THE TOWNSHIP QUESTION.

The Blue Mountain Farmer's Club of this District, at a recent meeting, voted for the appointment of a committee to prepare a petition to the Legislature for the adoption of the Township system in Frederick county.

All attempts to engraft the township business on our Maryland ideas of government have signally failed, as was notably the case in the Constitution of 1864. States and communities have their traditions as ineradicably fixed as are their nationalities.

The history of our State is one of which its citizens may be justly proud, in whatever direction it may be viewed. In law, in literature, statesmanship, art, arms and on all sides. As a people we have been content to reap the fruits that have come as the natural outgrowth of a satisfactory order of government.

Marylanders should be proud of their birth rights, and not be lightly led to hanker after "the flesh pots of Egypt."

THE NORTH-WEST STRIKE.

Following in the wake of the great Reading Strike, comes the formidable one just inaugurated in the North-west.

It began on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, on Monday. Suburban traffic was seriously crippled and through trains were side-tracked at way stations.

Enough is not known of the causes to justify an opinion. It is a grave calamity; grave in the consequences should it extend. There is something wrong in a system where good relations cannot be maintained between the employers and employed.

The wrong in these recurring strikes will be found in watered values; railways robbed, not honestly managed; swindling construction companies; legislative corruption funds; great properties, made great by the people and intended for their benefit, used simply to amass great fortunes for incipient owners.

This may not explain the cause of the present strike, but it underlies so large a part of our whole scheme of Western business; development and railway building that in probing for the cause we shall surely come to it.

Mrs. CLEVELAND has joined the Ramabai Circle for the Elevation of Women in India. This organization is the outgrowth of the work in this country of the Pandita Ramabai, who has been laboring in various cities in the United States since March, 1880, to awaken interest in the establishment of a normal school for high caste child widows in Poona, India.

MR. CORCORAN DEAD.

Mr. W. W. Corcoran, the well known philanthropist, whose illness we have heretofore noticed, died at his home in Washington City, on Friday, February 24. He had an attack of paralysis last summer, which affected one leg and an arm, but from this he recovered sufficiently to attend to his usual business affairs. He celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday in December last. A few weeks thereafter he was attacked by a severe cold, which developed into bronchitis and this gradually undermined his strength to the fatal termination.

He was born in Georgetown, D. C., December 27, 1798. By his extensive business engagements on behalf of the General Government, and as a Banker in the firm of Corcoran & Riggs, he became very wealthy, and retiring from more active engagements, he devoted himself to acts of beneficence, and the advancement of works of art.

He endowed the Corcoran Art Gallery, the Louise Hoine, a memorial to his wife and daughter, intended as a refuge for gentle women in reduced circumstances in old age, and made large donations to various colleges, among which Washington and Lee University and the University of Virginia were conspicuous; the Orphan Asylums and so on.

He presented the picturesque "Oak Hill" Cemetery on Georgetown Heights to the public of the District of Columbia, and expended about $120,000 in its improvement, and under his auspices the remains of Payne, the author of "Home, sweet home" were brought from Tunis in Egypt, and interred therein, and a handsome monument erected to his memory.

His life was so beautifully rounded by good works, that by common consent, the world is regarded to have been the better for his existence. His estate is valued at from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000, and it is said he gave away not less than $4,000,000.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, with simple but impressive services, at which Rt. Rev. Bishop Paret and Rev. Dr's. Leonard and Stuart of the Protestant Episcopal Church officiated. The remains were conveyed to Oak Hill Cemetery, where they will repose in the Mausoleum built by the deceased, and where the bodies of Mrs. Corcoran and her three children were deposited many years ago. The funeral was attended by representatives from the various institutions founded by the benefaction of the deceased or largely aided thereby.

The evidence of the affection and esteem entertained for him, were in many ways most tenderly exhibited. The impression for good upon all who knew Mr. Corcoran was very widely extended and will be cherished as a blessed memory down through the ages.

THE nomination of Mr. J. A. Elder as Postmaster at this place was confirmed in the U. S. Senate on Tuesday.

