Every man has two educations—that which is given to him, and the other, that which he gives himself. Of the two kinds, the latter is by far the most valuable. Indeed all that is most worthy in man, he must work out and conquer for himself. It is that, that constitutes our real and best nourishment. What we are merely taught, seldom nourishes the mind like that which we teach ourselves.—Richter.

Each member who went took part in some activity. James Frock and Wayne Wilhide were delegates from THS. Other members who attended were Sheldon Shealer, Jerry Devilbiss and Robert Airing.

One of the more pleasurable activities took place Saturday evening when a dinner-dance was held. This solicitation will be the annual drive for funds for operation of the fire company, starting April 15 thru May 15.

The Water Tank Truck Committee reported that they had checked prices on several trucks with capacity of around 2,000 gallons. They were instructed to get more prices on different size trucks.

MEETING OF TANEYTOWN JR.-SR. HIGH SCHOOL P-TA

On March 14, at 7:30 the P-TA of Taneytown Jr.-Sr. High School met in the school auditorium. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Robert Clingan, president of the P-TA. Mr. Kenneth Stonesifer gave the invocation.

Mrs. Clingan asked Mr. Frank Mather, principal, to introduce the speaker, Mr. Sherman Flanagan, former State senator and a member of the Governor's Advisory Council for Higher Education, who spoke about the community college.

Nominating Committee for officers for the year 1966-67 are Mrs. Rodney Devilliss, chairman; Mrs. William Hird, Mrs. Stanley Dutterer and Mrs. Maurice Zent.

There were various other items brought to the attention of the P-TA by the principal, Mr. Mather. One of the most important being that many of the boys and girls are not eating any lunch at all. Lunch is available at the cafeteria for the sum of 25c. Mr. Mather said that this amount would not be raised until absolutely necessary.

It is too bad that more parents do not avail themselves of the opportunity to meet the teachers and other parents at P-TA. Aren't you concerned about your child? If you are, you should be at P-TA meeting. The Executive Committee also voted to give $300 to the Band Parents to help defray the expense in procuring new uniforms for the band.

His speech was entitled, "The Hidden Sickness" and concerned our use of stimulants and depressants as well as the new federal regulations on drugs which became effective February 1 of this year. His talk was very educational and should receive a lot of thought by the young people of the community.

President Smith closed the evening with a few remarks concerning Jaycee activities; also reminding all Jaycees of the local election in April and encouraging the members to run for office. Also a reminder of the State and of the National Convention in Detroit, Michigan.

On Sunday afternoon, March 13, Group 3 of the Lutheran Church Women, under the leadership of Mrs. Mildred Jester, entertained the guests at Brookfield Manor with a "songfest and sing-along." A cordial welcome was extended to the thirteen group members and their one guest.

The program began with Mrs. Helen Forney reading the Scripture and Mrs. Joan Miller offering prayer. The lovely "Aura Lee" and the amusing lively number, "Rootin' Tootin' Spider" were sung by Mrs. Maxine Bowers, Mrs. Charlotte Shorb and Mrs. Oneida Skiles.

The whole group then participated in singing a potpourri of Irish ballads and light-hearted songs reminiscent of the era of the early 1900's, with some of the guests "singing along." The program was concluded by everyone singing the old familiar hymn, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."

Each guest was given a gaily-colored card holder made by the members of Group 3 with a St. Patrick's Day greeting card attached thereto. A heart-warming spirit of "togetherness" was shared by the guests and visitors alike.

NEW POST OFFICE FOR RANDALLSTOWN

The Randallstown Post Office, to be built at 9113 Liberty Road, will have 5,876 square feet of interior space.

"THE CALL OF SPRING"

On this early March day the whole world fairly shouts of Spring. What better time, then, to throw off the shackles of Winter and respond to the stirring call? And so I take binoculars in hand and, accompanied by Skippy and Beau, head for the woods, "squish" as I warily make my way across them. Water stands everywhere, and the little stream has never been in finer form as it sings its happy song. A zephyr-like breeze plays gently about, as the sun smiles down from a clear, blue sky, a far cry indeed, from the cold, gray face of winter.

