"FACTS AND OPINIONS"

Jenkin Lloyd Jones, editor of the Tulsa Tribune, says: "The true liberal, in my opinion, should boggle at social theories that degrade the human being. He should question the political practices that penalize the doers to fatten the don'ters. He should recognize that the forced reproduction and encouragement of incompetence and irresponsibility through public subsidies will eventually produce a society in which there will be less for all. Such a liberal will, at the same time, reject the law of the jungle. Neither competence nor strength nor intelligence will be allowed to impose raw power upon the mass. He will cherish those checks and balances which halt the depredations of, as old Joe Pulitzer put it, 'predatory capital and predatory labor'. And I might add, 'predatory government'."

The agreement newly signed by the railroads and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen provides, retroactive to July 12, increases of $1.75 per basic day for some 20,000 conductors and yard foremen, and $1.44 per basic day for more than 76,000 brakemen and switchmen. Both groups also get a fourth week vacation after 20 years' service. Spokesmen for the industry and the union hailed the contract as "a genuine triumph for free collective bargaining" and said it proves "fair and determined negotiators can settle their own problems."

The Esso Education Foundation has announced grants of $2.2 million to higher education throughout the United States during the current 1964-65 academic year. This brings the total of such grants since the Foundation's inception 10 years ago to nearly $17 million. The Foundation is supported by Standard Oil Company (New Jersey) and several of its affiliates.

Columnist James Reston writes from Moscow: "The new Soviet government is correct and formal but on the substance of policy it seems to be tougher toward the United States than was the Khrushchev regime. . . In 12 hours of talks . . . there was never the slightest concession by Soviet officials that the policy of the U. S. S. R. anywhere in the world had anything at all to do with difficulties in U. S.-Soviet relations, or that there was the slightest excuse or justification for the American positions on Viet Nam, the MLF, the U. N. or trade."

The Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association reports that 70 per cent of the prescriptions filled today could not have been written 10 years ago because the drugs they call for were unknown. It also says that in the past decade, the socialist Soviet system of Russia did not produce a single important drug discovery.

According to The Exchange magazine, American corporations are doing record amounts of business overseas and are looking ahead to doing even more in the future. In the last six years, an estimated 2,100 U. S. companies started new operations in Europe alone. By mid-1964, U. S. firms were reported active in 102 of the 112 countries which constitute the United Nations.

The publication Oil Facts reports that 25 per cent of all the taxes collected by state governments during fiscal 1963 came from special levies on motor vehicle owners and operators. In 20 states, these taxes — such as registration fees and gasoline taxes — exceeded 30 per cent of all state tax revenue, running as high as 45.2 per cent in Nebraska.

Secretary of Commerce Hodges

says: "Changing distribution methods have presented our transportation policy with one of its greatest challenges. New transportation equipment and new concepts of service come into being. Their full use is hampered by lags in transportation policy, which tends to maintain rules, regulations, service concepts, and systems of rates which favor a status quo."

Turkey is the Center of Attraction

—by Martha Logan

The holiday season usually means a traditional menu. A richly browned, plump, meaty turkey is by tradition the center of attraction for many company and family feasts.

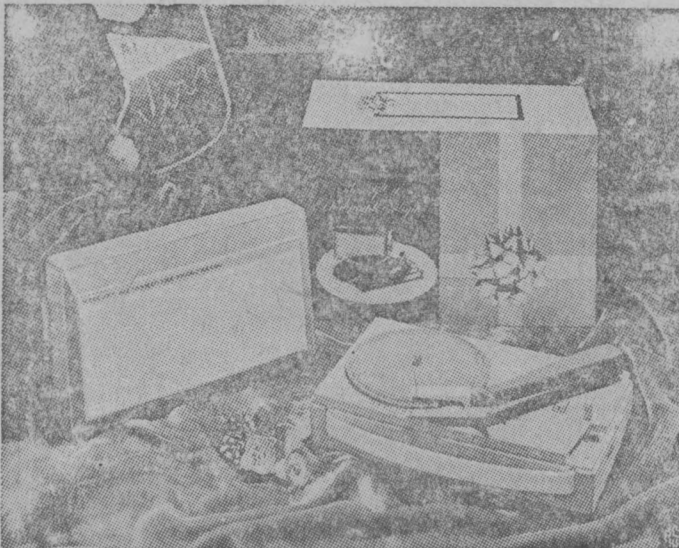

Convenience foods have taken much of the work out of holiday food preparation. A good example is the pre-stuffed turkey that is ready to place in the oven without any more preparation than the removal of the wrapper. Or there is the ready-to-stuff turkey for the homemaker who wants to stuff the bird at home herself. This style bird is completely cleaned and ready to stuff after thawing, by untucking the legs from the strip of skin at the base of the breast bone. After stuffing the body and neck cavities, the legs can be retucked. There's no need to bother with skewers or string lacings.

