Retired P. O. Employees Receive Plaque

Mrs. Lena E. Hitchcock retired from the Taneytown Post Office on December 30, 1965, after nearly 30 years with the Federal Service. Mrs. Hitchcock's tenure of duty began on March 1, 1936 when she was appointed to a clerk position at a salary of $5.00 per week. She began her career in the postal service in the old Burke building on East Baltimore St., which at that time housed the Post Office quarters. Mrs. Hitchcock saw many changes and improvements in the postal system during her years of service. She states that the post office was then a third-class office, employing three persons, and John O. Crapster was postmaster. The office was advanced from the third-class to second-class in 1940. In 1942 as a result of the Cambridge Rubber Co. being destroyed by fire, the post office was moved to the third-class. After a short time the office was again advanced to the second-class where it presently remains. She states the major improvements were in March 1959 when the post office moved under the postmasterhip of the late James E. Burke. She states the most notable change is the mounting volume of mail being handled each year in comparison to the record of 30 years ago.

In accepting the application for retirement from Mrs. Hitchcock, Postmaster George Fream expressed regret in losing one of his key employees, but joins with the local postal staff in wishing her much happiness and pleasure in the years ahead. The Taneytown Postal employees presented her an appropriate plaque denoting her thirty years of faithful service with the Post Office Department.

Mr. James C. Myers, whose retirement was announced previously in the Carroll Record was also presented a similar plaque from the local staff.

MEETING OF LADIES AID SOCIETY

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Haney, held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening January 4, in the parish house.

Several thank-you notes were read from those receiving the fruit boxes for Christmas, how they appreciated them and the thoughtfulness to help make it a more happy and merry Christmas for them.

It was voted to order 100 ball-point pens to give to those giving a donation to the building fund, to help defray the expense of the construction work being done at the church. It was voted that the Ladies Aid Society purchase the folding, sound-proof doors to be placed in the basement of the church, so that it will be possible to make several rooms or one large room.

A reception will be held Sunday evening, January 9th at 7:00 o'clock at Mt. Joy for Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Young, everyone is invited to attend.

Those to arrange a program for the next meeting: Mrs. Lake Ridinger, Mrs. Nevin Ridinger and Mrs. Theodore Ridinger, Mrs. Clyde Frock to read the Bible and Miss Treva Ridinger to have prayer.

The following program was given: a reading by Mrs. Wilbur Reifsnider; a selection on the piano, "Swanee River," by Miss Brenda Harner; a vocal solo, "Birthday of a King," by Miss Mary Katherine Shildt, accompanied on the piano by Miss Marilyn Rothaupt; a selection on the piano, "Moon River," by Miss Connie Mummert; Miss Joyce Schwartz showed slides of her recent tour of Europe. Republican Women Meet

The regular meeting of the Federation of Republican Women was held in Taney Inn Tuesday, Jan. 4, at 7:30 P. M.

Business meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Margaret Shreve. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Roy B. Kiser, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance. Minutes were read by vice president, Mrs. Claude Nusbaum, due to absence of secretary, Mrs. Hubert Null. Treasurer, Mrs. Virginia Sanders, gave the report.

Mrs. Hewitt McPherson, Membership Chairman, called attention that 1966 dues were now in order. Ways and Means Chairman, Mrs. James Baumgardner, announced a Fund-Raising Dinner to be held at Frock's Sunnybrook Farm, Westminster, on Jan. 31 at 7 P. M. Mr. Arch A. Moore will be the speaker. Mrs. Baumgardner has tickets for reservations.

Mr. Neal Powell, Chairman of the City Council, gave a very interesting talk on different phases of government and how it affects the general public. Mr. Powell, born in Kansas, a Republican state, comes to us still a staunch Republican deploring many acts of non-patriotism such as Pearl Harbor, burning of draft cards, lack of leadership to onslaught communism, to teach youth to stand taller when "Old Glory" passes by. Youth only guilty on account of lack of teaching of parents.

Mr. Powell says he is proud of Carroll County and Taneytown, but asks, "What do you know about your county and town?" He gave some points to remember: let government do only what you cannot do for yourself; participate in government. To vote, we should qualify thus: 1. dedicated, 2. sensitive and perceptive, 3. creative, 4. enduring to frustration, 5. courageous.

He continued: Yes, we want progressive and controlled industry for Carroll County and our town, but there are the up and down industry, and cheap labor types. So, which? Change we must if we want progress. Electricity put the candlemakers out of business but today there are over two million candles sold daily.

Patriotism was his last note. Love for town, county, state and country; for united we stand but divided we fall.

A question and answer period followed when many phases of town government were discussed. Next meeting is Feb. 1 at 7:30 P. M. in Taney Inn.

VIEW FROM MY KITCHEN

The new year begins on a mild, rainy note, in sharp contrast to the freezing blizzards which usually envelope us at this season. Our section of the country is so badly in need of precipitation that some communities are experiencing a critical water shortage. I just read an article in the paper which states that the Potomac River has reached its lowest level since 1930.