The retiring Postmaster, Mr. S. N. McNair during his extended term of service had one of the best conducted Post Offices in the State, and he will bear with him in his retirement therefrom, the best wishes, and the kindly testimony of all our citizens to his fidelity, courtesy and efficiency, as well as their best wishes for his future prosperity.

Mr. McNair was a member of Cole's cavalry in the war time, and did active and daring service, in which he was wounded by a bullet through his lungs, from which he yet suffers greatly at times. He has had the satisfaction of being retained in office beyond the period accorded to most of his party associates.

FORTY LIVES LOST.

At South Vallejo, Cal., on Monday a disastrous explosion occurred on the ferry Steamer Julia. The Steamer was about to leave her moorings a few minutes after 6 o'clock, and had seventy persons on board. Just as the lines were being hauled in a loud explosion occurred, and a sheet of flame shot into the air. Those on deck were hurled overboard by the force of the explosion, and several were killed outright. Large vats of petroleum stored on the wharf caught fire and the flames rapidly spread. The Steamer soon burned to the water's edge and sunk to the bottom with a great number of the victims buried under the debris. Between thirty and forty lives were lost. The Steamer burned petroleum for fuel. The location of this catastrophe is twenty more miles up the bay from San Francisco.

DIVERGENT OPINIONS.

"There is no disputing about tastes," is an old saying, that may or may not be true according to the way in which it is viewed. In one aspect of the case all the disputes of the world are about matters in which views diverge. Tastes as relishes are not only individual, but they are also of national concern. The French are partial to soup; the Germans to sauer kraut; the Italians to macaroni; the English to roast beef; and so on the predilections run, as localities may call them forth. The remarkable point however is that individuals and peoples everywhere incline to make their own favorite notions, the rule of right, by which they think others should be governed. This tendency gives rise in one form or another to much disagreement and controversy among men, unsettling the social relations of whole countries.

A person who feels an intense repugnance to the use of alcoholic drinks; to tobacco in any form; to tea or coffee, or both; to the use of meats, and so on, will often unparaphrasingly condemn all whose habits and likings may be contrary to his own, and will outlaw them as enemies of their fellow men. They stop not to consider how repugnant and unreasonable their views and ways may appear to others, but selfishly in their own eyes, pose themselves as the elect of heaven, called to better and advance the world.

It is thus that the unrest of life, makes it a continual conflict as unceasing as the waves of the troubled sea. No observant person can doubt the deadly effects of the abuse of alcohol, and the desirableness of correcting such an evil, but the same observation will not fail to recognize the beneficial effects in many forms from its right use, and hence arises the necessity for discrimination in directing the efforts for the first objective end, so as not to overlook the latter; and right here we find the great problem of the world for its just solution.

The abuse of tobacco also is an evil that calls for correction; that it is good and beneficial when properly used, is attested by the common consent of the major part of mankind, so that the repugnance of the few is altogether outweighed by the preponderance of the many in its favor, and yet who shall say that the comparatively few nervous organizations, to which it is unsuited and necessarily pernicious, shall rule the actions of the majority? So likewise we might present the questions of narcotics, of "the beverages we infuse;" the cry for vegetable diet, to the exclusion of animal food, and the whole order of subjects embraced in what is recognized as the moral reform discussions of the day, but these are questions concerning which the public will not, and does not desire to be convinced, they are but parts in the conflict of life which through the ages have been settled in one form only to be renewed in another. They are but parts of the divergencies of opinions resulting in wars, and upturnings of kingdoms and nationalities. The trouble lies deeply embedded in the waywardness of humanity, and must work out its results in the unfolding of the world's destiny, in which the good and the benevolent will always aim to promote the highest possible excellence.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

Five prisoners escaped from the Martinsburg jail on Thursday morning of last week.

BOILS, pimples, hives, ringworm, tetter, and all other manifestations of impure blood are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The President and Mrs. Cleveland returned from their Southern trip at 3 o'clock, a. m., on Sunday last. They said they had a good time and were delighted with their journey.

A KANSAS woman writes to a friend in Michigan that during the last blizzard it was so cold that she froze one of her feet in the house. The coal fire in the stove was so hot that parts of the inside melted, yet water standing in a pail within four feet of the red-hot stove froze solid.

