Christian Day Kindergarten

The Christian Day Kindergarten Committee of Trinity Lutheran Church is gratified with the developments as plans continue to move forward to-wards the opening of the kindergar-ten in the fall.

The kindergarten, with space for only 20 boys and girls, has already enrolled 11. This is the finest early response ever, and the CDK committee therefore encourages parents of the community to inquire of the kindergarten and enroll now. Informative brochures and registration blanks are available from the church office of Trinity Lutheran Church or from the parsonage.

Enthusiasm was high at a recent interest meeting, held at the church and sponsored by the CDK Committee, when many parents and children attended. They heard Pastor Miller sketch the history of the kindergar-ten along with his discussion of the broad objection of the kindergarten. They heard him emphasize what the kindergarten is not: being neither a glorified baby-sitting service nor a "super-duper first grade in advance

Chief Warrant Officer David W. Iemler, U.S. Army, Retired, and his Kenneth Crouse, a member of ule. the CDK Committee, indicated the fee and the financial arrangements. Later, the kindergarten facilities were inspected and teachers and prospective students and parents and committee enjoyed an informal refreshment period planned by Mrs. E. Wayne Baumgardner and Mrs. Harry Dougherty, Jr. reminder: the kindergarten for 1966-67 has room for only nine more boys and girls. Register soon!

SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" Anniversary of Ordination (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning

A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

FATHER'S DAY I Remember Papa!

"Jenny, this child you will love the best! She will be closer to you and more affectionate than all the other children!" They were the words of my Dad when I was born in that big, old-fashioned bed which almost touch ed the ceiling. Papa realized that Mama did not want a big family as she always stated four children made up the American family but she had two four's and I was the seventh child!

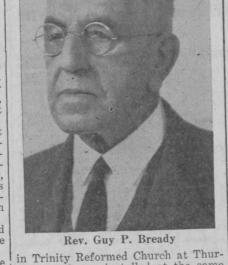

Those words did come true for I was very close to both Mama and Papa and they both loved me the best which I think was due to my being the only affectionate child of all the children!

Oh, I remember Papa in so many things that happened in my life! When that awful disease of scarlet fever struck three of us at one time, I can recall the beautiful prayers day and night which came from my Fath-er's lips. (He was a Christian Sciener's lips. (He was a Christian Scien-tist and he never was ill in his life.) In fact, I recall the doctors did not know what to place on the death certificate as he passed on just through a broken heart of losing my dear Mother the year before! He had every tooth, both upper and lower, and had never been in a dentist's chair in his life!

After that dreadful fever (I was just three years of age and I became blind which lasted for three months!), my which lasted for three holds, it, high eldest sister bought a child's rocker for me and dear Papa bought a ca-nary and it was hours sitting in that little rocker listening to the song of little rocker listening to the song of Dickey Bird most of the day. Suddenly, as Papa sat before me, I said, "Oh! Papa, I can see!" "What am I holding up, Pet?" he quickly asked. "Your pipe!" I said so loudly and with much joy! "But, oh-Papa, your hair-what is it?" His thick and beautiful hair had turned white in those three months which had been jet black! Lovingly, I placed my little hands all over his hair in a caressing gesture for I could not understand. Then, it was prayers again thanking God over and over again for my sight and screaming again for my sight and screaming for dear Mama to come quickly as she was attending my new baby brother upstairs. The added prayers brother upstairs. The added prayers and tears, I'll always remember! Papa would take me out to gather nuts (chestnuts) by going as far out into the country as the trolley rode and the fall was a beautiful sight. He bought dolls for me until there were twenty-one in a row and he named every one of them for me! At one time, he saw a very special one in a window downtown and I recall his telling Mama that he walk-ed all the way from town as he had spent his last cent for it! If I was worried about anything he would al-ways convince me that everything room, where a delicious buffet lunch was served to all present by the ladies of the congregations of the Thurmont Charge. At this time also, the conwould say, "Don't study any more tonight, go to bed right now and rise early when your mind is clear and start to study before any one in the house is up!" When I was just thirteen-my first teen, Papa bought a beautiful gold ring for me with an emerald in the cen-ter (my birthstone) with pearls surrounding. He used to say that he hoped that I would be born on his birthday but I arrived just one week exactly later!

