WATER BAN IMPOSED

At a recent special meeting of the Mayor and City Council, water restrictions were placed on certain non-essential uses of water. The uses affected were watering of lawns and gardens, washing of porches, sidewalks and automobiles. All businesses affected were notified immediately. Should it be necessary, more stringent restrictions will be imposed in order to conserve water until the underground supply of water improves. These restrictions will be strictly enforced. Residents using town water are urged to conserve water as much as possible within their homes. The supply of water from wells will not improve as quickly from hard rains as reservoirs which catch and store surface water. The Mayor and Council will announce the lifting of present restrictions just as soon as it is possible.

At the same meeting, parents of the youths, responsible for destroying of town property were present. As a result of that meeting, the parents consented to having the boys pay for the damages and work for the town several hours a week, for two weeks, the latter a disciplinary action.

Due to illness, the Mayor was unable to attend.

5th Annual Punt, Pass & Kick Competition October 15

Taneytown area boys from eight through 13 can put their football skills against thousands of other boys throughout the nation in the fifth annual Punt, Pass & Kick competition which will culminate with a trip to Washington, D. C., and an appearance at the annual National Football League Play-Off game for the top 12 winners.

Sponsored nationally by the Ford Dealers of America and the National Football League, the Punt, Pass & Kick competition—or PP&K—will be staged in Taneytown by Crouse Ford Sales, Inc. with the Taneytown Jaycees as local co-sponsor.

Taneytown boys will be tested for their ability to punt, pass and place a football for distance and accuracy. First-, second-, and third-place winners will receive distinctive Medal of Achievement awards on plush velvet ribbons. Top award has a blue motif, second-place award is red, third award is white. There will be 18 medal awards in all. Scores throughout the country then will be compared to determine the six top winners in each of the 360 Ford zones—a total of 2,160 zone winners.

Zone winners will meet in 37 Ford District competitions at which 228 district champions will win trophies. The 228 runners-up will receive certificate awards. All 228 district champions will compete for area championships to be held in 15 NFL-city areas.

The 42 western NFL-area champions will compete in Baltimore, Md., on Saturday, December 10, to determine the six western division champions (one for each age group). The 48 eastern NFL-area champions will compete in Dallas, Texas, on Sunday, December 11, to decide the six eastern division champions (one for each age group).

The six eastern NFL division champions, and the six western division champions, accompanied by their mothers and fathers, will go on a "Tour of Champions" to Washington, D. C. They then will travel to the Orange Bowl in Miami, Florida, site of the annual NFL Play-Off game, for half-time competition to determine the six National PP&K champions.

Mr. Dean Brown, chairman, of the Taneytown PP&K pointed out that PP&K involves no body contact, there is no charge for entering and no special equipment is needed. "Registration will be open from September 21 through October 14," he said, "with Crouse Ford Sales as registration headquarters."

"In 1965, PP&K's fifth year, 715,817 boys entered the competition," he said, "a program which has received the commendation of the President's Council on Youth Fitness."

Mr. Brown said entrants will be judged on distance and accuracy of their punting, passing and kicking. Points will be awarded for each foot of distance the ball travels on the fly, and points will be subtracted for each foot the ball lands to the right or left of a center line. The Taneytown competition will be held at the Taneytown Memorial Park on Saturday, October 15.

The scores will be played off on the day of competition. Ties for top spot in zone and district standings also will be played off during special contests. District winners will receive trophies. Area winners vie for the top 12 division championships. The six national winners receive handsome PP&K championship trophies. The other six receive national runner-up trophies. All 12 finalists go on the "Tour of Champions."

FIRE CALLS

On Wednesday, September 14, at 3:00 P.M. the Taneytown Firemen were called to the home of Francis Glass, at the corner of York Street and Fairview Ave., to pump water from his basement. At 3:30 P.M. they were called to the home of Harry Hohman on the Keysville Rd. to pump water from his basement; returning to the station at 4:15 P.M.

At 4:21 P.M. the alarm was sounded for a basement fire at 86 W. Baltimore St. at the home of William Hawk, which is owned by Norman Devilbiss. Upon arriving the cellar was full of smoke but no fire. The furnace had overloaded and backfired and making it seem as if the cellar was on fire. Just as they were ready to leave the scene they received another call at 4:36 P.M., of a house fire at the home of James Curtin, on Rt. 32, between the Mayberry Rd. and Baust Church Rd., which is owned by Roy Jackson. (Known as the Noah Babylon farm). Pleasant Valley was also called but they were cancelled after Taneytown arrived and found that it was only a chimney on fire. Thanks to the neighbors who called the fire company for the Curtins' knew nothing of a fire until Taneytown arrived and investigated. They returned to the firehouse at 5:56 p.m.

On Sunday, September 18 from 9:30 A.M. to 3:30 P.M. the firemen attended the Carroll County Regional Fire School 1½ miles E. of Reese Fire Co. beside Shield's Trailer Court. On Tuesday, September 20 from 10:00 A.M. to 1:30 P.M. they stood by to burn a house for Alvin Irvin, Jr., on the Nussbaum Road, off of Trevanion Road.

WE INTERVIEWED WAYNE NEWTON

—By: Anna May, Eileen and Irene Haycraft

Along with a capacity crowd, we watched Jack Benny, Wayne Newton and the Rudenko Brothers perform at the Camden, New Jersey, Music Fair on Friday, September 2.

Howls of laughter were heard as the old master of comedy, Jack Benny, glibly delivered puns and hilarities in his stoic, expressionless style—a style which has endeared him to audiences for over 40 years. Rapture could be seen on many faces as he tucked his famous violin under his chin and actually played several masterpieces with the finesse of a Carnegie Hall

Sports Writer for The (Baltimore) Morning Sun Hurt in Freak Accident

Tues., September 20, 1966
Dear Mr. Stonesifer,

It was nice to talk to you yesterday by phone, and to know that you and many of my Taneytown friends are concerned about my recent injury.

In answer to a number of queries about my misadventure in Chicago on September 2, while I was covering Oriole-White Sox games, the following is what happened:

On that Friday afternoon, I was emerging from the drug store in the lower lobby of the Sheraton-Chicago Hotel, Oriole headquarters in Chicago, when I observed Frank Messer, an Oriole radio and television announcer, chasing a man down an escalator from the main lobby of the hotel and through the revolving front doors of the hotel. Frank called, "Stop that man!" and I, assuming that something of a serious nature had occurred involving my friend, joined Frank in the chase.

The chase led to the front of the Sheraton-Chicago, then south on Michigan Boulevard. We were gaining on the man, when he suddenly swerved west through traffic and across Michigan Boulevard, and again south on the far sidewalk. Frank and I also crossed through the traffic, which somewhat delayed Frank. In the chase on the far sidewalk, I was now nearest the man and about to overtake him when I suddenly felt that I had been hit from behind, in the area of my right ankle. However, doctors advised me later that this was a rupturing of my Achilles tendon.