Roasting schedules found on the wrapper of the bird that's tender as its name — Butterball Swift's Premium are based on extensive cooking tests in the Martha Logan Kitchens. Time schedules are a guide for putting the turkey into the oven.

A guide to doneness is a roast meat thermometer inserted into the thigh muscle next to the body cavity. The temperature should reach 185°F. Another test for doneness is to protect the thumb and forefinger with paper or cloth and pinch the thickest portion of the drumsticks. If done, the meat should feel soft.

For something new at the traditional dinner, surround the beautiful bird with a fleet of sweet potato sailboats. Candy the sweet potatoes as usual and add a little orange juice to the brown sugar-butter mixture in the skillet, if desired. Then tuck sails of half slices of orange into the candied sweets with smooth round picks. A bit of parsley between the boats will make the turkey platter colorful and the focus of conversation.

'Holiday Tradition: Give Music

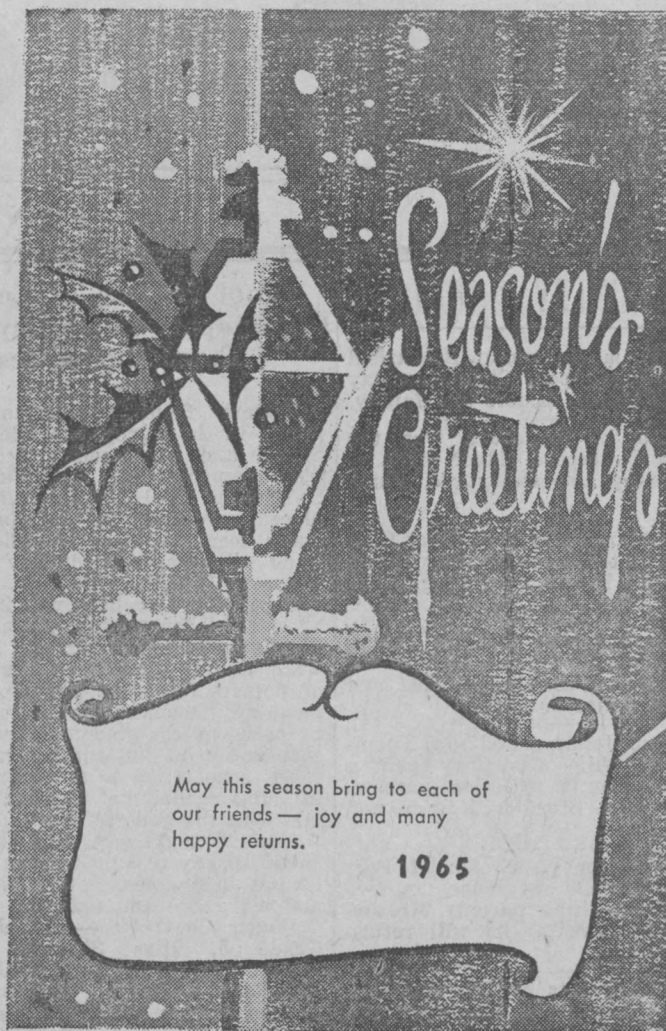

If you can believe tradition, it's a 99 per cent cinch that music will play a part in your holiday plans. Gifts of music have always been at the top of the holiday list.

Manufacturers have outdone themselves this year, following the trend to portability and miniaturization, while maintaining large-size quality.

