monial dinner upon the completion of 50 years of continuous service.

The event was observed at Taney Inn last Thursday night. A splendid chicken and ham dinner was served to 40 persons, consisting of the Directors of the Bank and their wives, the employees and a number of special guests.

Mervyn C. Fuss, President of The Birnie Trust Co., called on Rev. Joseph A. Kenney, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, to offer the invocation. Following the meal, Harry M. Mohny, a Director, led group singing with Mrs. George L. Harner as accompanist. Mr. Fuss welcomed the guests and gave a fine testimonial to Mr. Arnold based on his 36 years of association with the bank. He singled out three things as having impressed him greatly — the integrity, the ability, the dedication of Mr. Arnold.

Mr. Arnold first came into employment with the bank in 1916; he was made assistant cashier in 1925 and in 1932 became cashier of the bank and secretary of the board of directors.

As Mr. Fuss presided, many splendid testimonials were given Mr. Arnold. Those who were presented were: vice president George L. Harner and Mrs. Harner, attorney Donald G. Sponseler, Westminster, Rev. Matthai, vice president of Maryland National Bank, Baltimore; Mr. Maryland Bankers Association, and secretary of the Baltimore clearing retary of the Baltimore Clearing House, Baltimore; Mr. H. S. Nolen, chief examiner of the State Banking Department of Maryland, Baltimore; and Mrs. Arnold.

Gifts were presented to Mr. Arnold from the employees by assistant cashier Murray M. Baumgardner; from the directors by president Mervyn C. Fuss.

Mr. Arnold expressed his thanks for the gifts and to all who were present to make this such a fine testimonial affair in his honor.

SCOUT PAPER DRIVE TO BE HELD THIS SATURDAY

A collection of rags, newspapers, and magazines will be conducted in Taneytown on Saturday, May 14, by Boy Scouts of Troop 348, who are under the sponsorship of Hesson-Snyder Post 120 of the American Legion. The Scouts will again be assisted by Guy L. Long, driver of a Cambridge Rubber Co. truck, whose services and vehicle are provided bi-monthly by the company as a contribution to the local Scout movement.

In addition to Taneytown itself, the roads to Mayberry, Copperville, Crouses Mill, Key Village and Bridgeport will be covered, as well as the Baptist Road to Starners Dam and the Harney Road to Piney Creek bridge. Well-tied bundles will promote efficient handling in the short time available for these large collections. In case of unsuitable weather which would prevent starting, a new date will be announced.

Camping Week-end

Twenty-four members of the troop enjoyed a fine week-end at Tumbling Run Leanto along the Appalachian Trail near Old Forge Park. Those present were acting patrol leaders Douglas Dayhoff and Harold Wantz, acting assistant patrol leader Thomas Monthley, patrol scribes David Fleischman, James McKinney, Jr., Michael McKinney and Steven Wantz; Scouts Charles Barnhart, Jr., Wayne Fleischman, Preston Hommerbocker II, Steven Meyer, Leroy Reifsnider, Robert Six, Steven Smith, Robert Stambaugh, George Stonesifer, Edward Thompson, Paul Utz, Jr., and Robert West; Candidates David Fannin, Steven Hann and Glen Smith, assistant Scoutmaster Ronald G. Martin, and Scoutmaster Wilbur O. Thomas.

Menus were planned for four cooking groups by David Fleischman, James McKinney, George Stonesifer and Steven Wantz. Some cooking tests were passed, several hikes taken to nearby points like Chimney Rock and Snowy Mountain Tower, and a bridge built of saplings under the direction of Assistant Scoutmaster Martin. Transportation assistance, besides that of the adult leaders, was rendered by Troop committeeman Clarence A. Harner and the following parents: Roland Krug, Tolbert F. Stonesifer and Norman N. Wantz.

Program and Contest

The inter-patrol contest remains a close race, although the Eagles, headed by Harold Wantz and Monthley, have been in the lead almost from the start. Last week the theme was Compass Dash selected by the Eagle patrol leader, but since our last report the gamut has included Morse signaling, knot tying, dramatics, estimating, first aid, map symbols, and a monthly series devoted to semaphore signaling which resulted in at least two passing this test toward first class rank.

For the first time this season, softball was the game at last week's meeting. Other favorites have included mounted football, British bulldog, guardian patrol leader, rolling dog-bag, cockfight, capture the flag, pony rider relay, and steal the bacon. With the advent of daylight time, outdoor games and themes will be more in order until the time comes to enjoy the swimming afforded at Natural Dam and the entirely outdoor program that is usual there.

New members already accepted through Tenderfoot review by the Green-Bar leaders council have been Uzz of the Eagles and Steve Live-say of the Flaming Arrows, while Thompson and Stambaugh are former members now returned to active status with the Fox and Flaming Arrow patrols. Ronald G. Martin has come back to serve in the important post of assistant scoutmaster. There is also need for additional manpower at this level or even higher.

With numerous recruits, there is yet room, since only the Raccoon patrol lead by Dayhoff and Brett Fleagle are at their full strength of eight.

A troop board of review for advancement in Scout rank is needed and will shortly be announced.

Paper Collection

Scouts able to help with the scrap drive Saturday are requested to report by 7:45 A. M. In the event of rain or unsuitable weather, a new day will be publicized. Radio announcement over WHVR and WTTR will signal any necessary change of plan.