Since this is the time when the Spring birds begin to arrive, I keep my eyes open, and am shortly rewarded by the sight of four or five robins, flashing their cheerful red breasts and hopping gingerly over the remaining patches of snow. Several red-winged blackbirds go by, sounding their familiar "O-ka-lee." Some permanent residents are much in evidence, as well. In the thicket, a male cardinal favors me with his clear whistle, while his mate flits close at hand. From the fence, a pair of chickadees scolds me roundly, and a red-bellied woodpecker fills the air with his rather raucous call.

After the bitter, howling Winter winds, it is comforting, indeed, to hear once again the magical call of Spring, which summons all of nature back to new life.

MEDICARE DEADLINE MARCH 31

Postmaster George Fream announced that application blanks for supplemental Medicare benefits are available at the Taneytown Post Office.

The application blanks are being made available as the Social Security Administration seeks to contact 3.1 million senior citizens before a March 31 deadline imposed by the Medicare law.

President Johnson has proclaimed March as "National Medicare Enrollment Month." He urged all federal agencies and all citizens to cooperate in enrolling senior citizens in the program.

Initially, some two and one-half million application blanks were distributed to nearly 34,000 main post offices throughout the 50 states. Additional forms are available as needed.

Through direct mailings and other means, the Social Security Administration has had contact with 16 of the 19.1 million citizens who will be 65 or over on July 1. Of the 16 million who replied, less than one million said they did not want to sign up for the supplemental program.

The supplemental program costs $3.00 a month and provides doctor bill and other benefits. Everyone 65 and over is eligible for the basic hospital benefits under Medicare.

Senior citizens who reached 65 before 1966 face a two-year delay if they do not sign up by March 31. The application forms are pre-addressed to the Social Security Administration in Baltimore, Md.

MRS. T. M. MALEY TO HEAD CHURCH KINDERGARTEN

The Christian Day Kindergarten Committee of Trinity Lutheran Church announces that Mrs. Thomas M. Maley has been secured to teach in the local kindergarten for the remainder of this term.

Mrs. Maley, a native of Hagerstown, is a local resident, residing on the Anttrim property on the Uniontown Road. Mrs. Maley holds the Associate of Arts degree from Hagerstown Junior College, where she has made advanced studies. The mother of three children, she is married to Thomas M. Maley, a teacher employed by the Baltimore County Board of Education.

Mrs. Maley's appointment comes as a result of Mrs. Charles L. Stonesifer's reluctant resignation, submitted at the insistence of her physician and accepted with regret by the Christian Day Kindergarten Committee. Mrs. Stonesifer had been the pioneer teacher of the kindergarten since its inception in September 1964.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning a smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer. Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

"Take the Greyhound Bus and leave the driving to us!" And that is just what I did last week for it was, "In the winter, in the fall, in the spring or summer, give me New York any time at all!" The bus was an express—not one stop, in other words—and I had a front seat to and fro! When Princess Margaret stated it was the most wonderful place in the world she visited she was 100 percent right!

There is something about New York—well—just different than any other place (and I mean to visit), for it sure does get under your skin. There are so many places to visit that one should remain a week or longer and it is not necessary to make reservations as I did at the "Astor" for there are so many hotels right in that neighborhood of gaiety. So many shows to see and just about all in the same neighborhood.

Taking a bus up Madison Ave. to that beautiful building of "The Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum," which specializes in art of the present century, both American and foreign, including the graphic arts, sculpture and painting where all the teen-agers visit for it seems their world right there! The building swirls in architecture and no adjectives could describe it for there is nothing like it in comparison in any city and it stands in a most beautiful neighborhood. In this neighborhood, one sees the nursemaids with the English preambulator in which lay the tiny cherubs (being wheeled 'all over those city blocks).

Returning to the hotel, taking the 5th Avenue bus back is most interesting. I would have remained longer but it was truly Spring plus a fur coat!

