the code to know immediately to what national area, state and post office the letter is destined and to speed it on its way, cutting up to 24 hours of the time between deposit and delivery.

Miss Sappington said that when ZIP Code is in full swing, the United States will have "the most modern system of mail distribution and delivery in existence."

"A dollar isn't worth a dime unless you spend it and then it's worth about 50 cents."—Fred W. Grown, Edgewater (N.J.) Bergen County Citizen.

"Progress involves some risk. You can't steal first and stay on second."—Harold J. Blaschko, Arcadia (Wis.) News-Leader.

Chevy II Wagons—

The heft of a suitcase. The rustle of a road map. There's something about one of these spruce, surprisingly spacious wagons that can turn even the routine preparations into a happy part of your trip.

Take that old bugaboo of packing, for instance. No bother. With the kind of room you get in that easy-loading cargo compartment, you can just about toss things in any old highway and come out with space to spare. The load won't dampen the spirits of the spunky 6-cylinder engine either. It just hums along passing up gas pumps (there's also a choice of an even thrifter 4 in most models) like it didn't have a care in the world. Fact is, it has far fewer cares than most engines—being built with the special knack Chevrolet engineers have for dependability and ease of maintenance.

Like a car with ginger—without a lot of needless gingerbread? Your dealer's got a full line of Chevy II's to pick from. Why not drop down and check now while the trading and the traveling are especially good?

We desire correspondence to reach our office on Wednesday, if at all possible. It will be necessary, therefore, for most letters to be mailed on Tuesday morning. Letters mailed on Wednesday may not reach us in time.

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR

Greetings to you:

Have you been reading about the new ZIP Code Numbers that the Post Office Department is putting into effect on Monday, July 1? Detour Postmaster, Mrs. Helen Dougherty, asked me to remind you that this number is to be used on all mail starting Monday. It is to be put after the name of the state on your mailing addresses and be sure to put your own number with your return address. Detour's number is 21725, Taneytown's is 21787, Union Bridge's is 21791 and for those using a Key-mar address, the number is 21757. It is hoped this will speed mail delivery, so be sure to include your number on your return address and—as you receive mail—to include the distant post office number on future letters to your correspondents. Happy number-remembering to all of you!

The roses on the trellis across from the Raymond (Bill) Myers home on Naylor's Mill Road are beautiful. They really "brighten their corner."

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Coshun and family have moved from their home in Detour to the house they purchased from Mrs. Daisy Dinterman in Keysville.

Larry Weishaar of Taneytown was a Saturday overnight guest with his wife Pat, brother Randy and parents Mr. and Mrs. William Weishaar of Forest and Stream Club Road. He was on leave from two week's Army Reserve Training down at Camp Pickett, Va. They were joined on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wildisan and Kevin of Reisterstown and Mr. and Mrs. James Weishaar and Bobby of Detour.

Week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stonesifer of Keysville were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stonesifer of Rockyville.

Don't forget the Hymn Sing to be held at Rocky Ridge Park on Sunday evening (the 30th) at 7:30 P. M. by the Union Bridge Lutheran Parish Men's Chorus. Everyone is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Seibert and family of Clear Spring were luncheon guests on Saturday with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide of Forest and Stream Club Road. Their younger daughter, Mariann, is still visiting with the Wilhides and attending Bible School in Keysville.

On Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Walter McWilliams of Mt. Airy and her mother, Mrs. Cecil Priest of St. Bernardine Blumenshine at Steelton, Pa. "Bernie" and Beverly were college acquaintances and she visited a number of times in this area.

Be sure to call Mrs. Kathryn Stine or get in touch with Mrs. Mae Baumgardner if you can help or give donations for the food stand that the Keysville Lutheran Church Women will be having on Saturday the 29th at the Macie Forney sale. Donations needed are baked goods, homemade candy, chicken sale, and cash. Proceeds will be given to the Building Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Washburn of Keysville held a farewell party on Sunday, June 16, for their son Robert David Dinterman who left for the USMC on June 17th. Those in attendance were Miss Doris Dinterman, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dinterman, daughter Tina, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fritz and son Steve, Robert Dinterman, Barbara Colburn, Richard Dinterman, Linda Ohler, Shirley Dinterman, Bruce Thompson, Julie Beivenour, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mumford, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Harver and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Washburn. Mrs. Judy Stevens and son David of Fairfield, Pa., were guests later in the evening. A good time was had by all.