LITTLE LEAGUE NEWS

Little league practice has been hampered by inclement weather and wet grounds; but the managers feel their teams will be ready for action on schedule.

I have had interviews with the managers about the coming season. They all say "We are going to be hard to beat." Let's go fans and see who is right.

It takes quite a staff of personnel to organize and function a little league of our size. Last week I named the managers and their teams. I would like to take this opportunity to mention the coaches. Elwood Harner, Lee Thomas, George Clingan, Fred Gonder, Robert Waddell, George Motter. These men are of great value to our little league for their baseball talent and leadership. There are many more enthusiastic citizens in our community that are associated with our little league, but contribute in different ways. This is what make little league baseball in our community a wonderful organization.

First game scheduled for next Monday, May 16, at 6:00 P. M. Help start the season off with your attendance at this important activity to bolster these young citizens.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE"

(Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning a smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth; I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer. Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

It was truly breath-taking as I entered my favorite store, "The Hecht Co.", in Baltimore, for the 6th annual "Festival of Flowers" on the entire first floor! The theme was "AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL!" And it was just that! It is the store's display as their special tribute to the Mothers of Maryland! Nothing could have been finer!

As I walked around to the various displays somehow the State of Maryland with the Peonies, Delphinium, the Azaleas, the Lily and the Snapdragons held me there longer than any other place and I said to myself, "that is truly all Maryland!"

There was Louisiana, "The Pelican State" with the Magnolia, Gardenia, Loquat Tree, Dwarf Date Palm, Camelia and the Spanish Moss. Puerto Rico, "The Star of the Antilles," with the Bougainvillea, the Coffee Tree, Banana Tree, Dragon Tree and the Parrot Flower. The state of California, "Golden State" with the Carnation of all different colors, Sentinella Cactus, Spanish Bayonet, California Anemone, Bird of Paradise and the Fan Palm. Plus the two figures right there!

Oregon, "The Beaver State," is known for the Rhododendron due to the climate and also known for their roses as the Rose Capital of America. Tulip, Daffodil and Easter Lilly. Then the grand state of Florida, "The Sunshine State," for the Mohogany Tree, Autograph Tree, Chicle Tree, Calamondin Orange, Gladiola and Pom-pom Chrysanthemums. All was so beautiful and colorful that I touched some of the flowers! No wonder my ancestor, Juan Florian Ponce deLeon felt it was the place to find one's youth again! And did you know that his first name was given for the state of Florida which meant the state of flowers (Florian)?

Ah! And there was "COLUMBIA—the Gem of the Ocean," with the flag of red, white and blue flowers, consisting of: Carnations, daisies, Pom-pom Chrysanthemums, Cornflowers and Delphinium!

The delightful fragrance greeted one as they entered the revolving door. Everything was potted and all for real and all flown in for the occasion. Who could doubt the Wisdom of all this beauty in back of it all? All those who had even the smallest part is to be congratulated!

Frankly, I did not want to leave the store but had to return once again just to walk around and say, "Thank You, God!"

It really is good for the soul and you leave with such happiness in your heart and a smile upon your face!

It all makes me think of the elaborate Christmas decorations in the Wanamaker store in Philadelphia. Well, folks there is just no other store in Baltimore like THE HECHT COMPANY!

Now, as to the movie, "A Patch of Blue at the Charles." Shelley Winters was presented in the "OSCAR" as you know for being the most co-operative actress, plays the mother part. It truly is a tear jerker and very sentimental. The story is about a blind girl whose life is grim and who exists in a tenement with her mother and grandfather. These two characters in the story. Such a mother! One hardly could believe any mother could be in any way to compare with her as to the existing and her type of life and abuse of this daughter who earns her keep by stringing beads! The girl does all the housework and is constantly slapped by the mother who locks her in the apartment. One day, she manages to get out in a nearby park which is the biggest venture of her life with the sunshine, the fresh air and the aroma of flowers. She meets Poltiter (a night-shift newspaper man) who is most sympathetic and in a number of meetings teaches her how to use a phone and how to make her way along the city streets. He is the only person who has ever helped her—the only friend she has ever known—and they soon fall in love, she being unaware of he being Colored. The story, Miss Hartman as Selina is so very natural and touching as she manages to survive the bare existence.

I'll leave the rest for you! Have a grand week-end, be most careful when you drive. Until next week D. V.

I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

FACTS AND OPINIONS

Joe Skubitz, U. S. Representative from Kansas believes that, "Promoting the welfare of our people at home, safeguarding the health of our nation, cleaning up our rivers, beautifying our highways, and purifying the air we breathe are all worthy projects. But let us first give our undivided attention to removing the bridges that carry supplies to our enemies in Viet Nam, clean up the gunsmoke-polluted air that hovers over our boys in Viet Nam and threatens their lives, and take care of the immediate and future needs of our young men who are risking their lives to preserve our freedom!"

"The future really rests with human beings, not with machines," William A. Clark of the Monsanto Company of St. Louis said. "We have the machine capability. We have some good techniques, and in the minds of some of the newer graduate students, we have some ideas for still better techniques. What we need to solve is a people problem."

Robert P. Gerholz, President of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, said, "The federal government moves in with federal subsidies and 'red tape programs' that turn communities into bureaucratic provinces whenever business leaders fail to give leadership to community planning."

