MARYLAND STATE FAIR

We took a day off recently to go to the Timonium Fair. It ran from August 29 to September 7th. They tell me it is growing bigger and better each year.

We stopped to talk with two of our neighbors who were there showing hogs. I am glad to report they were both displaying lots of ribbons—which shows that they are dealing with a quality product. Some of the different breeds of hogs shown were the Berkshire, Poland China, Hampshires, Yorkshires, Chester Whites and Durocs.

The 4-H building attracted my attention, having worked with 4-Her's as an assistant leader for awhile. I remember one booth said, GROW TALL WITH 4-H—achievement, citizenship and learning. Another one told the ESSENTIALS of a Good GARDEN: sun and rain, fertile seeds, rich soil cultivation and harvesting. rich soil, cultivation and harvesting at the right time.

We looked at the cows, naturally, being in the dairy farming business. We saw twin calves two days old, which were born at the fair. Some city people were admiring them and remarked about them being able to stand on their own two feet at the age of two days. What they didn't know is that they can stand up shortly after birth. (To me, one of the miracles of nature).

We were delightfully entertained by "The Illusions" and "The Morlocks," who were being paid by different politicians. They were young musicians with the poise and talent of professionals. I especially liked "The Morlocks." The Morlocks.'

Of course the midway was full of people willing to take your money if you were willing to give it to them. But all in all it was a nice fair. As near as it is to us it was our first time there. We are going to have to take some lessons on map reading, (too many roads to confuse you and too many road signs at one place to try to read them all at once.) But one phone call to the State Police was all that was needed to get the proper assistance. He was very helpful and his directions were easy to understand.

-Esther N. Speak. P. S.:- I was treated by a good friend at the fair to a piece of apple pie a la mode. It was made right there and it was still warm and ever

Republicans Meet

The regular meeting of the Federation of Republican Women of Taneytown was a picnic-dinner held Tuesday evening on the grounds of the Taneytown Rod & Gun Club.

Invited guests were the Republican candidates for office in the coming Primary election. Other guests were the husbands of the wives of the Federation.

A delicious meal was served by the social committee of the Federation, headed by Mrs. Norman Sauble. Each candidate for office was introduced by president, Miss Margaret troduced by president, Miss Margaret Shreeve and responded to their introduction with a few remarks.

The speaker of the evening, introduced by Mrs. Charles L. Stonesifer, was Robert M. McKinney, candidate for County Commissioner, who substituted for Jacob M. The Carroll County Museum

Nearly 1000 items have been do-nated to the museum. These items range from heavy farm equipment such as: threshers, sleighs and car-riages to blacksmith and carpenter tools and kitchen items. They would like to have, for display purposes, items used by the farm family of the 19th century. There is no admission charge at the present time, however, if you would like to promote the growth of the museum, a donation would be most appreciated. The main house which contains 30 rooms, will be furnished a typical 19th century farm house which will open in 1967. Other buildings of interest include a spring house, a smoke house, a wagon shed and a corn crib. The bank barn, typical of this area, is the key structure.

An out-door bake oven, out-door butchering equipment, windmill, hominy block, horse-power grist mill and additional sheds to better display the many pieces of horse-drawn equip-ment are to be added.

A log cabin, donated and moved from a Carroll County farm is being used as a gift shop and entrance point to the museum. In addition a blacksmith shop and broom making shop have been added.

One of the most impressive features of the Farm Museum will be "live" or operating displays on some Saturdays from 10 — 5. I understand. Other crafts on display are pottery items, musical instruments and a library is in the planning stage. It is intended that "Farm Craft" and "Harvest" days be held on special week-ends during the summer and fall each year. A large lake and picnic area add to the charm of the Farm Museum.

The International Gift Shop, a part of the facility for the Church World Service, provides examples of native crafts from many countries throughout the world The First Rural Free Delivery Mail Service in the U.S.A. was initiated in Carroll County. Several pieces of equipment are on display at the Mu-Bus parties are invited, however they request advance reservations by calling the museum office at 848-

The museum is owned by the people of Carroll County. So, by all means, try to get down to Westminster and look through the Museum. My own observation, for what ever it may be worth, is that it is a delightful addition to the county and I am sure when you see it you will want to help promote its growth.

