PROGRESSING FOR THE PLANS TANEYTOWN SWIMMING

The Taneytown Community Swimming Pool Executive Committee, representing the co-sponsoring civic organization, the Taneytown Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Taneytown Jaycettes, met Thursday, Oc-tober 22 at Pool Headquarters with fifteen members present, and made major decisions concerning pool design, construction, rules, regulations, admission fees and fund-raising campaign plans. The Committee voted unanimously to engage the Ira C. Rigger Co., of Cockeysville, Md., professional swim-ming pool builders, to construct the pool and all related facilities except the bath houses as soon as all funds are available. Taneytown area builders and plumbers have been asked to submit bids on the bath house con-struction in the next two weeks.

Plans Based on Long Research The Executive Committee acted apon the recommendation of its planning, Design and Construction sub-committee to select the Rigger Co. for the project; this sub-committee, Cecil Lewelling, chairman, has spent over three months researching pool construction methods, design, equipconstruction methods, design, equip-ment and possible constructing firms. Preliminary plans for the proposed pool had been submitted by three companies. This group visited eleven existing swimming pools in Md. and Penna. to study design, construction and equipment.

All facilities for the swimming pool project will comply with the state and county regulations for commercial pools.

Pool Size Determined

The proposed swimming pool will measure $82\frac{1}{2}$ feet long (Olympic length) by 42 feet wide, with an attached diving el measuring 33 feet by 35 feet. Depths will range from three feet to five feet in the larger rectangular area, with a maximum depth of twelve feet in the diving el to accommodate the eventual placement of a three-meter diving board. Fo, the initial season, however, the man. diving area will be equipped with a deck-level and a one-meter board. The large pool will be accompan-ied by a separate children's wading pool with a maximum depth of one foot. A concrete deck area of approximately 4,600 square feet will sur-round the pools, and a sodded area of equal size will be placed near the pool to accommodate sunbathers. The entire area will be enclosed by a six-foot high chain-link fence.

Maintenance-Free Construction

The pool will be constructed of cement faced with a special swim-ming pool brick and will have a ce-ment floor covered with a marbelite finish. This construction is the most maintenance-free available as it re-quires no naint. The most recently musical typewriter. You think mus-maintenance-free available as it re-quires no paint. Our farm home was built in 1858, according to the date inscribed on the front of it. What stories, I wonder, would the old house relate, if only it could speak? It had been built 5 years when the Battle of Gettys-burg took place, so almost certainly it would tell something of this bloody struggle between the North and South. Our farm is situated only a couple of miles in back of the Lit-tlestown Road, where Gen. George G. Meade set up field head-quarters on the farm of Benjamin Shunk, in that eventful Summer of 1863. And then, during the Battle itself, the sound of booming guns and roaring cannon must have carried clearly to this sec-tion. 'SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

