Swimming Pool Committee News

Announcing that solicitations will be conducted this week of corporate businesses in the greater Taneytown area, the Finance and Fund Raising subcommittee of the Community Swimming Pool Project finalized plans for this second stage in the current campaign to raise the $60,000 needed for pool and bath house construction for Memorial Park.

The third stage of the campaign is slated to be conducted in January, when residents and merchants of Taneytown will be personally contacted during a door-to-door canvass for fund donations and pledges. Plans include a later solicitation of rural areas and neighboring communities through personal canvassing.

Subcommittee co-chairmen Argyle Kaufman and Harry Dougherty, Jr., announced at a meeting of the Project Executive Committee Tuesday evening that the first campaign stage, an appeal via mail to 1636 individuals, merchants, businesses and organizations, has been successfully completed. Receipt of over $2,000 in pledges and donations has resulted to date from this mailing; acknowledgments will be sent to donors as soon as possible.

Mrs. John M. Skiles and Mrs. Argyle Kaufman were named to head the January residential canvass. Volunteers will meet November 30 at Pool Headquarters to plan this visitation.

Cecil Lewelling reported for the Planning, Design and Construction subcommittee that complete plans for the bathhouses will be prepared so that the area contractors who have expressed interest in undertaking this phase of the pool project may have more complete information on which to base their bids.

A large banner, urging support of the swimming pool drive, will soon be erected over East Baltimore Street suspended from the former post office building and the ambulance garage.

All project financial records are being kept up to date by Mrs. Argyle Kaufman, chief bookkeeper; Roland Clingman, corresponding secretary; and Argyle Kaufman, treasurer. Mrs. Dean Brown, Admissions, Rules and Regulations chairman, will oversee the printing of season tickets.

"GOODWILL TRUCK STILL CALLS"

The Monocacy Valley Goodwill Industries announced today that the Goodwill truck is still calling at homes in Carroll County.

"We have experienced a great deal of confusion over this matter ever since we closed our Westminster branch store," said William Van Arman, Goodwill Director. "Donations have dropped off at an alarming rate since our store closing. We wish to make clear that the closing of the store was an effort to consolidate our stores into one expanded operation in Frederick. This in no way effects our need for contributions from Carroll County. We have always counted heavily on Carroll County for donations and the recent slump has seriously affected the entire operation."

The goodwill truck calls in southern Carroll County on Thursdays and in northern Carroll County on Fridays. Those with donations too large for the Goodwill Collection Boxes may call Mrs. Edward G. Little in Westminster, Mrs. G. Tracey in Hampstead or Miss Amelia Annan in Taneytown. These ladies will be glad to schedule the Goodwill truck to stop at homes in Carroll County.

A VIEW FROM MY KITCHEN WINDOW

Ordinarily by mid-November, as autumn merges into winter, we expect and invariably get gloomy days, and turbulent weather. However, this particular November has been warm, sunny, and dry, to the extent that drought conditions prevail over much of the country.

And so it is that my kitchen-window view this morning has a definite spring-like air about it, quite out of keeping with the season of the year. A bright sun smiles down upon the earth, and fleecy lamb-like clouds gambol about in a clear robin-egg blue sky. Despite the lack of moisture, the grass is surprisingly green, and our cows are still out on pasture. Even the winds seem strangely subdued, for the breeze singing through the trees today is a far cry from the usual sweeping blasts of late autumn. Were it not for the dry, brown leaves tumbling helter-skelter all around, I might be inclined to think that this was March or April, instead of November. However, we just tuned in the forecast and evidently a cold front moving in will put an end to the balmy weather. The wild things know this, too, for yesterday I saw a snow-bird and for the past few weeks the fields have been black with crows, feeding in lieu of rain or snow.

The small game hunting season is now on in full swing, but as I scan the countryside, I see no signs of hunters abroad. To many people, hunting is a stimulating sport, but it distresses me greatly to look out and see terrified pheasants and rabbits fleeing from men, guns and dogs. Someone once told me that the pheasants run all the way out to town! For my part, I am always glad when the season comes to a close.

The crops are now safely in, and we farm folks can thank God that despite the long dry spell, we have reaped a better harvest than we anticipated. There may have been a shortage of some things, but on the whole, the corn, wheat, and barley did quite well. Homemakers, too, were able to freeze and can an ample supply of goods for winter-time. So let us now, as another Thanksgiving comes around, be grateful for these and the many other countless blessings which our Creator has heaped upon us.

—Zola Cantwell

Pop, will I look like you when I grow up?
Everybody seems to think so, son. Well, I won't have to grow up for a long time, will I, Pop?

Taneytown Jaycees Hold "Ladies Night"

The Taneytown Junior Chamber of Commerce honored their ladies last Thursday evening in the Old Hotel Restaurant, Taneytown. This was their annual "Jaycette Night" which not only is a ladies' night, but affords the opportunity to recognize the Jaycette organization, the wives auxiliary.

Following a delicious buffet dinner, John M. Skiles, program chairman, introduced the speaker for the evening, Mr. Richard Davidson, Owings Mills. A native of Taneytown, Mr. Davidson is a psychiatric case worker in the pre-admission and admissions department at Rosewood State Hospital, Owings Mills. He spoke on the role of the social worker in the field of mental retardation.