SCRIBNERS have just published a notable little pamphlet on "Our National Sin of Literary Piracy," by Henry Van Dyke, D. D. As its price is only five cents, it is to be hoped it may attain circulation enough to influence public opinion. Doctor Van Dyke thinks that our tiresome crop of Anglomaniacs is mainly due to the floods of cheap English novels we are inundated with.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

Special to the Emmitsburg Chronicle. By a vote the House committee on Territories has agreed to report favorably Chairman Springer's "omnibus" bill to enable the people of Dakota, Montana, Washington Territory and New Mexico to form constitutions and State governments and to be admitted into the Union on equal footing with the original states. The bill authorizes residents of these Territories to elect delegates to conventions, proportionate in number with the population of the counties.

The appointment of delegates to be made by the Governor, Chief Justice and the United States Attorneys of each Territory, and the election is to be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of next August. The number of delegates to each convention is fixed at seventy-five, except in the case of Dakota, where the number is increased to one hundred and fifty. They are to meet at the seat of government of each Territory on the second Tuesday of September next, adopt the Constitution of the United States and form constitutions and State governments, expressly disclaiming in favor of the United States all title to unappropriated public lands and Indian lands lying within the Territories. They are also required to assume the territorial debts and provide and maintain a public school system. The constitutions are to be submitted to a vote of the people on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November next, and, if a majority are in favor of it, the results shall be certified to the President of the United States. Until the next general census the new States, with the exception of Dakota, are to be allowed one Representative each in the House of Representatives. Dakota is to be allowed two Representatives. These Representatives are to be elected on the same day with the Governor and other State Officers. The Senate has passed the bill appropriating $30,000 for an international maritime conference to be held in this city next October.

Sir Thomas H. Gratton-Esmonde is accepting every opportunity to see everything of interest in America's capital city during his brief sojourn in our midst, and his friends are aiding him as far as possible. Yesterday morning he made a visit to the capitol, and there was introduced to some of the law-makers and shown every attention possible. In the afternoon, under the escort of Messrs. Morris Murphy, Thomas Kirby, and P. Ward, the gentleman was taken to Arlington. Although that hallowed spot was not at its best, still it looked well, and Sir Thomas was charmed with its beauty and commanding situation. Returning from Virginia the party stopped at Georgetown University, where they were received and entertained by Rev. Father Doonan and his associates. Sir Thomas will leave for Richmond, Va., at 11 o'clock to-day, and lecture there this evening. He will then proceed southward to Charleston, Savannah, Jacksonville, and New Orleans, unless sooner recalled by the home rule party to his place in the house of parliament.

Home Evidence

No other preparation has won success at home equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla. In Lowell, Mass., where it is made, it is now, as it has been for years, the leading medicine for purifying the blood, and toning and strengthening the system. This "good name" at home is "a tower of strength abroad."

People of Lowell

It would require a volume to print all Lowell people have said in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mr. Albert Estes, living at 28 East Pine Street, Lowell, for 15 years employed as boss carpenter by J. W. Bennett, president of the Erie Telephone Company, had a large running sore come on his leg, which troubled him a year, when he began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. The sore soon grew less in size, and in a short time disappeared.

Mr. Jos. Dunphy, 214 Central Street, Lowell, had swellings and lumps on his face and neck, which Hood's Sarsaparilla completely cured.

Mrs. C. W. Marriott, wife of the First Assistant Fire Engineer of Lowell, says that for 16 years she was troubled with stomach disorder and sick headache, which nothing relieved. The attacks came on every fortnight, when she was obliged to take her bed, and was unable to endure any noise. She took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after a time the attacks ceased entirely.

Many more might be given had we room. On the recommendation of people of Lowell, who know us, we ask you to try

See Wonders exist in thousands of forms, but are surpassed by the marvels of invention. Those who are in need of profitable work that will pay for itself, and give them a chance to see their own efforts, should at once send their address to Hallett & Co., Portland, Maine, and receive free full information how either sex, of all ages, can earn from $5 to $25 per day and upwards wherever they live. You are not required to pay anything. Some have made over $50 in a single day at this work. All succeed. Jan 7

Martyrs to Headache

Seek relief in vain, until they begin to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Then they regret five years of suffering they might have escaped had they tried this remedy earlier. The trouble was constitutional not local; and, until Ayer's Sarsaparilla did its effective work as an Alterative and Blood Purifier, they were compelled to suffer.