The Richmond, California, Independent says: "Public utility companies are always convenient whipping boys. Public officials never fail to sound off against them whenever they need a cause celebre—it's good politics and bad business. Public ownership solves no problems, as the recent New York subway strike should clearly indicate."

According to the National Association of Manufacturers: "While statutory guidelines for determining patent rights to inventions developed under Government contracts are desirable, they should be carefully spelled out so as to encourage private industry to continue to invest millions in research and development with the understanding that fair and equitable patent protection will be assured."

Drivers who smoke are involved in four times as many accidents as non-smokers, a recent Columbia University study showed. No explanation of the increased rate was given, but James L. Malfetti, Ph.D., director of the school's safety education project, said that smoke fumes can impair vision, and that trying to light a cigarette, cigar, or pipe while steering a car "is an invitation to disaster."

Increased employment and prosperity for Wyoming are promised by Senator Gale McGee's coal resources development bill which would amend the mineral leasing act to eliminate present restrictions which discourage the commercial development of extensive publicly and privately-owned coal deposits in railroad land-grant areas. The proposal of the power industry to construct a vast network of new power plants in the western states close to fuel supplies has stimulated great interest.

A Michigan State University professor of political science says the most terrible bomb in the world is not thermonuclear but the "population bomb." Lawrence Battistini declared the world's population has grown to about 3 billion people today; will double to 6 billion by the year 2000; and then will double again to 12 billion human beings by the year 2030. He also said, "It's a terrifying thing . . . very frightening."

Evangelism Mission

Rev. Dr. Raymond Shaheen

The Rev. Dr. Raymond Shaheen, Pastor of St. Luke Lutheran Church, Silver Spring, Md., will present messages of special interest and challenge to the congregation of Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown and the entire community on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, May 22, 23 and 24 during the 2nd Great Evangelism Mission sponsored by Trinity.

The services will begin at 8:00 P. M. and end at approximately 8:40. Following the services, Pastor Shaheen will meet with various groups for informal conversation: On Sunday, May 22, he'll talk with young people, grades 7 through 12; on Monday, May 23, he'll meet with women; and on Tuesday, May 24, he'll converse with men.

Pastor Shaheen's topics for the three evangelism services are "God in the Middle of a Street" (Sunday), "The Blind Man Who Heard" (Monday), and "A Blind Man Who Saw" (Tuesday). Scriptural reference for all three services is St. Luke 18:31-43.

Special music will be provided by a youth choir on Sunday, a women's choir on Monday and a men's choir on Tuesday.

Born in Williamsport, Penna., Dr. Shaheen attended the Montoursville, Penna. public schools and received his A. B. degree in 1937 from Susquehanna University. He graduated with a B. D. degree from the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary in 1940, and received an honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1962 from Gettysburg College.

His first pastoral charge was at Messiah's Lutheran Church, Williamsport, from 1940 to 1956; in 1956 he assumed his present charge as pastor of Saint Luke Lutheran Church in Silver Spring. In addition to his regular pastoral duties, Dr. Shaheen has preached at various Religion in Life Weeks on college campuses and participated in a special preaching mission in India in 1964. He has conducted study tours to Europe and the Near East and travelled around the world in 1964 on a special church mission.

Retreats for pastors, young people, adults and overseas missionaries have also been led by the Mission's speaker.

Dr. Shaheen is the author of "Musings of a Minister," "Letters to David and Jon" and "Traveler's Notebook," and of sermons for national publication.

Having served as a member of the Board of Deacons Work, and the Commission on Evangelism of the Lutheran Church in America, Dr. Shaheen is currently a member of the LCA Board of World Missions.

TIGERS CLOBBER HARNEY, 26-3

Taneytown Opens at Home Sunday Against Littlestown

Taneytown erupted for 14 runs in the second inning and went on to soundly trounce the Harney Bombers, 26-3, Sunday at Harney Community Field.

Seventeen men to the plate in that wild frame and although the Tigers had only three hits, they made them count for all the runs. The Harney pitchers helped our cause with six walks, one hit batsman and some very loose fielding. All in all, Taneytown collected only 16 hits during the game, but they counted when they were batted. In the extra-base hit department, "Scooter" Pfoutz rapped a triple and Jim Head banged a double.

★ Star of the Game ★

The batting leaders were Graham Wildasin and Brett Fleagle with three hits apiece and Arvin Bollinger and "Scooter" with two safeties each.

The Tigers finally opened the 1966 South Penn League season in a rousing way after all the postponements. Manager Bob Fogle cleared his bench in the free swinging contest and everyone saw action. Many players were in strange positions late in the game, but that didn't seem to hurt their hitting. Actually this wasn't the most runs ever run up by a Tiger team, last year Taneytown scored a 27-3 triumph over Mummaburg.

Fred Shank garnered the honor of scoring the first Tiger tally of the season when he crossed the dish in the second on a Bomber error. Pitcher Brett Fleagle rapped the first safety also in the second frame, a shot over a first baseman's head good for two rbi's.

Encouraging also was the work of "sore shined" Art Caple who finished up in the pitching department in the seventh inning. All through spring training, Art has had a mysterious ailment in his shoulder. X-rays proved negative and the doctor thinks it might just be muscular troubles. Heat and work will be the cure according to the "doc."

This week at home against Bob Weaver and the Littlestown "Littions" at 2 P. M.

SPORTS

THE WAY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports — John Breth

Manager Bill Rigney of the California Angels was asked during spring training what he thought of rookie outfielder RICK REICHAERT.