The program was especially timely, since the annual fund-raising drive of the Carroll County Association for Retarded Children is currently under way. Mr. Davidson pointed to the extremely high incidence of mental retardate births in the U.S. and the many-faceted problems created by the large group of handicapped people. Approximating three percent of our population, it is estimated that there are about 9,000 mental retardates in the State of Maryland, alone.

The 2,616 hospital beds provided by the State at Rosewood are always filled to capacity, and he explained the need to make use of every possible resource and facility on the local level whenever possible. Only those who cannot be cared for in any other manner or at any other facility on the community level, are admitted.

Public concern for this problem has only come very recently, and a program of aid is still lagging far behind. He said that five out of six of those except the profoundly retarded could be trained to be useful citizens in the community. The social worker, he went on to say, is the liaison between the patient, community, family, and the hospital in this effort.

Following Mr. Davidson's talk, the presentation team for the Community Swimming Pool presented their illustrated talk on the proposed pool for Taneytown. The five members of this team gave a brief but thorough outline of the why, where, and how of this project. A question and discussion period followed to allow for questions not specifically covered for their presentation. This was the "Kick-off" talk by the team and they are now available to any and all organizations and groups in the community.

A special membership meeting conducted by President Dean Brown following the program the Jaycees unanimously voted to pledge $1,000 to the pool project. $75.00 had already been appropriated and further donations will depend on the success of planned profit-making projects.

Visitors included a delegation from the Freedom chapter and District V. President Carville Downes.

ODD FELLOWS BANQUET

Taney Lodge No. 28, I. O. O. F., celebrated its 58th Anniversary with a banquet in the Harney Fire Co. Hall last Thursday evening, November 12, served by the ladies of the Pine Co. Auxiliary. Bro. Arthur Warman of Gettysburg Lodge of Gettysburg offered the invocation.

Bro. Walter Hiltterbrick, lodge chairman on arrangements, acted as toastmaster for the program following conclusion of the meal.

Several instrumental numbers were given by the trio of Donald Bollinger, Dennis Bollinger and Fred Halter.

Present representing the Grand Lodge of Maryland were: G. M. Benjamin E. Sklar, and wife; G. Ward, Frank M. Long, and wife; G. Treas, Graydon D. Maxwell and wife; D. G. M., James H. Fritz; and Gr. Marsh, Harry Weiner.

As speaker of the evening the Grand Master gave a very interesting and informative address. He stated that Odd Fellowship is moving forward generally. In addition to adhering to the established principles of the "brotherhood of man, and fatherhood of God"—other worthwhile programs and activities are being entered into. There has been established an Odd Fellows United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth in which each year from 1000 to 1500 youths from all over the United States have been sponsored to go there and other places of interest to learn of international understanding and today's World History. To date the total number is about 10,000.

At Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md., there has been established an Odd Fellows Foundation of Visual Research and Eye Bank, the purpose of which is to promote the correction of impaired vision and the restoration of lost eyesight. This project was completed at the cost of $650,000.00 and was paid for entirely by voluntary contributions from Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, and members of other branches of the Order.

Here in Maryland we have the splendid Odd Fellows Home at Frederick where the aged Odd Fellows and Rebekahs have a home to spend their sunset years carefree and amply provided for.

The evening's festivities concluded with prayer by Bro. Birnie Staley.

FSK HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR COMMENDED ON NMSQT TEST

One senior at Francis Scott Key High School has been honored for his high performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMSQT) given last spring. Each student who is endorsed by his school receives a formal Letter of Commendation signed by his principal and the president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Ned C. Mussen, the school's principal, has announced that the commendation student is John W. Kaufmann.

John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, said: "Letters of Commendation are being awarded to 38,000 students throughout the country in recognition of their outstanding performance on the qualifying test. We wish to call attention in this way to their high academic achievement."

"Although they did not reach the status of semifinalists and commendation students together constitute about two percent of all high school seniors. This certainly signifies noteworthy accomplishment by all these bright young people."

"We urge the commendation students to make every effort to attend college, and to develop to the fullest their promise of future achievement. By doing so they will benefit both themselves and the nation."

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation gives recognition to two groups of students who achieve high scores on the NMSQT. The Semifinalist group is composed of the highest-scoring students in each state and in U.S. territories. Some 14,000 Semifinalists take a second examination to establish further their eligibility to become Finalist and to receive consideration for Merit Scholarship.

ENUMERATORS NAMED FOR CENSUS OF AGRICULTURE IN CARROLL COUNTY

Enumerators have been named in Carroll County for the 1964 Census of Agriculture, Crew Leader John C. Lovell announced.

Enumerators in Carroll County belong to a force of 23,000 throughout the nation employed temporarily by the U.S. Bureau of the Census for this year's Census of Agriculture.

Enumerators are key workers in an agricultural census. It is the enumerator's responsibility to locate every farm within an enumeration district assigned to him (or her), determine if the operator of the farm has answered all questions on a questionnaire that has been mailed to the farmer by the Census Bureau, help the farmer complete any unanswered questions on the form, check answers for accuracy, and deliver the form to the Census Bureau.

A Census of Agriculture is taken every five years in the years ending in "4" and "9" to gather needed, up-to-date information on the nation's agricultural resources and production. Such information is vital in making decisions affecting many segments of the U. S. economy. Data gathered include the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock inventory, information on farm equipment and improvements, farm products sold, and on some production expenditures. Information also will be collected on use of fertilizers, insecticides, and herbicides.

