The play told the sadness of his increasing deafness

the sadness of his increasing deaf-ness! Don't miss that Julie Andrews show still at the "New" which is now over a year old and as I wrote when it first came out. No other movie like it anywhere. You will love it from start to finish. The other night, hope you did not miss her second TV show with Kelly as her partner. That gal is truly loaded with talent and when there was a real close up, one no-tices the sad expression in her eyes. She is the mother of a three-year-old daughter. (I hope there is never a divorce). I do hope to see the pic-ture for the T H I R D time! The other day was the guest of a lady who was just N I N E T Y-S E V E N years of age and she re-minds me of a Queen with all the daughters as "The Ladies in Wait-ing" for they are just that. The let-ter to her from our Governor was beautiful with the huge Gold Seal of Maryland! Her son and daughter in California both sent flowers by plane and they truly were beyond descri-

California both sent flowers by plane and they truly were beyond descri-bing! The table was all aglow with much silver, with two candelabras, each holding five lit candles. What a joy it was too see that wonderful lady at the head of the table and enjoying all the goodies. Now — this!!! If you live in a large apartment house with the Util-ity on one section of the porch hold-ing the heating and air conditioner, be sure you have something against the door real heavy to hold it open. I think the biggest fright in my life happened on Friday night of last week when there was a very high wind and very cold and I without a sweater! I did not know that the door locks automatically — the wind hear it churt and there I was locked door locks automatically - the wind blew it shut and there I was locked I was in there about five minutes in! and banged and banged on the locked door to the other apartment in that utility room and my neighbor heard the banging and came out on her porch. As she opened the door, she was speechless and SO WAS I !!!!! Do you and you realize if my neighbor had not been there what would have happened? No doubt, I would not be writing this Column right now for I could have been locked in there for days! Even if I was missed then who would have thought of looking in such a place? If you like Brigitte Bardot there is an amusing "Vive Maria" at the Pikesville and 5 West with Jean Moreau. It is the year of 1910 and these two girls are traveling with a vaudeville group in Central America. It is so simple and light hearted and full of sparkle (if you like that) with that gal Brigette who really is a comedian which seems to be the best part she ever had (as I never cared for that French gal too much anyway). There seems to be no plot whatsoever. However, I'll stop right there. It is a French picture with English sub-titles, but go to see it anyway. It is very lively! Have a grand week-end and hope "Doc" is enjoying his retirement right there.

Yet, according to a roundup story prepared by the Associated Press and published in many newspapers, there are a number of fanatic groups of the extreme right functioning in that manner. . . . The extent to which they're arming, the facts on their operations, the nature of the threat they pose should be probed and brought out into the open before it gets out of hand."

This does not mean that we will have no unemployment in the future, but at the present time there are unfilled openings for persons with many skills and know-how in many fields. It may be that as long as present conditions continue there should be some adjustment to make better use of those persons who have retired. . . . The skilled workers and executives who have become work-oriented make many plans for the time of retirement, but experience has shown that when that time arrives it brings with it a sense of dislocation and boredom which cannot replace that of usefulness and achievement."

Start with a balloon, twist 'round starched thread and pop! It's an Easter egg. Here's how to do it. First, blow. Blow up an oval balloon. Then drop a ball of colored crochet thread into a solution of 1⁴/₂ cups Niagara instant cold water starch and 2 cups cold water. starch and 2 cups cold water. Soak for several minutes. Leav-ing the ball submerged, pull out a free thread end and wrap balloon. Criss cross thread in all directions. Tuck in the end to held it accord. Swinkle to hold it securely. Sprinkle with glitter. Hang up the fin-ished egg to dry with a clip clothespin. Dry overnight, then pop the balloon and out it will come . . . with a whistle and a whoosh.

To form a basket, wrap thread around the bottom half of a balloon and then across the top to form a handle. Hang up to dry. For a very stiff basket, pat on more starch solution when the basket has dried and dry it once again. One ball of thread will make about three Easter eggs. The basket takes one or two balls, depending on its size.

KEYSVILLE-DETOUR

Greetings to you:

The Ever Ready Sunday School class of the Grace United Church of Christ in Keysville will have a bake sale on Saturday, April 9, in front of The Village Store in Detour beginning at 9 A. M.

Kevin and Kim Wildasin of Westminster were Saturday overnight vis-itors with their grandmother and uncle, Mrs. William Weishaar and Randy on the Forest and Stream Club Road.