There are so many people in the land, and such a great need for water that a prolonged drought presents a very serious situation, indeed. And so, even though this January day is gloomy and wet, the pleasant sound of pattering rain is a most welcome one. I am hoping that enough will fall to send Laughing Brook on its merry way once more. It has been many months now since I have heard its happy chuckle, or watched it romp down the hill, and it almost seems that I have lost a good friend.

The old year of 1965 brought its share of joys and sorrows, of smiles and tears, of achievements and disasters, as every year inevitably does. Certainly, our adventures in space were exciting, and made the headlines again and again. However, I cannot help but think that we had better concentrate more on the problems right here on this tired old earth. It seems that human beings can conquer everything except themselves! What we all need is to have a greater faith in God and to pray for special guidance in this new year of 1966.

Jaycee Week in Taneytown

The annual banquet meeting of the Jaycees and their employers, will be held at the Taney Inn, Thursday, Jan. 13, 1966 at 6:30 P. M., according to Edward Sauble, local committee chairman.

A feature of the evening will be the announcement of Taneytown's Outstanding Young Man for the year. A committee headed by Wayne Hively is canvassing churches, businesses, clubs and organizations to determine which young man—21 through 35—has contributed the most to the community during the year.

Bosses' Night is an annual feature of Jaycee Chapters throughout the nation. It is dedicated to the bosses who support the Jaycees and recognize the value of the organization.

Chairman Sauble announces that the speaker of the event will be Solomon Hoke of Bachmans Valley Rd. A farmer whose travels have led him to many places, including India, which his talk and slides will describe.

This event will climax Jaycee week, the annual anniversary observance of the United States Jaycees, which will run the entire week January 9, 1966. Jaycee week celebrates the founding of the Jaycee movement in St. Louis in 1915. From a small nucleus it expanded into an organization with more than a quarter million members in 5,700 communities. Chairman Carroll Dell will head observances in the Taneytown area.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning a smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.

I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer each day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

During the holidays! The wonderful view before me from the huge picture window of all the brilliantly colored lights. The night bus ride just to see all the more of it all the way up Loch Raven Blvd. and the most wonderful tree in the city on the step of the "Sun Office Bldg." The arrival of the yearly "Arizona Colorful Magazine" (trying to induce you Observer to live out in Yuma!).

The enchanting scene upon entering the doors of my church—the Mt. Vernon Place at the Monument with the lovely circle arrangement of the poinsettias with the four Christmas trees—two on each side! Plus the appropriate music for these special days played by the organist. The lovely party for the Senior Citizens held right there plus the interesting program ending with the story of "The Night Before Christmas" as to my Column!

The many lovely cards arriving for which I thank you and you and you plus the original and beautiful one from Lawrence Welk! And on the back a very handsome photograph of himself!

Many of the teen-agers calling to see me day and night from around the neighborhood. Nice?

The nice and friendly neighbors moving in the apartment next door to mine.

And the sweet thing that happened as to two of the Boy Scouts whom I had only met a few hours before. I went to answer the door call and there stood these two boys holding me a big package. I thought it was to hold for a neighbor and the fourteen-year-old Boy Scout said, "This is for you for we liked you so much when we met you this morning!" That touched me deeply and when I opened it there was a Colonial old-fashioned oil lamp! Words fail me!

Another sweet thing those boys did was to repair the wire which held the tiny bulb which lights up the windows of the church which Rev. Love had electrified years ago and which was a replica of his very first church!

The lovely 50th Wedding Anniversary of the parents of friends—a daughter and son presented as a real surprise and it was, indeed! Never have I attended anything more beautiful and carried out with so much detail which follows—Everything was in GOLD! The 4-tier wedding cake was huge with the cream icing of all yellow roses! At each side was a framed picture of the bride and groom when she was 18 and he 21 and in front of the cake was an engraved plaque which read: "Marriages resemble a pair of shears, separated, often moving in opposite directions, yet always punishing anyone who comes between them!" Then, there was the marriage certificate for that wonderful day of the wedding—Dec. 15, 1915—Anna R. Reiter and James E. Schepling by the Rev. E. Felton.

There was the framed gold wedding Anniversary Invitation, the wedding gold album and framed pictures in oval shapes of the family. The orchestra played beautiful and appropriate selections and the old dances and new were danced, even to that wonderful "Paul Jones!" Never have I seen such lovely gifts all carried out in gold! There were TWO HUNDRED GUESTS!

And last of all—the final announcement of little Luci B. Johnson's engagement as the ring was found under the Christmas tree! Cute? Have a Christmas week-end and be sure you stick to those resolutions!

I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

A Voice from the House

The 1966 Session of the Maryland General Assembly is scheduled to convene on Wednesday, January 19, 1966. This will be a 70-day Session, and will be the last Session of the Maryland Legislature before the next State elections, after the next Legislature is reappointed.