The enumerators will be trained in a special 4-day home study course designed to prepare them for the farm census, their crew leader said.

The following persons have been appointed in this area: Martin L. Zimmerman, Taneytown; Sylvia R. Haines, New Windsor; Majorie Zukie, Mt. Airy; Mary S. Bailey, Mayberry; Mrs. Ruth Plymton, Union Bridge; Caroline Reese, Millers; Mrs. Harriet Shykes, Woodlawn; Edmond W. Karl, Phelps; James K. West, Woodbine; Mrs. Vienna J. Farnsworth, Run; John Hull, Westminster; Mrs. Eleanor Sterner, Hampstead.

BOWLING BROOK BOYS AND STAFF GUESTS FOR DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Benton A. Arbaugh, proprietors of Benny's Kitchen and Restaurant, very generously, for the second year donated a lovely family style dinner for the boys and staff of the boys' home on Monday, November 9th. The group dined in a pleasantly remodeled dining room, where the food was excellent and enjoyed tremendously by everyone. Superintendent and Mrs. Robert H. DePew introduced Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carstens, houseparents, to the hosts. The boys were also introduced; however many were old acquaintances of the Arbaughs. There were 20 guests treated to very excellent food, service and atmosphere.

The boys and staff of the home publicly express appreciation to the Arbaugh family for their kindness and generosity.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning. A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer. Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

"One Potato, Two Potatoes, Three Potatoes, Four" and so on. Do you recall when you were a child that was some sort of a game which you played? Well, the game down at the "Mayfair" is titled just "One Potato, Two Potatoes" but I can't think for what reason or the connection? Miss Barbara Barrie as "Julie" (whom I have never seen before) plays the part of a young divorcee—a very lonely young woman with a small daughter in a Midwestern town. Her acting is tops and she knows how to shed tears at a very critical moment in any place in that picture. She appears shy all the way through to the very end. Julie is employed in an office where there is a Negro young man who is her co-worker and he is very kind and thoughtful in so many ways. The friendship of Julie and Frank ripens into love and then marriage—despite the color line! But somehow this story is most evident as to the races as the colored resent intermarriage with the white just as much as visa-versa. Frank's parents own a farm and they go to live there with Julie's child (a very light blonde) Ellen Mary. It appears as though everyone has adjusted themselves and seems to be contented until the first husband appears on the scene, a fellow who is a drifter after four years and seeks his child and demands her return! The last part is where there is a Court scene where the first husband wins the custody of the child. The very ending is really tragic as Julie is seen rushing down toward the rapidly driven car away from the farm with little Ellen Mary screaming for her mother that she does not want to go away with her father!

There is truly a big lesson to learn right there which is realized by the White and Colored Race! Everyone should see that picture regardless of Color!

November 10th was the birthday of the M. A. R. I. N. E. S.—just 189 years ago it was born! Although, I always admire all the Nephews of our wonderful Uncle Sam—there is so much more for any Marine and you will agree when you read that History for they are first in any battle!

The other day a friend handed me a little package stating that I was to take it away with me on the plane to Phoenix and not to use it now. When I opened it, there it was, an "Avon" preparation and underneath the front flowers were these words, "Here is My Heart!" Sentimental me! Eh? Betcha, that is the cute way with that "Avon" and I think the ladies all know just what I mean!

Now, folks, thinking about that plane—you know by this time that I am not crazy as to that kind of travel but my son is treating me and "Beggars can't be choosers". Then, he writes that I would be so tired coming by train which would take three days and three nights and he wants to drive me to Mexico and to California! I have been on planes locally but never on any long distance. But, you know I will be writing from experience D. V. As to some of the things I am going to take—well—here is part of a list—"The huge colorful book of 'The Night Before Christmas', The Induction Card sent to me of The Air Force when the eldest enlisted, a handsome picture—a handsome likeness of the late President Kennedy (born in the same sign), two rings, my Jacks and Ball, books of the following titles: "A Wonderbook and Tanglewood Tales" by Hawthorne, "Magnificent Obsession" by Lloyd Douglas, my very personal Bible to the eldest boy, Francis, which was the wedding present from my Minister (his father) in 1933 which has a cover of the wood from Jerusalem and all that Christ spoke in red lettering! A pair of gold bedroom slippers, an evening bag, a miniature box of books by the old authors, a long lace table cloth, a long Christmas table cloth, four famous American Documents, the book on The Ancient Landmark of American Methodism or Historic Old St. George's in Philadelphia and a few other things. The eldest will appreciate that and other books as he is a school teacher.

Have a grand week-end. Hope to be seeing you soon. Until next week D. V. and don't forget to make some one else happy!

I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

STONESIFER TO ATTEND NATIONAL DAIRY CONFERENCE

Dairy record keeping played a large part in earning a trip to Chicago for Carroll County's Jimmy Stonesifer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ardel Stonesifer, Route 7, Westminster. Jimmy will be attending the 10th Annual National Dairy Conference, December 3-5. In addition to helping on his home farm, he is employed by the Swissvale Farm Dairy to work with their test herd of purebred Brown Swiss. Jimmy is completing his 10th year of 4-H club work and has served as co-leader of his local club for the past four years.

"THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE PRESS IN POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS"

The power of the press is enormous and should not be underestimated. All people concerned with the publishing of a newspaper should realize what influence this medium has on public opinion and take their responsibilities very seriously.

The responsibility of the press during a political campaign is to present to the public a fair and accurate report of the candidates' views and actions. This sense of responsibility should be the objective of three separate representatives of the press—the reporter, the editor, and the "makeup" man.

A good news reporter will recognize the challenge of election time and will be careful not to let his own prejudices and interests color his work. This is difficult, of course. Every reporter has personal feelings and is inclined to emphasize his favorite candidate's good points. A competent reporter, however, realizing his responsibility, will report the characteristics, good and bad, of both men. To write a political news story well is to write it clearly and fairly to both parties involved.

All newspaper editors have a specific responsibility. The editor who red-pencils a small but relatively important notice of a political gathering is denying to the public the knowledge of this meeting, and therefore neglecting his duty. By interviewing the children of one candidate and ignoring the other politician's family, the feature editor fails to give equal space and coverage to both political parties. Running a lengthy article about one candidate's wife may be an interesting addition to the women's page, but if the other politician's wife receives very little attention, the women's editor is likewise not carrying out her responsibility. The fact that a newspaper has chosen to support a certain candidate does not alter that paper's responsibility to the public. After endorsing a candidate a paper should not be apprehensive about printing an unfavorable article about him; nor should it fail to report something complimentary about the other candidate, if this is factual news. The page and placement of the article in question also has a direct bearing on the fairness of the presentation, as all makeup men should keep in mind. A reader naturally assumes that a story on the next-to-the-last page does not merit the attention of a similar article on the front page. The public is quick to notice and condemn a newspaper for seemingly unimportant injustices done to their favorite candidates.

Newspapers must earn their position as thought-leaders in three vital ways: thorough coverage of important issues; currentness of news reported; and acceptance of its leadership by its readers. To accomplish these aims, in all areas of writing and reporting the policy of the paper should be one of honesty, objectivity, and accuracy in dealing with either a politician or his political party. This is not only a matter of fairness to the particular individual or group; it is the basic responsibility of the newspaper to its readers.

HUNTER'S CODE OF ETHICS

1. I will consider myself an invited guest of the landowner, seeking his permission, and so conducting myself that I may be welcome in the future.
2. I will obey the rules of safe gun handling and will courteously but firmly insist that others who hunt with me do the same.
3. I will obey all game laws and regulations, and will insist that my companions do likewise.
4. I will do my best to acquire those marksmanship and hunting skills which assure clean, sportsmanlike kills.
5. I will support conservation efforts which can assure good hunting for future generations of Americans.
6. I will pass along to younger hunters the attitudes and skills essential to a true outdoor sportsman.

WITH THE ARMED FORCES

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — Airman Bradley R. Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard R. Johnston of Route 1, New Windsor, Md., has completed the first phase of his Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Texas.

Airman Johnston has been selected for technical training as an aircraft weapons systems specialist at the Air Training Command (ATC) school at Lowry AFB, Colo. His new unit is part of the vast ATC system which trains airmen and officers in the diverse skills required by the nation's aerospace force.

The airman is a 1964 graduate of Westminster (Md.) Senior H. S.

FORT LEONARD WOOD, MO. (AHTNC)—Army Sergeant First Class Robert L. Arter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Arter, Sr., Rt. 2, Littlestown, Pa., and other members of the 1st Infantry Division are participating in Exercise GOLD FIRE I, a 16-day field training exercise being conducted in the vicinity of Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., ending November 13.

The exercise, involving two opposing forces, Joint Task Force Sioux and Joint Task Force Ozark, is designed to test and evaluate the suitability of the U. S. Air Force concept for improving the use of aviation in support of Army ground forces.

Sergeant Arter is participating with the Sioux force which is using current doctrines and procedures while the Ozark forces are employing the new concept of support and attack. About 20,000 men are taking part in the maneuver.

The sergeant is a communications chief in Headquarters Company, 2d Battalion of the division's 18th Infantry, regularly stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas.

He entered the Army in 1946.

FORT GORDON, GA. (AHTNC)—Pvt. Michael A. Saylor, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Saylor, Rt. 2, Union Bridge, Md., completed an eight-week lineman course under the Reserve Enlistment Program at the Army Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga., November 6.

Saylor was trained to construct and maintain open wire, lead covered cables and field communication wires. He completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Saylor attended Frederick High School and was employed by M. R. Pfoutz and sons, Inc., before going on active duty.

A good politician is one that can step on your toes without messing up the shine; get into your pocketbook without a gun, and make you think he is the original Santa Claus.

After suffering hours and hours of conventioning and campaigning, we're beginning to see some merit in a one-party system.—Changing Times.

CURRENT EVENTS FIFTY YEARS AGO

Some of the most worn streets are being given a coating of crushed limestone.

Cattle Disease Extends to Maryland. Carroll County was placed under quarantine on Monday, Nov. 9, along with Frederick and Washington Counties, and all shipments of cattle sheep or hogs will be prohibited, due to the existence of the foot and mouth disease. The disease is very contagious.

The rain of last Sunday, followed by high wind and freezing cold of Monday night and Tuesday kept up the reputation of Maryland for panicky weather.