Callers last week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cluts of River Dale Farm near Keysville were Mr. and Mrs. near Keysville were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boller of Rocky Ridge, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pryor of Thurmont, Mr. Jack Phillips of Boonsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Kiser of the Keysville Road and Mrs. Ralph Haifleigh of Keymar. Sunday afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Aiken of Machanicsburg. Pa Mechanicsburg, Pa.

James Bramer, student at Luth-eran Seminary in Gettysburg, was the guest speaker on Sunday at Keysville Lutheran Church. His wife, Barbara, who is a cousin to Mrs. Richard Wil-hide, accompanied him. Mr. Bramer welcomed Robert Hast as a new mem-ber on behalf of the church and the choir's anthem was "The Way to Calvary.

The Union Bridge Limestone Boys' Murtray, Extension Agent-Home Eco-nomics, seven of us council members day evening, April 4, at the home of Terry Coshun near Detour. Some of the base of the county clubs and it is a grand way to meet fellow-members. boys are considering growing broilers for an upcoming contest. Arnold Weeks is leader for this group.

Plans are making progress for the upcoming supper and bake sale to be held April 23 at Elmer A. Wolfe School in Union Bridge by the P-TA. Plan on enjoying turkey and oysters and more good food with the rest of the crowd between 4 and 8 P. М. Tickets are on sale now through the school children. Carryouts will be available that day also for 25 cents extra. The donations from families towards the expenses of the supper have been coming in very well though some of the areas have not been heard from as yet. Thanks to everyone from the committee!

Mrs. Emory Yoder, who had been visiting at the Carroll Wilhide home near Detour, went to the Clyde Wilhide home on the Keysville Road last Friday to spend some time with them also. A number of birthday celebrations were held for her last week including the homes of the Myron, Rich-ard and Carroll Wilhide families as well as her visit the previous Monday with the Currens at Clyde Wilhides. Miss Elizabeth Yoder of White Hall spent the weekend at the Clyde Wil-hide home and also made short calls at the homes of the the the at the homes of the other relatives as well.

So many "bugs" going around and many people having "spells" with them. Sorry to learn Libby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coshun, was feeling ill Monday and Tuesday. Hope Billy Weishaar continues to make good improvement after his hospital-ization Mrs. Gertrude Warner, whom attack of the "flu" and a "strep" which opened with the Homemaker's stand Earl Roop is making progress and may soon be able to return home after an extended stay at Annie Warner Hospital. This is good news to his many friends and relatives. Mrs. Luther Keeney is much improved, too, after her hospital stay recently and it is good to see Mrs. Russell Stonesifer able to be around more again. Know the many friends of Mrs. Carroll (Edith) Wilhide were sorry to learn she is again having eye troubles and hope she will continue to respond to medication.

The business meeting was conducted ganist. An offertory organ-piano duet president Mrs. Edward Coshun who 'Low In The Grave' was by Miss 'ged attendance at the District As- Joyce Maus and Mrs. Wantz. Ushers by president Mrs. Edward Coshun who urged attendance at the District Assembly to be held at Snydersburg on April 21. Mrs. William Fleharty will again act as Literature Chairman for the meeting. Easter flowers will be purchased for five of our "shut-ins." It was decided to add to the profit made at the food stand at the farm sale of Mrs. Roland Koons and give $400.00 to the building fund and $5.00 was voted for the special gift fund dren Robin and Randy and Rev. Ron for the Maryland Lutheran Church Susek visited in the Scott Sullivan Women. Plans are now being made for the Mission Study to be held at Keysville Lutheran Church on May 1. It will begin with a light supper at 6 P. M. and the actual program will start about 7 P. M. It will be pre-sented in several "parts" and everyone is invited to attend for as much don't hesitate to come in even if you would feel you would be late for there will be a wealth of material on the theme "Mission: Christian's Calling" and all of it will be worthwhile.

(A free-will offering will be taken over. for the supper also.) In May the On LCW meetings will begin at 8 P. M. was due to the time change.

