THE EASTER BELLS.

Ring, ring, O Easter Bells!

Ring for the rosy hills of dawn

Shine 'neath the feet of Easter morn!

Ring till your long, clear tidal swells

Flood the wide earth with silvery sound!

Ring for the battle fought and won!

Ring for the Victor throned and crowned:

Ring for death destroyed and sin undone!

Ring, ring, O Easter Bells!

Ring out the love that will not cease

To weep o'er brows where all is Peace,

Ring out black weeds and funeral knells:

Ring in the love that walks in light

Of healing hope, and lifts its eyes

From illy wreaths to saints in white,

From empty graves to Paradise!

Ring, ring, O Easter Bells!

Ring out the wide wild bitter cry

Of hearts that break and souls that die,

On grimy streets and noisome cells:

Ring in white charity, to trace

Through soil and want the Master's tread

And learn to know His blessed face

On giving Peace and blessing Bread!

Ring, ring, O Easter Bells!

Ring out the old man born in sin:

The new man born in Christ, ring in:

Ring in the living-water wells!

Ring in the Bridegroom and the Bride:

Ring in the one, true, great High Priest:

Ring in the pearls gate oped wide:

Ring in the endless marriage feast!

Ring, ring, O Easter Bells!

REMINISCENCES OF A

SUMMER TRIP.

[Written for the Emmitsburg Chronicle.]

London contains a great many statues and monuments, some of which are very imposing. What is spoken of simply as The Monument is the one designed by Wren to commemorate the Great Fire of 1666. It is a lofty, fluted column, surmounted by a golden urn from which golden flames are issuing.

Some person has said that the Fire was sent as a punishment for gluttony, for the flames broke out in Pudding-lane and stopped at Pic-cornet.

The little green squares scattered through London are enclosed with iron railings, the gates are locked, and no one is admitted except the families of "subscribers;" but the poor people are permitted to look through the railings. The streets are crooked, and change their names without the slightest provocation. When several streets come sharply together they make no struggle for existence, but resolve themselves into an open space which is called a circus. Cir-cusses serve as bus cab stations.

The omnibuses run in almost an unbroken stream; needing no tracks they can turn aside when necessary, so their progress is never impeded. They carry a limited number of passengers, inside and on top, and the fares are regulated by the distance, a chart of rates being hung inside in full view. Ladies often ride on top, and the guards have acquired an indescrible, inimitable slight of hand in helping the fair sex to ascend and descend the spiral staircase. You will scarcely believe me when I tell you that the bus windows are immovable, can't be opened even when a pleasant day surprises London.

We found the guards very courteous and accommodating, and I can say the same of the policemen. I never became fully accustomed to the soldiers that are always strolling about in foreign cities; their presence seemed suggestive of hostility and excitement.

I expected to find English women rosy and vigorous, but I was disappointed. I saw nothing which would indicate that they have greater powers of endurance than American women. As to the sensible dress of English women, just take as an instance the statement of a prominent shoe dealer who said that we "couldn't find a pair of low-heeled shoes in London."

"She put her horns through my bathtub and ate up all my geraniums. She was to give three gallons of milk a day, but she seemed short just then, and never had that to spare while we kept her. The second day she walked into the kitchen and upset a pan of butter and a tub of lard. Then she fell down a well, and when I got her out at a cost of five dollars, she took the colic, whooping cough, or something, and kept us awake all night. Not a green thing was left in my garden; my neighbor's peach trees and the rope on which his underwear grew were as bare of fruit as a singletree, and he did not have a twig of shrubbery left. My neighbor came over to me and said:

"Now, I don't desire any quarrel, but I want you to keep your cow out of my shrubbery."

"And I want you, my friend

FARMER'S CLUB AND THE TARIFF TALK.

The proceedings of our Farmer's Club, as reported for and published on the first page of this issue, will no doubt enlist considerable attention.

In the discussion of the question "Does the Farmer need protection?" there is a highly creditable array of statistics well used and practical inferences.

The tariff of necessity affects the course of industry in general. It is a sort of a grand insurance company, originated and kept in existence to make good the profits of manufacturers, miners, iron-workers, &c., or it may be to restore losses from mismanagement or incompetence, or the want of capital.

The effect of the whole policy in its most conspicuous form, is evident on all sides in giving us the classes of citizens, recognized as capitalists and laborers, whose divergence contrary to the true intent and meaning of our institutions becomes more manifest almost daily.

In Europe wealth governs, and the poor by the inheritance of ages, are the laborers; whilst with us the government is for the people, by the people, and the poor man of one year, may be the millionaire of the next.