FACTS AND OPINIONS

Congresswoman Catherine May of Washington says, "The trouble with a little inflation is that it never stays little. Once it is accepted as a national way of life, it gets out of hand. Unless the federal government takes definite steps to contain it, it hurts those who can least afford to be hurt -people in a low income group and our older citizens who have to rely on a fixed income. The man who puts aside some money for a rainy day or for retirement, as an example, has found his savings lost 2 per cent of their purchasing power last year alone. If inflation continues at that rate for twenty years, one dollar in every three saved would simply wanish."

After studying auto accidents that killed 177 persons not wearing seat belts, a U.S. Public Health Service study reported that 40 per cent would have been saved if they had also worn shoulder harnesses.

Nearly $900.6 billion of life insurance was in force in the U.S. last year under more than 320.1 million are invited to use this directory for the public information it carries. Cost for one year only $3.00. year under more than 320.1 million individual policies and group certificates with legal reserve life insurance companies, according to the Institute of Life Insurance.

Congressman Alvin E. O'Konski of Wisconsin tells the story of two brothers in his home district. One brother was valedictorian of his gradnating class. He is serving in Viet Nam for $78 a month. The other brother is a dropout who once beat up his mother and his teacher. He is serving in the War on Poverty's Neighborhood Youth Corps and is getting $200 a month.

The federal government paid farmers $2.4 billion in July for participating in the farm programs. Total payments this election year are expected to reach $3.5 billion, $1 billion more than last year, and one fourth of this year's net farm income, reports the Arizona Farm Bureau Federation.

C. Wilson Harder, president of the National Federation of Independent Business, Inc., says, "Our surveys on employment show already that it is difficult enough to get people to work in many states when pay rates for unskilled jobs must compete with taxfree unemployment checks . . . "

A report in "Business Trends" shows that federal, state and local governments added nearly a half mil-Jion workers to the payroll in 1965. These agencies now employ approximately 10.5 million people, a 65 per cent increase over 1955.

The Knoxville Journal reports that the Tennessee Valley Authority, which spent $7 million overseas last year, already has spent $10 million abroad in 1966-another facet of our balance-of-payments problem.

By July 1, 1966, U.S. motorists had paid an estimated $100 billion in state and federal motor fuel taxes since the first levy was enacted in

Come see Tecumseh

Tecumseh is probably the most famous Indian this side of Sitting Bull. His reservation, in case you didn't know it, is the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis.

There is so much for the whole family to see and enjoy in this colorful old town. You can delve into history, or take a sail on the serene Severn. Walk the picturesque docks or stand before John Paul Jones' crypt. Explore the State House, oldest state capitol still in use, or the graceful old mansions of another age. Name your pleasure . . . and Annapolis

There are many delightful places to stay in and around Annapolis, but be sure to call ahead for reservations. After 8 p.m. weekdays and all day Sundays, you can make a three-minute station call to any place in Maryland for only 40 cents or less.

This summer, come to Annapolis-for a weekend or vacation. And be sure to bring your camera. Chances are, you'll want to take Annapolis back

On Saturday morning Mrs. Ralph Fleharty and Mr. and Mrs. William Fleharty near Detour attended the funeral of Mrs. Ralph's cousin, Rich ard T. Evans in Washington. Mr. Evans, who was 85 in July, was one of the first to map the western part of the United States in the early 1900's and was most interesting to talk with. He was "a gentleman and a gentle man" as the pastor said and "he liked people and they liked him." His death creates a loss for many people who loved him.

Did you see the Bookmobile schedule last week? The Monday trip reverts back to Saturday now that school is again opening. Starts the 10th.

The guest speaker for Keysville Lutheran Church on Sunday was mistakenly given the incorrect time and arrived too late for the service. He stayed on, however, for the Rally Day Service during the Sunday School hour and made some closing remarks. He was Arnis Abakuks, the young seminarian mentioned a short time ago as coming from Latvia and Germany. The church service was conducted by Councilmen Carroll Wilhide and Edward Coshun. The children and teachers are to be commended again for the fine program they put on. They all did a fine job. It is good to have at least one day of the year when the congregation can see the roungsters who are coming along for the "church of tomorrow."

Don't forget the time change next week to Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. and church at 10:45 A. M. It will also be Harvest Home and donations should be brought to the church by Friday evening if possible.