Will try to pass along more infor-mation as it becomes available about the Mission Study mentioned above for it is a topic that is close (or should be) to each and every one of us. Along with 10 other ladies, I attended a workshop last Wednes-day with Mrs. Frank Fife at the Sunad House and we are all an Synod House and we are all en-thusiastic about the many possibil-ities of this theme. Mrs. Gilbert Stine and I attended the County Project Chairmen's Workshop at Maryland University (along with the other county chairmen) last Thursday and you will undoubtedly be hearing more about that before too long also. This is in connection with the County Homemakers' Clubs. Speaking of homemakers clubs, I had a lovely visit with the Frizellburg Club last Friday afternoon when I gave the lesson. To help Mrs. Mca grand way to meet fellow-members. With 32 clubs in the county, it is an impossibility for Mrs. McMurtray to get around to them all in a month's time. I'll be visiting Myers club to-day (5th), Mt. Pleasant on the 6th and Union Bridge on the 12th. Looking forward to it .

Women met on Monday evening, April 4, with Mrs. James Coshun and Mrs. Richard Wilhide presenting the program "Walk With Me." Christ walked with people from all kinds of families and backgrounds and as Christians, so should we. We should be thinking of people less fortunate than ourselves and how we can help them. Especially those in our own homes, families, communities and churches. Five "word pictures" were presented: about a patient recently returned home from a mental institution, an alcoholic, a retarded child, a girl in a correctional school and an ex-convict. Discussion was held on what some of their needs would be and what we as Christians could and should do to help them. Those who helped present these problems were Mrs. Arthur Clabaugh, Mrs. Roy Baumgardner, Mrs. Gilbert Stine, Mrs. Mrs. John Blanchfield, Sr., and Mrs. Leonard Reifsnider.

The evening "specials" were piano solos by Dean Trout, who played minster. "Little Spring Song," "Through Cen-Specia tral Park" and "Song Without Words," and Gregory Clabaugh, who played "At the Skating Rink," "Birdlings Serenade" and "Evening Chimes."

COLD WEATHER CURTAILS PRE-SEASON TRAINING

Another week-end of unseasonably Another week-end of unseasonably cold weather has forced the Taney-town Tigers to curtail their spring training. Another factor is the lack of a sufficient number of players who showed up for practice. It's unfair of the personnel to do this when manager Bob Fogle gives up his time to be at Memorial Park and then only enough men show up to have a basket. enough men show up to have a basketball game.

Among the early season "missing from action" is pitcher Art Caple, who must share an additional burden of pitching this year because Walt Donohue just might be among the missing when opening day rolls around. Walt's job may keep him from performing this year at Mem-orial Park. Newcomer Britt Fleagle must also round into shape quickly if the Tiger pitching staff is to be effective. The absence of Donohue, as yet uncertain, doesn't seem to bother Skipper Fogle as much as the missing players. We feel, however, if and when the warm weather does finally come around, the players won't be far behind. But now time is a factor in spring training. Taney-town's first game on April 24 is now less than three weeks away. Last week, through a regretable error on my part, we referred to the wrong man as Taneytown's Most

Don Favorite Last Year's M.V.P.

Valuable Player for 1965. Let us leave no doubts as to just who it was - Don Favorite. Sorry about the error, Don. The South Penn League has voted this year to hold the All-Star game at Taneytown's Memorial Park. By the way, the Tiger's season ticket holders will be admitted free on their pass. We will return to the method of past seasons of having the All-Stars from the South Penn League itself play each other. This has proved most popular in the past and will now be continued. The date — Sunday, June 26, at 2 P. M. This will be a great opportunity to see all the stars of the league in action and this will be the first time that Taneytown has been able to play host

The Tigers will be playing some exhibition games this year in order that the team may jell more quickly. Union Bridge and Harney have expressed interest in these "spring training" games. These have not been finalized yet but when they have been you'll read about them first in The Carroll Record.

THE BIBI SPEAKS BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN,

Victory View Lesson for April 10, 1966

Background Scripture: 1 Corinthians 15; Ephesian's 1:5-23; Revelation 7:9-17. Devotional Reading: Ephesians 1:15-23

Within the lifetime of living men it could be truly said that Christianity was growing faster than any other religion in the world. This was true, but not now. Other religions are creeping up on us. Look at Japan for example and figure