Vacation Bible School had an enrollment of 76 today (Monday). Mrs. Anna Haifleigh has charge of the Pre-School group with Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide, Mrs. Charles Conover, Linda Schaffer, Darlene Bowers, Beverly Garland, Joann Galt, Judy Stambaugh and Shirley Keilholz as helpers. Mrs. Ruth Wilhide has charge of the Primary group with Mrs. James Coshun, Mrs. Roger Devibiss, Nancy Stine and Kathy Kantros as helpers. Mrs. Dharly Fleharty has charge of the Junior group with Mrs. Florence Blanchfield and Mrs. Gregg Kiser as helpers. "Discovering God's Wonderful World" is the theme for the school this year and there have been a number of interesting happenings to go along with the theme. The first Monday Pastor Brake brought in a turtle he had found on the road, and everyone had to view the nest with four eggs that a killdeer had made in the Church Parking Lot and see the demonstration the mother bird put on to lure them away from it. On Friday Gerald Keeney brought in an alligator that really "went over big" with everyone. With so much going on, is it any wonder the children enjoy their classes so much?

Visitors on Saturday evening at the William Weishaar home near Detour to see Mrs. Larry Weishaar were her mother and sister, Mrs. Robert Peeks and Brenda; her aunt, Mrs. George Hann, and cousin, Steve, of Taneytown; her aunt, Mrs. Donald Marshall, and cousin, Beverly, of Thurmont, and her sister, Mrs. Robert Few, and niece, Sandra, of Middleburg.

There was a birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil (Bob) Priest of Forest and Stream Club Road on Saturday evening to celebrate their daughter Andrea's 12th birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter McWilliams of Mt. Airy, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schott and Martha of near Taneytown, Mr. and Mrs. Newell Devibiss and Jeffrey of New Windsor and Werner and Ernest Rahm, who are visiting at the Carroll Wilhide home near Detour. Belated Happy Birthday Wishes to you, Angie.

On Sunday Werner and Ernest Rahm, "the Swiss boys," drove to Baltimore with Mr. and Mrs. Hans Steffen of Sixes Bridge Road to visit with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steffen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ecker of Baltimore and Mrs. Carl Ecker of Baltimore were also visitors at the same time. Both Steffen families had visited with the Rahm family in Hallau, Switzerland, when they were in Europe.

On Sunday evening Werner and Ernest showed a series of slides on their native country at the Keysville Lutheran Church. They were lovingly slides and it is so very interesting to talk with these two. Refreshments were served afterwards by the Carroll Wilhide family.

Here is a quote taken from Newsweek which I read in the Co-op Newsletter: "One of the hardest things in the world is to accept a new fact when you had always thought just the opposite. Or to believe that something is true when it doesn't look true. There are two things to do when this happens, one, as Pharaoh did—you slay the bearer of the ill tidings; or two, you try to figure out how the new facts could be possible and, if you can, you often learn something to your advantage."

July Flower Committee for Keysville Lutheran Church is Mrs. Doris Harner, chairman; Mrs. Harry Fleagle, Mrs. Carl Haines, Mrs. Herman Schott and Mrs. Olive Young.

Next meeting of the Keysville Lutheran Church Women will be July 1 with Mrs. Harry Devibiss and Mrs. Mrs. Mildred and Mrs. Kathryn Stine for Specials and Mrs. Marian Coshun, Mrs. Bernice Wilhide and Mrs. Clara Clabaugh for Hostesses.

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR Homemakers Club

The June meeting of the Keysville-Detour, Homemakers Club was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Stonesifer on the 19th with 18 members present. Roll call was answered by naming one's favorite flower.