What a grand crowd down at the Sheraton-Belvedere Hotel the other night to greet Barry Goldwater! I have never met a finer man than he! That 12th floor was simply jammed and I observed the people as to their esteem for this man which is be-yond describing! I never saw love shown so plainly with any other in-dividual running for any political po-sition! He is truly a Leader! The other day was visiting a friend at the Riveria Apts. on Lake Ave., and there were signs all around, "no parking in this block today." Look-ing out the window a half hour later from the apartment and saw the tree "EXPERTS" sawing down those wonderful old trees to make way for a wider thoroughfare! Leaving the apartment I asked those men if they did not feel badly doing away with apartment I asked those men if they did not feel badly doing away with those trees? I told them that I could never do it. They quickly replied, "Well, it just means more safety that is all!" As they spoke, I observed a certain sadness in the expression of their eyes! Only GOD CAN MAKE A TREE! And you remember the poem by Joyce Kilmer? These days the beautiful cars of "FORD" and "CHEVROLET" are something out of this world with the handsome and modern lines of style. They, really appear as frightfully ex-handsome and modern lines of style. They really appear as frightfully ex-pensive cars. Do go take a look! Did you know that it was Louis Braille, a frail young man who was born in France in 1809 and died at the age of 43, evolved his classic sys-tem of reading and writing for the blind when he was not yet 20! Though not fully accepted until after his death, the system has remained vir-tually unchanged and is used everycivic and social welfare of the people of Taneytown and vicinity. For fur-ther information, contact one of the officers of the Chamber listed on page 6 of The Carroll Record. The Thirty-Sixth Annual Banquet of the Chamber will be held in the Taneytown Jr.-Sr. High School audi-torium on Thursday, Nov. 19, 1964, beginning at 6:30 P. M., sharp. An interesting speaker has been secured for the occasion, as well as a comic tually unchanged and is used everywhere today. If you want to see a light comedy go to see, "I'd Rather Be Rich." It concerns a dying Millionaire (Maurice Chevalier) whose only heir is a granddaughter (Sandra Dee). His only wish is to meet the girl's fiance only wish is to meet the girl's fiance so that he can be sure he is leaving her with aqman who will make her a good husband. The fiance (Andy Williams) is fog-bound in Boston and to make her grandfather's last moments happy, Miss Dee arranges another individual in the person of Robert Goulet to meet him who is supposed to make one death bed ap-pearance and then exit! Now, you don't have to wonder anymore as to the outcome with that man GOULET! the outcome with that man GOULET! Eh?

Now, this you can always remember - "No man ever lived a right life who had not been chastened by a woman's love. Strengthened by her a woman's love. Strengthened by her courage and guided by her discre-tion!" Look around you and see! And to E. O. F.—I'll write in my next week's Column the answer to your letter as to a wonderful meal made in a jiffy for that surprise guest which your husband will bring some evening work all day on the outside, too! And lastly — never do this — "Don't pour out your woes and anxieties to other people. You don't want their sympathy — it'll merely make it easy for you to feel sorrier for yourself." Have a grand week-end. The Heavenly scenery with all the beauti-ful tones of gold, green and the dash of deep red here and there will be the best drink for your Mind and Souh and you will return and sout and you will return and say, "Thank You, God!" Until next week. D. V. I am, Faithfully, YOUR OBSERVER.

CLOVERLEAF AG. NEWS

The Cloverleaf Agricultural Club met on October 20 at 8:00 at the home of Linda and Steven Griswold. The newly elected President, Linda Griswold, presided. The pledge was led by Rex Crouch and 10 members answered the roll call by telling what they wish to accomplish this year in 4-H. There were two new members, George White, III, and Gene Gonder. Mr. George White, Jr., was a guest. The secretary and treasurer's reports were read and approved. Helen Ware-hime reported on parents which will be held on December 12 at Baust Church parish hall. It was decided to invite Mrs. Pat Stabler, Mr. Landon C. Burns, Mr. Robert Jones and Mr. John I. Plog. Sylvia Stonesifer reported on our window display which placed third. A brief discussion was held on the club holding a Val-entine's Dance. Linda Griswold, Helen Warehime and Wm. Haimes are serving on this committee.

The program books for the coming year were passed out and the members filled in the necessary information. The goals for the coming year are: 1. Each member give at least one demonstration a year. 2. Each member turn in a record book. 3. 100% at the County Fair.

Linda Griswold gave a demonstra-tion on "Proper Calf Feeding." The tion on Proper Call Feeding." The meeting was then adjourned with re-freshments served by the hostess, Mrs. Griswold. The next meeting will be held at the home of Eddie and Gene Curfman on November 17.

FRANCIS SCOTT KEY H. S.

In connection with the national youth program which is sponsored by the American Cancer Society as part of their fight against cancer, a state-wide conference for high school stu-dents was held on Saturday, October 17, at Frederick H. S., Frederick, Maryland.

Representatives from Francis Scott Key H. S. were Wanda Haifley, Rebecca Warner and Cynthia Warner. Wanda and Rebecca were chosen by the society to serve as the group discussion leaders on the topic of can-cer research. As two of eight discussion leaders, both girls were responsible for giving a short speech at the beginning of each half-hour discussion period, relating facts on their topic of cancer research. As a mem-ber of the leadership team, each girl lead group discussion, aided by the resource person, who provided spec-ial knowledge on the topic.