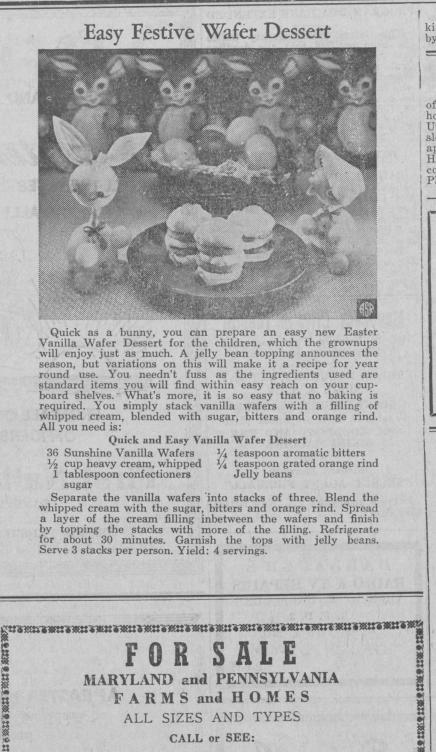

One half of one percent of Japanese are Christians. In other words, the non-Christians outnumber the Christians 200 to one. Dr. Foreman Suppose that for each pair of Christian parents now living, there will be four Japanese in the next generation. Then 30 or so years from now there will be, or can be, twice as many Christian Japanese as there are today. But by that time, there will be twice as many non-Christian Japanese as today. If the non-Christians outnumber the Christ-ians now 200 to 1, how much will they outnumber them in the next generation, assuming they all have about the same number of children?

Population explosion

All over the world the population explosion works against the Christians. We are presently becoming more numerous, to be sure, but no as fast as our rival religionists. It is not only the population growth that is bringing that about. Christianity was enjoying a great prestige in the days when the "Christian" nations were running the world. Now with the decline of colonialism the prestige of western religion has likewise declined. Not only so, but here where our religion has more prestige and influence than ever, the world is very stubborn in its resistance to the ideals and the life of the church. The church stands for God; the contemporary world lives as if God were dead. The church honors the home; the world tears it down. The church preaches chastity and calls unchastity sin; the world (to judge by the movies) finds unchastity merely funny. And so it goes. The church is low-rated so much that even some of her leaders are beginning to call this the post-Christian era. Even the Christian with an optimistic faith must admit that this is for the church a time of weakness and defeat.

J. S. Clagett REAL ESTATE PHONE CODE 301 - 756 - 6519 1-16-tf TANEYTOWN, MARYLAND

Whose victory?

But there is no need to be a pessimist. The Bible's view of the church is a victory view. When we speak of the victory or defeat of the church, what do we really mean? It is not the church alone whose future concerns us. This is the church of Christ. Every true church is his, every defeat and every victory are his also. The church cannot win unless he wins. That would be as absurd as for an army to win while their general was defeated. And if he wins, the church will win. For in spite of every discouragement and setback we persist in believing that Christ will win over all his and our enemies. It is Easter, and one meaning of the Resurrection is a sign and pledge that the God who conquered death, the "man of God's own choosing" whom death could not hold, will in time conquer all other forms of evil, all that is hostile to God.

What Will victory be?

Victory we hope for, but not triumphalism. Triumphalism means the victory of one party over another. A world in which some one denomination had wiped out all the others, so that there would be one Established Church, would be triumphalism, and this is not promised us in Scripture. But if triumphalism is not the shape of Christ's victory, what is? The victory of God when complete will be what and where it is now: in the hearts of men. Christ promised that if he were lifted up he would "draw all men" to himself. No man can be forced to follow Christ. The kingdom of heaven for which we pray will not come by force or bargaining. It comes only where men freely give their heart to the Son of God.

THE FAMILY LAWYER CITY BEAUTIFUL

Not long ago an eastern city ban-ned the use of clotheslines in the front of houses. Although a rebel-lious home owner challenged the val-idity of the law, it was upheld in court. Legal experts reacted vehemently, both pro and con. For the clothesline case touched on a sensitive issue may case touched on a sensitive issue: may a city restrict the use of private property for the purpose of beauti-fying the community?

