Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at all Drug Stores as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

An Excitement.

At noon on Wednesday, when McNair & Patterson unloaded their horses at the depot, Mr. W. W. White mounted a spirited young animal and started for the stable with a lot of the other horses following. The horse he was riding became excited and tore up-town as hard as it could go with the rest following, and it was not until they had gotten out to the forks of the road beyond the Emmitt House that Mr. W. succeeded in getting his unruly steed under control. But as Walter never gets left in the management of a horse, he brought him back all right. He was decidedly out of breath however.

The gates are made of wrought iron, the frames being half inch iron, 14 inches wide, and the pickets are of 1/2 inch iron. An arched piece of iron 14 inches square connects the Columns above the gate, and is surmounted by iron points in the form of a continuation of the pickets of the gate. The whole structure will weigh between 1500 and 1800 pounds, and will rest on a granite base 10 feet long by 16 inches square, which will weigh about 3,000.

An Unhappy Home.

"I wish my wife would get well or something," said a husband who had been sorely tried with an invalid wife. It seems a heartless speech, but who can tell the discomforts of a home where the wife is always sick. Poor food, crying children! No wonder the man grows desperate. But if he would get Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the wife, he would find that the sunshine would return to his home. "Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhoea, excessive flowings, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anæmia, retroversion, "bearing-down" sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

DECORATION DAY.

BY EDWARD L. KEYES.

[Written for the Emmitsburg Chronicle.] I speak for those dead men who sleep below Antietam's plain, And those who 'neath the leveled slope of Gettysburg are laid; For those who rest at Arlington beneath their pillowed shade, For Hollywood's brave, loyal son, for Fredricksburg's still Knight. O come not in sombre apparel to-day, And bend o'er our blossoming dead, While the glistening tears in your eyes plainly say: What lips in their anguish have said; But come in gay colors with faces as bright As the flow'ry garlands you bear, And give us sweet music of glad laughter light, No dirge of a sorrow-wrung prayer. Remember, dear mothers, dear sweet hearts, dear wives, You're guests of old soldiers to-day! We spread you a banquet which cost us our lives, And bid you be happy and gay. 'Tis an annual muster we welcome with pride, We're glad to be with you once more; So banish the grief which your veils fail to hide, Unheeding which color we wore. Remember, we perished as soldiers would fall, In the charge with the sabre arm raised! Or with bayonet fixed, in response to the call Which led where the huge demons blazed! We met bravely, fighting with steel clashing steel! We fell where fared reddest the glare! 'Tis proud and triumphant we'd have you all feel, Not humble low-bending in prayer. Our worn crooked sabre is scabbard' in rust, Our musket is broken and gone; Our old blouse but covers a handful of dust, Which waits for the countersign, "Dawn." No "Rebel" yell greets you as onward you come; No "Yank" tiger pierces the air; All signs of the conflict are hushed with the drum, Hushed then be the tear and the prayer. So scatter your garlands on mound or on stone, With laughter, with freedom, with joy, And spare not that pillow engravened "Unknown." Remember, he's somebody's boy, Yes; somebody wept when he bade her good-bye, As he shouldered his musket with pride; But that somebody's tears would have flowed into cheers Had she seen how her boy soldier died.

More Fine Horses.

Messrs. McNair & Patterson returned from W. Va., on Wednesday with another load of fine horses. These men seem to be enjoying a boom in the horse trade. It is due to the principle on which they are conducting the same, which is fair dealing and handling good stock.

About 12 o'clock on Thursday night of last week, an excursion train with three hundred excursionists on board left Roanoke, Va., on its return trip to Hagerstown, and just after leaving the station collided with three freight cars. The freight cars and three passenger coaches were badly wrecked, but fortunately only one man was hurt, Mr. T. C. Smith, whose leg was broken. Mr. C. C. Kretzer of this place was on the train.

Base Ball.

An interesting game of base ball was played on Thursday afternoon, between the New Windsor College nine and the Mt. St. Mary's boys, on the grounds of the latter, which resulted in a score of 21 to 6 in favor of the Mt. St. Mary's team. Although the score would indicate that the game was one-sided, such was not the case, and good playing was done on both sides. The New Windsor boys before returning home stopped at a store in town and purchased a lot of crape, which they wore as a fitting emblem of the defeat they had suffered.

Medical Entertainment.

The Choral Union musical entertainment at Eyster's Opera House, will be held this (Friday) evening. Doors open at 7.30, entertainment to begin at 8 o'clock prompt. Epoch.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency where-by the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health, to the use of the Great Alternative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle at all Drugstores.

From The Gettysburg Compiler.

On Saturday afternoon Hon. David Wills, President of the Western Extension of the Western Maryland Railroad, was present with a party of friends at the joining of the rails in the tunnel above Fairfield and drove the last spike, thus completing a work started over a half century ago, known as the "Tape-worm." The work of constructing this important link between Gettysburg and Blue Ridge Summit on the Western Maryland railroad, giving direct communication between the two great battlefields, Gettysburg and Antietam, commenced the first of August last and is completed as above stated. The new road from Ortanna is 144 miles long, and from Gettysburg 214. Some work is still to be done in the way of ballasting and cleaning out the tunnel and cuts. We are authorized to state that a regular schedule of trains will commence June 10th.

Last night the merchant tailoring establishment of Mr. Joseph Jacobs, Chambersburg street, was entered by forcing the shutters and window on the west side of the room, and about two hundred dollars worth of clothing taken. All the garments, made up for customers, were finished but one coat. The party left through the stable at the rear of the lot.

Ex-Governor Curtin declares that in consequence of the veto of the bill for the erection of the Memorial Hall at Gettysburg the committee will make an address to the soldiers suggesting a meeting to decide whether the enterprise will be abandoned or an attempt made to erect a hall.

Expand the Mind.

By seeing as much as you can of the world, but one you set out either as a tourist, commercial traveler or emigrant—whether you go by rail, steamship or steamboat, provide yourself with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which the traveling public recognizes as the finest medical safeguard and preventive of seasickness with which any one journeying by land or water can be provided. It furnishes to the western pioneer adequate protection against malaria, rheumatism, and those disorders of the bowels which mislead talented water-begot. Its sedative effect upon a stomach perturbed by the rocking of a ship is truly magical, and it is a capital appetite and nerve invigorator. Excellent for all biliousness and kidney troubles, and constipation, and a remarkable degree of the effects of fatigue, physical or mental. After wetting and exposure in inclement weather, it should be used as a preventive.

The cool spell of Wednesday and Thursday brought overcasts into eye again, and many persons enjoyed sitting by fires.

We need a better fire bell in this place very badly. A Gr. at Battle.

Is continually going on in the human system. The demon of impure blood strives to gain victory over the constitution, to ruin health, to drag victims to the grave. Try this peculiar medicine.

Manifold at Mudry Creek Forks, left his home on Sunday evening to visit a sick man residing some two miles distant, and has not been seen since he left his home.