Due to the absence of the president, the meeting was conducted by the vice president, Mrs. Stonesifer. As old business, members were reminded to be working on things for the Open House in December and it was voted to hold an Anniversary Party in October, the evening of the 23rd, at the United Church of Christ Parish House in Keysville.

Under new business members were asked to list donations they would give for the 4-H Fair to be held July 16, 17, 18 and 19 in Westminster and also for the Chicken Bar-B-Q which will be held at the Ag Center in August. It was decided to hold an Open Meeting in September—also at the Parish House—since this will be the meeting a Fireman is to come and explain First Aid to the Club. This will be September 18 and all who are interested in learning more about First Aid will be most welcome. Each member is to bring a dozen cupcakes toward the evening refreshments.

The demonstration for the evening was part 2 of the "Flower Arranging" given by Mrs. Mae Baumgardner and Mrs. Kathryn Stine. The members were all given a chance to make arrangements of their own this time and they were lovely.

Mrs. Harold Thomas was co-hostess for the evening.

Kindness Helps

By B. I. Michael
A little kindness every day Will help to brighten life a bit; It blesses all who does the deed As well as you who receive it; So if you wish to reach the goal of happiness, you're sure to find there is no quicker, surer way than always treating others kind.

The Quitter

It ain't the failures you may meet That keeps a man from winnin'; It's the discouragement complete That blocks a new beginnin'; You want to quit your habits bad; And when the shadows flittin' Make life seem worthless an' so sad. You want to quit your quittin'!

You want to quit a-lyin' down And sayin' hope is over. Because the fields are bare an' brown Where once we lived in clover. When jolted from the water cart It's painful to be hittin' The earth; but make another start, Cheer up, an' quit your quittin'!

Although the game seems rather stiff, Don't be a doleful doubter; There's always one more innin' if You're not a down-and-outer. But fortune's pretty sure to flee From folks content with sittin' Around an' sayin' life's N. O.— You've got to quit your quittin'. —Selected.

For Contented Life

Health enough to make work a pleasure; wealth enough to support your needs. Strength to battle difficulties and overcome them. Grace enough to confess your sins and forsake them. Patience enough to toil until some good is accomplished. Charity enough to see some good in your neighbor; love enough to move you to be useful and helpful to others. Faith enough to make real the things of God. Hope enough to remove all anxious fears concerning the future. — Goethe's Nine Requisites for Contented Living.

A VOICE FROM CARROLL

The joint dinner meeting of the Women's Democratic Club and the Men's Democratic Club of Carroll County held at Frock's on Monday evening was attended by 112 members from both Clubs. Congressman Long, was the speaker and in his talk touched on some of the problems confronting Marylanders at the present time . . . namely increased government spending some of it wasteful and the burden of taxation on the public. Wm. B. Dulany, pres. of the Men's Democratic Club was in charge of the meeting. Among those recognized at the speaker's table were, Mrs. Lawrence Thomas, pres. of the Women's Democratic Club and Harry Dougherty, Sr., Chairman of the State Central Committee.

James M. Swartz in a letter to the Baltimore Sun has this to say about our current problem between the races: "When, 100 years ago, the Negro was legally freed, he had no equality, no acceptance, no education and no preparation for living up to the standards of the white citizens. Nor, by intention, does he today. Isn't it about time to change this? One hundred years is a long time to follow one line of thinking. Now is the time to admit that the Negro is not treated fairly either in education or opportunity. And since the Negroes make up 10 per cent of our population, their growth will enrich our country whose greatest resource is its people. We face difficult years because we are paying for the sins of our fathers, as well as our own. We should see to it that our children don't walk the same blind alley. We boast in our Democracy that progress proceeds in an orderly rhythm of evolution and not by revolution. This is the moment in history when man must choose which way this struggle for equality and justice will take. The President of the United States, and local communities must all lead in the right direction in this search for human dignity. But much more important is the attitude of the individual. For we must understand and fully accept the idea that what is good for the Negro Americans is good for the United States and for the world and for all mankind; for the human race has a common destiny." Comment—This letter made me an impression on me when I read it that I put it in my column hoping that the readers of the Carroll Record will have a similar reaction. Ideas have a way of eating away your old thoughts and old ways of thinking if we give them a chance.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald F. Mueller and daughters, Barbara and Margaret, of Canandaigua, N. Y., spent a week with Mrs. Mueller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reindollar.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reindollar, Jr., and family were Dr. and Mrs. Donald Mueller and daughters, Barbara and Margaret, of Canandaigua, N. Y., Mrs. Ivan D. Neidermyer of West Chester, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reindollar.

