OUR FUTURE COURSE.

The EMMITSBURG CHRONICLE having been in existence for almost ten years, during which time the circulation has been steadily increasing, and the general business of the office has become firmly established, making it an important factor in the public prosperity and advancement of the neighborhood, it is hoped that its continued publication in the name of its founder and with the sincere endeavor to direct its course by the lines of truth, purity and enlightened intelligence so carefully laid down and so strictly followed by him whose hand directed it so many years; will be met with the encouragement and confidence which are so essential to the existence of journalistic life. The aim will be to furnish its readers with news of the current events of the day, together with such literary, scientific and entertaining reading matter as shall make it a welcome visitor to every home it enters, and whilst not hesitating to rebuke vice and immorality, it will always endeavor to avoid such sensational publications as make so many of our newspapers active agents in spreading the evils which they profess to denounce.

The CHRONICLE will endeavor to pursue the course thus far adhered to and as a conservator of morality as well as an advocate of enlightened progress, will do what seems to be its duty without fear or favor, and though the mantle of its departed founder, may have fallen on unworthy shoulders, it shall not be soiled with dishonor nor willingly thrown aside.

PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS.

President Harrison on Wednesday sent to the Senate the following nominations:

Robert T. Lincoln, of Illinois, to be Minister to Great Britain. Murat Halstead, of Ohio, to Germany. Allen Thorndike Rice, of New York, to Russia. Patrick Egan, of Nebraska, to Chili. Thomas Ryan, of Kansas, to Mexico. John Hicks, of Wisconsin, to Peru. George B. Loring, of Massachusetts, Minister Resident and Consul-General to Portugal. Marion Erwin, of Georgia, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Georgia. Tyre Glenn, of North Carolina, Marshal for the Western District of North Carolina. James O. Churchill, of Missouri, Surveyor of Customs at St. Louis. All of whom were confirmed with the exception of Mr. Halstead.

The Legislature of Connecticut seems determined to put a stop to the use of tobacco among boys. A law has been enacted making it an offence punishable by fine and imprisonment for any dealer to sell tobacco, in any form, to minors. The same act provides for the punishment of the minors found with tobacco in their possession. The law is thus seen to work both ways, and falls with equal force on the buyer and seller, which is just and sensible, if the sale of the weed is to be prohibited at all.

The Supreme Court of West Virginia has decided that Mr. R. S. Carr, president of the Senate, has no ground upon which to take the office of Governor. This gives Wilson the chair until the contest will have been settled between General Goff and Judge Fleming.—Sun.

WHAT the hungry horde of office-seekers needs to appease it is a repetition of the miracle of the loaves and fishes, Nothing short of that will serve.—N. Y. World.

Deafness Can't be Cured by local application, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, which will be destroyed forever, your hearing will be destroyed forever. Deafness is caused by ten causes, which are: Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh that we can not cure by talking Hall's Catarrh Cure, and send particulars, free. P. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. THE PIMLICO EXPOSITION.

Creating Interest Throughout Maryland in the Project. The Maryland Exposition is growing in interest daily. The energetic president of the State Agricultural and Mechanical Association, Postmaster Frank Brown, has infused an enthusiasm into the project not only in the city but throughout the State.

Wednesday a number of merchants, manufacturers and other business men called at the exposition headquarters in Mr. Brown's office on North Charles street, Baltimore, and expressed their desire to participate in future meetings and arrangements to carry forward the enterprise. Sixty-seven newspapers issued outside of Baltimore in the cities, towns and counties of Maryland have published articles stirring up interest in every part of the State in the exposition. Meetings have already been called at various county seats and other convenient points to arrange for being represented at the exposition. General William McKenny, John B. Brown, W. W. Baateed, of Queen Anne's county; C. O. Melvin, president of the Pocomoke Agricultural Association, Sidney Wilson, A. D. Irving and Dr. S. S. Quinn, of Worcester; James U. Dennis and H. H. Dashiell, of Somerset; Wm. B. Tilghman, Lemuel Malone and W. H. Jackson, of Salisbury, are some of the most active friends of the movement.

James Scott, who is known for his interest in Chincoteague ponies, has indicated his purpose to exhibit a number of these animals among the notable live stock which will be displayed. As it is believed the tidewater counties of Maryland possess many essentials for the growth of the fine horses, equaling the blue grass region of Kentucky, it is intended to promote their breeding in Maryland. With a view to aid in this object daily auction sales of horses will be held during the exposition.