John Ruskin, the famous British author sat one night watching a lamp lighter light the lamps on a distant hill. The man himself could not be seen, but his torch could, and the lights would gleam as each was lit. Ruskin remarked to a friend, "that is what I mean by a real Christian, you can trace his course by the lights he leaves burning." Let each one con-fessing Christ as Saviour and Lord our light shine so others may find the way through us. Though we may be watching others, others may be watching us. Therefore our lamp must be trimmed and burning bright-

"VIEW FROM MY KITCHEN WINDOW'

As I sit at my window this morning, my mind runs in many channels, as various thoughts keep popping up. First of all, I thank the good Lord for dentists. Anyone who has ever been plagued by an aching tooth knows what I mean. Surely there is no pain much worse than this, but now that the offender has been ex-tracted, I feel much relieved. I think with a shudder of what an ordeal having teeth pulled must have been in the days before novocaine and gas. And I am glad, on this account, to be living in the 20th century.

When I entered the Taneytown Professional Building to keep my dental appointment, I was impressed and delighted by the cheerful atmosphere of the place, located on E. Baltimore St., extended, in the most attractive section of town; it is at the same time very convenient. Inside, the waiting room is tastefully decorated with paintings done by some art students of the community. Although I am no art critic, I thought them quite good. Perhaps because I am partial to the country scenes, I especially liked Mrs. Clingan's painting of the Teeter farm.

From teeth and paintings, my thoughts turn to the "God is dead" theory that we hear so much about these days. We are living in such a difficult time of unbelief, indifference and violence that it is enough to make a person stop and wonder, but we need only look at the world around us to know that God is very much alive. After all, who else could fashion a rose, form a bird, change the color of the leaves, and scatter the snow flakes? It is absurd to believe for one minute that all of these are not the handiwork of the everlasting and unchangeable God. We find Him even more perfectly revealed in the Gospels and Paul's Epistles. His love and care are all around us, buoying us up and sustaining us through the most trying situations. How anyone lives without this belief is beyond me. And finally, I reflect upon the drought, and the amazing way in which certain fruits and vegetables are yielding. I have been picking beans, squash, cucumbers, tomatoes, cabbage and corn-not in enormous quantities, but enough for table use and even some for the freezer. Here again we see, that come what may, God cares and provides. A ringing telephone brings my rambling thoughts to an end, but not before I have captured them on paper for you, my readers, to mull over, as

TIGERS FINISH 9th WITH 5-13 RECORD

'66 Season Produces Few Bright Spots for Local Fans

The Taneytown Tigers have just completed its worst season in five years with a 13 loss and just five win record, good for ninth place in the South Penn League. With the local nine finishing second only just last year, manager Bob Fogle had high hopes for this season but the wins just weren't there and he had to settle for a season that was anything but pleasant. Add to the fact that the sandlotters had to forfeit two contests because of insuf-Observations on the World of Sports ficient men for the first time recent memory, you can easily see why managers get gray hairs. Certainly the robust hitting of only just last year wasn't there, the pitching wasn't as sharp and the defense provided as much coverage as a wellworn, moth eaten blanket, one can readily understand why he had such a bad final record. Maybe one big factor also in the decline was the divisional race by two games with

The Taneytown Tigers' finish this year was the worst in recent history. In 1961, the Tigers ended the season in 8th place. Certainly a victory here and there against some of the teams that the local nine smothered last year, would have brought in a more

CARD OF THANKS

Many thanks to everyone for all the cards, gifts of flowers and fruit, and visits while I was in the hospital and

Last year's gallant but heart-break ing near-miss in the Western Conference of the National Football League still rankles the proud BALTI-MORE COLTS. This season, the Colts are determined to erase the failure to return of some of the "big only three games remaining when its guns" of last year. fered a severe knee injury against Sunday after Sunday and who gave their all to the team goes skipper Fogle's undying gratitude. The peoputed call.

After tying Green Bay for the division championship, the Colts lost to the Packers, 13 to 10, in a playoff. A controversial field goal by Don Chandler with about two minutes left in regulation play tied the score, and another Chandler field goal won the game in sudden-death. The Colts still insist that Chandler's first threepointer did not go between the uprights.

After Unitas was hurt, his backup man, Gary Cuozzo, suffered a shoulder injury in the following game, and the Colts had to finish the season with halfback Tom Matte at quarterback.

Apparently, Unitas and Cuzzo have recovered from off-season operations. Both have played in the exhibition games, and both have played well. Unitas, of course, is the key man. With him, the Colts could be title contenders. Without him, they would be also-rans.

Unitas is regarded as the best quarterback in pro football. He is a poised and clever leader, a smart play-caller and a brilliant long or short passer. Last season, Unitas tossed 23 touchdown passes, increas-ing his lifetime total to 210, only two short of Y. A. Tittle's NFL record of 212.