During the second World War, there were those who tried various means to escape military service. One device was to flunk the physical examination. One Maryland lad decided to raise his blood pressure by drinking quarts of black coffee. But, much to his dismay he passed his physical without any trouble, and after basic training found himself on his way somewhere across the Atlantic. A year later he found himself in a base hospital with a medic corpsman taking his blood pressure. With mild interest the corpsman asked "Where did you join the army?" "In Baltimore, why?" the Maryland soldier replied, "Just curious," the corpsman said, "Wondered who let you in with blood pressure as low as yours."

While we have been arguing over whether women have the necessary traits to soar away into the space the Russians this week proved that they do. So, now what is the problem? It is apparent that we waste too much time proving that things can't be done instead of using the energy to do it. Not that it's important that American women go into space but if any of them want to try, we shouldn't set up road blocks to keep them grounded.

In reference to the above paragraph, it may be that Dr. Edward Rynearson is correct when he says that more than 50 per cent of Americans are suffering from the vicissitudes of life and this is caused by the terrific pounding inflicted by life. Surely something is happening to the common American, and it isn't good. They are too pessimistic, too eager to see clouds on the horizon when the sky is a beautiful azure blue; too quick to take offense when none is intended; too quick to sit in a doctors waiting room for him to cure them of imaginary ills. But Dr. Rynearson says that the spiritual life of a person suffering with a psychosomatic illness must be treated along with physical symptoms. Man is more than a mass of nerves, tissues, blood and organs. He is spirit and soul; he must have strong religious beliefs to protect him from tensions and anxieties of life. Voltaire in his day when people even then were arguing about the reality of a higher power said that it was certain that there were no such power he would have to invent one to save his sanity. This is even more true today. Life is changing so swiftly today that psychologically we can't change at the same pace and we are suffering. To relieve this we need a quiet refuge into religion or some philosophy which we can accept without any reservation.

We have a '51 Mercury which I continue to drive much to my husband's disgust. But it suits me and still runs and due to sentimental refuse to get rid of it. But last week the pride in the Mercury was suddenly deflated when a young man knocked on our front door and inquired if I would like to sell it. My answer was no but curiosity forced me to ask what he would give me for it. His answer $ 12.00.

A nurse in a hospital woke a patient at 5:00 A. M. to take a sample of blood. The patient half asleep murmured, "Oh, all right, but all you'll get is tired blood."

JUNE

"Oh, what is so rare as a day in June? Then, if ever come perfect days." Most of us are familiar with these words, taken from James Russell Lowell's well-known poem, and most of us will agree that June does indeed, bring perfect days. As I write this article, a radiant June sun smiles down from a scrubbed blue sky. A cool invigorating breeze sings through the trees. Days like these are warm enough to enable one to acquire a tan, while the nights are delightfully cool for sleeping. As a matter of fact, winter blankets are still very much in evidence around our house. And this, in spite of the fact that yesterday was the first day of Summer!

June is both colorful and exciting - colorful because of the profusion of flowers and greenery all around us in the world of nature, and exciting because of the activities which occur at this time. Both town and country are splashed with a riot of color as the roses bloom in all of their beauty and perfume. They range from tones of fire red through the various shades of pink, orange and yellow, to pure white. Some are very tiny, like the red rambler; while others are almost the size of peonies. Many of the country by-ways are embroidered with the delicate pink of wild roses and the white and yellow of fragrant honey winkle, black-eyed Susan, daisies and Queen Ann's Lace are worked into the design. The tall, stately holly hock is also in bloom now. The fields and meadows look like smooth green carpets. Wherever we look, there is beauty all around, unmistakable evidence of God's handiwork.