Frank raced up, asked me if I was all right, and resumed the chase of the man who went about another 75 feet to steps leading to a street below. At the foot of the steps, the man collapsed from exhaustion, and it was there that Frank collapsed him.

I limped on and joined Frank, police were called, and the man was taken to police headquarters where it was determined that he was a professional hotel thief. Frank's story was this:

He had entered his hotel room, found the man lying on his bed, and the man claimed that the room was his. They went down to the desk to have the situation cleared up, and when Frank asked for the hotel security officer, the man had taken off across the lobby and down the steps to the lower lobby where I was.

It developed that the man had a long record as a professional hotel thief, and I was informed by the hotel security officer that the man had served five years in Kingston prison, Kingston, Ontario, and three years in San Quentin. He was wanted by the FBI and the police in Canada, Washington and a number of States.

For those who follow the Orioles, that's the sad story as to why I haven't been with the club for the past few weeks. I hope to rejoin them in time for the World Series.

Sincerely yours,

Jim Elliot

Scout Paper Drive in Taneytown, Sat., Sept. 24

Two months have passed, and it is time for another collection of rags, newspapers and magazines, which will be conducted this Saturday, September 24, by Boy Scouts of Troop 348, Taneytown, who are sponsored by Hesson-Snyder Post 120 of the American Legion. Well-tied bundles will facilitate handling of these large collections in the short time available; the usual rural routes will also be covered besides the city of Taneytown. Should rain prevent carrying out present plans, a new date will be selected and announced. Any cancellation will be announced over WHVR and WTTR.

Summer Camp

The Flaming Arrow patrol of which Robert and Jack Howarth are patrol leader and assistant, had the largest number and percentage of its members at the troop's summer camp in August, which was conducted at Raccoon Run Leantos along the Appalachian trail near Caledonia, Penna. Under the leadership of the scoutmaster, Wilbur O. Thomas, eighteen boys spent a very pleasant and profitable week.

Scouts attending were Charles Barnhart, Douglas Dayhoff, David Fleischman, Steven Hann, Edward Herring, Jack Howarth, Steven Livey, Thomas Monthley, Robert Six, Steven Smith, Robert Stambaugh, George Stonesifer, Michael Stover, Paul Utz, Steven Wantz, and James West, as well as candidate Steven Eckard who had passed his Tenderfoot test and but awaited his 11th birthday before being a full-fledged member of the troop.

Swimming was enjoyed daily in the Caledonia park pool, cooking was done by the Scouts themselves, and another seven duties performed each day in teams of two, one group being excused for the day. Quite a number of individual tests were completed for Second and First class Scout rank, bringing the promise of Troop boards of review early in the Fall and Winter program.

A special campfire was held on Thursday evening, and more than 35 parents and friends visited the site to witness a program of stunts and songs, followed by light refreshments prepared and served under the direction of Mabel V. Thomas.

Vacation Meetings

Although the usual swimming at Natural Dam had to be curtailed early in the school vacation period due to dry weather, and attendance slumped through this and the appeal of other activities, meetings nevertheless were held out of doors weekly, usually beginning with softball, or, in recent weeks, touch football. With October, however, they will tend more and more towards the Scout hall made generously available to the troop through kindness and understanding of Mrs. John M. Hoagland. Those who have been lured away from 100% attendance by the baseball leagues, the community swimming pool, or summer jobs are urged to be present at the meetings of September 28 and October 5, when what-ever reshuffling of patrols and offices is required will be carried out in preparation for an active season. A Fall camping trip is also to be part of an attractive year's program, and an effort made to recruit new boys before December 15 to counteract the attrition caused by age and the beckoning of other interests. There is also the possibility of a trip to a baseball stadium for a major league game.

Paper Collection

Scouts able to help with the scrap drive Saturday are urged to be on hand by 7:45 A.M. so as to get a good start. In case of rain, a new day will be chosen and publicized. Any change in plan will be broadcast over WHVR and WTTR.

"SPICE 'N' EVERYTHING NICE" (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—the life's greatest wealth;
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

At Last The Rains Came! And as I type this column it is just pouring but all too late for the big CROPS! Betcha, canned foods and frozen foods will be high this Winter. Eh? Nothing like the water from the Heavens!

What a guest I had this Summer—a real Countess on my front lawn, daily—a beautiful riding HORSE! And the nice part she loved me as much as I loved her; and now that the young owner is back to school, I'll be missing her! There was something wonderful about Countess, for all the times she looked at me, her beautiful ears would be cupped, if you know what I mean.

The gladiolas have all bent heads, due to the heavy rains, and as soon as it slackens up a bit will go out and cut them to place in a vase.

And this about people—went over to the Eudowood Shopping Center a few weeks ago and then I stepped into the five and dime Woolworths and the manager of the Lexington Street store was in charge for the time being and he came forward to shake hands and then telling me that the store would be open in time for Christmas; Nice? That is the store on Lexington Street that had the fire one night and had to close its doors for there was so much damage done. Then—a lady sitting beside me in a bus coming uptown said, "Oh! I am so glad that Labor Day is over for now everything will get back to normal!"

The Garden Party, 50th Wedding Anniversary where I was a guest last week, the wife told me the next day that her husband said that night after it was all over, "This was the happiest day of my life!" So I said, "How about your wedding day?" "That day was the unhappiest for our mothers objected to our marriage and so we ran away to be married by another minister!"

And here is another, a young boy of 16 who just had been given his license to drive and had a '61 car which his father bought for him with the understanding that he, the son, was to pay him back with his part-time job money and this is what he said when I told him that I hope and pray that he will not be a reckless driver. "Well, I am no different from the rest of the guys for I like to speed and last night I had a girl in my car and she had a little too much and she pulled out the lighter to light her cigarette and damaged it beyond repair!" See what I mean, Folks as to "Teen Agers"? It is frightening and yet I have met a few excellent drivers in and around that age.

And now this—the husband of a friend of mine was on the radio show with Arthur Godfrey years ago. It was Kolb's Boys 4! He was the tenor and it was over WFRB. Stewart Kennard was the station manager and the pianist was Chester Muhl. Wonder if anyone will remember all that reading this Column?

If you and you do not think it wise to persevere just think about Mr. George Mahoney, who is surely a go-getter, for he has been trying for SIXTEEN YEARS! And at last was successful—so it does mean as one of my mottoes in all my life, "If you don't succeed at first, try, try again!"

Have you ever watched and observed the porpoise either on TV or down in Florida or California. They are most intelligent and they learn quickly. They fascinate me, for they really know just what man tells them to do, in fact the man understands him and he understands the man.