During the conference, the girls heard speeches and saw films on the topic of cancer. Guest speaker for the conference was Dr. Ronald G. Vincent, Associate Director of Ros-well Park Memorial Institute, N. Y. In his speech, Dr. Vincent carried out the main objective of the conference, which was to make the teen ager aware of the cancer problem and what he or she can do to help. It is the hope of the three Key girls who attended the conference, gris who attended the conference, that they can better acquaint their fellow students with the diseases of cancer. They are now making plans, along with the Key chapter of the Future Nurses Club, to present an assembly to the student body in or-der thet the artise scheel more profit der that the entire school may profit from their experiences.

Many people resent having the Red Cross united with the Community Chest and refuse to give a donation. Many of them are veterans of World War II who refuse to believe the old adage "a few bad apples can spoil the whole barrel," and refuse to see the good that IS done by the Red Cross. Some examples are the Blood Bank, first aid and swimming classes as well as assistance after fires or floods. Another thing many people resent (and I used to be one of them) is the banquets these organizations hold for their workers. This year I learned first-hand that those who attend have to pay their own way! Perhaps these thoughts will help some of you to rearrange your think-ing. If not, remember the Community Chest serves 55 separate organiza-tions and try to help them out NEXT year. Thanks!

AN INFORMED ELECTORATE

Get-out-the-vote campaigns have been a part of national elections for consent of the electorate, are those which will do much to determine this nation's future. They will, in many instances, profoundly affect the lives

Vote for Men with Proven and Tested Capabilities in Both Foreign and

One is tha are except for two facts. power of the Free World is centered in the most highly industrialized and science-minded nations. The United States, Canada, Western Europe, Japan and Australia are still more than a match for Russia and Red China in every form of production. The other fact is that the rest of the world-one and a half billion people -lives in the underdeveloped, uncommitted countries, and that we can offer them more in every spiritual and material way than the Communist bloc.

Since the end of World War II, according to Oil Facts, the petroleum industry has increased the nation's proved reserves of crude oil by 58 per cent; its refining capacity by 93 per cent; its oil pipeline mileage by 46 per cent; and its bulk storage capacity by about 100 per cent.

Ralph T. Moore writes in the Oregon Voter: "Perhaps most of our industrial strife stems from the strange notion that profits are automatic and that the big thing is to put in the working hours rather than pay attention to what is actually produced. One often runs into this attitude when hiring the young people, especially. Our schools are apparently falling down when it comes to the inculcation of proper work attitudes. And indifference to the same thing in the homes is adding to our disciplinary troubles."

Richard Rutter of The New York Times reports soaring sales of airconditioning equipment this year. Impressive new records are expected. Total 1964 sales are estimated at $1.89 billion, as against $1.74 billion in 1963.

Time magazine takes a critical view of the Presidential campaigning: "The fact is that the campaign, though it originally gave promise of developing into an exciting confrontation between two sharply differing personalities. There is almost none of the usual election-year exchange of thrust and counterthrust, charge and countercharge over really substantial issues. Instead, there is invective and counterinvective."

CURRENT EVENTS FIFTY YEARS AGO

The weather this week has been decidedly "Winterish" with heavy frost, and at places a little ice. Louis Elliot, salesman in D. J. Hesson's store has bought a farm of 80 acres, near York Springs, Penna., and will remove to it this coming Spring. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elliot will regret their re-moval from Taneytown. Some of the energetic temperance ladies of the district, in order to help the "dry" vote, will dispense coffee and sandwiches, free of charge, on Election Day, and also instruct vo-ters how to mark their ballots in or-der to vote "against" the saloon, by voting "for the proposition" to make Carroll County Anti-Saloon territory. The first precinct room will be un-der the telephone exchange, adjoin-ing Shaum's Meat Market. A suit-able room will also be secured, if possible, for the second precinct, but if not, the one room will be used for the whole district. (Advertisement) Vote Dry to Save the Boys! Summoned! (Advertisement) Vote Dry to Save the Boys! Summoned! Every voter of Carroll County is summoned to the defence of the home against the em-braces of the saloon. The day is next Tuesday.