The farmer seeks remunerative prices for his products; when he does not receive them, his prosperity is necessarily retarded. With taxes covering his lands, his clothing and his food less than one dollar a bushel for his favorite product—wheat, what show has he for prosperity?

These questions all involve the gravest perplexities for statesmen. But after all is said, may be reduced to a very narrow basis. Manufacturers and others who have articles to protect want the protection; those who do not need protection oppose the whole project.

THE last sayings of Christ are given in the mystical number seven as follows: 1. "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."—Luke xxiii, 34.

JOHN G. SAXE, the poet, died on the 31st ult., in Albany.

GOVERNOR BEAVER, of Pennsylvania, has named April 23 as Arbor Day in that state.

EASIER.

The Church Year reaches its crowning glory on Easter, which is the governing festival from which all others are reckoned, and every recurrence of the day finds its glorious memories renewed, and the glad tokens of its return are exchanged and heralded throughout the world, and the solemn celebrations of the church on earth will go on and onward, and be forever continued in the heavenly world to come.

It is essentially a religious celebration, and hence the services are distinguished by the most solemn exercises. Any attempts to divert attention from the intrinsic force and meaning of the occasion are in contravention of its true significance.

All the honors paid to the historical heroes and statesmen and others distinguished in the world's affairs pale before the glory of the Captain of man's salvation, and are as far apart as is the heavenly exaltation above the earth, and the triumphant acclaim now fills the earth—"The Lord is risen indeed."

THE PRESIDENT'S ADVISERS.

The position of the President is one in which every citizen seems to think he has certain inalienable rights to criticize, advise or find fault at will, and President Cleveland has come in for an unstinted amount of the popular interest.

Months ago there was a manifest disposition to pry into his private life and comment thereon with a freedom that savored of ill breeding, and matters were constantly discussed that would not be allowable in the case of private persons.

The due operation of personal progress we believe to consist in the cultivation of such habits, not inconsistent with the proprieties of life and good morals, as may suit individual fancy and promote proper mental activity.

The municipal election in Chicago on Tuesday resulted in the overwhelming defeat of Nelson, the labor socialistic candidate by Roche, by about 30,000 votes.

The Labor ticket was defeated in Cincinnati because of its alliance with socialistic elements.

In Michigan the election was on the prohibitory amendment, which was defeated by about 5,000 majority.

Rhode Island State election, was for State officers and members of the legislature, and the Woman's Suffrage Amendment to the Constitution, Davis, Democrat received a plurality of 1500 for Governor together with the rest of the State ticket.

THE last sayings of Christ are given in the mystical number seven as follows:

- 1. "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."—Luke xxiii, 34. 2. "Verily, * * * To-day shalt thou be with me in paradise."—Luke xxiii, 43. 3. "Woman behold thy son!"—John xix, 26. 4. ("Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?) My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"—Matthew xxvii, 46. 5. "I thirst."—John xix, 28. 6. "It is finished."—John xix, 30. 7. "Father, into Thy hands I commend My spirit!"—Luke xxiii, 46.

JOSEPH H. BRADLEY, the oldest member of the Washington bar, died on Sunday afternoon in the eighty-fourth year of his age.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Special to the Emmitsburg Chronicle.

APRIL 5.—The appointment of Assistant Secretary Fairchild as Mr. Manning's successor, was officially announced, on Thursday. As Mr. Fairchild has virtually filled the position of Secretary for a year or more, and has therefore become thoroughly familiar with the duties of the position, it was but fair that he should have received the promotion.

General Geo. A. Sheridan delivered this week, a rather spirited lecture in behalf of christianity and against Col. Bob Ingersoll whom he denominated "The Modern Pagan." After a tribute to the personal character of the Pagan, he proceeded to show that the great infidel's only weapons against christianity were sneers, ribald jests and utter disregard of facts.

There is every prospect of more work being done in Washington this year than in any preceding year. Congress, the past session, was fairly liberal in its appropriation for Government improvement in this city.

The purchase of buildings lots for speculation is immense, and it is estimated that fully 5000 dwelling houses will be erected the coming season. This number added to the large number of tenant-less houses already here, will near 10,000 dwellings in the hands of speculators seeking occupants.

Capitalists throughout the country being apprised of this fact, by these real estate agents, and the fact that Washington is destined to be a large city, have been crazed in investing their money here.

The recent decision of U. S. Land Commissioner Sparks in favor of plaintiff in the case of Dr. W. H. Cayce vs. St. Louis Iron Mountain and Southern R. R. Co. is both deserving to Dr. Cayce and creditable to the Commissioner.