The Thanksgiving Day sermon this year will be in the Reformed Church by Rev. Seth Russell Downie for the Union Service.

The state road force is making every possible effort to finish laying the concrete over the entire road. The bed is now finished almost to Pipe Creek, which leaves a half-mile or less, to finish. If the weather permits, both road and bridges will be open for travel in a few weeks.

Forney . . . Mr. Thomas Forney, 81, one of the oldest residents of Taneytown district, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Haugh, near Taneytown, last Friday. The following children survive him: Mrs. Monroe H. Bankard and Mrs. Haugh, near Taneytown; Jacob A. and John T., of Baltimore; William E., near Taneytown; S. Margaret of Bluffs, Ill.; Mrs. Harry Bowers of Kansas City, Kans.; David M. of Morganville, Kans.; and Samuel L. of Gretna, Va. Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church on Monday, of which he was a lifelong member, by Rev. L. B. Hafer assisted by Rev. H. O. Harner. Interment in adjoining cemetery.

Harney . . . Butchering has commenced in this place and there will soon be a lot of heavy weight porkers slaughtered. . . . Owing to the quarantine on cattle, Oliver Sontz of near this place, was compelled to call his sale off last Friday. Quite a large crowd had come for the sale, and Sheriff G. R. Thompson had sounded his bell to commence, when Dr. E. D. Hudson appeared and read the law, and the Sheriff, who is a popular auctioneer, cried out "no sale."

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR

Greetings to you:

Last Saturday evening Mrs. William Weishaar of Forest and Stream Club Road was surprised by her children with a birthday party at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Wildisan in Westminster. Those present were Mr. Weishaar and Randy, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wildisan and Kevin, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Weishaar of Taneytown, Mr. and Mrs. James Weishaar, Bobby and Billy of Detour, Mrs. Mary Plaine, Charles Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Plaine, Diane and Danny; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Slenker and Danny, Mr. and Mrs. Havery Slaseman and Julianna of Mt. Wolfe, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Clingan of Thurmont.

The Sunshine Class of the Keysville United Church of Christ wants to thank all those who attended and all those who took part in their very successful Hymn Sing last Sunday evening.

Good to hear that Mrs. Charles Clutz, a patient at Western Maryland Hospital in Hagerstown, was again able to spend the week-end at her home, Riverdale Farm, near Keysville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide of Keysville were recent visitors in Clear Spring with his aunt, Mrs. Baxter Haugh. On their way home, they also called on Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Seibert and family.

Two Frederick Memorial Hospital Nursing Trainees who spent the week-end at their homes were Audrey Wilhide, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilhide of the Keysville Road, and Peggy Fleagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stoner Fleagle of Mayberry.

My family and I were among those who attended the Open House held at the Mitchell Transport garage on Sunday. It was quite interesting to see the "inside" of such a big concern. If you think one of those trucks is big when you pass it on the road, it is immense when you can actually walk around one. It is because of their hauling activities that Mitchell Transport Co. is also quite interested in seeing Maryland Route 75 continue on to Keymer. I'm sure we are all hoping that it will not be much longer though it is not contemplated in the near future according to the letter from the State Roads Commission to our local P-TA group.

Happy Anniversary wishes on the 24th to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide of Keysville and to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Harner, who shared the day. Also Happy Birthday wishes to my son Bruce who will be 7 that very same day.

Recent Tuesday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Catlin and Mrs. Gertrude Warner of Detour were Mrs. Estella Schiffman of Dunkirk, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. George Ream of Newport, N.J., and Mrs. Hoyt DeShields of Detour.

Sunday visitors at the Carroll Wilhide home were her sister and family, Mrs. Walter Gill, Tommy, David, Joan and her girl friend Alice Nelson and their mother, Mrs. Emory Yoder, of White Hall. In the afternoon, Mrs. Gill, Tommy, David, Joan and Alice along with Mrs. Richard Wilhide and Suzie and Beth rode up to Cunningham Falls and took a short hike into them from the road. They were all supper guests, along with Richard, at the Carroll Wilhide home. On their way home, the Gills and Alice also called on the Clyde Wilhide family on the Keysville Road. Mrs. Yoder stayed on for a visit with the Wilhides.

The Terra Rubra Girls' 4-H Club met on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun with 21 present. Mrs. Donald Stanley of Keysville was a visitor. Plans were made for their Christmas party.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Lambert of New Midway upon the addition of a second son, Jacob. Daniel joined them last Tuesday and they hope to legally adopt him as soon as the probationary period is over. Mrs. Lambert is the former Jean Stonestifer of Keysville.

Surely was sorry to learn that Mr. Hans Steffen of the Sixes Bridge Road has not been well. Do hope he will soon be fully recovered. His daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eicker of Baltimore, were recent Sunday visitors.

Among those from this area who attended the Southern States Annual Meeting in Richmond, Va., on Nov. 12 and 13 were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilhide, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wilhide, Mrs. Mark Baumgardner and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weant.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young and family of Keysville on Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide of Keysville were Tuesday visitors in Littlestown with her brothers, Charles and Luther Ritter. The Wilhides now have new tenants on their farm. They are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harrison, formerly of Westminster.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. William Weishaar and Randy near Detour were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Weishaar of Taneytown, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wildisan and Kevin of Westminster and Mr. and Mrs. James Weishaar, Bobby and Billy of Detour.