And thinking of that big fish—there is the cutest little Snauzer, two-year-old down the street who actually runs to meet me when he sees me and follows me into the house! Animals know who like them.

And as for the girls being the most beautiful in the State of Maryland—now Pittsburgh, Penna. is boasting that their girls have the most beautiful legs!

What a surprise to read in the paper last week that the very first Pope was a Hebrew who had turned to Christianity!

So long, Folks until next week D.V. when I hope to be "Around the Town."

Be good and be careful for it pays and pays and pays!

I am,

Irreunely yours.

Irene deLeon Love.

LUTHER LEAGUE

The Luther League of Trinity Lutheran Church, Miss Anne King, president, will hold its second meeting this coming Sunday night, September 23, at 6:30. The evening, in charge of the September Committee will feature devotions, a topic, and refreshments.

Last week about 35 Leaguers gathered in the large Adult Sunday School room which had been converted to a kind of coffee house, featuring candles on the tables and "way-out" art on the walls. The Leaguers enjoyed a Bible Treasure Hunt, a Hootenanny and refreshments and "valuable" prizes—each Leaguer finally won a prize for being on the winning attendance team, for winning the hunt, or just for being an "also ran." The Leaguers have heard that the Pastor has traveled to a far city this week in quest for "valuable" prizes to be given to each Leaguer who attends Sunday night. The Leaguers' activities for September are sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rollinger and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley King.

BACK TO SCHOOL BLUES

Exhausting wasn't it—that end of summer scramble to get the youngsters ready, set and off again to school? And there's no way to avoid a certain amount of last minute hurtle. For who can be sure, in mid-July or even early August, just how long the trousers will have to be, or how big the shoes, for a school-age youngster, come that first week of September?

Exhausting in another sense, too.
We suspect most parents noted that it cost more for those new school outfits this year than last, just as last year cost more than the year before. But before jumping to the conclusion that this is because the makers and sellers of clothing and shoes decided to hike the price for fatter profits, it's a good idea to look at some facts.

Take shoes, for example. According to government statistics—and the National Footwear Manufacturers Association agrees this is correct—the retail prices of shoes increased 3.6 percent since the first of the year.
But government studies also show that the price of cattle-hide leather, which the shoe manufacturer must buy, has gone up 14.4 percent in the same period. Cattle-hide prices have increased a little more than 25 percent.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture informs us that between 45 and 52 percent of the manufacturer's cost for shoes is for the leather. With the price of other essential shoemaking materials (buckles, nails, laces and so on) having risen from 10 to 18 percent, that 3.6 percent increase that we have to pay at the store for the finished product doesn't seem so bad after all.

One might even wonder how the shoe industry can do it, and still leave itself enough margin of profit that it can afford to stay in business. A trade association survey shows the industry's profit margin to average about 2.1 percent. We figure the only people qualified to complain about a manufacturer getting that much profit would be those who are willing to work in his factory for nothing more than their board and keep.

It's all too easy to blame the merchant and the manufacturer when the things we have to buy cost more each year. The fact is that they, like ourselves, are caught up in that nationwide financial circumstance sometimes referred to as "inflation." We need to look elsewhere for the cause of that. It is, indeed, a mark of responsibility to customers, as well as of technical competence, when a private industry keeps the price increase for its finished product comparatively lower than the increased cost of raw materials and labor.

GRASSROOTS OPINIONS

WALTHAM, MASS., NEWS-TRI-BUNE: "Suddenly inflation has become big news again in this prosperous land of ours. . . . Food prices go up. So does the entire cost-of-living index. Taxes are high, and promise to go higher. . . . So more dollars are sought for the pay envelope, only they don't make everybody happy because they can't quite catch up with the price boosts that inevitably follow. The situation becomes dangerous when normal restraints are pushed aside. We seem to be in just this kind of predicament right now and our national leadership doesn't seem to have either the fortitude or knowledge to do anything about it. . . . Devaluation of the dollars goes on as we create a 'paper' economy. Who suffers? Everybody, but mostly the short end goes to those on fixed incomes, pensioners and widows, along with those wage earners who are not part of the big-union contract parade and must be content with the crumbs. Government employees at all levels fall into this category. Where will it all end?"

PHILLIPS, WISC., BEE: ". . .
Citizens are shocked and alarmed over sensational killings and loss of life in the Viet Nam War, but are relatively indifferent to the daily slaughter on our highways."

INTERNATIONAL FALLS,
MINN., JOURNAL: "A $50 million annual subsidy to keep domestic gold mines operating and reopen closed mines is favored in Congress. The drain on the gold is making gold mining necessary again, and government wants to encourage it."

HALF MOON BAY, CALIF., RE-VIEW: "The idea of abolishing gun clubs because of the Texas sniper is just about as senseless as it would be to abolish auto clubs because people are killed by cars. . . . It is a constitutional right for Americans to keep and bear arms. The advantage of this right is that it serves to give training to the citizen soldiers who have been called upon to win every war since the U.S. Revolution in 1776."

GOSHEN, IND., NEWS: "The world food shortage, predicted for the turn of the century, may not be that far away. In fact, it may have already started. . . . Farmers are complaining they can't get labor to grow crops, especially fruits and vegetables.
Produce men this year say the supplies have been less adequate than in many years. . . . The American farmer is the most efficient producer of foods the world has ever known. It might be that now is the time to survey the situation, lift some controls and get to work rebuilding resources the world will need."

REYNOLDSVILLE, PA., STAR:
"What many suspected, others knew and all of us imagined, has now been confirmed as the result of a study of the efficiency and effectiveness of the U.S. Congress . . . it certainly has great room for improvement.
. . . Poor scheduling, and poor management of time is robbing the Congress of its intended independence.
More and more it is depending upon the budget and legislative requests of the executive without even having time and personnel to understand what it is all about."

DALLAS, TEXAS, NEWS: "There are perils, of course, in the free economy. Gluts and famines can bring wide price and wage fluctuations.
But after a 20-year trial run, it is difficult to see where the government-managed economy fares much better. Runaway inflation can be a depression turned upside-down."

ASHLAND, ORE., TIDINGS: "LP stands for liquified petroleum gas. A good many city people who aren't acquainted with LP come into intimate contact with it during their summer holidays. Because it can be handled in containers, it is very useful in cottages, trailers and even on boats. There's one thing that these people, and everyone, should know about LP gas . . . If you get into trouble, remember that it is odorized
as a safety measure—you can smell it—and that accumulations in low spots are very, very dangerous."

Bill: "Have you ever realized any of your boyhood wishes?"
Bob: "Yes. When my mother used to make me comb my hair, I often wished I didn't have any."

Some men allow day dreams to get a strangle-hold on duty.