There are just 1300 taxis in the city of New York and this — THREE HUNDRED (300) Mounted Police and they surely reminded me of the Canadian Mounted Police! All the policemen seem more refined and genteel than years ago when they were of the burly and tough type! I asked one what he thought of "Our Commissioner, Mr. Henry Barnes" and this was his quick reply with a real grin, "Well, at first he had the city of New York wild but now with the one-way streets, we find it a joy!" And I wrote just that to that gentleman since my return!

There are so many, many places to eat that it seems bigger than before as restaurants and cafes seem to be just two doors from each one. Having an entire CLAMM dinner was delicious! Ummmmmm! Gobbs of food!

New York city blocks are much shorter than those in Philly and one can take a nice long walk and not mind it in the least. I observed, for the pedestrian, the lights change ever so quickly—in other words, seconds—and that is better for it gives everyone a chance more quickly and that is the pace which is a must in New York. One wonders where the mobs are going?

As I studied the expressions — they are so strained—and tired looking, especially the women. Ladies, regardless of age it is a fact—TWO INCHES—as to dresses above the knees and at times shorter than that! All eyes, even during day time, are truly made up regardless of the hour!

There have been 33 hotels torn down to make way for office buildings and in less than a year or so the grand "Astor" will be torn down, too, for the same purpose. Ugh! Now, as to that nice and sweet Merv Griffin—without a doubt he is tops and has the most natural and sweet personality and I do hope he never changes as time goes on. He is much more stocky built than he appears on TV.

If you do not have a color TV set—the old theatre as to the stage is all done in blue and gold and most attractive. The audience seats are elevated beyond describing which should be a must for every theater regardless of the place of city.

Merv is also taller than he appears on TV, no doubt due to very tall Arthur Treacher as he stands beside Merv. His hair is powdered for the stage and of course each one has a certain amount of pink make-up on his face. Merv is a down-to-earth individual and he is loved by all for he gets so close to the heart of everyone. He is so natural when he holds conversation with the audience and that is sweet to listen and to see!

And, ladies, shhhhhhh — I never knew men were sweeter than women which I learned on that TV "Candid Camera Show," when each Sunday night it is shown.

Will be seeing you around the town when I will spend the day, D.V.

Until next week, and here is a bit of wisdom . . . "If you sow kindness, you will reap a crop of friends!"

I am,

Faithfully,

YOUR OBSERVER.

"Taxation is a lot like sheep shearing. As long as you shear a sheep it will continue to produce a new crop. But you can skin the animal only once."—Clarín D. Ashby, Unithash Basin (Utah) Standard.

THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1966

"COME, GENTLE SPRING!"

March 20th will be a welcome date. For on that day, Spring will officially come again. The precise moment will be 8:53 P. M., Eastern Standard Time. In many parts of the country, this year's Spring will be greeted with even greater relief and enthusiasm than is usually the case. The winter which now nears its end has been a vicious one generally. There have been record or near-record snowstorms, freezes, gales and floods. But now these scourges are approaching their end.

Spring, every Spring, is the season of new life. All of nature burgeons. The trees put out their bright leaves, the flowers bud and bloom. Everywhere there is the sound of birds, safe and warm in their nests. The beings which live in the woods and the waters flourish and produce their young. And Spring brings a lift to the heart of man, whatever his problems and troubles may be. It is an inspirer of hope; a renewer of faith and purpose. It is, or should be, for all of us a time of beginnings. And one may pray that before this splendid season ends some new and meaningful rays of light will find their way into our troubled world.

Many years ago, the poet James Thomson wrote: "Come, gentle Spring! ethereal Mildness! come." It is a feeling that is universally shared. —Industrial News Review

FACTS AND OPINIONS

Dr. Thomas F. Carney, in a broadcast over a Chicago radio station, said: "If any group of people, whether it be industry or Government, ever started directing all the research, research would be dead. It may sound as if there is some duplication, but it is duplication of objective, rather than duplication of work. If, for example, three companies are working on the solution of the cancer problem, it is likely that each will be using a different approach to the solution. It is true that the research will cost three times as much, but there will be three times as many chances to solve the problem. . . I'd rather pass on to the consumer the cost of the cancer cure than to pass on to the consumer the cost of no cancer cure."