Wilt. - Henry C. Wilt, 80, one of the oldest citizens of Taneytown was found dead in bed, Friday morning. Mr. Wilt taught in the public schools Mr. Wilt taught in the public schools for 50 years, and was a surveyor and conveyancer of fine ability. He leaves one son, G. Walter Wilt, assistant cashier for the Birnie Trust Co. and one daughter, Mrs. Arthur W. Coombs, of Hagerstówn. Funeral services in charge of his pastor, Rev. L. B. Hafer, were held Sunday, fol-lowed by interment in the Lutheran Cemeterv.

Cemetery. BANKARD — Howard Bankard, 16, son of Mrs. Theodore Bankard of Taneytown, was killed in York on Thursday by being struck by a train. He is survived by his mother and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. George E. Koutz, Miss Helen, and Messrs. Monroe and George, of Tan-eytown, and Curvin of York. Frizellburg — We are glad to note that Wallace Eckard will locate here and take possession of the black-smith shop vacated by Edward Bow-ers. . . Mrs. Jacob Null spent most of the week in Washington, D. C., where her son, Charles, is lying in the hospital very ill.

(If He Should Forget)

All the dwellers on earth, those who own not his sway. Are dependent on him for their needs day by day; since he giveth them life, breath and all things beside, it could hardly be strange with a circle so wide — (Should one be forgot.) And his Saints here below, all the small and the great, whether called small and the great, whether called from earth's highest or lowest es-tate, over all he is watching, their wants to supply; it is sure that the least of them all, even I (Shall not be forgot.) All the beast of the forest and field he sustains, the young lion to him in its hunger complains. When the ra-vens cry out for their portion of meat, in due season he answers and gives them to eat. (He does not forget.)

If two sparrows a farthing, for two farthings five, are remembered by him, whether dead or alive, I may reckon e'en me, to the sparrows akin though I be but a fifth, just the odd one thrown in — (He will not forget.) Continued next week. Keep them all together and you will have a beautiful poem.

Senator Weant Explains Questions Before the Voters

Last week we reported on Ques-tions 1, 2 and 3 which will appear on the Carroll County voting machines on Tuesday, November 3, 1964. We would now like to discuss Questions 4 and 5 which will also be presented to the Carroll County voters on that Question number 4 will appear on the voting machine as follows:

"To amend the Constitution of Maryland, relating to the duration of Sessions of the General Assembly, making accompanying changes in the present Constitutional provisions concerning the salary of members of the General Assembly, the term of office of the Governor, the nomination of civil officers ap-pointed by the Governor, the time and conditions for introduction of bills and the submission of the budget to the General Assembly by the Governor, and correcting an error in Article 3, Section 15 of the said Constitution."

This is a proposal to amend Sec-tions 1, 3 and 13 of Article 32 of the Constitution and also to amend Sec-tions 14, 15, 27 and 52(3) of Article

Prior to the introduction of the 1965 Fords, the country's leading automotive writers drove the new models at Dearborn. Most of these experts remarked about the extraordinary quietness and smoothness of the Ford ride. An automotive writer, in Mechanix Illustrated, said, "If this country, I haven't driven it." Quiet Means Quality . . . Since quiet is a traditional measure of car quality, Ford engineers designed the '65 Ford for maximum quietness. To illustrate

there is a quieter car made in

New Rolls-Royce Silver Cloud III during series of tests.

this quality achievement, Ford chose to make a documented test against the world's finest luxury car-Rolls-Royce.

Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc., world's leading acoustic consultants to government and industry, conducted the tests under supervision of the authoritative United States Auto Club. All cars were tuned to factory specifications.

The Result... The Fords proved to be slightly quieter at all speeds.