EVERYTHING NEW THAT COULD HAPPEN---HAPPENED! For 1967 Chevrolet Passenger Cars

New Camaro makes

Six Distinct Car Lines for Chevrolet in 1967

Five 1967 Chevrolet models appear to be standing at attention as the CAMARO, newest member of the family, makes its introductory bow to the public (foreground, CAMARO Super Sport). While each Chevrolet model has distinctive styling motifs, the all new CAMARO features a new approach to the "long hood-short deck" design so successfully introduced to U.S. buyers by the Corvette. All Chevrolet-built passenger cars go on public display at dealers' September 29.

Also a brand new breed of Chevrolet Trucks

Many Improvements In

Restyled 1967 Chevrolet Truck Line

Clean, trim practical styling that gives a low, fleet look to this Fleetside pickup is only one of many advances in the 1967 Chevrolet truck line. Vision, cab comfort, and corrosion-resistance are improved. Other new features in the line include longer bodies and more power for Chevy-Vans, a redesigned, lower four-wheel-drive series, and diesels in forward-control delivery vans. In some larger models, a new shorter cab and front sheet metal design give a shorter wheelbase for improved maneuverability with no loss in load space.

KEYSVILLE DETOUR

Greetings to you:

Congratulations to Pastor and Mrs. Howard Miller of Taneytown upon the birth of their son John Edward on the 7th. Pastor Miller serves Trinity Lutheran Church.

The former Edgar Wilhide farm home on the Terra Rubra-Bruceville Road, which is now the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sevik, is being painted white and trimmed with white shutters for a "new look."

Don't forget the ground-breaking ceremony to be held at Keysville United Church of Christ on Sunday, Sept. 25, at 2:30 P. M. for a new Educational Building.

Callers last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cluts of River Dale Farm near Keysville were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boller of Rocky Ridge and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baumgardner near Keysville. Saturday evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Motter of Taneytown, Mrs. Elmer Welty of Hamstead, Mrs. Thelma Yingling and daughter Donna near Gettysburg and Mrs. Mary Cluts of Harney. Mrs. Mary Baubitz of Hagerstown was a week-end visitor and Sunday callers were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide near Detour, Miss Geraldine Boller of Thurmont and Charles Fuss of Akron, Ohio.

Bobby and Billy, sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Weishaar of Detour, were Wednesday overnight guests with their grandmother and uncle, Mrs. William Weishaar and Randy on the Forest and Stream Club Road. Mrs. Weishaar spent Thursday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Rinehart in Taneytown.

Keifer Seibert of Clear Spring spent Thursday with his granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Susan and Christine on the Forest and Stream Club Road near Detour.

Elmer A. Wolfe PTA Executive Committee meeting on Monday, Sept. 26, at 8 P. M. Members should come prepared to pay their dues.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walther of Washington Grove were visitors at the William Fleharty home near Detour on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Ralph Fleharty accompanied them home for a visit of about a week or ten days.

On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide near Detour accompanied their daughter Jane to Bridgewater College. They also called on cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hertzler in Harrisonburg, Va. Jane's address is Blue Ridge Dormitory, Bridgewater College, Bridgewater, Va.

There are still two white and two brown puppies waiting for homes at the Carroll Wilhide farm. Any takers?

Happy Birthday wishes next week to Charles Cluts and Kevin Nussbaum on the 26th, Joanne Roser on the 28th, Raymond Perry and Harry Dougherty, Sr. on the 29th and Harry Hohman on the 30th. Happy Anniversary wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Seibert on the 26th.

Sunday visitors with Mrs. William Weishaar and Randy near Detour were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wildisan, Kevin and Kim of Westminster, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Weishaar and Loretta, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Rinehart, Dennis, Francis and Fred and Sharon Smith of Taneytown.

How about all that very welcome rain last week? The ground was so hard that at first much of the water just ran off but it surely was welcomed and did a lot of good. The past several years that the summers have been so dry, the rain seemed to wait for the Frederick County Fair to fall. Perhaps this year it won't be so wet for the Fair? Sure the Fair Officials would appreciate it. Dates are Sept. 27 through Oct. 1.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilhide, Susan and Christine near Detour were her parents and family, grandparents, and aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Seibert, Paul, Mariann and Johnny and Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Miles of Clear Spring and Mr. and Mrs. James Seibert of Washington as well as his parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide and Beth near Detour. The occasion was to celebrate Mrs. Richard's birthday and her parents anniversary.

Thanks to all those who contributed to the Scouts paper drive on Saturday for it surely was appreciated. And to those who lend their trucks as well. There was some confusion in Middleburg for awhile for the Uniontown Troop was also having a drive but it was straightened out.

Confirmation classes to be organized for 7th, 8th and 9th graders at Keysville Lutheran Church on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 24, beginning at 2 P. M.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Wilhide called on Mrs. Virgie Ohler in Taneytown, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roop on the Keysville Road and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cluts near Keysville.

Don't forget the Mission Study Workshop at Grace Lutheran Church in Westminster on Sept. 29 beginning at 2:30 P. M.

On Sunday evening Mrs. Richard Wilhide near Detour was among those who attended the baby shower for Mrs. Julius Schrat, the former Miss Vickie Lambert of Taneytown, at the Rod and Gun Club. Mr. and Mrs. Schrat now make their home in Canadensis, Pa.

The guest speaker at Keysville Lutheran Church on Sunday was Robert Camac, a senior at the Seminary in Gettysburg. His text was taken from the Gospel lesson, Matthew 6:25, "Therefore, I tell you, do not be anxious about your life."

"Un-anxious, meaningless, despondent and anxious are common words today and yet the Bible tells us not to be anxious, he said. Much anxiety today, he went on, is about things that we cannot control or change anyway. God did not mean to remove us from all worries, however, but we need to come to a self-understanding. Man is an emotional and a spiritual being. More than material things are needed; we must have dependence upon God for peace of mind for God cares and provides. This young man, a native of Pennsylvania and the father of three children, was quite a forceful speaker.

Linda Schaffer and Shirley Keilholz sang the anthem for the morning, "Whispering Hope," and did it very well indeed.

My family and I toured the Carroll County Farm Museum in Westminster on Sunday afternoon and enjoyed every minute of our hour and a half there. The children were pleasantly surprised to find it wasn't all "just old farm machinery" and we were all quite impressed with the young blacksmith who was making small "shoes" for sale in the Gift Shop. He will be leaving soon to serve in the U. S. Army. The quilters were busy also. They had just finished one quilt and were fitting another onto the frame when we looked in on them. There is certainly "something for everybody" at the Museum and it is a well-worth-while visit for all. There is no admission charge at this time though a donation can be given and the amount of time you spend there is up to you. No pushing or rushing. The ladies posted in various spots to give you information are very attractively dressed, too, in their long wrap-around skirts and sunbonnets to match of pretty printed cottons. So drop around and enjoy yourself.