The American Gas Association points out that only one well in nine drilled in previously unexplored areas finds any gas or oil. And only one in 50 is a real winner, producing a large enough quantity to be profitable. Yet drilling a well can cost from $200,000 to $1 million or more.

Representative George H. Mahon, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, writes in Nation's Business: "... Somebody has to draw a line between what the country stands in need of and what it can afford. We should make a sharper distinction between our wants and our needs than we have done in the last 15 or 20 years. We are too readily inclined to make yesterday's wants today's needs. A great problem in government finance these days is that not enough of us lie awake nights worrying about the fact that we are spending beyond our income. . ."

The American Meat Institute reports that pork has changed. Some people, it says, still have the image of pork as fat meat. This is no longer true. Farmers have made tremendous strides in producing a new, meat-type hog which has more of the lean cuts preferred by today's homemaker. This hog, the Institute stresses, is a far cry from the plump, jowly hog of grandfather's day.

According to the Association of American Railroads, railroad piggy-back service which for 10 years made a habit of setting annual traffic records—did it again in 1965. In that year, for the first time since such statistics were originated in 1955, rail piggyback went over the million-car mark.

Does a young person in your family want to become a nurse? Today's Health, which is published by the American Medical Association, advises that there are four approaches to entering the nursing profession. These are: A four-year college or university program leading to a baccalaureate degree; a three-year diploma or hospital program leading to a diploma; a two-year community or junior college program leading to an associate in arts degree; a 12-to-18-month program for practical nursing.

Henry Hazlitt writes in Newsweek: "The new budget is undoubtedly inflationary. But it would be inexcusable to increase the already excessive and growth-stunting burden of taxation on the American people on the plea that this is necessary to combat the inflation. The way to prevent further inflation is to start slashing billions of fat out of 1967's projected nondefense spending of $83.6 billion."

The Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association says: "The U.S. patent system, which has been instrumental in encouraging new drug products, protects a man's invention from unlicensed use by anyone else for a specified time, thus giving him commercial protection for his development."

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR

Greetings to you:

Our calendar says Spring begins next Monday, the 21st. With the balmy weather we had several days last week, the crocus has been opening and many other bulbs are pushing through their green. March can be treacherous, however, so we still have to be prepared for almost anything. But isn't it wonderful to know that the "coming again to life" season is here again?

Spring is sale time and supper-sales also. A good many sales are listed in the papers and supper coming up are being listed every week also. The Keysville Lutheran Church Women will have the food stand on the 19th at the public sale of Mrs. Roland Koons near Keymer. The sale by Mr. and Mrs. George Edwin Gartrell on the Keysville Road is coming up on the 23th. (Read where they have announced the official engagement of their daughter Becky who is now working at N.I.H. in Bethesda. Best wishes to her!) And, of course, hope you will mark your calendar for the P-TA to be served April 23 by the P-TA at the Elmer A. Wolfe School. A closer one will be next week on the 26th: the annual ham and oyster served by the men at the Middleburg Methodist Church.

Those popsize sticks I mentioned last week grew to just over 15,000 by the time I delivered them to the TB Association on Monday. They were collected at the Elmer A. Wolfe School since September. (Those two sticks really add up fast.)

Second meeting of the Terra Rubra Lions Club will be Monday, March 21, at the Parish House of the United Church of Christ in Keysville.

Callers last week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cluts of River Dale Farm near Keysville were William Fleming and Mr. Deardorf of Fairfield. Friday evening visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baumgardner of Keysville and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun near Detour; Saturday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyle and Mrs. Anna Thomas of Baltimore and Sunday callers were Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Silver Run, Mr. Norman Baumgardner of Taneytown and Mrs. Mary Devilbiss and Sylvia near Keysville.

Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Susan and Christine near Detour were Thursday afternoon visitors with Mrs. Wayne Sanders and children of Emmitsburg. (Mrs. Sanders is the former Mrs. Terry Poist.)

Michael Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flohr of Sixes Bridge Road near Keysville, was baptised at Keysville Lutheran Church on Sunday.