The wife of Samuel Page, 21 Austin st., Lowell, Mass., was, for a long time, subject to severe headaches, the result of stomach and liver disorders. A perfect cure has been effected by Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Frank Roberts, 727 Washington st., Boston, says that he formerly had terrible headaches, and until he took Ayer's Sarsaparilla, never found any medicine that would give Permanent Relief.

"Every Spring, for years, writes Lizzie W. DeVan, 202 Pleasant st., Brooklyn, N. Y., 'I have had intolerable headaches. I commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla last March, and have not had a headache since that time.'"

"I suffered from headache, indigestion, and debility, and was hardly able to drag myself about the house," writes Mrs. M. M. Lewis, of A. St., Lowell, Mass. "Ayer's Sarsaparilla has worked a marvellous cure for me. I now feel strong and well as ever."

Jonas Garman, Esq., of Lykens, Pa., writes: "For years I have suffered dreadfully, every Spring, from headache, caused by impurity of the blood and biliousness. It seemed for days and weeks that my head would split open. Nothing relieved me till I took Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has cured me completely."

When Mrs. Geneva Belanger, of 24 Bridge st., Springfield, Mass., began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, she had suffered for some years from a serious affection of the kidneys. Every Spring, also, she was afflicted with headache, loss of appetite, and indigestion. A friend persuaded her to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which benefited her wonderfully. Her health is now perfect. Martyrs to headache should try

$3.50 FOR You Wonder Why $1.50

We can give so much for the money? Thousands say this in their letters. It is because after plates are made it costs far less proportionately to print 150,000 copies than 100,000. During its nearly fifty years existence the has absorbed twenty-four other agricultural periodicals, and continues to be the recognized authority on agricultural matters the world over. With the old staff of editors who have made it a power in both hemispheres, reinforced with new writers, it will be more valuable during 1888 than ever. Each number now contains nearly one hundred original illustrations and original articles on the Farm, Garden, Heath and Household, from over fifty different writers. Price, $1.50 a year; single number, 10c.

The Century Magazine for March presents its readers with an admirable likeness of "Bismarck in his Garden," as a frontispiece, and a very interesting article on the character and position of the great German Statesman accompanies the portrait. "The Home Ranch," by Theodore Roosevelt, profusely illustrated by Frederic Remington, opens the reading matter in this number, followed by a short story by Helen Gray Cone entitled "Hercules: A Hero," "The Graysons," by Edward Eggleston, is continued; Mrs. Schuyler van Rensselaer describes "Salisbury Cathedral," "The History of Abraham Lincoln" reaches "The Call to Arms;" George W. Cable's story "An Large" reaches a satisfactory conclusion; "Franklin's Home and Host in France" is described by John Bigelow; the history of "Colonel Rose's Tunnel at Liberty Prison," as given by Capt. Frank E. Moran, will be found one of the most interesting papers relating to the Civil War. There is much other valuable and entertaining reading matter, together with "Topics of the Time," "Open Letters," and a large collection of "Bible Brac."

The forecasting of the Peach crop will soon begin. Reports thus far show that the winter has been highly favorable to a good crop.

A Grand Dissolution. The comparatively little snow that remains, appears as the residuum of the vast fields, that have disappeared, "like the sugar in the punchbowl of existence" as Charley O. Malley has it.

Almost miraculous are some of the cures accomplished by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In the case of R. L. King, Richmond, Va., who suffered for 47 years with an aggravated form of scrofula, Ayer's Sarsaparilla effected astonishing results.

No doubt we shall have cold spells; bright and balmy days; winds and rains and some snows, before spring spreads her beautiful mantle over us, therefore whilst you hope for the best, be mindful to prepare for the changes that may come as a thief in the night.