Cub Pack 459 Meeting

A new year in scouting for the members of Cub Pack 459 in Union Bridge was started on Friday evening, Sept. 16, at their meeting in the Church of the Brethren with the introduction of five new members and their mothers, Mrs. Sterling Keeney and Kevin, Mrs. Robert Aurd and Johnny, Mrs. Richard Stambaugh and Ricky, Mrs. Albert Burmeister and Mike Cinnamond and Mrs. Charles Carbaugh and Chuck.

Awards were presented: Ray Conaway, Bear badge; Mike Caricofe, assistant Denner badge; Jackie Brown, Bear and Lion badges, and Bobby DePew, Denner badge. The Webelos Den presented a short skit about Batman and TV ads.

Several announcements were made: Paper drive on the 17th (thank you to all those who contributed and to those who donated the use of their trucks. It was greatly appreciated. This is one of the few ways the Cubs have to raise money for the Pack.) Uniform Inspection will be held at the October Pack meeting. The Den Mothers will sponsor a Bake Sale in Union Bridge the evening of Oct. 28.

Dr. David Edwards led the group in the closing song, "America, the Beautiful," and refreshments were served by Mrs. David Edwards and Mrs. Danny Zile.

Note: It would be appreciated if the previous Den Mothers whose uniforms were supplied by the Pack would turn them in to Mrs. Edwards for they are needed.

Five Dens were established at the weekly meeting on Sept. 19. Den 1, Mrs. Blanchard Bowman—Bradley Bowman, Johnny Aurd, Danny Johnson, Mike Cinnamond, Mike and Ricky Stambaugh; Den 2, Mrs. Kenneth Yingling—Jay Nussbaum, Jackie Brown, Dale Yingling and Chuck Carbaugh; Den 3, Mrs. Danny Zile—Tony Yingling, Jeff Harvey, Glenn Edwards and Kevin Keeney; Den 4, Mrs. William Weishaar—Randy Weishaar, Bruce Fleharty, Richard Eyley, Jeffrey Six, Teddy Roser and "Buck" Mehning; Den 5, Sam Fleming (Webelos)—Jeff Yingling, George Ricketts, Jay Conaway, Bobby DePew, Mike Caricofe, Danny Zile and David Buffington.

VIEW FROM MY KITCHEN WINDOW

September is back to school and college month, and as I sit at my window this morning I think about our young people and their needs and problems. I, for one, do not envy them. It seems to me that even the smaller children are kept under considerable pressure. There is a world of organized activities—so organized, as a matter of fact, that every moment is accounted for. Today, youngsters have neither the spare time or the privacy to be themselves, or by themselves. They must take music lessons, ballet lessons, join the Little League, play in the band, be a Scout, belong to the 4-H, and what have you. And, apparently, they are expected to excel at just about everything. Some youngsters, like some adults, are natural whirlwinds and enjoy and thrive on ceaseless activity. But what of those boys and girls who like to day-dream once in awhile, or who "elish quiet times of reading or just plain thinking? And believe me, after the tensions of the school day, many of them really need these opportunities. It seems to me that it is high time that our young people were treated as individuals, not pushed and prodded to do things merely because everyone else is doing them, or as a status symbol in the school and community.

Today (Tuesday, September 13) a miracle took place—it rained! After months of desperate dryness, the heavens opened up and the wonderful wet stuff came down in torrents. At first, the arid land absorbed it like a blotter, but as the hours went by, flooding conditions occurred. Our bridge was completely covered, as the swollen stream angrily overflowed its banks. In some sections of the state, roads were impassable, as more than six inches of rain steadily fell. Now that the great Northeastern Drought has finally been broken, the pastures look as softly green as they did in the spring, and streams and rivers are once again flowing normally. We can all give thanks to God for His love and care, for He truly knows our every need, regardless of the situation.

The Membership Committee gave an account of 179 persons having thus far joined the P-TA.

Dr. Karl Green will be guest speaker at the October meeting.

MEETING OF GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Simon Klosky, Saint Anne's Lodge, Emmitsburg, entertained the Silver Fancy Garden Club on September 15th at a picnic luncheon. Mrs. Andrew Eyster and Mrs. Hewitt MacPherson were co-hostesses. The business meeting was conducted by Miss Liza Carpenter, president of the club. Sixteen members and one guest were present. The club voted to make several table arrangements at the next meeting for the Silver Moon Ball given by the Carroll County General Hospital on October 22 in Westminster. Final arrangements were made for participation in the District V Flower Show to be held at the South Hagerstown High School on September 21 from 2:00 to 9:00 P. M. This show is open to the public. Several of the members brought crescent arrangements as a part of the program. Mrs. MacPherson gave a progress report on the landscaping at the Taneytown pool which was done by the club.

The next regular meeting will be held on October 20th at the home of Mrs. Vernon Keilholz with Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner and Mrs. Simon Klosky assisting.

GRACE CHURCH KEYSVILLE HOLDS GROUND-BREAKING SERVICE

After much planning the people of Grace United Church of Christ at Keysville will be ready on Sunday, September 25th, at 2:30 P. M., to break ground for the erection of a much needed Christian Education Building which will adjoin the present church structure. The Rev. Wm. F. Wiley, pastor, will preside at the service. The Rev. Morgan Andreas, a former Pastor and now Pastor of Zion United Church of Christ, Spring Grove, Penna., will read the scripture. The Rev. Guy Bready, of Frederick, Md., also a former Pastor and in retirement, will offer the Consecration Prayer.

The Building Committee Chairman, Mr. Clarence Stoner, will make a few remarks and then present the spade to the Rev. William F. Wiley, pastor, who will turn the first spade of earth as the representative of the entire congregation. The Rev. Mr. Wiley will give the spade to The Rev. Bernie Zerkel, Jr., Associate Conference Minister of the Central Atlantic Conference of the United Church of Christ, from Braddock Heights, Md., who will turn a spade of earth as the denominational representative, and in turn representatives from the adults and the youth and children will turn a spade of earth for the new building.

The public is most cordially invited to attend this great event. Light refreshments will be served following the service.

HARVEST HOME SERVICE

This coming Sunday, September 25, at 10:00 A. M., the congregation of Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, will gather for its annual Harvest Home Service. This in-gathering service is held for the benefit of the more than 250 guests at the National Lutheran Home for the Aged, Washington, D. C.

The Harvest Home service is another expression of the congregation's stewardship. And this year, still recognizing the needs of others even amidst the reality of a summer whose harvest yield was less than usual, the congregation will emphasize breakfast staples. It is the hope to create a MOUNTAIN OF BREAKFAST: cereal and sugar, syrup and pancake mix, coffee and tea, jams, jellies, fruits, flour, etc. Members of the congregation and friends in the community desiring to participate are urged to bring their gifts to the church this Saturday.