It is expected that buyers will be attracted from a distance as the fame of Maryland stock advances. Counting the Percherons and Arabians, the importations of horses of fine strain, hogs, sheep and other animals by Maryland agriculturists and stock raisers compare well with other States.

It is intended also to display maps showing the lands for sale in each county, and also the amount and value of the productions including the strawberries, watermelons and other fruits, berries and vegetables. Mr. Brown is fruitful of ideas and suggestions to increase the attractions of exposition week. He thinks the dedication of the new postoffice building, with a grand ball as one of the features, to which the President of the United States would be invited, to take place on the night of September 12, the anniversary of the battle of North Point, would be a proper and popular festivity.

ROBERT SIGEL, son of Gen. Sigel, who pleaded guilty to forging pension checks, was sentenced by Judge Benedict in the United States Court, of New York to six years' imprisonment at hard labor in the Erie county penitentiary.

Entered into rest, at Emmitsburg, Md., March 21, 1889. Elder Samuel Motter, aged 68 years, 2 months and 10 days.

Elder Motter was born and lived at Emmitsburg all his lifetime. He never engaged in any business until 1879, when he founded the EMMITTSBURG CHRONICLE, which he edited and conducted with ability, until disabled by failing health.

Mr. Motter was married to Miss Catharine Mary Chadwick of Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1856, in whom he found a devoted and affectionate helpmate. She was a faithful husband and an indulgent father, and found his chief pleasure in his own home, which he filled with books and periodicals and thus made it an attractive place.

The deceased was a member of the Reformed Church from his youth. Since 1871 he was an active Elder of his church and the Secretary of its Consistory. In these offices he was prompt, pains-taking, diligent, exact, orderly, conscientious and efficient.

He was a man of ideal policy, but of principle, and never sought what was popular and what would succeed, but what was true and right. This implies Christian character, honesty of purpose and integrity.

Elder Motter was a true Christian. He did not claim to be perfect and no one claims this for him, but he was a true child of God. His bodily infirmities were such that he had many trials to meet and overcome.

The service in connection with his funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, and it was attended by a multitude of relatives and sympathizing friends and neighbors. His pastor, Rev. U. H. Heilmann, made a short address on the comforting words of our Lord, "I am the Resurrection and the Life."

His body was afterwards borne out by the loving hands of his nephews, and tenderly laid away among his kindred, while the light of the departing Sun was filling the sky and the earth with his beauty and glory.

Among the street rumors is one that President Harrison will visit Gettysburg in May at the time of the dedication of the Pennsylvania monuments.

St. Mark's Reformed congregation will erect a new church on the Baltimore pike, three miles south of Gettysburg, the coming summer.

Mr. William Dorsey, having rented his farm near Motters Station, has moved to the house vacated by Samuel Wetzel.

Mr. John Peddicord had a horse stolen from his stable on Saturday night, but found it on Sunday morning, grazing along the road near the College.

The citizens of Mt. St. Mary's extend heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family of Mr. Samuel Motter. He was best known among us as the Editor of the CHRONICLE which has had a large circulation in our neighborhood ever since it was established.

Prof. M. A. Newell, Secretary of the State Board of Education, has issued a circular to the County School Examiners with a view to have a general observance of Arbor Day by the public schools throughout the State.

A report has been going the rounds of the newspapers that a new folding postal card had been issued. An order was received at this office recently for 500 of these cards, and when we called at the post office we found that they had none on hand, but the postmaster, Mr. Jas. A. Elder, volunteered to write to Baltimore and try to get them.

It is a calamity of the direst kind to feel that one's physical energies are falling in the prime of life—to feel more nervous, more dispirited, weaker every day. Yet this is the unhappy lot of hundreds who surround us.

Thomas H. Smith, for many years superintendent of the McMDraff canning establishment at Frederick, has brought suit in equity against the McMurray estate for a percentage of the net profits of the business for a number of years, which he claims is due him according to a contract he had with Mr. McMurray. The suit involves a considerable amount.

Removed. J. K. WRIGHT, M. D., Homeopathist has removed his office to the Eastern end of Mrs. H. Motter's building, where he can be consulted at all times.

Mr. ADOLPHUS FEARHAKE, formerly Clerk of the Circuit Court, has been appointed a deputy by Clerk Parsons, who is suffering with pen paralysis, and is unable to do his usual work.