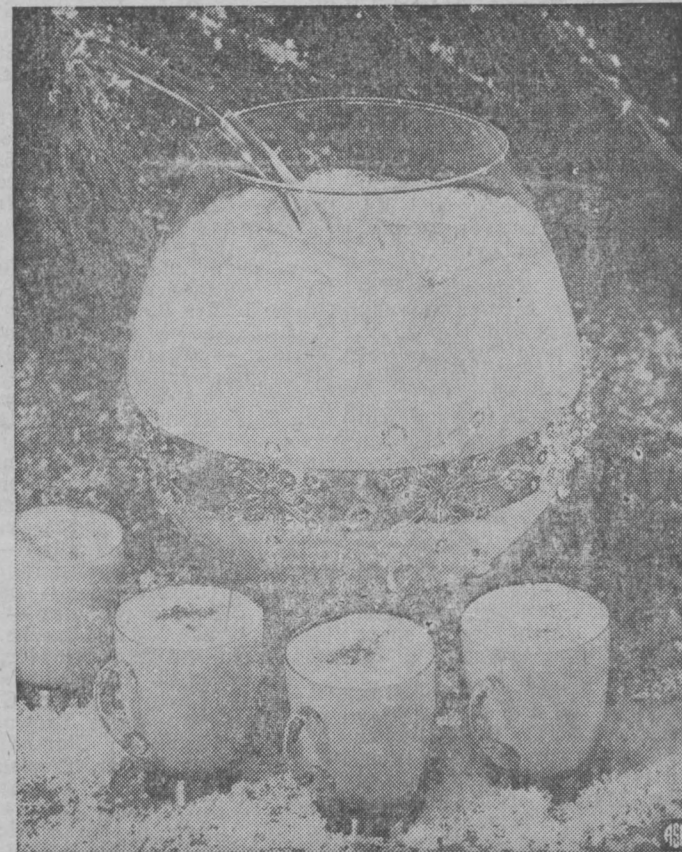

This "gift of phonographic magic" has been packaged especially for the holiday season by Mercury. Weighing only 4 3/4 lbs., it is fully transistorized and portable. Powered by regular flashlight batteries, the phonograph has a diamond-tipped needle guaranteed for ten years that provides excellent hi fidelity reproduction of all speed records. It plays both monaural and stereo recordings.

A slightly larger version of this phonograph, including a tone control and weighing 8 lbs., is also available.

Dougherty's Super-Thrift

For Holiday Hospitality

Gather your friends and relatives 'round the punch bowl for a cup of good cheer — and good conversation. A refreshing punch and a gaily decorated bowl are the basic ingredients for any Yuletide party.

Brighten the punch bowl by attaching a bright red ribbon and glittering plastic "snowflakes" to the outside. Place in a setting of artificial "snow" and pine boughs.

For the inside of the bowl, prepare an easy punch of applesauce, cream, lemonade concentrate and sherbet made effervescent with the addition of sparkling 7-Up. It's light, smooth and delicious!

Snowflake Apple Punch

- | | |
|---|---------------------------|
| 2 cups applesauce | 1 pint lemon sherbet |
| 1 pint light cream | 6 bottles (7 ounces each) |
| 1 can (6 ounce) frozen lemonade concentrate, thawed | 7-Up, chilled |
| | Nutmeg |

Combine applesauce and cream in punch bowl. Slowly stir in lemonade concentrate. Add scoops of sherbet. Slowly add 7-Up. Sprinkle with nutmeg, if desired. Makes about 24 (4 ounce) servings.

Egg Nog Cups Of Cheer

Dream about Yuletide and you'll immediately recall the illustrious flavor, the festive feeling that egg nog imparts to all gatherings, from a sophisticated party by candlelight to an informal after-school or television snack. The new canned egg nog, now being introduced, is basically the same as the refrigerated, non-alcoholic product found in dairy cases. Refrigerated egg nog is so eminently the party-time hallmark. An undeniable elegance hovers about a brimming silver punch bowl and cups of egg nog. Chill and shake before serving and dust with fragrant nutmeg to bring out the full, fine flavor, suggests the Borden Kitchen. Those who wish, may add spirits for extra good cheer.

CURRENT EVENTS
FIFTY YEARS AGO

Unofficial thermometers in Taneytown and vicinity registered as low as 6 degrees below zero, last Sunday morning, the coldest record for December in 34 years.

John Hockensmith received a fall on an icy pavement on Christmas eve and cut an ugly gash on his head which required surgical attention.

LeGore - Rittace — Mr. John W. LeGore and Miss Stella M. Rittace, both of near Taneytown, were married on Wednesday evening at the Reformed Parsonage by Rev. D. J. Wolf.

Baldwin - Haugh — On December 28, 1914, at the Lutheran parsonage, Taneytown, by Rev. L. B. Hafer, Mr. William H. Baldwin of Wrightsville, Pa., and Miss Grace B. Haugh of Taneytown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Haugh, were married.