All indications are that this Session will have the largest influx of bills yet experienced in Annapolis, not only because of the two factors mentioned above, but as a result of increasing problems caused by our rapidly growing and shifting population, our changing living habits and our needed tax reforms.

Many members of the present Legislature will not return and many political subdivisions will lose members and power after reapportionment. Those depending on these members or subdivisions for sufficient balance of votes to carry their legislation will be working hard to have their bills considered and voted upon.

The Legislative Council has submitted its Report and Recommendations for action on more than two dozen subjects including Airports, Hospitals, Public Welfare, Interest and Usury, Schools and Retirement Systems.

In addition, Committees have been working between Sessions. The Hughes Committee, of which I am a member, is recommending sweeping proposals for tax reforms in almost every type of taxing now done by the State and local governments.

In the following weeks, I will set forth the matters under study and consideration by the Legislature which may affect or be of interest to Carroll County residents.

GRASSROOTS OPINIONS

LAMBERTVILLE, N.J., BEACON:
"... poverty is not going to be eliminated by government subsidy and dole. . . Here in this community, in the county, state and nation we have gone a long way in creating programs to aid the poor. Many are out of hand and people are getting help, lots of it, so that few would take a job if one was offered to them.
This does not end poverty, it seals it into our social life. . . Let's aid the unfortunate but make certain that he or she is led out of the situation that faces him, not make certain it continues for all time."

ENID, OKLA., NEWS: "There is a lot of talk about air pollution, but you ain't seen nothing yet till the 1966 political campaign starts."

LIBERAL, KAN., SOUTHWEST
DAILY TIMES: "The average person is very courteous to others under most circumstances. Most men will hold open doors for ladies (even though they don't get thanked always), assist elderly persons across the street. . . What happens to many of these same people when they get behind the wheel of an automobile? . . . They race through traffic . . . fail to allow other drivers into a lane of traffic, dash through intersections with no regard for pedestrians . . . and instead of 'pardon me,' they bellow like an angry bull at every other driver on the road."

STORM LAKE, IOWA, PILOT-TRIBUNE: "In our judgment, our community school board acted wisely in deciding not to ask for $25,000 federal aid funds . . . there is a lurking suspicion that when Uncle Sam gets into a school system, he insists on keeping his fingers in the pie. In other words, he dictates to the local authorities. This isn't desirable. We can run our own school systems better than can some politician or bureaucrat at Washington."

BARNESBORO, PA., STAR: "Our great nation was built on the principles of free enterprise and that a government which governs the least is the best government. These two great heritages are rapidly vanishing from the American scene. There is very little free enterprise today amid overwhelming government oppression."

FINDLAY, OHIO, REPUBLICAN-COURIER: "Senator John L. McClellan . . . said that if the present crime rate in the United States continues through the next 25 years it will bring chaos in America. . . It is to be hoped that President Johnson's crime commission will make recommendations that will seek to solve this critical problem which is menacing the American public at this time. As the Arkansas senator has emphasized, the time has come to deal properly with this situation, if we want to preserve law and order."

WYTHEVILLE, VA., ENTER-PRISE: "The Enterprise is not advocating a third party, but we positively are advocating a return to the basic issues, and a sound government, and darn it, a government as existed when we studied civics and government in old Wytheville High School
. . . it would be reassuring if those who intone about the sanctity of the two-party system voted and acted as a partisan of one of the parties rather than a spokesman for both."

HUNTINGTON, IND., HERALD-PRESS: "In effect today is one-man price control. It has not been established by Act of Congress. It is not practiced as a war measure. Whatever else it is, it is a spectacular exercise of the vast power of the White House. It is iron fisted notice that industry in the United States is the pawn of the government of the United States."

LANCASTER, S.C., NEWS: "... the Small Business Administration has been authorized to make 'Economic Injury Disaster Loans' to small business concerns located in Lancaster County from now until November 30, 1966. This is Federal money, of course. Real money is a little harder to come by."

SPALDING, NEBR., ENTER-PRISE: "The Internal Revenue Service celebrated its 100th anniversary not too long ago. Tax officials noted that no one sent them best wishes for many happy returns."

CURRENT EVENTS FIFTY YEARS AGO

The ringing of the public school bell to usher in the New Year caused some to think of fire, as it was not known that the bell was to be rung. Besides, it has been off duty until very recently, due to the disappearance of the clapper at Halloween.

Charles Arnold has accepted a clerkship position with The Birnie Trust Company, and commenced his duties on Monday.

Mrs. Guy A. Ourand of Washington is visiting her home folks, one of the families in town liberally supplied with the gripe. Mr. Ourand was also here a few days.

Dr. Clotworthy Birnie was stricken with unconsciousness, last Friday morning, while visiting a patient. The attack was but temporary, and he is now out again practicing his profession.

COPENHAVER—HARNER — On Dec. 23, 1915, at the home of the minister, Rev. Geo. F. Bowers, Mr. Charles W. Copenhagen and Miss Mabel N. Harner were married.