The activities of June are as I have mentioned, exciting and varied. For the younger school child, June heralds the end of school work and the beginning of Summer vacation. For older students, it may mean finding some type of Summer employment. For the graduate, it is a time for mixed emotions of joy and sadness, as the long years of schooling come to a close and life takes on a more serious note. Many a lovely bride and nervous bridegroom will approach the Altar, for June is the traditional month of weddings. I always associate strawberries with the month. I can remember, as a child, looking forward to the Strawberry Festival which our church held each year. This was a delightful old-fashioned affair of which I think has almost passed out of existence. For farmers this is a busy time indeed, what with hay making, cultivating, the fast-growing corn, and preparing to combine the various grains.

But whoever we are, or whatever our occupation, we all delight in these glorious June days, when heaven and earth seem to be in perfect harmony and God seems very near, indeed. -Zola Cantwell.

ZIP Code 21787 for Taneytown Mail

Postmaster George Fream has announced that the ZIP Code for Taneytown is 21787. This means that every person whose address is Taneytown should show this code number in their return address on all correspondence. The following example shows the proper use of ZIP Code in your return address:

John J. Doe

WITH THE ARMED FORCES

USS FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT (FHTNC) - Wayne A. Fair, ship-fitter second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Z. Fair of Route 2, Taneytown, Md., was advanced to the present rate May 16 while serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Advancement in rate is the result of meeting both military and professional requirements in the Navy.

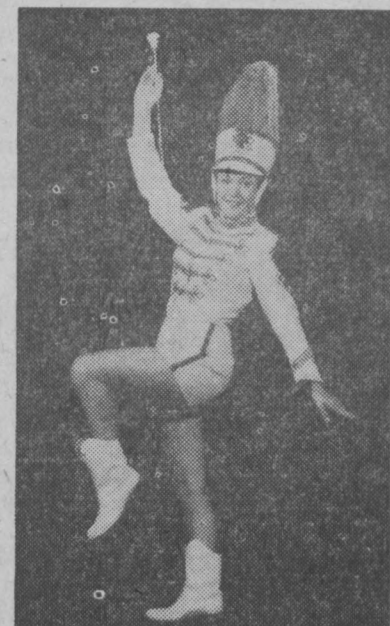

The Roosevelt, presently operating with the Second Fleet in the Atlantic, returned from the Mediterranean in late April. Her Mediterranean assignment consisted of duty with the Sixth Fleet and was her 14th cruise.

The ship normally operates out of Mayport, Florida.

Seated on the "throne" is Miss Angela Remsberg, of Middletown, Frederick County. She is being "crowned" as Maryland's second Dairy Princess by Miss Rebecca I. Murray, of Port Deposit, Cecil County, who was chosen as the State's first Dairy Princess a year ago. Miss Remsberg will reign for a year and then go to Chicago as an entry in the American Dairy Association's annual Miss America Dairy Princess contest. The Maryland contest, decided at the Lord Baltimore Hotel, Baltimore, on Saturday, June 15, was sponsored by State Dairy interests.

Ordinance No. 190

AN ORDINANCE Entitled an Ordinance for levying and collecting taxes for carrying into effect the By-Laws and Ordinances of the Corporation of Taneytown, to pay its debts and obligations for the ensuing year ending June 30, 1964.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Taneytown, Maryland, that a tax of eighty-five cents (85¢) on every one hundred dollars ($100.00) of assessable property within the Corporate Limits of Taneytown, Maryland, according to the valuation thereof returned by assessors duly qualified and appointed by law, and upon such modifications thereof as may be made by the Mayor and City Council of Taneytown, Maryland, is hereby levied for and during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1964, the same to be collected by law according to the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland pertaining thereto, said tax being levied for current expenses, improvements, repairs, etc., and for the payment of principal and interest upon the sewer bonds of 1954, as directed by Chapter 281, Acts of 1953 of the General Assembly of Maryland, and for such other lawful purposes as may be authorized or required.