This special service was sponsored by the present pastor, Rev. Richard A. Ruof, and Mrs. Ruof, and by the Con-er, organist and director. The pastor, Rev. Ruof, was in charge of the liturgical part of the service, and the anniversary sermon was delivered by Rev. Bready, who, in his discourse, made frequent use of the memory of his labors as pastor, teacher and author during these sixty years.

LOCAL CHURCH PEOPLE TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Whether the Church of the Brethren will join with eight major denomi-nations in an effort to form a new, united Protestant church is one of the key decisions to be made June 21-26 at the Church of the Brethren Annual Conference in Louisville, Ky.

Other issues will center on the basis of personal ethics, the role of elders in the church, the establishment of mental health care facilities, and the participation of nonmembers in the ommunion sacrament.

A peak attendance of 8,000 Brethren, including 1,100 delegates, will participate in this world-wide, 180th recorded annual meeting. Among those in attendance as delegates from Church of the Brethren congregations in this area are: Pastor Curtis Dub-ble, Mrs. Miriam Bricketts and Mrs. Leah Zigler of Westminster Church; Anna and Bernice Fritz of Meadow Branch Church; and Pastor Warren Eshbach of the Piney Creek Church of the Brethren.

tives Mrs. Wilson Riffle, who will read the lessons, and Mrs. C. Kenneth Smith, who will lead the prayer. The Senior Choir will sing, "To Thee We Sing.

The second part will be a congregation luncheon at about 11:45 in the large Adult Sunday School Room. A dinner bell will summon the nearly 150 adults and young people and children who have already made their reservation.

The third part, about 1 P. M., will be the showing of the controversial film, "The Parable," previously pro-jected at the recent New York World's Fair. An interpretive discussion will accompany the film which will surely provoke the thought of those who witness it.

GRACE CHURCHES DELEGATES AT CENTRAL ATLANTIC CONFERENCE

Grace United Church of Christ of Taneytown was represented at the Second Annual Meeting of the Central Atlantic Conference of the United Church of Christ at Hood College, Frederick, on June 8, 9 and 10 by Mr. George W. Motter and The Rev. William F. Wiley, pastor. Grace Church of Keysville was represented by Mr. William Duble and Mr. Robert Moffitt and the pastor.

One of the highlights of the Conference was a seven-page resolution against the present war in Vietnam which was approved by the delegates of over 200 churches from New Jer-sey, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

SELBY-ROWE REUNION

The 23rd annual Selby-Rowe reunion was held Sunday, June 12, at Taneytown Memorial Park. There were 67 relatives present.

Basket lunch was served at one o'clock. The business meeting was under the charge of the president, Donald Carl. Minutes were read and the treasurer's report given. It was decided to have another reunion next year at the same place and the same time. Much discussion was held on changing the name of the reunion. A motion was made and seconded, to which everyone agreed, to call it the Baker reunion, but hoping the Selbys will feel free to attend. Gifts were given to the following: oldest woman, Mable Smith; oldest man, Claude Selby; youngest, Tammy Sue Adkins; largest family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eyler; longest distance, James Frock.

The same officers will hold office another year. Ice cream was served to everyone present.

When I completed my first grade, upon my slate I wrote the very first sentence, "I am so glad that I can see!" I recall Papa showing it to Mama, saying, "Look, Jenny, what that child wrote!"

I was given my weekly allowance of 25 cents a week! I tried to stretch it but it seemed that I was always in Charge (four congregations), June debt! I needed just ten cents at the 17, 1906-March 15, 1909; Glade end of the week which Mama refused Charge (two congregations), March to give me stating that I should learn how to manage that I should learn to borrow. (My precious, thrifty Mother!) So I went out the back way crying when suddenly I heard a whisper from the bay window of the second floor rear - our library - and there was my precious Papa showing me the dime in his fingers saying, "Hold your dress and catch!" In later years he said he would not have taken five thousand dollars for that smile and kiss I threw to him!

Then, when my first big date arrived to attend a lovely affair, a special dress was made for me by my eldest sister which I designed and that evening I walked into the library to Papa and he quickly rose and said, kissing me, "Oh, so much like your beautiful Mother when she was sev-

Papa always called his four daughters "His four lovely Graces!" Sweet?

Oh! there are so many things which I recall about Papa which would fill a book and my Minister used to say, "He never heard of any daughter loving a father as I loved mine!" Because from the time I was a tiny child and when radio came out, he always compared my mind with a receiving set of a radio! He would always listen sharply when I predicted anything! Papa was educated in England and was the most handsome man I have ever seen in my life! His last words before death was, "This is George, Jenny, I am coming!" and then he closed his eyes and his heart was still!

