SUMMER SCHOOL SUMMARY

The Carroll County Board of Education for the second summer has sponsored a Summer School program for all interested students. The program operated from June 24 to August 6 at three centers in the County: Westminster Senior High School, Hampstead Elementary School, and the Manchester Elementary School. The following courses were offered: English 9-10-11-12, American History, Modern Mathematics, General Mathematics, Algebra I, Geometry, French I, Remedial Reading for elementary, junior high and senior high age groups, and typing.

One hundred forty-two students participated in the program representing 20 different schools, and 5 schools located outside the Carroll County system were represented. Seventy people, almost half of those participating in the program, were taking courses for enrichment or remedial purposes. This means they were not seeking credit applicable to their scholastic record for the work done during the summer. These students are to be commended for their desire to improve themselves, for this is in fact what they have accomplished by their participation in this program.

It seems desirable to attempt to increase the number of enrichment opportunities for students in the summer program while at the same time extending to students the opportunity of improving themselves in areas where they are weak by continuing remedial and make-up programs. This will be the objective as the program is expanded in the future.

The summer program was under the direction of Joseph L. Shilling, Summer School Coordinator for Carroll County Schools and Mr. Paul E. Bowersox, III, Mr. W. Burke Crosby, Mrs. Della Rickell, Mrs. Mabel Shoff, Mr. Jacques Baker, Mr. Denny Bodnar and Miss Bonnie LeGore served as instructors.

CARROLL COUNTY P-T.A. WORKSHOP TO BE HELD

The Carroll County Parent-Teacher Association will hold their workshop on Tuesday, August 20, at 8:30 P. M. in the Westminster Junior High School. The Carroll County Executive Committee will meet at 7:30 just prior to the workshop.

Robert L. Leese, county president, will open the meeting at 8:00 and he will introduce the local presidents. Mrs. R. Rebert, membership chairman, will be given time for her appeal for members, new and renewals. Mrs. David Cramer, treasurer, will give routine information on handling funds.

Mrs. Lillian Hawksworth, chairman of health and safety will have an important message. Mrs. Hawksworth, of Mt. Airy, will be working in cooperation with Dr. Donald Fisher of the County Health Office, in organizing a comprehensive "Visual Test" examination for all students in the public schools. It is hoped that each local health and safety committee will give volunteers as they did last year to assist with this program. A training class at the Carroll County Medical Center is being considered and Mrs. Hawksworth will be discussing this matter.

W. V. Lauterbach, Jr., vice president, will be assisting Mrs. John Hyle as the program chairman for the year. The program will be arranged for the school year.

Mr. Leese emphasizes the fact that a chairman has not completed his or her work until their successor is acquainted with their respective duties and can carry the chairmanship on a well-informed basis. This can be done at the workshop meeting. It is also important that the names and schools of all P-T.A. presidents should be filed with Mr. Leese before the workshop meeting.

At 9:15 members will return to the assembly room for closing remarks by President Leese.

The Carroll County Council of Parents and Teachers members of 1963-64 executive committee are as follows: president, Robert L. Leese, Westminster; first vice president, William Lauterbach, Jr., Manchester; second vice president, Mrs. Jean Colburn, Mt. Taneytown is experiencing some complaints on our young people congregating in groups at a late hour throughout the business district at night. Loud talk and profane language make up most of the complaints and it is hoped that parents of teenagers might discuss this situation with their young people.

The meeting adjourned at 11 P. M.

CONG. LONG INTRODUCED BILL FOR COMMEMORATIVE STAMP

Rep. Clarence D. Long (D., Md.) has introduced a bill which would honor Francis Scott Key on the 150th anniversary of his composition of the national anthem with a special commemorative stamp.

The Maryland Congressman's bill would direct the stamp to be first placed on sale in Carroll County, where Key was born on the family estate, "Terra Rubra," near Taneytown.

First sale of the stamp would be on September 14, 1964, a century and a half after Key composed the "Star Spangled Banner" while detained aboard a British vessel during the night bombardment of Fort Mchenry outside Baltimore.

Throughout the bombardment, Key remained on deck and at daybreak was overjoyed to see the American flag still flying over Ft. Mchenry.