"Rick has everything it takes to succeed Mickey Mantle as the big star of the American League."

When Reichardt, a muscular but modest 24-year-old, heard about Rigney's high appraisal of him, he said: "A second Mantle? Let's just say I'm happy to be the first Reichardt."

Rick added: "I think I'm ready to play in the majors and I'm grateful to Mr. Rigney for his confidence in me. Now I want to justify it."

It has not taken Reichardt long to justify Rigney's confidence in him. In the first month of the season, Rick has demonstrated that he can hit with power and hit for a high average. Already inserted as the Angels' cleanup hitter, Reichardt has smashed six homers and is batting .312.

Those figures far overshadow those of the ailing Mantle. The gallant New York Yankee outfielder has yet to hit his first homer of the season and has driven in only five runs.

Oddly enough, the Yankees were one of more than a dozen teams to offer Reichardt a huge bonus in 1964, after Rick had led the Big Ten Conference in hitting for two consecutive years. The Angels topped the bidding with a bonus estimated between $175,000 and $200,000, one of the largest in baseball history. Now, Rigney says: "It was the best thing we ever did when we outbid the Yankees for Rick — they figured he would be Mantle's replacement."

Reichardt may never equal Mantle's magnificent accomplishments, but Angel officials and fans think he will give it a large try. Rick is well equipped physically. He stands six-foot-three, weighs about 210 pounds and has run the 100-yard dash in nine and eight-tenths seconds. As for his ability, Reichardt now has to prove that he can hit as consistently as Mantle once did. Rick is certainly off to a good start.

WILLIE MAY has started a new year, having celebrated his 35th birthday last week.

The one-time "wonder boy" of the Polo Grounds has become a baseball elder statesman and you wouldn't be stretching it at all if you called him the assistant manager of the San Francisco Giants.

A lot of baseball men think that Willie may one day be the first Negro to manage a major league team . . . and that day may be closing in fast.

Willie now advises manager Herman Franks of the Giants on everything but the stock market. And don't rule that out. In addition to everything else, Willie now is rated a .400 hitter in things financial, and with a friendly San Francisco banker looking over his shoulder he does all his own negotiating.

Willie became the all-time home run king of the National League on last Wednesday night when he drilled an outside pitch from southpaw Claude Osteen of the Dodgers over the right field fence at Candlestick Park. That was home run number 512.

Sometime this season he should roll right on by Ted Williams, who hit 521, and then Jimmy Fox, who connected for 534 homers. After that there will be only one name between Mays and the all-time home run throne. But that name is still far over the horizon. It is that of Babe Ruth, who hit 714 homers in his major league career, most of them for the New York Yankees.

If Willie is to catch the Babe he will have to play at least five more years and perhaps more. He thinks he can hold out until 40 and he'd just as soon add a couple of years on to that figure. That is one of the reasons for Willie's rest program, which sees him taking a day off when he doesn't feel up to playing.

There is plenty of precedent for going past 40. Stan Musial was closing in on 43 when he quit after the 1963 campaign. He hit 255 that year. The peerless Ted Williams was nearing 42 when he hit 316 in 1960.

If Willie can hit close to 40 homers a year and continue playing until he is 42 he almost certainly will pass Babe Ruth and become the number one home run producer of major league baseball.

Today's Sport Laugh—Head coach Duffy Daugherty of Michigan State has an Hawaiian player on his squad, Dick Kenney, who does all of his kicking barefooted.

According to Daugherty, Kenney always looks sad. And the coach says he has discovered why. Says Daugherty with a grin: "I've found out his foot hurts."

FALLING RAIN

O what a barren place would be this earth—

Arid, desolate and swept with pain, Riddled by famine, want and bitter death—

Without the healing balm of falling rain.

No grass would grow, no lovely flowers bloom,

No growing thing could lift its head again.

MUSIC FORUM . . .

by Dennis O. Baumgardner

Perry Como—a man of unnumbered talents with vocal music—was widely acclaimed at the beginning of the 1955 television season. As many of us remember, it was unveiled on Saturday night. The success of the program was immediate, with critics as well as viewers enjoying his easy-going entertainment.

In 1959, Como, having had four successful seasons on his Saturday night show, was moved to Wednesday night. Como was very big and popular to TV audiences, and, by then, on records to his listening audiences.

Not long ago a Broadway talent agent said, and I quote, "If I was the State Department, I'd take this Como and send him to every country in the world—as a sort of an Abe Lincoln of American singers." According to this same agent, Perry Como was, 20 years ago, cutting hair at 15 dollars a week and now he averages one million dollars a year.

And it would be hard to find anyone who would not agree with the evaluation that Perry is one of the easiest personalities in TV and Hollywood "to get along with."

His secret lies in the fact that his unique and typical, relaxed presentation of songs relaxes but also brings pleasure to his listening audience. May I take the liberty to say also that he is the same relaxed person to watch on TV.

Let's look into his background of becoming a star and well-known personality. He was born in Canonsburg, Pa. Although he liked music his greatest ambition was to become the "best darn barber" in all Canonsburg. In 1933 he joined Freddy Carlon's band in Ohio and three years later he moved on up to Ted Weem's Orchestra and his first record dates. He almost was ready to leave the entertainment field and return to his barber's chair when NBC brought him back to sing for NBC's Supper Club.