I remember Papa!

Swing with the sun

Come to Ocean City, for example.

And don't be surprised if you kick up your heels a bit. Or laugh more than usual. Or find the sun-drenched, funfilled days slipping away much too quickly. That's the shore for you. It does things to people.

So let yourself go. For a weekend trip or a long vacation. It's so easy, especially when you call ahead for reservations. After 8 p.m. weekdays and all day Sunday, you can make a three-minute station call to any place in Maryland for only 40 cents or less.

What's holding you back? There's the telephone.

CAMBRIDGE, NEBR., CLARION: "With reference to the threat of inflation, President Johnson said he was more worried about the economists than the economy. No doubt the feeling is mutual with the economist being far more worried than the President is."

CORVALLIS, ORE., HERALD: "Red China now has 100 million more people to feed than she had before the communists took over the country. In the 20 years they have been in control the communists have tried to control the farmers like Russia does. The result is that the Chinese farmers are now producing less than they did in 1930. That is the reason China is having to buy wheat from Canada."

RONAN, MONT., PIONEER: "Figured out the other day that the Post Office Department found it too hard to teach their employees geography, so they decided it would be simpler to teach the whole population of the country a system of numbers."

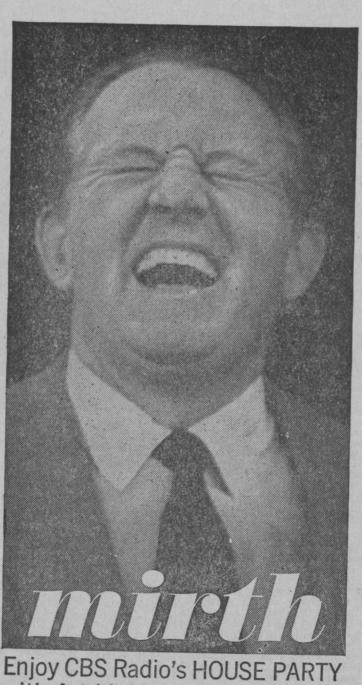

DENVER, COLO., RECORD: "The Bureau of Land Management wants to abolish a herd of wild horses in Wyoming. Could it be because these horses cannot vote?"

RIVERTON, N.J., ERA: "A former eyesore in the suburbs of our nation's capitol has now become something of a thorn in the side of some federal bureaucrats. While agents of the Federal Urban Renewal Administration have been traipsing all over the country setting up one project and another, private investors and builders slipped into the community of Rosslyn, a section of Arlington, Va., just across the Potomac River from Washington, and transformed some 27 acres of run-down slums into a multimillion dollar assortment of office buildings, apartments and quality motels. . . . Which is a pretty good illustration, we think, of the basic difference between private enterprise and government planning."

CURRENT EVENTS FIFTY YEARS AGO

Mrs. H. M. Clabaugh and daugh-ters, Mrs. Lamberton and Mrs. Bloom-er, are occupying "Antrim," having arrived last week for the summer.

The Shirt Factory (first floor — Grangers Hall Building) opened reg-ularly this week, with good prospects for a helpful industry to the town. About 25 employees will be given work. The program in honor of Francis Scott Key, held at Keysville last Sat-urday, was a success in every par-ticular. The Vermont marble tablet was much admired as well as the staff and flag. The addresses were all appropriate and well rendered. An audience of from 700 to 800 were present. The Democratic National Conven-tion met in St. Louis on Wednesday. The fact that its work was practically all finished beforehand, makes the convention largely a ratification meet-ing. President Wilson and Thomas Marshall were renominated. The Republican convention at Chi-cago on Saturday afternoon, on the third ballot, named Judge Charles E. Hughes for President; and Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana was named for Vice President on a single ballot. Special Notices

IN MEMORIAM

MARTIN - In loving memory on Father's Day of my father, Har-vey R. Martin, who departed this life July 25, 1965.

Sad and sudden was the call Of one so dear and loved by all; His loving heart ceased to beat Before we knew he was gone. A bitter grief, a shock severe, To part with one we loved so dear. Loving and kind in all his ways

Sincere and true in his heart and mind,

Beautiful memories he left behind.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd of Man-chester and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lentzner near Uniontown spent the week-end attending a bench show with their fox hounds in Kingston, Ontario, Canada. They received the fifth and eighth prize for their dogs at the bench show. Also for travel-ing the longest distance. Mrs. Lloyd and Mrs. Lentzner won a sterling silver stine. They traveled 1100 miles and took in some sightseeing while there, traveling around the Thousand Island. Also they visited the Sky Decker which is a 400-ft. tower which gave them a view of a distance of 40 miles. They had a wonderful trip and enjoyed it very much.