Sunday visitors with Mrs. William Weishaar and Randy on Forest and Stream Club Road were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Weishaar and Loretta of Taneytown, Mr. and Mrs. James Weishaar, Bobby and Billy of Detour and Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Rinehart and Freddy of Taneytown. Callers in this same home during the week were Mrs. Maynard Ausherman, Mrs. Edward Matthews and Mrs. William Fleharty, Bruce and Diane.

Sure you all read about the fire in Keysville in last week's papers. The firemen were able to keep the fire from spreading into the ladder factory but the house looks as though it has "had it."

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Yoder of Long Green were Saturday afternoon visitors with cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide and family near Detour.

Cub Pack 459 meeting Friday, the 18th; Lutheran Parish Lenten Retreat to be held at Camp Mar-Lu-Ridge on Sunday, the 20th; next parish Lenten service to be Wednesday, the 23rd, at Rocky Ridge.

New houses in the Keysville area are moving right along. Siding has been on the Gartrell house for awhile, looks as though it won't be long before the brick laying starts on the Young home and the Shoemaker house

50th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Myers, 40 Westmoreland Street, Westminster, Md., were guests recently at a dinner given in honor of their 50th Wedding Anniversary by their family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hull and daughter, Yvette; Miss Edna Myers; Mrs. Audrey Buffington and daughter, Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. Myers were married on March 2, 1916 by Rev. W. E. Saltgiver, pastor of the Uniontown Lutheran Parish at that time. Both are in good health and Mr. Myers is employed at Baugher's Fruit Market.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Susan and Christine were dinner guests with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Miles of Clear Spring. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Middlekauff and two sons of Hagerstown (her aunt and family) were also guests. They then visited at her home and were supper guests there with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Seibert, Timmy, Paul, Mariann and Johnny also of Clear Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun near Detour accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Stine near Keyville on Sunday when they returned their daughter Nancy to college, where she is studying Dental Hygiene, at West Liberty, West Virginia. They also drove to Wheeling and visited the Fostoria Glass outlet store.

The Eager Beaver Girls' 4-H Club met last Friday evening at the home of their president, Phyllis Orndorff, in Middleburg. A get-together is planned for the afternoon of March 26 to work on some Easter ideas for the nursing home. April 11 will be the joint meeting in Westminster with the topic on Flower Arranging.

The scoutmasters' junior scoutmasters and patrol leaders of Troop 330 enjoyed an overnight camping trip this past week-end at a lean-to on the Appalachian Trail on South Mountain. The Tenderfoot members of the Troop went on a five-mile hike and worked on some of the requirements for Second Class Scout with committeeman Harold Selby.

Miss Elizabeth Yoder brought her mother, Mrs. Emory Yoder, to visit awhile at the home of her sister (and daughter), Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide near Detour. The Yoders make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gill of White Hall. Sorry to report that Mrs. Gill (Sara) is not well. Sure she would appreciate receiving some cards of good wishes. Zip code for White Hall is 21161. (You know, speaking of cards, Mrs. Yoder will soon be having a birthday, too.)

The speaker for the Lenten service at Keysville Lutheran Church on Wednesday evening, Carl Jacobsen, was most effective. Mr. Jacobsen, who is Executive Secretary of LCM, spoke about friends. What is a friend? Who is my friend? And referred to Peter and Judas who were friends of Christ; yet one denied Him and the other betrayed Him.

Don't forget to plan to attend the cantata "No Greater Love" which will be presented at Mt. Tabor on Palm Sunday evening, St. James on Good Friday evening and Keysville on Easter Sunday evening. Time will be 8 P. M.

Notice in the Sunday bulletin: Vacation Church School Institute is scheduled for April 30 at 1:30 P. M. at Grace Lutheran Church in Westminster. With the new materials now being used, as many as possible should try to attend.

THE WAY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports
—John Breth

Some of the worriers in the BALTIMORE ORIOLES TRAINING CAMP are beginning to feel somewhat better about the club's chances this year. There were scores of long faces around the place a couple of weeks ago when the pitchers showed up and Milt Pappas was not among them.