Don't Get Caught. This spring with your blood full of impurities, your digestion impaired, your appetite poor, kidneys and liver torpid, and whole system liable to be prostrated by disease—but get yourself into good condition, and ready for the changing and warmer weather, by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It stands unequalled for purifying the blood, giving an appetite, and for a general spring medicine.

A Carroll County Farmer Badly Hurt. Mr. Robert Gorsuch, a well-known farmer in the neighborhood of Warfieldburg, Carroll county, was thrown from a colt Monday afternoon and received two fractures of the leg between the knee and ankle which may necessitate amputation. He also received severe lacerations about the head and is internally injured. His son, H. Peyton Gorsuch, of Baltimore was telegraphed for and arrived that evening. Mr. Gorsuch is a brother of Mr. Thomas Gorsuch of Frederick.

The Key of Success is a good memory, without which the student, business man or scientist loses what he gains. Prof. Loissette's wonderful discovery enables his pupils to learn any book, poem, lecture or treatise in one reading or hearing. Endorsed by Prof. Richard A. Proctor, the astronomer, Hon. William Waldorf Astor, late U. S. Minister to Italy, Mark Twain, the great humorist, Hon. Judah P. Benjamin, the famous jurist, and hundreds of others who have all been his pupils, besides classes the largest on record, as 1087 at Baltimore and 1005 at Detroit, &c., &c. The system is also taught by correspondence. Address Professor Loissette, 237 Fifth Avenue, New York, for prospectus.

The March Electric opens with an article by Goldwin Smith, on "American Statesmen." Norman Lockyer's new theory of the Universe is succinctly explained in a short paper. The second paper on "Caesar Borgia" will be found very interesting by historical students. Mr. W. Leigh, M. P., writes concerning his personal experiences in Bulgaria. Mr. J. E. Muddock gives a graphic narrative of the events and plots which culminated in the assassination of Alexander II. of Russia. Students of social problems will have their attention attracted to the article entitled "The Workless," the Thriftless, and the Worthless," by the author of "Social Wreckage." Professor Huxley writes a paper called "Science and the Bishop," and Matthew Arnold contributes a criticism of Shelley as man and poet. Other features are: "Dethroning Tennyson," by Algernon Charles Swinburne; "The Value of the Individual," by Vernon Lee; "The Withered Arm," a story from Blackwood's, by Thomas Hardy; "Leo XIII. and Ireland," "Lost Instincts and Rare Faculties," "The Difficulty of Romance Writers," and "Toussaint L'Ouverture," by S. H. Swinny. Published by E. R. Pelton, 25 Bond Street, New York.

Notice.—The undersigned will keep for sale the best grades of Flour and all kinds of Mill Feed. Also Butter, Eggs, and Chickens constantly on hand, at the lowest living price. Give me a call. feb 25-4t Geo. GINGELL.

Go to Mount Hope. On Thursday Mrs. Samuel Flautt, of this place, was sent to Mount Hope Hospital. The insanity that manifested itself in her case a few years ago, has gradually grown worse; it is hoped it may yield to proper treatment. Mrs. Flautt has always been esteemed as a good and exemplary neighbor, and her case has elicited much sympathy.

New Building Association. The books of the Citizens' Building Association will be open for the first payment of weekly dues, on Saturday evening, March 10, at M. E. Adelsberger & Son's shop on the square. The officers for the first year are: President, F. A. Adelsberger; Vice-President, Chas. C. Kretzer; Secretary, E. H. Rowe; Treasurer, V. E. Rowe; Directors, Michael Hoke, Geo. P. Beam, Daniel Lawrence, Joseph A. Baker and Matt Motter. Over one hundred and sixty shares of stock have already been subscribed, and new ones will be taken at any time. Persons desirous of joining the Association should, if possible, commence with the first week.

How to Help Your Town. This is the way in which a contemporary says it can be done: Talk about it. Write about it. Beautify the streets. Be friendly to everybody. Elect good men to offices. Keep your sidewalks in good repair. Sell all you can and buy all you can at home. If you are rich, invest in something and employ somebody. Be courteous to strangers that come among you, so that they go away with good impressions. Always cheer on the men who go in for improvements. Your portion of cost will be nothing but what is just. Don't "kick" at any proposed improvement because it is not at your own door.