From there he went on to sell 400,000,000 discs. Perry Como is the only person in history, including the Beatles, to reach the "Magic Million Copies" with ten records.

To end our music career of Perry Como would be to say music had ceased to exist, he will live on forever, and if there be any doubts to this statement, answer this question, "Can any other barber equal his record?"

I will be seeing you next week with another Music Forum with another TV and movie recording star, one whom has received a great deal of recognition in her latest film, "Where The Boys Are"—none other than Connie Francis.

Huge Hybrids

These award-winning pansies are the Giant Majestic mixture. The bloom at the bottom, right, is Majestic White with Blotch; a white and purple variety which also won a prize for 1966.

There are pansies—and then again there are the new hybrid pansies. Because of these newcomers you can forget all your ideas of how tall pansy plants grow, how large their flowers are and how long they bloom. The hybrids make all this knowledge obsolete.

The hot summer weather doesn't mean a thing to hybrid pansies. They keep right on flowering even if spent blooms are not picked. They produce truly enormous blooms, three inches and more across, and there is a continuous succession of them opening on plants up to 7 inches tall.

For the first time in history pansies may be recommended for use as bedding plants, to bloom during summer just as do other more widely grown annuals.

With these facts in mind you will readily understand why two of the All-America Selections awards were given to hybrid pansies. One was presented for a mixture called Giant Majestic which contains many flower colors. The other was given to an enormous white pansy set off by a central blotch of purple. This variety is sold under the name of Majestic White with Blotch.

You'll have to act fast to have these prize-winning new pansies in your garden this year. Order the seeds immediately from your favorite seedsman. Plant them early in the house or in a cold frame, hotbed or greenhouse. Transplant as soon as soil is workable and then wait for the admiration of your friends and neighbors.

ODD Complaints . . . by Thompson

In California, a woman complained that someone was breaking into her house nightly—and leaving money in her purse!

A farmer in Lodi, Italy, charged that someone had slipped into his pasture and snipped the tails off his 39 cows!

An Illinois restaurant owner complained that a man came in looking for a bite to eat—on horseback!

In Hanau, Germany, a hotel manager was accused of unfair competition—turning bedbugs loose in a competitor's hotel!

A Columbus, Ohio, complaint charged that six unemployed men were gambling in the waiting room of the Unemployment Compensation Office!

The two things that "answer" the most complaints are the police and pure aspirin! Recently the 100 billionth Bayer Aspirin tablet was produced.

Anesthetics	Antidiarrheals	Cold preparations	Laxatives	Salt tablets

Medicines and Drugs Used Externally

Many items which are not deductible are sometimes claimed as medicines and drugs on Federal Income Tax returns. For example, one may not consider toothpaste, toiletries, or cosmetics in this category.

Where any doubt exists concerning the deductible or non-deductible nature of any pharmacy item, you should obtain the advice of the local Internal Revenue Service Office.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Union Sunday School Lessons

Coup

Lesson for May 15, 1966

Background Scripture: II Kings 11 through 12; II Chronicles 22 through 24.

Devotional Reading: Isaiah 26: 1-7.

A little girl who lived with her parents, missionaries in an Oriental city, came running to her mother's room early one morning. Shots were being fired in the streets. "What's that?" the little girl asked. Her mother answered sleepily, "Oh, another coup, I guess." "Then that's all right," said her daughter, "it's all the same no matter who wins," and off she went happily to bed again.

Dr. Foreman Coup is the modern name for what used to be called a palace revolution and also a revolt, a sudden military strike intended to put the reigning administration out of power (by imprisonment or death) and install new men in their place. Our Bible assignment this week tells of a successful coup organized by a priest, a coup that really was worthwhile, one that lasted at least a century longer than most coups do.

WHY THEY DID IT

Athaliah, the queen in residence, was definitely a "bad egg". She began her public career by killing all her grandchildren. This was even worse than it sounds. Athaliah was not a Hebrew, but a foreigner — a daughter of the unscrupulous and unspeakable Jezebel. The throne of the kingdom of Judah belonged by popular will and the providence of God to the family of David. By killing off her grandchildren, Athaliah thought she would have "established" her claim to the throne. And so she would, if she had really killed all the children. But there was one small baby she did not know about (she was not the kind of grandmother who keeps up with all her family). This baby, named Joash, or Jehoash, was hidden in a bedroom belonging to the high priest. There he stayed for seven years, unknown to all but a trusted few. The whole nation accepted Athaliah because they thought they had no choice. So her irresponsible tyranny went on for seven years, while the good priest Jehoiada (incidentally, he was of royal family connections also) bided his time.

HOW THEY DID IT

The big coup came off on a Sabbath. The high priest managed it down to the last detail. You can read those details for yourself in the Bible. Essentially the plan called for tripling the number of soldiers on duty at what we would call "church time", introducing the boy king to the army men, and what a thrill it must have been to see a real live lawful king, even a child, after seven years of Athaliah! and hailing the young heir to the throne as King of Judah. Athaliah was a little late getting to the temple court, and saw that something had happened. Then when she heard the shouting "Long live the King!", she turned on the high priest. "Treason!" she screamed. But she was (no doubt) pointing her finger at the high priest and the boy king, whereas she should have been pointing at herself. Anyway, in a few minutes the soldiers carried out their orders, and "the wicked old witch was dead."