When Pappas was traded during the winter to the Cincinnati Reds, there was many a groan in Baltimore that the deal had ruined the best pitching staff in the league. Still, Pappas' departure did not really sink in until the Orioles' hurlers checked in at the Miami camp and a familiar face was missing. There was talk again that maybe the Orioles had given up too much to get Frank Robinson from the Reds.

But, that feeling is beginning to decrease. The chief reason is the optimistic tune being sung by Orioles pitching coach Harry Brecheen. The one-time Cardinal pitching great insists that the Orioles' mound staff still is the best in the league, and probably will be even better now.

Brecheen says he is well aware that Pappas is a great pitcher, but the coach believes the Orioles have the finest group of young pitchers he ever has seen in a spring camp. And Harry has seen many a spring training camp.

Brecheen points specifically to three young hurlers, Frank Bertina, Jim Palmer and Tom Phebus. According to the coach, Bertina is one of the most versatile left-handers in the game. What's more, Brecheen feels only one other pitcher in the league has a better change-up than Bertina. That one pitcher, according to Brecheen, is Stu Miller, who happens to be with the Orioles.

The coach insists Palmer can throw as hard as anyone in the majors. But, he has to learn how to control that speed. Brecheen feels there are eight young hurlers in camp who need only a chance to prove themselves. He says that with Pappas gone, they will now get that chance. The fourth spot in the Orioles' starting rotation is open. Steve Barber, Wally Bunker and Dave McNally are the three who are set.

The way the coach sees it, all three will be five games richer because of the addition of Robinson's bat to the Orioles lineup. Brecheen remembers that in many close games last year, the pitcher had to be taken out in the late innings, not because he wasn't doing well, but because the team needed one or two more runs. Brecheen believes that Robinson's presence will do a great deal to alleviate that situation.

The pro basketball people are amazed at THE NEW WILT CHAMBERLAIN. The big dipper from Philadelphia always played big and talked big and now he is acting big . . . but in the right way.

Chamberlain has become a great team player and his driving leadership has paced the 76'ers into a neck-and-neck duel with the Boston Celtics in the fight for the Eastern Division pennant of the National Basketball Association.

It obviously is a thing of pride with the superb center, who always has been labeled a great individual player but something less than that as a team man.

Chamberlain long has rankled over the inability of his team to beat out the Celtics and over his playing second fiddle to Bill Russell of the Celtics on the court. The men may be close friends off the court but that didn't help when Russell was being acclaimed as Mr. Big of the hardwood.

The coach of the Los Angeles Lakers, Fred Schaus, was amazed by the Chamberlain he saw in a game against his team about one month ago. Schaus said that Chamberlain was outstanding in all areas, shooting, rebounding and two new categories for him, playmaking and defense.

The 76'ers played ten games this year against Boston and won the series by six games to four. Wilt has outscored Big Bill consistently and has even topped him in rebounds in six of the ten games.

In one game this year Chamberlain was credited with 13 assists, a fantastic showing for modern day pro basketball.

Chamberlain put it on the line verbally earlier in the season and has backed it with actions ever since. It was early in the campaign that Wilt said: "We want the title and we're going to get it. What's the good of scoring a lot of points if you don't win?"

That has been Wilt's motto ever since and the records show that it has been a winning one.

Today's Sport Laugh—Twin brothers have been named the leaders for their college football teams next season.

Pete Savidge was elected co-captain at Rutgers and Paul Savidge was named captain at Princeton. Oddly enough, Princeton will face Rutgers in the opening game next season. This led Pete Savidge to ask his coach, Johnny Bateman: "Do I have to shake hands with that guy?"

YOUTH BASKETBALL

In an action packed game, the Bullets out-lasted the Tigers by a score of 28 to 24. In the opening game, the Globetrotters scored a rousing 31 to 19 victory over the 76ers. The Bullets and Globetrotters have finished the season in a tie for first place.

The Bullet-Tiger game was a close game from start to finish with both teams playing very well. Scoring was equally distributed for the Bullets but Sidney Naylor picked up 8 points, mostly on fast breaks, and pulled down six rebounds. Mike Shaum showed the way for the Tigers as he collected 10 points and 5 rebounds and played well defensively.