SECTION 2: And be it further enacted and ordained that according to the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland at its 1927 Session, the Clerk and Treasurer of Taneytown, Henry I. Reindollar, Jr., is hereby directed to collect the levy imposed by this Ordinance.

SECTION 3: And be it further enacted and ordained that the levy imposed by this Ordinance shall be collected by said Henry I. Reindollar, Jr., Clerk and Treasurer, and be deposited with such other monies as may come into his possession and subject to the order of the Mayor and City Council, and any amounts payable under said levy shall be due on the 15th day of August, 1963, and shall bear the usual rate of interest thereafter.

SECTION 4: And be it further enacted and ordained by the Mayor and City Council that this Ordinance shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Passed by the Mayor and City Council of Taneytown, Maryland, this 24th day of June, 1963.

RAYMOND J. PERRY,
Mayor.

HENRY I. REINDOLLAR, Jr.,
Clerk-Treasurer.

NOTICE OF ENACTMENT OF CHARTER AMENDMENT RESOLUTION FOR THE CITY OF TANEYTOWN

Charter Amendment Resolution No. 1 of the Mayor and City Council of Taneytown, titled "A Resolution to repeal and re-enact Sections 405 to 434, both inclusive, of Article 7 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (Flack's 1930 edition), title "Carroll County, subtitle "Taneytown," as amended by Chapter 188, 1931 Acts; Chapter 100, 1937 Acts; Chapter 550, 1943 Acts; Chapter 173, 1947 Acts; Chapter 243, 1949 Acts; Chapters 313 and 543, 1951 Acts; Chapter 281, 1953 Acts; and Chapter 101, 1955 Acts; and any other amendments, the said Sections and amendments being the Charter of Taneytown" was adopted on June 3, 1963, pursuant to the authority of Article XI-E of the Constitution of the State of Maryland and Article 23A and Article 23B of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 edition, as amended), to repeal the present Charter of the City of Taneytown as contained in Sections 405 to 434, both inclusive, of Article 7 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (Flack's 1930 edition) and to enact in lieu thereof the municipal corporation charter contained in Article 23B of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 edition, as amended), title "Municipal Corporation Charter," with the following exceptions:

Whereas the Municipal Corporation Charter establishes qualifications for Councilmen of one year residency, the new Taneytown Charter establishes qualifications of two years residency and twenty-five years of age.

Whereas the Municipal Corporation Charter provides for an annual salary for Councilmen, the new Taneytown Charter provides for a fee for each meeting.

Whereas the Municipal Corporation Charter provides for the Mayor to act as President of the Council, the new Taneytown Charter provides for the Council to select its own President.

Whereas the Municipal Corporation Charter provides for each ordinance to be published in a newspaper and permits a referendum on ordinances, the new Taneytown Charter provides for summary of each ordinance to be published and omits the referendum provisions.

Whereas the Municipal Corporation Charter establishes qualifications for the Mayor of one year residency and authorizes the Mayor a veto power, the new Taneytown Charter establishes qualifications of a five year residency and twenty-five years of age and omits the veto power but authorizes the Mayor to vote on all questions before the Council.

The new Taneytown Charter contains the powers of the Council regarding tree trimming that were in the previous charter in addition to the specific powers contained in the Municipal Corporation Charter.

Whereas the Municipal Corporation Charter establishes voter residency requirements of 6 months, the new Taneytown Charter establishes voter residency requirements of one year.

Whereas the Municipal Corporation Charter provides for a Board of Supervisors of Elections to control elections, the new Taneytown Charter vests these powers in the Clerk-Treasurer.

Whereas the Municipal Corporation Charter provides nomination by primary elections or conventions, the new Taneytown Charter provides for nomination by filing of a certificate.

Whereas the Municipal Corporation Charter provides for election every four years, the new Taneytown Charter provides for staggered election dates.

Whereas the Municipal Corporation Charter provides for a vacancy in the office of Mayor to be filled by an appointment by the Council, the new Taneytown Charter provides for the President of the Council to become Mayor in event of a vacancy.