THINKING ABOUT COUPS

So the people were as happy over this coup as they had been unhappy over Athaliah's. All this gives us something to think about, in our world where coups of one sort or another are being pulled all the time. — Santo Domingo, Cuba, Jakarta, Korea, Congo, Moscow, to name a few in recent months. The Bible gives us some hints of how to look at these things. Some coups, rebellions, political shake-ups, are good, some are bad. Few are wholly bad, few wholly good. Athaliah's own coup was wickedly selfish. The coup that killed her was unselfish since the high priest ran a good deal of risk and could get nothing personal by the event. Force, even violence is in itself not good nor bad. Whether it is a blessing or a curse depends on who uses the force, and how, and why.

NOTICE

It has come to the attention of the Mayor and City Council that the discharging of firearms within the Corporate limits of Taneytown is becoming a fairly common practice.

Not only is this extremely dangerous; it is in direct violation of Ordinance No. 145:

ORDINANCE NO. 145 PASSED SEPTEMBER 17, 1945

An ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to repeal Ordinance No. 6" and re-enacted the same so as to read as follows:

SECTION 4: Be it enacted and ordained that the unnecessary discharging of pistols or guns or firearms of any kind or fireworks or inflammable articles of any kind shall forfeit and pay a fine of not less than $10.00 to $50.00, or 30 to 90 days in jail or both.

A .22 calibre projectile was recently discovered lodged in the side of one house, approximately two feet from a window. The depth of penetration indicated a fairly close range.

In view of the foregoing, the Council hereby declares its intention to prosecute, to the fullest extent of the law, anyone found in violation of the Firearms Ordinance.

MEETING OF
LADIES AID SOCIETY

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Harney, met on Tuesday evening, May 3, with Mrs. Clyde Frock, the vice-president, presiding.

The meeting was opened by singing, "Love Divine" and "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me." Mrs. Ernest Fream read Psalm 20 for the scripture, followed with prayer by Miss Treva Ridinger.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, followed by roll-call with 15 members present.

A thank-you note was read from Mrs. Russell Wanta for the planter she received from the society while she was in the hospital; also for the cards that were sent to her.

The society voted to purchase a stove and refrigerator to be placed in the basement of the church for social activities of the church. But through some misunderstanding it was told that they were already ordered, but the society decided to pay for them if there were no other arrangements made.

A letter was read with information about selling Marion-Kay products for cash or premiums, to help your organization, but was decided not to take it up at this time.

A committee was appointed to decide if there would be a public supper served in June, for the building fund.

Those to arrange a program for the next meeting are Miss Treva Ridinger, Mrs. Charles Shildt and Mrs. Edna Snider. Mrs. Ralph Weikert to read the bible and Mrs. Dorothy Weidner to have prayer.

The following program was given: Miss Donna Weikert sang, "No Man Is An Island," and "Mother," accompanied on the piano by her mother; several selections by the Junior Choir, directed by Miss Mary Katherine Shildt; Miss Treva Ridinger gave two readings.

The meeting was closed by all repeating the Lord's Prayer. The next meeting will be June 7 at 8:00 P. M.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL NEED

"Encouraging but insufficient" were the words used by the Rev. Howard W. Miller, this year's supervisor of the Community Vacation Bible School, to describe the initial response to the call for teachers and helpers. So far, seven teachers and seven helpers, plus two general workers have been signed to staff the school. This leaves a real need for eight additional teachers and 14 additional helpers.

Recently, in pointing up the school's need for teachers and the need for people to respond, Pastor Miller declared that, "if there's an easier thing to say than, 'Let George do it,' it is 'Let Jane do it.'" He urged all young women who may have declined when first called to use their womanly prerogative to change their minds and to help.

Teachers (adults and youth entering at least grade 11 in the fall) and helpers (adults and youth entering at least grade 9 in the fall) may call the recruiters assigned to the various churches: Baust UCC, Pastor Johnson; Grace UCC, Mrs. Anna Motter; Messiah EUB, Mrs. Marjorie Zent; Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Margaret Poole; Trinity Lutheran Church, Mrs. Betty Naylor.

A training session for teachers and helpers has been set for Sunday, May 22, 2 P. M., at Trinity Lutheran Church.

This year's Community Vacation Bible School will be held the two weeks immediately following public school closing, June 20-24, June 27-July 1, Monday-Friday each week, 9-11:30 A. M. each day.

RABIES VACCINATION CLINICS
TO BE HELD

Rabies vaccination clinics for dogs will be conducted in Carroll County on two Sundays, May 15 and May 22. Dr. Theodore R. Shorp, County Health Officer announced. The purpose of the mass vaccination program is to prevent possible outbreaks of rabies in Maryland dogs.

Rabies is more than just a hazard to pets, the Health Officer states, for rabies constitutes a health threat to families who own dogs and to members of the community. He explained that the rabies virus can be transmitted to humans by the bite of a rabid dog or other warm blooded animals. Therefore, a judgment as to the necessity of giving the rabies treatment must be made each time an animal bites a human. In Maryland, during the past year, rabies has been diagnosed in the fox, squirrel and bat population.

Rabies vaccine to be used for the inoculations gives vaccinated dogs immunity for two years, Dr. Shorp said.

Rabies Vaccination Clinics are scheduled to be held at 2:00 P. M. to 4:00 P. M. on Sunday, May 15 and May 22 at the following:

Westminster at Fire Hall,
Manchester at Fire Hall,
Winfield at Stem Implement Co.