The official test report reads, in part: "At all moving speeds, on both courses, the Fords were quieter than the Rolls-Royces."

The Difference . . . The sound level difference, to be sure, is small-but it is there. At 60 miles an hour, Ford was actually 2.8 decibels* quieter than Rolls-Royce. At 40, Ford was 5.5 decibels* quieter. At 20, Ford was 4.9 decibels* quieter. However small these advantages over Rolls-Royce may be, they are significant evidence of quality-important to anyone buying a car in Ford's class.

Lesson for November 1, 1964

Background Scripture: I Timothy 6. Devotional Reading: Proverbs 8:10-21.

I^F YOU add up the people in the world who are rich and the people who want to be rich, you will just about have the sum total of the people in this world. Even those who want to be rich don't always hope to be rich, but story. Now the Bible's attitude to money - meaning God's attitude to it—is surprising to the average American. Because the average American will say Yes with enthusi

Dr. Foreman asm to three ordinary questions about money. Is money a good thing? Is it all right to want all the money I can get? If I get rich will I be happy?

Those who want to be rich

Suppose some one tells you he has an ambition to make big money. You would be likely to say, "Fine, I hope you make it. More power to you!" But in the Letter to Timothy we read what Saint Paul has to say to his young preacher-friend about what to say and preach to people about money. Paul has no illusions about wealth. He had seen wealthy men and wes not im-pressed. He has some pretty hard things to say about wealth. Perhaps he knew that Jesus had said, "You cannot serve Cod and Mammon" (meaning weslth) I'aul says money is a transistion and a trap. He even says 'nat moncy, or rather the low of it, is the "root of all evils" Be dorsn't mean that every act and sin is done for an sake of money. Anybody inous that would be an exagreeal in But if you want to see bew right Paul was, just look over a new spaper and see if money doesn't agure in a majority of the crime stories.

Those who are rich

You can hear members or Timothy's congregation the first :mnday after he got his letter from Paul. Maybe the first Sounday, surely some time Timothy would talk along lines that Paur. correspondence had suggested He would be preaching away about the dangers of wealth, how we can bring nothing into the world and take nothing out,-saying that the love of money is a sculdestroying thing, and so on. You could almost hear some man thinking: "What's this got to do with me? I made my pile before these missionaries converted me. I can't see that wanting money or having it ever hurt me. Am I a sinner just because I'm rich?" Timothy's answer to that question (if it was ever put to him in so many words) might have been to point out what Paul said about contentment, for one thing. The happiest people you know are not often the richest people you know. This doesn't mean that poverty is the best state for everybody. It does mean that if we look to our bank accounts for happiness, that is not the right place to look.

EVERYBODY LIKES SENATOR BEALL He has served us welllet's keep him on the job

- Most Marylanders approve of Senator Beall's stand on most issues — that's why you have re-elected him over and over again. For 22 years, he has been "your man in Washington."
- He has done a great job for Maryland and for all Marylanders — regardless of party.
- He has brought hundreds of important projects to Maryland, tens of thousands of jobs, millions upon millions in payroll!
- He will be able to do even more in his next term, because the longer a Senator serves, the more influential he becomes. He ranks higher on important committees; he is able to accomplish more for his constituents. No new Senator can begin to approach what Glenn Beall can do!

The conversion of money

Is a man ever converted until his money is converted? That is something that can be debated. But how do we convert money? Money is just a thing, and things can't have faith, hope or love. True; but in the strict meaning of the word "convert," meaning to change, money can be turned into something else. Money can be and is a tool, an instrument. It can be used to crush other men, it can be used to build up pride and selfishness; it can be a dagger to stab the soul to death. On the other hand, money used as a gift from God, carefully used in stewardship, not as if we owned it apart from God, such money (or possessions of any sort, for that matter) can be converted into good deeds. The question for Christians to ask is not, What would I do with a million dollars? The question is, What do I do with the money I have? It is just as a sy to be selfish with a dollar as with a million dollars. And it is just as possible to be generous with your few possessions as it would if you were a millionaire.