WINTER WOES by Pinson

Poor Jonathan Blasingame Queek
Has windshield wipers that streak.

He didn't get far,

Off the road, in the ditch, "up the creek!"

PREVENT THOSE WINTER DRIVING WOES

The Safe Winter Driving League presents the following tip for safer winter driving from the National Safety Council: "Don't be a 'peep-hole' driver—clear snow, frost and road-muck off the entire windshield and sides and rear windows as well. Replace dead, streaking wiper blades with live, new ones. Make sure headlights, taillights and directional signals are working properly. You must see danger to avoid it."

We desire correspondence to reach our office on Wednesday, if at all possible. It will be necessary, therefore, for most letters to be mailed on Tuesday morning. Letters mailed on Wednesday may not reach us in time.

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR

Greetings to you:

It is with sorrow that I tell you this week of the death of the mother of our former pastor on Sunday evening in Florida. Mrs. Donald F. Brake was well-known by many in this area. Services were held Tuesday evening in Florida and then she will be buried in the Grove Funeral Home in Wagnersboro, Pa., at 2 P. M. on Friday afternoon. Our sincere sympathy to Pastor Brake, his father and all of his family.

It has surely been another busy week for everyone in the area and I'm sure everyone is looking forward to "catching their breath" again after the holidays.

A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the Carroll Wilhide home this past Tuesday evening to enjoy the showing of the slides taken on their trip out west by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clabaugh of Detour.

A get-together of some of the young-marrieds in the area was held last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Dougherty in Detour in honor of their son Larry and his fiancée, Becky Dryden.

Mrs. William Fleharty, Ellen, Bruce and Diane visited in Washington and Silver Spring on Wednesday with Mrs. Harry Shacklett and Mrs. Robert Brudin, Michael and Steven and her sister Patsy Fleharty of Overall, Va. (who was visiting for the week).

Ralph Fleharty, Jr., and son "Butch" of Overall, Va., were luncheon guests at the William Fleharty home near Detour on Tuesday. "Butch" stayed on for a visit the rest of the week and Mrs. Ralph, Sr., went along back to Overall for a visit. "Butch" joined the Boy Scout overnight camping trip Wednesday and Thursday.

Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Susan and Christine near Detour were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dolly and son David at Fairfield, Pa. On Friday afternoon they were luncheon guests with his aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gill and children of White Hall. The Misses Merle and Sara Yoder were also callers at the Gill home that day.

A number of the members of the Lutheran Parish have visited with Pastor and Mrs. William Markley and Marinda of Union Bridge and enjoyed seeing their Christmas tree.

A family dinner was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun and family near Detour. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Coshun of Detour, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Clabaugh and Eddy of the Keysville Road, Mrs. Harry Clabaugh of Taneytown and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Baumgardner near Keysville.

Friends and relatives in the area surely did enjoy receiving the Christmas greetings letter from Mr. and Mrs. Harold Norcutt and family in Ojai, Calif. (She is the former Margaret Wilhide of Detour.)

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Albaugh near Detour have been Mrs. John Speak and daughter near Detour, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Boone, Janet and Donna of Westminster, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lind and girls of Johnsville, Mrs. Russell Wachter of New Midway, Mrs. Karl Smith, Sr., Ronnie, Jerry, Jimmie, Ricky, Randy, Jeffrey and Joann Denise of Rocky Ridge. Do hope she continues to make progress in her recuperation.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas and family of Hollow Rock Farm near Detour were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stambaugh of New Jersey (Hi, Mabel! See—I remembered.), Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Buffington of Westminster, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Albaugh, Sr., of Union Bridge, Mrs. Dixon Yaste of Reisterstown and Miss Sharon Watson of Union Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walther of Washington Grove were Thursday afternoon callers with the William Fleharty family.

Mrs. John Schilling, John, Jr., and Rebecca Ann with Miss Jean Munshouer of Eldersburg were callers one day last week with the Carroll Wilhide family.

Visitors on Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rinehart and family of Mt. Union were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide, Jane and Beth; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Susan and Christine; Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wilhide, Denise and Renee near Detour.

Callers last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clutz of River Dale Farm near Keysville were Jack Phillips of Hagerstown, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Welty of Hagerstown, Dr. Carr of Emmitsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boller of Rocky Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. Claude DeBerry near Emmitsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baumgardner and Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Kitcher near Keysville. Sunday dinner guest was Miss Geraldine Boller of Thurmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas, Harold, Jr., Clarence, Joan and Nancy near Detour spent New Year's Day with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elwood Kauffman and family, who recently moved to Colonial Ave., Westminster.

There will be a joint-parish planning meeting held at Union Bridge on Monday, the 10th, at 8 P. M. All officers of all organizations in the Union Bridge Lutheran Parish are urged to attend.

Happy Birthday next week to Bobby Trout on the 9th, Mrs. Arthur Clabaugh on the 13th and Jane Wilhide on the 14th. Happy Anniversary wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide on the 9th and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wantz, Jr., on the 13th.