The Spring Storms at Hand. Very soon we shall hear again about the equinoctial storms. According to the popular notions they may occur within a week or more of the vernal or autumnal equinox. But the idea is abnormal. Eclipses and other astronomical phenomena never vary the most infinitesimal part of a minute from their designated time, so then an equinoctial storm should appear promptly to date. But the whole matter has become a myth and being so proven is not believed in by those who live out of the woods. There are spring storms and storms for all seasons, but the times of their occurrence "no man knows."

Everybody who owns a vehicle should allow it to stand alongside the footwalk when not in use, our village would appear as a grand livery stable long drawn out. The many observe the law that prohibits the act, why should there be exceptions in the case? A just regard for the common good should compel uniformity in the premises.

A prudent man, "according to Hoyle," "For cut, and bruise, and burn, and boil will use on once Salvation Oil." "Never was heard such terrible curse," as the man got off about his stubborn cold. Could it be possible that he lived in civilization and had not heard of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup? Let him take the old reliable; and stop swearing. Price 25 cts.

A Team in a Well. A horse attached to a cart on the farm of Mr. Harvey R. Lease, near this city, became frightened at a bush this morning and backed the cart into a 20-foot well on the place. The horse went in after the cart and both had to be pulled out with a block and tackle. The cart was broken, but the horse was not seriously injured.—Frederick News.

Broke His Neck. We learn that a horse belonging to Mr. Frank Michael, who resides near Daysville, broke his neck on Saturday night last under the following circumstances: The horse was in the habit as soon as the collar or bridle was pulled over his head, of turning suddenly and running away, and it was in one of these running sprints that he slipped and fell, with the above result.—Banner.

The Balls to Go. The Frederick News says that Col. John B. Thomas, who represents the Court House Square Improvement Association, will go before the Board of County Commissioners at their meeting in April, to urge the matter of the removal of the iron rails at the Court House Yard and further improvement of that spot. That the Association may succeed should be the wish of every progressive citizen of the county.

Ten Years in the Penitentiary. In the Circuit Court for Frederick county, on Wednesday, George W. alias Peon Robinson, the young colored man who was arrested on Friday night last, for an attempted criminal assault on a white woman named Mrs. Frances M. Green, was tried and convicted and sentenced by the court to ten years imprisonment in the penitentiary. Another indictment for an alleged assault on Mrs. Sallie Jackson, on the same evening, was ordered to be set aside.

In passing sentence on Robinson, Chief Justice McSherry commented on the enormity of the crime, and stated that happily no similar act had occurred in this community for many years. "A crime of this kind," said he, "demanded exemplary punishment, and the court had decided to impose the full penalty of the law."—Sun.

Choral Union Convention. The Choral Union Convention conducted by Prof. S. G. Smith, of Kittanning, Pa., was brought to a successful close on Friday evening, the 24th ult., by a public rehearsal given in the Opera House. A large and appreciative audience was present, and greatly enjoyed the exercises in which both the adult and juvenile classes participated, giving evidence of marked improvement during the two weeks they had been under instruction.

The following resolutions expressive of the feelings of the adult class toward their teacher, were presented to Prof. S. G. Smith, and were accepted by him with appropriate remarks:

Resolved, That the thanks of the class are hereby tendered to Prof. S. G. Smith for his able, zealous and faithful instructions in Vocal Music during the past two weeks; that we highly approve of his methods of teaching, both the science and art of singing; and that we extend to him our best wishes for success in his endeavor to elevate the standard of Church music, and to render it more effective as a hand-maid of religion.

Resolved, That we shall cherish pleasant memories of his visit to Emmitsburg, and shall hope that he may be able to renew it in the near future, and build a worthy musical temple upon the foundations already laid.

Resolved, That we append our names to the foregoing resolutions. (Signed.)

Who is Your Best Friend. Your stomach of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right, if you are troubled with Heartburn, Dizziness of the head, coning up of the food after eating, biliousness, indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.