Paul Reindollar led the Globetrotter attack with 16 points and was ably backed by Paul Sell with 10 points. Sell picked up four rebounds and his passing was very sharp. The 76ers played well but could not hit the hoop consistently.

Next week, Saturday the 19th, the teams will begin a tournament which will conclude on Friday, March 25. March 25 is the date set for Family Night. At that time, parents and friends are invited to come and witness the participation of the youth in the basketball program.

Commitment

Lesson for March 20, 1966

Background Scripture: Luke 9:23-26, 57-62; Romans 12:1, 2; Philippians 2:5-11; Colossians 2:20-23; 3:4; Hebrews 12:1, 2.

Devotional Reading: Philippians 3:7-14.

A young man in college was in love (as his neighbors were not) with his piccolo. By actual check, he spent about nineteen hours a day on that thing. Now you can't spend nineteen hours a day practicing on the piccolo and have much time left for anything else, such as studying. So the boy got a note from the Dean, and the next thing he knew, he was out of college — still

Dr. Foreman playing that piccolo. That's commitment; but not Christian commitment. Commitment means loyalty, devotion, dedication. But there are two or three vital differences between Christian devotion and the devotion of that piccolo artist. Piccolo-devotion is devotion to a thing and what can be done with it; Christian devotion or commitment is devotion to a person and what can be done for Him. The other difference is that piccolo-devotion shuts out everything else, while Christian devotion is woven with everything else. Piccolo-commitment is an occupation making other occupations impossible. Christian commitment is more a style of life than an occupation. For example: Very few men would find it possible to be at the same time a lawyer and a surgeon; but a man can if he chooses, be a good Christian and a good surgeon at the same time.

No holidays

There's still another important difference between the committed Christian and the committed artist, technician, or professional man. The piccolo player can and needs to take a vacation from his music now and then; but the Christian ought not to, and need not, take a vacation from his Christianity. A Christian takes holidays, to be sure, the same as everybody else; but never a holiday from being a Christian. Religion is like love, it calls for full-time devotion. No holidays. Part-time, half-hearted commitment is a contradiction in terms; that is, it can't be devotion and also be half-hearted.

Loyal to whom?

The Christian's loyalty is not something he turns on for certain times each day. It is something life-deep, life-long. It comes out, or fails to come out, in every situation. The committed Christian lives Christianly, — that is the whole thing in a nutshell. We take life's directions from Christ. His word is the last word. But the object of Christian commitment is not a set of ideas. It is loyalty, devotion to a Person first of all. Jesus made declarations about himself which were either true or the utterances of a blasphemous man gone quite mad. He claimed an authority above that of any one in any power structure of the world. He claimed to know the mind of God and man, the right to show us the heart and intention of the Almighty. He claimed the right to order his followers even unto death. He did not say, "If any man would follow me, let him." He said, "If any man would follow me, let him take up his own cross and follow me." Plainly, what he meant was: Following me may lead you to your death. It is He, such a man with such a claim, who demands "the last full measure of devotion" from his followers. There are Christians, still unaware fully of the greatness of the Master, who act timid and ashamed about taking orders from one so far away as Jesus. We need never be ashamed of total commitment to such a Master. He is our Lord, — nearer and greater than we think.

Elegant, Easy Dessert

On Valentine's Day you can serve up a "love" of a dessert that can be prepared in minutes. Your family or your luncheon guests will be delighted with the smooth pink and white "Raspberry Twirl" dessert that caps off a meal with a touch of romance. Here is the elegant—and easy—recipe that has been prepared and tested in the General Electric Housewares Test Kitchens.

Raspberry Twirl

- 1 10 ounce package frozen raspberries, thawed
- ½ pint vanilla ice cream
- 2 cups cold milk
- ½ pint vanilla ice cream

Set aside ¼ cup raspberries. Place remaining raspberries, ½ pint ice cream and milk in Blender jar. Cover. Blend at "HI" 20 seconds. Pour into 3 tall glasses. Top with remaining ½ pint ice cream and ¼ cup raspberries. Yield: 3 servings.