The Eager Beaver Girls' 4-H Club will meet on January 14 at the home of Ellen Fleharty near Detour.

After the baptism of their infant daughter Christine on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide held a family dinner at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide, Jane and Beth near Detour. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Keifer Seibert and grandchildren Paul and Marianne of Clear Spring, Pastor William Markley of Union Bridge and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rinehart, Nancy and John of Mt. Union. Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wilhide, Denise and Renee joined the Carroll and Richard Wilhide families for supper.

Saturday dinner guests with the William Fleharty family were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brudin and son Michael of Silver Spring and her sister Patsy Fleharty, who had been visiting with them for a week. Patsy was an overnight guest and on Sunday she and her brother "Butch" were returned to their home at Overall, Va., by the William Fleharty family, who brought his mother, Mrs. Ralph, Sr., home with them after her visit at Overall.

"Hidden Hunger" was the topic presented to the Keysville Lutheran Church Women by Mrs. Arthur Clabaugh and Mrs. Carroll Dougherty at the meeting on Monday evening, Jan. 3. It was presented in five parts beginning with a quiz of nine true or false questions. Mrs. Gilbert Stine, Miss Jane Wilhide, Mrs. Gregg Kitcher and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide gave reports which answered these questions. Mrs. Ruth Shoemaker, who is associated with the Carroll County Welfare Board, was a special guest and told some of the facts about her job and those who are helped by the Welfare. What can we do? Help our needy brothers by opening our eyes and hearts for faith must serve.

The two "specials" of the evening were the piano solo, "Moonlight Sonata," by Mrs. Gregg Kitcher and the duet, "Teach Me My God and King," by Mrs. Clabaugh and Mrs. Dougherty. Both were beautifully done.

In the absence of the president, vice president Mrs. Richard Wilhide presided at the business meeting. A motion was made and seconded to again send a donation to the American Leprosy Missions, Inc. It was announced that no further bills can be made by an individual of the group without the approval of the Executive Committee. Four boxes are left of the stationery with the picture of the church. Three dates to mark on your calendars are: LCW program planning meeting at the church on the 12th at 8 P. M., District Assembly will be held April 21 and Convention will be held at Gettysburg June 23, 24, 25. After adjournment, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. James Coshun (in the place of Mrs. Edward Coshun, who was ill), Miss Vallie Shorb and Mrs. William Fleharty.

Heard Monday evening that a number of stones had been overturned at the Keysville Union Cemetery. Surely one can't help wondering "what is this world coming to?" when even churches and the resting places of the dead are molested. What kind of people could do such things?

"THE NEW YEAR"

(by David Redding)

O God, the old year's gone, and while you're putting a new one on, we'll pray. We are not afraid of what may happen but of what has already happened. The thought of the waste of time, our sorry record panted up beyond our reach, haunts us. All the words that should never crossed our tongues and all those thoughts we ought not to have entertained, have us chained.

And now we're trained to go through the act again. Free us, our father, from the fetters these failings have fastened on, so tomorrow will not be the prisoner of the past.

Put us back on our feet so we shall not be dumped into the New Year but embrace it bravely! Help us to see straight so we shall know that our fondest hopes and brightest dreams are futile until we fall down first at the feet of Christ. Amen.

A woman testifying at a Prayer Meeting: "I ain't what I ought to be; and I ain't what I'm going to be; but anyway, I ain't what I was."

Observations on the World of Sports
—John Breth

It has become something of a gag in certain circles but when you say a baseball player has the "old Oriole spirit," you're still paying him a compliment.

The old Orioles, the players who wore the Baltimore uniform back around the turn of the century, were guys who would fight you on every play and who would let nothing short of a broken leg keep them out of the lineup.

The current Orioles will have a rookie in their training camp this spring whose name is cut from that cloth.

His name is ANDY ETCHEBARREN. He is a catcher and he is being given a longshot chance of taking over as the number one receiver for Baltimore, despite the competition offered by the veterans, Dick Brown and Charlie Lau.

There was one play last season that took place in the ball park of the Rochester Red Wings of the International League. Etchebarren was the Rochester catcher and the batter raised a pop fly back of the plate.

Etchebarren had his mask off in a flash and gave chase to the ball which was coming down near the railing loomed up dead ahead.

It was too late to put on the brakes, although Andy tried. He crashed into the railing and hit his forehead against it. He slumped to the ground unconscious. It took a few moments to revive him and they led him to the dugout where they took off his catching gear.

In another few minutes Etchebarren was back behind the plate.

An interested spectator was Joe Crozier, the general manager and coach of the Rochester hockey team.

He paid Andy the greatest compliment he could when he said: "Andy has the guts of a hockey player."

Etchebarren did not hit what the Orioles hoped he would for Rochester but with John Orsino gone they intend to keep Andy with them next season no matter what. Andy only batted .247 for Rochester but he showed great skill with the mask and mitt. The people who run the Baltimore farm system think he will improve as a hitter. If he does he is likely to become the first string catcher of the Orioles before very long.