HYMN SING

An evening of sacred songs and music will be presented in the Uniontown Church of God on Sunday evening, September 25 at 7:30 P. M.

The following will participate in the program: Gospel Singers—the Leaders Bible Class of Calvary Methodist, Frederick, Md.; duet—Mrs. Austin Mullican and Mrs. Leslie Main, Mt. Pleasant United Church of Christ; solo—Lee Reichard, Calvary Methodist, Frederick; choir—Frizzellburg Church of God; solo—Miss Bonnie Fuss, Toms Creek Methodist Church; Junior Choir—Uniontown Church of God; solo—Mrs. Patsy Crouse, Redeemers United Church of Christ, Littlestown, Penna.; trio—Mrs. Allen Morelock and Mr. and Mrs. James Wantz, (Baust) United Church of Christ; accordion solo—Miss Irene Young, Kriders Church, near Westminster.

TANEYTOWN BASEBALL: Born 1890; Died 1966

Local Sandlotters Call it Quits After 76 Years

THE WAY I SEE IT . . .

Observations on the World of Sports —John Breth

Second baseman DAVE JOHNSON has been a big help to the Baltimore Orioles this season, though he hasn't been getting the attention showered on the club's top stars. But in many cases, these so-called unsung heroes like Johnson are the ones who glue the club together and make it a winner.

When Johnson went to spring training last March, he figured if he had any chance at all to land a spot with the club it would be at shortstop. Luis Aparicio had been talking retirement after a rather dismal season last year. Second base, on the other hand, seemed out of the question, since Jerry Adair appeared to have the post sewed up on the basis of his fine showing last year.

But the way things turned out at the Orioles' camp in Miami, Fla., Johnson had it figured all wrong. Aparicio decided to give the game another whirl, after all. Adair, however, had contract trouble and he stayed away. That gave Johnson his opening, and he made the most of it. By the time Adair showed up, Johnson had the second base job.

At one point early in the campaign, Adair did replace Johnson for a while, but when Dave was given another shot at the job, he went on a surprising hitting spurt for a couple of weeks. That gave the Orioles enough confidence to trade Adair, and Johnson had the position for keeps.

As happy as he is with the way things have worked out for him this season, Johnson is not satisfied that he is doing all he can to help with his bat. For a while this season, his batting average was up in the .270's, but it has fallen off by some 20 points. He has driven in 52 runs, however, which is not a bad figure for a batting average in the .250's. Johnson was on the sidelines for two weeks recently when he suffered a broken toe. He spent his time during those weeks sitting in the stands behind home plate and watching how the pitchers work.

He says he learned a lot from that. One lesson has to do with pulling the ball. Johnson, who stands six-one and weighs 170 pounds, explained he discovered that it is futile for a man his size to try to pull the ball on every pitch—especially those outside ones. According to Johnson, only two men on the Orioles are strong enough to get away with that—Frank Robinson and Curt Blefary. The right-handed-hitting Johnson says he has resigned himself to going with the pitch—if it's outside, slap it to right. He hopes by doing that, he will be able to hike his batting average between now and the end of the season. He figures it will look better when they get around to making those comparison charts for the World Series.

The HOUSTON ASTRODOME continues to supply news, even if it is a year and a half old. The latest gimmick to draw publicity is an outfield covered with artificial grass. The Astros were forced to use what is called Astro-turf for the infield. Finding it satisfactory, it was decided to use the same material in the outfield. Thus far, the complaints have been few.

There is a strong reason why the operators of the Astrodome had to find a substitute for grass. One grass will not grow in the enclosed stadium. It had been hoped that the sunlight in the domed park would enable the grass to grow. But outfielders found that the sun played tricks with fly balls. So, the grass was painted to eliminate the sunlight. It also eliminated the grass.

The fabulous ball park drew an over-all attendance of well over four million last year. There were 481,190 who paid one dollar each just for a guided tour.

The annual electric bill for the Astrodome runs to $350,000 a year. The over-all cost of running the place is around the two and one-half million dollar mark.

The structure cost 38 million dollars and it will take quite a few years before the cost is met.

But Judge Roy Hofheinz, the guiding genius behind the erection of the Astrodome, has a lot of plans for what is termed the eighth wonder of the world.

In addition to housing the Houston Astros, Hofheinz has plans for football, polo, bull fights, circuses, rodeos, boat shows, boxing, basketball, hockey and many other enterprises. He also hopes to get future conventions of the Republican and Democratic parties.

The only regret Hofheinz has about his park is that he can't have a quarter-mile track built for running. Nor can auto or horse racing be fitted in.

But the Astrodome will continue to get plenty of publicity in the years to come because it is just fabulous.

Today's Sport Laugh — Tackle Sherman Plunkett of the New York Jets scales 320 pounds and is rated as a tough man to push around. Ron McDole, a defensive end for the Buffalo Bills, recently lauded Plunkett by saying: "By the time you get around him, two plays have been run off."

CUB SCOUT PACK 718

The first Pack Meeting of Cub Scout Pack 718 will be held on Wednesday, September 28, 1966, at 7:30 P. M., at St. Joseph's Hall.

All Cub Scouts and parents are urged to attend. A special invitation is extended to all boys 8-10 years old that are interested in joining the Cubs.

At the ripe old age of 76 years, baseball in Taneytown was quietly buried on Sunday at a meeting called by the president John Breth. Just about as many players showed up at the meeting as showed up for baseball on Sunday the past season. Manager Bob Fogle officially ended his career in baseball for the local nine as he turned in his uniform.

With apologies to past baseball leaders as: Harry Clingan "Manny" Wildasin, Arvin Bollinger, Fern Hitchcock, Roger Blettner, Fred Shank, Fern Hitchcock, Jr., and all the others whom we forgot to mention. The sport they aided and helped to survive has been laid to rest.

To some the passing of baseball in Taneytown means the end of an era. An Era filled with memories of delightful Sundays watching the local team in jam-packed stacked and standing room only sidelines. Those were the days of great teams and even greater attendance. After the war, other outside interest prevailed and the crowds became smaller and smaller. In the past few years attendance became ridiculously small and the ensuing revenue that they brought, dwindled. With no money coming in, baseball each year became harder and harder to operate. It has been a real tribute to the team work of the players that baseball has lasted as long as it has in Taneytown.

To some others, besides those who faithfully came each week to see the Tigers play and supported the local team, the end of baseball could bother them less. We feel sorry for those who have never had the thrill of watching local teams perform at the Memorial Park on Sunday.

Many people have aided baseball locally, both on the field and off the playing limits. People, too numerous to mention, even if we did know all their names. They too must feel a little sad at the end of baseball.