Crebs - Long — On Wednesday evening, December 30, 1914 a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, by Rev. Poffenberger, the conducting parties being Miss Carrie Long, only daughter of Mrs. Annie Long of Woodsboro, and Claude E., oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Crebs of Taneytown.

President Wilson was 58 years old on December 28.

Harney — The entertainment given by our public school on last Thursday afternoon was well attended in spite of the very inclement weather. . . . LeRoy H. Null of the Battleship, Vermont, visited his parents during the week.

Keysville — The following gave Christmas dinners to their relatives and friends: M. P. Baumgardners, George Cluts' and Edward Shorbs' On last Saturday, W. E. Ritter and wife, entertained about 45 of their relatives at a dinner.

Detour — The town has been very much alive this week on account of the many masqueraders . . . Farmers near here have been very busy this week harvesting ice . . . M. A. Koons, wife and two sons of Taneytown; Dr. and Mrs. Kemp of Uniontown and Dr. Marlin Shorb of Baltimore spent Christmas Day with F. J. Shorb and wife.

Peanut Butter Sandwiches
Make The Meal

The next time you're faced with the quick meal problem, serve these tempting open-faced peanut butter and bacon sandwiches. Cook slices of bacon until crisp. Crumble and combine with Skippy creamy or chunk style peanut butter. Spread on slices of bread, and top with sliced tomato and hard cooked egg. Remember that one tablespoon of peanut butter provides almost the same amount of protein as an ounce of meat. Make variations of basic open-faced sandwiches by combining Skippy peanut butter with raisins, sliced pickle or pickle relish, grated raw carrot, or shredded cheddar cheese.

With the sandwiches, serve a crisp salad of mixed greens, dressed with real mayonnaise.

Quick meals need not be all cold foods. While preparing the salad and sandwiches, simmer a pot of Knorr garden vegetable soup, rich in flavor and filled with tender noodles and vegetables.

Money-Saving Meal

Cutting down on all your bills probably heads your list of New Year's resolutions. Budget meals can be just as appealing and delicious as meals which cost twice as much—especially when you serve Chicken Apple Casserole. A tasty base of chopped cooked chicken and chopped apples topped with mouth-watering corn bread made so easily from a mix brightens up any meal! Complete the menu with cut green beans and a lettuce wedge—it's like money in the bank!

CHICKEN APPLE CASSEROLE

Makes 6 servings

- | | |
|---|--|
| Chicken Base: | 2-1/2 cups chopped cooked chicken |
| 1/4 cup butter or margarine | 1 cup chopped apple |
| 1/4 cup all-purpose flour | Topping: |
| 1 teaspoon salt | One 12-oz. pkg. (2 cups) Flako Corn Muffin Mix |
| 1-3/4-oz. can chicken noodle dry soup mix | 1 egg |
| 2 cups milk | 2/3 cup milk |

Heat oven to hot (425°F.). For base, melt butter in medium-sized saucepan. Stir in flour, salt and dry soup mix. Gradually add milk; cook until mixture thickens, stirring constantly. Add chicken and apple. Pour chicken base into ungreased 2-qt. casserole. Place in preheated oven (425°F.).

For topping, empty contents of package into bowl; add egg and milk. Blend only until dry ingredients are thoroughly moistened. (Batter should be slightly lumpy.) Spoon topping over hot chicken base. Bake in preheated oven (425°F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

Festive Holiday Fare

What's different about "Holiday Pumpkin Chiffon Tarts"—festive dessert suggestion from the Lever Homemaking Center? It's the delightful light texture of the fragrantly-spiced filling featuring the folding-in of prepared Lucky Whip Topping Mix. The fluffy filling is lightly piled into delicate, flaky tart shells and chilled until firm. No last-minute baking is called for in this convenient recipe—an important advantage in Thanksgiving and Christmas entertaining. For extra-flaky tart shells use Light Spry in your favorite Pastry recipe.