One of the many great things about this country is the fact that just about anywhere you go you'll find natural resources. They are not limited to any one part of the country.

Take even a natural resource like ROD THORN, a crack basketball player. He is playing for his third National Basketball Association team in as many seasons.

Rod recently was traded by the Detroit Pistons to the St. Louis Hawks. The Pistons got him in June of 1964 from the Baltimore Bullets, the team which made him their number one draft pick in 1963.

Thorn won some kind of immortality in 1959 when a high school star in Princeton, West Virginia. He was so good that something like 70 colleges were after him to accept a scholarship.

This was brought to the attention of the West Virginia legislature which thereupon proclaimed Rod a natural resource and officially asked him to enroll at West Virginia University.

Rod did and became an outstanding college player. He has not been quite so outstanding as a pro. In his rookie season at Baltimore he averaged 14 points a game.

The six-foot backcourt player fell off to 11 points a game with Detroit last season but has boosted that a couple of points this year.

Rod is still young, even by pro standards, and may raise his scoring average with the Hawks a few points more.

Today's Sport Laugh — Vanderbilt basketball star Clyde Lee was not too keen on playing basketball in high school. It's not that he didn't like the sport. But, Lee, who was six-foot-four at the time, explains: "I wouldn't be caught dead in those short pants."

Statistics bore most of us, but if we could only make these victims, one of seven were children. For the rest, death picked indiscriminately from those that were in the prime of life and those that were aged and feeble. To some, the end came swiftly; to others, only after crawling hours of pain and suffering. But whether the agony was short or long, none of the people returned to the streets or highways on which they had set out for their last journey.

The State Safety Commission stated that among last years' figures of careless killing come alive we would see a picture of appalling human waste and needless tragedy afflicting the families and the friends of both the killer and the victim. Responsibility for death or injury on the highways is not something that can be assessed only in the courts. The guilt of those who have caused death or injury, through some want of responsibility, is a more guilt also. If conscience would assert itself and be heeded, accidents might never occur.

Safety on the highway is a matter for the conscience of every individual and they should not disguise their misdemeanor as merely bad luck, but show a true reverence for life by assuming their true responsibility.

Why We Believe

Lesson for January 9, 1966

Background Scripture: Psalm 19:1-4; John 20:24-31; Romans 1:19-20; 10:5-17; 11 Timothy 3:14-17.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 19.

WHY DO PEOPLE believe anything? Man is a believing animal; indeed he lives by his beliefs. But this is no place and there is no room for investigating beliefs in general. Otherwise we should have to inquire why men believe all sorts of things — that there is no life on the moon, that potatoes grow better if planted in the dark of the moon, that the moon affects the tides, and so on and so on. Our question is a shorter one: Why do Christians believe as we do? Are our reasons good or bad or do we believe without any reasonable reason at all? Is there solid ground under our feet, or is the Land of Faith — so to speak — only a marsh?

Religious beliefs are not like the beliefs of science. The scientist takes the object he is examining into the laboratory and analyzes it. But no worshiper would think of taking God into the laboratory and examining him! You can dissect frogs and you can see the spectrum of sunlight; but it is impossible in the same way to dissect the joy of faith or to chart the spectrum of the Light of the World. Further, religion, especially the religion of Christians, is in a class of beliefs of a peculiar and non-scientific (though for from non-sensical) sort, namely all beliefs that involve confidence, as Christian faith does. Scientific belief asks for proof first, then belief will follow; but with anything involving confidence, belief has to come first, then evidence or proof follows. For instance, when you learn to swim, you have to believe that the water will hold you up, fat and clumsy though you may be. You can wait forever for proof; the only proof you will ever get is to believe it is true and then act on your belief.

Grounds for belief

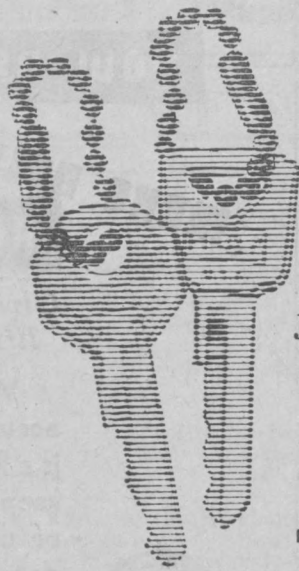

Not that Christians have no good reasons for their confidence. But these grounds are better seen by a Christian than an outsider. We look at the universe in all its beauty and grandeur, and feel as a famed astronomer did, that the universe is more like a great machine. Such power, such splendor, such order, can only be the product of an Intelligence and Power greater by far than the universe itself.