Moore, a talented runner and pass catcher. Alongside Moore in the Colts' backfield will be fullback Jerry Hill. He was the club's leading rusher last season with 516 yards. Hill's reserve is Tony Lorick.

The Colts also have a group of reliable pass catchers—split end Ray Berry, tight end John Mackey and flanker Jimmy Orr. Behind them are Willie Richardson, Al Snyder and Butch Wilson.

The offensive line has undergone some shuffling because of the retirement of tackle George Preas. Perennial All-League guard Jim Parker has been switched to Preas' tackle spot, and Dan Sullivan has taken over Parker's old position. The other starters are tackle Bob Vogle, a potential All-League player; guard Alex Sandusky recently lured from retirement sky, recently lured and veteran center Dick Syzmanski. Two rookies, tackle Sam Ball of Kentucky and guard Butch Allison of Missouri, and veteran Dale Memmelaar will serve as strong bench strength.

The Colts' defense also is solid. The ends are Lou Michaels and Ordell Braase. The tackles are Fred Miller came on with a rush to be the leader, and Billy Ray Smith. And in reserve Rugged Dennis Gaubitz is the middle linebacker and is flanked by Steve Stonebreaker, who is about as toug! as the name sounds, and Don Shir nick. The backup men include Ted Davis and Mike Curtis.

Veterans Bobby Boyd and Lenny Lyles are the cornerbacks, and Jerry Logan and flashy Alvin Haymond are the safeties. Haymond, a rookie last year, was among the leaders in kickoff and punt returns. He is one of the fastest men in the league.

Over-all, the Colts are a smart, experienced and well-coached team. With a healthy Unitas, they could win the Western Division title.

Incidentally, the Colts open the season against Green Bay on Septem-ber 10. It is a game they are really looking forward to.

Today's Sport Laugh — Casey Stengel was among the visitors in sweltering St. Louis for the All-Star game with the temperature hovering around the 106-degree mark. He was asked what he thought about the new ball park in St. Louis. Said Stengel "It sure holds the heat nicely."

When Greed Controls Lesson For September 11, 1966

Background Scripture: Exodus 20:17; 1 Kings 21; Mark 10:17-22, 35-45; Luke 12:13-21, 29-34.

Devotional Reading: Mark 10:35-45.

Francis Xavier once said that as a priest he had heard thousands of confessions, but never a confession to the sin of covetousness. It seems to be an unmentionable sin for most people.

liar, a thief, an adulterer, or even a murderer, but who has ever heard someone acknowledge the sin of covetousness? It just isn't of the ten com-Rev. Althouse mandments receives very little, if any, attention. Perhaps one reason may be that it is interpreted too narrowly. The literal meaning of the tenth commandment seems to put it within everyone's reach. When the tenth commandment says, "You shall not covet," it means that we shall not desire for our-selves what belongs to someone else. Few of us are consciously that greedy. We might desire to have a new car just like the one our neighbor has, but that doesn't mean we'd like to get his car away from him.

Through Eyes Of Jesus

Jesus, however, broadened the interpretation of this commandment. He brought it down to a level where few of us can avoid stumbling over it. "Take heed," he said, "and beware of all covetousness; for a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions". (Luke 12:15 RSV) Having said this, he went on to tell a parable of a rich fool who sought to "lay up treasures" for himself. Covetousness, then, is more than desiring something belonging to someone else; it is also being ruled by a desire for things. As the tenth commandment was interpreted by many, its purpose seemed to be to protect the property of one's neighbor. When we view it through the eyes of Jesus, however, we find that, like all of the ten commandments, it is designed to protect me too. In this case: it purposes to protect me from the destructive power of my own greed. When greed controls our lives, it tends to destroy us from within.

Christians have always experienced conflicting feelings about material things. On the one hand, they have viewed them as part of the good creation that is God's world. On the other, however, they have realized that material things have the power to destroy the inner, spiritual life of man. The key to this dilemma is found in this question: are you in control of your material goods or are they in control of you? Material things may richly bless our lives according to God's will and purpose . . . so long as they do not gain control over us.

Whom Do You Trust?