He composed the poem on the spot and later that morning wrote down the verses from memory on an envelope on the way ashore following his release.

The Star Spangled Banner was first published in the Baltimore American newspaper on September 21, 1814, and was widely sung in Baltimore theaters and gathering places, soon gaining national popularity.

The original manuscript is now in the Walters Art Gallery in Baltimore.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Down in the Woolworth Store on Lexington St., there is a sweet lady who has been with that store for just 45 years! She went in at vacation time from the Eastern High School and remained right there! Mrs. Lillian H. Bringham has what it takes in business to make a success and has worked herself in each capacity to which she was assigned and now is Personnel Supervisor! Her brother, Mr. Herman W. Puhl has been a Manager (one of them) for 37 years! That store opened in 1904. If you recall, I wrote an entire Column a few years ago as to the very beginning of The Woolworth Stores as to the exact story.

That reminds me of the Lane Bryant store which was founded by Mrs. Lane Bryant in 1900. She was born Lena Himmelstein in Lithuania, who arrived in the United States at the age of 16 to marry the son of a distant relative. Rather than marry the man whom she did not love, she joined her sister in New York and went to work in a shop that made fine lingerie. She married David Bryant, a young jeweler who died in 1900 within a year after their son, Raphael was born. Left with a pair of diamond earrings which she pawned to buy a sewing machine, Lane Bryant then embarked on the career of making fine lingerie for the carriage trade to support herself and her infant son. Her skill in styling and fine workmanship earned her a wide reputation and she was asked one day to design a maternity tea gown for a woman of fashion who wished to entertain at her home. It was in an era when pregnancy was never discussed by "nice" people but so successful that carriages began to arrive daily at the little dressmaker's shop, the occupants of which sometimes had their drivers park several blocks away to avoid recognition! In 1909 Mrs. Bryant married Albert Malsin, a young engineer who combined skill with hers to go into the mail order business and published her first printed catalog which showed the original maternity dress as the 5th garment in the book and was thereafter called the famous, "NUMBER 5." A friend then of the family, Mr. Liverman, convinced the Malsins that the company should embark on a program of specialization. Mr. Liverman joined the firm and later became board chairman until his death in 1961. At first the Malsins concerned themselves with designing clothes for the stout figure, in addition to its maternity line. Half sizes came next, then clothes for tall girls. Junior Plenty sizes were created for young women and teen agers who needed more roomy clothes than the average Jr. size and Minims for short women with fuller figures.

Today, Lane Bryant Inc. is composed of 110 stores and specialty shops throughout the nation. The business is conducted under the direction of Mrs. Lane Bryant's son, Raphael who guides the company with the same vision and creative spirit as did his mother.

There will be just ten air-conditioned busses on the streets in Baltimore which will surely be Heavenly as to comfort. They will have tremendous windshields and lower steps and larger windows! It will be fortunate for those who will be lucky enough to be able to catch one of these busses going their way! Another 100 or so will arrive between now and the time the weather becomes bearable again. So am really glad that the Transit Co. has the public in their interest! Eh?

"Farmer's Almanac" states hot for August but lets not talk about the weather for there is nothing that anyone can do about it!

Have a grand week-end, Folks. Be so careful when you drive. If anyone desires to pass you, quickly move over and give him all the road for it may be a real emergency — and — yes — maybe a little Cherub about to arrive!

So long until next week D. V.
I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

NEWSPAPERS ARE TOP SALESMEN

Television, like radio before it but to a far greater degree, has brought about major changes in the advertising picture. It has been an aggressive competitor with the other media, and its appetite for the advertising dollar, with the cost of producing even Grade B programs running to comparatively astronomical sums, seems insatiable.

But the power of the written word still gets top recognition.

An announcement from Sears, Roebuck and Company will interest those who like to read as well as to stare. It expects to spend more than $60 million for newspaper advertising this year. Last year the figure was $58 million, which represented 71.2 per cent of Sears' total retail media expense. The balance went to advertising through circulars, magazines, radio and television, and other media.