God's witnesses

There once lived an unbelieving man named Augustine. His mother was a Christian, but not his father and not he. His two great loves were beauty and intellectual power. He found neither in the church. But on his travels he came on a man — a bishop — whose sermons had the intellectual power and moral force Augustine had been looking for, and the worship service at his church had the beauty Augustine had always missed. To make a short story shorter, Augustine became a believer through the faith of Bishop Ambrose. It has usually been like that. Most Christians are such because of their contacts with other Christians. Every real Christian becomes a rock or reliance on whom others rest their faith. Not that true belief is rubber-stamp or second-hand! We come to personal faith through the belief of those we love and admire; but this is only the first stage in erecting faith that is personal and first-hand. The testimony of others becomes blended with the divine whisper within, that we are children of God. If you were God, what better reasons for belief in you could you give than those God in fact has given?

6 TIPS FOR SAFER WINTER DRIVING

By Prof. A. H. Easton
Director, Motor Vehicle Research Laboratory
University of Wisconsin

1. Get the "feel" of the road. Accelerate carefully at low speed and away from other traffic to see if the wheels spin, then brake to see if they skid. Reduce speed accordingly, steer gently and smoothly, use gas and brake pedals sparingly.

2. Increase your following distance. It takes three to twelve times as far to stop on snow and ice as on dry pavement, so lengthen your following distance to suit road and weather conditions.

3. "Pump" your brakes to slow or stop—don't jam them on. Proper pumping technique is to apply and release the brake pedal rapidly once or twice a second. This intermittent pumping action keeps the wheels rolling and helps maintain steering control.

4. Have good tires with good treads. Good tire treads are always superior to smooth treads on slippery pavements. Even better for snow are snow tires, which provide half again as much pulling power as regular tires.

BRAKING DISTANCE

FROM 20 MPH
ON GLARE ICE AT 20°F

77'	REINFORCED TIRE CHAINS
99'	REGULAR TIRE CHAINS
174'	SNOW TIRES
195'	REGULAR TIRES

5. Always carry reinforced tire chains in the trunk of your car and use them for severe snow and ice conditions. They provide four to five times as much traction on snow or ice as regular tires.

6. Keep your windshield and windows clear at all times. Replace streaking wiper blades that may have been baked dry by summer sun. Be sure that your windshield washer solution contains adequate antifreeze.

How to save money you've never even seen

Sound impossible? Far from it. Just put that invisible cash to work with United States Savings Bonds. Here's how it works:

Next time you get a raise—no matter how small—just have your paymaster set aside a certain amount toward the purchase of Savings Bonds.

Presto. It's done. The Payroll Savings Plan takes care of the details. Collects the money, buys your bonds. And you won't miss the money. You've never seen it.

By the time you get used to that little glow of pride in your first Bond, your second one is already on its way. And that first one is already earning money for you—at 3 3/4% interest when held to maturity.

Millions of Americans are saving money this effortless way—and helping their country at the same time. You can, too. Just sign your name to the application. The Payroll Savings Plan will do the rest.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

ALIBI

"Alibi" simply means "elsewhere." In popular usage, it also has come to mean an excuse of any kind. But not in the courtroom. There, an alibi is only one specific kind of an excuse; that the defendant was elsewhere when the crime was committed.

Thus: "I didn't know the gun was loaded" is not an alibi. "I couldn't stop the car in time" is not an alibi.

But "I wasn't there" is an alibi. Of course, absence alone is not a defense in every kind of crime. A man might mastermind a bank hold-up, yet leave the deed itself to his henchmen. Or a man might commit arson with a delayed-action fuse, allowing him to be sunning himself at the beach when the fire starts.

Clearly, absence from the scene of the crime, in such circumstances, is not a good defense.

Nor is an alibi effective if it leaves open a reasonable possibility that the defendant—by hurrying—might still have committed the crime.

For instance, a man who proved that he picked up his girl friend at 9 P. M. was held not to have established an alibi for a murder committed at 8:45 P. M. The court noted that the girl lived less than 15 minutes' driving time from the scene of the murder.

But if the crime did require the defendant's actual presence at the scene, and if he can prove he wasn't there, then his alibi is airtight. Unfortunately, when it comes to proof, an alibi is the kind of defense that may be easily faked. Many a rascal has come to court with a made-to-order alibi, based on the convenient "recollection" of obliging friends.

Nevertheless, while the law takes account of the danger of fraud, it also gives full weight to an alibi that is fairly established.

"Alibi is not only a proper defense," commented one court, "but to an innocent man is always an essential defense, and indeed it may be his only defense."