Can the team come back next Spring? Will baseball be resurrected? Only time will tell. It is however, very, very doubtful.

BLINKERS vs. THINKERS

BY DICK MANSFIELD

September is "Back-to-School" month for all the boys and girls in our state. With this influx of children crossing our streets—walking on highways—and playing in areas which should be restricted—the motorist must be more alert and safety-conscious than ever before.

Accidents are the leading cause of death of school-age children, warns the Maryland Traffic Safety Commission. Motorists have a responsibility to protect the child life of our community, and so do the parent and teachers. The motorist must drive with care and always be aware of the child because children are impulsive and unpredictable when absorbed in play. The parent has a responsibility of living safely at home and on the highway, thus setting a good example for the child to follow. The teacher has a responsibility to teach the child safety in a way that he understands and that adds meaning to his everyday experiences. Everyone of us should accept our responsibility to our children—the goal is a rewarding one—the protection of our children.

Let's send them back to school reassured that everyone is doing his part to protect all our children against death and destruction on the highways.

Featuring new sheet metal for the first time since its introduction in April of 1964, the Mustang for 1967 is sportier in appearance and livelier than ever before. The 2+2 Fastback model (above) has a new roof line and concave rear panel while the convertible (below) illustrates the thrusting new hood line and deeply inset grille. All Mustangs for 1967 have two-inch wider front and rear tread for improved handling. Options for 1967 include a 320-horsepower, 390 CID V-8 engine and Select Shift Cruise-O-Matic transmission for manual or automatic gear shifting.

Styling changes for the 1967 Fairlane, which was completely redesigned for 1966, include taillights divided by back-up lights as shown on the Fairlane X/L Hardtop above and a dramatic new grille treatment as illustrated on the Fairlane 500 4-door Sedan below. Interior styling is new as well with color-coordinated, cloth-and-vinyl combinations. Fairlane models go on display at Ford dealer showrooms Friday, Sept. 30.

Dramatic new styling marks the 1967 Ford which has received a major sheet metal change for the third time in three years. Pictured here are the X/L Convertible (above) and the X/L 2-door Hardtop, both of which offer Ford's Select Shift Cruise-O-Matic transmission as standard equipment. Featured only on the Fairlane GTA in 1966, Select Shift permits the driver to shift manually or automatically. Ford's new styling features sculptured side panels and a gull-wing design grille that is die-cast in the X/L, LTD and Country Squire series. Engineering improvements give the 1967 Ford an even quieter and smoother ride. All Ford models will be on display at Ford dealer showrooms Friday, Sept. 30.

In A Word

Lesson For September 25, 1966

Background Scripture: Jeremiah 31:31-34; Matthew 5:17-20; John 13:34-35; 15:10-14.
Devotional Reading: 1 Corinthians 13:4-10.

Little Johnnie was being cross-examined by his grandmother concerning what he had learned in Sunday school. Had he learned the Ten Commandments, she wanted to know? "Well, I was going to learn them," he said with great seriousness, "but I heard talk that they are going to do away with them!"

Perhaps little Johnnie heard someone say that the "new morality" is doing away with the Ten Commandments. Perhaps he got the impression from his Sunday school teacher that Jesus himself did away with the Ten Commandments. This is precisely what his enemies charged. This shocking Nazarene preacher and his "new morality" were undermining all the old moral absolutes.

Not Destroy, But Fulfill

Unfortunately, they misunderstood him. "Think not that I have come to abolish the law and the prophets; I have come not to abolish them but to fulfill them." (Matthew 5:17 RSV) Of course, even that statement infuriated them, for why did the Ten Commandments need to be fulfilled? Aren't they completely adequate as they stand? They spell things out quite clearly: they say it is wrong to steal, to commit adultery, to bear false witness, to covet, to murder, etc. How can you fulfill moral absolutes?

If they had listened to him carefully, they would have realized that Jesus was calling for, not a lesser righteousness, but one that went beyond the letter of the law to the very spirit and purpose of the law. This is exactly what he meant when he said to his disciples: "For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom" (Matthew 5:20). The Nazarene's "new morality" aimed higher, not lower.

Jesus did not regard the law and the teachings of the prophets as moral absolutes, as iron-clad laws which could be interpreted simply and without question in every situation that demanded a moral choice. These choices are not always so clear-cut. There are times when one cannot make a choice which is wholly good and free from sin or evil. A man working for a business firm that indulges in certain unethical practices may find it difficult to choose between resigning to witness to his principles or remaining in his job to do what he can to change company policy.

Behind It All

The law, Jesus knew, was only an incomplete expression of the will of God. Thus, when they came to him asking him what was the most important of all the laws, Jesus summed up all the law and the prophets with: "You shall love the Lord your God . . . and your neighbor as yourself." In short, the purpose of God could be summed up in single word: love. Thus, the "new commandment" which he gave them was the key to what he meant by fulfilling the law and the prophets: ". . . love one another as I have loved you" (John 15:12).

If we look back to his interpretation of each of the ten commandments, we find that love is the key to his. "But I say to you . . . God desires not only truth from us, but truth in love. The gift of sex is to be employed only within the bounds of married love. In speaking of the child's responsibility to honor his parents, he called for love as both the motive and the power of this obedience. Again and again, his fulfilling of the law and the prophets was dependent upon the power of love.

He was not content, however, to mouth the word "love." The word means too many different things to different people. He made that Word become flesh and in one agonizing afternoon on a cross he showed man all that he meant by that one word, love.

Community, Chest-Red Cross United Appeal

The time has come again for the annual soliciting of funds for the United Appeal. This year, more than ever, the public is being asked to "Team Up To Help." Population growth is increasing, and the demands for agency services, causing the operating costs to rise. That "little extra" can mean the difference between success and failure in achieving the 1966 goal. Failure to meet the goal many mean the failure of agencies to meet their public commitments.

The Tract Chairmen for the Taneytown and Harney area are Mrs. Stanley King, Mrs. John Harner, Mrs. Kenneth Smith, Mrs. Theodore Fair, Mrs. Edmund Kelso, Mrs. John M. Skiles and Mrs. John Fream. These chairmen have obtained 49 helpers for door-to-door soliciting. Their names and areas will be published in the next issue of The Carroll Record. The campaign for funds will begin on October 3.

You may ask what do the residents of Carroll County receive in return for their contributions to the United Appeal campaign? Money contributed returns to the county via services rendered by most of the 54 agencies and Red Cross chapter supported through the United Appeal. Following are a few of the services given directly to Carroll County residents:

Pickersill Aged Women and Aged Men's Home cared for two elderly Carroll residents for a year, Maryland Children's Aid Society assisted 94 persons in adoption procedures; provided 453 days of foster care to eight children. Happy Hills Hospital treated a child for 59 days in-patient care. Salvation Army served 846 Carroll residents, including 52 persons using day care, 129 counseled, financial assistance to 244. Arthritis Foundation: clinic treatment given to 100. These are only a few services rendered by this foundation.