A spokesman tells the story: "This is tangible evidence of our continuing faith in the potency of newspaper advertising. From the day Sears opened its first retail store, the company has made greater and greater use of newspapers. It is obvious that Sears store managers continue to regard the newspaper as their major medium for more than historical reasons. Their evaluation is based on the day-to-day results in their stores."

Television advertising is a catch-as-catch-can-affair— you have to be looking at the set at the moment and it's gone in an instant. Print is durable and the prospective buyer can scan and consider it at his leisure.

"GRASS ROOTS OPINIONS"

PITTSBURGH, PA., LIBERTY LEDGER: "Now there is more money, but the old idea of thrift has been abandoned. . . . Of course the example for all of this is set by government, which insists that it must spend, regardless of resources. Government says it's all right to let the national debt pile up; just borrow more money for what is being purchased this year and to pay the interest on what was borrowed before."

DUNSMUIR, CALIF., NEWS: "Profits . . . are the keystone of the American economy, although since the early days of the New Deal there has been a persistent effort to denigrate them. Without profits, no capital investment. Without capital investment, no jobs, no dividends or interest. In the long run, no tax revenues."

ONTARIO, ORE., ARGUS-OBSERVER: "In view of national surpluses for many basic food crops, it seems that unified withdrawal of new reclamation would be in order."

FLORENCE, ALA., HERALD: "It was the Ford car that first carried us from the country to the city, from the city to the country. It carried a man to see his neighbor, a boy to see a girl, and whole families to see places once hidden by horizons. It became, in short, a part of life, and its ignition key became the key to an unprecedented personal freedom."
 — Ford Times.

CUERO, TEX., RECORD: "Accidental death, as a result of swallowing poison, is increasing each year. You may not realize it, but more than 600,000 children — each year — swallow some kind of poison. This should make every parent think twice and carry out a routine check of bathroom cabinets, kitchen, etc."

BEDFORD, IND., TIMES-MAIL: "President Kennedy's recent order—issued without the consent of Congress—may open up more troubles than it will solve. The President has ordered that all companies engaged in government contracts, and all contractors doing government work, must hire more negro workers. . . . The President or anybody else can issue edicts, but he can't make (a) skilled person out of an unskilled person in a minute. That takes time, and if the President starts to put white men out of a job just to put negro workers in those jobs, then we might see a few demonstrations of the majority. They could be more dangerous than the demonstrations of a minority."

CANTON, N. C., ENTERPRISE: "We have freedom of the press and we must keep that right. In freedom, though, there is duty. It is the duty of the press to keep people informed. . . . In the long run. . . a free press is better than a muzzled one. It has to remain that way no matter how distasteful some news events are handled."

CARLSBAD, N. M., CURRENT-ARGUS: "History is filled with the abysmal failures of dictators who resorted to the overthrow of law as a cure-all for social ills. That's not for us. The law, in America, not only must remain supreme; it must be kept abreast of the ever-changing times lest democracy be out distanced by less responsible systems."

ODESSA, WASH., RECORD: "How many of us realize the vast returns we get from helping develop a strong community? Communities flourish because the people living there keep faith. People have not hesitated to make their initial investments. They invest in a home, in a business, in friendships, in living conditions. There are those who are short sighted and fail to see that a community needs keeping up just as surely as does a home."

DE PERE, WISC., JOURNAL-DEMOCRAT: "A special presidential council on the Older American has concluded that the man or woman over 65 has become almost a second-class citizen. He may be hale and healthy, but he can't get insurance except at exorbitant rates, he can't make his ideas known (except in higher professional levels), he is becoming more and more excluded from family councils, he is thrown into institutions and deprived of his liberty on the barest excuses. . . . All levels of government, private organizations and individuals need to do their share to restore these stalwarts of another day to first class citizenship."

TANEYTOWN, MARYLAND

CURRENT EVENTS FIFTY YEARS AGO

The County Statement shows the taxable basis of Taneytown district to be considerably above that of any other district in the County, except Westminster.

Rev. W. B. Duttera, D. D. left for his home in Salisbury, N. C., on Monday having been in this locality several weeks, since the death of his mother, Mrs. Amos Duttera.

