TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW.

BY CHARLES MACKAY. If Fortune with a smiling face To-day, my love, to-day. And talk of coming sorrow, When shall we grieve-if grieve we must? To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those who wronged us own their faults, And kindly pity, pray

When shall we listen and forgive ? To-day, my love, to-day. But if stern justice urge rebuke, And warmth from memory borrow, When shall we chide-if chide me dare? To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If those to whom we owe a debt . Are harmed unless we pay, When shall we struggle to be just ? To-day, my love, to-day. But if our debtor fail our hope, And plead his ruin thorough, When shall we weigh his breach of faith ? To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

If Love, estranged, should once again His genial smile display, When shall we kiss his proffered lips ? To-day, my love, to-day. But if he would indulge regret, Or dwell with bygone sorrow, When shall we weep-if weep me must To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

For virtuous acts and harmless jovs The minutes will not stay ; We've always time to welcome them To-day, my love, to-day. To-morrow, love, to-morrow.

"I am not surprised. I had intimations of its coming from various sources and, indeed, from the secretary himself, but nothing definite. It opens the field for the nomination."

'Does that mean that you will enter?" "Yes, it does. I have said to my friends that, having given Illinois thirty years of earnest service—eight in the stare legislature, six in the governor's chair, eight in the lower house of congress, and nine in the senate-I would esteem it a great honor to have the delegation to the national Republican convention from Illinois support me for the presidential nomination,

CHICAGO, Feb.9.—Blaine's withdrawal is the political sensation of the hour. The members of the numerous Blaine clubs are much chagrined, but Harri-son's supporters are jubilant. The lead-ing Republicans of the state say that it certainly means Harrison's renomination at Minneapolis. Major Brockaway, president of the Illinois Blaine club, says it means victory for Harrison The means victory for Harrison. The Tribune, the Blaine organ of the northwest, accepts the resignation as final and says it points unerringly to Harrison's renomination. WASHINGTON, Feb. 10. — President Harrison and his cabinet officials were in session an hour and a half yesterday. The business before the meeting related shows entirely to the Bebying almost entirely to the Behring sea mat ter, but as Lord Salisbury's approval of the treaty submitting the subject to ar-bitration had not yet been received by Sir Julian Pauncefote nothing was ac complished. Secretary Blaine came in some time after the rest of the cabinet gathered, and is said to have been in particularly good spirits. There was, of course, some discussion of the scoretary's letter of withdrawal, and it was the unanimous expression of the menabers that President Harrison's renom nation by acclamation was practically assured. The prospect of this is said to have been highly satisfactory to every one of his official family.

HOTEL ROYAL DISASTER.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.-A disaster par-Friday, Feb. 5. alleling in harror and probably exceed-ing in loss of life the terrible occurrence in Park Place, the remembrance of which is fresh in the public minds, occurred here early vesterday morning The Hotel Royal, at Fortieth street and

Sixth avenue, was burned to the ground and a large number of people were burned to death, many suffocated by smoke and others crushed to death in

It was a few minutes after 3 o'clock yesterday morning when the flames were first discovered. They never had better fuel. The bui'ding was composed of several old structures, all amalgamated into the Hotel Royal years ago. So far as can be learned the flames kindled in the shaft of the elevator in the basement at about the middle depth of the building.

Harrowing scenes were witnessed by those who were assembled in sight of the burning house. One unknown man sprang from a window on the third floor and was dashed to death on the side-walk below before the horrified eyes of the spectators. This terrible scene was enacted on the Sixth avenue side of the house. A moment later another man leaped from a window on the Fortieth street side and was mangled to death. Shortly afterward two women jumped from windows on the Sixth avenue si Firemen and spectators helped to rescue the imprisoned guests and employes. Many were taken from windows where they had sought refuge from the flames and the firemen dared smoke and flames to save life

Mr. Frederick Uhlman, a well known dealer in Mops, lost everything in his room, including $12,000 in cash, several checks and notes and other valuable business documents.

Of the dead only seven have been iden-tified thus far. These are: Mrs. J. Co-hen, aged 20, wife of a Toronto busi-ness man; Louis Levy, aged 43, of Lon-don, Ontario; Henry J. Levy, clerk in a wholesale clothing store in this city; Mrs. Sarah Blake, of Sheidonville, Coun., ared 20; Alexted, A. Tourscend of Mer aged 30; Alonzo A. Townsend, of New Haven, Conn.; Elizabeth Donohue, a chambermaid at the hotel; Sarah Begley, housekeeper of the hotel.

All of these who were injured by the All of these who were injured by the fire excepting three—Walter Yates, Mrs. Meares and Miss Etta Green—have left the hospitals as cured. Of the three re-maining the condition of Miss Green Meares is suffering from shock and a number of contusions, but will pull through all right. Miss Green, who was a remarkably pretty and attractive girl, was the cashier of the Sturtevant house. Some of her friends identified her on Sunday night, but at their re-quest the hospital authorities would not give out her name.

There is still a great mass of ruins remaining in the further end of the vation over against the wall of the Forvalue over against the wall of the For-tieth street portion of the building, which is still standing. It is behind this wall that the elevator shaft was located, aud over which the upper hallways con-verged. There, it is expected, the great-est number of bodies will be found.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.-The worst in regard to the Hotel Royal fire is now known. Seventeen persons in all, eleven of whom were women and six men, is the total sum of the dead. Of these seven have been positively identified and two others partially so. Last evening the contractor, Mr. Galligan, withdrew his men from the ruins. He said that every inch of the debris had been overhauled, and that there were no more bodies in the ruins. The unidentified bodies will be buried by the charity commissioners tomorrow

King of Medicines

Scrofulous Humor - A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed years. In that time ten or eleven sores ap-peared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well. "Early in 1836 I went-to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.