Pumpkin Chiffon Tarts

(Makes 6 tarts)

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| 6-3/4 inch baked tart shells, cooled | 1/4 teaspoon cloves |
| 1/2 cup brown sugar | 2 eggs, slightly beaten |
| 1 envelope unflavored gelatine | 1/2 cup milk |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 1 cup canned pumpkin |
| 1 1/4 teaspoons cinnamon | 1 envelope Lucky Whip Dessert Topping Mix |
| 1/2 teaspoon ginger | |
| 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg | |

Mix brown sugar, gelatine, salt and spices together in saucepan; add eggs, milk and pumpkin; blend well. Bring just to a boil over medium heat, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Cool thoroughly. Prepare Lucky Whip according to package directions; fold into pumpkin mixture. File lightly in baked tart shells. Chill until firm, about 2-3 hours. Garnish with additional Lucky Whip, if desired.

How to keep a resolution to save money this year

Put your will power to work on other resolutions. All you need to save money is the Payroll Savings Plan.

You just tell your employer you want him to keep back a small amount from each paycheck and put it towards the purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds. Then sit back and watch as the Bonds roll in.

The beauty of the Plan is that you aren't so apt to miss the money you're saving when you never see it in the first place.

Millions of Americans save big money this way, so you know it works. Their dollars are a big help to Uncle Sam, too.

Get started while your resolve is still bright and shiny. Next year at this time you'll have a nice nest egg and one less resolution to worry about.

Stop Ice Chopping

IT'S no job at all to keep cattle drinking in freezing weather. Reddy's automatic electric water warmer keeps tanks free from ice and temperature controlled. That means more milk—more profits. Remember—frozen tanks mean frozen profits.

Homecoming Party

Let's face it, the men in your life will probably be fanatical over Saturday's big football game whether you like it or not.

Autumn's party-wise hostess should surrender - with a smile. Remember, if you can't beat 'em, join 'em at a Homecoming Party before the roaring hearth in your living room.

Homecoming parties - a late Saturday afternoon tradition - can easily become a weekly activity from mid-September through Thanksgiving day.

Whether home from the stadium or away from TV, the "Monday morning quarterbacks" at your house will appreciate your hospitality (mums and pennants are optional).

The fun's in the crowd so invite the neighbors and begin as the final gun sounds. Serve warming cups of 7-Up Mulled Cider and let the armchair quarterbacks gather 'round a chafing dish of Hot Cheese Dunk with tasty morsels for dunking.

Saturday's Homecoming Party - no games, no gimmicks - just good company, good conversation, and good refreshment.

7-Up Mulled Cider

In a large saucepan, combine 1 quart apple cider, 1 can (6 oz.) frozen pineapple juice concentrate, undiluted, 3 sticks cinnamon, 8 whole cloves, 4 whole allspice, and 1 orange, sliced. Simmer 10 minutes. Strain into punchbowl; slowly add 5 bottles (7 ozs. each) 7-Up, unchilled. Makes 18 (4 oz.) servings.

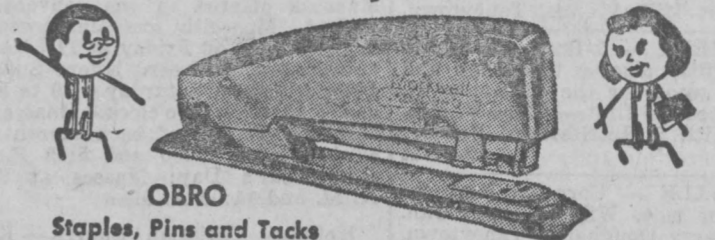

Hot Cheese Dunk

- 2 cans (10 1/2 ozs. each) condensed cheddar cheese soup
1 bottle (7 ozs.) 7-Up
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Few drops onion juice
Dash of white pepper
4 cups (1 lb.) shredded Swiss cheese

Place cheese soup in saucepan; stir until smooth. Gradually blend in 7-Up. Heat gradually until bubbly, stirring constantly. Add seasonings and Swiss cheese. Stir until smooth. Serve immediately, in a chafing dish. Keep low flame under cheese, stir occasionally. Makes 4 1/2 cups sauce. Serve with an assortment of tidbits for dunking: hot frankfurter chunks, cooked shrimp, buttered French bread pieces, tiny meat balls.

Add Punch to your Holiday Party

Spanish Midnight Punch featured at gala holiday party.

What are you doing this holiday season? Giving or going to another party? Same plans, same food and drink, just like last year?

You'll need a few basic "props" which you can find in any five-and-ten-cent store. The color scheme for a Spanish party is red and yellow.