The Taneytown Tigers stopped their 1967 which will raise the number of loss skien and maintained their hex over the Bendersville Appleknockers clubs drafting to 25 for that year. Even if you are picking number one with a 7-4 victory at the Apple Bowl you can only select two players out of the first 50 chosen.

What does all this mean? Well, simply this. The clubs which are strong now will be able to pick and choose key men to replace losses or strengthen weak spots. The lesser strengthen weak spots. The lesser teams who have to build up their teams who have to build up then strength in many areas just won't get the numerical help that might be possible with few clubs drafting. Let's go back only a few years when there were 12 teams in the National Lagrage A cellar team pick-

National League. A cellar team pick-ing first could select five men in the first 50 drafted. If it got lucky in its picking and signing it could lay the foundations for a winner in a couple of years. This business of the strong becom-ing stronger and the weak failing to improve will become increasingly clear when the AFL and NFL clubs At the plate, the winners picked up ten hits, with Pfoutz, Wildasin and George Crouse collecting two safeties are playing as one league with a com-mon schedule. That's when the dividoles, while Roger Eyler chipped in ing line between the "haves" and with a two-bagger also. The Tigers scored first in the first "have nots" will be sharply drawn.

There is a dandy little race going on for ROOKIE-OF-THE-YEAR honors in the American League and it's anybody's guess as to who will win it.

There is a difference of opinion as to the probable winner but none about the fact that it will not be a runaway.

Some of the top contenders are Rick Reichardt of the California Angels; George Scott of the Boston Red Sox; second baseman Dave Johnson, catchsecond baseman Dave Johnson, catch-er Andy Etchebarren and pitcher Eddie Watt of Baltimore; Tommy Agee of Chicago; Fritz Peterson and Roy White of New York and the improving Joe Foy of Boston. All have played well in the first part of the season but the award will on the the man who continues to

At a guess, it may turn out to be a bitter fight between Scott and Reichardt, both of whom have great power.

Both men are in contention for the race for home run homers and both have hit tape-measure homers.

vate property of Israel. God in-tended his people to win number-less others into the same relation with God that the original He-brews had. Even though the whole nation went to the bad, God would and did keep his covenant with any individual who held up his side of the covenant. While it was true that God looked While it was true that God looked after the Jewish people in ways that are amazing, this did not mean that he looked over and cared for Jews only. The prophets Amos and Jonah, for instance, made it quite clear that God had an equal care even for the enemies of his people, such as Asyria and the Philistines. Some of the greater prophets even proclaimed that God had "covenant people" in every nation of the world.

RELIGION TWO-WAY STREET

God is not an easy mark. He can choose and he can reject. Religion is not an affair in which we sit back and watch God do it all. Religion is a two-way street; God expects to meet us going to meet him. Another mistake is to suppose that God deals with men only in groups. On the contrary, the Bible makes it clear that there is no substitute for the single individual naked soul meeting God alone, one by one. Nobody rides to heaven on a group ticket! This talk about the covenant is not ancient history. Any one who to-day in humble obedience opens his heart to God like a little child, will find that he too is a child of the covenant, but God never spoils his children!

This has been a busy and somewhat

This has been a busy and somewhat hectic morning, with just a little bit of everything taking place. And so, for the space of a few moments, I am taking a "breather" in the front-porch swing. The latter, of very an-cient vintage, once belonged to my great-aunt. As a child, when my folks hed this same swing on their front had this same swing on their front porch, I spent many happy, carefree hours in it. Even now, many years later, I still enjoy the old swing's soothing, swaying motion. As I creak gently to and fro, my thoughts become more settled, and I become aware of all the beauty which lies around me. The sun on this sparkling June day is hot, as it is so apt to be at this time of the year. But a pleasant, cool breeze sings through the South Carolina Poplar and whispers to my old-fash-ioned rose bushes. Their doliants parioned rose bushes. Their delicate per-fume fills the air with a priceless aroma. The peonies are just about through, but the tall, stately hollyhocks are just coming into bloom. The quiet pastoral loveliness here