To covet, as Jesus saw it, means to allow one's self to be driven by greed for material things and values. There's nothing necessarily wrong in the desire to enjoy the things of this world, so long as that does not loom as the chief enjoyment of life. There's nothing wrong in desiring to "get ahead" financially and professionally, so long as we do not look to finances for ultimate security and professional status as the source of true hap-

Jesus pu. it clearly: "Instead, seek his kingdom, and these things shall be yours as well". (Luke 12:31 RSV) Only one thing should really control our lives: our commitment to God and his kingdom. When greed controls us there is no room for God in one's life. God is replaced by mammon, the religion of materialism. You cannot serve both.

Furthermore, greed also implies our distrust of God. He has promised to supply all our needs. Therefore when we scratch and scrape at material goods it is like saying that we don't really trust God's promise or are not sure that he can really take care of our needs. Is there any greater insult to him than this?

When greed controls, the cart is pulling the horse.

"The basic cause of substandard housing is poverty. Our Blueprint for Progress will attack the overriding problem of poverty."

coblem of poverty."

—Thomas B. Finan

Q: WHAT DO YOU INTEND TO DO ABOUT OUR RISING CRIME RATE?

"I propose to work to increase the strength of Maryland's police departments—to attract good men and keep them through higher salaries, better training, and other benefits. Police promotions should be based on merit alone. I will urge maximum penalties for crimes of violence, especially for habitual offenders. Other proposals in my Blueprint for Progress are designed to eliminate the basic causes of crime — poverty and ignorance."

—Thomas B. Finan

Q: DO YOU THINK OUR
"CONFLICT OF INTEREST"
LAW IS STRONG ENOUGH?

"Every action of a public official must be above reproach. I will again urge the legislature to pass the strongest conflict-of-interest law in the nation. There will be no place in my administration for anyone who uses his office to enrich himself."

—Thomas B. Finan

Q: WHAT DO YOU THINK IS THE GREATEST CHALLENGE FACING OUR STATE?

"The strengthening of our program of education.

"I believe that every qualified Maryland youth should have the opportunity to pursue a college education regardless of his economic condition. At the elementary and high school levels, I propose to increase State aid per pupil to attract the best possible teachers, to reduce class size, to initiate additional kindergarten programs, to purchase adequate instructional materials, and to expand programs for vocational technical education."

—Thomas B. Finan

Q: WHAT IS THE "BLUEPRINT FOR PROGRESS"?

"The Blueprint for Progress is a series of detailed position papers which make bold and concrete proposals for moving Maryland forward. The Finan-Burch-Goldstein team has already released statements on the following vital topics: Elementary and Secondary Education, Highway Safety, Conflict-of-Interest, Law and Order, Economic Development, Mass Transit, Judicial Reform, Higher Education, Consumer Protection and Truth-in-Lending, Reorganization of State Government, Metropolitan Government, Tax Reform, Pollution and Conservation, and Recreation.

MARY B. BRYSON

your Full Time Senator Frederick-Carroll District

Republican Primary - September 13

General Election - November 8

By authority: Ellen Arnold, Treas.

WHY NOT ALLOW A YOUNG MAN A CHANCE TO PROVE THAT HE CAN

- 1. PREVENT GRAFT AND PRIVILEGE FROM INVADING OUR COUNTY AGENCIES.
- 2. FIGHT FOR THE RIGHTS OF EVERY CITIZEN.
- 3. PREVENT THOSE OTHER COUNTIES AND CITIES FROM FORCING US TO BAIL THEM OUT OF FINANCIAL DIFFICULTY. (THEY WOULD HAVE US ADD TO OUR REAL ESTATE TAXES FOR THIS PURPOSE.)
- 4. CURTAIL THE TENDENCY TOWARD TOO MUCH GOVERNMENT CONTROL.
- 5. PREVENT GOVERNMENT FROM CONTRIBUTING TO PRIVATE GROUPS (WITH THE EXCEPTION THAT WE SHOULD SUPPORT VOLUNTEER FIRE COMPANIES).
- 6. PROVIDE EVENING COURSES THROUGH A COMMUNITY COLLEGE; WHERE THOSE WHO WISH TO FURTHER THEIR EDUCATION MAY DO SO WITHOUT COMMUTING TO THE CITY.
- 7. PREVENT THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT FROM TAKING OVER CON-TROL OF OUR LAST POTENTIAL SOURCE FOR MASS WATER SUPPLY. (THAT IS THE MONOCACY RIVER AND THE PROPOSED DAM TO BE BUILT NEAR TANEYTOWN TO COLLECT THESE WATERS.)

SCOTT S. BAIR, JR.