The focal point of the evening is the punch - Spanish

Midnight Punch for this occasion. The punch bowl has served throughout history as a traditional year-end drink. It does wonders for a party, automatically taking care of introductions as everyone gathers 'round the bowl.

For Spanish Midnight Punch you'll need two bottles of Spanish cream sherry, dashes of Angostura bitters, 1/2 pint of brandy, a quart of club soda, 1/2 cup of sugar and a block of ice.

When you toast the future with Spanish sherry, you are drinking the world's most fabled wine, enjoyed by such historical personalities as Queen Elizabeth I, Shakespeare and Napoleon.

Almonds Steal The Holiday Spotlight

With "Almond Eggnog Cake" as the star attraction, a holiday party is sure to be a culinary hit.

Assuring this dessert's smash success are an almond-and-egg-nog filling between layers of fluffy angel food cake and a complete frosting of whipped cream sprinkled with almond slivers.

Almonds, whether slivered, diced, sliced or whole, easily steal the spotlight on many festive occasions. So crisp, flavorful and attractive, these versatile nuts give "star quality" in roles running the gamut from A to Z - appetizers to zabaglione.

ALMOND EGGNOG CAKE

- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
3 cups sifted powdered sugar
3 egg yolks
1 teaspoon vanilla
Dash nutmeg
1/2 cup rum, brandy or Sherry
1 cup toasted slivered almonds
1 (10-inch) angel food cake
1/2 pint whipping cream

Cream butter until light; add sugar gradually and beat until light and fluffy. Beat in egg yolks one at a time. Add vanilla and nutmeg. Gradually beat in rum. Fold in 1/2 cup almonds. Cut cake into 4 horizontal layers and spread creamed mixture between each one. Whip cream until stiff; sweeten to taste if desired. Frost top and sides of cake with cream. Sprinkle top with remaining almonds. Chill before serving. Makes 12 servings.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Union
Sunday School Lessons

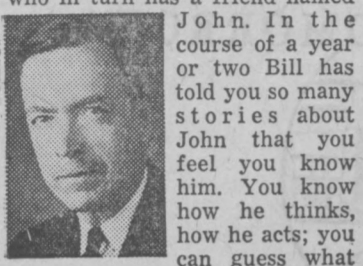

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Strange Kingdom

Lesson for January 3, 1965

Background Scripture: Matthew 2.
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 40:1-11.

HAVE YOU EVER heard so much about a person you have never met, that it almost seems that you have met personally, after all? Let's suppose you have a friend — call him Bill — who in turn has a friend named

John. In the course of a year or two Bill has told you so many stories about John that you feel you know him. You know how he acts; you can guess what

Dr. Foreman he would do in an emergency; you may think so well of him that you want nothing better than to arrange to meet him. And yet Bill has never given you the whole story of John's life. What he has given you are living glimpses into the character of a real man.

The New Testament gospels are like that. Strictly speaking, the gospels do not give us the story of Jesus' life. What they do is to give us a number of short stories about him, a number of remarks he made. They tell us so much — every bit of it revealing — that we feel we know the vital facts about Jesus.

Occupied country

Each of the four gospels puts together a different set of stories and reminiscences of Jesus; and each mosaic comes out a different (but not contradictory!) picture. The portrait in Matthew comes out showing Jesus, a child born "across the tracks" so to speak, a young man earning his living for years as a carpenter, being all the time a King. This was astonishing, and it would have astonished you, too, if you had been there. Jesus lived in what would nowadays be called an occupied country or territory — occupied by the military of a foreign nation, that is, Rome and the Romans were everywhere. Now the Romans had one Caesar and that was enough. (In future years that was not enough, but that's another story.) The point is that every Jew in the place ground his teeth every time he thought of the hated Romans and their insolent soldiers. The question is, how could Jesus or any one else claim to be a King without getting entangled with the Romans?

Great expectation...

There were two reasons in particular why Jesus did not immediately get pounced on by the watchful Roman security police. One was that he did not at first lay claim to a throne, and when people called him Messiah (which meant something like King-Elect) he would vigorously hush them up. Another reason was that he lacked the time's most pretenders to a throne would be expected to have, such as an army and a squadron of diplomats. But the real reason why it was so long before the Romans took notice of him was that he turned out to be so different, and his kingdom so different, from the king and the kingdom the people were looking for, that his own people, the Jews themselves, did not recognize him.