If your dog is over 4 months of age and has not been vaccinated, or you are not sure a two-year vaccine was used within the past two years, take the dog to any one of the clinics. Additional injections will not harm the pet. This is an all-out effort to vaccinate all dogs in the area and it is immaterial where they are from. Dogs from other counties and Pennsylvania will be accepted. License status of a dog has no bearing on whether a dog is vaccinated or not. Dr. Shorp stressed that the persons who bring dogs must be able to keep their dogs under control while at the clinic.

There will be a charge of $1.00 for each dog vaccinated. Most people will realize this is a real bargain and he hopes everyone takes advantage of this opportunity.

By the time a man recognizes his faults his bad habits have a stranglehold on him.

When newlyweds feather their nests today, usually four parents have been plucked.

LUTHERAN WORLD ACTION
SUNDAY

Annual emphasis on the denomination's world-wide programs of spiritual and material aid will be observed by Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, on Lutheran World Action Sunday, May 15.

Now in its 27th consecutive year, the observance focuses on the overseas relief, rehabilitation, and interchurch aid programs undertaken jointly by the member church bodies of the National Lutheran Council.

This year's Lutheran World Action goal is $4,574,831. It is sought through the benevolence budgets of the NLC church bodies—the Lutheran Church in America and the American Lutheran Church—and through specially-designated gifts.

Similar emphasis was placed on world-wide need and corresponding assistance efforts by American Protestantism during an interdenominational observance earlier this year known as "One Great Hour of Sharing Sunday." Like LWA Sunday, it is conducted nationwide. The emphasis is undertaken by Church World Service, the overseas aid arm for most Protestant and Eastern Orthodox communions in this country affiliated with the National Council of Churches.

The appeal highlighted the combined goals established by participating churches for both their denominational and interdenominational programs of emergency assistance and continuing service around the globe. Nearly $18,000,000 will be sought under the collective goal.

While announcing the special observance, the Rev. Howard W. Miller, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, noted that LWA represents a major item in the congregation's benevolence goal of $15,623 for this year.

One of the principal recipients of LWA funds is the Lutheran World Federation, an international body of 72 member churches with a combined membership of more than 55 million members in more than 40 countries around the globe.

Its activities include interchurch aid, community development, self-help projects, missions, and theological studies. It also aids refugees and minority churches, educational, vocational training and medical institutions as well as orphanages.

Another recipient of LWA funds is Lutheran World Relief, an agency serving the NLC and the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod Board of World Relief in Christian social service programs overseas, mainly in projects involving material aid.

The agency gathers more than six million pounds of clothing annually for distribution abroad. It also distributes hundreds of tons of food, medicines and other relief supplies to the needy throughout the world.

According to the Rev. Mr. Miller, the congregation here has gathered 909 pounds of clothing thus far this year and more than 800 pounds last year.

The food shipped abroad by LWR is primarily surplus commodities supplied by the United States government under its Food for Peace program. It includes such items as powdered milk, wheat, flour, corn and edible oils.

In addition, LWA funds are used for ministries to Armed Forces personnel, assistance for immigrants and refugees, and a number of interdenominational projects, carried out cooperatively.

Since the first LWA appeal in 1940, it has served as a channel for more than $83,000,000 in American contributions for spiritual and material aid abroad.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET
OF WAKEFIELD CHURCH OF GOD

The annual Mother-Daughter Banquet of the Wakefield Church of God, sponsored by the Willing Workers Circle, was held Tuesday evening, May 10, in the United Church of Christ, Taneytown. A very tasty dinner was served by the ladies of the church to 100 mothers, daughters and their guests. Mrs. Gloria Williams, teacher of the Ladies Bible Class, offered the blessing.

Following the introduction of those present, Mrs. Evelyn Barnes answered the question "Is Motherhood Honorable in the Sight of God?" Mrs. Chris Dick presented "A Story to Tell." Mrs. Irene Danner followed with "The Secret." Mrs. Danner also read the 10 household rules of Mrs. Susanna Wesley, mother of the great gospel song writers, John and Charles Wesley. Though written many years ago, these rules, if followed today, would result in many changes in our homes.

"I Would Rather Be A Mother" was recited by Mrs. Effie Grimes. Another recitation, "Grandma's Radio," was given by Mrs. Virginia Keefer. Mrs. Charlotte Knouse presented the old, old poem, "Which Shall It Be?" the story of a mother and father who were asked to give away one of their seven children, in exchange for land and wealth.

Mrs. Hannah Mae Boone was honored as "A Wonderful Mother" for her fine contribution to Christian motherhood and her devotion to God and her church. She is the mother of eight children and grandmother of 18 grandchildren and has served for more than 20 years as teacher of the Beginner Class at the Wakefield Church. A souvenir booklet of the evening's program and a gift of appreciation were presented to her for her faithful service.

Mrs. Pauline Boone, president of the Willing Workers Circle, presented the following awards: oldest mother (87), Mrs. Annie Keefer; youngest mother (21), Mrs. Darlene Spielman; mother with the most daughters (6), Mrs. Hattie Leister, and mother with the youngest daughter (7 months), Mrs. Barbara Lee Garity.

Mrs. Janet Miller, her daughter Sharon, her mother Mrs. Edith Stone-sifer and her grandmother Mrs. Emma Bowers, were all present representing a four-generation family.