Harry C. Harner of Keysville has bought the Harry F. Troxell farm, near Emmitsburg; about 72 acres for $5700. The Stuller farm at Keysville was sold last Saturday to Gordon Stonesifer at $51.20 per acre.

Miss Elsie Baumgardner of Keysville, Miss Edna Mehring, Oliver Lambert and Norman Baumgardner of Taneytown left Thursday morning to spend a week at Atlantic City, N. J.

The Catholic Picnic and tournament on Wednesday was largely attended and was a financial success. The tournament feature attracted much interest and the riding was good for amateurs. First prize was won by Herman Hood; second by Buckey Smith; third by John Leister; fourth by Walter Smith.

Postmaster McKinney's term expires March 28, 1914. Apparently the contest for the appointment is resting quietly.

Bower — Miss Grace H., youngest daughter of Mr. John S. Bower died at a hospital in Harrisburg on Monday following an operation for peritonitis. She had been visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Mehring. In addition to father and step-mother she leaves one brother, Walter A., of Taneytown, and two sisters, Mrs. Edna Burke, of New Castle, Del., and Mrs. William F. Bricker of Taneytown. The funeral services were held on Wednesday at the home by her Pastor, Rev. L. B. Hafer, assisted by Rev. Basler of Harrisburg, and Rev. S. Seth Russel Downie and D. J. Wolf of Taneytown followed by interment in the Lutheran Cemetery. Her age was 15 years.

Harney — John V. Eyler has sold his handsome property on Gettysburg St., to Martin E. Valentine, who will take possession next Spring. Harry Shriver our once popular merchant, but who for the past few years has been employed in various parts of the West and South, returned home on Wednesday morning.

Last Saturday Mrs. Emory Yoder, who has been visiting with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilhide of Keysville Road, came to the home of another daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide near Detour, to visit with them also. Miss Elizabeth Yoder of White Hall helped her mother to move from the one home to the other and is also staying on for a short vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clutz were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Eakin of Mechanicsburg, Pa. They were joined by Miss Ann Richter, Mrs. Miss Hertha Richter of Halifax, Pa. Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Weishaar and Randy of Forest and Stream Club Road were Mr. and Mrs. James Weishaar and Bobby of Detour and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Clingan of Thurmont. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Weishaar of Taneytown were also afternoon visitors. Mrs. William Fleharty near Detour returned her aunt, Mrs. Stanley Sweigard of Halifax, Pa., to her home last Thursday. She may return later for another visit, depending upon her doctor's report. Wayne, Ellen, Bruce and Diane visited with Randy Weishaar and his mother for the day. There are out-of-town visitors in the area: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Oaks of Long Beach, Calif., who are the aunt and uncle of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Norcutt. Most of you will know Mrs. Norcutt as the former Miss Margaret Wilhide. The Oaks have visited with Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fry and family and Mrs. Maurice Wilhide of Baltimore and also Mr. and Mrs. Charles Minnick of Union Bridge. They are now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide near Detour, but plan to leave tomorrow (Wednesday) for Washington, D.C. On Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Carroll Wilhide, Jane, Beth and Sandra Fry, who is also visiting at the Wilhide home, they made a tour of Gettysburg. Today they are visiting with various families in this vicinity. It is good to welcome them and I'm sure the Norcutts wish they could be here with them also to visit. —Dharly Fleharty

BROWSING IN BALTIMORE

Shopping centers, large and small, are springing up all over the country, and most of us will readily agree that they are very convenient. Furthermore, they are, for the most part, adequately stocked to meet our every need.

However, occasionally, in spite of the distance and traffic involved, it is pleasant to take a day off and venture into Baltimore to shop and browse around. We did this last week and the experience proved most enjoyable and stimulating. Enroute, we passed the Social Security Building and the Woodlawn Senior High School. Both are beautifully designed structures. Going down Mulberry St. we noticed that many of the shabby, dilapidated houses have been replaced by bright, attractive apartment buildings. Many changes are now taking place in Baltimore. The city is to be commended for its slum clearance project and general "clean-up" campaign.