Reality

What they got, or what they were offered, was something, Some One, far better than their greatest expectations; a king who would not only be the legal heir to David's throne, — which Jesus was — but one to whom "all authority in heaven and earth" had been given. They expected a Kingdom, right away, in which every evil which torments man would be destroyed, and right maintained by force. What they got, or what they were offered, was a kingdom of the heart, — a realm that might have to wait centuries to be fully established, yet one which could begin now — and does exist in the hearts of faithful people everywhere. The news of this kingdom is never expressed as a second-best, or as a disappointment; it is always good news, — for that is what "Gospel" means. It is the best news there is. The kingdom of Christ is as near to you as your next prayer; it is as powerful as the Spirit of God.

Special for the Holidays

As the holidays approach, pumpkin pie is again on the menu. If the rest of your menu requires oven time, you'll love this no-bake filling in a baked pie shell. Just a few minutes for the pie crust made from the mix and you can leave the oven to the turkey.

A pumpkin chiffon pie is such a pleasant change... it's so light and delicious that your guests will most certainly find room for it after the big meal. The fluffy filling nestled in tender and flaky pie crust will bring rounds of applause for the hostess... you!

PUMPKIN CHIFFON PIE
Makes one 9-inch pie

One-half 10-oz. pkg. (1 cup) Flako Pie Crust Mix	1 cup firmly-packed brown sugar
2 tablespoons cold water	1-1/2 teaspoons pumpkin pie spice
1 envelope (1 Tbsp.) unflavored gelatine	1-1/4 cups cooked pumpkin
1-1/2 cups milk	2 egg yolks
	2 egg whites
	Dash salt

For crust, follow package directions for making a single crust 9-inch pie. Bake in preheated hot oven (425°F.) 10 to 12 minutes. Cool.

For filling, soften gelatine in milk in saucepan. Stir in 3/4 cup of the sugar, pumpkin pie spice and pumpkin. Cook over medium heat until mixture boils, about 5 minutes. Add small amount of hot mixture to slightly beaten egg yolks; add to pumpkin. Cook an additional 3 minutes, stirring frequently. Cool. Beat egg whites and salt together until foamy. Add remaining 1/4 cup brown sugar, a tablespoon at a time, beating until meringue is stiff and glossy. Fold pumpkin mixture into meringue. Pour into baked shell. Refrigerate until set. Garnish with sliced toasted almonds.

Cheese Buffet Without Bother

With today's quick-to-fix cheeses, a hostess can be calm and cool, and still celebrate, despite the size of her party. Almost every homemaker must step lively just to keep pace of all her tasks and friendships. But this bustle and rush needn't dim the sparkle of her entertaining. With cheese in all forms, she can produce a buffet without bother around the clock—brunch, afternoon or evening club meeting, or for dessert at dinner. The Borden Kitchen selects Camembert, Neufchatel, Cheddar, Liederkranz, Gouda, Gruyere and Roquefort, all colorfully twinned with fresh fruit.

Chutney for the Holidays

It's the "little extras" that make holiday meals such special occasions; fragrant, warm buns and bread, a bowl of nuts cracked for easy eating, crisp icy cold vegetable sticks, and tart-sweet homemade pickles and relishes.

Here's a recipe for a colorful chutney made with apricots, diced fruits and peels and spiced with crystallized ginger; the perfect flavor complement to the roast.

If you make up the recipe just before the holidays, just pour some of the warm chutney into a fancy jar ready to shine on the festive table. The rest can be stored in sterilized jars.

JEWELED CHUTNEY

- 1 pound light brown sugar
 - 2 1/2 cups cider vinegar
 - 1 1/2 cups water
 - 2 (11 ounce) packages dried apricots, finely chopped (4 cups)
 - 1 1/2 cups coarsely chopped sweet red onions
 - 2 ounces crystallized ginger, finely chopped (1/2 cup)
 - 1 tablespoon salt
 - 1 tablespoon mustard seed
 - 1 tablespoon whole cloves
 - 1 teaspoon whole allspice
 - 1 (8-ounce) jar DROMEDARY Fruits and Peels
- Dissolve sugar in vinegar and water in a large saucepan. Add next 4 ingredients and spices tied in a cheesecloth bag. Bring the mixture to a boil, stirring. Reduce heat and simmer uncovered, stirring frequently for 45 minutes. Add fruits and peels. Cook 15 minutes longer. Remove from heat. Discard spice bag. Pour into sterilized jars. Seal. Makes 1 1/2 quarts.