BRIGHT IDEAS

FOR LIGHTING YOUR LIVING ROOM

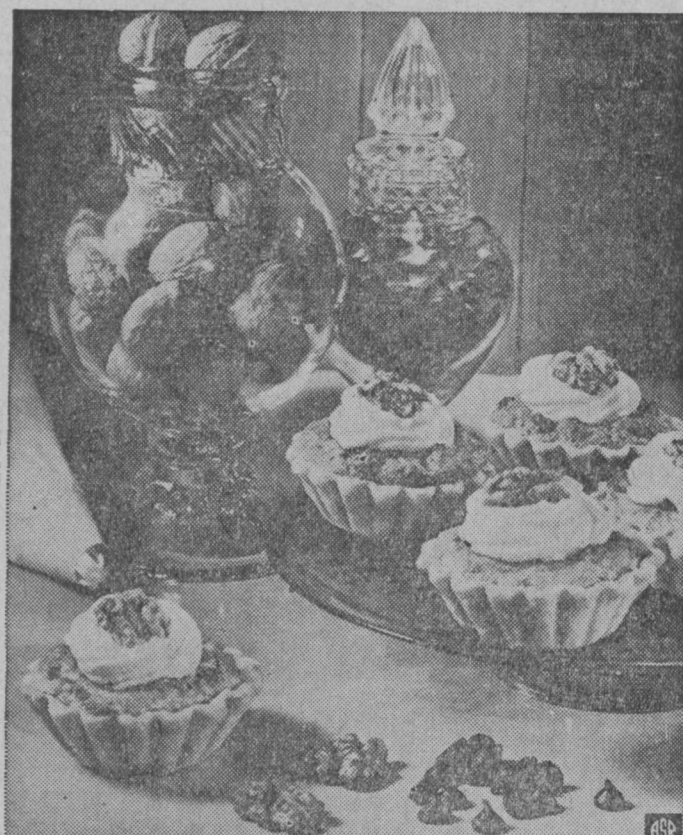

Lighting can be a real plus in your living room decorating plan. Whether you're starting from scratch or re-decorating, well-planned lighting adds warmth, highlights interesting furniture, enhances rugs and drapery, and creates or diminishes space. Ideal for these purposes are the newer types of fluorescent "built-ins."

Accent a bookcase by concealing one 40-watt fluorescent tube under the top panel. This sheds background light on paintings or ornaments on top of the bookcase and illuminates the book bindings below.

Distinctive valance treatment, concealing four 4 foot, 40-watt fluorescent tubes, gives a living room special window interest. To highlight a warm color drapery fabric use Sylvania's Natural White fluorescent. To enhance cool shades, use Deluxe Cool White fluorescent.

Walnut Chocolate Tarts

The popular cookin' cousins team of chocolate and walnuts is back together in a new party recipe from the Diamond Walnut Kitchen. It's Walnut Chocolate Tarts, a perfect blending of semi-sweet chocolate morsels and crunchy, flavorful walnuts. Serve the tarts for an afternoon coffee or tea-time treat, or as a special finale to a guest dinner party menu.

Chocolate and walnuts compliment each other so well you'll want to try them together in other desserts, too, like cookies, ice cream and sauces, puddings, pies, cakes and frostings. You'll find plenty of fresh-tasting walnuts from California either in-the-shell in cellophane bags or already shelled in handy vacuum cans or clear bags.

- | | |
|-----------------------------|--|
| 1 1/2 cups Diamond Walnuts | 1 6-ounce package semi-sweet chocolate morsels |
| 3 egg whites | Pastry for 8 (3 1/2-inch) tart shells |
| 1/4 teaspoon salt | Whipped Cream |
| 1 cup sifted powdered sugar | Walnut halves |
| 1 teaspoon vanilla | |

Grate or chop walnuts very fine, or place 1/2 cup at a time in blender jar and process by turning on and off until walnuts are very fine. Beat egg whites with salt until stiff. Gradually beat in sugar, adding a tablespoon at a time. Fold in vanilla, walnuts and chocolate morsels. Heap into pastry-lined tart pans. Bake on lowest shelf of oven at 375 degrees about 25 minutes until browned. Cool before serving. Top with whipped cream and decorate with walnut halves. Makes eight (3 1/2-inch) tarts.

A Way With Windows

Fashions at the window have done an about face—from stark simplicity to the opulent elegance popular years ago. But the room-muffling yards of damask draperies used then have been replaced by drip-dry synthetics and other practical materials that have a lovely, deceptively fragile appearance, but never fear the washing machine.

Draperies linings, too, are back in the fold as part of the richer look. With the extra body a lining gives, draperies hang better and provide more privacy. Roc-ionized, or self-lined, draperies are the newest fashion at windows; they have all the luxury of separate linings, at budget prices. These self-liners are a combination of chemicals bonded right to the back of the fashion fabric to keep sun and dampness away from the decorative face. And because they're insulated, the new self-linings help control the temperature on the room side of even the biggest picture window.

Not all windows are easy to decorate in style. And the new wide windows that need insulation can be particularly tricky. Dramatic effects, however, can camouflage odd-shapes. Treat overly narrow windows by extending curtains across the wall. An awkwardly wide window looks narrower when flanked with a pair of shutters inside the window frame. Then curtain between the shutters. Undersized windows assume importance with a frame of decorative plywood.

If your room colors are unrelated, a print curtain will bring them together. And for the custom look, add fancy braid or fringe to ready-made, self-lined draperies. It's fashionable to dress up your window areas, for nothing expresses the special feeling and personality of a room like an elegant way with windows.