The issue arises in countless ways. May the owners of roadside property be forbidden to erect billboards? May be forbidden to erect billboards? May the owner of an unsightly junk yard be forced to enclose it with a fence? May a home owner be required to keep his premises from becoming an eyesore to the neighborhood? Clearly the city may act for rea-sons of safety or health. It may in-sist, out of regard for your neighbors' welfare, that your home must not be-come a firetrap or a source of disease. But the law long looked askance at come a firetrap or a source of disease. But the law long looked askance at regulations that were even partly motivated by considerations of beauty. Safety and health were considered matters of necessity, but beauty only a matter of luxury — not urgent enough to justify government tamp-ering with private property rights. Besides, it is relatively easy to agree on what is safe and what is healthful. But what is beautiful? If the city could regulate in the name the city could regulate in the name of beauty, couldn't it—for example of beauty, couldn't it—for example— tell a home owner what color to paint his house? where to plant his shrub-bery? As one judge put it: "Individual taste, good or bad, should ordinarily be let alone by gov-ernment"

Nevertheless, there has been a gradual trend toward letting aesthetics play a larger role in municipal regulation. Beauty, if not yet as necessary as safety or health, is at least considered more necessary than it used to be.

"Our sensibilities have become more refined and our ideals more exacting," wrote one court. And "an eyesore in a neighborhood of residences might a heighborhood of residences might be as ruinous to property values as a disagreeable noise, or odor, or a menace to safety or health." States differ as to just how large the role of beautification may be. But they do agree that it may carry some weight some weight.

"Beauty may not be queen," a judge observed, "but at least it is no longer an outcast, beyond the pale of protection."

A Voice from the House

The regular Session of the 1966 General Assembly adjourned at mid-night March 29 as required by the Constitution. At that time there were Constitution. At that time there were many important pieces of legislation which had not yet been enacted. It was therefore necessary for the Gov-ernor to call a Special Session com-mencing Wednesday, March 30. This Session cannot go beyond thirty days, but is expected to end in approxi-mately three to five days. The major items being considered are congressional re-districting and tax reform for Baltimore City and certain other areas of the State.

tax reform for Baltimore City and certain other areas of the State. The Cooper-Hughes Plan passed the Senate, but failed in the House by two votes. It is not certain whether the Cooper-Hughes Plan will be the subject of the Special Session or not. Some alternative plans are now being recommended.

Certain alternative plans would be highly objectionable to Carroll Coun-ty. For example, if Baltimore City and Baltimore County are authorized to impose a local sales tax or a local income tax from meetic motions in income tax from people working in Baltimore City or Baltimore County, the tax would be collected from Car-roll County residents but our County Government would receive no benefit from it. Other matters which did not pass in the final days of the Session were implied consent (the law which would require operators of vehicles to take a breatholizer test if charged with drunken driving), the reform in the interest and usury law of the State, and certain other matters relating to and certain other matters relating to State employees. Most all local laws for Carroll County were enacted into law with the exception of the proposal for a County-wide Sanitary Law. The County Commissioners already have auth-ority to establish a County-wide Sanitary District. However, in the final weeks of the Session, a Bill was submitted which would allow the Com-missioners to establish a County wide missioners to establish a County-wide Sanitary District reserving to the County Commissioners a considerable amount of authority and jurisdiction over the Sanitary Commission. There were other provisions in the law which were different from the existshould be taken until further study could be made. As a result, the Sen-ator and all of the Delegates unanimously agreed to withhold action on this Bill until the 1967 Session. It is anticipated that the Special

85th Christian Endeavor Banquet

The 85th Birthday Banquet of Car-roll County Christian Endeavor Union was held in the Methodist Stone Chapel Church Hall, Saturday, April 2, at 6:30 P. M. (postponed from Feb. 5, due to snow). The ladies of the host church served a delicious fried chicken dinner to 103 persons attending from Washington, Frederick, Car-roll Counties. Christian Endeavor be-ing an Interdenominational Organi-ration zation there were seven denomina-tions represented thus: Methodist, Lutheran, Brethren, Presbyterian, Evan. United Brethren, Church of God, and United Church of Christ. Five pastors were present, namely: Revs. Gonso, Borleis, Dick, Cecil and Baker. County vice president, Roland E. Rill was banquet chairman and Mrs. Claude Bohn chairman of decorations. President, Mrs. Ruth Weid-ner, welcomed the group and intro-duced the host pastor, Rev. Reginald Cecil, who gave the invocation.

After the meal, toastmaster and J. W. MATHIAS, song leader, Mr. Frank Bohn, Union Bridge, extended greetings, remin-iscences and led group singing. "Christ the Way," was the theme of the banquet and declared "as the only way," by the speaker, Mr. Her-bert Allgire, Wesley Methodist lay-man of Hampstead.