The Christmas Social at the United Church of Christ in Keysville will be held on Monday evening, December 7, at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Emory Yoder was a Monday visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide and Susan.

Monday opened hunting season and brought Pastor and Mrs. Donald Brake of Funkstown back to the area for the day. They were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun along with Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide, Miss Ada Yoder, Miss Dorie Tag and her brother Henry Tag of Baltimore, Pastor Brake, Ed Coshun and Henry Tag went hunting together.

This is actually the last week to place your order for Wolfgang's Candy from the Keysville Lutheran Sunday School. The orders must be in to Carroll Kiser, who has charge of the project by November 23.

The Rob Ellen Shop in Taneytown has finished its remodeling project and everything looks sparkling new. They have changed their displays also and everything is most attractive. Along with the remodeling of the restaurant in the hotel across the street, and that of the Community Furniture Store before that, as well as the opening of the Fritz Television Store, the Square really has a NEW LOOK.

Keysville Road is really a busy place these days. The road crew is still working at clearing and widening the road (what a mess as they go by your place) and now the snow fences are going up too. There is also more ground breaking. A new home will be going up shortly for Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Glass and family on land between the homes of Clyde Wilhide and Frank Harmon, Sr.

The new home being built in Middleburg for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morningstar, down this way from Green's store and next to the home of Newton Six, Jr., family, is really making progress. The combination of black roof and the white and grey shades of brick is quite striking. The house is a ramble with breezeway and two-car garage. A garage and breezeway is also being added to the Six home next door and making it look ever so much larger.

A happy family Thanksgiving Day to each of you next Thursday. Have you ever noticed that no matter how many gripes or troubles one has, you can usually find someone who is a lot worse off? Think it over and be glad for what you have; then offer a special prayer of thanksgiving on the 26th. The best of everything to you and yours. . .

—Dharlys Fleaharty

Elmer A. Wolfe P-TA Executive Committee Meeting

A report on the Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers Convention which he attended on November 10 was given by Mr. Robert DePew to the Elmer A. Wolfe P-TA Executive Committee at their meeting on November 16.

The Membership Committee has a total of 125 members enrolled. Mr. Perron, school principal, told of the cantata being readied for the general meeting on December 14. He also told of a total of 190 visitations in the classrooms on Nov. 11 during American Education Week. There were 89 in Primary, 58 in Elementary and 43 in Junior High. The Hearing and Vision Testing has been completed with the help of a number of volunteers.

The president asked for reports from the Hobby Show and Supper Committees. Mrs. James Wolfe for Supper told the menu and advised they are planning for 300 people. There will be an advance sale of tickets and a schedule is now being readied to be sent home requesting donations towards the meal. Mrs. William Fleaharty for Ads, Booklet and Publicity requested a list of possible donors of prizes from that committee by the first of January. She also asked the Exhibits Chairman to plan a listing for her by the first of March. It was moved and seconded to dedicate the booklet to Mrs. Olivia Bankert, fourth grade teacher and president Ray Wilson will contact her for approval.

Next Executive Committee Meeting will be January 25, 1965. None will be held during December because of the holidays.

FAIRVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Frock, York, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Levi Frock of this place spent the week-end in the home of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Helman of Lansdale, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Helman, Jr., and children Mark and Candy also called at the same home on Sunday noon. For the past several years when we visited out there, we had a mixture of sun and rain, one time rain, another snow and rain, another time fog, but we do thank God we had a wonderful week-end this time. The weather was beautiful. On our way home Sunday night we stopped at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Frock's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Givens near Lancaster, Pa., for a short visit. We arrived home here at 11:45.

Well, it seems we are always having accidents on this road leading from Uniontown to Taneytown. Last week two boys came from Feeser Road onto Taneytown Road at Coperville striking a Mr. Kline who was on his way to Taneytown, causing considerable damage to his car. Mr. Kline's little girl was thrown from the car and taken to the Carroll County Hospital, then on to the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore. We do hope she is recovering nicely and will have no bad effects from the accident.

Mrs. Mabel Smith of Keysville spent Friday evening in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Baker near Keymer.

Hunting season opened yesterday (Monday). I don't believe there was as much game to be found as in years past, when you could hear guns cracking in every direction, but it was quite calm this time.

We are sorry to learn Mr. Wilbur Lawrence near Wolf's Mill was taken to the Gettysburg Hospital on Saturday morning. We wish him a speedy return home and feeling much better.

Robert Frock and Charlene spent Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker and son of Hanover, Pa. They also called on the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Frock, on Monday evening.

Thanksgiving

(by Margaret Nickerson)

I do not always pray on bended knee, but Thou knowest how my heart ascends to Thee in never-ceasing gratitude and praise for all the countless blessings of my days.

For miracle of each successive dawn, the majesty and glory of the sun dispelling darkness, bathing earth with light — I thank Thee, Lord, for this Thy gift of sight.

For sounds that peels through days of busy toil from mill and mine, from tilling of the soil, for song of bird, for voices loved and dear — Oh, Lord, I thank Thee so that I can hear.

For food that Thou abundantly dost give, that we Thy creatures may partake and live, for products of the earth and sea — and for Thy gift of taste I do thank Thee.