Having reached the shopping district, we proceeded at once to the Franklin Uniform Store. In this establishment, one may find every type of uniform for every profession. We asked to see the nurses' uniforms. They are so much more attractive and stylish than they used to be! Furthermore, many of them are made of wash-and-wear materials, which require no starching and very little ironing. While we were making our selections, a gentleman came in and purchased several chef's hats. A young girl was being fitted for a choir robe. People of all professions and from all walks of life enter the doors of the Franklin Uniform Store. It is a very interesting place, indeed.

Our next stop was Brager-Gutman's. Many of the Fall fashions are now on display. Evidently a very popular shade this season will be "Cranberry," a rich, striking shade of red. The hats in Brager-Gutman's are simply stunning. The colors are gorgeous, and the prices are moderate.

Since it was now lunch time, we descended to the Tea Room. The fillet of haddock platter was delicious.

We visited several other stores and finally ended our shopping expedition in Stewarts. Everything here is beautifully and tastefully displayed. One section of the store is given over to exotic foods from all over the world. From West Germany, I saw jars of tiny ears of corn, pickled in some fashion. Lovers of unusual foods will delight in this selection!

Our day of shopping and browsing in Baltimore ended on a tired but happy note. We only wish we could do this more often! —Zola Cantwell.

DENIM MEN OF AMERICA

ON VACATION The labor force has increased 5 million strong in the last 10 years. Now, during vacation time, the 66 million men in denim are choosing the right vacation spot. The call has been to fishing for the men and camping for families. Right now, there are three times as many fishing enthusiasts as there were 10 years ago. And for every one camper of 1950—today there are six. State parks have doubled their area to accommodate the 101 million Americans who flock to their facilities. The denim man and his denim clad family continue to head for the out-of-doors. But vacation time can be where the home is, too. Many denim men and their families spend vacation time in their own backyards—10 million new ones since 1953. They garden, paint, repair, relax—take daily trips in the local area. Twenty million of them go picnicking. Two million more just get up and take a hike.

No-Cook Jam for Summer Pleasure

When raspberries are at their peak, make jam the cool, no-cook way. The new method, so perfect for lazy summer living, eliminates time-consuming cooking, skimming and paraffining. The fully flavored raspberry jam can be stored in the refrigerator for two to three weeks. "No-Cook" Red Raspberry Jam 3 cups prepared fruit (about 1-1/2 qts. ripe red raspberries) 3/4 cup water 1 box powdered fruit pectin 5-1/4 cups (2 lbs. 5 oz.) sugar

Thoroughly crush, 1 layer at a time, about 1-1/2 quarts fully ripe red raspberries. (If desired, sieve half of pulp to remove some of seeds.) Measure 3 cups into a large bowl or pan. Measure sugar, add to fruit, mix well, and let stand. Mix water and powdered fruit pectin in a small saucepan. Bring to a boil and boil 1 minute, stirring constantly. Stir into fruit mixture. Continue stirring about 2 minutes. (There will be a few remaining sugar crystals.) Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover at once with tight lids. When jam is set, store in freezer. If jam will be used within 2 or 3 weeks, it may be stored in refrigerator. Makes about 8 medium (8 oz.) glasses.

Covenant People
Lesson for August 11, 1963

Bible Material: Genesis 15-20.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 111.

ONE of the most important words in the Bible is "Covenant." It may not be a common word today, but it stands for something we all cherish. When a president or other official elected by the people takes the oath of office, that is a covenant. When a young couple repeat their marriage vows, that is a covenant. A covenant is a special kind of promise, it is a two-way thing. Sometimes a man will say "I promised myself so and so . . ." but that is not usual. Now the point of the Covenant,—it is always the Covenant,—in the Bible is that religion is a two-way street. It is a relationship, it is a promise of God to man and of man to God.