Use the blender, as the instruction booklet recommends, on a clean, dry counter or table. G.E. home economists suggest that the homemaker store her Blender on the counter top so that it will be easily accessible for spur of the moment use. The Blender at G.E. was designed low so that it fits under cabinets for easy storage. It's the answer to speedy meal preparation.

In addition to appetizing desserts, the blender can quickly combine ingredients for dips and spreads, puree cooked foods for babies and convalescents, blend gravies and sauces and homogenize eggs and oil or butter for mayonnaise and hollandaise. The blender is easy to clean. Add a dash of soap flakes or a drop of liquid detergent. Cover. Blend at "LO" about five seconds. Rinse. Cover jar when thoroughly dry.

Letter from Annapolis

Local bills were moving through both Houses in competition with the State bills currently on the legislative griddle.

Many of the major Statewide measures passing the Senate are merely going from the frying pan into the fire however, as the House girds itself for battle over such issues as educational TV, the parallel Bay bridge, Revolving Credit and Implied Consent.

The anti-miscegenation bill failed on the Senate floor and the death penalty measure was sent to the House floor with a tie vote and no recommendation from the Judiciary Committee.

The Educational Television bill was passed with a 20-5 vote in the Senate but was expected to run into trouble in the House over the question of whether the network should be controlled by the Education Department or a separate agency. Maryland would be the first state to have such an authority, an expert told the House Ways and Means Committee.

The Senate Judicial Proceedings Committee voted against an attempt to repeal a bill prohibiting special rates for political advertising, but the bill was approved on the floor. We also heard testimony on three senatorial subcommittee plans for Howard and Montgomery, Prince Georges, Frederick and Carroll and Baltimore Counties.

A bill before the Senate Finance Committee this week would require the counties to submit by January 1, 1970, master plans for sewage and water supply systems.

Senate Bill 471, to exempt Carroll County from the State law on Sanitary Districts passed the Senate last week and was on its way to the House. This would permit us to create our own sanitary district legislation designed to fit the County's needs. A companion bill, SB-472, would create a Sanitary Commission and fix its powers and duties.

Introduced last week were two other measures aimed at protecting the open spaces in Carroll County from the threat of the bulldozer.

S.B.-518 provides for an open space program, while S.B.-519 authorizes $200,000 for the purchases of land for parks and recreation areas.

HAZARDOUS INTERSECTIONS.—We met with State Roads Commission officials, the County engineers, George Grier and John Diven, the County Commissioners Horace Brauning and Robert McKinney recently to request several safety measures at intersections in Carroll County.

I have had several requests for some solution to the hazardous situation at the intersection of Route 97 and Old Route 97 in Taneytown. We asked the Commission to study this problem and also discussed the need for a blinker light at the intersection of Route 91 and 140 at Finksburg, Routes 32 and 97, two more hazardous areas.

Mr. Grier and Mr. Brauning requested that funds be appropriated to widen Route 496 (Old Bachman's Valley Road), and old Route 32 to the City limits of Westminster.

The Commission officials, William Owings and Thomas Mohler, were attentive to the delegation requests and promised to come up with cost estimates and engineering requirements in the near future.

The Ober Law repeal bill, expected to be petitioned onto the House floor this week after the House Judiciary Committee came out with a loud unfavorable vote, is supported by two educational groups in Carroll County.

The bill would repeal a law requiring an anti-subversive oath of loyalty by State employees, and was shouted down in the House committee in what was seen as an election year patriotism demonstration.

The faculty of Western Maryland College has notified me that it favors the repeal of the Act because it is contrary to that freedom of inquiry without which education in the true sense is impossible. All but three members said they also oppose the law as taxpayers because it is "an expensive nullity."

The Western Maryland Chapter of American Association of University Professors, representing 80 per cent of the full time faculty, has urged the erasure of the Ober Act from the Maryland Statutes, saying "It was conceived in an era of panic and frustrations."

The same feeling has been voiced by individual residents of the County. My personal feeling on this much debated bill is that anyone in State employment should not object to taking this loyalty oath.

Thomas R. O'Farrell
Senator from Carroll County