A Remedy for the Condemned. Wretched men and women long condemned to suffer the torments of dyspepsia, are filled with new hope after a few doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This budding hope blossoms into the fruition of certainty, if the Bitters is persisted in. It brings a reprieve to all dyspepsia who seek its aid. Flatulencies, heartburn, sinking at the pit of the stomach, between meals, the nervous tremors and insomnia of which chronic indigestion is the parent, disappear with their helpful precursor. Most beneficent of stomachics who can wonder that in so many instances it has been gratefully employed by those who, benighted by its use, voluntarily in its habit. It requires a graphic pen to describe the torments of dyspepsia in many of the testimonials received by the proprietors of the Bitters, with which it will give relief to the afflicted. Constipation, biliousness, muscular debility, neuralgia, neuralgia and rheumatism are relieved by it.

New Building Association. The books of the Citizens' Building Association will be open for the first payment of weekly dues, on Saturday evening, March 10, at M. E. Adelsberger & Son's shop on the square. The officers for the first year are: President, F. A. Adelsberger; Vice-President, Chas. C. Kretzer; Secretary, E. H. Rowe; Treasurer, V. E. Rowe; Directors, Michael Hoke, Geo. P. Beam, Daniel Lawrence, Joseph A. Baker and Matt Motter. Over one hundred and sixty shares of stock have already been subscribed, and new ones will be taken at any time. Persons desirous of joining the Association should, if possible, commence with the first week.

How to Help Your Town. This is the way in which a contemporary says it can be done: Talk about it. Write about it. Beautify the streets. Be friendly to everybody. Elect good men to offices. Keep your sidewalks in good repair. Sell all you can and buy all you can at home. If you are rich, invest in something and employ somebody. Be courteous to strangers that come among you, so that they go away with good impressions. Always cheer on the men who go in for improvements. Your portion of cost will be nothing but what is just. Don't "kick" at any proposed improvement because it is not at your own door.

The Spring Storms at Hand. Very soon we shall hear again about the equinoctial storms. According to the popular notions they may occur within a week or more of the vernal or autumnal equinox. But the idea is abnormal. Eclipses and other astronomical phenomena never vary the most infinitesimal part of a minute from their designated time, so then an equinoctial storm should appear promptly to date. But the whole matter has become a myth and being so proven is not believed in by those who live out of the woods. There are spring storms and storms for all seasons, but the times of their occurrence "no man knows."

Mr. John C. Weller and son, Charles, of Mechanicstown, called to see us on Thursday.

We had a call from Mr. B. F. Clark of Washington, on Thursday, who is visiting among his friends in Liberty township, Pa.

In Doubt. Thursday (March 1st) came in, as seldom and gloomy as the dense cloudiness overhead could make it, and the temperature at nine o'clock, a. m., was 38°. If that condition is to be taken for the gentleness of the lamb, it did not touch ones inner-most feelings in that way, our ideas of the laud-like advent imply bright skies and a genial atmosphere calling forth sportive if not frisky tendencies among those long restrained by the bonds of winter. No doubt there will be frequent occasions for the lion to bestir himself for some mighty roaring ere the month closes.

About Easter. This year Easter will fall on the 1st of April—nine days earlier than last year. The earliest possible day for Easter is the 22nd of March, and it fell on that day in 1818—for the last time in about 200 years. One object in arranging the calendar moon was that Easter might never fall on the same day as the Jewish Passover. They did occur however, in 1850 on the 14th day of April, in 1825 on the 3d day of April, and will do so again in 1923 on the 1st of April, in 1927 on the 17th of April, and in 1981 on the 18th of April. Last year Easter and the Passover were separated but a single night. The Jewish festival usually occurs in Passover week, in Lent, and never before the 29th of March or after the 25th of April. On the other hand, the Christian festival is never before the 22nd of March or after the 25th of April. In 1913 Easter will fall on the 22nd of March, as it did in 1845 and 2856. The latest Easter occurred in 1886, the 25th of April, and it will not fall on that date again until 1943.

Keep Farm Records.

Every farmer is to a great extent a manufacturer, and ought to keep a record of his operations. This is the key to success in any business.

Waste.

The complete erasure of the word "waste" from the dictionaries, at all events in so far as it has any relation to industrial products, is, if not quite an accomplished fact, undoubtedly becoming more and more imminent.