The Doctor has been in possession, for over 40 years, of a certain piece of land at Texarkana, Texas, and has made valuable improvements thereon. It would have been an outrage upon humanity and justice to have deprived him of his home and given it to a R. R. monopoly.

In the state of New York what is known as the Crosby High License bill, was passed on March 31st by a majority of four votes. The bill applies only to cities having 400,000 inhabitants and of course only reaches New York City and Brooklyn.

THE STEWART SALE OVER.

The sale of the sculptures, art furniture, &c., of the Stewart sale in New York ended last week, $582,944.65 was the total sum obtained. Many articles were withdrawn.

BOILS, pimples, bives, ringworm, tetter, and all other manifestations of impure blood are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

AN equestrian statue of Albert Sidney Johnston was unveiled with imposing ceremonies in New Orleans on Wednesday. Mr. Jefferson Davis delivered an address on the occasion.

W. D. WASHBURN, of Minneapolis, is the greatest American miller. He turns out 5000 barrels of flour a day.

MARVIN SMITH, of Montville, Conn., died on March 31, aged 102 years. His second wife, with whom he has lived forty-two years, survives him, and also two sons. He celebrated the centennial anniversary of his birth on November 18, 1884.

The Interstate Commerce Commerce Commissioners were sworn into office at the Interior Department, Washington City, on Thursday afternoon, March 31. On organizing, on motion of Mr. Morrison, Judge Cooley was elected Chairman of the Commission.

The Off Told Story

Of the peculiar medicinal merits of Hood's Sarsaparilla is fully confirmed by the voluntary testimony of thousands who have tried it. Peculiar in their combination, proportion, and preparation of its ingredients, peculiar in the extreme care with which it is put up, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most popular and successful medicine before the public today for purifying the blood, giving strength, creating an appetite, &c. It cures from weakness, proportion, and preparation of its ingredients, peculiar in the extreme care with which it is put up, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail.

Henry Biggs, Campbell Street, Kansas City, had scrofulous sores all over his body for fifteen years. Hood's Sarsaparilla completely cured him.

Walter Duck, of North Bloomfield, N. Y., suffered eleven years with a terrible venereal ulcer on his leg, so bad that he had to give up business. He was cured of the ulcer, and also of catarrh, by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

There is every prospect of more work being done in Washington this year than in any preceding year.

A Curious Bird.

Mr. Harry C. Keefe, of the Examiner, states that a curiosity in the way of a white robin was sent to him from the Point of Rocks, killed in that neighborhood last week. This is the first one of the kind which was ever seen in this city. The bird is the same size as an ordinary robin, perfectly white, except the breast which is red.—News.

List of Letters.

The following letters remain in the Post Office, Emmitsburg, Md., April 4, 1887. Persons calling will please say advertised, otherwise they may not receive them:

Miss Sallie W. Adams, Miss Mary Cain, Mrs. Mary G. Farris, Miss Ellie W. Melia, Eddie Madlen, Miss Lizzie Morrison, T. S. Shields, Jimmie Shriver.

It should be the aim of every householder to have every part of our village in its neatest, cleanliest and brightest state by May 1st. In whitewashing the cellars use plenty of copers to disinfect, and to keep out insects, and plenty of the same dissolved in hot water in sinks &c. for their purification. Filth and goodness can no more live together, than light and darkness.

Don't Get Caught

This spring with your blood full of impurities, your digestion impaired, your appetite poor, kidneys and liver torpid, and whole system liable to be prostrated by disease—but get yourself into good condition, and ready for the changing and warmer weather, by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It stands unequalled for purifying the blood, giving an appetite, and for a general spring medicine.

Geo. S. SPRINGER has the sale of the Cornelius Stump Pullers, and District rights, for either the sale or use of them, and will sell a District and a Puller for $300, or a Puller alone for $250. Every farmer should study his own benefit, and save his implements and clear his land. There is more money to be made with a Stump Puller in this District than can be made with a grain separator. Remember the stump crop has never failed as yet.

Water to Extinguish an Oil Fire. If therefore your lamp explodes or falls and breaks, do not rush to the water bucket, but run to the flour barrel. A handful of flour thrown upon burning oil in such cases will generally extinguish it at once.—Ed.

Dry earth, or dry ashes, or any good absorbent will answer. But it may often be best to smother the flame with your coat, or a piece of carpet or any sort of woolen goods.—Ed.