"Pivotal promise"

Many things can be said about the idea of Covenant in the Bible and in the life of the Christian. (Christians often call themselves the Covenant People or the New Israel.) Let us pick out three. First, the Covenant stands for the fact that you are not supposed to slide or glide into relationship with God. You choose God, He chooses you. Religion is not contemplation, though there is room in it for contemplation. Religion is a commitment, a promise you are not to throw lightly to one side. Religion-by-accident is not Bible religion. Religion-on-purpose is more like it. Religion is personal or not genuine. It is personal or a fake. Your parents can't sign for you, they can't respond to God for you, they can't come to God, or choose Him, in your place. Religion is voluntary. Religion is for always

The word Covenant also suggests that religion of the right kind is continuous, you can't put it on as you might put on a raincoat now and then when a storm comes on. There are people who do just that, you know; they never enter God's house nor read God's Word, but they holler for help when they are in trouble. God for them is just a raincoat to keep life's rains from their sensitive skins. For other people, religion is something for Sunday, or something to take when you go visit your grandmother, something old-fashioned, kept like an old rocking chair but too weak to bear any one's weight. On the contrary, the Covenant-idea of religion suggests that our relation to God is not only personal and undertaken by an act of our free will, but it is continuous. It may be out of your consciousness but it is always a fact. You may not always be thinking that you are a married person; but fortunately you are married whether you are aware of it every waking minute or not. A Christian is just as much in a "Covenant relation" to God when he is at work on the farm or in the bank or the hospital as he is in church. Furthermore, the Covenant approach to religion suggests that our relation to God is active not passive. In the Old Testament and the New, Covenant always carries with the obligation to Obedience. It leads to doing as well as to being.

Religion, singular and plural

We have been talking about Covenant as if it were all a matter between the soul and God, a private, individual matter. Well it is; but it would belie the Bible picture of Covenant if we stopped here. There are comparatively few cases where God is said to have a covenant with some individual as with Abraham. The standard picture is God on one side and the "Covenant People" on the other. Our relation to God is never what it ought to be if it is strictly individual and no more. The Lord's Prayer sets the keynote for the New Testament. It uses the first person plural: Our Father . . . Give us this day . . . forgive us as we forgive . . . There is a Community of the Covenant, —which is another way of saying there is a community of the committed; namely the church. That is, the Covenant which each person has with God, and the Covenant which the community has with Him, are two aspects of the same thing. The church—your church—any true church however small or large—is not just a conglomeration of all sorts and conditions of men, though it is that; but the important fact about the church is what the members have in common; they belong to one another, and they belong to God.

Telling Time by the Sun

1. Cut the dial face out of a square foot of heavy wood.
2. Cut a wooden triangle with a six-inch base to serve as the gnomon. Nail this on the dial face with the high point on the outside rim.
3. Set the sundial in a permanent place outside in a wide open area. Use a compass and line the gnomon up with the North Pole.
4. When the sun's rays are directly overhead (no shadow on the dial face) letter the number "12" at this point.

Continue to mark the numbers as each hour passes.

5. "6:00 A.M." will be west of the low end of the gnomon, while "6:00 P.M." will be east.

CHARLES A. SWAIN, CAPE MAY, NEW JERSEY BUSINESSMAN ELECTED PRESIDENT OF KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL

CHARLES A. SWAIN

Chicago, Illinois, July 4, 1963 — Charles A. Swain, Cape May, N. J. businessman, was elected president of Kiwanis International July 4, 1963, at the organization's 48th annual convention in Atlantic City, according to Oliver T. Leakins president of the Kiwanis Club of Taneytown, Md.

As head of Kiwanis International, Swain will be official spokesman for some 262,000 Kiwanians in more than 5200 clubs in the United States, Canada, Mexico, the Bahamas, and Western Europe. He succeeds New Mexico broadcaster, Merle H. Tucker, who has held the presidency during the year immediately preceding.

Prior to becoming president of Kiwanis International Swain served one year as president-elect, one year as vice-president, and two two-year terms as a trustee of the service organization. He has been a Kiwanian for 35 years.

Swain is a former bank executive and owner and operator of a chain of variety stores in Cape May. He is a member of the Board of Governors of the Burdette Tomlin Memorial Hospital, a director of the Cape May Chamber of Commerce, a past president of the city's Board of Education, a past chairman of the South Jersey Council of the Boy Scouts of America, and a deacon and member of the Advisory Board of the Cape Island Baptist Church. He holds the Key of Honor of Key Club International for outstanding service rendered to that organization. Key Club is a high school boys' service organization sponsored by Kiwanis.