Mr. Jacob L. Hoke has improved his residence by the addition of a third-story, with a mansard roof. Mr. J. H. Taylor is the contractor and completed the work in four days.

COL. JOHN H. McCLELLAN has commenced valuable improvements on the McClellan House Gettysburg. The portion of the building in the rear of the three-story front will be torn down and a three-story building, along the line of Carlisle street to the alley, will be erected.

On Wednesday of last week five persons were arrested in York County, Pa., charged with burning barns in the southern part of that county.

Mr. J. A. Elder was in Frederick this week. Mr. D. H. Reiman made a trip to Baltimore. Mr. Edmund Nusser has returned to Washington.

Mr. Geo. C. Habighurst and wife are in Baltimore. Mr. Edgar D. Zeck of Mechanicstown is visiting his parents in this place.

Mrs. Charles Wentz of Baltimore made a visit to her mother, Mrs. Catharine Hyder. Mr. Wm. N. Gilson started on Monday of last week for St. Joseph, Mo., where he expects to make his future home.

In another column we present Prof. Newell's circular to the County School Examiners in regard to the observance of Arbor Day in the public schools.

This day is not a legal holiday in Maryland, but should be observed in every community. Let the citizens of Emmitsburg take the lead in this matter, hold a meeting at some public place, and arrange that at least every able-bodied citizen shall either plant a tree or have one planted in some public place on this day.

On Monday last it was reported in this place that the body of an unknown female child had been found buried in a manure pile, near Mt. St. Mary's College.

While Mr. Jacob Strite was harrowing his field, near Clearspring, the ground beneath his team gave way, almost burying them, only a part of their heads being above the surface.

A break occurred in the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal on Sunday night a mile and a half above Shepherdstown, near Johnson's lock.

The Western Maryland Railroad Company has applied to the Baltimore City Councils for permission to lay tracks connecting with the Baltimore and Ohio Company's tracks at Locust Point, thus reaching tide-water.

Renovating Run-Out Orchards.

We often meet with an orchard of apparently healthy trees, which is practically fruitless. The owner may tell us that it formerly bore abundant crops, but of late years the trees have "run out."

A New Method of Glazing Sash.

It is well known that all glass now (both in portable sashes and fixed greenhouses) is simply imbedded in putty and kept in place by glazier's points.

But he was a Knightly little Gentleman all the same.

It was about four o'clock in the afternoon, at the corner of Thirty-fourth street and Third avenue, a delivery wagon, loaded down with evening papers and drawn by a galloping horse, dashed up to the sidewalk and stopped.

Every one of the youngsters tried to get his papers on the instant, for the sooner he got them the more he could sell, and every moment's delay meant the loss of so many pennies.

Passers by stopped and looked on, amused at the struggles of the boys, who were reaching over each others' heads and shoulders to get at the men who sat on the tailboard of the wagon scooping in nickels and handing out piles of papers as fast as they could.

A blind man, with cautious steps and cane outstretched before him, came through Thirty-fourth street and paused on the Third avenue curbstone. He evidently wanted to cross the street, but feared to undertake it alone, for horse cars, trucks, beer wagons and other dangers of the highway were passing in a constant procession.

At that moment a newsboy dashed diagonally across the avenue in the direction of the news wagon. He was a bright eyed, wideawake little fellow, and one of his rosy cheeks was almost hidden by a smudge of black.

Without a moment's hesitation, and sacrificing his chance to get his papers, he instantly started back. He reached the blind man's side, took him by the arm, said cheerily, "Come along, pop," and had steered him safely across the avenue in a jiffy.

The promptness with which he took in the situation, went to the instant relief of the blind man, letting his own interests go when time was money to him, and the matter of course air with which the thing was done, were simply astonishing.

Utterly unconscious of having done anything in the least degree remarkable, this little gentleman in rags was hurrying away with his bundle of papers to make up for lost time when I hailed him. I bought two copies of every newspaper he had, gave him a quarter and told him to keep the change.

It is well known that all glass now (both in portable sashes and fixed greenhouses) is simply imbedded in putty and kept in place by glazier's points.

A round grandmother tells the following story of a grandchild. "An aunt was talking to her of God's laws and of obeying them, when the child surprised her by saying, 'Well, it is a great deal easier to obey God's law than it is grandma's—she has so many.'"

The complaint against the usurer is that he takes too much interest in his business.