Whereas the Municipal Corporation Charter does not contain a limit on the rate of property taxation, the new Taneytown Charter contains a limit of $90 per hundred as provided in Chapter 101, Laws of Maryland, 1955.

The new Taneytown Charter makes reference to the borrowing authorization contained in Article 23A of the Annotated Code of Maryland, (1957 edition, as amended).

The new Taneytown Charter contains the powers of the Council regarding repair of public utilities on public ways that were in the previous Charter in addition to the provisions of the Municipal Corporation Charter.

A copy of the new Taneytown Charter will be posted on the Bulletin Board of the Post Office and a copy is available for public inspection in the office of the Clerk-Treasurer.

Charter Amendment Resolution No. 1, adopted June 3, 1963, shall become effective on July 23, 1963, unless a proper petition for referendum is filed before July 13, 1963, in accordance with the provisions of Section 13, Article 23A of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 edition, as amended).

Praise The Lord

Lesson for June 30, 1963

Bible Material: I Chronicles 16; Psalms 146, 147, 150.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 148:1-6a. THERE used to be a children's game, that went like this: "I love my love with an A because she's attractive, and the next would say, 'I love my love with a B because she's beautiful'..."

Dr. Foreman most enthusiastic and grateful about one you love, you aren't thinking up reasons. If you are really in love, you don't need reasons. Yet there are reasons, or ought to be. To love without thinking of reasons is good; to love against all reason and common sense, is bad.

Praise the Lord, because...

It is so in religion. When you are in the mood to praise God, you are not figuring out reasons for doing so. You just praise Him out of a full and overflowing heart. But there are the best of reasons for praising the God we love. The unknown poet who wrote the 146th Psalm does not put in the word "because" anywhere. He begins the psalm with "Praise the Lord!" and he ends it in the same words. ["Hallelujah" means literally "Praise the Lord."] Between these two shouts of praise, however, he says a number of things about God, and they all add up to reasons why we ought to do this. We should never praise him from a feeling of duty. That would be like a man who would kiss his wife every morning at 7:30 sharp because his memorandum book had in it the line: 7:30 P.M. Kiss Wife. But praise is not senseless, it is emotional but emotion-with-a-reason. In the high moments of worship we are not dopping out reasons why, but in quiet moments when we have time to think, we can think of reasons in plenty, and we know we were not carried away by mere sheer emotion when we sang our Hallelujahs.

The source of all good

God is the source of all good: this is the belief of all Christians and Jews, and certainly is the teaching of the Bible. (Why this is so, the reader may figure out for himself.) This means that God does not simply discover good,—that is, goodness, beauty and truth in any of their manifold forms—God does not "latch on" to what He discovers and claim the credit Himself. He is the Originator, the Planner, the Creator, the Rewarder, of what is good. Consider the matters for which the Psalmist wishes God to be remembered and thanked. First of all is Creation itself; then he mentions God's faithfulness, and His justice, and His providential care for the "forgotten man," the hungry and the oppressed. When a prisoner is set free; when the blind are enabled to see; when the mourner is comforted; when a man becomes a righteous character; when the helpless are cared for (widows, orphans and traveling strangers were the most forlorn people in the world of that day); when a wicked man like Hitler for example is brought to ruin; this calls for praise to the Lord who reigns forever.

Two questions

The skeptic has a question to ask at this point,—two in fact. One is this: Hasn't the Psalmist let his imagination run away with him? If he knew what kind of world this is, he would realize that widows and orphans are not always helped, justice is not always done, most blind people stay blind. And as for the world, the skies, earth and seas "and all that is in them," are we to believe that God created disease germs and parasites, are we obliged to believe that God personally makes volcanoes kill thousands of helpless people? If God is the source of all good, must He not also take the blame for all the evil?

These questions can be answered together, though this calls for much discussion. To be sure, the Christian will say, as his Jewish brother will: to be sure, it is seldom—some would say ever, that God directly does these things. In virtually all cases He works through persons. And that is the answer to the first question; if good is not done, it is not that God has forgotten. It is He who have failed to let Him work through us for good.