And, Lord, I thank Thee for the sense of touch; the things which it embraces are so much. I do not always pray on bended knee, but yet I know, Lord, that Thou hearest me.

ROCKY RIDGE

The 72nd annual Thanksgiving turkey dinner will be served in Creagerstown parish hall on Thursday, November 26, 11:00 to 4:00 P. M. by the Faithful Workers Society of the Lutheran Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey M. Pittinger attended the turkey and oyster supper at Mt. Zion (Haugh's) Church at Ladiesburg on Saturday, November 14.

We are having dry and dusty weather — rain is needed very badly. It is dry weather for seeding this Fall of 1964.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland D. Wilson and family of Taneytown spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Setherly and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey M. Pittinger.

(The Prayer Meeting)

I've a rendezvous with Jesus in the middle of the week in a pleasant little valley and the valley's name is Prayer; and through it runs a river and the river's name is Peace, and I must not disappoint Him for I love to turn aside to meet Him mid the sweetness of that quiet little vale.

For I know He'll keep His promise and be waiting for me there; And I'm sure I'd disappoint Him if I should fail.

I've a rendezvous with Jesus and His smile before will quickly vanish all the clouds that bring me care.

He's my comrade in the valley and it's blessed there to be and I'll do my best to meet Him for He's waiting for me there.

MARRIED

WITH THE ARMED FORCES

STEEL PIKE (FHTNC) — Marine Second Lieutenant Robert T. Clingan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Clingan of Taneytown, Md., is visiting ports in the European area following participation in the largest amphibious combat training exercise in the Atlantic since World War II.

He is serving with Marine Helicopter Squadron 262, Second Marine Aircraft Wing, Marine Corps Air Facility, New River, N. C.

The operation, called "Steel Pike," saw 28,000 Marines of the Second Marine Division, Second Marine Aircraft Wing and Force Troops, Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, along with a battalion of Spanish Marines land in a mock assault on beaches in Southern Spain.

The assault force landed by landing craft and helicopters from a U. S. Spanish fleet of 94 vessels including ships of the United States Military Sea Transport Service and chartered ships of the U. S. Merchant Fleet.

"Steel Pike" again demonstrated the ability of U. S. and Allied amphibious forces to rapidly place large numbers of troops with all their equipment ashore and maintain them for as long as necessary. It also trained the forces of both countries in conducting joint operations.

His unit was used during the "vertical envelopment" phase of the sea assault. Vertical envelopment is the technique of transporting combat ready troops over and behind enemy lines to stop supplies and reinforcements from reaching the beaches where the main assault is taking place. In addition, the squadron provided a means of getting supplies to the assaulting forces ashore sooner.

Observations on the World of Sports

Managing a major league baseball team is becoming as secure as dangling from the roof of a tall apartment building. One never can tell whether he will be pushed, fall off or remain clinging to the ledge.

The developments of the past season, especially the last few weeks, have made that point very evident. Since the opening of the 1964 season, there have been eight managerial changes. The first to go was Ed Lopat of Kansas City. He was replaced in June by Mel McGaha. Then, near the end of the season, Harry Craft was fired at Houston. He was succeeded by Luman Harris.

After the final game of the season, Al Dark was dismissed as San Francisco manager and replaced by Herman Franks. A couple of days later, Billy Herman took over for Johnny Pesky at Boston. And recently four new managers were named—Harry (The Hat) Walker at Pittsburgh, Dick Sisler at Cincinnati, Red Schoendienst at St. Louis, and Johnny Keane in New York with the Yankees.

Of course, the biggest surprise was the resignation of Keane at St. Louis, after the Cardinals had won the National League pennant and the World Series, and his hiring by the Yankees, the World Series losers. Keane, and his successor at St. Louis, Schoendienst, will be on the hottest seats when the 1965 season begins.

In Keane's case, however, the seat will be more full of fire than Schoendienst's. The Yankees are expected to win the American League pennant every year . . . and even that sometimes is not enough to insure a manager of coming back. The last three Yankee managers, Casey Stengel, Ralph Houk and Yogi Berra, were let out after winning pennants, although Houk was not fired. He was promoted to general manager.

Stengel was released because the Yankee front office thought he was too old at 69 to be a manager any more. Keane doesn't have to worry about that. He is only 52.

Berra was fired for losing control of his club. That is something Keane will have to work on. He never has been in the Yankee organization, so none of the players are too familiar to him, although he got a good glimpse of them in the World Series.

From his long association with the Yanks as a player and coach, Berra knew everyone closely. As a manager, he couldn't lose that detachment and ignored several misdeemeanors by the players.

Keane is a seasoned manager, with loads of class—something Berra also lacked—and he should stay with the Yanks for a long time.

Until now, Hoyt Wilhelm and a select group of major league pitchers had an unwritten patent on the knuckleball. That erratic, dippy-doodle pitch was strictly the property of baseball.

But, according to the Los Angeles Lakers of the National Basketball Association, baseball's strangest hold on the knuckleball is over. Laker's general manager Lou Mohs has named the first knuckleball shooter in pro basketball—DICK BARNETT of the Lakers.

Actually, Barnett doesn't throw the ball off his knuckles, but the way his shots react, it certainly looks that way. The ball appears to be well off target, but, at the last moment, it hops to one side and slips through the net.