Poor Dobbin Again.

Again we have to take up the cause of poor Dobbin. With well-fitting harness and sufficient provision made against thumps and bruises when hitched up to a heavy wagon, his lot is not an easy one.

UNCLE SAM—this familiar name for the United States took its origin from the letters U. S., which were branded on the heads of barrels of beef and pork sent to the army during the war of 1812 by Samuel Wilson, who had the contract for supplying the Northern army and who was extensively known as Uncle Sam.

The philosopher of the Graphic, of New York, says: "Half, at least, of one's heaven or hell resides in the liver. If the blow hits the mind first the liver suffers next. If the liver is struck first the mind follows suit. Happiness is measurably dependent on pill and will."

EVERYONE should keep a bottle ready of equal parts strong lime-water and sweet oil well shaken together, to be used on burns and scalds, or for chapped hands.

A PASTE of chloride of lime and water brushed over smoky marble will whiten it, and a paste of crude potash and whiting will take out the grease spots.

NEVER put off until to-morrow what you can do to-day. The man you want to borrow from may be called out of town.

A LYNN clergyman relates that on one occasion after marrying a couple an envelope was handed to him which he supposed, of course, contained the marriage fee. On opening it he found a slip of paper on which was written: "We desire your prayers."

PRINCE TALLEYRANT was startled out of his sleep one night by a pistol shot, and seeing his man servant in the room he asked him what it was all about. The man replied, "There was a mouse in your room—highness, and fearing that it might disturb your rest I shot it."

BOBBY was spending the afternoon at his aunt's, and for some moments had been gazing out of the window in a painfully thoughtful sort of way. "What makes you so serious, Bobby?" asked his aunt. "Why, ma told me that I must remember not to ask for anything to eat, and I'm trying to remember it."

TWO-YEAR-OLD Dorothy had had severe case of chicken-pox. She came down with it the very day that the family had chicken for dinner. Nobody imagined that Dorothy thought that there was any connection between the dinner and the disease, until a few days afterwards, just as the baby was getting better, a turkey was brought on for dinner. Dorothy refused to eat it, saying: "The chicken made me have chicken-pox, mamma, and I don't want to eat turkey and have turkey-pox."

JONES, of West Philadelphia, was making heroic, if not entirely successful, efforts to behead a chicken in his back yard. He didn't know his performance was being observed by the servant of his next door neighbor until this startled exclamation broke on the crisp morning air:

"How! Moses, missus! It's murder in the first degree it is over at Mr. Jones'. He's cuttin' off a rooster's head, and every time he hits him he misses, and when he kills him he ain't dead yet!"

THE telephone, it is said, is not making much progress in Russia. And no wonder; fancy a man going to the 'phone and yelling:

"Hel-lo! Is that you, Dvisost-kivchsmartvoiczki?"

"No. It's Zollemschouskaffir-nockenstiffsgowoff. Who's speaking?"

"Sezimochocwiertrjuakmszyschokemoff. I want to know if Xliferomanskelliskillamjuwchzavastowskweibierski is still stopping with Dvisostkivchsmartvoiczki."

Such nomenclature over the telephone would tie the wire full of knots and twist the enunciation all out of shape. Until the kinks are ironed out of the Russian names the telephone will not be an overwhelming success in the land of the Czar.—Puck.

SPEAKING of anthems reminds me of the story of two old British sailors who were talking over shore experience. One had been to a cathedral and had heard some very fine music, and was descending particularly upon an anthem which gave him much pleasure. His shipmates listened for a while and said:

"I say, Bill, what's an anthem?" "What?" replied Bill, "do you mean to say you don't know what a hanthom is?"

"Not me." "Well, then, I'll tell yer. If I was to say to yer, 'Ere, Bill, give me that 'andspike,' that wouldn't be a hanthom. But was I to say, 'Bill—Bill—Bill—giv—giv—giv me, give me that—Bill, give me, give me that hand, give me that hand, handspike, spike—spike—Bill, give me that—that hand—handspike, hand—handspike, spike, spike, spike, ah—men, ah—men; Bill givemethathandspike, spike, ah—men!' Why that would be a hanthom."—Troy Times.