Swain has served as president of the Kiwanis Club of Cape May, as lieutenant governor and governor of the New Jersey Kiwanis District, and as a member and chairman of several Kiwanis district and International committees.

He is a graduate of Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh, Penna. Swain is married. The couple have two grown sons.

In addition to naming Swain president, delegates to the 48th annual Kiwanis International convention chose a president-elect, two vice-presidents, a treasurer, and six International trustees. The latter will serve for two years, joining six hold-over trustees.

New officers and trustees are: Edward B. Moylan, Jr. of Miami, Florida, President-Elect; Mel R. Osborne, East York, Ontario and R. Glenn Reed, Marietta, Georgia, International Vice-Presidents; Edward C. Keefe, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, International Treasurer; Marshall E. Jetty, St. Mary's Penna., James M. Moler, Charles Town, West Va., Le Roy J. Olsen, Provo, (re-elected), James W. Putman, Hi-Noon, Emporia, Kansas, Claude L. Ryder, Brewer, Maine and Phillip V. Stout, Hilltop, Columbus, Ohio, International Trustees.

This was the fifth time that Kiwanis International has met in Atlantic City. The convention was characterized by a near record crowd and a slate of headline speakers and feature events. Delegates at the convention adopted resolutions upon which Kiwanis' service programs for 1963-64 will be based, recognized "the best all 'round Kiwanis clubs and districts for 1962," and developed new ideas in community service and club administration.

The 1964 convention will be held in Los Angeles, California.

CAMPFIRE PROGRAM BY SCOUTS

Camp Emmitsburg closed recently with a campfire ceremony to which parents and friends were invited. As the guests assembled, they inspected the camp site which is located in St. Anthony's grove a few miles south of Emmitsburg.

The program opened with the lowering of the Colors by the Camp Council. This Council was composed of two representatives from each of the three units of the camp and were Carolyn Frock, Donna Eckard, Nancy Hitchcock, Linda Seidel, Martha Miller and Olivia Myers.

The center of interest was then changed to the campfire which had been laid by the Intermediate Scouts under the direction of the Senior Aides. The Senior girls lit the fire with a fire-lighting ceremony. Against a backdrop picture of "Our Chalet," which is the international scout meeting place in Switzerland, the rest of the program took place. This picture had been drawn by Carolyn Keilholtz and Juanita Lindsey. The theme of the evening was International Friendship. Following a procession of flags of many nations, the Intermediates presented articles from different countries and told something about each. They sang "Come Out, Come Out into the Open Air" and "Our Chalet."

The Intermediate's leader, Mrs. Robert Myers, announced that the following girls would receive their Campercraft badge from their local troop leader since they had met all the requirements in camp: Debbie Baker, Jackie Balmer, Beverly Davis, Pam Dickson, Pat Dickson, Diane Dutrow, Carolyn Frock, Linda Gillespie, Mary Margaret Koontz, Dorothy Marshall, Juanita Lindsey, Glenda McGlaughlin, Barbara Myers, Lynn Miller, Mary Kay Sherwin, Rose Ricketts, Pam Topper, Karen Warthen, Beverly Wetzel, Mary Beth Eckenrode, Joan Alexander, Donna Eckard, Barbara Hitchcock, Sharon Kelly, Susan Miller, Bernadette Pinkas, Anne Thompson, Carol Stevens.

The one Brownie Unit, under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Lindsey, presented a little skit "Magic Mud," in which they discovered the many things that can be found in a small parcel of muddy ground. Mrs. George Danner's Brownie unit acted out a song from Australia, "Kookaburra," and then the two units sang "Tie Me Kangaroo Down."

The camp director, Mrs. Harold Curry, introduced the members of the staff at the opening of the program and directed many of the songs that were learned in camp. The program closed with the singing of "Dono Nobis Pacem" and "Evening Taps."

A great many parents and friends attended this closing program for the Girl Scout Dav Camp.

Life should not be all duty and work; there should be a place for recreation and repose, and wise people understand this.

Ohio State economists predict net farm income this year probably will be maintained near the $12.7 billion level of 1961.