This type of a basket usually draws a gasp of surprise from the spectators, and a couple of the opposing players as well. Apparently, no one expects the ball to wind up on target. No one but Barnett, that is. He seems to know when the knuckleball shot is going to go in, because he informs his teammates with a shout of "fall back, baby." That's his signal not to wait around for any rebound, because there isn't going to be any. Most times, Barnett is right.

Los Angeles coach Fred Schaus thinks the zig-zag course of the ball may be the result of Barnett's unusual shooting style. When Dick is in position to take a shot, he leaps off the ground with a twisting jump, kicks both feet behind him, and gives the ball a light, left-handed farewell boost toward the backboard.

Schaus agrees that for anyone else that would be a bad shooting style, but, for Barnett it's the right one. He is one of the most accurate outside shots in the league.

Dick is not a starter for Los Angeles. Schaus uses him at the most opportune times. The coach explains: "Barnett is a great streak shooter, and he gives us the points when we need them the most. He's the boy we call on for the quick lift."

Remember When Dept.—Last year, I bet, you had a real good time watching those high school basketball games. Well, this season is just around the corner and again we urge you to go out and support your favorite scholastic team.

Today's Sport Laugh—In the closing days of this year's pennant race, one of the Cincinnati Reds was commenting on the small crowds at Crosley field: "It might be that we'll become the only team ever to take pay cuts after winning the pennant."

—John Breth

The Good Fight

Lesson for November 22, 1964

Background Scripture: II Timothy 3:10-13, 4.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 34:1-10.

ANY ONE who thinks the road to eternal life is lined with roses and paved with violets should freshen up his memory of the Apostle Paul. He was a saint, but not a quiet one. He was perpetually in trouble with the government.

Many people, some of them influential, in the church were against him. He was called liar, crank, agitator, heretic, traitor to his own people.

Dr. Foreman

Altogether a controversial figure, a man who was always (so it was alleged) stirring up trouble. Now many men lead stormy lives; but not all of them are saints. The thing that sets Paul out, for us, in the ranks of the great servants and champions of God, was the fact that he never doubted that he was right and that he was on God's side. In spite of his rough and partly unsuccessful life, he was and remained a happy man.

By the time Paul wrote this letter to Timothy, he was near the end of his time on earth, and he knew it. He can look back on his life, as an old man can, and sum it all up once and for all, before the final fall of the curtain. He uses language which is a long way from saying he had had an easy time. I have fought the good fight, he says. Not just a good fight, but the good fight, the struggle between God and evil. It is a fight that began before the human race appeared on this earth. It burst out anew when mankind arrived on the scene; every man is involved in it whether he knows it or not. For whatever a man does counts for God or it counts for evil. Some good people, appalled by the dreadful power of evil, and shaken by what they see going on in the world around them, have sought refuge in flight. They have gone into hermits' cells or into monasteries—anywhere out of this wicked world. Paul was not of that stripe. He stayed to join the fight. Perhaps Paul was thinking of the Roman "games" in the Coliseum, between small armies of gladiators, fighting to the very death. At any rate Paul was not in this great struggle "just for kicks" but to the end even if that cost his life.

At any rate, when Paul says he has fought the good fight he uses a word which can be expressed in athletic terms: I have played on the team. A member of an Olympic team (now, and then also) is not a soloist. He has to keep in mind that he is competing as representing a nation as well as a team. Paul is thinking of life as a struggle in which the contestants encourage and help one another.

Along with the business about the fight, Paul uses another figure of speech to get his meaning across. I have finished the race, he says. Finished—any one can start a marathon, but how many can finish it? There is something about the word "race" that just fits as a description of the Christian's active life. A runner must not be distracted by crowds, by applause or booing. He must keep his eye, or his mind's eye, on the finishing tape. I was rescued.
Paul learned it the hard way: life is not all a fight or a race. It is not all a glorious struggle with many spectators. It is often a matter not of doing but being done to; not of active living but patient suffering. Paul in jail for the "crime" of preaching the truth about God; Paul attacked by slander and unwilling to slander in return; Paul kept on the anxious seat for years waiting for a corrupt judge to pass a verdict; Paul with his "thorn in the flesh" that would not go away... much of his life was just standing what he had to stand. But always God was there; always he would find God standing there too. A saint must struggle; a saint must suffer; and he does not always get his crown in this world.

Like always, Freddy dashed home right after school to walk very-best-friend MacDuff. Not in the usual place (Pop's favorite chair), not the kitchen, MacDuff wasn't anywhere Freddy looked.

Mom was about as upset as Freddy. She hurried to the phone, first calling neighbors. Then she called Grandfather, who lived a few blocks away. Right away she got an assuring, "Don't worry now, I'll drive around and find the pup."

Problems have a way of disappearing when you lift your phone.

Freddy calmed down, too, when Mom told him with equal certainty that Grandpa would find MacDuff.

Sure enough, in less than an hour... up the walk they came. A very pleased scotty (he'd had a great ride) in the arms of Freddy's smiling grandpa. "Well, here he is. I found he'd hiked all the way to town."

So another day ends happily. Just by making that one phone call? Yes... and the quick, sympathetic response to it that reunited a boy and his very best friend.

For emergencies of any size—for pleasure any day—phones are your best friends.