EVERY man is said to be getting along in the world, so long as his neighbors do not get ahead of him. We have been taken down by noting that our neighboring contemporaries, of the Compiler and the Star and Sentinel of Gettysburg have been luxuriating on what they call the "toothsome" water cress, all this while we have been restricted to ancient string-beans with the filaments unusually abundant. Besides its general beneficial effects as a spring condiment, the cress is said to be antidotal to the effects of tobacco on the system.

Free Trade.

The reduction of internal revenue and the taking off of revenue stamps from Proprietary Medicines, no doubt has largely benefited the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufacturers. Especially is this the case with Green's August Flower and Boschee's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirty-six cents per dozen, has been added to increase the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75 cent size. The August Flower for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and the German Syrup for Cough and Lung troubles, have perhaps, the largest sale of any medicines in the world. The advantage of increased size of the bottles will be greatly appreciated by the sick and afflicted, in every town and village in civilized countries. Sample bottles for 10 cents remain the same size.

To the Memory of Mother Euphemia.

The following touching tribute to the memory of Mother Euphemia by the young ladies of St. Joseph's Academy, whilst showing their respect and affection for her, whose place on earth has so lately been made vacant, is at the same time an evidence of true feeling on their part, creditable alike to their hearts, their womanly instincts and the culture received at the institution they represent.

St. Joseph's Academy.

At a special meeting of the pupils of St. Joseph's Academy, held on Sunday, March 27, 1887, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, As members of the Valley-Home circle, grateful and devoted children of our "Alma Mater," we, in common with our Teachers, the inmates of St. Joseph's, and the Sisters throughout the United States, were lately called upon to mourn the death of our beloved Superior, Mother Euphemia,

And Whereas, The loss of the dear departed falls most heavily upon those whose privilege it was to be the immediate object of the affectionate interest and maternal solicitude of this worthy Daughter of St. Vincent de Paul,

Be it therefore Resolved, That we treasure with due and life-long appreciation, the bright example of Christian Virtue, bequeathed to us by our dear Mother.

Resolved, That, in view of our common sorrow, we do now earnestly present our petition to the authorities governing the Institution, praying that the "Closing Exercises" of this Scholastic year, 1886-87, be made without any public demonstration.

Resolved, That, as further testimony of our filial respect, we request that the customary ceremonies, now so sadly at variance with the desires and sentiments of our hearts, be dispensed with on this occasion.

Be it further Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing, signed by the Graduates and representatives of the respective classes, be presented to the Academy, as a perpetual remembrance of our heartfelt sympathy.

We do not doubt that this our tribute to the memory of the dear departed, prompted as it is by sincere affection and a sense of duty, will receive the sanction of our dear parents, while it will also find an echo in the hearts of all former pupils of St. Joseph's Academy.

BLACK PILLS relieve palpitation.

Preferred Death to Discovery. About eleven o'clock on Tuesday night Abraham L. Bowser a compositor in the Hagerstown Globe office was detected while rifling the money drawer of Hays' book store which is in the same building with the Globe office, and as soon as he found that he was discovered shot himself through the head, and died instantly. Bowser was twenty-six years old and leaves a wife and three children.

OUR venerable friend Mr. Frederick A. Black, who will be 82 years old next Wednesday, came to town the other day on horse-back. We presume it was simply for a change, as he walks in every few days. But somehow his style of riding seemed odd; whilst he sat straight enough, it appeared as if he did not throw his weight into the stirrups as fully as he should. We suggest that he observe the ways of our nonagenarian friend, Mr. Abraham Sheets, on his colt.

1837. THE SUN. 1887.

A. S. ABELL & CO., PUBLISHERS. BALTIMORE.

THE PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE. On the 17th of May, 1887, THE BALTIMORE SUN will celebrate its Fiftieth Anniversary.

From the earliest period of its career THE SUN has been a "household word" in the homes of its subscribers, and a synonym for accuracy of statement, fair dealing, promptness, energy and enterprise in the collection of news. It is noted throughout the country for the independence, conservatism and thoughtfulness of its editorial utterances. There is probably no newspaper in the United States whose opinion carries more weight or whose influence is more widely extending than the SUN, a fact upon which it may justly pride itself as the legitimate result of painstaking care in the preparation of all matter admitted to its columns. The SUN's facilities for collecting news from all quarters of the globe are being constantly extended and improved, and new features are added without regard to expense as the occasion demands.

THE BALTIMORE WEEKLY SUN has long occupied an enviable position as a model family newspaper, containing not only the news of the world and a variety of literary matter and miscellaneous reading for the family circle, but special features of recognized value, including an agricultural department, which supplies every week a mass of well-digested information for the farmer.