Space does not permit giving all of the services contributed directly to our county, but these funds also help support the Boy Scouts, Children's Aid and Family Service Society, Girl Scouts, Maryland Society for Prevention of Blindness, Carroll YMCA, and Community Information and Referral Service.

The United Appeal is the best way for PEOPLE to help PEOPLE! When the United Appeal solicitor calls on you this year, greet her with a smile AND a contribution. GIVE AS MUCH AS YOU CAN!

Mrs. Jean Brown, Chairman, Taneytown Area.

FT. DIX, N.J. (AHTNC) — Joseph B. Martin, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Martin, 39 North Colonial Ave., Westminster, Md., received an early promotion to Army pay grade private E-2 on completion of basic combat training at Ft. Dix, N.J., August 25.

He was awarded the promotion two months earlier than is customary because of his accuracy in firing the M-14 rifle, high score on the physical combat proficiency test and his military bearing and leadership abilities. The early promotion program is an Army policy providing incentive for outstanding trainees.

Pvt. Martin entered on active duty last June. Martin is a 1966 graduate of Westminster High School.

Warmth which ignites his audience, Wayne's very presence seemed to stir the crowd. His is a natural talent. Tears came to our eyes as he sang "What Kind of Fool Am I?" A smile spread across our faces when he belted out "Swanee," "Bill Bailey," and his famous "Danke Schoen" along with many others. Possessing a marvelous voice and personality is only part of his story—his is a many faceted talent. Without reading a note of music, he has mastered eight instruments and is working on a ninth. Many have seen his wit and personality personified on "The Jackie Gleason Show," "The Ed Sullivan Show," "The Lucy Show," "The Jack Benny Show," and recently his dramatic acting debut on "Bonanza" as Andy in the segment entitled, "The Unwritten Commandment."

Not for one second was there any indication of exhaustion on his part despite a performance which would have depleted the energy of an Olympic runner. After the finale and to the applause of a standing ovation, Jack Benny and Wayne Newton retired to their dressing rooms—the end for the mass of spectators, but only the beginning for us.

We were greeted by Tommy Amato, Wayne's talented and personable manager, and escorted backstage through the throngs of people to Wayne's dressing room. It was then that we encountered our first twangs of fear and apprehension—what were we doing here? What could a star possibly have to say to us?

Our anxieties were quickly eased when we walked into Wayne's dressing room and were introduced. Here was a star who was still respectful and thoughtful. Seeing there wasn't enough seating space for our mother, Wayne quickly carried his own chair over and made our mother comfortable before returning to perch on a small refrigerator for the interview. From our interview we learned many facts about Wayne Newton. Every question was answered thoughtfully and intelligently and in the personable Newton manner. At no time did he give the impression that he was in a hurry or that his time was too valuable for any more chatter. Instead, he displayed an eager desire to please.

Wayne Newton is his real name, and he was born 24 years ago in Norfolk, Va., of English-German-Irish-Indian ancestry. He has one brother, Jerry, who travels with him and appears as his guitarist and background ad libber. You may have seen him appear as the pianist on the "Bonanza" episode mentioned earlier. At the ripe old age of four, Wayne began charming audiences at local church functions. At the age of 17, the opportunity to become a regular performer at the Fremont Hotel in Las Vegas, Nev., influenced him and his family to move to Las Vegas. It was here that Jackie Gleason discovered Wayne and signed him for appearances on "The Jackie Gleason Show." In 1963, through the assistance of his good friend Bobby Darin, Wayne discovered and recorded "Danke Schoen." "Danke Schoen" skyrocketed and he was an "overnight success" after 18 years in show business.

In addition to "Danke Schoen," Wayne has recorded such hits as "Red Roses for a Blue Lady," "Heart," "L-O-V-E," and "Summer Wind." He has released eight fabulous albums (we know because we have them all). His latest, "The Old Rugged Cross," is a collection of beautiful hymns loved by all. Prior to this album, he recorded "Wayne Newton Now," which contained one of the finest collections of popular songs available today. His Christmas album is in the recording stages and promises to be his usual high calibre. (You may be assured that it will be added to our collection.)

When asked for an example of an average day in his life, Wayne used that same day to give us an idea. Early that morning he had gone to New York City for all-day meetings and conferences, had returned shortly before showtime, and had performed that night. Three to four hours sleep each night is his usual and he is on the road constantly. His schedule of performances in supper clubs and nightclubs throughout the United States permits three or four brief visits at his home every three months. His is not a job which requires stepping in front of a microphone—it involves strenuous rehearsals, self-improvement, and a deluge of meetings and conferences. We asked if he would trade his life for that of a 9-to-5 businessman, but his exuberance and obvious love for his work answered our question even before his spoken word. Wayne is a perfectionist and is not satisfied unless his performance is indicative of his high ideals. Watching his performance, you are filled with the spirit of this wholesome, all-American boy and you are increasingly proud of your American heritage. You will never read his name in a scandal sheet or see him playing in an obscene movie. You WILL see reports on his trips to Viet Nam to entertain our troops. Whether appearing on television, on the stage, or at a posh nightclub, he is always Wayne Newton—the true talent—the shining example of the "boy next door."

Wayne's talent has been enjoyed by adults all over the country, and you owe it to yourself to find out why he has been dubbed, "Mr. Entertainment." Wayne can soon be seen on "The Danny Thomas Special" in November and the Christmas "Bonanza." Watch for him—let his warmth and talent glow in your living rooms. The entertainment world needs more Wayne Newtons, and only you can help. Send in requests to all the local radio stations for his recordings, buy his records and albums, and join his fan club. Listen to him and tell your friends about him, and we know you will agree that he is destined to become an American institution.

The trouble with school drop-outs is not that they can't see the handwriting on the wall, but they can't read it.

MEETING OF SENIOR CITIZENS

The Taneytown Senior Citizens held their regular meeting on Monday, September 19 at 7:00 P.M. in the social room of Trinity Lutheran Church. The outdoor meeting scheduled, had to be cancelled due to inclement weather. There were 20 members present.

The president, Mrs. Paul Warehime was unable to be present, due to illness, and as the vice-president was also absent the meeting was in charge of the secretary, Mrs. Margaret Alexander.

Plans for future meetings were discussed and our project for next month is to bring articles for the Gray Ladies to take to Springfield, to be used in their work there. During the social hour group singing led by Mr. Wallace Reindollar and accompanied by Mrs. Hubert Noll was enjoyed. Poems were read by Mrs. Mary Koons and Mrs. Ruth Naylor.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ruth Naylor and Mrs. Margaret Alexander.