Zesty Winter Treat

The creative cook is always looking for a tasty food that can be served in a number of ways and is also easy to prepare. Belgian endive is her answer. It's a fresh vegetable with an interesting taste that can be served in a wide variety of salads... as a cooked vegetable... even in a soup! Belgian endive's high vitamin content and low calorie count make it "just right" for health-conscious American families. It's available in local supermarkets and specialty shops from September through May. Try this new award-winning recipe for a zesty winter treat.

Zesty Endive Salad

- | | |
|-----------------------------|------------------------------|
| Garlic | Spiced or canned fruit juice |
| 10 fillets of anchovy | 1 lb. Belgian endive, cubed |
| 1 scallion | 1 cucumber, sliced |
| 1 tablespoon minced parsley | 3 tomatoes, cubed |
| Tarragon vinegar | 1 bunch radishes, sliced |
| Worcestershire Sauce | 4 hard cooked eggs, sliced |
| 2 cups mayonnaise | |

Rub salad bowl with garlic. Chop anchovies and scallions, add parsley and a little vinegar and worcestershire sauce. Mix with mayonnaise and add vinegar diluted with juice of spiced fruits. Put all the rest of the ingredients in bowl except hard cooked eggs. Toss all together coating the vegetables with dressing, garnish with hard cooked eggs.

The Shape Of Things To Come

SIX NATIONAL WINNERS of the 1963 4-H Foods-Nutrition Award get a look at their future in a three-way mirror. General Foods President C. W. "Tex" Cook explains that their probable triple role as citizens after graduation will be as depicted: consumer, wage earner and investor. The inter-relationship of citizenship and the economy was the theme of the 1963 4-H Club congress held recently in Chicago. The six girls above, chosen from among 51 Foods-Nutrition winners, received $500 scholarships from General Foods, program sponsor. Mirrored are (front row, l-r) Carol Allen, 17, Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Barbara Jane Woodford, 19, Camden-on-Gauley, West Virginia; Sharon Jackson, 20, Greensburg, Indiana; (back row, l-r) Jill Johnson, 17, Fowler, California; Sharon Baumgardner, 18, Plainview, Texas; and Jan Wallace, 18, Gallatin, Tennessee.

ICE FOLLIES, FIRST TOURING ICE SHOW, TO PRESENT ITS 29th ANNUAL SHOW IN BALTIMORE

The Shipstads & Johnson Ice Follies coming to the Baltimore Civic Center from January 26 through January 31, established an entertainment tradition in 1936 when the first extravaganza-on-ice was introduced in America. This was the show that changed ice skating from a sport to a spectacular form of entertainment. Every year since then, the show has traveled extensively throughout the United States and Canada, dazzling audience of over 60,000,000.

Ice Follies was owned and operated by the founders, Eddie Shipstad, his brother, Roy Shipstad, and Oscar Johnson, for a period of 28 years. On January 2, 1964, the show was bought by Shasta Telecasting Corporation, whose president is George C. Fleaharty. Headquarters are presently located in San Francisco at the Winterland Arena.

Though the Ice Follies is under new ownership, it is still personally produced by the original founders and producers, Eddie and Roy Shipstad and Oscar Johnson. This is the 29th consecutive year they have put their talents together to create musical variety on a glistening white, frozen stage.

The careers of Eddie, Roy, and Oscar began in St. Paul Minnesota, where "The Boys," as they became known by millions of friends over the years, were born. All three began to skate at an early age. By the time they were in their teens, they were so good they attracted huge crowds wherever they performed. Their breathtaking feats and stunts captivated the attention of all who watched and won their applause.

After several years of touring in ice acts, they united their natural endowments and abilities to produce the world's first full-scale touring ice variety show. They achieved instant success in proving to the world they had founded a glamorous new concept in show business and were here to stay.

When the 29th Annual Ice Follies comes to Baltimore, there will be no less than fifteen specialty acts with more than 20 stars. Included among these are champion skaters Ina Bauer, Istvan Szenes, Richard Dwyer, Jill Shipstad, and Donald Jackson. Among production numbers to be featured are: "Pirate's Cove," "Festival in Holland," "Musical Farm," "Parade Promenade," and many other elaborate spectacles.

Tickets are now available at the Civic Center box office and at Hochschild's Kohn Stores.

We wish you luck and happiness — all year long