Gifts were presented to each guest. Mrs. Irene Danner offered the closing prayer. Recordings of sacred organ music were played throughout the program.

FAIRVIEW

What a beautiful day, Tuesday, the wash is drying so nice, even if they did freeze. It is unusual for this time of year to be so cold. Some have plants planted out in beds and they got nipped. I hope the garden vegetables did not freeze.

Visitors the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Grant Baker at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Duble and son were Rev. and Mrs. Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baker, Miss Mildred Coleman, Mrs. Katy McKally, Herman and Sterling Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baker, Mable Smith, Claude Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Frock, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Selby.

We are sorry to learn Mrs. Cora Crouse is in the hospital. Her address is The Greater Baltimore Medical Center, 4th Floor, Room 4616, 6701 N. Charles St., Baltimore, Md. 21204.

Mrs. Melvin Groft is in the Carroll County General Hospital, Westminster. We wish both of them a speedy recovery. We are glad to know Mrs. Harvey Palmer of New Windsor has returned to her home after being in the Frederick Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Frock were supper guests in the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Adkins and family on Saturday.

In talking to a neighbor this morning I inquired as to how she spent her Mother's Day and if she had her family all home. She informed me that nearly all were sick and those not sick had moved over the weekend; so she said, "My Mother's Day was not so bright." I am sure there were quite a number of mothers who were in sympathy with her—as I picked up the paper and saw where 6 persons died within 30 minutes; 3, 21-year-old youths died in the weekend accidents and just 15 minutes earlier two 20-year-old youths were killed; and a quarter of an hour before that a 35-year-old man was killed. So there we have it—where others suffer pain, heartaches and sorrows. That is why God's word tells us to be prepared to meet thy God.

Visitors Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Frock were Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Stair and son, James, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carl and children, David, Daniel and Deborah, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frock. Little Dianna Shorb of Littlestown, daughter of Mrs. Robert Frock had her tonsils removed at the Annie Warner hospital, Gettysburg, Monday morning. She is getting along fine.

Ageless Mothers
(Isabel Gray)

We talk about our mothers,
With their "crowns of silvery hair,"
And I'd rather think about them,
Than the make-believes some wear.
But I like to think of one,
With eyes of brightest blue,
That twinkled like her "littlest,"
When His love came shining through.

Her hair was never white to me,
Just a lighter shade to blonde,
And her age, though over ninety,
Held that youthful, happy bond.
That is ageless, like the Master,
Yet wise with wisdom's ways,
With love and understanding
That sustained her all her days.

"We read about mothers,
Of the days of long ago,
With their gentle, time-worn faces,
And their hair of whitest snow;
They were middle-aged at thirty,
And at forty donned lace caps,
And at fifty clung to shoulder shawls,
While taking their 'cat naps.'
But I like these ageless mothers,
Who can share in all the joys
And who understand the problems
Of their growing girls and boys.
She may boast that she is forty,
But her heart is twenty-three—
This ageless, bright-eyed mother
Who is keeping young with me!"

"Dear God, in heaven, grant this plea,
That I grow old agelessly.
What charms I lose of form or face,
May beauty of spirit take their place.

Not resent being 'on the shelf,'
But find new ways for myself.
And if with time my eyes grow dim,
May I then learn to read within
Life's memory book.
I'll turn the pages, one by one,
Recalling days when I was young,
Pleasant places, happy faces,
The lilt of a merry song!
A sense of humor, let me keep,
And not forever sigh and weep
For days gone by.

May I grow more gentle, sweet and kind,
Strong as the oak, facing the wind;
Strong, but bending to Thy will,
Ever leaning on Thee, still.
Trusting I may ever be Filled with true humility!
So dear Lord, grant this my plea,
That I may grow on—Agelessly."

THE FAMILY LAWYER

PEEKING INTO YOUR MAIL

Tipped off by a suspicious mailman, postal agents opened a packet which a woman mailed—first class to her husband.

Sure enough, the packet contained illicit heroin. But when the woman was brought to trial on a narcotics charge, evidence of the find was thrown out of court and she went free.

The court was not being "soft" on narcotics. What troubled the court was the government's violation of the privacy of first class mail. Such an intrusion was held to be an "unreasonable search and seizure"—forbidden by the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution.

This Amendment grew out of colonial bitterness against the infamous "writs of assistance," under which British officials had free rein in searching private homes.

And, almost a century ago, the Supreme Court made it clear that the Amendment protects not only your residence but your first class mail as well. In the Court's words:

"The right of the people to be secure against unreasonable searches and seizures extends to their papers, thus closed against inspection, wherever they may be."

On the other hand, there is no such protection for mail other than first class. Furthermore, in the interest of combating crime, even first class mail may be searched if authorities first obtain a warrant. Then the search would not be "unreasonable," because the warrant would be issued only if there was reasonable ground to believe the law had been violated.

Moreover, the government may impose what is called a "mail watch" to help in tracking down wrongdoers. In this procedure, a record is kept of the name and return address of everyone who sends mail to the person under surveillance.

Not long ago the mail watch was challenged in court as at least a partial invasion of the privacy of first class mail. But the court upheld the government, saying:

"It was not prying into their secrets to note what the senders had made public on the face of the letters."

And there, generally speaking, is where the law draws the line today. The government may gather the information you place on the outside of an envelope, but must not peek within. That dab of muckage on the flap, buttressed by the constitutional commandment, is one of the mightiest barriers on earth.
